A—111 Pre-Application Process

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Before the Application process begins, staff deliver an up-front Texas Works message to the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) applicants explaining that:

- TANF is temporary and has time limits;
- there are other alternatives and options for the applicant instead of TANF benefits;
- an applicant should consider jobs and other resources (such as child support) before pursuing TANF;
- if an applicant chooses to apply for assistance, the individual is requesting help finding a job; and
- even if an applicant chooses not to apply for TANF, the individual still may apply for Medicaid and the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) to support employment while working toward self-sufficiency.

Staff must consider and determine which messages are appropriate for a particular applicant.

A—112 Application Assistance

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

If an applicant needs help completing the application packet, a volunteer or staff member must help. Anyone helping the applicant complete a paper application must initial the completed sections or sign the form showing that a volunteer or staff person helped complete the application.

A—113 Application Requests and Submissions

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Applications must be given to anyone who requests the form. Each household has the right to file an application on the same day the household contacts the office during office hours. The local office must ensure that a person can obtain an application packet within 15 minutes of coming into the office.

Staff must advise the household that an applicant does not have to be interviewed before filing the application. The household may file an incomplete application as long as the form contains the applicant's name, address, and signature as explained in A-121, Receipt of Application.

by mail, staff send an application packet on the same day of the telephone request. For written requests, including those received electronically or by fax, staff mail an application packet on the same day the request is received.

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) must accommodate reasonable requests to receive communications by alternative means or at alternative locations. The individual must specify in writing the alternate mailing address or means of contact, and include a statement that using the home mailing address or normal means of contact could endanger the individual.

Note: Individuals applying for Medical Programs may also use the Marketplace-only applications explained in A-113.1, Application Forms. These applications can be submitted to HHSC in person, by fax, by mail, or via an account transfer explained in A-118, Coordination with the Federal Marketplace.

A—113.1 Application Forms

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

YourTexasBenefits.com

The online application on YourTexasBenefits.com integrates HHSC programs into one single application flow. Applicants only see the questions relevant to the programs they request. A PDF copy of the application information is created for applicants and staff to view.

YourTexasBenefits.com can be used to apply for the following benefits:

- SNAP food benefits;
- TANF cash help for families;
- health care for:
 - children;
 - adults caring for a child;
 - adults not caring for a child (if this is selected, YourTexasBenefits.com will allow applicants to identify themselves as a refugee; if they are not a refugee, they will be redirected to HealthCare.gov);
 - pregnant women;
 - people age 65 or older or with a disability; and
 - people under age 26 who were in foster care in Texas and receiving federally funded Medicaid at age 18 or older; and
 - people under age 21 who were in foster care in Texas or had an Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) agreement at age 18 or older;
- Medicare Savings Programs; and
- long-term services and supports for:
 - people with intellectual or developmental disabilities; and
 - people with no intellectual or developmental disabilities.

Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits

Form H1010 integrates Texas Works programs into one single application.

The addendum to Form H1010 — Form H1010-M, Applying for or Renewing Medicaid or CHIP? — captures the information needed to make an eligibility determination for Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

Form H1010 can be used to apply for the following benefits:

- SNAP food benefits;
- TANF cash help for families; and
- health care for:
 - children;
 - adults caring for a child;
 - adults not caring for a child;
 - pregnant women;
 - people under age 26 who were in foster care in Texas and receiving federally funded Medicaid at age 18 or older; and
 - people under age 21 who were in foster care in Texas or had an ICPC agreement at age 18 or older.

Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application

Form H1205 can only be used to apply for health care benefits.

Form H1205 can be used to apply for the following benefits:

- health care for:
 - children;
 - adults caring for a child;
 - adults not caring for a child;
 - pregnant women; and
 - people under age 26 who were in foster care at age 18 or older; and
 - people under age 21 who were in foster care in Texas or had an ICPC agreement at age 18 or older.

Applications Solely Used by the Marketplace

The online Marketplace application is a single interactive application based on an applicant's selections. In addition, there are three paper applications for the Marketplace:

- Application for Health Coverage — for anyone who needs health coverage, but does not need help paying for health insurance costs.
 - Used by applicants who want to purchase a Qualified Health Plan (QHP) through the Marketplace.
- Application for Health Coverage & Help Paying Costs (Short Form) — for single adults who need help paying for health care coverage (mostly for states offering Medicaid expansion coverage to single adults ages 19 through 64) and who:
 - are not married, do not claim any tax dependents, and cannot be claimed as a tax dependent on someone else's federal income tax return;
 - were not formerly in the foster care system; and
 - are not American Indian (AI)/Alaska Native (AN).
- Application for Health Coverage & Help Paying Costs — for anyone who needs help paying for health care coverage, including:
 - people who are married, have tax dependents, or can be claimed as a tax dependent on someone else's federal income tax return;
 - people with or without current health care coverage;
 - families that include immigrants; and
 - people who were formerly in the foster care system.

Since these applications do not contain additional questions that were included on Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application, send out Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to request any additional information necessary to make an eligibility determination.

A—114 Applications Causing Conflicts of Interest

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The advisor must avoid the appearance of impropriety or conflict of interest when determining eligibility. The advisor is not allowed to work on a case if the individual is a relative (by blood or marriage), roommate, dating companion, supervisor, or someone under the advisor's supervision. The advisor may never work on a case in which the advisor is a case participant or an authorized representative (AR).

The advisor:

- may provide anyone with an application and information about how and where to apply for benefits;
- may help a person gather any documents needed to verify eligibility; but
- must not take any other role in determining eligibility.

The advisor must consult with the supervisor if the individual is a friend, acquaintance or coworker. Generally, the advisor should not work on cases involving these individuals, but the degree and nature of the relationship should be taken into account. In remote areas where it is impractical for another person to process the application, the unit supervisor should be contacted to determine the best method to process the application.

A—114.1 Applications Submitted by Texas Works or Medicaid for the Elderly and People with Disabilities Employees

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

All Programs

Give special handling to applications and redeterminations submitted by Texas Works and Medicaid for the Elderly and People with Disabilities employees.

- A Texas Works or MEPD employee at the next higher administrative position must complete the eligibility determination for another Texas Works employee.
- A designated supervisor must complete the eligibility determination for a Texas Works or MEPD supervisor or higher position.
- The employee's immediate supervisor or someone in the direct line of supervision may not process the Texas Works or MEPD employee's application.

Facility work is the primary assignment for Outstationed Worker Program (OWP) staff. Staff will process workload following the OWP Hierarchy order below:

- OWP Lobby Facility Workload
- OWP Statewide Facility Workload
- Regional EWMS Teams (Supplemental) Workload

Staff follow the most current business processes found in the Eligibility Operations Procedures Manual to complete this workload.

The file date is the date HHSC receives the application from the contracted facility.

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

A—116.2 Applications from Residents of a Homeless Shelter

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

People staying in homeless shelters are potentially eligible for SNAP, regardless of the number of meals the facility provides, if the homeless shelter is an approved institution. A homeless shelter is an approved institution if it is a:

- public or private, nonprofit shelter for the homeless; or
- certified SNAP retailer.

Verify the homeless shelter is an approved institution, if questionable.

People staying in homeless shelters that are not approved institutions are potentially eligible for SNAP if the facility provides half of their meals or less. Consider this when determining if a person staying in a facility is institutionalized.

Homeless households must meet the same household composition, income, and resource standards as other households. If the household pays for room in a shelter, consider the payments as shelter expenses.

A—116.3 Applications for Babies Born to Women in Prison

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

A pregnant woman who enters the state prison system is sent to the Texas Department of Criminal Justice women's facility. Before the baby is born, the prison social worker assists the pregnant woman to arrange for a responsible individual to pick up the baby from the hospital. The pregnant woman is sent to a prison section of the University of Texas Medical Branch (UTMB) in Galveston a few weeks before she is due to deliver, unless an emergency occurs earlier. If an emergency does occur, she will deliver at a closer facility when necessary. Before releasing the baby from the hospital, UTMB requires the individual who picks up the baby to complete an application for Medicaid. Designated Texas Works advisors ensure that the baby is certified for Medicaid using special application processing procedures and follow-up activities.

The designated advisors coordinate Medicaid certification by other advisors in special situations when the newborn needs to be added to an active case. Upon request by the designated advisors, which must be documented in the case record, an advisor must certify the newborn:

- for Medicaid (TP 43) from the date of birth (DOB), not the day the caretaker brought the baby home from the hospital; or
- after normal application time frames have passed. If needed, staff may follow procedures to request a timeliness exception.

State law requires Medicaid coverage for Texas newborns for at least 28 days after birth and possibly longer if the child is hospitalized at that time. If the hospital followed required procedures before releasing the baby, but the baby does not meet eligibility requirements for Medicaid, the designated advisor and State Office Data Integrity (SODI) staff certify the baby for TA 62, MA - State-Paid Coverage. Examples of not meeting eligibility requirements are:

- the individual caring for the child does not reside in Texas, and the baby will be taken out of state;
- the individual caring for the child refuses to apply for Medicaid; or
- the household is over the income limit.

A—117 Applications Filed Online through YourTexasBenefits.com

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

When the household submits an application online, a process formats the information entered on the online application and imports certain data into TIERS. The process creates the PDF file of the application that is stored in the image repository and is viewable in the State Portal.

TIERS edits the data passed by YourTexasBenefits.com. The fields must contain valid characters and be valid values to be imported into TIERS. Dates must be in the correct format, fields that are numeric must contain only numbers and data must be in accepted ranges for fields with values such as Yes or No, or ZIP codes.

Applications that do not contain required data or have data that may be invalid may be rejected. When an application is rejected for electronic processing into TIERS, the system creates a non-SSP Application Registration Task List Manager (TLM) task.

Applications that are valid and accepted as electronic input into TIERS have an Application Registration TLM task created for them. The task is routed to the appropriate office based on Type of Assistance (TOA) and individual ZIP code for the clerk to perform the Application Registration process task.

A—117.1 Application Registration

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Clerks select the Application Registration task and review the application. Staff will perform Application Registration using certain pre-filled data from the online application that was entered by the individual. All online applications must have Application Registration processed even if the case is approved. It is important to associate the online application to the existing case.

A logical unit of work (LUW) is in Application Registration; Self-Service Application Search. Clerks search for the self-service application using any of the fields in the search area. The search results will be displayed by the head of household name even when the search was not on the head of household.

After successful Application Registration, an appointment or process task will be created for Data Collection, depending upon the programs requested on the online application.

The Application T number is changed to a case number upon clicking Submit in Application Registration.

A—117.2 Data Collection

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

When performing Data Collection, the data entered in the online application is displayed for the advisor either as:

- pre-filled TIERS fields and a message at the top of the page stating that the fields are pre-filled from self-service data (for new applications); or
- YourTexasBenefits.com information that must be addressed, which displays in a comparison pop-up window (existing cases).

Click on the C icon in the Details page to access the comparison pop-up.

The comparison pop-up window displays the current data in TIERS and the data from the online application to allow the advisor to select the correct data to use in Data Collection.

The advisor may choose to:

- accept all TIERS data,
- accept all YourTexasBenefits.com data, or
- select each data element to be used individually from the comparison pop-up.

These comparison windows are displayed on most Data Collection pages through Resources. There is no YourTexasBenefits.com information or comparison windows in the Program, Income or Expenses pages. The advisor must complete the Data Collection driver flow.

A screen is added in the driver flow just before Run Eligibility. This screen is a summary screen that displays each LUW with YourTexasBenefits.com comparison data and the status of that data. Once the case is disposed, all YourTexasBenefits.com comparison data that was not resolved or processed will be marked completed by the system.

A—118 Coordination with the Federal Marketplace

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

HHSC and the federal Marketplace coordinate eligibility determinations for Texas Works Medicaid and CHIP. Information provided by the applicant or verified for the applicant is sent through an interface between the Marketplace and HHSC. The two systems — the Marketplace and HHSC — transfer an applicant's information from one system to the other. The transfer of application information is referred to as an account transfer. An account transfer is the way in which a client's information moves between the Marketplace and HHSC.

A—118.1 Applications Received from the Marketplace

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

The Marketplace sends the individual's or household's information electronically to HHSC via an account transfer when:

- the Marketplace determines the applicant is potentially eligible for Medical Programs available through HHSC; or
- the applicant requests a final eligibility determination for Texas Works Medicaid or CHIP from HHSC. This is referred to as a "full determination."

Applications sent via account transfers from the Marketplace are received by staff in the same manner as an application from YourTexasBenefits.com.

When an application is sent to HHSC via an account transfer, a PDF is populated with information provided by the applicant on the Marketplace application, along with a "Verifications" section that provides information on any verifications performed by the Marketplace. Advisors should enter the information provided on the PDF into TIERS.

Individuals cannot be required to provide the same information more than once, regardless of whether they apply through the Marketplace or through HHSC. This applies to any information provided on an application, as well as any verification materials provided by the applicant.

Related Policy

Verifications Provided by the Marketplace, A-118.1.2

A—118.1.1 Non-MAGI Account Transfers

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

A non-Modified Adjusted Gross Income (non-MAGI) account transfer is an account transfer that is sent from the Marketplace to HHSC when the Marketplace has identified that an applicant may be eligible for Medicaid for the Elderly and People with Disabilities (MEPD) because the applicant reported being age 65 or older, having a disability, or being blind. In order for an individual to apply for MEPD programs, they must submit an MEPD application, Form H1200, Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits.

Advisors must deny the application as "Filed in Error" and send the applicant Form H1200 if:

- the PDF included in the account transfer indicates "Medicaid Non-MAGI Eligibility" in the Referral Activity Eligibility Reason for an individual on the application;
- a "full determination" is not requested; and
- a determination for Texas Works Medicaid or CHIP is not listed for any other applicant on the application.

A—118.1.2 Verifications Provided by the Marketplace

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

For Marketplace account transfers, the PDF also includes a "Verifications" section. Advisors should use the verification section as follows:

- If the Marketplace has verified the applicant's Social Security number (SSN) or citizenship status using data from the Social Security Administration (SSA), advisors can identify that information in TIERS as "Verified by SSA."
- If the Marketplace has verified the applicant's alien status using data from the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), advisors can identify that information in TIERS as "Verified by DHS."
- All other applicant information, such as income, must be verified by an HHSC advisor according to HHSC procedures explained in C-900, Verification and Documentation. If the Marketplace has verified the information according to HHSC procedures, then that data must be treated as verified.

A—118.2 Applications Sent to the Marketplace

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

When HHSC determines that a client is ineligible for Texas Works Medicaid or CHIP (due to Texas eligibility requirements), or that the client is only eligible for TP 56, Medically Needy with Spend Down; TP 32, Medically Needy with Spend Down-Emergency; or three months prior Medicaid, HHSC transfers that individual's account information to the Marketplace to be assessed for eligibility for other health care coverage programs. Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, informs the client that they have been transferred to the Marketplace.

A—119 Correspondence Options

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

A—119.1 Electronic Correspondence

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The head of household or authorized representative (AR) for a case may each choose at any time to receive most eligibility correspondence electronically rather than through the mail. By selecting this option, applicable forms and notices are posted to the client's or AR's YourTexasBenefits.com case account, and the client or AR receives a cell phone text message or email reminder each time a new form or notice has been posted to their account. Clients may print a copy of the correspondence from their account or request that a paper copy be mailed to them. Any forms or notices that are not available electronically will continue to be mailed to the client.

Once a head of household or AR has opted to receive electronic correspondence through their case account on YourTexasBenefits.com or by indicating that preference to staff through 2-1-1 (Option 2), a confirmation cell phone text message or email reminder will be sent to the client. The head of household or AR must enter the code provided in that confirmation message in their YourTexasBenefits.com case account in order to confirm their choice to receive electronic correspondence. Once confirmed, Form H1013, Electronic Correspondence Confirmation Letter, will automatically be mailed to the head of household or AR to further confirm the selection and to provide instructions about how to opt out of receiving electronic correspondence.

After a failed delivery of a text or email alert, the client is automatically unsubscribed from electronic correspondence. The eligibility system then automatically prints and mails to the client a paper copy of the correspondence that failed to reach the client with the original generation date, attached to Form H1015, Electronic Correspondence Failed Delivery. The client will receive future correspondence through the mail. However, the client may opt to subscribe again to receive electronic correspondence and start over the confirmation process.

A—119.2 Preferred Language for Correspondence

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The head of household or AR for a case has the ability to choose the language in which certain forms and notices are generated from the eligibility system. The head of household or AR can select their primary household language from the following options:

- English
- Spanish
- Both English and Spanish
- Vietnamese*

* Clients who select Vietnamese as their primary household language will receive correspondence in English, and the eligibility system will automatically attach to the form or notice the Vietnamese Translation Interpreter Form, which directs clients to translation services.

Once a primary household language is selected, both the head of household and AR will receive correspondence in that language.

A—121 Receipt of Application

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

All Programs

Applications must be signed before certification.

TANF

An application is valid if it contains the applicant's name, the applicant's address, and the signature of the:

- applicant; or
- applicant's designated authorized representative (AR).

SNAP

An application is valid if it contains the applicant's name, the applicant's address, and the signature of:

- the applicant;
- another responsible household member; or
- the applicant's designated AR.

Medical Programs

An application is valid if it contains the applicant's name, the applicant's address, and the signature of any of the following people:

- the adult or minor applicant;
- the applicant's designated AR;
- an adult applying on behalf of a minor child; or
- a person 19 or older who:
 - is included in the applicant's MAGI household composition; or
 - has a tax relationship with the applicant.

Note: Applicants are not required to live at the same physical address to apply for each other. For example, a non-custodial parent may apply for Medicaid and CHIP on behalf of their child if the parent expects to claim the child as a tax dependent on their federal income tax return.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

Do not require a new application when a household has an active Medicaid type program and requests to add Medicaid for another child for whom a new EDG is needed. Add the child to the case per additions to the household policy.

Exception: Do not add more children to a case where a Medicaid EDG was reinstated due to the child's release from a juvenile facility. The household must submit an application for the other children. To identify these EDGs, view the Individual – Medicaid History page for the active child. If the Juvenile Placement History field indicates "Yes", the EDG has been reinstated.

This policy does not apply when there is no existing Children's Medicaid EDG. For example, do not add a child when the only other child is certified for Medicaid because the certified child receives SSI. A separate application is required to initiate coverage for the child being added.

- does not include a request for programs different from programs currently received by the applicant; and
- is not needed for a redetermination of any active program.

Example: If a household submits an application for SNAP on January 2 and later submits one or more additional applications for SNAP that are different from the one the household filed on January 2, and are not needed for a redetermination of any active program, the additional application submitted is considered a duplicate application.

Duplicate Application Received While Original Application Is Being Processed

If an office receives a duplicate application while staff are in the process of making an eligibility determination (an application or redetermination) based on the original application submitted, staff must:

- treat the duplicate application as a report of change; and
- assign the duplicate application as a change to the advisor currently processing the case.

The advisor processing the original application must:

- review the duplicate application for reported changes;
- document the duplicate application was reviewed for changes;
- document the type of changes, if changes were reported on the duplicate application; and
- use information provided by the household on both the original application and the duplicate application when determining eligibility for the household.

Duplicate Application Received After Original Application Is Processed

If an office receives a duplicate application and the applicant has already been certified for assistance based on another application previously submitted, staff must review the duplicate application to determine if the household is applying for programs other than what the household is currently receiving and if any redeterminations are due.

If the household is applying for different types of programs, the application is not a duplicate application and must be processed as a new application for assistance.

If the household is not applying for a different type of program and there are no redeterminations, office staff must:

- treat the duplicate application as a report of change; and
- assign the duplicate application as a change indicating "duplicate application."

Staff are not required to create a T number for TIERS cases and/or dispose of a duplicate application as "filed in error." If staff erroneously create a T number, staff must deny/dispose the T number as filed in error, in addition to other required actions listed above.

Note: If the office that receives the duplicate application does not normally process reported changes, staff may mark the application form as a duplicate application and route it to appropriate staff following local office procedures.

Advisors who process the duplicate application as a reported change must review the application to determine if any changes are indicated and take the following action. If no change is indicated on the duplicate application, the advisor must:

- document receipt of the duplicate application in TIERS Case Comments;
- route the duplicate application to be imaged as part of the electronic case record;
- sustain the benefits for each Texas Works program the household receives; and
- send an individual notice to the household that eligibility for benefits has not changed.

If a change is indicated on the duplicate application, staff must follow the procedures outlined in B600, Changes, when processing changes reported on the duplicate application.

A—121.3 Receipt of Identical Application

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

An identical application is one or more exact copy of an application previously filed by an applicant.

Example: If a household faxes in an application on January 2 and later submits an exact copy of the same application, which includes the same signature and date of the application the household previously submitted, the newly submitted application is considered an identical application.

Required Action on Identical Application Received

If an identical application is received, staff must write "Identical Application" on the front page of the application and route the application for imaging. The vendor will image the identical application and add it to the electronic case record. No other action is needed.

A—122 Filing the Application

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

Staff should encourage households to file an application the same day the household or its representative contacts the office in person, by telephone, fax, or mail, and expresses interest in obtaining assistance. Staff should explain how to file an application. Application forms are also available at YourTexasBenefits.com and can be downloaded, printed, and electronically submitted.

The file date is the day HHSC receives an application form containing the applicant's name, address, and appropriate signature. This is day zero in the application process. Staff use this as the file date to determine eligibility for the programs the household requests upon filing the application through the time of the interview.

For electronically filed applications, the file date is the date the applicant clicks the "Submit Application" button in YourTexasBenefits.com.

Exception: For all applications received outside of business hours when HHSC is closed, including weekends and holidays, the file date is the next business day.

The household must file another application form to apply for additional programs after the interview is held, even if the case was pended and is not completed at the time of the request for a new program. Exception: If the household requests three months prior Medicaid coverage according to policies in A-831.2, Eligibility for Three Months Prior Coverage, staff use a previously filed application with a file date that corresponds with the three-month prior period as a basis for determining eligibility.

Once an application is filed, staff must take the following actions:

- enter the file date in the appropriate section on the application form, if received as a paper document;
- for SNAP and TP 40, screen the application for expedited service eligibility;
- upon request, give the household Form H1800, Receipt for Application/Medicaid Report/Verification/Report of Change;
- register the application when required; and

- schedule an interview appointment for the applicant when required as soon as possible.

See special procedures in this section to determine the file date for TP 40, TP 40 Continuous Coverage and TP 45 Retroactive Coverage.

The file date is the date an individual submits an application to any HHSC office. The application must be faxed or mailed to the correct office the same day it is returned.

For electronically filed applications, the file date is the date the applicant clicks the “Submit Application” button in YourTexasBenefits.com. For applications received outside of business hours when HHSC is closed, including weekends and holidays, the file date is the next business day.

A—122.1 Application Signature

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

The applicant is required to provide a signed application form before being certified.

If the agency receives an application without a signature and the application has not been date-stamped, the application is considered invalid. Return the application with a letter and a pre-paid envelope explaining that the application must be signed before the agency can establish a file date.

If the agency accepts an application without a signature and the application has been date-stamped, the date the application is received is considered a valid file date. Send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, along with the signature page requesting a signature. If the applicant fails to provide a signed application by the final due date, deny the application for failure to provide information.

Eligibility Support Vendor Action on Unsigned Applications

If the Eligibility Support vendor receives an unsigned application the application is considered invalid. Within one business day, return the application to the household with a letter and a pre-paid envelope explaining that the application must be signed before a file date can be established.

If the Eligibility Support vendor accepts an application without a signature and it is not identified as such before data entry or the data entry date is more than one business day after the receipt date of the application, the file date is the receipt date of the application. The missing signature is treated as missing information.

Electronically Filed Applications

All Programs

Applications submitted online through YourTexasBenefits.com by the applicant or authorized representative (AR), are considered electronically signed.

Exception: Do not consider the application electronically signed when a non-applicant or non-AR completes and submits the online application for the household. In this situation, a pre-populated application is mailed to the household requesting a written signature from the applicant.

Applications Filed by Phone

For certain programs, an applicant or AR may complete and sign an application by phone:

Program	Complete Application by Phone	Sign Application by Phone
SNAP	No	No
TANF	Yes	No
Medical Programs	Yes	Yes

An applicant or AR who requests to apply for all programs by phone is informed that the option to complete and sign an application for all programs by phone is not available. The customer care representative directs the applicant or AR to submit an application online through YourTexasBenefits.com, by mail, by fax, or at a local office.

TANF

The applicant or AR completes an application over the phone by providing their information to the customer care representative. However, the applicant or AR does not have the option to sign the application by phone. The customer care representative enters the information provided by the applicant or AR through YourTexasBenefits.com and a pre-populated application is mailed to the household requesting a written signature from the applicant or AR.

SNAP

The applicant or AR does not have the option to complete or sign the application by phone.

Medical Programs

The applicant or AR may complete and sign an application over the phone by:

- providing their information over the phone to the customer care representative; and
- signing the application over the phone by stating their name and agreeing to a penalty of perjury statement read by the customer care representative.

The customer care representative enters and submits the information provided by the applicant or AR through YourTexasBenefits.com.

Note: TW Advisors, MEPD Specialists, and other HHSC staff cannot accept telephonic signatures.

Applications signed and submitted over the phone by the applicant or AR, are considered signed by phone except in the following situations:

- the applicant or AR declines to sign the application by phone; or
- a non-applicant or non-AR completes and signs the application by phone for the household.

Correspondence is sent based on the following actions taken by the applicant or AR:

If a signed first page of Form H1010 is received, send Form H1020 requesting a signature on the last page of Form H1010 by the final due date. Deny applicants who fail to provide a signed last page of Form H1010 for failure to provide information.

Note: If the applicant only provides a signed last page of Form H1010, do not require an additional signature for the first page of Form H1010.

Medical Programs

If an applicant signs and returns only Form H1010-MR, MAGI Renewal Addendum, with no corresponding application, the application is considered invalid. Make an attempt to call the applicant and inform them to file an application. No action is taken on Form H1010-MR, MAGI Renewal Addendum, without a corresponding application.

If the applicant returns a signed application without Form H1010-MR, the application is considered incomplete. A—122.2 Scheduling Appointments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 40, TP 43, TP 44, TP 45 and TP 48

Provide the individual with an appointment on Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice, on the same day the individual submits an application unless the individual is interviewed on the same day. An appointment is required even if the application is filed with only a name, address and signature.

Exception: Staff sends Form H1830 no later than the next business day if the individual submits the application by mail or in an office drop box.

This policy applies to all new applications and untimely SNAP applications that are filed after the last day of the last benefit month.

Note: Staff should attempt to schedule the interview on a date and time that accommodates the needs of the household, such as after working hours if the only adult is working.

When scheduling a telephone interview, staff enters the individual's telephone number and the appropriate time, using one-hour increments. For example, a telephone interview will be conducted between 1 p.m. and 2 p.m. Local offices may choose to establish a shorter time increment.

TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 40, TP 43, TP 44, TP 45 and TP 48

There is no interview requirement for Children's Medicaid or Medicaid for Pregnant Women. Staff must process the application unless the individual requests an office appointment.

Exceptions:

- If the applicant was previously denied for failure to provide Form H1024, Subject: Self-Declaration Notice, or for missing an appointment related to Health Care Orientation (HCO) or THSteps, staff should schedule a telephone appointment and deliver the HCO, or remind the individual about the importance of the THSteps checkup at that time.
- Staff conducts a telephone interview for an initial application or renewal when HHSC receives conflicting information related to household composition or income that affects eligibility and the information cannot be verified through other means, such as an associated EDG.

A—122.3 Registering an Application

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Staff must perform Application Registration (App Reg) within one workday after the file date when application registration is required.

To prevent overpayments or incorrectly providing benefits, staff must take the following action before registering an application:

- screen each application filed; and
- associate the old case number in File Clearance when appropriate.

Perform inquiry on all household members applying for benefits listed on the application for assistance. Use Social Security numbers (SSNs), case name search, and/or available case or EDG numbers to determine case status.

If inquiry shows ...then ...

- no record, follow established local office procedures for processing applications. check case/EDG status (active or denied). If the case is active, determine if the individual is currently active on another case in the same program. If the individual is:
- an individual record,
- not currently active in the same program, register the application.
 - entitled to dual SNAP participation as a resident of a shelter for battered persons, follow procedures in B454.1, Duplicate Participation Procedures.
 - currently active in the same program and is not entitled to dual benefits, take appropriate action to prevent duplicate participation. Process an overpayment, if applicable.
- If the case is denied, associate the old case number in File Clearance after determining that this is the same household.
- a SNAP-CAP or SNAP-SSI case record,
- check for CBS status in TIERS inquiry. SNAP-CAP will be listed as FS-SNAP under Current EDG Affiliations in case inquiry results and under Current Eligibility in individual inquiry results. SNAP-SSI will be listed as FS-SSI under Current EDG Affiliations in case inquiry results and under Current Eligibility in individual inquiry results. Follow established local office procedures applicable to the specific case situation.

SNAP

Staff must review the application for assistance to determine if the household is requesting a telephone interview due to a hardship.

Note: Staff use Form H1000-A, Notice of Application, to register applications and to obtain a unique EDG number when:

- TIERS is down for an extended period;
- the household is not known to TIERS;
- the household is eligible for expedited services; and
- the Administrative Terminal Application (ATA) must be used to assign the EDG number and issue benefits.

A—123 Withdrawal of an Application

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The individual may voluntarily withdraw an application any time before certification.

SNAP

If someone other than the head of household, spouse, a responsible household member, or an AR requests a withdrawal, staff should contact the household to confirm the withdrawal.

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

TA 66, TA 74, TA 75, TA 76, TA 83, TA 86 and TP 42

Presumptive eligibility \(PE\) provides short-term medical coverage to pregnant women, MBCC applicants, children under age 19, parents and caretaker relatives of dependent children under age 19, and former foster care children. PE provides full fee-for-service Medicaid with the exception of pregnant women. Pregnant women receive ambulatory prenatal care only.

Qualified hospitals \(QHs\) determine PE for all groups except MBCC.

Qualified entities \(QEs\) determine PE for pregnant women and MBCC applicants. For MBCC applicants, only QEs that are also Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) Breast and Cervical Cancer Services contractors may make MBCC PE determinations, following the process outlined in X100, Application Processing.

A—124.1 Eligible Groups

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

The following groups can receive presumptive eligibility coverage:

- Children:
 - MA-Children Under 1 Presumptive — TA 74
 - MA-Children 1–5 Presumptive — TA 75
 - MA-Children 6–18 Presumptive — TA 76
- Former Foster Care Children (MA-FFCC Presumptive — TA 83)
- Pregnant Women (MA-Pregnant Women Presumptive — TP 42)
- Parents and Other Caretaker Relatives (MA-Parents and Caretaker Relatives Presumptive — TA 86)

A—124.2 File Clearance

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

TIERS performs automated file clearance for each individual determined presumptively eligible if the individual has a 100 percent match in TIERS or if there is no match for the individual in TIERS. For individuals for whom TIERS cannot perform automated file clearance, TIERS triggers an alert to create a TLM task for staff to manually do file clearance for the individual. TIERS routes manual file clearance tasks to the Out-stationed Worker Program (OWP) queue for assignment and processing.

A—124.3 Task List Manager

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

When TIERS cannot automatically perform file clearance for an individual whom a QH/QE has determined to be presumptively eligible, an OWP advisor needs to take action. TIERS creates the task "Process a File Clearance Failure for Presumptive Eligibility" and sends it to an OWP advisor based on the applicant's ZIP code.

To complete the task, the advisor:

1. Selects the Work icon.
2. Selects the individual who needs file clearance from the Presumptive Eligibility Individual — Summary page.
3. Matches the PE individual to the TIERS individual on the PE File Clearance — Results page.
4. Selects Auto Process PE on the File Clearance — Results page to complete the task once the advisor has performed file clearance for all individuals on the case.

The advisor can also manually clear the task. When an advisor searches for an application on the Self Service Application Search page, the SS Application Search Results section displays a Determine PE link if a PE individual on the case requires manual file clearance. TIERS displays the Presumptive Eligibility Individual — Summary page when the advisor clicks the link.

Once the advisor completes file clearance, TIERS notifies TLM to close the QH/QE PE task.

A—124.4 Application Processing

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

The TLM routes applications for regular Medicaid from individuals whom a QH/QE has determined to be presumptively eligible for Medicaid to an OWP advisor for processing. If the QH has an OWP advisor, the TLM assigns the application to that advisor for processing. If the QH does not have an OWP advisor or a QE submits the application, the TLM routes the application to the regional OWP queue.

Process the applications using current policy and application processing time frames. See B112, Deadlines. If both a PE task for file clearance and a regular Medicaid application exist for the same person, clear the PE task first.

A—124.5 Verifications

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Use standard verification requirements when processing an application for regular Medicaid from an individual determined presumptively eligible. See C900, Verification and Documentation.

Related Policy

Verifications, C1113.4

A—124.6 Medical Effective Date

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The medical effective date for PE is the date that the QH or QE determines the individual is presumptively eligible for Medicaid.

Note: An individual is not eligible for PE coverage if the individual is currently certified for Medicaid, CHIP or CHIP perinatal.

If the individual does not apply for regular Medicaid, PE coverage ends the last day of the month after the month of the PE determination (see scenario 1 below).

If the individual submits Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application, or Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, HHSC determines whether the individual is eligible for regular Medicaid. If the person is not eligible for regular Medicaid, the individual's PE coverage ends the date that HHSC determines the individual is ineligible (see scenario 2 below). If the person is eligible for regular Medicaid, the person's PE coverage ends when HHSC makes the Medicaid eligibility determination, following cutoff rules.

If an individual is Medicaid-eligible during the application month, the individual receives Medicaid from the first of that month through the PE MED. Regular Medicaid coverage for the ongoing period starts once the PE period ends (see scenarios 3 and 4 below).

Exception: Since PE for pregnant women provides only limited prenatal services, ongoing Medicaid coverage overlays the PE coverage (see scenario 5 below).

Examples:

PE Scenarios

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Individual does not apply for regular Medicaid | A child is determined eligible for MA-Children 6–18 Presumptive on February 2. Her mother does not submit an application for regular Medicaid. The child's PE coverage ends on March 31. |
| 2. Individual is ineligible for regular Medicaid | A child is determined eligible for MA-Children Under 1 Presumptive on April 4. Her father submits an application for regular Medicaid on the same date. HHSC determines on April 20 that the child is not eligible for regular Medicaid. Her PE coverage ends on April 20. |
| 3. Individual is eligible for regular Medicaid (HHSC makes eligibility determination before cutoff) | A child is determined eligible for MA-Children 1–5 Presumptive on March 6. His mother submits an application for regular Medicaid on the same date. HHSC determines on March 15 (before cutoff) that the child is eligible for regular Medicaid. His PE coverage ends March 31. He is certified for regular Medicaid effective March 1 to March 5 and April 1 through ongoing. |
| 4. Individual is eligible for regular Medicaid (HHSC makes eligibility determination after cutoff) | A former foster care child is determined eligible for MA-FFCC Presumptive on May 9. He submits an application for regular Medicaid on the same date. HHSC determines on May 22 (after cutoff) that the individual is eligible for regular Medicaid. His PE coverage ends June 30. He is certified for regular Medicaid effective May 1 to May 8 and July 1 through ongoing. |

5. Pregnant woman is eligible for regular Medicaid

A woman is determined eligible for MA-Pregnant Women Presumptive on June 4. She submits an application for regular Medicaid on the same date. HHSC determines on June 10 that the woman is eligible for regular Medicaid. Her PE coverage ends on June 30. Regular Medicaid overlays her PE coverage with an effective date of June 1.

A—124.7 Periods of Presumptive Eligibility

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Pregnant women are allowed one PE period per pregnancy.

For all other PE groups, an individual is allowed no more than one period of PE per two calendar years. Example: An individual receives PE for children ages 6–18 in June 2015. He cannot receive another period of PE until January 2017.

A—124.8 Fair Hearings

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Appeals and fair hearings do not apply to PE.

A—124.9 Questions About the Presumptive Eligibility Process

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

Refer a person with questions about their PE coverage dates to the QH/QE that made the PE determination. For questions about services covered by Medicaid, tell the person to call the Medicaid help line at 800-335-8957.

A—124.10 Presumptive Eligibility Forms

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Qualified hospital/qualified entity staff use the following forms in the presumptive eligibility process:

- Form H1265, Presumptive Eligibility \(PE\) Worksheet — Completed by the QH/QE and used to determine if an applicant is presumptively eligible.
- Form H1266, Short-term Medicaid Notice: Approved — Completed by the QH/QE and given to an individual determined presumptively eligible. This form notifies the individual about PE coverage and lists the eligibility start and end dates. If an individual takes this form to a local eligibility determination office and requests a temporary Medicaid identification card, give the person Form H1027-A, Medicaid Eligibility Verification.
- Form H1267, Short-term Medicaid Notice: Not Approved — Completed by the QH/QE and given to an individual determined ineligible for PE coverage. This form explains the reason for ineligibility and how to apply for regular Medicaid.

A—125 TP 45 Provider Referral Process

Revision 16-3; Effective July 1, 2016

TP 45

State Office Data Integrity (SODI) uses the Provider Referral Process when a hospital, birthing center, or Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) submits a referral directly to SODI for a newborn whose mother is Medicaid eligible. The provider does not submit a claim for payment to the claims administrator for the child at this time.

SODI researches eligibility files. After verifying the mother's Medicaid coverage, which can be retroactive, SODI creates a TP 45 EDG for the newborn.

Coverage for the child begins with the child's date of birth (DOB). The last month of coverage is the month the child turns age one, unless one of the following situations occurs.

- The hospital notifies SODI using Texas Department of State Health Services Form 7484, Hospital Report (Newborn Child or Children), that the child's mother relinquishes her parental rights.
 - If Form 7484 indicates a relinquishment but the new caretaker's information is incomplete or is not provided, SODI provides newborn Medicaid coverage from the child's DOB through the end of the month the child is relinquished.
 - If Form 7484 indicates a relinquishment and the new caretaker's name and address are provided, SODI completes two case actions. The first action is to process an open and close newborn Medicaid EDG with the birth mother as the case name. The coverage begins with the child's DOB and continues through the end of the month the child was relinquished. The second action is to open a newborn Medicaid case/EDG with the new caretaker as the case name. The coverage begins the first of the month after the original newborn Medicaid coverage ended and continues through the month of the child's first birthday.
- The child's mother received TP 42 Pregnant Women Presumptive coverage at the time of the child's birth and the mother's application for regular Medicaid coverage is denied. SODI certifies the child through the birth month.

The computer generates and sends the following documents for each EDG:

- A notice of the newborn's individual number to the referring provider and other providers, if identified on the provider's referral;
- Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card to the newborn's mother; and
- A notice informing the newborn's mother/caretaker:
 - that the child is eligible to receive medical coverage through the month the child turns age one, as long as the Texas residence requirement is met, and to report any changes concerning these eligibility requirements;
 - to report if information on Form H1027-A, Medicaid Eligibility Verification, is incorrect;
 - to report if the newborn's siblings receive TANF; and
 - if the mother's Medicaid end date changes because the child was not born in the anticipated month.

A—125.1 Advisor Action in Provider Referral Process

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 45

A task is created when a TP 45 EDG is established and the TIERS case contains an active SNAP or TANF EDG. The advisor must take the following actions once the advisor claims the newborn alert task.

If ...	then ...
the newborn is a mandatory member of a TANF-certified group or SNAP household,	process to add the child to the TANF or SNAP EDG as explained in B641.1 , Adding Newborns to the Case.
the child is not a mandatory member of a TANF-certified group, but the child's mother or caretaker provides additional information about the child (name, SSN, etc.),	add these changes to the TP 45 EDG.
the newborn's siblings are included in the MAGI household composition for a TP 43, 44, or 48,	take no action on the siblings' EDG until additional information is requested for the siblings. At that point, request verification of tax status and relationship for the newborn. If the mother provides verification of relationship for the newborn, add the newborn to the siblings' budget groups.
the child becomes ineligible for TP 45 before the child's first birthday,	deny TP 45 for the child, using the appropriate denial code.

A—125.2 Suspended Claim Process

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 45

The Medicaid provider sends a claim for a newborn child with the child's mother's claim to the claims administrator. If the claims administrator cannot find the child on HHSC's eligibility files, the claims administrator suspends the child's claim and sends an exception notice to State Office Data Integrity (SODI). SODI checks the child's mother's Medicaid eligibility. If the mother received Medicaid at the time of the child's birth, including a retroactive determination, SODI follows procedures in the Provider Referral Process to provide Medicaid coverage for the child.

A—125.3 Mandated TIERS Inquiry

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 45

Field staff must perform TIERS inquiry before providing coverage for a newborn when there is no evidence of SODI TP 45. Staff should inquire by the newborn's mother's individual number and look for a process date that is after the child's DOB.

- explain the ways to submit an application as outlined in A-113, Application Requests and Submissions; and
- explain that the Medicaid application process provides that if a child is found ineligible for Medicaid based on income, HHSC will test the child for CHIP and, if eligible, the Enrollment Broker will send an enrollment packet to the household.

* See A-820, Regular Medicaid Coverage, to apply the MED.

After determining a child is ineligible for Medicaid, TIERS will test eligibility for CHIP.

When the head of household does not provide their date of birth (DOB) and/or Social Security number (SSN), the following steps are taken to obtain the information:

- Call the household to try to obtain the correct DOB and/or SSN. Let the household know this information is voluntary and is not required to make an eligibility determination for the child; however, it will help expedite the process.
- If unable to obtain the DOB and/or SSN by telephone, continue to process the child's application for Medicaid.
- Select a random DOB for the caretaker/second parent, with a year between 1965 and 1975. Using randomly selected DOBs reduces or eliminates the problem of duplicate individual numbers.
- The SSN field is left blank if the correct number is not available.
- Staff ensure that all other demographic information is correct and include the individual's middle name, when available.

A—126.3.1 Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) Newborn Process

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP Perinatal, TP 36, TP 43 and TP 45

Income Above the Limit for Medicaid for Pregnant Women (TP 40)

When a CHIP perinatal mother whose household income is above the income limit for TP 40 applies for Medicaid for her newborn and HHSC hospital-based staff have information from the applicant or the hospital that the newborn is medically fragile and that the newborn is admitted into the NICU, HHSC hospital-based staff must certify the newborn using the following process:

- Upon receipt of an application for a Medicaid NICU newborn, HHSC hospital-based staff must perform inquiry to determine if the mother is on CHIP perinatal or whether the newborn has been assigned a TIERS individual identification (ID) number and is active on Medicaid.
- If the newborn is not active on Medicaid, staff must deny the CHIP perinatal and certify the eligible newborn for TP 43, if eligible, following existing policy.
- If not eligible, test the newborn for TP 56 and do not deny the newborn's CHIP perinatal coverage.
- If eligible, the newborn may receive TP 56 and CHIP perinatal coverage.

Income at or Below the Limit for Medicaid for Pregnant Women (TP 40)

When HHSC hospital-based staff have information from the applicant or the hospital that a newborn born to a CHIP perinatal mother whose household income is at or below the income limit for TP 40 is medically fragile and that the newborn is admitted into the NICU, HHSC hospital-based staff must certify the eligible mother for Emergency Medicaid and the newborn for TP 45, effective on the newborn's date of birth. The CHIP perinatal mother must submit Form H3038-P, CHIP Perinatal — Emergency Medical Services Certification, to the hospital. HHSC hospital-based staff must process Form H3038-P.

Upon receipt of Form H3038-P, HHSC hospital-based staff must:

- perform inquiry on the Newborn Perinatal Match Interface (Interfaces – TIERS Left Navigation) to verify the CHIP perinatal household's FPIL;
- use the date Form H3038-P is provided as the file date for both the Emergency Medicaid and Medicaid for the newborn child;
- certify the CHIP perinatal mother for Emergency Medicaid and deny the CHIP perinatal Eligibility Determination Group (EDG); and
- certify the eligible newborn for TP 45, effective on the newborn's date of birth.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP Perinatal, TP 40 and TP 36

A pregnant woman may apply for health care coverage using applications and ways to submit an application explained in A-113, Application Requests and Submissions.

When a pregnant woman applies for health care coverage, she will first be tested for TP 40 coverage. If ineligible for TP 40, TIERS will determine whether the woman is eligible for CHIP or CHIP perinatal.

CHIP perinatal coverage provides services to unborn children of pregnant women, regardless of age, who are at or below the program income limit and are ineligible for:

- Medicaid because of immigration status or income; or
- CHIP because of age or immigration status.

CHIP perinatal households are exempt from the:

- 90-day waiting period;
- cost-sharing (enrollment fees and co-payments); and
- six-month income check.

A—128.1 Inquiry for Pregnant Women

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

test for Medicaid eligibility.* If eligible, and it is:

the woman is active in CHIP perinatal and the application indicates she is due in the month following the application month or later,

- before cutoff, begin Medicaid coverage the first day of the next month.
- after cutoff, begin Medicaid coverage the first day of the month following the next month.

* When a woman enrolled in CHIP perinatal submits a new application, they must be tested for Medicaid coverage. When processing a change for a woman certified for CHIP perinatal, TIERS will automatically test for Medicaid eligibility. A new application is not required.

A—128.3 CHIP Perinatal Application Process

TA 85 (CHIP-P), TP 36 and TP 45

CHIP perinatal (TA 85) covers labor with delivery charges for households with income above the income limit for Medicaid for Pregnant Women (TP40), but not for households that qualify for Emergency Medicaid coverage (women who do not meet citizenship requirements, and whose household income is at or below the income limit for TP40). These Medicaid-eligible households must submit Form H3038-P, CHIP Perinatal — Emergency Medical Services Certification, to apply for Emergency Medicaid to pay for these charges. A woman certified for TA 85 with household income above the TP40 income limit cannot be certified for Emergency Medicaid to cover the labor with delivery charges.

A child born to a CHIP perinatal mother whose household income is at or below the income limit for TP40 and who receives Emergency Medicaid to cover labor with delivery charges is enrolled in Medicaid instead of CHIP perinatal.

Thirty days before the expected due date, TIERS generates and sends Form H3038-P with Form H1061, Birth Outcome Letter, to the household. If the household has not reported the child's birth by 30 days after the expected due date, TIERS sends a Form H1062, Birth Outcome Reminder Letter, and a second Form H3038-P with instructions for getting Form H3038-P completed and signed by the medical practitioner, along with a self-addressed postage-paid envelope. The household must return Form H3038-P to HHSC.

Upon receipt of Form H3038-P:

- the form is linked to the mother's case; and
- a task is created for Customer Care Center (CCC) staff to certify the mother for Emergency Medicaid and the newborn for TP 45.

Staff must not certify the mother for Emergency Medicaid or the newborn for TP 45 if the household has not returned Form H3038-P within 60 days from the date of the expected pregnancy due date. Reopen three-month prior applications for people who return Form H3038-P after 60 days from the expected pregnancy due date.

Note: For newborns admitted to the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU), process both the Emergency Medicaid coverage for the mother and the TP 45 for the newborn.

CCC Staff Process

CCC is assigned a task to process Form H3038-P. Staff must:

- determine whether mother and newborn are already active on Medicaid;
- if mother and newborn are not active on Medicaid, use all TP 40 eligibility policies and procedures to determine Emergency Medicaid eligibility, except when verifying income and citizenship/alien status;
- use the verified income provided to determine CHIP perinatal eligibility to determine Emergency Medicaid eligibility. Note: TIERS will not run financial rules when certifying a recipient for Emergency Medicaid and will instead use the verified income used to determine the woman's CHIP Perinatal eligibility;
- verify all non-financial eligibility points prior to certification using:

- identity verification sources; and
- residence verification sources;
- use the date Form H3038-P is received as the file date for the Emergency Medicaid and TP 45; and
- process Form H3038-P by the 45th date after the file date.

The file date for the TP 45 is usually the date Form H3038-P is received if it includes the newborn's information. Birth outcome information can also be received via the newborn interface or from the person by phone or in writing. When birth outcome information is received after Form H3038-P has already been submitted to the HHSC, a second task is assigned to CCC to process TP 45 coverage for the newborn.

When CCC staff receive a task that includes Form H3038-P dated more than 60 days after the pregnancy due date, CCC must stamp "Received (Date) CCC" on Form H3038-P, to indicate the form was provided after the 60 days from the pregnancy due date. CCC staff must return Form H3038-P along with an application and a letter informing the person that they must apply for Medicaid. The person is instructed to complete the application and return it to the nearest HHSC office or appropriate out-stationed worker, if an out-stationed worker is housed at the hospital where the delivery took place.

Out-Stationed and HHSC Eligibility Office Staff Process

The chart below explains procedures staff must follow to determine appropriate action.

If an applicant...	then staff must:
provides Form H3038-P only , and was active on CHIP perinatal at the time of the delivery,	fax Form H3038-P to 877-447-2839 .

provides an application requesting Medicaid and other benefits (SNAP, Medicaid, TANF), provides Form H3038-P, and was active on CHIP perinatal at the time of delivery,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • certify the TP 36 coverage when determining eligibility for the other requested programs (including TP 45) following existing policy, if eligible; or • fax only Form H3038-P to 877-447-2839 if the mother is ineligible for Emergency Medicaid based on the current information.
provides an application and Form H3038-P stamped with "Received (Date) CCC,"	process the request for Medicaid following normal application procedures. was not active on CHIP perinatal at the time of delivery,	process the Emergency Medicaid request per existing policy and certify TP 45 if appropriate.

Notes:

- Fax the bar-coded Form H3038-P to 877-447-2839. If Form H3038-P is not bar-coded, write the mother's case and CHIP perinatal EDG number on the top of the form.

Advisors must provide notice to the household before making any home visit. Application and redetermination interviews must be scheduled in writing. Notification of other home visits may be:

The notification should include the time (at least whether morning or afternoon) and date of the visit. Advisors should route the notification for imaging to add to the electronic case record or document the specific information in TIERS Case Comments. If regions have specialized staff that conduct home visits, the documentation may be maintained in a separate location as long as it is accessible if needed.

Home visits to collateral sources do not have to be scheduled in advance.

A—131.2 Requirement to Provide Interpreter or Translation Service

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

HHSC is required to provide interpreter and translation (written or verbal) services to applicants and recipients with Limited English Proficiency (LEP). Consider an individual with LEP even if they do not request an interpreter on the application if the individual indicates they would like to speak a language other than English during the interview. HHSC is also required to provide an effective method to communicate with applicants and recipients who indicate they are deaf or hearing impaired. Applicants and recipients may indicate on an application or during an interview that they need interpreter services.

A—131.2.1 Availability of Interpreters/Translation Services

Revision 17-4; Effective October 1, 2017

All Programs

Local offices must set up procedures to ensure that interpreters and translators are available for applicants or recipients who indicate the need for such services on an application.

To meet the requirement for applicants and recipients who indicate they are Limited English Proficiency (LEP), offices can use:

- Bilingual advisors – when it is reasonably possible to do so, schedule LEP applicant/recipient interviews with bilingual advisors.
- Bilingual clerical staff – use bilingual clerical staff as interpreters whenever possible.
- Local community interpreter providers.

Advisors use the following methods for interpretation only after exhausting all local and regional resources:

- Language Line Services – This service is available to all regions. Staff can access the service by calling 1-800-375-1184 and using their 11-digit employee identification number.
- Applicants/recipients may provide their own interpreter (only if they wish to do so). Note: Advisors may use minors, age 15 or older, as interpreters only at the individual's request and when the minor accompanies the individual to the interview. Advisors must not use a minor under age 15 as an interpreter.

To meet this requirement for applicants and recipients who indicate they are deaf or hearing impaired, offices can:

- Schedule a telephone interview if the applicant indicates the contact phone on the application is a TDD/TTY line, unless the applicant requests a face-to-face interview. Note: Relay Texas can be reached at these numbers:
 - 7-1-1, 1-800-RELAYTX (1-800-735-2989), Spanish to English (Spanish speaking callers to English speaking HHSC staff) at 1-888-777-5861;
 - and Spanish to Spanish at 1-800-662-4954.
- If unable to reach the applicant by phone, advisors must schedule a face-to-face interview and arrange for interpreter services at the interview location.

Note: In situations where an interpreter services vendor is not available, staff may use handwritten notes back and forth with the hearing-impaired individual as long as the notes are an effective means of communication with the individual.

A—131.2.2 Availability of Translated Written Material

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Staff must inform applicants/recipients about the availability of translation (written or verbal) services regarding written materials HHSC sends to them by following the two processes below, when applicable.

When staff verbally communicate with LEP applicants/recipients at application, redetermination (including desk reviews) and change actions, staff must ensure that applicants/recipients understand the eligibility action (Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, and Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action) being taken and the requirements for the application process (including any missing information being requested). Providing a verbal explanation to all LEP applicants/recipients in their preferred language regarding the eligibility action being taken and/or missing information being requested meets this requirement.

Note: This requirement is not applicable for desk reviews and change actions when staff process the case action without talking with the applicants/recipients.

The Vietnamese Translation Interpreter Form is automatically attached to applicable eligibility notices when clients select Vietnamese as their primary household language.

A—131.3 Interview Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

During the interview, the interviewer must:

- protect the applicant's confidentiality and conduct the interview as a confidential discussion of household circumstances;
- review the application and resolve unclear and incomplete information with the household;
- advise the household of their rights and responsibilities, including the right to appeal;
- advise the household of the application processing time frames;
- advise the household of their responsibility to report changes;
- ensure that the address on TIERS reflects the individual's current address; and
- explain the various policies, rights, and responsibilities as required in A-1500, Reminders.

Advisors must take the following actions and provide the following referrals and information during the interview:

- Verify that the household agrees that the information is complete and correct on the application form and in the case documentation for household composition, income, and expenses;
- Verify that the income and expense information obtained for past periods (including self-employment) accurately reflect the amounts that can be anticipated for future income and expenses, according to policy in A-1355, How to Project Income. If the information is inaccurate, the advisor must determine why it is inaccurate;
- Determine whether households with questionable or negative management, as described in A-1710, General Policy, are able to explain how the household's bills are paid;
- Determine whether households with other discrepancies in information that could affect eligibility are able to provide information to resolve those discrepancies;
- Determine whether there is a reason for households who have not provided all verification requested on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, beyond the household's control that prevents the household from providing verifications. If the advisor designates a collateral source, the advisor should accept the individual statement or use other forms of verification for the missing verifications as required by policy in A-1370, Verification Requirements;
- Determine whether income verification may be calculated based on year-to-date information from other paychecks provided by the household when income verification is missing for a particular pay period(s), rather than requesting it on Form H1020; and
- Refer the household to other state or local resources for types of assistance the household requested on the application form, such as child care, child support, utilities, or rent, that are provided by other agencies.

TANF

- Determine whether any adult household member has received TANF cash assistance from another state since October 1999. Refer to A-1920, Determining the Number of FTL Months Used.
- Determine whether any member of the household has been disqualified in another state for a felony or drug conviction.
- Determine whether any member of the household has been disqualified from participating in TANF for an intentional program violation (IPV) in another state. See B942, Disqualifying a Household Member with a Current TANF Out-of-State IPV Disqualification, for policy regarding the IPV information the advisor must gather from the other state.
- Determine whether applicants must provide information on parent(s) living outside of the home to meet child and medical support requirements, or if applicants meet a good cause exemption, as explained in A-1130, Explanation of Good Cause.

SNAP

- Determine whether households qualifying for the standard medical expense want to claim actual expenses according to the policy in A-1428.3, Budgeting Options;
- Determine whether the household wants to prorate an expense or income according to policy in A-1428.3; A-1355.1, Budgeting Options for SNAP Households; and A-1358, How to Budget Expenses;
- Determine whether any household member claims an exemption to Employment and Training (E&T) work requirements;
- Provide reminders, including the household's change reporting requirement, regarding E&T requirements, able-bodied adult without dependents (ABAWD) time limit policy (if there is an ABAWD in the household), and how the household can obtain and use SNAP benefits issued via EBT;
- Determine whether an ABAWD received any countable months of benefits in another state; and
- Determine whether any member of the household has been disqualified from participating in SNAP for an IPV or a felony drug conviction in another state. Note: Data Broker displays current out-of-state IPV disqualification data.

Medical Programs

Determine whether applicants experiencing family violence are exempt from providing information about a member of their MAGI household composition because they fear physical or emotional harm by that person, as explained in A-241.4, Family Violence Exemption.

Determine whether applicants must provide information on parent(s) living outside of the home to meet medical support requirements, or if applicants meet a good cause exemption, as explained in A-1130, Explanation of Good Cause.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 43, TP 44, TP 45 and TP 48

Before completing the interview, advisors must ensure that the applicant:

- provides all of the information requested on the application;
- reports any changes that occurred since filling the application; and
- reads and understands the individual's rights and responsibilities as explained on the application.

TANF and TP 08

Advisors must also ensure that:

- the applicant reads and understands the rights and responsibilities of the child support program explained on Form H1712, Explanation of Child/Medical Support, Family Violence and Good Cause;
- TANF applicants read and understand Form H2580, TANF Employment Services Notice, and receive a copy of the form; and
- TANF applicants read, understand and sign Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement.

SNAP

Advisors must provide the applicant with Form H1805, SNAP Food Benefits: Your Rights and Program Rules.

TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

Before completing the interview, if requested, ensure the applicant:

- completes all sections of the application; and
- reads and understands an individual's and responsibilities as explained on Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, and Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application.

A—134 Documentation Guidelines

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

A complete list of documentation requirements for determining eligibility can be found at the conclusion of each eligibility section within the Texas Works Handbook. TIERS Data Collection pages handle a vast majority of the required documentation for case records. For the remaining small percentage of documentation still required by policy, staff must include the information in TIERS Case Comments. For documentation that is not captured within the Data Collection pages, a comprehensive guide, The Texas Works Documentation Guide, has been developed. This documentation guide outlines the requirements for documentation that must be entered in TIERS Case Comments.

A—135 Pending Information

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TP 40

If the applicant cannot furnish all required proof during the interview or with the application, advisors must allow the household at least 10 days to provide the information. The due date must be a workday. Advisors must determine what sources of proof are readily available to the household and request that information first as sufficient proof. B-115, Pending Verification on Applications, includes more information on verification procedures.

Advisors must provide the applicant Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, explaining:

- what is needed,
- the due date for receipt of the information, and
- the date the advisor
- must deny the application if the advisor does not receive the information.

Advisors should attach to Form H1020 the page of Form H1020-A, Sources of Proof, that corresponds to the verification requested.

Medical Programs

The advisor must not request additional verification if verification is available through electronic data sources.

TP 40

Advisors should not allow 10 days for the applicant to provide verification if doing so exceeds the 15-workday processing time frame and verification can be postponed.

A—136 Eligibility Decision and Privacy Notice

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

All Programs

After obtaining all required proof, dispose of the application and provide the applicant Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, detailing the decision.

Medical Programs

HIPAA requires HHSC to provide a notice of privacy practices that explains:

- the person's privacy rights;
- the duties of HHSC to protect the person's health information; and
- how HHSC may use or disclose the person's health information without an authorization. For example, HHSC may share health information with the person's providers to arrange for services or with other government entities to report suspected abuse or neglect.

Provide Form 0401, Notice of Privacy Practices (English), or Form 0401S, Aviso de Normas Sobre la Privacidad (Spanish), as appropriate, to each household enrolled in a medical program.

Provide Form 0401 or Form 0401S with Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to each head of household:

- at initial certification; and
- at recertification after a break in services of more than 180 days.

Form 0403, Explanation to Health Information Privacy Rights, provides a reminder of privacy practices and where to find Form 0401.

Provide Form 0403 with Form TF0001 to each head of household:

- at each recertification;
- after a break in services of at least 30 days but not more than 180 days; and
- when a new person is added to a case.

A—137 Prudent Person Principle

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The policies and procedures included in the handbook are rules for determining eligibility. It is impossible to provide examples for all policy situations. When staff encounter rare and unusual situations, HHSC encourages them to use reason and apply good judgment in making eligibility decisions. The "prudent person" principle allows staff to make reasonable decisions based on the best available information using:

- common sense,
- program knowledge,
- experience, and
- expertise.

Staff should document the rationale used to make a decision and any applicable handbook references.

A-140, Expedited Service

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

All expedited applications are screened using the expedited screening questions on Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance – Your Texas Benefits. HHSC staff screen applications received in the local office. Vendor staff screen applications sent to the Document Processing Center (DPC) by fax or mail. An automated system screens any application submitted through YourTexasBenefits.com.

Applicants who meet the test for expedited services are entitled to:

- postpone all verification until after receiving the first month's benefit, except:
 - identity; and
 - proof they meet or are currently exempt from the SNAP ABAWD work requirement if they already received the maximum benefit months without meeting the work requirement; and
- get benefits the same day they apply, if possible, but no later than the next business day.

Exceptions: In the following situations, applicants may not get benefits in this time frame:

- Applicants in a drug and alcohol (D&A) treatment or a group living arrangement (GLA) facility. Process these applications to allow the resident an opportunity to receive benefits by the seventh day after the application date.
- Joint SNAP and SSI applicants released from public institutions. The Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) unit processes these applications to allow the person an opportunity to receive benefits by the fifth day after release from the institution.

Late Determinations

Applicants may not receive benefits in this time frame in late determinations for expedited service. These are households that:

- the agency did not identify as entitled to expedited service based on the information provided on the application. Expedited processing begins on the day the office becomes aware the applicant is entitled to expedited service. Do not enter a late determination date if the agency failed to properly screen the application using the expedited screening questions on Form H1010;
- meet expedited criteria and have a household member who served the minimum penalty period for failure to follow Employment and Training (E&T) service requirements, but the household has chosen to delay their certification until all disqualified members have signed Form H1808, SNAP Work Rules;
- qualify for a phone interview, but HHSC must mail the application back to the household for signature. The late determination date is the date the agency receives the applicant's signed application;
- mail or drop off Form H1010 or Form H1010-R, Your Texas Works Benefits: Renewal Form. Contact the applicant and conduct an interview. If the applicant cannot be contacted by phone, mail Form H1830-I, Interview Notice (Applications or Reviews), the same day the application is screened, notifying the applicant of potential eligibility for expedited service and instructing the applicant to contact HHSC. If the household also applied for a TANF or Medicaid program that requires an interview, schedule a regular TANF or Medicaid appointment on the same notice. Expedited processing begins the day the applicant contacts the office for an interview;
- miss their expedited appointment. If the applicant subsequently contacts HHSC, conduct an interview on the earliest date the applicant is available. Expedited processing begins the day the applicant contacts the office for an interview;
- do not provide acceptable proof of identity, or proof of meeting or being exempt from the SNAP ABAWD work requirement, as explained in the beginning of this section. Expedited processing begins when the applicant provides the required proof;
- are not eligible for expedited processing when screened for expedited services at the time of application but meet the expedited criteria later in the application month because of a change in household circumstances after the application was submitted. The late determination date is the date the household meets the criteria for expedited processing; or
- applied through YourTexasBenefits.com when the office was closed due to weather-related conditions or other similar situations. The late determination date is the first business day the office reopens following the office closure.

Notes:

- Enter the late determination date in TIERS for late determinations caused by the applicant, resulting from a change in the household's circumstances or due to office closures, as explained above.

- Except for delays in screening due to office closure, enter the late determination date only if HHSC, the vendor or YourTexasBenefits.com screened the application on the file date or no later than the next business day.
- The late determination date becomes day zero in determining timeliness on expedited applications.

TP 40

Expedite applications for Medicaid from women applying for current or ongoing coverage due to a pregnancy. These applicants are entitled to:

- have their eligibility determined no later than 15 business days from the date HHSC receives the application; and
- postpone all verification, except identity, until the 30th calendar day from the application file date. Note: Postponed verification only applies to current and ongoing coverage. For prior coverage, take action no later than the 15th business day. Deny the application if the applicant does not provide verification and reopen denied applications within two years at the applicant's request.

Note: An interview is not required when processing a TP 40 application.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Applicants are entitled to expedited service if they meet one of the following criteria:

- The household's:
 - liquid resources total $100 or less, and
 - countable gross monthly non-converted income totals less than $150. Note: When determining eligibility for expedited services, staff must count the actual amount of TANF the individual actually receives.
- The household's liquid resources plus actual, non-converted countable gross monthly income total less than the most recent monthly expenses for rent/mortgage and utilities. Staff should include the standard telephone allowance for households with a telephone expense.
- The household includes a migrant or seasonal farmworker and meets the destitute criteria listed in A-146, Expedited Policy for Migrant or Seasonal Farmworkers.

An individual who reapplies within the last month of a current certification period is not eligible for expedited service.

TP 40

All applications for Medicaid from women applying for current or ongoing coverage due to a pregnancy are eligible for expedited processing.

A—142 Limit on Expedited Certification

Revision 22-2; Effective April 1, 2022

SNAP

A household may receive expedited services any number of times if, before the expedited certification, the household:

- completes the verification requirements postponed at the last expedited certification; or
- was certified under the usual 30-day processing standards since the last expedited certification.

Once denied, the household may give the postponed verification and qualify for expedited services at a later application.

Notes:

- The household may re-apply without submitting a new application until the 60th day after the file date. This is only if an expedited application with postponed verification is denied for failure to provide requested information or verification .
- Reopen the application using the date the person provided verification as the new file date. If the household submits another application, consider the second application a duplicate. Follow related policy.
- If the information satisfies the verification requirements postponed at the last expedited certification, the household is eligible for expedited services.
- The household may re-apply without submitting a new application until the 30th day following the last benefit month if a redetermination is denied for:
 - failure to provide requested information; or
 - for a missed appointment.
- If the household submits another application, staff must consider the second application a duplicate and follow related policy.

A—144.1 Social Security Numbers (SSNs)

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

SNAP

Include household members for the initial month, or initial two months if household members are receiving a combined allotment. This is true even if the household members fail to provide or apply for an SSN at the interview or if State Online Query (SOLQ) does not validate a member's SSN at the interview. Follow policy outlined in A-413, Social Security Number (SSN) Validation Through State Online Query (SOLQ), if the SSN does not validate at the interview.

Disqualify people who fail to provide or apply for an SSN without good cause or do not provide information to clear the discrepancy related to a SSN validated with verification code F or X before the next monthly issuance. See A-410, General Policy, for rules for children age six months or younger and good cause.

TP 40

Certify a pregnant woman by the 15th working day from the application file date to meet expedited processing timeframes even if:

- she fails to provide or apply for an SSN; or
- her SSN is verified with verification code F or X and unable to clear the discrepancy by viewing case documentation or contacting the household by phone. Postpone verification needed to clear the discrepancy.

Deny the woman's eligibility if by the postponed verification due date she fails to:

- provide or apply for an SSN; or
- provide information to clear the discrepancy related to a SSN validated with verification code F or X.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Advisors should register the applicant being interviewed for work unless:

- the applicant is exempt from work registration, or
- an AR is applying for the household.

Advisors should register other household members if possible. Advisors should postpone registration for the initial month if it cannot be completed within the expedited time frames.

A—144.3 Citizenship

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

SNAP

Household members whose citizenship/eligible alien status is questionable can receive expedited benefits with the household. These household members must provide verification of citizenship/eligible alien status before the next month's benefits are issued or be disqualified.

TP 40

Citizenship/eligible alien status must be verified using policy in A-350, Verification Requirements, for pregnant women who declare to be a U.S. citizen or declare to have an eligible alien status. If a pregnant woman does not provide proof of citizenship or alien status and:

- no other information is required to determine eligibility, she is provided a period of reasonable opportunity as explained in A-351.1, Reasonable Opportunity.
- other information is required to determine eligibility, she is allowed to postpone verification (except identity) until the 30th calendar day from the application file date, as explained in A-145.1, Postponed Verification Procedures. If during that time she returns the other information, but not proof of citizenship or alien status, she is certified, sent Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, and provided a period of reasonable opportunity at that time.

A—144.4 Reserved for Future Use

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

A—144.5 Pregnancy

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

TP 40

Accept the individual's (pregnant woman's, case name's or AR's) verbal or written statement of pregnancy as verification, unless questionable. The woman's statement would be questionable if the information provided regarding the due date is discrepant, such as the pregnancy start month and pregnancy end month are less than or more than nine months apart or if the woman reports a pregnancy with overlapping start and end months.

The individual's statement of pregnancy must provide the following information:

- Name of woman who is pregnant
- Pregnancy start month and/or anticipated date of delivery
- Number of expected children

If questionable, advisors must verify pregnancy by using:

- Form H3037, Report of Pregnancy; or
- other documentation containing the same information as Form H3037.

The verification must be from an acceptable source such as:

- a physician;
- a hospital;
- a family planning agency; or
- a social service agency.

A physician, nurse, advanced nurse practitioner or other medical professional must sign Form H3037 or another document for it to be considered verification from a medical source. If another medical professional completes the form, the advisor must ensure that information about the supervising physician is provided.

Staff must use the following procedures when certain information regarding pregnancy is not provided on an application for benefits.

- If the only item missing on the application form is the pregnancy start month, staff must count nine months back from the pregnancy end month to determine the pregnancy start month. The pregnancy end month is month zero.
- If the only item missing on the application form is the pregnancy end month, staff must count nine months from the pregnancy start month to determine the anticipated date of delivery. The pregnancy start month is month zero.
- If both the pregnancy start and end months are missing, attempt to obtain the information by phone. If unable to obtain the information by phone, send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to request the information.

Advisors must issue the second month's benefits as a combined allotment as explained in A-150, Combined Allotment Policy, if the household applies after the 15th of the month and benefits are prorated.

TP 40

If an applicant provides the minimum information required to process the application, the advisor may certify the application before the 15th workday and allow postponed verification.

Advisors must deny the application no later than 15 workdays if:

- the information provided indicates the applicant is not eligible, or
- not enough information was provided to determine eligibility.

Advisors must reopen applications denied because there was not enough information provided if the information is received within 60 days of the file date.

Advisors must use the date the information is provided as the new file date, and follow the expedited processing guidelines.

Note: An interview is not required when processing a TP 40 application.

enter the information and dispose the SNAP EDG.

If the household provides postponed verification that results in lowered or denied benefits, see B116.1, Information Received During Expedited Application Processing.

If the household does not provide postponed verifications within 30 days of the application date, advisors must:

- disqualify the individual when appropriate, or
- deny the SNAP EDG for failing to provide postponed information and send the individual adequate notice using Form TF0001.

A household denied for failure to provide postponed verification must submit a new application to receive benefits if the household does not provide the postponed verification by the 60th day from the file date. If the household provides the verification by the 60th day, advisors must reopen the application using the date the household provided the verification as the new file date.

An individual receiving adequate notice of adverse action as noted above cannot receive continued benefits pending appeal.

TP 40

Advisors must provide Form TF0001, stating the:

- eligibility start and end date,
- postponed verifications, and
- date the verifications are due.

If the individual does not provide verification by the 30th day following the file date, the advisor must initiate adverse action. Advance notice is required. The individual must reapply if the verification is not provided by the expiration of the adverse action.

If the individual provides verification by the 30th day following the file date but does not meet eligibility requirements, the advisor must provide advance notice of adverse action and deny ongoing coverage.

Note: Advisors must not deny the EDG if the individual is eligible in the application month or one of the three prior months.

A—146 Expedited Policy for Migrant or Seasonal Farmworkers

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The expedited processing procedures apply to migrant or seasonal farmworkers except for the following:

- If verifying something other than identity and the source of verification is out of state, the advisor postpones verification until after the household receives the second month's benefit. Advisors should use this procedure for only one two-month postponement during one round-trip from home.
- Households with a migrant or seasonal farmworker are destitute if they have $100 or less countable liquid resources and meet any of the following:
 - The household's only income for the application month is from a terminated source, and the household will not receive any more payments from that source after the application date.

Advisors should consider terminated income if it is usually received:

- monthly or more often but will not be received from that source the following month, or
- at intervals of more than one month but will not be received from that source in the next usual payment period.

Advisors should not consider terminated income in the following situations:

- Someone changes jobs while working for the same employer;
 - A self-employed person changes contracts or has different customers without having a break in normal income cycle; or
 - Someone receives regular contributions, but the contributions are from different sources.
- Note: When determining destitute status, advisors do not consider terminated income if a payment from the same source will be received after the file date in the month of application.
 - All household income in the application month is from a new source, and the household will receive income of $25 or less from the first of the month up to and including the 10th day after the application date (or the end of the month if there are not 10 days left in the month).

Income received monthly or more frequently is from a new source if the household did not receive $25 or more from that new source in the 30 days up to and including the application date.

Income received at intervals of more than one month is new income if the household has not received more than $25 from that source between the last usual payment month and the application date.

Advisors count new income received after the application date to determine whether the individual is destitute, but disregard it in determining eligibility and benefits for the month of application.

- The household has a combination of terminated income through the application date and new income after the application date if:
 - there is no other income from the terminated source that month, and
 - the household will receive income of $25 or less from the new source from the first of the month through the 10th day after the application date (or the end of the month if there are not 10 days left in the month).

At recertification, advisors disregard income from a new source in the first month of the certification period if that income will not exceed $25 within 10 days after the individual's usual issuance cycle.

Notes:

- Advisors count an advance of wages for travel expenses as income unless it is a reimbursement.
- Advisors do not consider the advance in determining whether the household is destitute or in determining whether later payments from the employer are from a new source.
- Self-employed farmworkers whose income is annualized are not destitute if they do not receive income each month of the year.
- The grower, not the crew chief, is the farmworker's source of income. An individual who follows a crew chief to a new grower is leaving a terminated source for a new source.

The policies in this section apply to income determinations for destitute applicants at initial and later certifications but only in the first month of any certification period.

A—147 Expedited Eligibility and Enrollment of Active Duty Military Members and Their Dependents

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs – All Except Emergency Medicaid and TP 56

All applications for Medicaid from active duty military members and their dependents applying for coverage are eligible for expedited processing.

Active duty refers to military members who currently are serving full time in their military capacity. A military member is defined as someone in the:

- U.S. Armed Forces/Reserves
 - Army
 - Marine Corps
 - Navy
 - Air Force
 - Coast Guard
- National Guard
 - Army
 - Marine Corps
 - Navy
 - Air Force
 - Coast Guard
 - Reserve/Guard
- Army National Guard
- Air National Guard
- State Military Forces/Texas State Guard
 - Texas State Guard – Unless activated by the governor and placed on paid state active duty, these personnel receive no compensation for their time.
 - Texas Army National Guard
 - Texas Air National Guard

When an application for Texas Works medical assistance is received and includes an active duty military member, staff should take the following action on or before the 15th workday of the application file date:

- Provide an interview if requested or required;

- Send/provide Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to request missing information if no interview was requested or required and the household did not provide information with the application; and
- Send/provide Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, if the household provided all verification with the application and no interview was requested or required.

Military status is self-declared. Additional verification is not required.

Advisors should use processing time frames stated in B-112, Deadlines, if the household did not provide all required information and verification with the application.

The expedited processing requirement does not apply to TP 56 (Medically Needy with Spend Down) or to Emergency Medicaid for ineligible aliens, and only applies to applications and untimely reviews/renewals.

A household is not eligible for expedited processing if the military member is on active duty because of training as a member of the Reserves, National Guard, or State Military Forces.

When an application consists of a pregnant member and an active duty member, advisors use TP 40 expedited application processing time frames.

Advisors provide expedited processing for a Medicaid application if the budget group includes the needs of an active duty member even if the active duty member is not included in the certified group.

Advisors must not pend an application if the household:

- fails to answer the Yes/No question and name/designation. Advisors must not process the application using expedited time frames. If the Yes/No question is left blank, advisors enter No in the system.
- fails to answer the Yes/No question but provides a name or information that can be used to determine who the active military member is. Advisors should assume that the answer is Yes and process the application using expedited time frames.
- answers Yes to the question but does not provide a name or information that can be used to determine who the active military member is. Advisors must not process the application using expedited time frames.

When an interview is scheduled timely within 15 workdays, but the applicant requests to reschedule the interview, staff should attempt to accommodate the rescheduled appointment within the 15-workday time frame. If, at the household's request, the interview is rescheduled after the 15-workday time frame, staff should document the reason for not scheduling the appointment within the required time frame.

Note: For requested interviews, if the applicant requests to be rescheduled, staff should inform the household that an interview is not required and that the processing of the application can begin without an interview. Staff must not deny an application if the household fails to show for the appointment when an interview is not required.

A-150, Combined Allotment Policy

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Advisors must issue benefits for the month of application and the following month at the same time if:

- an applicant files the application after the 15th of the month (including reapplications filed after the 15th of the month following the last benefit month);
- the household is eligible for the application month and the following month (including applicants eligible but not receiving an allotment for the application month because benefits prorate to less than $10); and
- advisors must prorate the initial month's benefits.

Note: For applicants who meet expedited criteria, advisors issue a combined allotment within expedited time frames, even if postponing verification.

Inform households receiving combined allotments:

- when the benefits will be available;
- that no additional benefits will be available until the third month; and
- that the third month's benefits will be available on the regular issuance schedule.

TIERS identifies and issues benefits to households eligible for a combined allotment and holds the third month's benefits if the combined allotment certification has postponed verification.

A-160, Joint TANF-SNAP Applications

TANF, SNAP and TP 08

A household in which all members are applying for or receiving TANF and/or TP 08 may apply for SNAP at the same time the household applies for TANF and/or TP 08. The advisor then conducts a single interview.

Exception: Conduct the unfinished TANF and/or TP 08 interview later if necessary to meet the SNAP expedited processing time limits.

A—161 When Receipt of TANF Is Uncertain

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

When TANF eligibility is uncertain, advisors must:

- certify the household for Non-Public Assistance (NPA) SNAP benefits if eligible. Note: If the TANF members have resources, advisors do not exclude the resources for SNAP until the household's TANF EDG is certified (see A-1248, Resources of TANF and SSI Recipients); and
- assign an NPA certification period (see A-2324, Length of Certification).

If TANF is approved later, advisors should process it as a reported change and add the TANF benefit to the SNAP budget as soon as possible. (See A-1324.18, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families [TANF].) Advisors should adjust the certification period to expire when the next TANF periodic review is due. Advisors should send or give the applicant Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, with the new certification period stated. Exception: One-Time Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (OTTANF), A-1324.11.

If the TANF application is denied later, the advisor should continue SNAP eligibility based on the original application.

A-170, Authorized Representatives

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

All Programs

An applicant, person receiving benefits, head of household (HOH), or someone with legal authority to act on their behalf (e.g., legal guardian or power of attorney) may designate a person or organization as an AR.

An AR must be verified using a(n):

- applicant's or recipient's signature on one of the following HHSC applications for benefits containing the AR designation:
 - Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits;
 - Form H1010-R, Your Texas Works Benefits: Renewal Form;
 - Form H1034, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer;
 - Form H1200, Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits;
 - Form H1200-MBI, Application for Benefits — Medicaid Buy-In;
 - Form H1200-MBIC, Application for Benefits — Medicaid Buy-In for Children;
 - Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application;
 - Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal;
 - Form H1840, SNAP Food Benefits Renewal Form;
 - Form H1841, SNAP-CAP Application;
 - Form H1842, SNAP-CAP Renewal Application;
 - Form H2340, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer Renewal; or
 - Form H2340-OS, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer.
- applicant's signature on a Marketplace application for health care benefits that is transferred to HHSC and contains the AR designation;
- legal document that the AR has authority to act on behalf of the applicant or recipient under state law (e.g., legal guardianship or power of attorney);
- letter designating AR authority and containing the applicant's or recipient's signature, in addition to the name, address, and signature of the AR;

- completed Form H1003, Appointment of an Authorized Representative;
- applicant's or recipient's electronic signature designating the AR on an application, renewal, or reported change submitted through YourTexasBenefits.com.

If a person or organization submits an application on behalf of an applicant, indicates they wish to be the AR and the application is not signed by the applicant, send correspondence to both the unverified AR and the HOH on the case to request the verification.

- Send the following to the HOH for the case:
 - Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, listing the missing information needed before eligibility can be determined; and
 - Form H1003, to capture the AR designation and the signatures of the applicant and the AR.
- Send the following to the unverified AR:
 - Form H1004, Cover Letter: Authorized Representative Not Verified, explaining what is needed to verify the AR; and
 - Form H1003, to capture the AR designation and the signatures of the applicant and the AR.

For the AR to be verified, either the AR or the HOH must return the completed Form H1003 within 10 days (or 30 days from the file date). All missing information listed on the Form H1020 must also be returned timely. If the AR verification is not received by the due date, do not designate an AR.

The AR designation is effective from the date the AR is verified until:

- the applicant or recipient notifies HHSC that the AR is no longer authorized to act on their behalf;
- the AR notifies HHSC that they no longer wish to act as AR for the applicant or recipient;
- there is a change in the legal authority (i.e., legal guardianship or power of attorney) on which the AR's designation is based; or
- the applicant or recipient designates a new AR to act on their behalf. If there is an existing AR designated on a case, the person or organization that the client most recently designated as the AR will replace the existing AR on the case.

Requests to end the designation of an AR must include the signature of the applicant, the recipient or the AR as appropriate. During the redetermination process, the AR cannot end their AR designation, if the AR is the person completing and signing the redetermination.

Note: An AR is not automatically a personal representative.

An AR is designated at the case level to have access to all benefit information for that case. A verified AR may:

- sign an application on behalf of an applicant;
- complete and submit a renewal form;
- receive copies of notices or renewal forms in the preferred language selected on the application, and other communications from HHSC;
- designate a health plan; and
- act on behalf of the applicant or the recipient in all other matters with HHSC.

The applicant, recipient, or AR may also request that the AR receive the recipient's Medicaid or CHIP ID card and enrollment-related agency correspondence.

Note: The AR will not receive Healthy Texas Women (HTW) correspondence.

Mailing Address for AR

During the interview, obtain the AR's complete mailing address if not included on the application form. Record the AR's address on the TIERS Data Collection page, Household - Authorized Representative. If the applicant cannot provide a complete mailing address for the AR during the interview or an interview is not required for the program type, do not pend the case. Record the household's mailing address as the AR's address in TIERS.

When an applicant or recipient and their designated AR have the same mailing address, correspondence will only be sent to the AR.

When an applicant or recipient has a legal guardian, correspondence will only be sent to the guardian, even if the applicant or recipient and the guardian have different mailing addresses.

Applicants, recipients, or ARs who have chosen to receive eligibility correspondence electronically, will continue to receive them electronically.

Medical Programs

An AR can be verified using an applicant's or recipient's telephonic signature submitted by calling 2-1-1.

SNAP

People disqualified for SNAP benefits because of an administrative disqualification hearing or a nonmember living with the household may serve as an AR only if:

- no other responsible household member is reasonably able to be the HOH or AR; or
- that person is the only adult living in the household.

HHSC employees involved in certification or issuance of SNAP benefits and retailers authorized to accept SNAP benefits may serve as an AR only if the unit supervisor gives written approval.

The AR must be an adult.

For residents of D&A facilities, a facility employee must serve as the AR to apply for the household and to use the benefits.

Residents of GLA facilities may apply:

- for themselves;
- through an AR of their choosing; or
- through an AR employed by the facility.

For D&A and GLA facilities, the AR designated to use SNAP benefits may be a different person from the AR who applies for the household.

When an eligibility determination has been requested for multiple programs and the programs allow the same verification sources, the advisor must use the same verifications for all applicable programs. For example, if an individual is applying for SNAP, TANF, and Medical Programs, and the advisor accepts a wage verification for SNAP, the advisor must not request additional verification of the wage for TANF or Medical Programs if the source used was an acceptable form of verification for TANF or Medical Programs.

Advisors make the eligibility decision in each program when all verifications are received for that program.

A-190, Documentation Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Advisors must document the date and method by which advance notice of a home visit was provided and the date and time of the visit. An imaged copy of the appointment notice provided to the individual is sufficient.

Advisors must document why a certain file date was used to determine eligibility when:

- the file date used differs from the received date on the application; or
- the application has two received dates.

When a household requests additional programs after filing an application, advisors must document the requested program and the date of the request.

Advisors must document the rationale used to make a prudent person principle decision and any applicable handbook references.

Advisors must document that Form H0025, HHSC Application for Voter Registration, was given to the applicant, AR, or representative payee under the Agency Use Only section of the application.

Advisors must document on the application and on Form H1350, Opportunity to Register to Vote, in the Agency Use Only section the actions taken when an applicant or individual notifies the local office of the decision to decline the opportunity to register to vote after receipt of Form H0025.

Advisors must document information to support the eligibility decision in enough detail that others can understand all computations and advisor decisions explained in C940, Documentation.

All Programs except TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 43, TP 44, TP 45 and TP 48

For all interviews, staff must document:

- whether the individual met telephone interview criteria and a telephone interview was not done for TANF and SNAP;
- how interpreter services were provided when the application indicates the individual requested these services, including when the advisor conducted the interview and acted as an interpreter.

Medical Programs

Advisors must document when a designated Texas Works advisor requests that a child born to a woman in prison be certified for TP 43.

TANF

Advisors must document the specific reason for designating an AR.

When the grandparent requests to be the AR, the following information must be documented:

- information the grandparent gives to support the claim that the parent is not using the TANF benefit for the child's needs;
- information obtained from collateral contacts and/or documents; and
- decision whether or not to designate the grandparent as the AR and protective payee.

SNAP

The following information must be documented:

- the name and address of the AR;
- that no one else is available, if a person disqualified for IPV or a nonmember living with the household is appointed as AR;

- the tax-exempt status [Section 501(c)(3)] for public or private homeless shelters, if applicable;
- expedited service eligibility by marking the appropriate box on Form H1010 and explain if eligibility is questionable;
- the decision on the length of certification and reporting requirements for expedited service EDG;
- whether a migrant is in or out of the workforce;
- the reason for entering a late determination date; and
- the reason why an appointment for an expedited applicant is not scheduled for an interview within the expedited time frame.

A Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) certified group:

- is a person or group of relatives whose needs are included in one Eligibility Determination Group (EDG).
- must include an eligible child, unless the eligible relative cares for a child who receives:
 - Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Foster Care with Cash or Adoption Assistance with Cash; or
 - SSI Medicaid and the relative chooses not to request TANF for the child.

Some people are required members of the TANF certified group. The applicant may not choose to exclude a required member from the certified group. If the applicant fails to provide available verification for a required member, deny assistance for the entire certified group.

A TANF-State Program (SP) certified group must contain both an eligible:

- caretaker or parent; and
- second parent.

Note: Households are eligible for TANF-SP if the budget group contains:

- two eligible parents who are certified for TANF;
- one TANF-certified parent and a disqualified parent unless the disqualified parent does not meet citizenship requirements; or
- two disqualified parents unless the disqualified parents do not meet citizenship requirements.

Exception: Allow separate household status for a person and the person's spouse, 60 or over, who lives with others but cannot buy and prepare food separately because of permanent incapacity, if required household members are not excluded. To allow separate household status, the gross income of the other household members, not including the elderly person and spouse, must be less than 165 percent of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for the number of other people.

The elderly person must:

- prove that they meet the Social Security disability criteria, if questionable; and

- provide verification of the other household member's income.

Note: Always include required members in the elderly person's household. For example, the elderly person's spouse or children under 22 are always included in the same household unless elderly members have their own SNAP Combined Application Project (SNAP-CAP) EDGs.

A—211 Relationships Resulting from Termination of Parental Rights

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

When a court terminates the relationship between a biological or adoptive parent and child, a legal parent/child relationship does not exist between the two individuals.

If a biological or adoptive parent's parental rights to a child are terminated, that parent no longer has a legal parent/child relationship to that child, nor to any of the child's children who are born after the date the parental rights were terminated.

Example: Amy's parental rights to her child Julie are terminated when Julie is 16. Julie already has one child, Jill, at the time Amy's parental rights are terminated. Subsequently, Julie has a second child, Bill. As a result, Amy no longer has a legal relationship with Julie or Bill, but she retains her grandparent relationship to Jill.

Note: A parent whose parental rights have been terminated is not considered the natural parent of their biological child.

Relationships that existed between the child and other relatives of the biological parent are not interrupted or terminated. The only relationship terminated is that of the parent that relinquished his or her parental rights. Example: The child's biological or adoptive grandparents, siblings, aunts, uncles, and cousins still have the same relationship to the child they had before the parental rights were terminated.

A—212 Relationships Resulting from Adoption Procedures

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

A legal parent/child relationship is created when an individual adopts a child. The adoptive parent/child relationship creates the same relationships with the adoptive parent's relatives that are created with a biological parent/child relationship. Example: When a grandparent adopts a biological grandchild, the:

- grandparent becomes the child's adoptive parent, and
- the biological parent becomes the child's adoptive sibling.

A—213 Adoption Household Composition Situations

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Adoption household composition is determined by the advisor using the following steps:

Step 1 Identify all eligible children for the applicant/recipient.

Step 2 Include all eligible children in the certified group.

Step 3 Include all siblings of the children included in Step 2 if they are eligible children and cannot be certified separately from their sibling. Include a minor's child at the caretaker/payee's request.

Example 1

If a household consists of the applicant, the applicant's two biological children, ages 15 and 17, the 15-year-old's baby (age 1) that the applicant has adopted, and the 17-year-old's 2-year-old baby, the advisor must:

Identify eligible children:

- Step 1
- 15-year-old (daughter of applicant)
 - 17-year-old (daughter of applicant)
 - 1-year-old (adopted daughter)
 - 2-year-old (applicant's grandchild – include at applicant's request)

Include in certified group:

- Step 2
- applicant
 - 15-year-old
 - 17-year-old
 - 1-year-old

Include in certified group at the applicant's request:

- Step 3
- 2-year-old

Example 2

If a household consists of the applicant, adopted child (biological grandchild), and the adopted child's half-sibling, not related to the applicant, the advisor must:

Identify eligible children:

- Step 1
- adopted child

Step 2 Include in certified group:

- applicant
- adopted child

Step 3 N/A – there are no optional eligible children.

Note: For TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 43, TP 44, TP 48 or TP 56, the half-sibling can be considered an independent child when determining the child's eligibility for Medicaid. See A-910, General Policy.

A—221 Who Is Included

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

TANF

The following are always included in the TANF certified group:

1. Eligible Child

An eligible child is a person who meets TANF requirements, is not married according to Texas state law, and is:

- under age 18; or
- age 18 and:
 - is a full-time student (as defined by the school) in high school, attends an accredited general equivalency diploma (GED) class, or regularly attends vocational or technical training as an equivalent to high school attendance; and
 - expects to graduate before or during the month of the child's 19th birthday.

Notes:

- GED is approved only if the class is administered by an accredited institution.
- When removing a child age 18 or 19 from the grant, A-1424, Diversions, Alimony, and Payments to Dependents Outside the Home, is used to determine whether to divert for the child's needs.
- A child certified for foster care Medicaid only or adoption assistance Medicaid only is a potentially eligible child.

An emancipated minor is an eligible child if the:

- child meets the TANF age criteria;
- child is not married in accordance with Texas state law; and
- caretaker/payee exercises parental control of the child.

2. Eligible Legal Parent

An eligible legal parent is a legal parent who meets TANF requirements and lives with an eligible child. This includes a parent who is absent solely because of employment or active duty in the U.S. military. See A-1040, Deprivation Based on Absence from the Home. This includes parents receiving foster care or adoption assistance services for themselves, but not the child(ren).

Exception: See No. 6, Minor Parents, below.

3. Siblings

A sibling is a brother or sister of an eligible child, including legally adopted and half-brothers and sisters. Siblings must be certified together if they meet all TANF requirements. If an unborn child will be a required member of the certified group, a special review is set for the first day of the month after the expected delivery month.

Note: Half-brothers/sisters who do not meet the degree of relationship to the caretaker are not eligible to receive TANF benefits but can be certified as an independent child on a separate Medicaid EDG. See A-910, General Policy.

Example: The household consists of a grandparent, two grandchildren and a half-sibling to the grandchildren. The two grandchildren can be certified for TANF and Medicaid because they meet the required degree of relationship to the caretaker. The half-sibling does not meet the required degree of relationship to the caretaker and cannot be certified for TANF. The half-sibling can be certified as an independent child on a separate Medicaid EDG.

Exception: See No. 6, Minor Parent, below.

4. Caretaker

A caretaker is any specified relative who:

- is present in the home; and

- o supervises and cares for the TANF child(ren).

A caretaker must be the child's:

- o father or mother;
- o grandfather or grandmother;
- o brother or sister;
- o uncle or aunt;
- o first cousin;
- o nephew or niece;
- o stepfather or stepmother;
- o stepbrother or stepsister; or
- o first cousin once removed.

Relationship extends to the:

- o Spouse of the listed relatives, even after the marriage has ended in death or divorce, regardless of when the child's birth occurred.
- o Degree of "great-great" for uncles/aunts and nephews/nieces.
- o Degree of "great-great-great" for grandparents.

A caretaker meets the relationship requirement even if a court has jurisdiction over the child or an agency is the child's managing conservator. If a child lives with a managing conservator, the conservator must meet the relationship requirement.

If a child lives with a married relative (not a parent) who wants to be considered the caretaker, eligibility and benefits are determined using:

- o normal budgeting procedures for the applicant's income, and
- o stepparent budgeting for the income of the applicant's spouse.

Note: See A-1366, Stepparent EDGs, for budgeting.

If the person applying for the child cannot qualify to receive TANF, the individual's needs are not included in the certified group. If no one qualifies as caretaker, only the needs of the eligible children are included.

No one else is included as caretaker if the legal parent is:

- o in the home; and
- o physically and mentally able to provide care.

Exception: The stepparent may be certified as caretaker if the stepparent wants to be included and the legal parent has a disability. The stepparent and legal parent who has a disability are certified for TANF-SP when the stepparent is included in the certified group.

5. Second Parent

When a child lives with both legal parents, both parents are included in the certified group. The parent who is not the caretaker is the second parent. The second parent must meet all TANF requirements.

The household may be certified for TANF-SP when:

- o both parents are eligible and certified for TANF;
- o one parent is eligible and certified for TANF and the other parent is disqualified for one of the reasons listed in A-222, Who Is Not Included, No. 4, Disqualified Members, unless that disqualification is due to not meeting citizenship requirements; or
- o both parents are disqualified for one of the reasons listed in A-222, No. 4, unless that disqualification is due to not meeting citizenship requirements.

Related Policy

General Policy, A-1310

6. Minor Parent

A minor parent and child(ren) living with the minor parent's parent(s) and/or siblings may:

- o be certified separately if the:
 - minor parent's parent(s)/sibling(s) is not a TANF applicant/recipient; or
 - minor parent cannot be included in his parent(s)/sibling(s)' TANF EDG because he is not an eligible child; or
- o continue to receive TANF on a separate EDG if the minor parent's EDG was certified before the:
 - month the parent(s)/sibling(s) applied for TANF; or

- day the minor parent moved into the home with the parent(s)/sibling(s).

Otherwise, the minor parent must be included as a child with the:

- legal parent(s) who receives TANF/TANF-SP; or
- sibling certified for TANF/TANF-SP as a child.

If the caretaker or payee in the EDG requests TANF for the minor parent's child, the child is included in the EDG with the caretaker/payee and the minor parent.

Exception: A married minor parent is an eligible legal parent and must be certified separately from the minor parent's parents. See No. 1, Eligible Child, above.

7. Stepparents

A stepparent is not a child's legal parent but is the legal parent's spouse. Stepchildren are deprived of parental support because one legal parent is absent.

Include the stepparent in the certified group only if the stepparent wants to be included and:

- the stepparent is the only parent in the home; or
- both the legal parent and the stepparent are in the home and the legal parent has a disability according to policy in A-1051, Determining Incapacity.

Certify the stepparent and legal parent with disabilities for TANF-SP when the stepparent is included in the certified group. If the legal parent and stepparent live in the home and have mutual children, they must all be included in the same certified group.

8. People in Nursing Homes

If a member of the TANF-certified group temporarily enters a nursing facility, the individual's needs are left in the TANF budget during the nursing facility stay or until the individual is certified for Supplemental Security Income (SSI). The individual should be referred to the Social Security Office for an SSI eligibility determination.

A—222 Who Is Not Included

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TANF

The following are not included in the TANF-certified group:

1. Payee

A payee is a relative who meets relationship requirements and lives with, supervises, and cares for an eligible child. The payee is authorized to receive the TANF benefits for an eligible child but is not a member of the certified group because the person is a:

- legal parent who would be a caretaker but is ineligible due to receipt of SSI; or
- relative other than the legal parent who qualifies as a caretaker except the person:
 - chooses not to be included as caretaker;
 - receives SSI, Foster Care with Cash or Adoption Assistance with Cash payments;
 - is disqualified for an intentional program violation (IPV); or
 - fails to comply with a program requirement that would disqualify a legal parent (see No. 4, Disqualified Members, below).

Note: A payee who chooses not to be included as a caretaker on one EDG may be a caretaker on another TANF EDG for other related children.

2. Protective Payee

A protective payee must be selected to receive and manage the TANF benefit if the caretaker is not using the TANF payments for the children's benefit.

The protective payee must be someone who can help the person spend the household's TANF benefits properly. The person receiving TANF must agree to the person designated as the protective payee unless the:

- Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) designates a protective payee; or
- staff designate the grandparent (including great- or great-great-grandparent) as authorized representative and protective payee, because the parent is not using the TANF payments for the child's benefit.

The protective payee cannot be a:

- Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) employee; or
- person who provides HHSC services to the family.

The protective payee situation must be re-evaluated at each complete redetermination. For EDGs with a:

- DFPS-requested protective payee, DFPS must be contacted at each complete redetermination to determine whether the protective payee should continue; and
- grandparent designated as protective payee and authorized representative. Investigate any alleged report of the grandparent not using TANF for the child's benefit.

Note: When designating or continuing a protective payee, notify the person and allow an opportunity to appeal.

3. Representative Payee

A representative payee is designated if a person is unable to receive and manage the household's TANF or Medicaid benefits because of incapacity or incompetence. The representative payee must be knowledgeable about the family members and interested in the family's welfare. The person must designate this representative in writing if physically or mentally capable of doing so.

The representative payee may be the authorized representative who assisted in the eligibility process.

4. Disqualified Members

A legal parent is disqualified from the certified group if the person:

- does not meet citizenship requirements;
- refuses to comply with Medicaid third-party resource (TPR) requirements;
- does not comply with Social Security number requirements;
- is found guilty of an IPV;
- fails to timely report the temporary absence of a certified child;
- is a fugitive fleeing to avoid prosecution of or confinement for a felony criminal conviction, or found by a court to be violating federal or state probation or parole;
- is convicted of a felony drug offense (not deferred adjudication) for the possession, use or distribution of a controlled substance as defined in 102(6) of the Controlled Substances Act [U.S. Code (USC) 802(6)] that was committed on or after April 1, 2002, in Texas or another state;
- has received benefits for the total months allowed by the state time limit;
- is a minor parent who fails to comply with the unmarried minor parent domicile requirement; or
- is denied for refusal to cooperate with the program integrity assessment (that is, quality control) process.

Note: A legal parent is permanently disqualified for a felony drug conviction (not deferred adjudication) for an offense that was committed on or after April 1, 2002.

A child is disqualified from the certified group if the child:

- is a fugitive;
- fails to comply with Social Security number requirements;
- is a minor parent and fails to report the temporary absence of their child; or
- is convicted of a felony drug offense that was committed on or after April 1, 2002.

If the disqualified member wishes to apply for Medicaid, determine which medical program applies to the disqualified household member. If all eligibility requirements are met, the member is certified on the appropriate medical program.

When the criminal history report in the Data Broker system indicates the person has been convicted of an offense involving a controlled substance, the situation should be discussed with the person. If the person claims not to be the person indicated on the criminal history report but the identifying information on the report (name, date of birth, physical description) leads staff to believe the report is correct, or the person disagrees with other information provided in the report (for example, the type of conviction or whether it was a felony or misdemeanor), staff will:

- document the person's response in Case Comments;
- proceed with the appropriate EDG action without acting on the criminal history report;
- contact the Office of Inspector General (OIG) Benefits Program Integrity (BPI) Department by emailing the OIG BPI mailbox; and
- document the reason for contacting OIG BPI in Case Comments. Once OIG BPI obtains information to clear the discrepancy, the assigned OIG BPI investigator provides the information via email. Staff responsible for clearing the task must document the results of the OIG BPI's findings in Case Comments and, if applicable, enter information in the Data Collection-Individual Demographic-Conviction/Rehabilitation page. Make an overpayment referral if appropriate.

5. SSI Recipients

A TANF family member is removed from the grant when the person is certified for SSI. The Social Security Administration (SSA) notifies HHSC via an interface when a TANF recipient is determined eligible for SSI.

6. Residents in State Supported Living Centers for Individuals with Intellectual Disabilities

If a TANF recipient enters a state supported living center for persons with intellectual disabilities, the person's needs are removed from the TANF grant. If the recipient is the caretaker or payee, the grant continues for the remaining eligible children in another eligible person's name.

7. Strikers

A household's application or ongoing benefits are denied for any month in which a certified or disqualified legal parent is participating in a strike.

8. Foster Care with Cash Payment, Adoption Assistance with Cash Payment, and Permanency Care Assistance (PCA) with Cash Payment recipients.

A person receiving these cash benefits is not included in the TANF EDG.

Note: A person may potentially receive DFPS foster care through their 22nd birthday month. Adoption assistance and PCA are only received through the 18th birthday month unless the family signs an agreement after the youth turns age 16. When this occurs, the youth may receive adoption assistance or PCA through their 22nd birthday month.

9. Ineligible Children

A child who is ineligible, such as an ineligible alien child or a child who is not within the required degree of relationship to the adult caretaker or payee, is not included.

A—223 Certifying Children on Non-Parent Caretaker EDGs

Revision 16-3; Effective July 1, 2016

TANF

When an eligible child lives with a relative other than the legal parent, the child is certified on:

- a separate EDG when the relative receives TANF for children who are not the child's natural, adopted, or half siblings (designate the relative as a payee); or
- the same EDG with the non-parent caretaker when the relative:
 - requests it and is not receiving TANF for any other children; or

- is receiving TANF for children who are the child's natural, adopted, or half siblings.

Each other-related child (other than siblings) is certified on a separate EDG.

Exception: Other-related children are certified on the same EDG if:

- at least one EDG is ineligible separately;
- the members would be eligible if the EDGs were combined; and
- the relative requests that they be combined.

A child's TANF must not be denied because of the income or resources of a:

- child who is not the child's natural, adopted, or half sibling; or
- caretaker who is not the child's parent (see A-1366.2, Stepparent Budgeting Procedures).

When an EDG is denied because of the income or resources of a non-parent relative caretaker:

- process the denial for the EDG including the caretaker's request for aid; and
- process a separate EDG to determine the child's eligibility without the caretaker.

Note: Households that include a non-parent caretaker are not eligible for TANF-SP.

See B-480, A Household with Members on TANF, TANF-State Program (SP), TP 07, TP 08 and TP 20, for more information on the action to take when some members must be denied while others remain eligible.

A—224.1 TANF-SP EDGs with Stepchildren or a Parent's Child from a Previous Relationship

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The following must be included in the TANF-SP EDG:

- a child who lives with a natural/adoptive parent, a stepparent, and a sibling who is the parent and stepparent's mutual child.
- parents and all children, when:
 - the legal parents of a mutual child are not married to each other, and
 - one or both have a child living in the home who is not a mutual child.

If the household is ineligible for TANF-SP because they do not meet other TANF eligibility requirements such as income or resources, the family unit must remain as one filing unit even when stepchildren are included. In this situation, the advisor must determine whether the household meets eligibility requirements for the Medical Programs.

If an active TANF-SP EDG is denied because of earnings or the removal of the 90 percent earned income deduction and the household is receiving TP 08, the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) will deny both the TANF-SP and TP 08 EDGs and create:

- a transitional Medicaid EDG if the certified group meets the eligibility criteria; or
- another Medical Program type of assistance EDG for eligible members if they are not eligible for transitional Medicaid and are otherwise eligible for medical coverage.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Each other-related child living in the family (see A-223, Certifying Children on Non-Parent Caretaker EDGs) is certified on a separate EDG unless the child or other members are ineligible separately. If the child or other members are ineligible separately, the other-related child in the TANF-SP EDG is included. The advisor must ensure that the other-related child has the opportunity to continue receiving TANF when the TANF-SP EDG is denied.

A-230, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program

A—231 Who Is Included

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

SNAP

The following people must be certified as a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) household if they live together:

1. Parents and children (natural, adopted or step) age 21 or younger. Parents and children living together when the parent or child is away from home for employment or educational purposes only, and returns home at least one day a month are considered. This includes college students who are eligible for SNAP, as explained in B-410, Students in Higher Education.

Notes:

- Consider the individual's age as 22 beginning the month they turn age 22.
 - Do not consider a parent whose parental rights were terminated as the natural parent of a child.
 - The relationship between a stepparent and stepchild terminates when the marriage between the parent and stepparent terminates, either by death or divorce.
 - When DFPS places a child in foster care, the foster child is considered under parental control of the foster parent. If the foster child's parent moves into the home, the parent, child and foster parent must all be included in the SNAP household.
 - If the parents of a child do not live together and the child lives with each parent part of the month, the child can be certified with either parent as long as both parents do not apply. If both parents apply, then certify the parent who provides the majority of meals for the child.
2. A child under age 18 and any nonparent adult household member with parental control over the child. A child not under parental control may apply separately if the child purchases and prepares food separately. Individuals age 18 are considered beginning the month they turn age 18.

Exceptions: Even if under parental control of a nonparent household member:

- A foster parent or caregiver has the option to include or exclude a foster/Permanency Care Assistance (PCA) child/adult as a household member in the SNAP-certified group. Households with more than one child/adult can opt to include some foster/PCA children/adults while excluding others, even if the foster/PCA children/adults are related to each other or related to the foster parent or caregiver. A foster/PCA child/adult who is excluded from the foster/PCA family's SNAP-certified group is not eligible to participate in SNAP alone as a separate household or as a certified member on another household's SNAP EDG. See A-1326.4, Foster Care and Permanency Care Assistance (PCA) Payments, for information on how to budget foster care/PCA payments.
 - The household may consider a foster child as a boarder instead of a household member. See A-1323.4.3, Noncommercial Roomer/Boarder Payments.
 - A child under age 18 who purchases and prepares food separately can apply separately if the child is:
 - married and living with the spouse; or
 - the parent of a minor child living in the home.
 - A child under age 18 residing with a SNAP-CAP participant can apply separately. The minor child is certified as the SNAP head of household. See B-475.3, Household Composition.
3. Spouses. Spouses are people who:
 - are married to each other; or
 - live together and represent themselves to the community as married. This definition may differ from state laws governing common-law marriage.
 - A same-sex marriage that occurred before June 26, 2015, is considered valid effective June 26, 2015.
 - A same-sex marriage that occurred on or after June 26, 2015, is considered valid on the date it occurred.

Note: Spouses are considered to be living together even when one spouse:

- is away from home for employment or educational purposes only; and
- returns home at least one day a month.

Exception: SNAP-CAP participants are certified on separate EDGs.

A—232 Who Is Not Included

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

A—232.1 Nonmembers

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

The following are not included in a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)-certified group:

1. Roomers — Certify a roomer who pays for lodging but not food as a separate household unless the person meets one of the three categories of who is included in a SNAP household, if they live together.
2. Live-in attendants — Certify a live-in attendant as a separate household, unless the person meets one of the three categories of who to include in a SNAP household, if they live together.
3. Boarders — Boarders in noncommercial boarding houses cannot receive SNAP separate from the household they live with. Boarders who live in a commercial boarding house cannot participate in SNAP. Note: A foster parent or caretaker has the option to include or exclude a foster child or adult as a SNAP household member.
4. Ineligible students — Students in higher education who do not meet the student eligibility criteria.
5. New household members — Do not add new household members certified in another household to the new EDG until they are removed from the previous EDG. Exception: Residents in shelters for battered persons may receive two allotments in the same month, if the original benefits issued to the former household included the battered persons, the children and the abuser.
6. Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Combined Application Project (SNAP-CAP) participants — Certify people living with an active SNAP-CAP participant as a separate household.
7. Institutional residents — Residents who are offered more than half their meals from a facility that is not an approved institution.

Note: Residents of institutions such as homeless shelters, drug and alcohol treatment (D&A) or group living arrangement (GLA) facilities, or family violence shelters are potentially eligible for SNAP, if it is an approved institution. These residents may be certified separately, regardless of how they purchase and prepare meals with other residents. The resident's SNAP household still includes mandatory required SNAP household members, if they live together.

Common examples of institutions are hospitals, nursing homes, public or private homes for persons with a disability, establishments for delinquents and young offenders, group homes for children, penal and correctional institutions, jails, homeless shelters, and students living in a school dormitory where most meals are provided.

Foster placement agencies place some foster children or adults in homes or facilities other than foster parent homes, and are cared for by people who are employees of, or contract with placement agencies. Such facilities usually house multiple foster children or adults. Foster children or adults who reside in these unapproved institutions rather than in the foster parent's home, are considered institutionalized and cannot receive SNAP.

SNAP

The following are people who would be required SNAP household members but are disqualified. They cannot participate during their period of disqualification. However, the disqualified person's circumstances, including income and resources, are considered in determining the household's benefits.

1. Fugitives

People who are fleeing to avoid prosecution of or confinement for a felony criminal conviction, or are found by a court to be violating federal or state probation or parole.

2. People with a felony drug conviction

A person with a felony drug conviction (not deferred adjudication) in Texas or another state occurring on or after Sept. 1, 2015, for the possession, use or distribution of a controlled substance as defined in 102(6) of the Controlled Substance Act [21 USC 802(6)]:

- who violates a condition of parole or community supervision, incurs a two-year SNAP disqualification; or
- A person who is convicted of a subsequent felony drug offense in Texas or another state, while receiving SNAP, incurs a permanent disqualification from receiving SNAP.

The person's statement is accepted as verification of a felony drug conviction.

When the criminal history report in the Data Broker system indicates the person was convicted on or after Sept. 1, 2015, for an offense involving a controlled substance, discuss the situation with the person. If they claim not to be the person indicated on the criminal history report, but the identifying information on the report (name, date of birth, physical description) leads staff to believe the report is correct, or the person disagrees with other information provided in the report (such as the type of conviction or whether it was a felony or misdemeanor):

- document the person's response in Case Comments;
- proceed with the appropriate case action without acting on the criminal history report;
- contact the OIG by emailing the OIG Benefits Program Integrity \(BPI\) mailbox; and
- document the reason for contacting OIG BPI in Case Comments. Once OIG BPI obtains information to clear the discrepancy, the assigned OIG BPI investigator provides the information via email. Staff responsible for clearing this task must document the results of the OIG BPI's findings in Case Comments and, if applicable, enter information in the Data Collection-Individual Demographic-Conviction/Rehabilitation page. Make an overpayment referral if appropriate.

3. Intentional Program Violation (IPV)

People disqualified for an IPV in Texas or another state.

4. Noncooperation with SNAP Employment and Training (E&T)

People disqualified for failing to cooperate with E&T requirements.

5. Noncooperation with Social Security number (SSN) requirements

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

Medical Programs

The following individuals may be certified for medical coverage if they meet all eligibility criteria:

- children under age 19;
- other-related children under age 19;
- independent children under age 19;
- pregnant women;
- legal parent\(s\);
- caretaker relatives; or
- spouse of caretaker relatives.

MAGI rules are used to determine financial eligibility for certain Medical Programs. MAGI rules are based on Internal Revenue Service tax rules.

The following criteria are considered when determining the MAGI household composition for Medical Programs:

- tax status;
- tax relationships;
- living arrangements; and
- family relationships.

Tax Status

An individual's tax status must be designated before their MAGI household composition can be determined.

Tax status is based on the individual's self-declaration for what he or she plans to report on his or her federal income tax return for the taxable year in which eligibility for Medical Programs is requested.

Individuals must be designated as one of the following:

- A taxpayer – an individual who plans to file a federal income tax return for the taxable year in which eligibility for Medical Programs is requested and who is not claimed by another taxpayer. Spouses who plan to file a joint or separate federal income tax return are both considered taxpayers.

Note: For MAGI household composition purposes, an unmarried individual who intends to file a joint tax return is considered a taxpayer filing separately. An individual who is unmarried is not considered a taxpayer filing jointly.

- A tax dependent – an individual who plans to be claimed as a tax dependent by a taxpayer.

Note: An individual who is both a taxpayer and tax dependent is considered a tax dependent. Example: A college student who plans to file his or her own federal income tax return and expects to be claimed by his or her parents will be considered a tax dependent.

- A non-taxpayer/non-tax dependent – an individual who does not plan to file a federal income tax return in the taxable year in which eligibility for Medical Programs is requested and does not plan to be claimed by a taxpayer.

Tax Relationships

Individuals have a tax relationship to one another if they:

- plan to file a joint federal income tax return;
- are the taxpayer that plans to claim specific tax dependent(s); or
- are a tax dependent of a specific taxpayer.

Individuals do not have a tax relationship to anyone if they:

- do not plan to file a federal income tax return;
- are not the taxpayer planning to claim the specified tax dependent(s); or
- are not a tax dependent of a specified taxpayer.

Living Arrangements

Individuals are not required to live at the same physical address in order to apply for each other if they have a tax relationship, as explained in A-121, Receipt of Application.

Domicile requirements explained in A-900, Domicile, apply to TP 08, Parents and Caretaker Relatives Medicaid. A parent/caretaker relative must reside with a dependent child to receive TP 08 benefits.

A child entering a state hospital may qualify as an independent child. The child may qualify even if ordered by the court into a state hospital. A child is considered an independent child if court ordered into a state hospital because the parent/caretaker relative no longer has care and control. If the parent/caretaker relative admitted the child voluntarily into a state hospital, verification of whether the parent/caretaker relative still has care and control to determine independent child status is required.

An inquiry should be performed prior to certifying an independent child. The child is certified as an independent child if all eligibility criteria are met. The coverage continues for 12 months, even if the child is released from the state hospital. If a child is released from the facility prior to the end of the 12-month period, the address change is processed and coverage is continued.

Determining Custodial Parent

A custodial parent is established based on physical custody and who has legal authority to claim a child as a tax dependent specified in a court order, binding separation agreement, divorce agreement, or custody agreement.

- If there is no order or agreement, or in the event of a shared custody agreement without specifications for filing federal income tax returns, the custodial parent is the parent with whom the child spends most nights. In the event that the child spends an equal amount of nights with both parents, the advisor must make a prudent person decision regarding which parent should be considered the custodial parent.
- If both a custodial parent and a non-custodial parent declare that they plan to claim the same child as a tax dependent on their federal income tax return, the advisor should build the child's MAGI household composition as a tax dependent of the custodial parent.

Family Relationships

Family relationships that impact household composition include:

- marriage;
- parents of children under age 19; and
- siblings under age 19 or a child under age 19.

The tax status of the individual impacts how the family relationship is used in determining MAGI household composition.

Notes:

- For MAGI only applications and renewals, a relationship and tax status of unmarried and intending to file jointly is not an indication that the individual is currently married or that there is a discrepancy in the individual's marital status.
- For integrated applications and renewals that include SNAP or TANF, a relationship and tax status of unmarried and intending to file jointly should be treated as a case clue if marital status is questionable.
- For all applications and renewals, if the client provides a tax document with an indication of marital status that is inconsistent with the marital status that was reported on an application, the discrepancy in the marital status must be resolved.

A household cannot choose to exclude a child from the budget group when determining eligibility for Medical Programs.

The policy in A-241, Budget Group, and A-242, Certified Group, is used to determine whom to include in the budget and certified group.

The following individuals are included in the taxpayer's MAGI household composition:

- The taxpayer;
- The taxpayer's spouse, if the taxpayer and the spouse live together;
- The taxpayer's spouse, if the taxpayer and spouse file a joint federal income tax return; and
- Any individual the taxpayer plans to claim as a tax dependent.

A—241.1.2 Tax Dependent Exceptions

Revision 19-1; Effective January 1, 2019

Medical Programs

If a tax dependent meets any one of the following exceptions, staff must use the non-taxpayer/non-tax dependent rules explained in A-241.1.4, Non-Taxpayer/Non-Tax Dependent's or Tax Dependent with an Exception MAGI Household Composition, (not the tax dependent rules) to build the tax dependent's MAGI household composition:

- The tax dependent is not the taxpayer's spouse or the taxpayer's child (natural, adopted or step) regardless of age;
- The tax dependent is a child under age 19 who lives with both parents who do not plan to file a joint federal income tax return and the child was claimed by one parent; or
- The tax dependent is a child under age 19 who is claimed as a tax dependent only by a non-custodial parent.

For a child claimed as a tax dependent by both parents who are filing jointly, with one parent living outside the home, the child does not meet the third tax dependent exception. Staff must build the child's MAGI household composition using the tax dependent rules explained in A-241.1.3, Tax Dependent's MAGI Household Composition.

A—241.1.3 Tax Dependent's MAGI Household Composition

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

If an individual is a tax dependent and does not meet a tax dependent exception previously listed, the following individuals must be included in the tax dependent's MAGI household composition:

- The tax dependent;
- The individuals in the MAGI household composition of the taxpayer who is planning to claim the tax dependent; and
- The tax dependent's spouse, if the tax dependent and the spouse live together.

A—241.1.4 Non-Taxpayer/Non-Tax Dependent's or Tax Dependent with an Exception MAGI Household Composition

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

If an individual does not plan to file a tax return nor plans to be claimed as a tax dependent, the individual is considered a non-taxpayer/non-tax dependent. All tax dependents who meet an exception – Tax Dependent Exceptions – will build his or her MAGI household composition using the non-taxpayer/non-tax dependent rules.

The following individuals must be included in the non-taxpayer/non-tax dependent's or tax dependent with exception's MAGI household composition if living together:

- The individual,

- The individual's spouse,
- The individual's children under age 19, and
- If the individual is a child under age 19:
 - The individual's parents, and
 - The individual's siblings under age 19.

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

Medical Programs

The expected number of unborn children are included in the MAGI household composition of:

- a pregnant woman; and
- any individual whose MAGI household composition includes a pregnant woman.

Note: When including the expected number of unborn children in the MAGI household composition, the pregnant woman is not required to be certified on a medical program.

- publicly operated community residence that serves no more than 16 residents, such as a county emergency shelter;
- non-public facility, such as a group or foster home or a general residential operations facility;
- state hospital; or
- halfway house operated by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) or Juvenile Probation Department (JPD) that allows residents freedom of movement and association according to the following tenets:
 - residents are not precluded from working outside the facility in employment available to people not under justice system supervision;

- residents can use community resources at will; and
- residents can seek health care treatment in the community to the same or similar extent as other Medicaid enrollees.

A—241.4 Family Violence Exemption

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

Individuals may not be able to or may not want to provide information about a member of their MAGI household composition because they fear physical or emotional harm by that person. Individuals who are pended for missing information about a MAGI household composition member who may be a family violence offender can contact HHSC to request the family violence exemption by calling 2-1-1 or visiting a local office.

Advisors must ask the individual requesting the family violence exemption, at the time the exemption is requested, if they want to be designated as the head of household for the case. Advisors must also confirm the address that should be used for agency correspondence and offer to set up an alternate address if needed. Individuals experiencing family violence must be allowed to provide an address for agency correspondence other than the address on the case with the offender.

If the individual wants to pursue the family violence exemption, advisors must determine whether the individual has existing approved Office of the Attorney General (OAG) good cause for TANF or TP 08 as explained in A-1130, Explanation of Good Cause.

- If the individual has existing OAG good cause, no further action is required for the individual. The advisor must select "OAG Good Cause" as the verification source in TIERS.
- If the individual does not have existing OAG good cause, the advisor must make a referral to a family violence specialist at a nearby family violence service provider, following the process explained in A-241.4.1, Referral to a Family Violence Specialist.

A—241.4.1 Referral to a Family Violence Specialist

Advisors must send the contact information for the nearest family violence shelter to the individual pursuing the family violence exemption using Form H1071, Family Violence Exemption for Medicaid and CHIP. Form H1071 informs the individual how they can claim the family violence exemption and is sent along with Form H1020, Request for Information or Action.

The individual must contact the family violence specialist and explain the need to claim the family violence exemption. After the family violence specialist makes the recommendation, the family violence specialist completes Form H1706, Good Cause Recommendation and Family Violence Exemption, and may mail or fax the form to HHSC, or send the form back with the individual to HHSC. Only a family violence specialist can recommend the exemption using Form H1706. Form H1706 is due 10 days from the date Form H1020 was sent (or 30 days from the file date, whichever is later).

- If the family violence specialist recommends the family violence exemption, the exemption is granted and will affect all MAGI EDGs on the case by removing the offender from their MAGI household composition.
- If the family violence specialist does not recommend the family violence exemption, the exemption is denied. The advisor must re-pend the MAGI EDGs to give the individual additional time to provide the information that was originally requested for the MAGI household member.
- If Form H1706 is not returned by the due date, the exemption is denied. All pending MAGI EDGs are denied for failure to provide information that was originally requested for the MAGI household member.
- If the client withdraws the request for the family violence exemption, the client must provide the information that was originally requested for the MAGI household member by the due date, or the pending MAGI EDGs are denied.

Once the family violence exemption has been established by a family violence specialist, advisors do not need to re-evaluate the exemption. If the individual contacts HHSC to indicate that they no longer wish to receive the family violence exemption, advisors should update the page by indicating that the exemption has been withdrawn by the client.

The individual continues to receive the family violence exemption until there is a break in eligibility for all MAGI EDGs on the case. If an individual wants to pursue the family violence exemption again after a break in eligibility, advisors must follow the referral process explained in this section.

A—242 Certified Group

Revision 17-1; Effective January 1, 2017

Medical Programs

Each EDG will have one individual in the certified group.

TP 08

Parents and caretaker relatives caring for a dependent child who receives Medicaid.

TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Pregnant women, children under age 19, and parents and caretaker relatives who are ineligible for ongoing Medicaid because they are non-immigrants, undocumented aliens, or certain legal permanent resident aliens who do not meet the citizenship eligibility requirement but meet all other eligibility requirements. Only a person with an emergency medical condition is certified.

TP 40

Minor or adult pregnant woman unless disqualified from Medical Programs for not complying with TPR or SSN requirements.

TP 43

Children under age 1.

If the child is hospitalized on the child's first birthday, eligibility is continued through the month the hospitalization ends. See A-825, Medicaid Termination, for additional information.

TP 44

Children age 6 to 18. Children are eligible through the month of their 19th birthday.

Note: A child should be certified for TP 48 rather than TP 44 the month of the child's sixth birthday.

If the child is hospitalized on his 19th birthday, eligibility is continued through the month the hospitalization ends. See A-825, Medicaid Termination, for additional information.

TP 45

Children under 12 months old whose mother was eligible for and receiving Medicaid at the time of the child's birth. The mother's eligibility for the child's birth month can be determined retroactively.

TP 48

Children age 1 to 5. Children are eligible through the month of their sixth birthday.

Note: A child should be certified for TP 45 (or 43) rather than TP 48 the month of the child's first birthday.

If the child is hospitalized on the child's sixth birthday, eligibility continues through the month the hospitalization ends. See A-825, Medicaid Termination, for additional information.

TP 56

The following individuals should be certified for TP 56 if they meet all other eligibility criteria:

1. A pregnant woman with household income that exceeds the income limits for TP 40 unless disqualified from Medical Programs for not complying with:
 - TPR requirements; or
 - SSN requirements.
2. Children under age 19 with household income that exceeds the income limits for TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48 unless disqualified from Medical Programs for not complying with:
 - TPR requirements; or
 - SSN requirements.

SNAP and TANF

Fugitive status for people who are fleeing felons or violating their probation or parole must be verified.

TANF

There are no verification requirements for household determination. See A-500, Age/Relationship; A-900, Domicile; and A-1000, Deprivation.

Verify out-of-state disqualifications for felony drug convictions.

SNAP

Verify the following:

- household size, if questionable, or if a regional requirement;
- out-of-state disqualifications for intentional program violations;
- out-of-state disqualifications for felony drug convictions;
- compliance with parole or community supervision for individuals with a felony drug conviction on or after Sept. 1, 2015 at each application, renewal, and when adding a new individual with a felony drug conviction at a change; and
- whether a felony drug conviction is:
 - subsequent to another felony drug conviction on or after Sept. 1, 2015; and
 - received while the individual was receiving SNAP.

The individual's statement is acceptable verification of a felony drug conviction.

The individual's statement about who buys and prepares meals, is acceptable unless questionable.

An elderly person with disabilities claiming separate household status must provide verification of:

- meeting criteria in B-432.1, Social Security's Criteria for Disability, if questionable; and
- other household members' income.

Medical Programs

In order for an advisor to determine a person's MAGI household composition, each individual on the application must provide his or her tax status, which will identify the individual as a taxpayer, tax dependent, a non-taxpayer or non-tax dependent. Additionally, applicants must provide the following information on their tax relationships to one another:

- a taxpayer who plans to claim one or more dependents must provide the name(s) of the dependent(s);
- a taxpayer who plans to file a joint federal income tax return with a spouse must provide the spouse's name;
- a taxpayer who plans to file a separate federal income tax return from his or her spouse must provide the name and filing status of the spouse; and
- a tax dependent must provide the name of the taxpayer(s) who expects to claim him or her.

Note: For a pregnant woman, if tax status information is not available and the client cannot be reached, the advisor can create a Medicaid for Pregnant Women (TP 40) EDG and certify the pregnant woman by postponing verification of tax status, as explained in A-145.1, Postponed Verification Procedures. TIERS will use the non-tax payer/non-tax dependent household rules to build and pend the TP 40 EDG for the tax status information. Advisors must verify tax status for a TP 40 EDG after certification if the tax status was not verified by the client during the eligibility determination.

A—251 Verification Sources

Revision 19-1; Effective January 1, 2019

SNAP and TANF

- Current school record showing the same address as the specified relative
- Visual observation of the child
- Statement from non-relative landlord
- Statement from non-relative neighbor
- Hospital, clinic, health department or private doctor's record
- Statement from clergy
- Court child support order

- Juvenile court records
- Child welfare records
- Marriage license/certificate
- Juvenile Medicaid Tracker (only for those placed or released by the Texas Juvenile Justice Department or Juvenile Probation Department)

An out-of-state human services agency can verify intentional program violations and felony drug convictions.

Fugitive status for fleeing felons and probation or parole violators can only be verified by law enforcement with a:

- written notification that law enforcement is actively seeking to apprehend the individual within the next 30 days; and
- copy of the arrest warrant.

For fugitives who are fleeing felons, the arrest warrant must also contain one of the following National Crime Information Center (NCIC) codes:

- Escape (4901);
- Flight to Avoid (4902); or
- Flight-Escape (4999).

Note: Staff must not pend for, or attempt to obtain, the verification of fugitive status for fleeing felons or probation or parole violators from the household. Verification of fugitive status is provided to HHSC by law enforcement when they are actively seeking to apprehend individuals.

TANF

An out-of-state human services agency can verify time limits.

SNAP

Compliance with parole or community supervision for people with a felony drug conviction on or after Sept. 1, 2015 can be verified using:

- Form H1806, Parole/Community Supervision Report; or
- answers to the parole or community supervision compliance questions submitted online through YourTexasBenefits.com or the Your Texas Benefits Mobile App when the person who has the felony drug conviction is the same individual who:
 - signed the online application;
 - signed the renewal; or
 - submitted the change.

Subsequent felony drug convictions while receiving SNAP can be verified using:

- Criminal history in Data Broker
- Out-of-state human services agency
- TIERS inquiry

A person born in the 50 states, District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, the U.S. Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Swain's Island or Northern Mariana Islands is considered a U.S. citizen.

A person born abroad to at least one U.S. citizen parent may claim derivative citizenship. See How to Verify Citizenship, A-351.4.

Exception: Undocumented aliens applying for Emergency Medicaid do not have to meet citizenship status eligibility requirements.

A-311 Alien Status Policies

Revision 22-2; Effective April 1, 2022

All Programs

Before certifying any alien resident, ensure that the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS):

- legally admitted the person to live in the United States; and
- they meet the definition of a "qualified immigrant".

Review the person's USCIS document(s) and the Qualified Alien Status Eligibility charts to determine the programs where the person is potentially eligible. Disqualify a person who does not have acceptable alien status. Check USCIS documents for expiration dates. An expired document is not acceptable.

Exception:

Do not disqualify the person:

- if the person provides an expired USCIS document; and
- the Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) response indicates the person is a Lawful Permanent Resident – Employment Authorized; and
- the 'Date Admitted To' response shows 'Indefinite', the person meets alien status criteria.

Notes:

- Use the TANF and Medical Programs Alien Status Eligibility Charts to determine Emergency Medicaid eligibility for aliens without acceptable status.
- Before disqualifying a person with an expired document, check the expiration date of the document in SAVE. USCIS automatically extends certain I-766, Employment Authorization Documents, for up to 180 days when USCIS receives a renewal application for the document. When this occurs, SAVE displays the new expiration date. Do not disqualify the person if SAVE shows the I-766 is current.

An illegal alien is one who has received a final deportation order. Advisors must report applicants who are illegal aliens to USCIS in writing. The supervisor must sign a written notification and send it to the nearest USCIS office, which can be found at https://egov.uscis.gov/crisgwi/go?action=offices.type&OfficeLocator.office_type=LO.

Except for using the SAVE Verification Information System (VIS), advisors may contact USCIS on behalf of an alien only at the individual's written request. If the alien does not wish to contact USCIS or give the advisor permission, the advisor must advise the household that the household may be certified without the alien (that is, disqualify the alien).

A-313 Absence of Proof of Alien Status

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

Advisors must re-verify the alien's USCIS card if the:

- USCIS document has expired; and

- alien wants to continue receiving or reapplies for benefits.

Advisors must allow an alien 10 days to update the card with the USCIS. If the individual cannot provide an updated document or proof within 10 days, the alien is disqualified until the individual provides a valid USCIS card or proof of application for a new card.

Exception: If the individual's USCIS document is expired and the SAVE response shows the individual is a Lawful Permanent Resident - Employment Authorized and the Date Admitted To response is Indefinite, the individual meets alien status criteria. These individuals must not be disqualified.

TANF and Medical Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

When a certified alien's USCIS document expires before the periodic review date, the advisor must schedule a special review the month the document expires.

SNAP

Advisors must set the certification period to end the same month the USCIS document expires or schedule a special review for the month the document expires.

For streamlined reporting (SR) households, the advisor must not set a special review for the month the document expires. A document that expires during the SR certification period does not cause an individual to lose eligibility. The advisor may assume that the household will renew the document upon expiration and re-evaluate at the next certification.

A public charge is defined by law as an alien who has applied for and received public cash assistance for income maintenance, such as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) cash assistance, Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or institutionalization for long-term care at government expense, such as nursing home care.

A-315.1 Providing Information to Immigrants Regarding Public Charge

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

If an immigrant inquires, staff must inform the individual that receipt of TANF cash benefits places the immigrant at risk of being considered a public charge and the individual may lose his or her immigrant status.

Exception: According to USCIS, the following individuals are exempt from public charge:

- refugees,
- asylees,
- asylum applicants,
- refugees and asylees applying for adjustment of permanent resident status,
- Cuban/Haitian entrants and parolees,
- Special Immigrant Visa holders from Iraq and Afghanistan,
- Amerasian immigrants (for their initial admission),
- individuals granted relief under the Cuban Adjustment Act (CAA),

- individuals granted relief under the Nicaraguan and Central American Relief Act (NACARA),
- individuals granted relief under the Haitian Refugee Immigration Fairness Act (HRIFA),
- individuals applying for a T Visa,
- individuals applying for a U Visa,
- individuals who possess a T Visa and are trying to become a permanent resident,
- individuals who possess a U Visa and are trying to become a permanent resident,
- individuals who have been certified by the Office of Refugee Resettlement as a victim of trafficking (prior to being issued a T Visa by USCIS),
- applications for Temporary Protected Status (TPS), and
- certain applicants under the LIFE Act Provisions.

SNAP and Medical Programs

If an immigrant inquires, the advisor must assure the individual that receipt of Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and/or medical program benefits does not place the immigrant at risk of becoming a public charge.

A-315.2 Receiving Other Benefits

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

There are other public assistance programs that immigrants may apply for that do not result in public charge considerations. These programs include: Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC), immunizations, prenatal care, testing and treatment of communicable diseases, emergency medical assistance, emergency disaster relief, housing assistance, and child care.

A-316 Sponsored Alien

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

A sponsored alien is an individual who has been sponsored by a person who signed an affidavit of support (USCIS Form I-864 or I-864-A) on or after December 19, 1997, agreeing to support the alien as a condition of the alien's entry into the U.S.

A sponsor is someone who brings family-based or certain employment-based immigrants to the U.S. and demonstrates that he or she can provide enough financial support to the immigrant so that the individual does not rely on public benefits.

If necessary, advisors use the SAVE system to verify whether an alien has a sponsor. The SAVE system, through additional verification, can provide the sponsor's name and address.

- Alien sponsor unearned income,
- Alien sponsor self-employment income,
- Alien sponsor resources (if applicable, as explained in A-1245, Resources of an Alien's Sponsor), and
- Alien sponsor citizenship status or alien number if the sponsor is a lawful permanent resident.

The income and resources (if applicable) of an alien's sponsor (and the sponsor's spouse if the spouse also signed an affidavit of support, USCIS Form I-864) must be counted (deemed) as belonging to the sponsored alien, regardless of actual availability when determining the sponsored alien's eligibility and benefit amounts.

Deeming of the sponsor's income and resources (if applicable) to the sponsored alien lasts until the:

- sponsored alien becomes a naturalized citizen,
- sponsored alien can be credited with 40 qualifying quarters of work, or
- sponsor dies.

Sponsored aliens not subject to sponsor deeming are:

- children under age 18;
- sponsored aliens who are ineligible for benefits (examples include those who are disqualified from getting benefits or those considered non-members, such as students who do not meet SNAP student eligibility criteria);
- battered spouses or children;
- refugees, parolees, asylees, people granted withholding of deportation, Amerasians, trafficking victims, and Iraqi and Afghan special immigrants;
- aliens whose sponsor has not signed an affidavit of support;
- aliens whose sponsor is in the same household/Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) household composition; and
- indigent aliens.

If the sponsored alien fails to provide sponsor verification by the required date in B-115, Pending Verification on Applications, the alien's application is denied.

Note: Resources of an alien sponsor must only be verified if resources are counted for that program, as explained in A-1245.

SNAP

If the sponsored alien fails to provide sponsor verification by the required date in B-115, the sponsored alien is disqualified until the alien provides the proof. If eligible, remaining household members may participate while the alien is disqualified. If the disqualified alien later provides the proof, the advisor processes it as a reported change. The Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) is denied if the household fails to provide proof of the disqualified alien's own income.

TANF and Medical Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

LPRs admitted prior to Aug. 22, 1996, meet the alien eligibility requirement by having 40 qualifying quarters of social security coverage. LPRs admitted on or after Aug. 22, 1996, meet the alien eligibility requirement by having 40 countable qualifying quarters of social security coverage, if five years have passed since the legal date of entry. An LPR does not have to meet the 40-quarter requirement, including the five-year wait, if any of the following apply.

The alien:

- has a military connection;
- entered the U.S. with a status described in Chart C of A-342, TANF and Medical Programs Alien Status Eligibility Charts, and meets the eligibility criteria for refugees, asylees, etc., or meets the criteria in A-343, How to Determine Eligibility for Battered Aliens; and

A-331 Whose Quarters Can Be Considered

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

For purposes of establishing eligibility through the use of the 40 "qualifying quarters" requirement, LPRs are credited with quarters of earnings for the:

- LPR,
- LPR's current spouse or deceased spouse regardless if the spouse is an LPR or a U.S. citizen, and
- LPR's parent before the LPR turned age 18. This includes adoptive parents or stepparents.

Note: All of the quarters earned by the LPR's parents through the quarter the LPR turns age 18 are counted.

When determining whether to credit the quarters to an individual's spouse, the advisor must count quarters earned:

- beginning with the quarter from the date of marriage, and
- by a deceased spouse only if the marriage was not terminated before the spouse died.

Quarters earned by divorced spouses for either ex-spouses do not count. LPRs who divorce after certification retain their eligible alien status through the end of the current certification period. This also applies to stepchildren.

Until the quarter a child turns age 18, to meet the 40-quarter requirement, a child may use quarters earned by:

- natural or adoptive parents;
- stepparents from the date of marriage to the legal parent; and
- deceased parents.

Qualified aliens with a battered alien status do not need to be credited with 40 qualifying quarters of social security coverage, nor do they have a seven-year limited eligibility period.

SNAP

Advisors follow the steps in the chart below to determine whether an alien claiming battered status is potentially eligible for SNAP.

Step	Yes	No
1. Can the alien provide USCIS documentation* that identifies the alien as the self-petitioning spouse, ex-spouse or child of an abusive U.S. citizen or LPR?	Go to Step 2.	Stop — The alien is not eligible.

The alien: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ is under age 18; ○ is the spouse or minor unmarried dependent child of a person who is an active duty military member or an honorably discharged veteran; ○ has resided in the U.S. for 5 years from the date that the petition for battered status was approved and issued (Note: This is not the same as residing in the U.S. for 5 years as a qualified alien as defined in A-311.1); or ○ meets the SNAP definition of disability in B-432, Definition of Disability (regardless of when the alien acquired a disability or entered the U.S.). 	Go to Step 3.	Stop — The alien is not eligible.

A-351 Verification of Citizenship

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Items used to verify citizenship for TANF can be used for SNAP and vice versa. Items used to verify citizenship for Medical Programs can also be used for TANF and SNAP. For Medicaid Programs, only verification sources listed in A-358.1, Citizenship, can be used to verify citizenship.

TANF

Advisors verify citizenship for all household members applying for benefits. Individuals are allowed 10 days to provide proof. Advisors must document the type of proof provided. Advisors do not reverify citizenship at complete or incomplete reviews unless questionable.

If the applicant or recipient refuses or fails without good cause to provide proof, the individual is disqualified until proof is provided.

SNAP

Advisors must verify U.S. citizenship for certified members if questionable or if a regional requirement.

If an individual fails to provide verification of citizenship for Medical Programs, the claim of U.S. citizenship is not considered questionable for SNAP based solely on this reason.

A person with a questionable claim is disqualified until proof of citizenship is received.

Before certifying an individual who has declared that they are a U.S. Citizen, the advisor must verify that the applicant or recipient is a U.S. citizen. Once verified, citizenship does not need to be verified again unless questionable.

Applicants requesting three months prior Medicaid coverage must provide citizenship verification before prior coverage can be provided.

Exception: Current Medicare and SSI recipients are exempt from the verification requirement. Individuals who are receiving Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance (RSDI) based on disability, and who are in a 24-month waiting period to receive Medicare, are considered Medicare recipients for the citizenship and identity verification requirement.

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

Medical Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 45 and TA 85

Medicaid applicants who declare themselves to be U.S. citizens or declare to have an eligible alien status, but for whom verification of citizenship or alien status is unavailable, must be allowed a period of reasonable opportunity to provide verification of citizenship or alien status. Reasonable opportunity is defined as the 95-day period a person is allowed to provide this verification beginning the day the Form TF0001 is generated.

At application and when adding a person during a redetermination or change, if the person does not provide proof of citizenship or alien status and:

- no other information is required to determine eligibility, certify the person for Medicaid if all other eligibility requirements are met, send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, and provide a period of reasonable opportunity.
- other information is required to determine eligibility, request verification of the other information in addition to citizenship or alien status prior to providing a period of reasonable opportunity. If the other information is not returned, deny the person. If the person returns the other information but does not provide proof of citizenship or alien status, certify the person for Medicaid, send Form TF0001, and provide a period of reasonable opportunity.

Form TF0001 informs the person that verification of citizenship or alien status is required within 95 days and lists the names of each person who must provide citizenship verification. The period of reasonable opportunity begins the day Form TF0001 is generated.

All new applicants must be given a period of reasonable opportunity even if they have received a previous reasonable opportunity period.

The reasonable opportunity period may be triggered under the following conditions:

- the person cannot provide a Social Security number (SSN) needed to electronically verify citizenship with the Social Security Administration (SSA);
- the data available from an electronic data source and the person's declaration of citizenship or alien status are inconsistent; or
- electronic verification is unsuccessful, including agency efforts to resolve any inconsistencies, and additional documentation is still needed.

The day the reasonable opportunity period expires (the 95th day), TIERS generates an alert that creates a task. If verification of citizenship or alien status has not been provided, deny the person. 30 days advance notice of adverse action is provided to the household after informing them of the denial of ongoing benefits using Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action.

A-351.2 Using State Online Query (SOLQ) or Wire Third-Party Query (WTPY) to Verify Citizenship

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

If an applicant has an SSN, use SOLQ or WTPY to verify citizenship.

The system attempts to verify citizenship using SOLQ through Electronic Data Sources (ELDS). If the SOLQ system is unresponsive or unavailable due to system failure, advisors must attempt to verify using WTPY.

If the SSN is verified, WTPY provides a response code for verification of citizenship. Advisors follow the steps in the chart below to determine the required advisor action for each response code. These response codes are only provided for Medicaid or CHIP requests.

If the WTPY response code is...

then staff must ...

A

SSN is verified, there is no indication of death, and the allegation of citizenship is consistent with SSA data,

1. Select "Verified by SSA (SOLQ, WTPY, and HUB)" in the SSN verification drop-down menu.
2. Select "Verified by SSA (SOLQ, WTPY, and HUB)" in the citizenship verification drop-down menu.

If the WTPY response code is...then staff must ...*B

SSN is verified, there is no indication of death, and the allegation of citizenship is NOT consistent with SSA data,

1. Select “Verified by SSA (SOLQ, WTPY, and HUB)” in the SSN verification drop-down menu.
2. See the process for If unable to verify citizenship (Code B) below.

C

SSN is verified, there is indication of death, and the allegation of citizenship is consistent with SSA data,

1. Select “Verified by SSA (SOLQ, WTPY, and HUB)” in the SSN verification drop-down menu.
2. Treat the death information as a change using policy in B-600, Changes.

D

SSN is verified, there is indication of death, and the allegation of citizenship is NOT consistent with SSA data,

1. Select “Verified by SSA (SOLQ, WTPY, and HUB)” in the SSN verification drop-down menu.
2. Treat the death information as a change using policy in B-600.

If unable to, Advisors should attempt to verify citizenship using the Birth Verification System (BVS).

1. If staff is unable to verify citizenship using BVS and additional information is required to determine eligibility, request the additional information and verification of citizenship and allow the individual at least 10 days to provide proof.
 - o If the client does not return the additional information by the final due date, the advisor must deny the case for failure to provide required information.
 - o If the client provides the additional information, but does not provide verification of citizenship, the advisor must allow the individual a period of reasonable opportunity (explained in A-351.1, Reasonable Opportunity) to provide the verification of citizenship.
2. If staff is unable to verify citizenship using BVS and no other information is required to determine eligibility, the advisor must allow the individual a period of reasonable opportunity to provide the verification without pending the EDG.

After allowing reasonable opportunity, if the recipient refuses or fails to provide proof, the advisor must deny the individual until proof of citizenship is provided.

SOLQ or WTPY responses may also include information on the receipt of SSI or RSDI. Advisors can find more information on the treatment of RSDI and SSI income explained in A-1324, Government Payments.

If the WTPY system is unresponsive or unavailable due to system failure, advisors must not deny or delay certification of Medicaid or CHIP coverage for failure to verify SSN or citizenship. Advisors must:

- enter the SSN as provided by the applicant into TIERS and allow the automated SSA interface to verify the SSN; and
- allow the individual a period of reasonable opportunity (explained in A-351.1) to provide the verification of citizenship.

A-351.3 Good Cause Determination

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Good cause exists when the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) determines that circumstances beyond the individual's control prevent proving U.S. citizenship. The individual's statement that proof is delayed is acceptable.

At initial application and when adding a person, good cause is allowed until the next complete review. The individual must be advised that the verification must be provided by the next complete review or the individual will be disqualified.

A-351.3.1 Referrals to OIG

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Advisors must disqualify and refer an individual to the Office of Inspector General (OIG) if:

- the individual previously claimed to be a U.S. citizen but could not provide proof after allowing good cause; and
- other information indicates the individual's claim of citizenship is questionable.

A-351.4 How to Verify Citizenship

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Advisors may refer to A-358.1, Citizenship, for common sources used to verify U.S. citizenship. For Medical Programs, advisors use the most reliable level of verification available from the sources listed as acceptable for Medical Programs. An affidavit is used only as a last resort when other verification is not available.

Advisors should explore derivative citizenship for any applicant born abroad to at least one U.S. citizen parent. If the applicant claims derivative citizenship, the applicant must provide a Certificate of Citizenship issued by the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services.

The advisor should advise signers that the affidavit is a sworn statement; signers can certify only those facts of which they have personal knowledge. The affidavit must state that the signer:

- is a U.S. citizen;
- knows that the applicant is a U.S. citizen; and
- may be fined, imprisoned or both if false information is given.

Through supervisory channels, the advisor must ask the regional attorney to make a determination if the applicant:

- does not have proof of citizenship and cannot obtain an affidavit as described above; or
- claims derivative citizenship and does not have a Certificate of Citizenship.

A-352 Verification of Alien Status

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Advisors must verify alien status by:

- obtaining documentation of alien status, as explained in A-340, Qualified Alien Status Eligibility Charts; and
- accessing the USCIS SAVE VIS, as explained in A-355, Verifying Alien's USCIS Documents.

Advisors pend the EDG to allow an alien to update the alien's status with USCIS. An alien who does not have acceptable status is disqualified. If a certified alien's document expires before the next redetermination, the alien's immigration status must be re-verified following policies and procedures in A-313, Absence of Proof of Alien Status.

Advisors use the SAVE VIS:

- at application;
- when adding a new household member identified as an alien; or
- when the client's USCIS document has expired.

Notes: If the alien's USCIS document is expired and the SAVE response shows;

- The individual is a Lawful Permanent Resident - Employment Authorized and the Date Admitted is "Response is Indefinite," the individual meets an alien status criteria. These individuals must not be disqualified.
- The individual's I-766, Employment Authorization Document, is not expired. These individuals must not be disqualified due to having an expired document.

SAVE does not contain information about victims of severe trafficking or nonimmigrant alien family members. At application, advisors must call the trafficking verification toll-free number at 866-401-5510 to confirm the validity of the certification letter or Derivative T Visa and to notify the Office of Refugee Resettlement of the benefits for which the individual is applying.

Medicaid and CHIP applicants or recipients who declare an alien status, but for whom verification of alien status is unavailable, must be allowed a period of reasonable opportunity to provide verification of alien status as explained in A-351.1, Reasonable Opportunity.

A-353.1 Verification of Veteran Status

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Advisors must verify an individual's eligible veteran status by:

- a discharge certificate; or
- Form DD-214 or equivalent that shows the individual previously met active duty status in the armed forces.

Note: Discharge certificates that show character of discharge as anything but "honorable" are not acceptable. A character of discharge "Under Honorable Conditions" is not an "honorable" discharge for purposes of eligibility.

If the veteran does not have proof of discharge status, the veteran is referred to the Veteran's Administration to obtain verification.

A-353.2 Verification of Active Duty Military

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Individuals who claim they are currently on active duty in the military must provide a:

- current Military Identification Card, Form DD-2 (Active); or
- copy of their current military orders.

If the active duty military member does not provide proof of active duty status, the advisor must request other forms of proof.

A-353.3 Verification of a Spouse or Minor Unmarried Dependent Child of a Veteran or Active Duty Military Member or Unmarried Surviving Spouse of a Deceased Veteran or Active Duty Military Member

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Staff must verify whether an alien meets the eligibility requirements as:

- a spouse or minor unmarried dependent child of a veteran or active duty military member; or
- an unmarried surviving spouse of a deceased veteran or active duty military member.

To verify, advisors may use one of the following methods:

- view Form DD-214 for the discharged veteran;
- view the Military Identification Card (DD-2) that shows that the alien is married to or is a minor unmarried dependent child of a veteran or active duty military member; or
- refer the individual to the Veteran's Administration for verification.

A-354 Verifying 40 "Qualifying Quarters"

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Advisors must verify 40 qualifying quarters for LPR applicants or household additions that must meet this requirement. Advisors use the WTPY 40 Quarters Verification System to verify covered wages. Once verified, this information does not have to be reverified.

A-354.1 Response from Social Security Administration's (SSA) WTPY System

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

SSA does not complete the posting of covered earnings quarters for any one year until the following year (around August). Example: Quarters earned in 2012 may not be posted on the WTPY system until August 2013. These quarters are referred to as "Lag" quarters.

A response from SSA on the 40 quarters verification request takes approximately 48 hours to receive.

Advisors base the quarters of covered earnings on the calendar year's total earnings. Each year, the amount of income needed to earn a quarter changes. State office advises staff of the change each year.

For 2012, an individual must earn $1,130 to earn one quarter. If the individual earned at least $4,520 for 2012 ($1,130 x 4), the client has four qualifying quarters for the year.

Note: Advisors must not allow credit for an incomplete or future quarter. Example: The quarter of July to September 2012 cannot be counted until October 2012, even though the individual earned enough income by March 2012 to receive credit for three quarters in 2012.

A-354.2 Non-Covered Wages

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

All Programs Except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Non-covered wages are those earned by an individual whose employer was not required to pay into the Social Security system (such as certain city, federal, school or religious organization employees).

If the LPR cannot meet the 40 qualifying quarter requirement using covered earnings verified by the SSA, advisors must then obtain sufficient income verification from the individual's employer to determine the earned quarters for the period in question.

Use the chart below to determine if the individual has earned sufficient money to earn a quarter.

1984	$390	1995	$630	2006	$970	2017	$1,300
1985	$410	1996	$640	2007	$1,000
1986	$440	1997	$670	2008	$1,050
1987	$460	1998	$700	2009	$1,090
1988	$470	1999	$740	2010	$1,120
1989	$500	2000	$780	2011	$1,120
1990	$520	2001	$830	2012	$1,130
1991	$540	2002	$870	2013	$1,160
1992	$570	2003	$890	2014	$1,200

1994 $620 2005 $920 2016 $1,2060

Example: A former custodian worked for a school district from 2008 through 2011. The school district did not pay into the Social Security system. The advisor requested that the former custodian provide verification of their earnings for this particular period.* They brought a statement from the school district verifying their wages showing they earned $9,000 for 2008. Using the chart above, the income required to earn a quarter for 2008 is $1,050. This person can be credited with four quarters for 2008 ($$1,050 \times 4 = $4,200$).

*If HHSC already has proof of income earned, advisors do not request that the individual provide additional verification.

Note: Credit for an incomplete or future quarter is not allowed.

A-354.3 Quarters Earned On or After January 1, 1997

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Federal law requires that quarters earned on or after January 1, 1997, cannot be credited if the person who earned the quarters received means-tested public benefits.

When determining the total amount of quarters earned by an LPR, advisors do not allow any quarters earned after January 1, 1997, if the person received TANF, SNAP, Medicaid or SSI benefits for the quarter. The WTPY system response does not reflect receipt of these benefits.

The SSA defines a quarter as a period of three calendar months:

- Quarter 1: January, February, March
- Quarter 2: April, May, June
- Quarter 3: July, August, September
- Quarter 4: October, November, December

A-354.4 Procedures for Verifying 40 Quarters

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Advisors must:

Step	Action
1	Ensure that the alien's LPR status has been verified.
2	Determine whose quarters of earnings have to be verified.

- | Step | Action |
|-------------|---|
| 3 | Obtain a consent of release before verifying quarters of coverage through the WTPY system or SSA. Use one of the following forms: Note: A consent form or signature is not required for spouses or parents who are deceased. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Form SSA-3288, Social Security Administration Consent for Release of Information, must be signed by the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ LPR, if the LPR did not sign the application; ◦ LPR's spouse, if the spouse did not sign the application; or ◦ LPR's parent. • Form SSA-513, Request for Quarters of Coverage History Based On Relationship, is completed when the LPR, spouse and/or parent: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ refuses to sign Form SSA-3288; or ◦ cannot be located. Example: A husband, wife and their four children have applied for SNAP benefits. Both spouses and two of the children are LPRs (advisor has verified LPR status). The husband has worked in the U.S. for about six years, and the wife has worked about five years. The advisor must verify the quarters of earnings for both spouses. Since the husband was the one who signed the application, he does not have to sign Form SSA-3288; however, a signed Form SSA-3288 is required for the wife. The advisor must also complete Form H1079, Qualifying Quarters of Social Security Earnings, for both spouses. |
| 4 | If the household signed Form SSA-3288, submit Form H1079 to the appropriate WTPY data entry staff with the following information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • LPR's full name, as it appears on the Social Security card; • LPR's date of birth; and • LPR's correct Social Security number. If the household signed Form SSA-513, send the completed form to the following address: Social Security Administration
P.O. Box 17750
Baltimore, MD 21235-0001 |
| 5 | If you are awaiting the verification from SSA's WTPY system (normally WTPY provides a response within 48 hours), issue Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, and pend the EDG. If you sent Form SSA-513, disqualify the individual until you receive the response from SSA. |
| 6 | Use the WTPY or Form SSA-513 response to determine how many countable quarters are in the SSA records for the LPR, spouse and parent. Verify any recent earnings through the employer or case record if not yet posted on the WTPY system or not listed on Form SSA-513. Compute the quarters of covered earnings. |
| 7 | Disallow any quarters in which the wage earner received TANF, SNAP, Medicaid or SSI after January 1, 1997. |
| 8 | If the LPR: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • has 40 quarters, the LPR is eligible. • does not have 40 quarters, the advisor sends Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to notify the household that the LPR is disqualified as an ineligible alien due to the lack of 40 allowable quarters of earnings. |
| 9 | If the individual disagrees with SSA's records for quarters of covered earnings, provide the individual with Form H1020. On Form H1020, explain that HHSC will certify the LPR if proof is provided that SSA was contacted to resolve the record of earnings. Provide the LPR copies of the WTPY response(s). |

If the LPR needs to resolve a disagreement about a parent's or spouse's SSA record, advise the LPR that the spouse or parent must go to SSA to reconcile the individual's record. The LPR can resolve the SSA records for a deceased spouse or parent.

Step	Action
10	If the LPR contacts SSA to resolve the disagreement, SSA provides the individual with a document or Form SSA-7008, Request for the Correction of Earnings. The document or Form SSA-7008 verifies the action being taken to resolve the disagreement about the individual's SSA record. When the LPR provides the verification, submit the verification for imaging. Consider the LPR an eligible alien for TANF, SNAP and Medical Programs for one of the following time periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • for six consecutive months beginning the month the LPR contacted SSA, or • less than six months if the LPR resolves the disagreement with SSA before the sixth month and the LPR does not have 40 allowable quarters of covered earnings.

Document this temporary eligibility period.

Note: On a denied application, if the LPR provides the needed proof by the 60th day after the file date, reopen the application using the date the LPR provided the information as the file date.

A-355.1 SAVE Program's Verification Information System (VIS)

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

The Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE) program's Verification Information System (VIS) is a web-based application that provides alien status information using the applicants' alien registration number.

The SAVE System provides the following types of responses:

- Initial Verification Results: First Name, Last Name, Country, Date of Entry, Date of Birth, Class of Admission (COA) and System Response; and
- Additional Verification Results: Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Response, Expires On, Response Date and DHS Comments.

If the alien's USCIS document is expired and the SAVE response shows the individual is a Lawful Permanent Resident - Employment Authorized and the Date Admitted is "Response is indefinite," they meet alien status criteria.

Use the SAVE Verification Information System:

- at application;
- when adding a new household member identified as an alien; or
- if a person's alien documentation has expired.

Exceptions:

When SAVE does not contain information about victims of severe trafficking or non-alien family members, call the trafficking verification toll-free number at 866-401-5510 to:

- confirm the validity of the certification letter or Derivative T Visa; and
- notify the Office of Refugee Resettlement of the benefits for which the person is applying.

SAVE does not normally contain information about American Indians born outside of the U.S.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Supervisors complete and route Form 4743, Request for Applications and System Access, to the regional security officer for employees who need access to the SAVE system.

Advisors must follow these steps to access the SAVE system:

1. Open the VIS web site at <https://save.uscis.gov/Web/vislogin.aspx?JS=YES>.
2. Enter your User ID and password.
3. Select Initial Verification from the Case Administration menu.
4. Enter the document type that the applicant provided.
5. Enter the applicant's information as it appears on the document:
 - Alien Number — Do not include the letter A when entering the information in SAVE. If the A number has fewer than nine digits, add leading zeroes to make it a nine-digit number. USCIS# is used on the new I-551 cards instead of Alien Number.
 - I-94 Identification Number — known as the admission number, consists of an 11-digit field. Enter leading zeroes if the I-94 number provided has less than 11 digits.
 - Card Number — Card numbers for I-551 cards issued before November 2004 are at the bottom of the card toward the right-hand side. Card numbers for newer versions of I-551 are on the back of the card.
 - Last name.
 - First name.
 - Date of birth.
 - Document expiration date, if applicable.
 - Required benefits — Select the benefit type from the Benefits List (SNAP, Medicaid, TANF).
6. Select Submit Initial Verification. The response appears in the Initial Verification Results section of the same page.
7. The screen displays one of the following messages:
 - Lawful Permanent Resident – Employment Authorized;
 - Institute Additional Verification; or
 - Temporary Resident/Temporary Employment Authorized.

Note: If the response is Temporary Resident/Temporary Employment Authorized, the alien does not meet eligibility requirements.

8. Review the results and select Print Case Details.
9. Select Complete and Close Case to close the case (only if additional verification is not necessary). Once a case is closed, the user can view it for an additional 90 days.

2. Edit the default information if necessary, enter required information, and include as much information as possible. Use the Special Comments box to enter additional information to the Immigration Status Verifier (ISV) staff.
3. Submit the request by selecting Submit Additional Verification. The response section appears indicating that the request is in process and will return the response within three working days.
4. To view the status of the case, select View Cases from the Case Administration menu. The Case Search page appears.
5. Enter the Case Search Criteria to search for cases based on the following case status:
 - - all open cases;
 - cases requiring action;
 - cases with additional verification responses;
 - cases in process; and
 - closed cases.

Select Display Case Summary List to open the Case Summary List page. The list displays the Case Status for cases that require action, cases in process, and closed cases. Click the Verification Number to view the Case Details. The user is able to print the case details, request additional verification, and close the case.

When the system is unable to verify the immigration status with the information provided by the user in the automated additional verification request, or the document appears counterfeit, altered, or expired, staff may use the manual process in A-355.4, How to Request Additional Verification – Manual Process.

A-355.4 Secondary Verification of Alien Immigration Status

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, and TP 36

If staff are unable to verify an alien's immigration status through primary verification procedures, use SAVE to request additional information from USCIS by requesting a Data Broker Combined Report through TIERS or the Data Broker Portal.

Once a request from USCIS is obtained for verification of immigration status, the information received must be processed. Staff receive one of the following responses from SAVE via the Combined Report in TIERS or in the Data Broker Portal:

- First level verification - initial verification request in TIERS.
- Second level verification - situations that require additional (secondary) verification in the Data Broker Portal.
- Third level verification - situations that require staff to upload documents for verification in the Data Broker Portal via SAVE.

For the first level verification, staff enter the information provided by the person into TIERS. Once the information is entered and SAVE is requested, SAVE will return an immediate response back indicating if the information entered was able to be verified with USCIS or if more information is needed.

If the information entered can be verified on the first level verification, staff will see the alien status, category code, and entry date. If the information entered is unable to be verified against USCIS records, then staff will have to proceed to second or third level verification responses to correctly verify the person's citizenship and alien status.

For second level verification and third level verification responses, Data Broker automatically requests additional verification from SAVE. Once obtained from SAVE, staff receive an email from the Data Broker vendor notifying them that the verification requested has been returned from SAVE.

For second level verification responses:

- The Data Broker vendor sends a subsequent email notifying staff that the verification has been returned from SAVE.
- Staff must then:
 - login to the Data Broker Portal to retrieve the information; and
 - update the Alien/Refugee Details page in TIERS accordingly.

For third level verification responses:

- Staff must:
 - upload the verification documents requested into the Data Broker Portal;
 - not mail the documents to USCIS; and
 - ensure only one PDF file containing all required verification documents is uploaded.
- The Data Broker vendor sends a subsequent email notifying staff SAVE has returned the verification.
 - staff must then login to the Data Broker Portal to retrieve the information; and
 - update the Alien/Refugee Details page in TIERS accordingly.

Note: SAVE only populates alien sponsor information into TIERS for the additional verification response. This is unlike initial verification that populates the response data for the applicant in the appropriate ELDS tables on the TIERS Alien/Refugee-Details page.

A-356 Verifying Alien's Date of Entry

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

The date on the alien's immigration document often represents the alien's first date of entry into the United States. In some instances, an alien may be present in the United States without a qualified status. The individual may then depart and then return to the U.S. as an LPR. For these aliens, the date on their immigration document reflects the date of entry with LPR status, rather than the alien's original date of entry.

Advisors use immigration documents to verify date of entry. Advisors must allow aliens with a USCIS document showing an entry date on or after August 22, 1996, who claim to have entered before that date, an opportunity to submit evidence of their claimed date of entry. This evidence may include pay stubs, a letter from an employer, or a lease or utility bill in the alien's name.

A-357 Verifying Alien's Continuous Presence

Revision 20-1; Effective January 1, 2020

TANF and Medical Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

The USCIS maintains a record of arrivals to and departures from the country for most legal entrants.

To verify continuous presence in the U.S., submit the Form G-845, Verification Request, and Form G-845S, Supplement Verification Request, electronically through the Data Broker system to the USCIS.

Other entrants, including aliens who entered the U.S. without USCIS documents, must provide documentary evidence showing proof of continuous presence, such as a letter from an employer, a series of pay stubs, or utility bills in the alien's name spanning the period in question.

Note: The alien does not have to remain continuously present in the U.S after obtaining qualified immigrant status.

All applicants must provide a Social Security number (SSN) or apply for one through the Social Security Administration (SSA) before certification, unless they meet one of the criteria in this section.

Exception: Undocumented aliens are not required to apply for an SSN.

Non-applicants are not required to provide an SSN or proof of an application for an SSN. When non-applicants provide an SSN, advisors may attempt to verify the SSN using the procedures explained in A-440, Verification Requirements. If verification is not available through electronic data sources, verification of the non-applicant's SSN must not be requested from the applicant.

SNAP

Children age six months or younger are not required to provide proof of an application for an SSN. Newborns may receive benefits with the household without providing proof of an application for an SSN for the later of:

- six months following the child's birth, or
- the next recertification/complete review.

Applicants eligible for expedited service may receive initial benefits without providing or applying for an SSN. Initial benefits can include the first two months if receiving a combined allotment.

Applicants who cannot provide required proof to apply for an SSN may receive the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) for each month they have good cause. Medical Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36 and TP 45

Applicants do not need to provide an SSN if they meet any of the following good cause reasons:

- They are not eligible to receive an SSN;
- They do not have an SSN and may only be issued an SSN for a valid non-work reason; or
- They refuse to obtain an SSN because of a well-established religious objection. A well-established religious objection exists when the applicant:
 - is a member of a recognized religious sect or division of the sect; and
 - adheres to the tenets or teachings of the sect or division of the sect and for that reason is conscientiously opposed to applying for or using a national identification number.

TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

Undocumented aliens applying for Emergency Medicaid are not required to provide an SSN.

TP 45

* If the applicant cannot provide an SSN because the applicant is a documented alien without work authorization, refer the applicant to the local SSA office using Form H1106.

Explain the following to applicants applying for an SSN:

- the type of proof they must take to SSA to obtain an SSN (see page 2 of Form H1106, Proofs You Need to Apply for a Social Security Number Card, for common types of proof);

- that a person applying for someone else (including an adult applying for a child) must provide proof of that person's own identity in addition to proof needed for the SSN application.

When an applicant takes Form H1106 to the SSA office, SSA:

- determines whether the applicant is eligible for an SSN;
- submits Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, for those eligible; and
- adds information to Form H1106 or provides another SSA receipt or letter verifying the applicant completed the SSN application process.

A—413 Social Security Number (SSN) Validation Through State Online Query (SOLQ)

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36 and TP 45

A person's SSN is verified when all the demographic information provided by the person matches the information available in SOLQ. When the information matches, TIERS will display the SSN as validated. If the SSN is not verified, TIERS will display in the SOLQ screen the reason why the SSN is not verified.

SSN Verified

A person's SSN is verified when SOLQ provides one of the following SSN Verification Codes:

- F: SSN is verified, but last name does not match SSN (indication that the person has changed last name due to marriage, divorce or adoption;
- M, P, R and V: SSN is verified; or
- X: Data exists that the validated SSN belongs to a person who is deceased.

When a person's SSN is verified via SOLQ, but information provided by the SSA indicates that the person is deceased (code X) or that the name does not match (code F), the person's identity is questionable. Clear the discrepancy prior to disposing the case action. If the person does not provide the information needed to clear the discrepancy, follow policy in A-420, Failure to Comply, to either disqualify or deny the person. Exception: When processing expedited SNAP benefits or Medicaid for Pregnant Women, certify the person with a validated SSN with verification code F or X if unable to clear the discrepancy by viewing case documentation or contacting the household by phone. Postpone verification needed to clear the discrepancy to meet expedited processing timeframes.

SSN Not Verified

If the person's SSN is not verified via SOLQ, review the information on the application and other supporting documents and update any information entered incorrectly. After making corrections, manually invoke SOLQ to re-run the verification process.

If the person's identity is not questionable and the SSN remains unverified after re-running the SOLQ verification process, attempt to contact the person by phone to clear the SSN discrepancy. If unable to clear the discrepancy by phone and:

- No other information is required to determine eligibility, certify the person if all other eligibility requirements are met.
- Other information is required to determine eligibility, request information to clear the SSN discrepancy on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action.
 - Manually generate the Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, and attach the Form H-RG83, SSN Maintenance Memorandum, before mailing.

If the person:

- Returns all information and staff can verify the SSN, certify the person if all other eligibility requirements are met.
- Returns all information, but staff are unable to verify the SSN with the information provided, certify the person if all other eligibility requirements are met.
- Returns information, but not the information to clear the SSN discrepancy, certify the person if all other eligibility requirements are met.

- Does not return other information, disqualify or deny the person.

If the identity of the person is questionable, request information to clear the discrepancy. If the information is not provided or does not clear the discrepancy, disqualify or deny the person.

If unable to verify a person's SSN via SOLQ, the monthly SSA interface will attempt to validate the SSN. If not validated by the monthly interface, TIERS generates Alert 268, Social Security Administration Unable to Verify SSN (RG-83), or Alert 269, Social Security Administration Reports a Duplicate SSN, to address the discrepancy.

A—432 SSN Discrepancy Clearance Procedures

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

All Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36 and TP 45

If an SSN is not verified via SOLQ, the monthly SSA interface attempts to verify a person's SSN after certification. If a person's SSN cannot be verified during the interface, or a duplicate SSN is found, TIERS generates either:

- Alert 268, Social Security Administration Unable to Verify SSN (RG-83) when the information does not match. This triggers the Task List Manager (TLM) Alert 268, Agency Generated Change – Social Security Administration Unable to Verify SSN (RG-83) for Client (Individual ID) XXXXXXXXX and routes it to the Customer Care Center (CCC) for case action; or
- Alert 269, Duplicate SSN for Individual Number, when the SSN is a duplicate. This triggers the TLM task Alert 269: Agency Generated Change - Social Security Administration Reports a Duplicate SSN XXXXXXXXXX, and routes it to the CCC for case action.

Upon receipt of Alert 268 or Alert 269, research the case and contact the household to clear the discrepant or duplicate SSN. If staff are unable to clear the discrepant or duplicate SSN and the person does not have good cause for not providing a SSN, TIERS sends the household the following correspondence, allowing a 60-day period for the discrepancy to be cleared:

- Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, with the following language in the Notes section of the form:

The individual is granted extra time to resolve the problem with their Social Security Number.

We need proof that you have gone to the Social Security Administration to resolve the issue with XXXXXXXX XXXXX's Social Security Number by XX/XX/XXXX. If we don't receive the proof, your XXXXXX benefits will end.

- Form H-RG83, SSN Maintenance Memorandum, instructing the household to go the Social Security Administration (SSA) office in order correct or update the person's Social Security records.

SSA staff will assist the person in completing an application to correct or update their Social Security records and will provide them with Form SSA-5028, Receipt for Application for a Social Security Number, as proof.

If the person's SSN has not been validated by the 60th day from the date the TF0001 and Form H-RG83 are sent, staff are prompted to review the case via Alert #796, Reasonable Opportunity Period has Expired for EDG #.

If the person fails to cooperate in clearing the discrepancy with the SSA or if the SSN has not been validated, follow policy in A-420, Failure to Comply to disqualify or deny the person. Note: This 60-day period is different from the reasonable opportunity period that Medicaid applicants are allowed to provide verification of U.S. citizenship or an eligible alien status, where that verification is unavailable when the person applies.

If TIERS shows the SSN as verified, but the SSN needs to be corrected, send a memorandum with the correct SSN to State Office Data Integrity (SODI) to make a change:

SODI Section, Data Base Support

P.O. Box 14930, MC Y92-2

Or fax to Data Base Support at 512-706-7140.

Or send the request to the Data Integrity email box at HHSC_DI_Biographical_Corrections@hhsc.state.tx.us.

SODI staff notifies the staff member by memo when the change is made.

SSNs are verified through:

- State Online Query (SOLQ) being invoked during Data Collection. Verification of an SSN via this process is identified in both the Individual Household Summary page with a checkmark in the box by the person's SSN and a checkmark in the Validated by SSA checkbox on either the Data Collection/Add New Individual page, the Modify Non File Cleared Individual page, or the Edit Existing Individual page.
- The monthly SSA interface. Verification of an SSN via this process is identified in the Individual Summary Page when the SSA box is checked for the individual.

- Review the information entered into the SOLQ or WTPY request with the information provided by the applicant. If a typographical error is found, submit a new SOLQ or WTPY request with the correct information.
- If no typographical errors are found, contact the applicant by phone to ensure the information provided is accurate. If the applicant provides new information, submit another SOLQ or WTPY request with the correct information. Update the EDG record with the correct information.

A—441 Verification Sources

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

For SSN discrepancies or SSNs that cannot be verified through the SSA interface, SOLQ, or WTPY, the applicant must provide one of the following:

- Copy of the SSN card; or
- Social Security Administration letter confirming the SSN.

Acceptable proof of application of an SSN includes:

- Form SSA-5028, Receipt for Application for an SSN, less than 30 days old;
- Form SSA-2853, Message From Social Security, less than 180 days old; and
- Form H1106, Enumeration Referral.

Medical Programs

Form H1106, completed by the Social Security Administration, is the acceptable verification source for not providing an SSN due to ineligibility to receive an SSN or eligibility to receive an SSN only for a valid non-work reason. Advisors must review the response provided by the SSA on the Form H1106 to determine which good cause reason the applicant meets.

Acceptable sources of verification for a well-established religious objection include:

- an approved IRS Form 4029, Application for Exemption from Social Security and Medicare Taxes and Waiver of Benefits; or
- a letter from a leader of the religious organization, a document setting out the tenets of the religious organization which justify the good cause reason, or a similar document.

Note: If the source of verification for a religious exemption is questionable, advisors must contact their supervisor who will coordinate with the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) regional attorneys to ensure the documentation is sufficient.

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

A—521 Eligibility Requirements

Revision 21-1; Effective January 1, 2021

TANF

A child must live, or be expected to live, in the home of one of the relatives (either biological or adoptive) listed in A-221, Who Is Included, No. 4, Caretaker.

TANF-SP

A child must live with, or be expected to live, with both legal parents, or one legal parent and a stepparent.

Note: This also includes legal parents or stepparents who are disqualified for one of the reasons listed in A-222, Who Is Not Included, No. 4, Disqualified Members, unless that disqualification is due to not meeting citizenship requirements.

TP 08 and TA 31

To qualify for TP 08 or TA 31, a person must be a:

- legal parent of a dependent child (both legal parents can be eligible);
- caretaker relative of a dependent child; or
- spouse of a caretaker relative.

The caretaker must be a:

- parent;
- stepparent*;
- sibling;
- step-sibling;
- grandparent;
- uncle or aunt;
- nephew or niece;
- first cousin; or
- first cousin once removed.

*A stepparent of a dependent child is considered within the degree of relationship for TP 08, Parents and Caretaker Relatives Medicaid, and TA 31, Parent and Caretaker Relative Medicaid - Emergency. The relationship to the dependent child remains even if the legal parent and stepparent are divorced or the legal parent is deceased.

The spouse of a caretaker relative may also be eligible for medical coverage if they live with the caretaker relative who cares for the dependent child receiving Medicaid.

Example: A grandfather is the caretaker relative of his granddaughter. The grandfather applies for Medicaid for himself, his granddaughter, and his spouse who lives with him. If the granddaughter is eligible for Medicaid, both the grandfather and his spouse may be eligible for TP 08.

A dependent child is a person who:

- is under age 18; or
- if age 18, attends school full-time and expects to graduate in or before the month of their 19th birthday. Note: A child who will not graduate until after the month of their 19th birthday is not considered a dependent child after the month of their 18th birthday.

TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 43, TP 44, TP 48 and TP 56

To be eligible for these programs, a child can:

- live with the child's parents;
- live with a caretaker within the degree of relationship required for TP 08 and TA 31;
- live with a person not within the degree of relationship required for TP 08 and TA 31;
- be abandoned; or
- live independently.

TP 45

A child whose mother is eligible for and is receiving Medicaid coverage when the child is born, or whose mother is eligible for and receives Medicaid coverage retroactively for the time of the child's birth, is eligible for TP 45 coverage. The Medicaid coverage for the newborn can continue through the month of the child's first birthday if the child remains in Texas, even if the child does not reside with the birth mother.

A—522 Legal Parent-Child Relationship

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

A legal parent-child relationship exists between a child and:

- an adoptive parent by proof of adoption;
- the mother by proof of having given birth to the child; or
- a man if one of the following conditions exist:
 - The man and the mother married (including a common-law marriage) in apparent compliance with the law before the child's birth (even if the marriage is or could be voided), and the child was born:
 - while they were married; or
 - within 300 days after the marriage terminated.
 - The man and the mother married (including a common-law marriage) in apparent compliance with the law after the child's birth (even if the marriage is or could be voided), and the man:
 - filed a paternity suit, including a statement of paternity in court;
 - is named the father on the child's birth certificate; or
 - has a written obligation to support the child voluntarily or by court order.
 - The courts determine that the man is the biological father.

If there is no other legal father, a legal parent-child relationship exists between a man and a child if one of the following conditions exists:

- The man and the mother do not marry, but the man consents in writing to be named as the child's father on the child's birth certificate.
- Before the child turns age 18, the child lived with the man and holds out to the public that the man is the child's father.

- The man signs an acknowledgement of paternity (AOP) with the Office of Attorney General or Vital Statistics Unit. The child's mother must also be available to sign the AOP.

TANF and Medical Programs

If Birth Verification System (BVS) records do not establish relationship or the applicant cannot provide proof of relationship shown in A-531, Verification Sources, the advisor must use alternative ways to determine relationship. See A-523.1, How to Make an Evaluative Conclusion.

A—523.1 How to Make an Evaluative Conclusion

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

The advisor must examine all available proof such as (but not limited to) school records, court records, birth records, health records, insurance policies, refugee's voluntary resettlement agency (VOLAG) or the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) records, or other sources of proof that provide the same information. The advisor should offer reasonable assistance if the individual has difficulty obtaining the information.

Advisors must obtain supervisory approval of the evaluative conclusion.

A—523.2 Children Living with Biological Father

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, TP 08 and TA 31

A biological father may receive TANF, TP 08, or TA 31 if the biological father proves relationship. If the father cannot provide acceptable proof, the advisor must make an evaluative conclusion to establish relationship for the father and child. The OAG uses the automated child support referral to locate the mother and establish paternity of the biological father. The OAG notifies the advisor via Form H1701, Child Support, TANF Foster Care and TANF/Medicaid Case Information Exchange, that paternity is established or excluded. If paternity is excluded, advisors must process an overpayment claim for the period of time the household erroneously received benefits as specified in B-700, Claims.

Proof of a court determination of paternity is required if, at the time of the child's birth, the child's mother was married to another man who is presumed to be the child's legal father.

A—523.2.1 Children Living with Relatives of Biological Father

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

To qualify for TANF or Medical Programs, a caretaker relative must establish required relationship to the child as specified in A-221, Who Is Included, following the steps below:

The caretaker relative must provide acceptable proof of relationship between:

- the caretaker and the biological father; and

- the biological father and the child, using the conditions listed in A-522, Legal Parent-Child Relationship.

TANF and Medical Programs

Individuals do not lose their residence status when they temporarily leave Texas.

An individual can be absent from Texas for any length of time. Advisors must review the situation every three months to determine the individual's intent to maintain Texas residence. The individual must reasonably explain:

- the purpose for leaving Texas,
- the intent to return to Texas, and
- which state the individual claims residency in.

An individual is a resident of Texas unless there is substantial, factual evidence that proves otherwise. When the advisor determines that the individual is no longer a resident, the individual is denied.

SNAP

A person is not eligible for SNAP in Texas for any month the individual is out of Texas the entire month.

A-760, Verification Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 43, TP 44, TP 45 and TP 48

Advisors must verify the actual physical address of a household at each application and redetermination.

Exceptions:

- Residence verification is not a requirement for SNAP categorically eligible TANF/Supplemental Security Income (SSI) households.
- Self-declaration is acceptable as verification of residence when certifying a child for TP 56, MA-Medically Needy with Spend Down.

Note: Residence verification is a requirement for TANF and categorically eligible TANF-Non-Cash (NC) households. Refer to B-472, Special Treatment for Households Meeting Categorical Eligibility Criteria.

When an applicant recently received benefits in another state, the advisor must verify the last month the benefits were issued.

When the advisor cannot verify residence with readily available evidence, the advisor must:

- contact the landlord, neighbors or other sources of reliable information; or
- observe personal effects and living arrangements.

When residence is difficult to verify because of unusual circumstances, the advisor must document all efforts to verify and certify the EDG.

Note: If residence for any household is questionable, the advisor may require the household to provide a source of verification that is more reliable, such as one of the primary sources of verification listed in A-761, Verification Sources. The advisor cannot restrict verification to a specific source from that list.

TANF and Medical Programs

Advisors must determine that the household intends to remain in Texas at each application and redetermination.

SNAP and TP 40

Advisors must postpone residence verification if trying to meet expedited service time frames.

TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 43, TP 44, TP 45 and TP 48

Self-declaration is acceptable as verification of residence.

A—761 Verification Sources

Revision 22-2; Effective April 1, 2022

All Programs except Children's Medicaid

The following are acceptable sources to verify the household's current address:

- utility bills or utility company records;
- rent receipt or statement from non-relative landlord;
- mortgage receipt or statement from mortgage company;
- valid Texas driver license or Department of Public Safety (DPS) identification card;
- Data Broker residence reported on the DPS data field;
- Department of Motor Vehicles record;
- school records;
- voter registration card;
- statement from child care provider;
- employment records or statement from employer;
- official records confirming ownership of property;
- home visit;
- SOLQ for Social Security benefit recipients, including those receiving Medicare;
- item of mail with household name and address;
- other HHSC correspondence the applicant can provide showing the household received it at the applicant's current Texas address;
- inquiry into Office of the Attorney General (OAG), Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) or another entity's automated system, outside of HHSC, showing the same Texas address currently reported by the household;
- a local landline number the applicant provides (not a cell phone number) that is either listed in the phone book or an online directory with the same Texas address the household currently reports, or the household can be contacted at that local phone number when conducting a phone interview;
- searches resulting in a match between the address and the phone number provided by the applicant using the Data Broker Search Options Menu, Telephone Number Search;
- post office records;
- city or crisscross directory;
- church records; or
- statement from non-relative.

Exception: Self-declaration of residence is acceptable when certifying a child for TP 56, MA - Medically Needy with Spend Down.

TANF and Medical Programs

The applicant's statement of intent to remain in Texas is acceptable.

Children's Medicaid

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

Medical Programs

Applicants may receive Medicaid during the three-month period before the month they apply for Medicaid. See A-831, Three Months Prior Coverage, for eligibility criteria and application procedures.

Some former individuals on TP 08, TP 43, TP 44, and TP 48 remain eligible for Transitional Medicaid after their eligibility is denied. See the chart that follows for more information.

Reason for Denial	Type Program	Who Is Covered?
Alimony/Spousal support	TP 20 (A-850 , Alimony/Spousal Support Transitional Medicaid Coverage)	The household
New or increased earnings	TP 07 (A-842 , TP 07 Transitional Medicaid)	The household

Most adopted children receive Medicaid through the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS). DFPS works with the Interstate Compact on Adoption and Medical Assistance (ICAMA) to facilitate the timely delivery of Medicaid coverage when a family moves or the adoption involves an interstate placement. If an adopted child is receiving Medicaid in another state, the parent must contact the originating state to coordinate and transfer Medicaid coverage information to Texas. If an adoptive parent has any questions about the adoptive child's Medicaid, advisors should inform them to contact their local DFPS office for assistance.

Medical Programs, Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries (QMB) and Specified Low-Income Medicare Beneficiaries (SLMB)

Individuals receiving some Texas Works Medicaid types of assistance may also qualify for the Medicaid for the Elderly and People with Disabilities (MEPD) Medicare Savings Program types of assistance, MC – QMB (TP 24) or MC – SLMB (TP 23), if they meet the eligibility criteria. See policy in the Medicaid for the Elderly and People with Disabilities Handbook, Q-2000, Qualified Medicare Beneficiaries (QMB) — MC-QMB.

Individuals may receive QMB and the following types of assistance:

- MA – Earnings Transitional (TP 07)
- MA – Parents and Caretaker Relatives (TP 08)
- MA – Pregnant Women (TP 40)
- MA – Children Under 1 (TP 43)
- MA – Newborn Children (TP 45)
- MA – Children 1-5 (TP 48)
- MA – Children 6-18 (TP 44)
- MA – Former Foster Care Children (FFCC) (TA 82)

The above programs cannot be dually eligible for SLMB. Even though these programs may meet SLMB eligibility requirements, the Medicare Part B premium is already paid. An individual can be dually eligible for MA – MN with Spend Down (TP 56) and SLMB.

A-820, Regular Medicaid Coverage

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

Medical Programs

Regular Medicaid eligibility begins the day a person meets all eligibility criteria. It is usually the first day of the application month if all eligibility criteria are met.

The following are situations when the medical effective date (MED) may not be the first day of the application month:

- The MED cannot precede a newborn's date of birth.
- The MED cannot precede the date a child enters the home.

Exception: Assign the date of birth as the MED for a child born to a woman incarcerated in the Texas Department of Corrections at Gatesville when contacted by HHSC staff housed at the University of Texas Medical Branch (UTMB) Hospital. Document this contact in Case Comments.

- The MED for the parent or caretaker relative cannot precede the date of birth of the newborn or a child's entry into the home when the newborn or entering child is the only child.

TP 08 Exception: The MED can be earlier if the parent or caretaker relative has unpaid medical bills and would have been eligible for Medicaid as a pregnant woman from the first day of her infant's birth month.

- The MED cannot precede the start date of the emergency condition for aliens eligible for Emergency Medicaid.
- The MED cannot precede the date a disqualified parent or caretaker relative complies.
- The MED cannot precede the month at least one eligible dependent child is certified for Medicaid.

If the only child of a parent or caretaker relative eligible for TP 08 dies before certification, process an application for Medicaid for a deceased person. Certify coverage for the child through the date of death and for the parent or caretaker relative through the remainder of that month.

TP 40

Medicaid for a pregnant woman does not begin before the first day of the month her pregnancy begins. The applicant's (pregnant woman's, case name's, or authorized representative's [AR's]) verbal or written statement is an acceptable source of verification for the start month, the number of expected children, and the anticipated date of delivery.

If the applicant's (pregnant woman's, case name's, or AR's) statement is not available, use one of the verification sources in A-870 to obtain the pregnancy start date and anticipated date of delivery.

If information is requested but not returned by the 15th business day from the file date, deny the application. Reopen the application if the person provides verification by the 60th day from the file date.

Exception: Pregnancy verification is not required if the:

- application is processed after the pregnancy terminates; and
- applicant provides proof of her newborn child's birth.

A pregnant woman remains eligible through the second month following the month her pregnancy terminates if all other eligibility requirements are met and countable income is below the income limits in:

- the application month; or
- one of the three months prior to the application month if in the prior month she:
 - had unpaid Medicaid-reimbursable bills; or
 - received services from the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS).

Example: A pregnant woman applies for Medicaid in May 2020. Her expected delivery date is December 2020. She has unpaid medical bills in February 2020 and meets all other eligibility requirements. She does not have any unpaid medical bills in March or April 2020. Certify her for Medicaid from February 2020 through February 2020.

After determining a pregnant woman is eligible for TP 40, the woman remains eligible even if the budget group's income increases above the income limit.

If a woman is certified for expedited benefits, but postponed verifications prove she is not eligible, provide advance notice of adverse action and deny her coverage.

TP 45

Before providing initial TP 45 coverage for a newborn child, verify that the:

- mother was:
 - eligible for and received Medicaid in Texas on the day the child was born; or
 - retroactively eligible for Medicaid for the day the child was born;
- child resides in Texas; and
- mother was continuously eligible for Medicaid (or would have been eligible if pregnant) during the child's birth month.

Note: A newborn child born to a mother who received Emergency Medicaid coverage at the time of the child's birth is eligible to receive TP 45 coverage from the date of birth through the end of the month of the child's first birthday.

The MED for the initial certification is always the child's date of birth.

Before resuming coverage for a newborn who has been denied TP 45, verify that the child resides in Texas.

TP 56

Medicaid coverage for children or pregnant women with spend down begins the first day the household meets spend down.

The applicant meets spend down by submitting or having a provider submit medical bills to the Clearinghouse.

The Clearinghouse:

- determines when the person meets spend down; and
- notifies TIERS via an interface. TIERS sets the MED for the certified members.

Note: The Clearinghouse may discover a discrepancy while processing a spend down EDG. Processing is put on hold and the EDG is referred to State Office Data Integrity (SODI) to research. SODI sends a memo to field staff asking for information to clear the discrepancy. Respond quickly to these requests so that the Clearinghouse can complete the spend down process.

A—821 Types of Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

The type of coverage determines how recipients access Medicaid services. There are two types of coverage: fee-for-service and managed care.

A—821.1 Fee-for-Service

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

Fee-for-service, also known as Traditional Medicaid, allows access to any Medicaid provider and self-referral to specialists. The provider submits claims directly to the claims administrator for reimbursement of Medicaid-covered services.

A—821.2 Managed Care

Medical Programs except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, and TP 56

Medicaid managed care is health care provided through a network of doctors, hospitals or other health care providers who contract with a managed care organizations (MCO). The state pays the MCO a capitated rate for each member enrolled, rather than paying for each unit of service. The providers submit claims directly to the MCO for reimbursement of Medicaid-covered services.

Medicaid managed care programs include:

- STAR (State of Texas Access Reform). STAR provides acute care services (like doctor visits, hospital visits and prescriptions), and each member is enrolled in an MCO and assigned a main doctor to coordinate care. People who are dually eligible for Medicare and Medicaid are excluded from this program.
- STAR Health. STAR Health provides comprehensive, coordinated health care services for children in foster care and kinship care. Each member is enrolled with a single MCO, Superior HealthPlan, and is assigned a main doctor to coordinate care. People who are dually eligible are excluded from this program.
- STAR+PLUS. STAR+PLUS provides acute care and long-term services and supports (LTSS). A key feature of this program is service coordination, or specialized care management. Each member is enrolled with an MCO, and Medicaid-only members are assigned a main doctor. STAR+PLUS serves Medicaid-only and dually eligible people, including most nursing facility residents. It is a statewide program.
- STAR Kids. STAR Kids provides acute care services and LTSS. Additionally, people eligible for Medically Dependent Children's Program (MDCP) waiver services receive these services through STAR Kids. A key feature of this program is service coordination. Each member is enrolled with an MCO and assigned a main doctor to coordinate care. STAR Kids serves children and young adults age 20 or younger with disabilities.
- Children's Medicaid Dental Services. Children's Medicaid Dental Services provide primary and preventive dental services through managed care. Each member is enrolled in a dental maintenance organization (DMO) and has a main dental home. Most children, birth through age 20, who receive Medicaid, are eligible for dental services.

Medicaid managed care is available statewide. Information concerning the medical and dental managed care plans with contact information for each plan is located at hhs.texas.gov/services/health/medicaid-chip/provider-information/managed-care-organization-dental-maintenance-organization-provider-services-contact-information.

Texas Works Medicaid recipients must enroll in managed care. Exceptions (not comprehensive):

- STAR exceptions:
 - people who are dually eligible for Medicaid and Medicare;
 - children enrolled in the DSHS Children with Special Health Care Needs (CSHCN) Program;
 - children and adults residing in institutions (nursing facilities, Intermediate Care Facilities, and State Supported Living Centers);
 - medically-needy program participants;
 - children in foster care or kinship care;
 - adults that receive SSI; and
 - children and adults that are in a 1915(c) waiver program.
- STAR Health exceptions:
 - youth adjudicated in Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) facilities;

- youth from other states placed in Texas, or Texas youth placed in other states; and
- youth residing in Medicaid-paid facilities.
- STAR+PLUS exceptions:
 - a person 20 or younger who is not in the Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer (MBCC) program;
 - people over the age of 21 in Former Foster Care in Higher Education (FFCHE); and
 - people over 21 who are in a 1915(c) waiver program or who reside in community home for people with Intellectual Developmental Disabilities and are dually eligible for Medicare and Medicaid.
- STAR Kids: A person over the age of 21 and a person 20 or younger without disabilities.
- Children's Medicaid Dental Services exceptions:
 - people 20 or younger who reside in an institution;
 - people in STAR Health;
 - youth placed in other states; and
 - adults 21 and older.

MAXIMUS:

- Contracts with the state to enroll recipients into Medicaid managed care.
- Mails enrollment packets that include information about the plan choices available in their county of residence to newly certified recipients.

If a recipient does not choose a plan or a main doctor by the deadline provided in the enrollment packet, MAXIMUS assigns a plan and a main doctor. They then mail the information to the recipient.

Members of federally recognized Indian tribes are exempt from mandatory enrollment in Medicaid managed care but may choose to participate voluntarily.

At all Medicaid applications and redeterminations, identify and determine if the person qualifies for this exemption. If this information is not available, do not designate the person as exempt. Do not pend the application or delay the eligibility determination for this information.

TIERS refers newly certified recipients to MAXIMUS to initiate their enrollment into managed care. MAXIMUS staff is available in some local eligibility determination offices. A recipient can call the MAXIMUS Helpline at 800-964-2777 to initiate enrollment, to request a plan change, or to disenroll from managed care if they are exempt from mandatory enrollment in Medicaid managed care.

If a recipient has difficulty accessing medical services in a managed care plan, refer the person to the Medicaid Managed Care Helpline at 866-566-8989. The Medicaid Managed Care Helpline advocates for managed care recipients who are having trouble accessing the medical and dental care they need.

A—822 Medicaid Coverage for New State Residents

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

Advisors must determine the correct MED for applicants who:

- move to Texas from another state during the application month or the three months prior to the application month, and
- are Medicaid recipients in the losing state in the month they move.

Step	Action
1	If the losing state denied the recipient's Medicaid the last day of the month the recipient moved from the state or later, then go to Step 2.
	If the losing state denied the recipient's Medicaid the day the recipient moved from the state, then assign an MED = date the applicant became a Texas resident.

- 2 Did any member of the certified group incur Medicaid-reimbursable bills after they moved to Texas?

If yes, then verify the effective date of denial in the losing state. Go to Step 3.

If no, then verify the effective date of denial in the losing state. Assign an MED = first day of the month after the month the losing state denied the recipient's Medicaid.

Will the losing state pay for the bills incurred in Texas after the day the person became a Texas resident?

- 3 If yes, then assign an MED = first day of the month after the month the losing state denied the recipient's Medicaid.

If no, then assign an MED = date the applicant became a Texas resident.

Note: If the applicant is unable to provide a contact person in the losing state, the advisor must contact the appropriate state Medicaid director's office. See C-1111, State Medicaid Agencies, for telephone numbers.

When a Texas Medicaid recipient moves to another state, staff from the gaining state may contact the local office about effective dates of denial and coverage of bills incurred in the gaining state. Texas Medicaid pays for Medicaid-reimbursable services provided out-of-state if the:

- recipient needs services because of a medical emergency documented by the attending physician or other provider;
- recipient's health could be jeopardized by not obtaining services; and
- provider enrolls in the Texas Medicaid Program. Out-of-state providers can obtain enrollment information by calling the claims administrator at 1-800-925-9126.

A—823 Lock-In Status

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

HHSC identifies fee-for-service and managed care individuals who:

- received duplicative, excessive, contraindicated or conflicting health services, including drugs; or
- abused, misused or committed fraudulent actions related to Medicaid benefits and services.

These clients may choose one pharmacy and/or one main doctor to be their designated provider for Medicaid services.

The duration periods of lock-in status are as follows:

- The initial period is 36 months.
- The second period is an additional 60 months.
- The third period is for the duration of eligibility and all subsequent periods of eligibility.
- The period of lock-in status for individuals arrested, indicted or convicted of, or admitting to, a crime related to Medicaid fraud differs from the time period listed for initial, second and third periods of lock-in. These individuals will be assigned lock-in status for 60 months or the duration of eligibility and subsequent periods of eligibility up to or equal to 60 months.

For individuals with enrollment lock-in status, HHSC issues a Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card printed with "Lock-in Doctor" and/or "Lock-in Drug Store" on the front of the card, along with the name of the doctor and/or drug store. If an individual with lock-in status prints a Medicaid card from the YourTexasBenefits.com, the same information is displayed.

Staff must verify current lock-in status when issuing Form H1027-A, Medicaid Eligibility Verification. To verify an individual's lock-in status, the advisor may access the individual's Lock-In Enrollment page from the Individual – Summary page's hover menu. If an individual is in lock-in status, the Lock-In Enrollment page will display the provider name and begin date of the status.

Individuals are removed from lock-in status at the end of the specified period if their use of medical services no longer meets the criteria for lock-in status.

Advisors refer individuals with questions regarding their lock-in status to the HHSC Office of Inspector General (OIG) at 1-800-436-6184.

A—824 Issuance of Form H1027-A, Medicaid Eligibility Verification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

Advisors must issue Form H1027-A, Medicaid Eligibility Verification, to an eligible Medicaid individual only if the individual:

- needs his eligibility verified to receive medical services;
- does not have access to a Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card; and
- is unable to reprint the Medicaid card from YourTexasBenefits.com.

The individual may not have a Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card if the individual:

- is newly certified and has not received it,
- lost or accidentally destroyed the card, or
- is temporarily separated from other eligible family members who have their card.

Before issuing Form H1027-A, staff must verify the individual's current eligibility, enrollment lock-in status and managed care enrollment by accessing the Individual – Summary and Individual – Medicaid History pages. If inquiry is unavailable, advisors must follow regional procedures.

Medicaid with No Enrollment Lock-in or Managed Care Coverage

Issue Form H1027-A for current eligibility if the most recent medical coverage period on the Individual – Summary and Individual – Medicaid History pages:

- is open (no close date shown), and
- reflects regular Medicaid coverage.

Enrollment Lock-in

If an individual is in enrollment lock-in status, "Yes" will display after Lock-In on the Individual – Summary page. Advisors select Lock-In Enrollment from the hover menu over the individual's client number. The Individual – Lock-In Enrollment page provides information regarding the provider(s) to which the individual is currently or was once locked in.

If an individual is currently in lock-in, advisors issue a separate Form H1027-A for the individual and print LIMITED and the name(s) of the provider(s) to which the individual is locked in. Form H1027-A generated in TIERS is printed with "LIMITED" in the "Type of Coverage" field.

Managed Care Coverage

If an individual is in a managed care service area, "Yes" will display after Managed Care on the Individual – Summary page. Select Managed Care from the hover menu over the individual's client number. Advisors select the Individual – Managed Care page to view the individual's plan to which the individual is enrolled.

Advisors must issue Form H1027-A for everyone on the case in the same managed care plan by printing the appropriate managed care program name (e.g., STAR, STAR Health, STAR+PLUS) and the name and telephone number of the plan. This information is in C-1116, Managed Care Plans.

After staff verify eligibility, enrollment lock-in status and managed care enrollment, advisors complete, sign and date Form H1027-A. The unit supervisor or other second party must approve the form indicating he verified eligibility and lock-in status.

Form H1027-A is not used if the most recent medical period:

- is closed, or
- shows institutional coverage.

Form H1027-A instructions include detailed information for completing the form.

TA 74, TA 75, TA 76, TA 83, TA 86 and TP 42

The advisor must issue Form H1027-A if the person has a completed Form H1266, Short-term Medicaid Notice: Approved, showing the date the person is approved for coverage.

Form H1027-A instructions include detailed information for completing the form.

State Paid Medicaid

TA 62

State Paid Medicaid coverage shows in the Medicaid History screen when the individual was not eligible for Medicaid and staff have issued Form H1027-A in error. State Paid Medicaid is 100 percent state-funded.

A—825 Medicaid Termination

Revision 22-2; Effective April 1, 2022

If an application is not received by the last day of the month, an EDG is automatically denied effective the last day of the last benefit month.

Emergency Medicaid

Eligibility for Emergency Medicaid ends the date the person's medical condition is stabilized as verified by the attending practitioner or other practitioner familiar with the patient's condition. Verification is done on Form H3038, Emergency Medical Services Certification, or Form H3038-P, CHIP Perinatal – Emergency Medical Services Certification.

A woman certified for Medicaid for Pregnant Women – Emergency (TP 36) on the day her pregnancy ends is eligible to receive TP 36 in the two-month postpartum period if she has another medical emergency.

Related Policy

Regular Medicaid Coverage, A-820

TP 40

Medicaid eligibility for a pregnant woman ends on the last day of the second month following the month the pregnancy terminates.

If the pregnancy terminates early because of molar pregnancy, abortion or premature delivery, deny the coverage effective the last day of the second month following the month the pregnancy terminated. If the pregnancy ends in a month later than expected, change the end date to reflect the new termination date.

A woman whose Medicaid for Pregnant Women coverage ends is automatically tested for other types of assistance using current case information without requiring a new application, if the EDG was not denied for the following reasons:

- voluntary withdrawal;
- death;
- move out of Texas;
- receipt of benefits in another group; or
- failure to provide postponed verification.

TIERS automatically determines eligibility for another type of assistance. If eligible, the woman receives a new certification period which begins after the TP 40 EDG ends.

TP32, TP36, TP40, and TP56

A woman certified for Medicaid (TP 32, TP 36, TP 40, TP 56) on the day her pregnancy ends, is eligible to receive the same type of Medicaid (TP 32, TP 36, TP 40, TP 56) for two months after her pregnancy ends.

Medicaid for Pregnant Women– Emergency (TP 36) and Medically Needy with Spend Down (TP 32 and TP 56) are only provided in the two-month postpartum period if the woman meets the additional eligibility requirements for these type programs. The original budget used to certify the Medicaid coverage on the day the woman’s pregnancy ends, is the same budget used in the two-month postpartum period.

Related Policy

How to Determine Spend Down, A-1359

Denial of an Application, A-2341

Denial at Redetermination, A-2342

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

A child is continuously eligible for the first six months of the 12-month certification period. If a household fails to report required information at application that causes a child to be ineligible for Medicaid, deny the EDG and send a fraud referral to the Office of the Inspector General (OIG). This does not apply if the household provides verification required by policy. For example, the household applies for Medicaid for a child, provides one pay stub, and is determined eligible. If providing more income verification would result in the child being ineligible, do not deny the Medicaid EDG. The child remains continuously eligible for the first six-months of the 12-month certification period, because policy requires only one pay stub to verify income for a child's Medicaid EDG.

EDGs with end dates do not require staff action to close the EDG when the household does not return a renewal form. These will close effective the last day of the last benefit month of the certification period.

Note: Independent children residing in state hospitals are continuously eligible for the first six months of the 12-month certification period, even if the child is released from the state hospital. If a child is released from the facility prior to the end of the six-month period, process the address change and continue coverage.

A child is eligible through the last day of the month of the child’s:

- first birthday for TP 43;
- sixth birthday for TP 48; and
- 19th birthday for TP 44.

When a child ages out of the current type of assistance during the continuous eligibility period, TIERS:

- Denies the TP 43 or TP 48 EDG through mass update and opens a new EDG for the next type of assistance for the remainder of the continuous eligibility period if the child is eligible for the next type of assistance.
- Sustains the TP 43 or TP 48 EDG if the child is not eligible for the next type of assistance.

When a child ages out of the current type of assistance during the non-continuous eligibility period, TIERS denies the TP 43 or TP 48 EDG and opens a new EDG for the next type of assistance if the modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) is equal to or below the corresponding Federal Poverty Level (FPL).

If the MAGI is more than the FPL for the next type program, the child’s eligibility for CHIP is tested. If ineligible for CHIP, the child is referred to the Federally Facilitated Marketplace (FFM).

Exception: Children aging out of TP 44 are eligible through the last day of the month of their 19th birthday.

If a child is ineligible for the next type of assistance or turns 19, the child may continue to receive Medicaid if the child:

- is hospitalized on the child's 19th birthday;
- remains hospitalized (there is not a time limit); and
- meets all eligibility requirements except age.

Verify the child’s hospitalization and update the child’s living arrangement to “hospital” to prevent TIERS from denying the child’s coverage.

Verify the hospitalization each month and update the child’s living arrangement when the hospitalization ends.

TP 45

A child's eligibility terminates the last day of the month of the child's first birthday. Deny the TP 45 EDG before the child's first birthday if the:

- child's mother was presumptively eligible and received TP 42 at the time of the child's birth but was not eligible for regular Medicaid at the time of the child's birth. The child is eligible for TP 45 through the end of the birth month; or
- child no longer resides in Texas. The child is eligible for TP 45 through the month the change occurs.

Notes:

- If the child's mother met spend down and received TP 56 or TP 32 to cover the child's birth, the child is eligible for TP 45 from the date of birth until the end of the month the child turns one.
- State Office Data Integrity (SODI) terminates the newborn's coverage before the child's first birthday in situations in which the child's mother relinquishes her parental rights and information about the child's current residency and new caretaker is unknown.

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

Recipients of TANF must comply with the Personal Responsibility Agreement (PRA), including cooperating with child support requirements and participating in the Choices program, unless exempt. TP 08 coverage is terminated if an individual receiving both TP 08 and TANF is sanctioned for failure to comply with the Choices PRA requirements.

Individuals certified for TP 08, but not TANF, must cooperate with medical support requirements. Failure to cooperate with the requirements result in the termination of the individual's TP 08 coverage.

Notes:

- TANF sanctions due to noncooperation with other PRA requirements do not result in termination of TP 08 coverage.
- Individuals receiving TP 08 who are not receiving TANF are not required to comply with the TANF PRA.
- The noncooperating adult may reapply for Medicaid and qualify after the identified forfeit months, with the exception of those who non-comply with child support. These individuals must comply before becoming eligible for Medicaid.

A—827 Your Texas Benefits Medicaid Card

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

Medical Programs

When a person is certified for ongoing Medicaid benefits, a Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card is mailed, which should:

- be carried and protected like a driver's license or credit card; and
- used when visiting a Medicaid provider (i.e., doctor, dentist or pharmacy).

The Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card is plastic, like a credit card, and includes the following information printed on the front:

- person's name and Medicaid ID number;
- managed care program name (if STAR Health);
- date the card was issued; and
- billing information for pharmacies.

The back of the card includes the statewide toll-free phone number where people can get more information about the Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card.

Each person certified for Medicaid in a household receives one Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card. It is intended to be the person's permanent card.

If a person loses:

- Medicaid coverage but later regains coverage, the person can use the same Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card.
- Their Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card, they can request a replacement by:
 - logging on to their YourTexasBenefits.com account;
 - calling 2-1-1 (after selecting language, select Option 2, and then Option 1); or
 - calling 855-827-3748.

If a person forgets their Your Texas Benefits Medicaid card, a provider (i.e., doctor, dentist or pharmacy) can verify Medicaid coverage by:

- calling the TMHP Contact Center at 800-925-9126; or
- visiting the Texas Medicaid and Healthcare Partnership's (TMHP's) TexMedConnect website using the person's Medicaid ID number or one of the following combinations for the person:
 - Social Security Number (SSN) and last name;
 - SSN and date of birth (DOB); or
 - last name, first name, and DOB.

If a person needs quick proof of eligibility, they can;

- log in to their www.YourTexasBenefits.com account to print a temporary card; or
- go to a local benefits office to request a card. HHSC staff in the office will:
 - assist the person accessing and printing a Medicaid card from the person's www.YourTexasBenefits.com account from the office's lobby computer; or
 - generate a temporary Form H1027-A, Medicaid Eligibility Verification via TIERS if the person prefers not to or has trouble accessing their Medicaid card online.

A—831 Three Months Prior Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs except TP 40

Applicants may be eligible for Medicaid coverage during the three-month period before the month they apply for Medical Programs. Prior coverage may be continuous or there may be interrupted periods of eligibility involving all or some of the certified members.

A person applies for three months prior Medicaid coverage by completing Form H1113, Application for Prior Medicaid Coverage. Advisors must give this form to applicants who indicate on an application or during the application interview that the family has unpaid medical bills incurred during the three months before the application month. Exception: For Children's Medicaid, Form H1113 is not required if the family provides enough information to determine eligibility for prior months.

Advisors certify the applicant for Medicaid only for the month(s) the individual meets all eligibility requirements and has:

- unpaid medical bills for Title XIX-covered services; or
- received Medicaid services from the Texas Department of State Health Services.

Advisors provide prior Medicaid coverage even if the:

- family is not currently eligible for Medical Programs; or
- person with unpaid medical bills is deceased.

TP 08

TP 40

Gaps do not apply to TP 40. Once eligibility is determined in one of the prior months, it continues even if there are no unpaid medical bills in a subsequent prior month.

A—831.2.1 Reopening Three Months Prior Applications

Revision 21-3; Effective July 1, 2021

Medical Programs

Applications for prior Medicaid coverage may be reopened for one or more month(s) in the three-month prior period when:

- the person requests the application be reopened within two years after the application file date; and
- Medicaid eligibility (certification with or without spend down) for the person or month(s) of coverage requested was not previously established.

Verify a previous application was filed. Use any application filed by the household within the past two years as a basis for determining eligibility for prior Medicaid coverage, even if the application did not request ongoing Medicaid, prior months' Medicaid coverage or claim unpaid medical bills. Medicaid eligibility can only be established within two years after the application file date whether or not the request was processed due to agency or applicant error.

Note: Do not reopen an application for prior Medicaid for a month that Medicaid eligibility (certification with or without spend down) was established, even if the spend down was closed by the Clearinghouse.

TP 08,	less than or equal to the FPIL amount for TP 08 and there is no gap in coverage,	certify the application for the prior month.

TP 40, TP 43, TP 44, or TP 48,	more than the FPIL amount for that program,	do not certify the application for the prior month in this type program. Check eligibility for TP 56.

A—832 Continuous Medicaid Coverage

Revision 19-1; Effective January 1, 2019

TP 40

Staff provide continuous Medicaid coverage without an application or an interview for a pregnant woman through the second month after the pregnancy terminates regardless of income increases if she:

- received Medicaid on a program other than TP 40 and was ineligible because of income;
- provides verification that she was pregnant in the month she becomes ineligible for Medicaid; and
- received Medicaid within 11 months prior to the application month.

Note: Accept the individual's (pregnant woman's, case name's or AR's) verbal or written statement of pregnancy as verification. The statement must include the name of the woman who is pregnant, pregnancy start month, number of expected children and anticipated date of delivery. The individual also may provide Form H3037, Report of Pregnancy, or another document containing information specified on Form H3037.

Note: Staff provide continuous Medicaid coverage to a pregnant woman who was denied with an administrative denial reason (such as, but not limited to, failure to keep appointment and voluntary withdrawal) if her Medicaid would have been denied because of income if the income had been reported.

The continuous coverage policy applies to women who were receiving benefits from the following programs:

- SSI or MEPD. Note: When an SSI Medicaid recipient is denied, TIERS sends Form H1296, Notice of SSI Medicaid Ending, informing the recipient that she may be potentially eligible for other Medical Programs within HHSC.
- A caretaker certified on TP 08 who is not eligible for TP 07 or TP 20.
- A caretaker or child certified on TP 07 or TP 20.
- A child certified on TP 44.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

A child under age 19 receives a 12-month certification period. The child is continuously eligible for Medicaid for six months or through the month of the child's 19th birthday, whichever is earlier. The second six months of coverage is non-continuous, and changes may impact the child's eligibility.

Exceptions:

- During the continuous eligibility period, if a household reports that a sibling has moved into the household and requests Medicaid for the sibling, the sibling is added to the current case. TIERS aligns the end of the new Medicaid-eligible child's certification period with the end of the existing child's certification period.
- A child is not eligible for continuous coverage if a household fails to report required information at application that causes a child to be ineligible for Medicaid. See A-825, Medicaid Termination.

If the household is eligible in the application month, process month, or ongoing month, the child is eligible for continuous coverage beginning the first month the household meets the eligibility criteria. Note: This includes situations where the household is eligible in the application or process month, but not in an ongoing month.

If the household is eligible only in a month prior to the application, certify the child for the prior month only. The child is not eligible for continuous coverage.

Note: Explore TP 56 for the child if the individual indicates the child has unpaid bills in a month of ineligibility.

A—833 TP 45 Retroactive Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 45

Advisors must provide retroactive TP 45 coverage for newborn children without requiring an application or an interview with the child's mother if all of the following conditions are met:

- There are unpaid Title XIX bills for the newborn child.
- The mother of the child is unwilling, unable or refuses to apply for current benefits for the child, or the child is not eligible for current benefits.
- The advisor has verification of the following eligibility factors for the newborn child:

Eligibility Factor	Eligibility Requirement
Age	Coverage must be initiated within one year of the child's birth.
Residence	The child's coverage cannot continue after the child becomes 13 months old.
Natural mother's Medicaid coverage dates	Child must be residing in Texas.
	Child's mother must be eligible for and receiving Medicaid on the day the child is born. The mother's eligibility can be determined retroactively. See A-820 , Regular Medicaid Coverage.

The file date is the day the advisor is notified about the unpaid bills for the child.

TIERS will allow a:

- file date as late as the month of the child's first birthday, and
- medical effective date as early as the child's date of birth.

A—834 Retroactive Medicaid Coverage for Abandoned Children

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

Medical Programs

If a newborn or child is abandoned at an acute care hospital, or at a psychiatric hospital while receiving inpatient services, DFPS requests a court order for custody. Once the court order is obtained, DFPS provides Medicaid coverage from the day in which custody is granted. The MED is the date DFPS takes conservatorship. This may result in the newborn or child having unpaid medical bills if DFPS takes conservatorship after the date of birth or the date of admission to the hospital and the date DFPS takes conservatorship.

A designated DFPS representative completes Form H1113, Application for Prior Medicaid Coverage, requesting coverage on behalf of the abandoned child and forwards the request to a designated Texas Works advisor within Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) at cbs_ffche-mtfcy@hhsc.state.tx.us.

For children abandoned in a psychiatric hospital, DFPS will only submit applications to request retroactive Medicaid for a child receiving inpatient treatment.

CBS advisors provide retroactive Medicaid coverage only during the following situations:

- A newborn is taken into foster care conservatorship after the date of birth but before the child is released from the hospital, creating a gap in coverage from the date of birth through the day before the foster care conservatorship date.
- A child of any age is taken into foster care conservatorship while in the hospital, but after the admission date, creating a gap in coverage from the date of admission to the day before the foster care conservatorship date.

Note: The MED for a child (not a newborn) cannot precede the date of admission into the hospital.

A-840, Transitional Medicaid Coverage

Revision 02-6; Effective July 1, 2002

A—841 General Eligibility Information

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 07

Some TP 08 household members may be eligible for transitional Medicaid, TP 07.

An eligibility determination for TP 07 is based on whether a parent or caretaker relative is certified for TP 08, Parents and Caretaker Relatives Medicaid, in Texas for three of the six months before the first month of ineligibility. If a parent or caretaker relative certified for TP 08 coverage is eligible for transitional Medicaid, his or her children will be eligible as well. Each individual will be certified on an individual transitional Medicaid EDG for the duration of the certification period.

Example: The household composition consists of mother, father, and two mutual children. The mother and father each are certified on an individual TP 08 EDG in Texas for three of the six months before the month of ineligibility and each child on an individual Children's Medicaid EDG. The father has an increase in income that makes him ineligible for TP 08. The father is then certified on an individual TP 07 EDG. The mother and the two children will be certified on individual TP 07 EDGs, each with the same certification period as the father.

When a TP 07 EDG has been created, other eligible household members receive a new TP 07 EDG. See A-846.1, Parents and Caretaker Relatives Enter or Already Live in the Home, and A-846.2, Child Enters or Already Lives in the Home.

A household member is not eligible for TP 07 if the member was ineligible for TP 08 because the individual committed fraud during any of the six months before the TP 07 EDG was opened. The fraud must be determined by a court or through a hearing. If the TP 07 EDG was opened before the fraud determination was known:

- the household member is disqualified using advance adverse action notice procedures, and
- transitional child care staff must be notified that the member should not have received transitional benefits because of Medicaid fraud.

TP 08 households denied for any reason (such as failure to keep an appointment) may request TP 07 during the adverse action time frame and have their eligibility determined. For example, a household who failed to keep their appointment because of a new job may be eligible for TP 07.

Individuals may request Medicaid on TP 08 any time after denial. These individuals and their household members may also request TP 07 if they become employed.

The number of months of transitional coverage is 12 months.

A—841.1 Multiple Changes That Cause TP 08 Ineligibility

If two or more changes (when one is new or increased earned income) cause the income to increase from less than the FPIL for TP 08 to more than the FPIL for TP 08 for the same month, and the household has not been notified that members are eligible for TP 07, advisors follow the steps below:

Step	Action
-------------	---------------

Step	Action
1	If all other case factors remain the same, is the household income increased to above the FPIL for TP 08 because of new or increased earnings? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Yes. The family is eligible for TP 07 if members meet the other eligibility requirements. • No. Go to Step 2.
2	Is the income increased to above the FPIL for TP 08 as a result of a change other than new or increased earnings? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Yes. The family is not eligible for TP 07. Go to Step 3. • No. Go to Step 4.
3	Does the family meet the income limits for the Medical Program EDGs for which they are certified? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Yes. Continue current Medical Program coverage. • No. Deny the Medical Program EDG(s) for which the individual is no longer income eligible.
4	Is the income increased to above the FPIL for TP 08 when all changes are considered? Yes. The family is eligible for TP 07 if the members meet the other eligibility requirements.

Changes reported in a timely manner do not stop the denial of the TP 08 EDG and creation of the TP 07 after the household is notified of transitional Medicaid eligibility, even when both changes affect the same month.

Exceptions: The EDG is denied if the household:

- moves out of Texas;
- no longer meets the household composition requirement as specified in A-841.3, Eligibility Criteria During Transitional Medicaid Coverage; or
- reports a change that makes the household ineligible before the first month of transitional Medicaid eligibility.

A—841.2 Notice to Clients

When TIERS denies a TP 08 EDG and creates a TP 07, TIERS generates Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to notify the household:

- that their TP 08 and their children on associated TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48 EDGs are denied;
- the date their TP 07 benefits will end; and
- about the transitional Medicaid eligibility and reporting requirements. Note: If the individual is in the office, the advisor may explain the reporting requirements.

A—841.3 Eligibility Criteria During Transitional Medicaid Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 07

Certified members remain eligible for transitional Medicaid if the:

- household continues to live in Texas, and
- EDG meets one of the following household composition requirements.

The transitional EDG includes an eligible child.

Note: For transitional Medicaid, an eligible child is a child who meets all of the following requirements:

OR A parent or caretaker relative cares for a child who receives:

- SSI;
- adoption assistance payments; or

- citizenship,
- Social Security number (SSN),
- age,
- relationship, and domicile.
- federal, state or local foster care payments; or
- Medicaid (TP 07, 20, 40, 43, 44, 45, or 48).

The noncomplying adult who is certified for TP 07 is denied when the advisor receives notice that the legal parent failed to cooperate with third-party resource (TPR) requirements or has been found guilty of a Medicaid intentional program violation.

If another-related caretaker failed to cooperate with TPR requirements or was found guilty of a Medicaid intentional program violation, the advisor must:

- change the status to payee, or
- deny the transitional Medicaid EDG if the other-related caretaker is the only person on the EDG.

The advisor must not:

- count unearned income of household members when determining continued eligibility for households certified for transitional Medicaid; or
- deny a transitional Medicaid EDG because of new or increased income of a household member, unless reported in the seventh or tenth month Medicaid Status Report.

A—842 TP 07 Transitional Medicaid

TP 08 certified members are eligible for TP 07 if:

- at least one of the group members was eligible for and received TP 08 in Texas for three of the six months before the first month of ineligibility; and
- the denial is because:
 - a certified parent, certified caretaker relative, or disqualified legal parent began receiving or had an increase in gross earned income; or
 - of the earnings of a new or returning absent parent who is added to the certified group because the household meets incapacity or deprivation criteria.

A—842.1 Determining the First Month of TP 07 Medicaid

The first TP 07 month is the month the change is effective (when reported and acted on timely) when new or increased earnings cause a certified parent or caretaker relative on TP 08 to be over the FPIL for TP 08.

Determine the first month of TP 07 eligibility using the following chart:

Step	Action
	The first month of TP 07 is the first month after adverse action expires when the change is reported, verified, and processed timely (or should have expired if the change was not reported, verified, or processed timely).
1	Note: The first month can be no later than the first month of overpayment as described in B-752.1.2 , Errors After Certification, but may be earlier based on the date the notice of adverse action expires (as described in A-2343.1 , How to Take Adverse Action if Advance Notice Is Required).

Step	Action
	Was at least one household member eligible for and did that member receive TP 08 in Texas for at least three of the six months prior to the month identified in Step 1? (See A-842.2 , Determining the Three of Six Months Eligibility Requirement.)
2	If yes, continue to Step 3.
	If no, deny the EDG.
3	Designate the month from Step 1 as the first month of TP 07 eligibility.

Individuals who appeal the advisor's decision to deny the TP 08 EDG often receive TP 08 while the appeal is pending. If the hearing officer sustains the advisor's decision, the months the client received continued benefits during the appeal process are counted as TP 07 months.

A—842.2 Determining the Three of Six Months Eligibility Requirement

Advisors must determine whether at least one household member was eligible for and received TP 08 in Texas for three of the six months before the first month of ineligibility.

Advisors must count any month when at least one household member was eligible for and received benefits. Advisors must include any month that someone in the household received TP 08.

Advisors must not count any month benefits were:

- issued but the household was not eligible;
- not issued;
- received in another state;
- prior Medicaid coverage; or
- Medicaid only for the application month due to certification in a later month.

TP 08 with Other Household Members on a Medical Program

Advisors must determine whether at least one TP 08 household member was eligible for and received Medicaid in Texas for three of the six months before the first month the income increase is effective.

Advisors must count any month when at least one household member was eligible for and received Medicaid through:

- TP 08, TP 20, TP 40, TP 43, TP 44, TP 45, TP 48, or TP 56 and spend down was met;
- SSI, including SSI Medicaid only;
- federal, state, or local foster care; or
- adoption assistance.

Advisors must not count any months Medicaid benefits were:

- certified but the household member was not eligible;
- received in another state; or
- prior Medicaid benefits.

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

A—844 Transitional Medicaid Reporting Requirements for TP 07

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Individuals receiving TP 07 coverage are required to report the following changes during the 4th, 7th and 10th months of the transitional period:

- Changes in the household members' gross monthly earnings, and
- Changes in the household composition.

Form H1146, Medicaid Report, is computer-generated and is sent to the household at cutoff in the 3rd, 6th and 9th months. Form H1146:

- informs the household of the availability of continuing transitional coverage,
- provides information about the change reporting requirements, and
- provides a way to report the required information.

Advisors use Form H1146-M, Medicaid Report (Manual), to replace TIERS-generated forms that the household reports are lost or destroyed.

Advisors must not require verification for the transitional Medicaid EDG. Exception: Advisors must require appropriate verifications to determine whether a new household member is eligible to be added to the EDG. See A-846.1, Parents and Caretaker Relatives Enter or Already Live in the Home, and A-846.2, Child Enters or Already Lives in the Home.

Note: If the household does not return Form H1146, no action is required.

A—844.1 Staff Action on the Fourth Month Medicaid Report

TP 07

Use the following procedures to process Form H1146-M, Medicaid Report, for the fourth month. Take action on the household members' other EDGs and cases if the reported information affects those benefits.

If the household returns Form H1146 and Form H1146 indicates ...	then ...
the household still meets the household composition requirements in A-841.3 , Eligibility Criteria During Transitional Medicaid Coverage,	take no action on the transitional Medicaid case.
a child who is not receiving TP 43, TP 44, TP 45, TP 48, or transitional Medicaid is in the home,	see A-846.2 , Child Enters or Already Lives in the Home.
a child left the home,	see A-846.3 , Household Member Leaves the Home.
a returning absent parent or stepparent,	see A-846.1 , Parents and Caretaker Relatives Enter or Already Live in the Home.
a household member certified for TP 07 reports a pregnancy,	explore TP40 eligibility for the pregnant household member.
the household no longer meets the household composition requirements in A-841.3 ,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • deny the EDG, and • send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action.

If the household returns Form H1146 and Form H1146 indicates ...

then ...

- there are no earnings by the parent or caretaker relative in at least one of the three report months, and there is no good cause for the lack of earnings; or
 - the average monthly gross earnings of the household members* exceeds the applicable income limit for the household size,
- shorten the transitional Medicaid coverage to end after the sixth month.
- Note: If the medical coverage is shortened because the parent or caretaker relative did not have earnings for a complete month, inform the household that they can show good cause. They must show good cause within 13 days. (See A-844.4, Good Cause Determinations.)

A—844.2 Staff Action on the Seventh and Tenth Month Medicaid Reports

TP 07

Use the following procedures to process Form H1146-M, Medicaid Report, for the seventh and tenth months. Take action on the household members' other EDGs and cases if the reported information affects those benefits.

If the household returns Form H1146 and Form H1146 indicates ...

then ...

the household no longer meets the household composition requirements in A-841.3, Eligibility Criteria During Transitional Medicaid Coverage, deny the EDG and send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action.

- deny the EDG using the appropriate denial reason;
 - open a new EDG for the appropriate Medical Program if applicable; and
 - send Form TF0001 to the household.
- there are no earnings by the parent or caretaker relative in at least one of the three report months, and there is no good cause for the lack of earnings; or
 - the average monthly gross earnings of the household members* exceeds the applicable income limit for the household size,

If the EDG is denied and the household is not eligible for another type of Medical Program, send Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance – Your Texas Benefits, along with Form TF0001.

HHSC must act on received information (earnings) that makes the household ineligible for transitional Medicaid even if the information is received outside of the reporting period (i.e., changes); however, eligibility can only be terminated at the end of the seventh or tenth month.

Note: If the denial is because the parent or caretaker relative did not have earnings for a complete month, inform the household that they can show good cause. They must show good cause within 13 days. (See A-844.4, Good Cause Determinations.) take no action.

A—844.3 185% FPIL Test

TP 07

Advisors use the following policies and procedures to determine whether the household's earnings are at or below the 185 percent FPIL when processing Medicaid reports.

Advisors must include all members of the individual's MAGI household composition when determining the MAGI income.

Exceptions:

- Advisors must not count the earnings of a child who is exempt according to A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests.
- See A-240, Medical Programs, and A-1341 for exceptions to household composition and countable income.
- When a person is disqualified because of failure to cooperate with child/medical support or TPR requirements, or is found guilty of a Medicaid intentional program violation, the person is not included in the household size.

If the person who fails to cooperate is ...

then ...

a certified legal parent,	count the person's earnings.
an "other relative" caretaker who is the parent or stepparent of a child on the case,	count the person's earnings.
an "other relative" caretaker who is not a parent or stepparent to a child on the case,	do not count the person's earnings.

A—844.4 Good Cause Determinations

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 07

Good cause for the caretaker relative not having earnings in one or more of the report months includes:

- involuntary loss of employment,
- illness,
- actively looking for work but unable to find a job, and
- other reasons beyond the household's control.

A—845 Reinstatement of Denied Transitional Coverage

TP 07

Certain households whose transitional Medicaid EDGs are denied before the end of their original eligibility period may have transitional Medicaid coverage reinstated. Advisors must reinstate eligible household members for the remainder of their original transitional Medicaid period if:

- the original transitional Medicaid end date has not expired;
- the TP 07 was denied — for example, members:
 - were recertified for TP 08; or
 - moved out of Texas;
- the household does not want to apply for TP 08 or is not eligible for TP 08 (at application, review, or change); and

- there is a dependent child in the household certified for Medicaid.

Note: Individuals requesting reinstatement of TP 07 transitional Medicaid must have remained continuously eligible for transitional Medicaid during the months the TP 07 EDG was denied. Exception: A household that moved out of Texas must meet all of the eligibility criteria except residence.

A—845.1 Advisor Action on Reinstatements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 07

Advisors must count the months of absence from transitional Medicaid as if the family had actually received transitional Medicaid.

Advisors use the following table to determine the MED:

If the member ...	then enter the day ...
remained in Texas during the transitional Medicaid denial period and did not receive other Medicaid coverage,	following the denial date.
moved out of the state,	the member returned to Texas and was no longer eligible for Medicaid in another state (see A-822 , Medicaid Coverage for New State Residents).
was certified for TP 08 or another Medical Program,	following the denial date on the other TP 08 or other Medicaid EDG.

To reinstate denied transitional Medicaid, advisors must:

- Determine which mode to use. If the case status is denied and there is:
 - no active EDG, use Reopen mode.
 - an active EDG, use Complete Action mode.
- On the Program Summary page, select Reactivation from the Program Action drop-down menu.
- On the Program Details page, enter the Reactivation Date and select the appropriate Reactivation Reason.
- From the Program – Individuals Summary display, select the person(s) requesting aid.
- Change Aid Requested to Yes. Note: The Date Requested is defaulted to the previous date for individuals who were on the EDG when it was terminated.
- Continue through Data Collection.
- In Disposition, choose Administrative TMA Reinstatement as the reason for eligibility.

Notes:

- Advisors must not open a new application. If a new application was created, it is denied as filed in error.
- When processing the reinstatement, any members who are no longer in the household are removed.
- Advisors send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to notify the household of their continued eligibility.

Advisors must obtain information on household composition and earnings for the months the household did not receive TP 07 and is required to report on Form H1146, Medicaid Report.

If the household missed the ... then obtain information on months ...

fourth month Medicaid report, one, two, and three.
 seventh month Medicaid report, four, five, and six.
 tenth month Medicaid report, seven, eight and nine.

If the household was ...	then ...
certified for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), or any of the Medical Programs,	use case information, requesting additional information from the household only if necessary.
not certified,	obtain the necessary information.

Advisors determine whether the individual was continuously eligible for TP 07 Medicaid using:

- A-844.1, Advisor Action on the Fourth Month Medicaid Report, for the fourth-month Medicaid Report;
- A-844.2, Advisor Action on the Seventh and Tenth Month Medicaid Reports, for the seventh- and tenth-month Medicaid Reports; and

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

A—846.1 Parents and Caretaker Relatives Enter or Already Live in the Home

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Advisors must follow the procedures below if the household requests TP 07 benefits for a caretaker, returning absent parent, stepparent, or second parent in the home.

Advisors must add the member to the case and open a new TP 07 EDG for the individual, or change an ineligible member to eligible if the person is a caretaker or second parent who:

- was disqualified on the TP 08 or transitional EDG but has complied with the eligibility requirement for which he was disqualified (for example, TPR);
- is a returning absent parent/second parent in the home; or
- is a stepparent caretaker because the legal parent has a disability and is unable to care for the children.

A—846.2 Child Enters or Already Lives in the Home

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 07

Advisors follow the procedures in the chart below:

- when the TP 07 household reports that a child who is not receiving TP 07, TP 43, TP 44, TP 45, or TP 48 is in the home;
- when denying a TP 08 EDG and opening a TP 07 EDG; and
- upon review of another Medical Program EDG for a child who lives with a TP 07 recipient.

An other-related child's separate Medical Program EDG continues unless the caretaker needs Transitional Child Care services for the child.

If a child who is not receiving TP transitional Medicaid ...

then ...

If a child who is not receiving TP 43, TP 44, TP 45, TP 48, or transitional Medicaid ...

then ...

obtain the appropriate information/verifications and determine if the child meets all of the following requirements:

- citizenship,
- SSN,
- age,
- relationship, and
- domicile.

Use information/verifications from other case records when the child is currently or has been a TANF/Medical Program or SNAP recipient.

Do not consider the following criteria:

- deprivation, and
- income.

is a newborn, moves in, or already lives in the home,

Note: Obtain information regarding a child's earned income when processing the seventh and tenth month Medicaid reports if the child's earnings are counted, following Medical Programs policy explained in A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests.

If the child is eligible, then send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to the household to inform the household of the child's eligibility.

If the child is not eligible or the household does not provide the information/verification, then:

- send Form TF0001 to the household;
- inform the household that:
 - their TP 07 EDG will continue; but
 - the child cannot be added to the case, stating the reason the child cannot be added; and
- take no action on the case.

If a child who is added to the case has unpaid medical bills for any of the three months prior to the month the request is received to add the child, advisors must:

- determine and document three months prior eligibility according to Medical Programs policies and procedures in A-830, Medicaid Coverage for the Months Prior to the Month of Application; and
- assign the child an MED beginning the first prior month the child met all TP 07 eligibility requirements.

The child's MED cannot precede the:

- first month the household was eligible for TP 07 (advisors must determine a child's eligibility for another Medical Program if the individual applies for prior coverage that precedes the first month the household is eligible for TP 07); or
- date the child entered the household.

A—846.3 Household Member Leaves the Home

TP 20

People denied TP 08 because of new or increased alimony or spousal support may be eligible for TP 20. TP 20 eligibility determinations are based on a parent or caretaker relative certified for TP 08. Household members are eligible for TP 20 for four months following the last month of TP 08 eligibility if:

- the modified adjusted gross income before receipt of alimony or spousal support was at or below the income limit for TP 08;
- new or increased alimony or spousal support income caused the person's MAGI household income to exceed the income limit for the household's size; and
- at least one TP 08 household member was eligible for and received Medicaid in Texas for three of the six months before the first month of ineligibility.

If the household is eligible, a separate transitional Medicaid EDG will be created for each parent or caretaker relative and each child.

When a change in new or increased alimony or spousal support is reported, verified, and processed timely, the first month a person may receive TP 20 is the month after the adverse action period expires (or should have expired if the change was not reported, verified, or processed timely).

A person may receive less than four months of TP 20 coverage if the change of new or increased alimony or spousal support is not reported or processed timely.

Note: If a divorce or separation agreement that includes alimony was executed or last modified after Dec. 31, 2018, alimony received is not counted in the person's household budget.

If two or more changes (when one is new or increased spousal support) cause the income to increase above the Federal Poverty Income Limits (FPIL) for TP 08 for the same month, and the household has not been notified that members are eligible for TP 20, advisors follow the steps below:

Step	Action
1	If all other case factors remain the same, is the household income increased to above FPIL for TP08 because of new or increased alimony/spousal support? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Yes. The household is eligible for TP 20 if members meet the other eligibility requirements. • No. Go to Step 2.

Step	Action
2 Is the income increased to above FPIL for TP 08 as a result of a change other than new or increased alimony/spousal support?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Yes. The household is not eligible for TP 20. Go to Step 3. • No. Go to Step 4.
3 Does the household meet the income limits for the Medical Program EDGs for which they are certified?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Yes. Continue current Medical Program coverage. • No. Deny the Medical Program EDG(s) for which the family member is no longer income eligible.
4 Is the income increased to above the FPIL for TP08 when all changes are considered?	Yes. The household is eligible for TP 20 if the members meet the other eligibility requirements.

Changes reported in a timely manner do not stop the denial of the TP 08 EDG and creation of the TP 20 after the household is notified of transitional Medicaid eligibility, even when both changes affect the same month.

Exceptions: The EDG is denied if the household

- moves out of Texas;
- no longer meets the household composition requirement as specified in A-841.3, Eligibility Criteria During Transitional Medicaid Coverage; or
- reports a change that makes the household ineligible before the first month of TP 20 eligibility.

A-860, Third-Party Resources

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

A TPR is a source of payment for medical expenses other than the recipient or Medicaid. TPR include payments from private and public health insurance and from other liable third parties that can be applied toward the recipient's medical expenses. Title XIX (Medicaid) funds are to be used for the payment of medical services only after all available third-party resources have been used, except for medical services from the following:

- Texas Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Services;
- Texas Commission for the Blind;
- Texas Kidney Health Care Program;
- Muscular Dystrophy Association;
- Children with Special Health Care Needs;
- Texas Band of Kickapoo Equity Health Program;
- Maternal and Child Health (Title V);
- State Legislative Impact Assistance Grant (SLIAG);
- Crime Victims Compensation Program; and
- adoption agencies or adoptive parents with medical obligations to the recipient.

Income maintenance insurance policies not related to actual medical expenses are not third-party resources unless the policy is assignable to a hospital or other medical provider.

When an applicant has health insurance, the advisor must instruct the individual to tell medical providers about the health insurance. The provider then bills the insurance company rather than or before billing Medicaid.

Individuals must cooperate:

- in identifying and pursuing any third party who may be liable for medical support payments, including absent parents who pay cash medical support;
- in reimbursing HHSC for medical expenses paid by Medicaid from:
 - court settlements, and
 - liability, casualty, or health insurance payments, and
- with HHSC and its Health Insurance Premium Payment (HIPP) contractor by:
 - providing information about available health insurance coverage;
 - enrolling in their employer's health insurance program; and
 - providing proof of their premium payments.

Individuals who refuse to cooperate without good cause are denied.

The denied legal parent is included in the household composition.

 P.O. Box 85200

When a recipient reimburses HHSC for medical expenses from a court settlement or from a liability, casualty, or health insurance payment, the reimbursement should be by personal check, cashier's check, or money order payable to the Texas Department of Health and Human Services.

Advisor action:

1. Give the individual Form H4100, Money Receipt.
2. Send the reimbursement and a copy of Form H4100 to ARTS at P.O. Box 149044, Austin, Texas 78714.
3. Enter the type(s) and date(s) of the medical service(s) in the "For" section of the form.
4. If unsure what medical services were involved, complete a memorandum giving as much information as is known concerning the reimbursement.
5. Attach a copy of any information identifying the nature of the payment, such as a statement from the insurance company, to Form H4100.

The actual claim paid by Medicaid is verified in state office, and the individual is reimbursed if the payment made is in excess of the Medicaid payment. The advisor is notified of the reimbursement. Advisors must consider the reimbursement as possible TANF and/or TP 08 income.

When the TPR Unit becomes aware that an individual received a private insurance payment and has not made any payments to the Medicaid provider, the TPR Unit sends a memo to the regional director. The memo includes the amount of:

- Medicaid paid; and
- the private insurance payment, if known.

The advisor must use the following procedures after receiving the memo:

Step	Action
	Send Form HI020 , Request for Information or Action, to the caretaker, requesting that the individual:
1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • provide verification of the amount of the private insurance payment, and • contact the advisor about reimbursing HHSC. If the individual does not respond, then go to Step 2. If the individual does respond, then go to Step 3.

A—861.5 Remitting Cash Medical Support Payments to the Third-Party Resources (TPR) Unit

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Medical Programs

After certification, Medicaid recipients must remit to the TPR Unit any cash medical support payments received for a certified child. The advisor gives the individual sufficient copies of Form H1710, Payment Identification, and TPR self-addressed envelopes, if payments are being made or might be made. The advisor instructs the individual upon receipt of a cash medical support payment from an absent parent after certification of the requirement to:

- write on the check or money order "Deposit Only - State Treasury" and to not endorse the check or money order;
- include Form H1710 with the check or money order; and
- send it to the HHSC/OIG/TPR Unit, MC 1354, P.O. Box 85200, Austin, TX 78708-5200.

If the individual turns in cash medical support payments to the local office, the advisor must:

- forward the payment(s) to the HHSC/OIG/TPR Unit; and
- give the individual a copy of Form H4100, Money Receipt.

Upon becoming aware that an individual did not remit a cash medical support payment, advisors must follow policy in B-700, Claims, and process a claim for the month(s) of unreported income, if required.

The application asks applicants and individuals whether any household members have health insurance. Form H1028, Employment Verification, asks employers to verify if health insurance is available, and whether the employee is enrolled. A—863 Health Insurance Premium Payment (HIPP) Program

Revision 17-1; Effective January 1, 2017

Medical Programs

The Health Insurance Premium Payment (HIPP) program is a Medicaid benefit that helps families pay for employer-sponsored health insurance.

To qualify for HIPP, an employee must either be Medicaid eligible or have a family member that is Medicaid eligible. The HIPP program may pay for individuals and their family members who receive, or have access to, employer-sponsored health insurance benefits when it is determined that the cost of insurance premiums is less than the cost of projected Medicaid expenditures.

Note: An employee and their Medicaid-eligible family member must be enrolled in the employer-sponsored health insurance in order to receive HIPP reimbursements.

Medicaid-eligible HIPP enrollees do not have to pay out-of-pocket deductibles, co-payments, or co-insurance for health care services that Medicaid covers when seeing a provider that accepts Medicaid. Instead, Medicaid reimburses providers for these expenses.

HIPP enrollees who are not Medicaid eligible must pay deductibles, co-payments, and co-insurance required under the employer's group health insurance policy.

Report individuals who are potentially eligible for HIPP on Form H1039, Medical Insurance Input. Send Form H1039 to HHSC's Third Party Resource \(TPR\) Unit, Mail Code 1354.

HHSC's TPR Unit refers Form H1039 to the current state Medicaid contractor, Texas Medicaid and Healthcare Partnership (TMHP). If TMHP determines it is cost-effective for Medicaid to pay the recipient's employer-sponsored health insurance premiums, then TMHP sends:

- a letter to the recipient and requests verification of the employer-sponsored insurance plan and premium payments; and
- a premium reimbursement to the recipient upon receipt of complete documentation and proof of the premium payment.

Note: Do not consider an incurred medical deduction for the reimbursed premium for individuals participating in HIPP.

TMHP will terminate HIPP enrollment if the individual is no longer enrolled in health insurance coverage or fails to provide TMHP with the information needed to determine cost effectiveness or proof of premium payments.

For more information about the HIPP program, see HHSC's website: <http://hhs.texas.gov/services/financial/insurance/health-insurance-premium-payment-hipp>, or contact the Medicaid HIPP program at MCD_HIPP_Program@hhs.state.tx.us.

A child must live in the home with a relative listed in A-221, Who Is Included, No. 4. A home is the family setting maintained or being established, as evidenced by continuation of responsibility for day-to-day care of the child by the relative with whom the child is living.

Medical Programs except TP 08 and TA 31

Domicile requirements do not apply to these programs. Children can live with a parent or caretaker relative, or not live with a parent or caretaker relative (for example, independent children).

TP 08 and TA 31

For a parent or caretaker relative to be eligible for TP 08 or TA 31, they must be living with the dependent child of whom they have care and control. In general, for a caretaker to be considered as having care and control of a child, the child must live in the home with the relative. A home is the family setting maintained or being established, as evidenced by continuation of responsibility for day-to-day care of the child by the relative with whom the child is living.

The parent or caretaker relative may meet the domicile requirement when the dependent child is not included in their Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) household composition.

Example: A grandfather is living with his grandchild, but the grandchild is claimed as a tax dependent by a non-custodial parent. The grandfather is applying for health care for himself. In this example, the grandchild is not included in the grandfather's MAGI household composition since the grandfather is not claiming the grandchild as a tax dependent. However, the grandfather meets the domicile requirement if the grandchild lives with the grandfather and meets the care and control requirements explained in A-921, How to Determine Care and Control.

A-920, Temporary Absence from the Home

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

Advisors must not deny assistance because a household member or payee is temporarily out of the home if all of the following conditions are met:

- The person is out of the home due to:
 - temporary separation from other family members, and the family has no regular place of residence;
 - hospitalization or receipt of outpatient services;
 - attending school or training (including schools for the deaf and blind);
 - being on vacation;
 - being in a home for children not considered to be a public institution; or
 - seeking employment away from home.
- The parent or caretaker relative/payee is still responsible for the child's care and control. See A-921, How to Determine Care and Control, to determine whether the caretaker/payee still has care and control.
- The person's absence is not anticipated to be more than the allowable six- or 12-month period.

Advisors must certify or continue eligibility, and review the Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) every three months. Advisors remove the absent household member from the EDG after:

- six months (beginning with the first full month of absence from the home); or
- 12 months for situations when a family member is out of the home because the member is:
 - hospitalized or receiving outpatient services;
 - attending school or training; or
 - in a home for children not considered to be an institution.

The allowable six- or 12-month period begins again if the absent person returns to and resides in the home for at least 30 consecutive days. Advisors must not apply the temporary absence time frames when a parent is out of the home solely because of employment. Advisors must include the employed parent in the certified group if the parent meets all other eligibility criteria. See A-1040, Deprivation Based on Absence from the Home.

If a member of the certified group enters a nursing home, advisors leave the member's needs in the household composition if the member will be there temporarily or until the member is certified for Supplemental Security Income (SSI). Advisors refer the recipient to the Social Security office for an SSI eligibility determination.

TANF

If the advisor removes the caretaker from the EDG, the EDG must be denied, and the advisor must ask another relative in the home that qualifies as caretaker to apply for the child(ren).

Medical Programs

If the advisor denies the parent or caretaker relative's EDG, this does not impact the other associated Medical Program EDGs, and the other individuals cannot be required to reapply for Medical Programs.

A—921 How to Determine Care and Control

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

The parent or caretaker relative/payee cannot be considered responsible for the absent child's care and control when the child:

- is placed out of the caretaker/payee's home by the court, and the caretaker/payee has no authority to remove the child; or
- has a court-appointed guardian other than the caretaker/payee.

These children are independent children. The advisor must determine their eligibility for one of the Medical Programs.

Other considerations for care and control include:

- Who has the financial responsibility for the child's medical and dental costs?
- Who makes the decisions about health care, medical care, schooling and other personal care decisions?
- To what extent is the caretaker/payee involved with the child? How often does the caretaker/payee visit the child? What is the caretaker/payee's involvement with decisions for the care, well-being, schooling, etc.?

- To what extent does the caretaker/payee actively participate in the guidance and development of the child?
- What is the caretaker/payee's financial involvement for the child? That is, does the caretaker/payee pay a regular fee for the child's enrollment and participation in the home's programs?
- What restrictions or limitations have been placed on the caretaker/payee's rights?

Based on the responses to these questions, the advisor must make a prudent person decision about the caretaker/payee still being responsible for the child's care and control.

Advisors consider a child admitted into a state hospital as an independent child if the caretaker no longer has care and control and the child was admitted:

- via a court order, or
- voluntarily.

The child is not considered an independent child if the child was admitted voluntarily and the caretaker/payee continues to have care and control.

A—923 Children Residing in General Residential Operations Facilities

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

Medical Programs except TP 08 and TA 31

Advisors consider a child admitted into certain general residential operations facilities that are members of the Texas Coalition of Homes for Children as an independent child. These residential care facilities are considered to have care and control over children in their care.

Once a child is placed in one of these facilities, the facility provides a live-in house parent model of care. The house parent(s) assumes responsibility and acts in lieu of the parent(s) in meeting the children's ongoing needs.

These facilities may apply for medical assistance on behalf of the children under their care. The facilities have limited power of attorney and are considered alternate payees for the children's Medicaid EDG.

The facilities submit an application listing the child as a case name and a representative from the facility as an authorized representative.

Below is a list of general residential operations facilities that are members of the Texas Coalition of Homes for Children:

- ACH Child and Family Services – Fort Worth
- Arms of Hope – Quinlan and Medina
- Ben Richey Boys Ranch – Abilene
- Boys and Girls Country – Hockley
- The Brownson Home – Victoria
- Buckner Children and Family Services – Dallas
- Cal Farley's Boys Ranch – Amarillo
- Cherokee Home for Children – Cherokee
- Children at Heart Ministries – Round Rock
- The Children's Home of Lubbock – Lubbock
- Children's Village – Tyler
- Christ's Haven – Keller
- Foster's Home for Children – Stephenville
- Hendrick Home for Children – Abilene
- High Plains Children's Home – Amarillo
- Lee and Beulah Moor Children's Home – El Paso

- Methodist Home for Children – Waco and Waxahachie
- Miracle Farm – Brenham
- Presbyterian Children's Home – Austin, San Antonio, Waxahachie and Itasca
- South Texas Children's Home Ministries – Beeville
- Sunny Glenn Children's Home – San Benito
- Texas Baptist Children's Home – Round Rock
- Texas Boys Ranch – Lubbock
- West Texas Boys Ranch – San Angelo

This list is not all inclusive. Staff must submit a policy clearance request if they receive an application requesting medical assistance for a child from a facility that is not included on this list. Staff must include a copy of the placement contract and the power of attorney from that facility so it can be determined if the child can be considered an independent child.

To receive Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) benefits, unmarried minor parents must live:

- with a parent, legal guardian or adult relative; or

Note: The unmarried minor parent does not have to be included in a TANF EDG with the minor parent's parent unless required by policy in A-221, Who Is Included.

- in a local second chance home, maternity home or other residential facility that provides an adult-supervised living arrangement, if available in the local community, if the unmarried minor parent:
 - has no parent, legal guardian, or adult relative:
 - who is living;
 - whose whereabouts are known; and
 - who is willing and appropriate; or
 - cannot live with such an individual because of prior or potential abuse or neglect.

Advisors must notify the minor parent of available local facilities.

An unmarried minor parent and child are not required to live in a second chance home, maternity home or other adult-supervised living arrangement if it is not in their best interest. The advisor, using the prudent person principle, determines whether the unmarried minor parent's current living arrangement is in their best interest.

"In their best interest" means either:

- there is no parent, legal guardian or adult relative with whom the minor parent and child can live; or
- there is no adult-supervised facility in the community; or
- their current living arrangement provides as much or more safety and emotional or financial security than living in a local adult-supervised facility.

Examples:

- An unmarried minor parent is employed, their child has safe child care, and the move would result in the loss of employment.

TANF

Deprivation based on absence exists when:

- a child's legal parents do not live together because of:
 - divorce,
 - legal separation,
 - desertion,
 - incarceration, or
 - deportation;
- the child's biological father lives in the home with the mother and child but a legal parent-child relationship exists between the child and another man;
- a parent resides outside the U.S. and there is a legal impediment that prevents the parent from living in this country; or
- a parent convicted of an offense and sentenced by a court to perform unpaid community service during work hours lives at home while serving the sentence.

If absence is anticipated to last for:

- 30 days or less, the absence is considered temporary and the child is not deprived.

- more than 30 days, the absence is considered continuing.

Note: If the absence is currently less than 30 days but is anticipated to last longer than 30 days, the Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) should not be pended for deprivation.

A parent should be included in the certified group if the parent is temporarily absent for a reason listed in A-920, Temporary Absence from the Home.

Deprivation based on absence does not exist when a parent is absent solely because of:

- employment; or
- active duty in the uniformed services of the United States, even if the parent is incarcerated or absent without leave (AWOL).

Exception: Deprivation may exist if there is a break in the family relationship unrelated to active duty in the service, and information indicates the family members are not functioning as a family unit. Information can be a statement from the caretaker that she and the second parent consider themselves to be separated so that the parents and children are not functioning as one family unit.

A parent is incapacitated if a medically determined mental or physical impairment results in a substantial reduction in the ability to support or care for the child. This impairment kept or will keep the parent from performing the parent's usual work for at least 30 days.

The individual's usual work is the individual's main occupation for the last 15 years. In the case of a homemaker, the activities related to caring for a child are considered usual work.

1. Advisors must determine whether the household is receiving Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance (RSDI) based on disability. If the individual receives either of these benefits, deprivation is established. Note: Eligibility for SSI or RSDI based on age does not establish deprivation.
2. If the applicant has a disability that is:
 - obvious, advisors must certify the household for TANF and require a completed Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, at the next redetermination.
 - not obvious, the advisor must complete the disability determination. A disability determination consists of the advisor completing and sending Form H1836-A to the physician who treated the individual within the past 60 days for the incapacity being claimed. Note: The physician is not paid for completing this verification.

The Office of the Attorney General (OAG) Child Support Division is responsible for the child support program. The OAG attempts to establish and enforce child support and medical support for children on Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and certain medical programs.

TANF

Caretakers and payees must cooperate in obtaining child support and medical support for a child receiving TANF unless good cause exists.

Parents and caretaker relatives are mandatory participants and must cooperate in obtaining medical support for a child receiving Medicaid unless good cause exists. They may refuse assistance in obtaining child support, but not medical support. If the individual refuses assistance in obtaining child support, the OAG will not attempt to establish or enforce child support unless the individual has a previous TANF case with arrears that must be paid back to the state. Advisors must explain to individuals that when the OAG pursues medical support, Texas courts also pursue a child support order. If the individual chooses medical support only, the OAG will not attempt to enforce the child support orders.

Note: The advisor must request information on parents living outside of the home during an interview for TP 08. Information about parents living outside of the home is not requested for Medical Programs on the application.

Form H0050, Parent Profile Questionnaire, information is required for each absent parent. The absent parent information may be obtained verbally and entered into the Absent Parent page. If a child has both a legal and a biological absent parent, information on both the legal and biological parent is required unless the person can reasonably explain why it is impossible to provide information or has established good cause. The person must provide the following information about the absent parent:

- the absent parent's first and last name;
- information about the relationship (divorced, separated or never married) between the child's parents; and
- at least one of the following:
 - the absent parent's Social Security number;

- the absent parent's current or last known address; or
- the absent parent's current or previous employer information.

Staff must address each item on Form H0050 and help the person obtain information about the absent parent(s). The OAG establishes cases based on information collected from the applicant and entered by HHSC staff. Failure to provide complete and accurate information may affect the successful enforcement of child support.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

Advisors must send referrals to the OAG on legal and biological parent(s):

- when deprivation is based on absence;
- when deprivation is based on death;
- if paternity cannot be established using policy in A-1021, Unwed Parents Living Together, for a biological father who is in the home;
- if the family volunteers to receive services provided by the OAG for Children's Medicaid programs; or
- the adult caretaker receives TP 08. See A-1122.1, Parent Profile Questionnaire, for Children's Medicaid programs.

Advisors do not send a referral if:

- a child in the home is not deprived because both parents are in the home or deprivation is based on unemployment or underemployment (TANF-State Program [SP]);
- a claim of good cause has been established;
- deprivation is based on physical or mental incapacity; or
- the legal or biological father of a pregnant woman's unborn child has no other children receiving Medicaid.

Advisors must review Form H0050, Parent Profile Questionnaire, with the individual to ensure no items are blank, that the individual provided complete and current information, and entered the information in the Absent Parent logical unit of work (LUW). The Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) automatically sends the referral to the OAG.

A—1124 TANF

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

After certification, TANF individuals must remit to the OAG all child support payments received for a certified child. Individuals should be given sufficient copies of Form H1710, Payment Identification, and OAG self-addressed envelopes, if payments are being made or might be made. When the individual receives a child support payment from an absent parent following certification, the individual must:

- write on the check or money order "Deposit Only - State Treasury" and not endorse the check or money order;
- include Form H1710 with the check or money order; and
- send it to the Texas Child Support Disbursement Unit, P.O. Box 659791, San Antonio, Texas 78265-9941.

If child support is intended for a child on TANF and one on Supplemental Security Income (SSI), the individual must remit the payment to the OAG for proration and distribution to occur.

If the individual turns in child support payments to the local office, advisors must:

- forward the payment(s) to the Child Support Disbursement Unit; and
- give the individual a copy of Form H4100, Money Receipt.

Advisors must send Form H1701, Child Support, TANF Foster Care and TANF/Medicaid Case Information Exchange, including the amounts and months involved, to the OAG if the advisor becomes aware that the individual did not remit a child support payment. Advisors should follow policy in A-1140, Noncooperation with Child Support Program Requirements, to sanction the individual for noncooperation. If the individual indicates they will continue to keep child support received from the absent parent, the advisor should follow policy in B-700, Claims, and process a claim for the month(s) of unreported income.

If the OAG becomes aware that the individual received child support and did not remit the payments, the child support officer notifies the advisor on Form H1701. The advisor must process a claim for the unreported income.

A—1125 OAG Distribution

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

After individuals are certified for TANF, they must send all child support payments received to the OAG Child Support Division. The OAG:

- sends the $75 disregard to the individual;
- reimburses the state for TANF paid to the individual; and
- sends HHSC the monthly interface file of child support collections for TANF recipients.

HHSC uses the information to determine whether the collection exceeds the grant plus the disregard, and to determine grant in jeopardy if it exceeds the grant.

If the individual receives child support for an SSI child in the household, the OAG will distribute (directly to the individual) the prorated share of support intended for the SSI child.

The month after the OAG receives a child support payment, the OAG will send the individual up to $75 (disregard payment). The amount sent is the lesser of:

- the court-ordered payment amount,
- the amount the OAG received during a given month, or
- $75.

When the OAG receives a child support collection that exceeds the grant plus unreimbursed assistance, the excess is sent to the individual. Form H1714, Notice of Grant Jeopardy; Form H1715, Notice of Excess Payment; or Form H1717, Notice of Grant Jeopardy/Excess Payment — Denial, will notify the advisor of the date and amount of the payment.

A grant-in-jeopardy EDG may be generated for EDGs involving SSI children. In processing the grant-in-jeopardy, TIERS determines whether the prorated share of child support exceeds the TANF grant, minus the disregard. If the prorated share exceeds the TANF grant, minus the disregard, TIERS will deny the EDG. If the amount does not exceed the TANF grant, TIERS will allow the TANF EDG to continue.

Example: The household consists of a caretaker and one child who receives TANF and one child who receives SSI.

- $300 child support for both children
- -150 will go directly to SSI child

Example: The household consists of a caretaker and one child who receives TANF and one child who receives SSI.

- 150 child support for TANF child
- - 75 disregard
- $75 does not exceed TANF for a caretaker and one child; the state retains the child support

Note: If the individual appeals the action described in A-852, Automated Process, and receives continued benefits, the advisor must count the excess payment as income during the appeal period if the advisor anticipates that the child support payments will continue.

A—1130 Explanation of Good Cause

TANF and TP 08

The purpose of good cause is to allow people to access benefits safely. Good cause provides an exemption from cooperating with the OAG's child support and medical support requirements.

Explain the family violence option and good cause exemption to all households applying for benefits. Use Form H1712, Explanation of Child/Medical Support, Family Violence and Good Cause, to explain the good cause exemption from the child support and medical support requirements. The explanation must include the situations that justify good cause and the required verifications. Explain that a person does not have to cooperate with child support or medical support requirements if they can prove that cooperation is not in the child's best interest.

A claim of good cause must be made separately for each absent parent. Notify the OAG of the person's good cause claim. This notification is sent from HHSC to the OAG through an automated interface once staff enter the appropriate information into TIERS and the case is disposed.

After explaining Form H1712 to the person:

- Review Part I of Form H1713, Service Plan for Family Violence Option and Report of Good Cause, with the person during the interview. Complete only Part I of Form H1713 if the person indicates on this form that they do not want to claim good cause. If the person wants to continue to claim good cause, continue completing Part II and Part III where applicable of Form H1713.
- Complete Part II Assessment Referral of Form H1713 if the person wants to claim good cause for family violence. Make an assessment referral to a family violence specialist using Part II of Form 1713. The family violence specialist makes a recommendation of good cause for reasons of family violence using the Form H1706, Good Cause Recommendation and Family Violence Exemption.
- Complete Part III of Form H1713 to indicate the good cause reason and determination date.

Once the family violence specialist makes a recommendation of good cause on the Form H1706, complete Part III of Form H1713 and send the form to the local child support office and HHSC Family Violence Program (FVP) staff to report the final decision.

Note: TIERS will automatically notify the local child support office of the good cause determination through the OAG interface when the EDG is disposed.

A—1131 Good Cause Situations

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Good cause exists when:

- a child was conceived as a result of incest or rape;
- a child or caretaker may be physically harmed;
- a child or caretaker may be emotionally harmed to the extent that the caretaker's capacity to adequately care for the child is impaired; or

- legal proceedings for the child's adoption are pending before a court or a licensed or private social agency is helping the individual decide whether to keep the child or relinquish the child for adoption.

Note: This issue must not have been under discussion more than three months and staff must update the absent parent referral if the issue remains unsolved beyond the third month.

A—1131.1 Good Cause for Family Violence Option

TANF and TP 08

Cooperating with the OAG's child support and medical support requirements could pose a potential safety risk for family violence victims and their children. HHSC and OAG allow good cause for family violence to not comply with child and medical support requirements. Explain and offer the family violence option at each application and redetermination.

Staff must:

- explain Form H1712, Explanation of Child/Medical Support, Family Violence and Good Cause, and give a copy of the form to the person;
- review Part I of Form H1713, Service Plan for Family Violence Option and Report of Good Cause, with the person; and
- if the person wants to claim good cause for reasons of family violence, use Part II of Form 1713 to make an assessment referral to a family violence specialist at a nearby family violence service provider. Only a family violence specialist can recommend good cause relating to family violence.

A list of family violence shelters is searchable in TIERS and located at the HHS Family Violence Program page. If no shelter serves the person's area, give the person the National Domestic Violence Hotline number (800-799-7233 [800-799-SAFE] or 800-787-3324 TTY for people who are deaf) to help the person locate the closest family violence service provider.

If the person wants to claim good cause for not complying with TANF or Medicaid child support and medical support requirements due to family violence:

- The person arranges to speak with the referred family violence specialist to discuss the need to claim good cause and request a good cause recommendation.
- After the family violence specialist makes the good cause recommendation, the family violence specialist completes Form H1706, Good Cause Recommendation and Family Violence Exemption, and returns the form to the person or to HHSC to use as verification.
- For face-to-face interviews at a local HHSC eligibility office, provide the person a confidential phone interview with the family violence specialist from the local eligibility determination office. In this scenario, the Form 1706 is not required, and HHSC staff use "client statement" as verification.

Continue to process the TANF or Medicaid EDG and collect absent parent information verbally or by pending the EDG for the H0050, Parent Profile Questionnaire. Remind the person that HHSC requires a completed Form H0050 if the family violence specialist does not recommend good cause or the person decides not to pursue good cause. If the person does not pursue good cause, they must complete and return Form H0050 or provide absent parent information before staff can approve the TANF or Medicaid EDG

Note: By collecting the absent parent information or pending the EDG for the information at the time of the interview, staff will be able to process the EDG regardless whether the H1706 supports the good cause claim.

Allow the person 10 days to return Form H1706, Form H1713 and Form H0050. Certify the EDG, if otherwise eligible, without the H1706, if not returned or if the H1706 does not support the good cause claim.

HHSC staff requirements for Form H1713:

- complete Part II and Part III of Form H1713;
- send a copy to the local child support office; and
- send a copy to the family violence coordinator by one of the following methods to report the final decision:
 - Interagency mail: Family Violence Coordinator, Mail Code 2010
 - Regular mail: Family Violence Coordinator 909 W. 45th St., Mail Code 2010 Austin, TX 78751; or
 - Email: Send completed and scanned documents only to the HHSC Family Violence Mailbox.

Once the good cause claim has been established, re-evaluate the claim at each redetermination. If the person is no longer claiming good cause, update the absent parent referral by removing the good cause indicator to allow the OAG to help the family get child support or medical support services for their children. If the person continues to claim good cause, continue to uphold good cause.

A—1131.2 Good Cause Related to Adoptions, Rape or Incest

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and TP 08

If an individual claims good cause based on an adoption, rape, or incest, advisors must:

- allow individuals 20 days to provide evidence;
- extend the deadline for evidence if additional time is needed to obtain the necessary information;
- document the reason for extending the deadline and obtain supervisory approval; and
- flag the case and evaluate the evidence when received and recommend either that the individual:
 - has good cause for not cooperating and the OAG should not continue child support locate and enforcement efforts; or
 - does not have good cause for not cooperating and the OAG should continue child support locate and enforcement efforts.

Note: For adoption situations, the issue must not have been under discussion for more than three months. If the issue is unresolved beyond the third month, staff must update the absent parent referral.

A-1140, Noncooperation with Child Support Program Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and TP 08

At initial certification and redetermination or incomplete reviews, the advisor must determine whether the individual failed to cooperate with child support requirements.

The advisor determines noncooperation when:

- an individual fails to cooperate with child support requirements without good cause (see A-1120, Child Support Program Requirements and Procedures, for individual responsibilities); or
- HHSC receives Form H1708-A, Report of Noncooperation (Automated), from the OAG via the weekly interface.

A—1141 Sanctions for Noncooperation

TANF and TP 08

The Child Support Division of the OAG notifies HHSC via a weekly interface when an individual fails to cooperate with child support or medical support. Upon receipt of the notice of child support noncooperation, HHSC must take action to process the noncooperation within five workdays. See A-2140, Full-Family Sanction, and A-2150, Pay for Performance.

TANF

Adult TANF recipients, second parents and minor parents certified as adults, payees or disqualified adults are required to sign Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement, and cooperate with child support requirements. Failure to do so results in a full-family sanction. If the TANF recipient or payee has more than one TANF EDG and fails to cooperate with child support requirements, the sanction applies to all of their TANF EDGs. See A-2140 and A-2150.

TP 08

Parents and caretaker relatives receiving TP 08 must cooperate in establishing medical support. Failure to cooperate with requirements results in the loss of medical coverage for the noncooperating adult.

TANF and TP 08

If a child support noncooperation is received on and the household does not have good cause, then ...

...

- a denied EDG in a TANF cash benefit month,
 - TIERS identifies the noncooperation; and
 - sends Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, advising the household of the noncooperation and how to cooperate.

Note: If the household fails to cooperate by the last calendar day of the second month, the household will be subject to pay for performance requirements when they reapply for TANF.
- a denied case in a non-TANF cash benefit month, no action is required.

- an active TANF or TP 08 EDG, the month after the child is no longer in the home, and the noncooperation date is after the date the child was removed from the EDG, no further action is required.

- an EDG already sanctioned for a child support noncooperation on a different absent parent,

TIERS sends Form TF0001 advising the household of the noncooperation and how to cooperate. Note: The OAG will not issue Form H1701, Child Support, TANF Foster Care and TANF/Medicaid Case Information Exchange, until the individual cures all noncooperations.
- an active TP 08 EDG,

TIERS denies the noncooperating adult's TP 08 EDG.
- an active EDG and the child receives SSI, refer to A-2140, Full-Family Sanction, to impose a full-family sanction. If the household fails to cure the noncooperation before the last day of the second noncooperation month, they will need to reapply under pay for performance.

- a TANF-SP EDG with a child in the household who is deprived due to the absence of a parent,

TIERS denies the noncooperating adult's TP 08 EDG.
- an active TANF cash EDG and the individual and absent parent have reconciled and are in the home together, or
- an active TP 08 EDG and the individual and absent parent have reconciled and are in the home together,

Note: The advisor must determine whether the individual has good cause for not cooperating with child support requirements using policy in A-1130, Explanation of Good Cause. If the individual has good cause, the advisor should not impose a full-family sanction.

A-1200, Resources

A-1210, General Policy

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Resources are assets or possessions that are either countable or exempt, depending on the program and Type of Assistance \(TOA\). There are liquid and nonliquid resources. Liquid resources are those that are readily available, such as cash, checking or savings accounts, debit accounts, savings certificates, stocks or bonds. Nonliquid resources are those that cannot be readily converted to cash, including vehicles, buildings, land or certain other property. Count the equity value of all resources, liquid and nonliquid, unless otherwise specified or listed as exempt. The equity value is the fair market value \(FMV\) of an item minus:

- all money owed on it; and
- the cost associated with its sale or transfer.

Count resources of the:

- members of the:
 - Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) certified group;
 - Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) EDG; and
 - child's TP 32 and child's TP 56 EDG;
- alien's sponsor according to the policy.
- disqualified persons; and
- stepparents in TANF households according to policy.

If payments exempted as resources are kept in a separate account, those payments remain exempt. If the money is placed in an interest-bearing account, the interest must be counted as income in the month received. If the money is combined with money that is countable, exempt the excluded funds for six months from the date the funds are combined. After six months, the total amount of combined funds should be counted as an available resource.

SNAP

Categorical eligibility extends to any household authorized to receive services funded by the TANF program. TANF non-cash (TANF-NC) services consist of various services such as family planning, adult education, prevention and treatment of substance abuse, and employment services. Households must pass an income and resource test for determination of categorical eligibility based on receipt of TANF-NC services.

The resource test consists of the following criteria:

- The household's countable liquid resources plus excess vehicle value must be $5,000 or less.
- Up to $15,000 of the FMV for the highest valued countable vehicle is exempt. The excess over $15,000 FMV is counted toward the combined resource limit.
- Up to $4,650 FMV for all other countable vehicles is exempt. The excess over $4,650 FMV is counted toward the combined resource limit. Note: Refer to vehicle policy for more reasons a vehicle can be exempted.

Once the recipient is authorized for TANF-NC services based on the initial resource test, all other nonliquid resources are exempt. Regular TANF policy must be followed when determining countable liquid resources within TANF-NC. Most resources are not applicable to SNAP.

Children on TP 56 and Children on TP 32

Resources are considered as a factor in determining eligibility for children on TP 56 and TP 32.

Exception: Do not consider resources when determining a newborn's eligibility for TP 56 when the newborn's mother was eligible for TP 56 or TP 32 at the time of the newborn's birth.

A—1211 Requirement to Pursue Resources

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

An individual must pursue all resources to which the individual is legally entitled unless it is unreasonable to pursue the resource. Advisors should develop a plan with the individual to pursue the potential resource and allow reasonable time (at least three months) to pursue the resource.

Advisors should use the comment section of Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to inform the individual of the requirement to pursue the resource, including the time the individual has to pursue it, and the resource is not considered available during that time.

If the individual does not pursue the resource within a reasonable time, the Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) is denied.

Exception: The individual does not have to pursue a resource if it would be unreasonable. It is unreasonable to pursue a resource if any of the following conditions exist:

- The cost to the individual to pursue the resource exceeds the potential resource's value or causes the individual financial hardship;
- Pursuing the resource would endanger the individual's health or safety; or
- Legal action is required, but a private attorney or legal service refuses to accept the case. The individual must make a reasonable effort to obtain legal assistance.

SNAP

Individuals receiving SNAP benefits do not have to pursue resources.

Note: Pursuing resources could help an individual become self-sufficient, and individuals should be provided examples of resources they might be entitled to receive.

A—1212 Transferring Resources

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

A—1212.1 Penalties for Transferring Resources

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Households are ineligible if, within three months before application or any time after certification, the household transfers a countable resource for less than its fair market value to qualify for assistance. This penalty applies if the total of the transferred resource added to other resources affects eligibility.

Resources transferred between members of the same TANF/SNAP household do not affect eligibility. If spouses separate and one spouse transfers individual property, the other spouse's eligibility is not affected.

Children on TP 56 and Children on TP 32

Applicants or individuals who transfer resources to qualify for assistance must not be denied.

A—1212.2 How to Determine Intent

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

In determining an individual's intent for transferring resources for TANF and SNAP benefits, staff must consider the following:

- How recent was the transfer of property? A recent transfer may indicate the household transferred the resource to qualify for benefits.
- How did the applicant support the household after transferring the resource? If the applicant was self-supporting or supported by the person who received the property, then the applicant's intent was to have support rather than qualify for benefits.
- How did the applicant transfer the property? If the applicant loaned the property but cannot recover its value after making a reasonable effort, the applicant is eligible.
- Special or unpredictable hardships that prevent the individual from making payments for the transferred resource do not affect eligibility. The supervisor and program manager must approve these situations.

A—1212.3 Length of Denial Period

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

The length of denial must be based on the amount by which the transferred resource exceeds the resource maximum when added to other countable resources.

Amount in Excess of Resource Limit Denial Period

$.01 to $249.99	1 month
$250 to $999.99	3 months
$1,000 to $2,999.99	6 months
$3,000 to $4,999.99	9 months
$5,000 and more	12 months

Examples:

TANF: A two-person household has $1,250 in a bank account and transfers ownership of a car worth $5,650. The first $4,650 of the car's value is exempt. Add the remaining $1,000 to the other $1,250 resource. Subtract the $1,000 resource limit from the total. Use $1,250 to determine the number of months of ineligibility. According to the above chart, the household is ineligible for six months.

SNAP: A two-person household has $2,000 in a bank account and transfers ownership of a car worth $19,000. Exempt the first $15,000 FMV of the vehicle and add the remaining $4,000 to the $2,000 bank account. Subtract the $5,000 resource limit from the total. Use $1,000 to determine the number of months of ineligibility. According to the above chart, the household is ineligible for six months.

A—1212.4 Beginning the Denial Period

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

The denial period begins in the application month unless the household is already certified when the advisor discovers the transfer.

Once the household is certified, the advisor must send a notice of adverse action and follow adverse action procedures. The advisor must begin the denial period the first month after the month the notice of adverse action expires unless the individual requests a fair hearing and receives continued benefits.

A-1220, Limits

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

A household is not eligible for benefits if the total value of accessible resources is over $1,000.

A household is not eligible for benefits if resources are over the limit on or after the first interview date.

If a TANF applicant/recipient fails to provide resource verification for TANF, the advisor must:

- deny the TANF application, and
- process the application for non-public assistance (NPA) SNAP eligibility.

SNAP

A household is not eligible for benefits if the total value of countable resources (liquid resources and excess vehicle value) is over $5,000.

A household is not eligible for benefits if resources are over the limit on or after the first interview date. Additionally, striker households are ineligible if resources are over the limit the day before the strike.

Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

A child is not eligible for benefits if the total value of accessible resources is over:

- $3,000 in households with a member who is aged or has a disability and meets relationship requirements; or
- $2,000 for all other households.

Advisors must use the SNAP definitions of aged and disability found in B-431, Definition of Elderly, and B-432, Definition of Disability. The individual who is aged or has a disability does not have to be part of the Medical Programs budget group, but must meet relationship requirements.

A child is not eligible for benefits if resources are over the limit on the process date. In determining eligibility for a prior month, the household is not eligible if resources are over the limit anytime during the prior month.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Advisors must count the cash value of benefits in a debit account, less amounts deposited in the current month, as a resource. Government benefit payments may be deposited into a debit account. Advisors must verify the balance in the account using the most current information.

The most common debit accounts established for deposit of government benefits are the:

- Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cash accounts for TANF benefits;
- unemployment insurance benefits (UIB) debit accounts;
- Texas debit card accounts for child support payments, Office of Attorney General (OAG);
- debit card accounts for child support payments from other states; and
- Direct Express card debit accounts for Social Security; Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance (RSDI); or Supplemental Security Income (SSI) benefits payments.

This list is not intended to be all inclusive as more agencies and businesses move toward the use of debit cards to issue benefits.

Account inquiry is accessible to:

- TANF recipients by calling the Lone Star Help Desk automated voice response system at 1-800-777-7EBT (1-800-777-7328);

A—1231.3 Individual Development Accounts (IDAs)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Staff must use the following policy to determine whether an IDA is a countable or exempt resource.

TANF IDAs — TANF IDAs must be used for one of the following purposes:

- paying for a college education,
- purchasing a home, or
- starting a business.

The household is not required to be a TANF recipient to qualify for an IDA, but the household must be financially needy and have a child living with the custodial parent or other adult relative who meets the TANF relationship criteria or the household must consist of a pregnant woman.

The household is considered financially needy if the household is eligible to receive TANF, SNAP, or any Medical Program except TP 56. For TP 56, the household is considered financially needy if its gross income is below 185 percent of the Federal Poverty Income Limit (FPIL).

Any earnings, including Earned Income Tax Credit (EIC), deposited in a TANF IDA must be excluded from resources. Any interest earned on the account must be excluded from resources. Any deposits into an IDA not made with earnings, or withdrawals from an IDA that are not made for an allowable qualifying purpose, should count as a resource.

Assets for Independence Act (AFIA) IDAs — AFIA IDAs are funded and authorized under the AFIA and must meet one of the same qualifying purposes as TANF IDAs. Any earnings, including EIC, deposited in an AFIA IDA must be excluded from resources. Any interest earned on the account must also be excluded from resources. Any deposits into an IDA not made with earnings, or withdrawals from an IDA that are not made for an allowable qualifying purpose, should count as a resource.

Other IDAs — These IDAs do not meet one of the qualifying purposes of paying for a college education, purchasing a home, or starting a business and should be counted as a resource. The interest earned on these accounts must be counted as unearned income.

For any type of IDA, matched funds are not counted as a resource, as they are not accessible to the household.

Exception: IDAs are exempted if Long Term Care certifies them as meeting the Social Security criteria for a Plan to Achieve Self-Sufficiency (PASS).

A—1231.4 Retirement Accounts

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

A retirement account is one in which an employee and/or the employer contributes money for retirement. There are several types of retirement plans.

Some of the most common plans authorized under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Services (IRS) Code are the 401(k) plan, Keogh, Roth individual retirement account (IRA), and a pension or traditional benefit plan. Common plans under Section 408 of the IRS

Code are the IRA, Simple IRA, and Simplified Employer Plan.

- A 401(k) plan allows an employee to postpone receiving a portion of current income until retirement.
- An IRA is an account in which an individual contributes money to supplement the individual's retirement income (regardless of the individual's participation in a group retirement plan).
- A Keogh plan is an IRA for a self-employed individual.
- A Simplified Employee Pension (SEP) plan is an IRA owned by an employee to which an employer makes contributions or an IRA owned by a self-employed individual who makes contributions for the individual's self.
- A pension or traditional defined benefit plan is employer-based and promises a certain benefit upon retirement regardless of investment performance.

The following retirement accounts or plans are excluded:

- Accounts established under Internal Revenue Code of 1986, Sections 401(a), 403(a), 403(b), 408, 408A, 457(b), 501(c)(18);
- Plans established under the Federal Thrift Savings Plan, Section 8439, Title 5, United States Code; and
- Other retirement accounts determined to be tax exempt under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986.

Any other retirement accounts not established under plans or codes listed above are counted.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

The usual residence and surrounding property not separated by property owned by others is exempt. The exemption remains in effect if public rights of way, such as roads, separate the surrounding property from the home. The homestead exemption applies to any structure the individual uses as a primary residence, including additional buildings on contiguous land, a houseboat, or a motor home, as long as the household lives in it. If the household does not live in the structure, the structure is counted it as a resource. Houseboats and motor homes count according to vehicle policy, if not considered the household's primary residence or otherwise exempt. The equity value of extra buildings counts unless the buildings are exempt for another reason.

For households that currently do not own a home, but own or are purchasing a lot on which they intend to build, the lot and partially completed home are exempt.

TANF

Households cannot claim real property outside Texas as a homestead. Exception: Migrants and itinerant workers who meet the residence requirements in A-710, General Policy, may claim an exemption for a homestead outside Texas.

SNAP

All homesteads and property are exempt.

A—1236.3 Income-Producing Property

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Income-producing property is any real or personal property that generates income. Property is exempt if the property:

- is essential to a household member's employment or self-employment, such as tools of a trade, farm machinery, stock, and inventory (this property continues to be exempt during temporary periods of unemployment if the individual expects to return to work);
- annually produces income consistent with a fair market value comparable in the community, even if used only on a seasonal basis such as rental property (to determine that the income produced is comparable to the fair market value for similar usage of real property in the area, eligibility staff may contact local realtors, tax assessors, the Small Business Administration or similar sources); or
- is necessary for the maintenance or use of a vehicle exempted as income-producing or as necessary for transporting a household member with a physical disability. The portion of the property used for this purpose is exempt.

Note: For farmers or fishermen, the value of land or equipment continues to be exempt for one year from the date that the self-employment ceases.

A—1236.4 Real Property

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

TANF, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Equity value of real property counts unless it is otherwise exempt.

Any portion of real property directly related to the maintenance or use of a vehicle is exempt if the vehicle is:

- necessary for self-employment; or
- to transport a household member with a physical disability.

The equity value of any remaining portion counts unless it is otherwise exempt.

SNAP

Real property is exempt.

- other owners will not sell or divide the property.

SNAP

Jointly owned property is exempt.

A—1237 Trust Funds

Revision 20-1; Effective January 1, 2020

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Trust funds are exempt if all of the following conditions are met:

- The trust arrangement is unlikely to end during the certification period.
- No household member can revoke the trust agreement or change the name of the beneficiary during the certification period.
- The trustee of the fund is either a:
 - court, institution, corporation, or organization not under the direction or ownership of a household member; or
 - court-appointed person who has court-imposed limitations placed on the use of the funds; and
- The trust investments do not directly involve or help any business or corporation under the control, direction, or influence of a household member.

- Trusts established from the household's own funds are exempt if the trustee uses the funds:
 - only to make investments on behalf of the trust; or
 - to pay the education or medical expenses of the beneficiary.

A—1238 Vehicles

Revision 20-1; Effective January 1, 2020

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

The total value of all licensed vehicles used for income-producing purposes is exempt. A vehicle is considered income-producing if it:

- is used as a taxi, a farm truck or fishing boat;
- is used to make deliveries as part of the person's employment;
- is used to make calls on people or customers;
- is required by the terms of employment; or
- produces income consistent with its fair market value.

A vehicle necessary to transport a household member with a physical disability on the EDG or a person with a physical disability living in the home is exempt even if the person is disqualified and regardless of the purpose of the trip. No more than one vehicle for each household member with a physical disability may be exempt. There is no requirement that the vehicle be used primarily for the person with a physical disability. The SNAP work-registration criteria should be used to determine physical disability for this exclusion.

Note: These exemptions remain in effect when the vehicle is temporarily not in use.

SNAP

The following vehicles are exempt even when the vehicle is temporarily not in use:

- vehicles necessary for long-distance travel for employment such as the vehicle of a traveling salesperson or of a migrant farm worker who is following the migrant stream (this does not include daily commuting);
- vehicles used as the household's home;
- vehicles necessary to carry fuel for heating or water when it is anticipated to be the primary source of fuel or water for the household during the certification period. Examples of situations in which a vehicle may be exempt because it is necessary to carry the household's primary source of water or fuel for heating include the following:
 - the home does not have any connected utilities; or
 - the home is connected to utilities, but the utilities cannot be used for some reason, such as:
 - a verifiable health risk exists if the household drinks the water; or
 - the utilities are disconnected because the household failed to pay its bills.

The vehicle exemption remains in effect until the above criteria no longer exist. The vehicle exemption also remains in effect for:

- any licensed vehicle with equity value less than or equal to $1,500;
- one vehicle with an FMV less than $4,650 for each adult household member, regardless of how the vehicle is used*; and
- any other licensed vehicle with an FMV less than $4,650 that a minor (under age 18) drives to work, training, school, or to seek employment*.

For all other licensed and unlicensed vehicles, the FMV in excess of $4,650 is counted as a resource.

*This also applies to any person who is an ineligible alien or disqualified member of the SNAP household. The FMV of each vehicle in excess of $4,650 is counted as a resource.

Up to $15,000 of the FMV for the highest valued countable vehicle is exempt. The FMV in excess of $15,000 is counted as a resource.

TANF, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Vehicles with an FMV of less than $4,650 are excluded, regardless of the number of vehicles owned by a TANF-certified or disqualified household member. The FMV in excess of $4,650 counts toward the household's resource limit.

A—1238.1 Solely Owned Vehicles

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

A vehicle with a title registered solely in one person's name is considered an accessible resource for that person. This includes:

- vehicles involved in community property issues when one person's name is on the title; and
- a vehicle registered solely in the individual's name that the individual claims to have purchased for someone else.

Exceptions: The vehicle is inaccessible if the title holder verifies that:

- the vehicle was sold but the name on the title has not been transferred to the buyer (in this situation, the vehicle belongs to the buyer);

Note: Any payments made by the buyer to the individual or the individual's creditors (directly) count as self-employment income (see A-1323.4, Self-Employment).

- the vehicle was sold but the buyer has not transferred the title into the buyer's name;
- the vehicle was repossessed;
- the vehicle was stolen; or
- the title holder filed for bankruptcy (Title 7, 11 or 13), and the individual is not claiming the vehicle as exempt from the bankruptcy estate. Note: In most bankruptcy petitions, the court will allow each adult individual to keep one vehicle as exempt for the bankruptcy estate. This vehicle is a countable resource.

A vehicle is accessible to an individual even though the title is not in the individual's name if the individual:

- purchased or is purchasing the vehicle from the person who is the title holder; or
- is legally entitled to the vehicle through an inheritance or divorce settlement.

A—1238.2 Jointly Owned Vehicles

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Vehicles jointly owned with another person not applying for or receiving benefits are considered inaccessible if the other owner is not willing to sell the vehicle.

Exception: See A-1247, Resources of Stepparents.

A—1238.3 Vehicles Over 20 Years Old

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

The value of a vehicle over 20 years old is exempt if the value is not available. If the applicant provides the value for a vehicle older than 20 years, the amount provided should be accepted. Note: A vehicle's age during any month of that year should be considered.

A—1238.4 Leased Vehicles

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

A person leasing a vehicle is not generally considered the owner of the vehicle because the:

- vehicle does not have any equity value,
- person cannot sell the vehicle, and
- title remains in the leasing company's name.

A leased vehicle is exempt until the individual exercises the option to purchase the vehicle. Once the individual becomes the owner of the vehicle, the vehicle counts as a resource.

The individual is the owner of the vehicle if the title is in the individual's name, even if the individual and the dealer refer to the vehicle as leased, and the vehicle counts as a resource.

A—1238.5 How to Determine Fair Market Value of Vehicles

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

The FMV of licensed vehicles is determined using the average wholesale value listed in the Vehicles Registered at Address report from the Data Broker System. After the vehicle value is verified, it does not have to be re-verified unless resources are close to the resource limit and a change in the vehicle value results in a change in eligibility status. Note: If the household claims the listed value does not apply because the vehicle is in less-than-average condition, the household must provide proof of the true value from a reliable source, such as a bank loan officer or a local licensed car dealer.

The basic value of a vehicle is not increased because of low mileage, optional equipment, or special equipment for a person with a disability.

The household's estimate of the value of vehicles no longer listed in the Data Broker System should be accepted, unless it is questionable and would affect the household's eligibility. In this case, the household must provide an appraisal from a licensed car dealer or other evidence of the car's value, such as a tax assessment or a newspaper advertisement indicating the sale value of similar vehicles.

The value of new vehicles not yet listed in the Data Broker System may be determined by asking the household to provide an estimate of the average wholesale value from a new car dealer or bank loan officer. If this cannot be done, the individual's estimate should be accepted unless it is questionable and would affect eligibility. The car's loan value should be used only if other sources are unavailable. Advisors must request proof of the value of licensed antiques and custom made or classic vehicles from the household if an accurate appraisal cannot be made.

A—1239 Educational Assistance

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Educational assistance (including education loans, regardless of the source) is exempt during the period it is intended to cover. If the individual combines the educational assistance with other countable funds, such as a bank account, the educational assistance is exempt during the period that it is intended to cover. For example, educational assistance intended for the months of January through May is an exempt resource during the same months.

A—1241 Inaccessible Resources

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

The equity value of resources that are not legally available (inaccessible) to the household are exempt.

Examples: Irrevocable trust funds, property in probate, security deposits on rental property and utilities, and the balance of a note from the sale of property.

Money received from a nonmember is inaccessible if:

- it is intended and used only for a nonmember's benefit, and
- the individual can provide verification of the intent and use of the money.

This includes any bank account that a household member has access to. A bank account is considered inaccessible if the money in the account is used solely for the nonmember's benefit.

The household must provide verification that the bank account is used solely for the nonmember's benefit and that no household members use the money in the account for their benefit. If household members use any of the money for their benefit, the bank account must be considered accessible to the household.

A temporarily inaccessible resource is exempt until the resource is accessible. Government savings bonds are an example of a temporarily inaccessible resource. These types of savings plans are usually inaccessible for a definite time from the date the individual makes a withdrawal request. The date the household applies is used as the date of the withdrawal request, unless the household has a withdrawal request pending at the time of application. For these pending withdrawals, the date of the actual withdrawal request is used to determine the length of time the resource is inaccessible.

A—1242 Lump-Sum Payments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

Countable lump-sum payments include, but are not limited to, retroactive lump-sum RSDI, public assistance, retirement benefits, lump-sum insurance settlements, refunds of security deposits on rental property or utilities, and lump-sum payments on child support.

Lump-sum payments received once a year or less frequently are counted as resources in the month received (unless specifically excluded by other policies).

Lump-sum payments received or anticipated to be received more often than once a year are counted as unearned income in the month received.

If a portion of a lump sum will be received as ongoing income, that ongoing portion is counted as income for that month.

Example: An individual receives a lump-sum payment in the amount of $4,950 from the Social Security Administration in the month of March. Effective that same month, the individual receives his first monthly RSDI payment of $950, which is included in the $4,950 lump-sum payment. Staff must budget the $950 RSDI payment beginning with the month of March as an ongoing payment and consider the $4,000 as a lump-sum payment.

Exceptions:

- Federal tax refunds and EICs are exempt from resources for a period of 12 months after receipt.
- If an individual is scheduled to receive retroactive SSI benefits in installment payments (up to three payments, paid every six months):
 - the payments count as a resource in the month received if the individual is not a current SSI recipient, or
 - the payments are excluded if the individual is a current SSI recipient.

If a payment or benefit counts as income for a particular month, it is not counted as a resource in the same month. If you prorate a payment as income over several months, no portion of the payment is considered a resource during that time.

Example: Income of students or self-employed persons that is prorated over several months.

A—1245 Resources of an Alien's Sponsor

Revision 19-1; Effective January 1, 2019

TANF, SNAP and Children on TP 56

Resources of an alien's sponsor and spouse (if the spouse also signed an affidavit of support) must be evaluated. The sponsor's countable resources must be determined when determining the applicant's resources. The total value of these resources must be reduced by $1,500. See the Glossary for the definition of an alien sponsor.

The remainder must be added to the alien's countable resources. If someone sponsors more than one alien, the amount of countable resources is prorated evenly among all the aliens who apply for or get benefits.

This policy does not apply to sponsored aliens who:

- are under age 18;
- are ineligible for benefits (examples include those who are disqualified from getting benefits or those considered non-members, such as students who do not meet SNAP student eligibility criteria);
- have become naturalized U.S. citizens;
- have worked or can receive credit for 40 quarters of work;
- have a deceased sponsor;
- have a sponsor who is a member of the alien's household or Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) household composition;
- are refugees, parolees, asylum grantees, Amerasians, victims of severe trafficking or Cuban or Haitian entrants;

- are battered alien spouses of U.S. citizens or of legal permanent residents, children of battered aliens, or parents of battered children, if
 - HHSC determines the battery is substantially related to the need for benefits; and
 - the battered person does not live with the batterer; or
- are indigent.

Notes:

- The criterion for indigent aliens applies only if the alien does not meet one of the other exceptions noted in this list. Only the amount the sponsor will give the alien for a 12-month period starting the date HHSC makes the indigence determination should be deemed. Each determination is renewable for additional 12-month periods.
 - Each time a determination of indigence is made, a memo must be sent with the name, address, Social Security number and date of birth, of both the indigent alien and the indigent alien's sponsor, to Texas Works Policy Section, 909 W. 45th St., Bldg. 2, Mail Code 2115, Austin, TX 78751.
 - Before sending the memo, explain to the sponsored alien that regulations require the state to report the sponsor to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for failure to give support as required on the sponsor affidavit.
 - The alien may choose to have the sponsor's resources deemed if the alien does not want the state office to send this report.
- The sponsor's resources must not be deemed for 12 months for battered aliens, starting the month the alien is certified for any benefit. A new 12-month period must not be assigned if the alien reapplies after denial of benefits. After the first 12 months, the sponsor's resources continue to be exempt from deeming if:
 - a court or the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services recognize the battery;
 - HHSC determines the battery has a substantial connection to the need for benefits; and
 - the alien does not live with the batterer.
- The following list of circumstances may be used as a guide in making the substantial connection between the battery and the need for benefits. Staff may determine whether the battered alien needs the benefits:
 - to become self-sufficient after leaving the abuser;
 - to escape the abuser, the community where the abuser lives, or both;
 - to ensure the battered alien's safety;
 - to replace financial support lost as a result of the separation from the abuser;
 - because of the loss of a job or reduced earnings resulting from the battery or cruelty;
 - because the battered alien needs medical attention or mental health counseling or now has a disability due to the battery;
 - because the battered alien lost the home, and the separation from the abuser jeopardizes the battered alien's ability to care for the children;
 - to reduce nutritional risks;
 - to get medical care for a pregnancy resulting from sexual assault or abuse; or
 - to replace medical coverage or health care services.

A—1248 Resources of TANF and SSI Recipients

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

TANF, Children on TP 32 and Children on TP 56

The resources of an SSI recipient living in the home, even when the resources are available to the TANF-certified member or Medical Programs household member, are exempt if:

- the SSI recipient would otherwise be a certified member in the TANF or Medical Programs EDG;
- the SSI recipient would otherwise be someone whose income is:
 - applied to the TANF budget; or
 - included in the Medical Programs household composition; or
- a TANF-certified or disqualified person or member of the Medical Programs household composition is the SSI recipient's payee.

This policy applies to:

- people who continue to receive SSI Medicaid when their SSI financial assistance is denied because of earnings; and
- children who receive SSI Medicaid that the person chooses not to include in the TANF-certified group.

If other SSI recipients live in the home and contribute to a member of the TANF-certified group, disqualified group or Medical Programs household composition, follow policy for cash gifts and contributions.

SNAP

Exempt the resources of TANF and SSI recipients unless the recipient owns them with another member of the same SNAP household and that other member does not receive TANF or SSI.

Note: Consider a household member a TANF or SSI recipient, even if the benefit:

- Nonliquid resources — Exempt the TANF or SSI recipient's portion of a nonliquid resource if the recipient jointly owns it with another member of the SNAP household.
- Liquid resources — Exempt or count liquid resources according to the following guidelines:

After six months, count the total amount of commingled resources as an available resource to the non-TANF or SSI recipient if it remains accessible.
- Jointly owned resources (not commingled) — Exempt these resources if all the contributed money is from a TANF or SSI recipient and the resource is solely for:
 - expenses of the TANF or SSI recipient; or
 - common household expenses.

A—1249.2 Earnings of a New TANF Spouse

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The liquid resources of a TANF recipient's new spouse are excluded for six months beginning the month after the date of the marriage if the:

- resource results from the new spouse's earnings, and
- total gross income of the budget group does not exceed 200 percent FPIL for the family size.

Note: This applies to both ceremonial and common law marriages. The following are included in the budget group:

- the caretaker or payee of the TANF-certified group;
- the new spouse of the TANF caretaker or payee;
- each dependent of the TANF caretaker or payee and the new spouse who meets the TANF age and relationship requirements and lives in the household; and
- anyone who would be a required member if not disqualified or ineligible such as an SSI recipient or ineligible alien.

If the household fails to provide verification of the marriage, the exclusion is not allowed. After six months, the amount previously earned is counted as a resource.

SNAP

Staff must verify:

- the equity value of a licensed vehicle if exempting the vehicle because the equity value is less than or equal to $1,500.

 - the person states that the household's total combined balance for all accounts does not exceed $1,000; and

The EDG is pended only if the reported account balance exceeds $1,000 or the person's statement is questionable.

A-1300, Income

A-1310, General Policy

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

All Programs

Income is any type of payment that is of gain or benefit to a household and is either counted or exempted from the budgeting process. Earned income is related to employment. Except for MAGI medical programs, earned income entitles a household to deductions not allowed for unearned income. Unearned income is income received without performing work-related activities and includes benefits from other programs. Factors specific to the source of income and the distance it travels through the mail (weekends and holidays) may be used to determine the date income can reasonably be anticipated.

TANF and SNAP

Retirement, Survivors, and Disability Income (RSDI), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Veterans Affairs (VA) benefits, or other such funds legally obligated to a beneficiary are not counted if a payee who is not a member of the household:

- receives the funds; and
- does not make the money available to the beneficiary.

In the beneficiary's Eligibility Determination Group \(EDG\), the total amount of the legally obligated funds the payee makes available to the beneficiary in cash, by way of vendor payment or through items purchased for the beneficiary using the beneficiary's money (includes payments made by the payee to a third party on behalf of the beneficiary) is counted as unearned income. Any portion of the funds the payee keeps for the payee's own use is counted as unearned income in the payee's EDG.

TANF

The income of the following people must be considered for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF):

- any person in the certified or budget group, or EDG member, including disqualified members;
- any person living in the home who is not included in the certified or budget group but who is legally responsible for a member of the certified group; and
- an alien's sponsor.

For TANF, if the income is not made available to the beneficiary, the person must follow the requirements for pursuing legally obligated income.

SNAP

The income of the following people must be considered for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP):

- any member of the SNAP household, including disqualified members; and
- an alien's sponsor.

Medical Programs

Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) rules are based on Internal Revenue Service (IRS) rules for counting income and are used to determine financial eligibility for medical programs and federal insurance affordability programs.

To determine financial eligibility, the following items must be identified for each person within the MAGI household composition:

- earned income, excluding any pre-tax contributions;
- unearned income;
- self-employment income;
- American Indian (AI)/Alaska Native (AN) disbursements;
- overpayments; and
- expenses.

The income of the following people must be considered for medical programs:

- any person who is included in the person's MAGI household composition; and
- an alien's sponsor (if applicable).

Note: Household composition for medical programs is determined for each applicant or recipient. The income of certain people may be exempt from an applicant's or recipient's MAGI household income as explained in A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests, Medical Programs, Step 3.

TP 40

If a pregnant woman is determined to be eligible, the EDG must not be denied if the pregnant woman's MAGI household composition income increases above the income limit. The budget should be adjusted to reflect the new income.

TP 45

Income is not an eligibility factor for TP 45.

A—1311 Requirement to Pursue Income

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

TANF and Medical Programs

Applicants and recipients are required to pursue and accept all legally entitled income. Inform applicants and recipients of this requirement and develop a plan to pursue the potential income. Allow reasonable time (at least three months) to pursue the income and do not consider the income available during this time. Inform recipients of their obligation to pursue potential income and include the allowable time to pursue the income in the comments section of Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action.

Exception: The recipient does not have to pursue income if it would be unreasonable. Consider a situation unreasonable if:

- the cost to pursue the income exceeds the potential income or causes financial hardship;
- pursuing the income would endanger the recipient's health or safety; or
- legal action is required, but a private attorney or legal services refuses to accept the case. The recipient must make a reasonable effort to obtain legal assistance.

TANF and TP 08

Document the plan and the time allowed to pursue income. If the household refuses or fails to follow the agreed plan without good cause, deny the EDG.

Set a special review if the anticipated change in income will occur before the next periodic redetermination.

A—1311.1 Requirement to Pursue SSI/RSDI

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

Advisors must provide and explain Form H1859, Social Security Administration Benefits for People with Disabilities Receiving TANF, to households claiming a disability or caring for a child with disabilities. Staff must also document that Form H1859 was provided and explained to the individual.

Advisors are not required to set a special review when referring individuals for Social Security benefits. At the next periodic redetermination, the household must provide verification that the individual with disabilities applied for SSI/RSDI benefits.

In the comments section of Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, the advisor must inform individuals of their obligation to pursue potential income and include the time allowed for pursuing income. The advisor must include the following appropriate statement for households claiming a disability or caring for a child with disabilities:

- English – "You must apply for assistance with the Social Security Administration and provide proof of the application at your next TANF interview."
- Spanish – "Tiene que solicitar asistencia de la Administración del Seguro Social y presentar prueba de la solicitud en su próxima entrevista de TANF."

If the household fails to apply for SSI/RSDI without good cause, the EDG is denied. If the household chooses to no longer claim the Choices exemption, the advisor should update the exemption code and document the decision. The individual may not claim the Choices exemption if the individual reapplies within 12 months from the denial date. If the individual claims the exemption before the 12 months, the EDG should be pended and the individual should be given the opportunity to provide verification that he or she applied for SSI/RSDI benefits.

A—1311.1.1 SSI/RSDI Application Assistance

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

State office has an automated process that identifies TANF recipients with a Choices exemption for caring for a child with disabilities and unable to work due to mental or physical disability and sends referrals to the contractor who administers the Social Security Outreach Application Program (SSOAP). SSOAP outreaches the TANF household, provides information, and answers questions about the Social Security Administration (SSA) process.

If an individual states that the household applied for SSI/RSDI, but does not have verification available, the advisor should refer to the Wire Third-Party Query (WTPY)/State Online Query (SOLQ) system. If the WTPY/SOLQ system does not show that the individual applied for benefits, the advisor should request that the individual provide verification.

The EDG should not be denied if:

- the individual is physically or mentally unable to complete the SSI/RSDI application process; and
- SSOAP and SSA fail or are unable to provide assistance needed to complete the SSI/RSDI application process.

A—1311.1.2 Social Security Administration (SSA) Definitions and Guidelines

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

The SSA administers two programs that provide benefits based on disability:

- RSDI provides disability benefits to individuals, and to their dependents with disabilities under certain conditions.
- SSI provides benefits to individuals with disabilities (including children under age 18) who have limited income and resources.

The Social Security Act and SSA's regulations provide a definition of disability:

- For all individuals applying for RSDI and adults applying for SSI, the definition of disability is the same. The law defines disability as the inability to engage in substantial gainful activity because of physical or mental impairment(s) which may result in death, or which has lasted or is expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months.
- For children under age 18 applying for SSI, the law defines disability as a physical or mental impairment(s) which results in marked and severe functional limitations, and which may result in death, or which has lasted or is expected to last for a continuous period of not less than 12 months.

Advisors should refer the individual to SSI if one of the following conditions is met:

- Psychological/psychiatric problems:
 - Actual clinical diagnosis or medical documentation that indicates the individual is unable to work,
 - Odd and/or inappropriate behavior, or
 - Inability of a long-time TANF individual to get or keep a job for more than 30 days because of a mental impairment.
- Obesity combined with any other physical problems such as arthritis, high blood pressure, heart failure, respiratory disease, or vascular disease.
- Low intelligence:
 - Former special education student,
 - Inability to read or write even though person has been to school,
 - Basis test scores below 200,
 - Failure to comprehend even the simplest directions, or
 - Down's syndrome.
- Serious substance abuse when combined with other related health problems.
- Serious health problems:
 - Multiple sclerosis, cancer, stroke, multiple surgeries for the same problem, multiple trauma and other situations;
 - Chronic health problems; or
 - Newborns with low birth weight (1200 grams or less within the first few days after birth).
- Age 50 or over with health problems, especially if combined with limited education and limited work history.

Note: A claimant, including a child, applying for SSI based on disability or blindness may receive up to six months of payments before the final determination of disability or blindness if the claimant is determined to presumptively have a disability or be blind and meets all other eligibility requirements.

TANF and SNAP

The gross benefit is counted as unearned income, less amounts:

- recouped for a prior worker's compensation overpayment; or
- paid for attorney's fees. Note: The Texas Workers' Compensation Commission (TWCC) or a court sets the amount of the attorney's fee to be paid.

A deduction from the gross benefit for court-ordered child support payments is not allowed.

Exception: Worker's compensation benefits paid to the individual for out-of-pocket medical expenses are considered as reimbursements.

Medical Programs

All workers' compensation payments are exempt.

A—1322 Education and Training

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

A—1322.1 Educational Assistance

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Educational assistance, including educational loans, scholarships, fellowships, grant monies, and work study, are exempt, regardless of the source. Loans for education, including loans from relatives or other people, are considered as educational assistance only if payment is deferred.

Educational assistance is:

- any financial aid for vocational or educational courses from:
 - an organization (such as fraternal, alumni, etc.); or
 - a government program or agency (such as the U.S. Office of Education, Department of Veterans Affairs, or Texas Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Services).
- provided to students who are enrolled in a:
 - program that provides for completion of a secondary high school diploma or the equivalent (such as a general equivalency diploma [GED]);
 - school for people with intellectual or physical disabilities; or
 - post-secondary institution.

Note: "Post-secondary" includes institutions of higher education and others not requiring a high school diploma (such as community colleges and vocational educational programs) authorized by the state to provide educational or training programs beyond secondary education.

The U.S. Office of Education under Title IV of the Higher Education Act administers most educational assistance programs. A few examples of the most common Title IV educational assistance grants include:

- Pell Grants,
- Stafford Loan Program,
- Parent Loans for Students (PLUS Loans),
- Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants,
- College Work Study, and
- Carl D. Perkins Loans (Title IV, Part E) (formerly National Direct Student Loans).

The National Community Services Act (NCSA) program also provides educational assistance. Individuals are awarded from $1,000 to $4,000 per year of completed services to apply toward past or future educational expenses. The educational award is not counted, as it is always made payable directly to the financial institution or institution of higher learning.

The Department of Veterans Affairs administers education programs designed for veterans, reservists, members of the National Guard, and their widows and orphans. These include:

- Montgomery GI Bill (MGIB) Active Duty Educational Assistance Program,
- Vocational Rehabilitation,
- Post-Vietnam Era Veterans' Educational Assistance Program (VEAP),
- Survivor's and Dependent's Educational Assistance (DEA), and
- MGIB - Selected Reserve Educational Assistance Program.

- full-time student, including a home-schooled child; or
- part-time student employed less than 30 hours a week.

Exception: See A-1322.2.1, Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).

- attends elementary, middle, or high school, including home schooling; or

- lives with natural or adoptive parents, stepparent or is under parental control of another household member.

Exception: See A-1322.2.1, Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).

TANF and SNAP

Breaks in school attendance, such as summer vacation and holidays, do not change the student status of a child. Ensure that the child's enrollment will continue following the break.

If the child's earnings cannot be separated from other household members' earnings, divide the total earnings equally by the number of working members.

Medical Programs

A child's earned income may be exempted from the MAGI household income as explained in A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests, Medical Programs, Step 3.

A—1323.2 Contractual Earnings

Revision 05-5; Effective October 1, 2005

All Programs

Contractual earnings are wages and salaries only. Self-employment income, unearned income, or income received on an hourly or piecework basis are not included. The two basic types of contractual earnings are:

- Seasonal employment — available only during certain months of the year and recurs each year. Examples: school-related employment, certain types of farm work, and summer or winter employment. Divide seasonal employment that is a household's annual means of support over 12 months. If the income supports the household for only a portion of the year and the household has income from other sources the rest of the year, average the earnings over the time they are intended to cover.
- Contractual employment — nonseasonal employment that is contracted for a specific time and does not recur. Divide earnings over the time covered by the contract.

A—1323.2.1 Monthly Budgeting of Contractual Earnings

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

All Programs

Budget contractual earnings monthly by:

- dividing the total gross amount earned under the contract by the number of months the contract covers or by 12 months, whichever is applicable; and
- adding this amount to any other income, and budgeting according to usual procedures.

Note: If the person does not receive the income agreed to in the contract, or if income is interrupted because of participation as a striker in a work slow-down or stoppage, do not budget the contractual earnings using the steps above since the person cannot reasonably anticipate receiving the contractual income. For strikers, follow policy in A-1367.1 . If the person's employment situation changes and contractual earnings resume:

- recalculate the income or adjust the benefits accordingly; and
- document all the facts that caused the recalculation or adjustment.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Military pay and allowances for housing, food, base pay, and flight pay is counted as earned income less pay withheld to fund education under the G.I. Bill.

An allotment is a specified amount of money from each paycheck of the military wage earner that is designated to go to someone else. Military allotments are counted as unearned income.

A—1323.3.1 Family Subsistence Supplemental Allowance (FSSA)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

The Family Subsistence Supplemental Allowance is a monthly payment made to certain low-income service members and their families so they will not have to depend on SNAP to meet their needs. The service members' pay statements usually include the FSSA and are counted as earned income.

Medical Programs

FSSA payments are exempt.

A—1323.3.2 Combat (Hazardous Duty) Payments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

All of the combat payments, also known as hazardous duty payments, received by a legal parent who is a member of the U.S. military, absent solely because the individual has been deployed to a combat zone, are counted.

SNAP

Any portion of military pay identified as combat pay, including any portion of combat pay contributed to a household from military personnel deployed to a combat zone, is excluded.

The advisor must determine whether any funds contributed to the household by military personnel, such as through joint bank accounts or military allotments, are considered combat pay. Any portion identified as combat pay is exempt from income. The following steps should be used to determine the amount of military income to exclude as combat pay:

Steps	Action
1.	Verify the monthly amount of combat pay received, as required in A-1370 , Verification Requirements.
2.	Determine the amount of military pay the deployed individual was making available to the household before deployment to the combat zone.
	If the deployed person was:
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a household member before deployment, the amount would be the individual's net military pay. • not part of the household before deployment, then consider any amount made available from the individual's pay before deployment.
3.	Determine the amount of military pay the deployed individual is making available to the household after deployment to the combat zone.
4.	If the amount of contribution the household receives from the military personnel after deployment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • is equal to or less than the amount the household was receiving before deployment, then none of that contribution would be considered combat pay. Count the full amount of the contribution as unearned income. • exceeds the amount received before deployment, exclude the excess as combat pay (not to exceed the verified monthly amount of combat pay) and count the remainder (if any) as unearned income.

Medical Programs

Combat (hazardous duty) payments are exempt.

A—1323.4 Self-Employment

Revision 12-4; Effective October 1, 2012

All Programs

Self-employment income is usually income from one's own business, trade, or profession rather than from an employer. However, some individuals may have an employer and receive a regular salary. If an employer does not withhold income taxes or FICA, even if required to do so by law, the person is considered self-employed.

Advisors must inform households in writing to keep self-employment records and receipts for verification purposes for future recertifications. Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, contains the self-employment information.

Note: If a household has self-employment income and meets the streamlined reporting criteria, assign a six-month certification period.

A—1323.4.1 Types of Self-Employment Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Types of self-employment include:

- odd jobs, such as mowing lawns, babysitting, and cleaning houses;
- owning a private business, such as a beauty salon or auto mechanic shop;
- farm income;
- income from property; and
- independent contracting.

A—1323.4.2 Property Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Income from renting, leasing, or selling property on an installment plan is self-employment income. Property includes equipment, vehicles, and real property.

TANF and SNAP

Income from property is counted as:

- earned if the:
 - person spends an average of at least 20 hours a week in management or maintenance activities; or
 - income is from noncommercial boarding situations.
- unearned if the person spends an average of less than 20 hours a week in management or maintenance activities.

Work-related expenses are allowed for earned income. For unearned income, only the expenses associated with producing the income should be deducted.

If the individual sells property on an installment plan, the payments are counted as income. The balance of the note is exempted as an inaccessible resource.

Medical Programs

Income from renting, leasing, or selling property on an installment plan is counted as self-employment income.

A—1323.4.3 Noncommercial Roomer/Boarder Payments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

The noncommercial roomer/boarder policy is used if a noncertified household member makes payments to a certified member under a formal or informal landlord/tenant relationship. Payments made by boarders for room, meals, and other shelter expenses are counted. Payments made by roomers for room and other shelter expenses are counted.

See A-1323.4.5, Allowable Costs of Producing Income, to determine the countable amount of noncommercial roomer/boarder payments. If there is not a formal or informal landlord/tenant relationship, the policy in A-1326.1, Cash Gifts and Contributions, applies.

TANF

Roomer/boarder status should not be given to:

- anyone whose income can be applied to the certified group; or
- a dependent child who is an ineligible alien.

SNAP

To be considered a boarder, a person residing with the household must pay reasonable compensation for meals and lodging. Reasonable compensation is:

- the amount of the full allotment for the number of boarders if the boarders eat an average of more than two meals a day with the household; or
- two-thirds of the full allotment for the number of boarders if the boarders eat an average of two meals a day or less with the household.

In determining "reasonable compensation," only the amount paid for meals is counted if it can be separated from lodging.

If the individual chooses to include a boarder as a household member:

- all of the boarder's income, resources and deductions are counted; but
- the payment from the boarder is not counted as income since it is transferred between household members.

If the individual chooses not to include a boarder as a household member:

- the boarder's income, resources, or deductions are not included in the household; but
- the payment from the boarder is counted as self-employment income for the household.

Medical Programs

The noncommercial roomer/boarder policy is used when an individual in the MAGI household composition receives payments from someone in their physical household under a formal or informal landlord/tenant relationship. Payments made by boarders for room, meals, and other shelter expenses are counted as self-employment income. Payments made by roomers for room and other shelter expenses are counted as self-employment income.

See A-1323.4.5, Allowable Costs of Producing Income, to determine the countable amount of noncommercial roomer/boarder payments. If there is not a formal or informal landlord/tenant relationship, the policy in A-1326.1, Cash Gifts and Contributions, applies.

A—1323.4.4 Determining the Amount of Self-Employment Income

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

All Programs

If the household receives self-employment income monthly or more often (such as semi-monthly, bi-weekly, weekly or daily), recent self-employment pay amounts may be used to project income.

If the household had self-employment income for the past year that was received less often than monthly, the income figures from the previous year's business records or tax forms, including the IRS Schedule C-Form 1040- Profit or Loss from Business, may be used if the records are anticipated to reflect current self-employment income and expenses.

Exceptions:

- If the previous year's records do not accurately represent the household's current self-employment income because the household has experienced a substantial increase or decrease in business, anticipate income using more current information such as updated business ledgers or day books, or contact people who have similar businesses.
- If the business is new and there is insufficient information to make a reasonable projection based on last year's records, anticipate earnings and expenses using only the recent business records along with the individual's statements about expected income and expenses and any applicable information from collateral sources.
- If the income terminates before completing the EDG, budget actual income and expenses for the month the income terminates.
- For Children's Medicaid programs (TP 43, TP 44, TP 45 and TP 48), the previous year's business records or tax forms are acceptable, no matter the pay frequency.

When calculating self-employment income, the financial profit from a sale or transfer of capital goods, possessions (such as products, raw materials, equipment), or ownership of a business, must be considered.

Financial profit from the sale or transfer of capital goods that the household expects to receive in the next 12 months should be added and the total averaged over 12 months. This averaged amount should be used for each certification period within the next 12 months, unless a new average is computed because the person received a profit from the sale or transfer of capital goods that was unanticipated or a different amount than anticipated.

Determining the Amount of Self-Employment Income at Application

All Programs

New applicants who have not received TANF, Medical Program coverage, or SNAP for a period of three consecutive months before the application month, or new household members who have not received benefits for three months before moving into the household, may not have been keeping accurate records of self-employment income and expenses. The policy in C-932, Advisor Responsibility for Verifying Information, should be used to obtain verifications needed to determine eligibility and what types of verification are readily available to the household. Any business records that are available for use (even if this documentation is for a short period of time) should be accepted, in addition to the individual's statement and any proof that might be available from a collateral source, as sufficient proof.

The advisor must verify:

- at least the last two recent pay amounts when determining the amount of self-employment income received monthly;
- at least four consecutive recent pay amounts when determining the amount of self-employment income received more often than monthly, such as semi-monthly, bi-weekly or weekly; and
- at least four consecutive weeks for self-employment income received daily.

The individual is not required to provide verification of self-employment income and expenses for more than two calendar months before the interview date for income received monthly or more often.

The applicant's statement is accepted as proof if:

- there is a reasonable explanation why documentary evidence or a collateral source is not available; and

- the applicant's statement does not contradict other individual statements or other information received by the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC).

Exception: If the business is new and there is insufficient information to make a reasonable projection, the income is calculated based on anticipated earnings and expenses.

The advisor must inform the household in writing to keep self-employment records and receipts for verification purposes for future recertifications. Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, contains the self-employment information.

Medical Programs

If the individual applies for three months prior Medicaid, the following should be budgeted in each prior month:

- actual income and expenses for self-employment income received monthly or more often, or
- projected monthly average amount for self-employment income received annually or seasonally.

Determining the Amount of Self-Employment Income at TANF Periodic Reviews, SNAP Recertifications, and Medical Programs Renewals

All Programs

For income received less often than monthly, only information from the period of time since HHSC last requested verification of self-employment needs to be verified. Verification that was previously verified is not needed (see C-932). Verification is needed for:

- at least the last two recent pay amounts when determining the amount of self-employment income received monthly;
- at least four consecutive recent pay amounts when determining the amount of self-employment income received more often than monthly, such as semi-monthly, bi-weekly or weekly; and
- at least four consecutive weeks for self-employment income received daily.

The individual is not required to provide verification of self-employment income and expenses for more than two calendar months before the interview date for income received monthly or more often.

If the advisor informed the household to maintain accurate self-employment records and receipts after certification, the household must provide them before being recertified unless:

- the records and receipts are not available because of a reason beyond the household's control, such as being lost in a fire or flood; or
- if due to a verified physical or mental disability, the applicant is unable to complete the task. Note: This requirement is not applicable if the self-employed person has not received TANF, SNAP, or Medical Program coverage for three consecutive months before reapplying.

A—1323.4.5 Allowable Costs of Producing Income

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

All Programs

Allowable self-employment expenses are based on costs that can be deducted from federal income taxes according to the Internal Revenue Service's (IRS) Schedule C, Form 1040 - Profit or Loss From Business. There are certain self-employment expense types that are not allowed for SNAP.

Use an automatically calculated monthly expense amount generated by TIERS to determine eligibility if the IRS Schedule C, Form 1040 - Profit or Loss From Business, is provided.

Noncommercial Roomer or Boarder Payments

All Programs

If the household receives roomer or boarder payments, as explained in A-1323.4.3, Noncommercial Roomer/Boarder Payments, the cost of doing business is deducted from each monthly payment. Count the remainder as self-employment income.

For roomers, the cost of doing business is actual costs. For boarders, the cost of doing business is:

- the amount of the monthly SNAP allotment for the number of boarders (average of more than two meals a day);
- two-thirds of a full allotment for the number of boarders (average of two meals a day or less); or
- the actual cost of providing room and meals if the actual cost exceeds the monthly SNAP allotment for the number of boarders.

Note: Each expense must be identified and verified when using actual costs.

Net Financial Loss

All Programs

A self-employment net financial loss must not be deducted from other types of household income.

Exception: The loss may be deducted from other household income if:

- the loss results from a self-employment farming operation; and
- the household received or anticipates receiving annual gross income of $1,000 or more from the farming operation (from Step I, Line A, Page 3, Form H1049, Client's Statement of Self-Employment Income).

TANF

The farm loss amount may be deducted from other non-farm self-employment income during the budgetary (100 percent) needs test.

Any remaining farm loss amount may be deducted during the recognizable needs test.

Medical Programs

The farm loss amount may be deducted from other non-farm self-employment income during the federal poverty level (FPL) test.

Any remaining farm loss amount may be deducted after the work expense standard deduction and child or incapacitated care costs.

SNAP

The farm loss may be deducted from other non-farm self-employment income before applying the gross income test.

Any remaining farm loss may be deducted from other earned or unearned income after applying the 20 percent earned income deduction.

A—1323.4.6 Computation Methods

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

There are four computation methods for self-employment income that may be used to calculate monthly income amounts for budgeting purposes:

- annual,
- monthly,
- daily, and
- anticipated.

Annual Computation Method

For this method, the individual must have been self-employed for at least the past full year.

The self-employment income projection period, usually 12 months, is the period of time the household expects the income to support the family. A projection period should be established for households that receive self-employment income that is intended to support the household for:

- the year, but is received less frequently than monthly, such as farm income that may only be received a few times per year when crops or livestock are sold; or
- a specific period in time, but is received less frequently than monthly.

The projection period should be determined at application when the individual reports self-employment income received less often than monthly. Note: For Medicaid EDGs, if the individual is eligible for prior Medicaid, the prior months are not included in the 12-month projection period.

The following steps are used to determine the projection period for self-employment income:

1. Determine whether the self-employment is annual or seasonal, since that will determine the length of the projection period.
 - Annual – intended to support the household for at least the next full 12 months. The projection period is 12 months whether the income is received yearly or less often than monthly.
 - Seasonal – intended to support the household for less than 12 months since it is available only during certain months of the year. The projection period is the number of months the self-employment is intended to provide support.
2. Determine the first month of the projection period. It is always the first month the household receives benefits, unless the individual will begin working in a future month. In this situation, use the month the self-employment begins as the first month of the projection period.

Once the projection period is established, it must not be changed. The projection period remains the same until the:

- individual no longer supports the household through self-employment;
- 12-month or seasonal period ends; or
- EDG is denied, and the individual misses one full month's benefits before reapplying.

Exception: When there is a new source of self-employment income received less often than monthly, and the individual expects the income to support the household for the year or a specific period of time, establish a projection period for the months that the individual states the income is intended to cover. Since this projection period covers income from a new source, at redetermination, ensure that the income and circumstances still fit with the annual computation method criteria. Until the household has 12 months of income history, the projection period is conditional and may be changed as may the type of computation method used to calculate self-employment income.

In determining the monthly figure to use for new self-employment income when calculating a budget amount:

- the monthly computation method is used if there are two full representative months of self-employment income received less often than monthly; and
- the daily computation method is used if there are less than two full representative calendar months of self-employment income received less often than monthly.

On an active EDG, when an individual reports a new source of self-employment, the first month of the projection period is the change effective month.

Monthly Computation Method

The monthly computation method is used in two situations:

1. If the frequency is known and consistent, the appropriate conversion factor is used when calculating self-employment income and/or expenses. Conversion factors are not used when income is received on any other basis, such as daily or irregularly.

If the frequency is ... use the conversion factor ...

weekly	4.33
bi-weekly	2.17
semi-monthly	2

2. If the individual has at least two full representative calendar months of self-employment income and the source or the frequency is unknown and inconsistent, each month's self-employment income should be totaled and deducted from the allowable expenses for each corresponding month.

Daily Computation Method

The daily computation method is used when:

- there are less than two full representative calendar months of self-employment income; and
- the source or frequency of the income is unknown or inconsistent (income received irregularly, not on a weekly, bi-weekly or semi-monthly basis).

The daily method is used until there are at least two representative calendar months of income. Once there are two full representative calendar months, the monthly computation method is used.

Anticipated Self-Employment Method

The anticipated method to calculate self-employment income is used when:

- there is no income history on which to base an average, and the individual will receive the income on a known and consistent basis; or
- there is a change that will make the current or actual self-employment income non-representative.

Anticipated means the individual knows who will pay, when they will pay, and how much will be paid. If the individual knows the source, but not the amount and/or frequency, the daily computation method in A-1323.4.7, Determining Net Self-Employment Income, should be used.

A—1323.4.7 Determining Net Self-Employment Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Annual Computation Method

The following steps are used to determine net self-employment income when using the annual computation method:

1. Determine the projection period.
2. Determine the total gross self-employment income for the past year.
3. Determine the total allowable expenses for the past year.
4. Determine the yearly net income by subtracting the total allowable expenses from the total gross income.
5. Determine the monthly net income by dividing the total yearly net income by the number of months of earnings history used.

If the self-employment income is annual and no substantial changes are expected, the income should be projected for 12 months. If the self-employment income is seasonal and no substantial changes are expected, the income should be projected for the seasonal period.

Monthly Computation Method

The following steps are used for the monthly computation method:

1. Determine the total monthly gross self-employment income.
2. Determine the total allowable expenses for each corresponding month.
3. Subtract the total allowable expenses from the total gross self-employment income for the corresponding month.
4. Look at the net monthly income and determine which months are representative of future earnings and project over the length of the certification period.

Note: If the frequency is known and consistent, the appropriate conversion factor should be used in Step 1 and Step 2.

Daily Computation Method

The following steps are used for the daily computation method:

1. Determine the total gross income earned from the day the self-employment began through the interview date.
2. Determine the number of days the income was received. The day self-employment begins is the day any part of the self-employment activity occurs (for example, buying supplies, working, earning income, etc.).
3. Divide the total gross income by the number of days in the period the income was received.
4. Multiply the daily income by 30 to get the monthly estimate of gross self-employment income.
5. Determine the total verified self-employment expense paid from the day the self-employment began through the interview date.
6. Determine the number of days the expense was to cover. Use the same number of days used to calculate income.
7. Divide the total expense amount by the number of days in the period.
8. Multiply the daily expense deduction by 30 to get the monthly estimate of the expense.
9. Subtract monthly expenses from gross monthly income to determine net monthly self-employment.

Anticipated Self-Employment Method

The following steps are used for the anticipated self-employment method:

1. Determine how often the individual will be paid and the amount.
2. Multiply the pay amount by the appropriate frequency to determine the projected monthly amount:
 - Weekly: amount x 4.33
 - Bi-weekly: amount x 2.17
 - Semi-monthly: amount x 2

Note: If the income amounts will fluctuate, a pay period average should be determined and multiplied by the appropriate conversion factor.

3. Projection should be made over the length of the certification period.

A—1323.4.8 Changes in Annual or Seasonal Self-Employment Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

When an individual reports a change in self-employment income during the certification period, it should be considered part of the normal fluctuations of the business if the current budget already includes fluctuations as significant as the change that the individual is reporting, and the budget is not revised. If a reported change is not part of the normal fluctuations of the business, the income and expenses should be re-evaluated and the change considered substantial if it results in a change to the average monthly net self-employment income of more than $25. If the change results in a change of $25 or less, benefits should not be adjusted.

If a 12-month income projection period was previously established, the period should not be changed, unless it has expired or the individual reports no longer supporting the household with self-employment income. Even if the income or expense changes resulted in a different projected self-employment income, the projection period is the same.

If the income projection period has expired, a new projection period should be established with required verifications, even if the individual indicates no changes in the business.

Note: When the individual reports a change in self-employment income that is not received annually or seasonally, the policy in B-631, Actions on Changes, should be followed.

A—1323.4.9 Rebudgeting Income and Expenses

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

If the individual reports a substantial change in annual or seasonal self-employment income, the income and expenses must be rebudgeted using the following method for actual income and expenses received.

Actual income from the beginning of the projection period through the month before re-evaluation should be used. The following steps are used to rebudget income in this situation.

1. Determine the actual income for the months from the beginning of the projection period through the month before re-evaluation.
2. Project the new income for the rest of the projection period.
3. Add the income from Step 1 and 2 to determine the annual or seasonal amount.
4. Divide the total from Step 3 by 12 or the number of months in the seasonal period to get the new monthly average.
5. Compare the new monthly amount to the previous average. If the change is substantial, budget the new amount over the remainder of the projection period.

A—1323.5 Wages, Salaries, Commissions, and Tips

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

All Programs

Except for MAGI Medical Programs, the gross amount of all wages, salaries, commissions, bonuses, and tips count as earned income before deductions. This includes flexible fringe benefits, cafeteria plans, and employee retirement contributions that are withheld from the amount. MAGI Medical Programs exclude pre-tax contributions from gross income.

Wages held by the employer at the request of the employee and garnished wages are counted as income in the month the household would otherwise have received them. If an employer holds the employee's wages as a general practice, this money counts as income in the month it is actually received by the employee.

An advance counts in the month it is received. When an advance is repaid, the payback amount is deducted from the gross pay in the month it is paid back and the remainder is budgeted as the countable gross amount.

Medical Programs

Review income verification documents to determine if the person makes pre-tax contributions through their employer.

Pre-tax contributions are deducted before the gross income is taxed and must be excluded when determining MAGI countable gross income. Pre-tax contributions consist of the following:

- Retirement Savings Accounts (401K, 457, etc.);
- Dependent Care Flexible Spending Accounts;
- Health Savings Accounts;
- Health Insurance Premiums;
- Commuter Expenses Accounts; and

- Life Insurance Premiums.

Pend the EDG if the person claims pre-tax contributions, but verification is not provided. If verification is not provided by the due date, do not exclude the pre-tax contribution from the employment income. Count the gross income including the pre-tax contribution amounts. Staff must not deny the EDG for failure to provide pre-tax contribution information.

Fringe benefit plans allow the employee to choose from benefit components such as insurance, extra vacation time, and payments to third parties for medical bills or child care. These are also called "cafeteria plans."

Under some plans, employers may:

- withhold wages to pay for benefits selected by the employee; or
- offer benefit credits in addition to wages, which the employee can use to purchase benefits.

Some plans may pay the remaining unused credit as part of the employee's wages.

TANF and SNAP

If the employer ...

the advisor must count ...

the held wages as earnings in the pay period that the employee would have normally received them.

If the employer ...the advisor must count ...

provides credit in addition to wages, as earnings only the portion that is paid directly to the employee. If the employer pays the unused credit in cash, the advisor must follow the steps below to determine countable excess income.

1. Determine the total amount of gross wages/salary.
2. Add the benefit credit amount to the wages/salary from Step 1.
3. Subtract the cost of fringe benefits up to the amount of the benefit credit from the amount in Step 2.
4. The remaining income from Step 3 is the countable gross earned income for the EDG.

Medical Programs

Flexible fringe benefits are exempt.

- National Senior Service Corps (Senior Corps).

For programs established in 1973:

Payments, living allowances, and stipends are exempt.

Exception: VISTA payments under Title I of the Domestic Volunteer Services Act of 1973 are exempt from income for SNAP only if the person was receiving SNAP at the time they began participating in the VISTA program. VISTA payments are counted as earned income for a person who applies for SNAP while already participating in the VISTA program.

If the SSI recipient contributes to a member of the TANF unit, the contributions policy in A-1326.1.1, Contributions from Noncertified Household Members, applies.

Exception: All of the SSI benefits are exempt when the SSI recipient meets one of the following criteria.

- The SSI recipient would otherwise be an eligible member of the TANF unit.
- The SSI recipient would otherwise be someone whose income is "applied" to the TANF unit.
- A TANF-certified member is the SSI recipient's payee.

Note: This policy applies to people who cannot get SSI financial assistance because of earnings but who continue to get SSI Medicaid.

SNAP

Counted as unearned income. The following amounts are deducted if the amount is being:

- recouped for an SSI overpayment; or

- collected by a qualified organization providing representative payee services, up to the lesser of 10 percent of the monthly benefit amount or:
 - $50 for SSI benefits based on alcoholism and/or drug abuse (SSI/DAA); or
 - $25 for non-SSI/DAA benefits.

Notes:

- Advisors must verify with SSA that the qualified organization is authorized to collect a fee for representative payee services. The advisor must also verify with the qualified organization the amount collected for representative payee services.
- If DFPS is the payee and the child gets Foster Care Medicaid:
 - No Cash, the SSI income is counted; or
 - With Cash, the SSI income is exempt.

A—1324.18 Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

TANF benefits are exempt from income.

SNAP

The TANF benefit amount (after recoupment) counts as unearned income.

Retroactive or restored TANF or refugee cash assistance payments are exempt as income. These payments should be considered lump-sum payments and counted as a resource.

Note: TANF benefits may be deposited into an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cash debit account and made accessible to recipients via an EBT card.

Exception: The recommended grant amount continues to be counted when the TANF grant is lowered for one or more of the following reasons:

- a Personal Responsibility Agreement (PRA) penalty;
- a recoupment for a TANF intentional program violation (IPV);
- a disqualification for IPV or noncooperation with a TANF requirement (unless the individual is disqualified in SNAP for the same offense); or
- an active TANF EDG is denied because of:
 - the noncooperation disqualification of an individual;
 - failure to sign Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement;
 - PRA noncooperation; or
 - noncooperation with an audit or investigation.

SNAP benefits must not be increased in an existing certification period when TANF benefits are forfeited because of a noncooperation penalty. In situations where the TANF is denied:

- the full TANF benefit is counted until the next SNAP certification period begins; and
- the benefit continues to count when a SNAP certification period is extended.

In situations where there is a break in SNAP benefits of less than a month, the TANF continues to count through the next certification period when the:

- individual received or will receive SNAP in the month of the PRA noncooperation, and either the first or second noncooperation month is also the first month of a new SNAP certification period; or
- file date of the SNAP application and the TANF PRA noncooperation date are the same month, and SNAP benefits do not prorate to less than $10 in the month of application.

Note: This policy does not apply to other types of TANF disqualifications or denials or to denied TANF applications.

Examples:

During the SNAP certification period January – June, the date of noncooperation is February 1. The first noncooperation month is February, and the second noncooperation month is March. The TANF grant is denied in April. The TANF grant continues to count in the SNAP budget through June.

At a SNAP redetermination when there is a certified TANF EDG, the household fails to comply with TANF PRA requirements and is denied effective with March benefits. The date of noncooperation is January 1. The first noncooperation month is January, and the second noncooperation month is February. The SNAP application file month is January. When the SNAP redetermination is untimely in January:

- because the last benefit month was December, the TANF counts in the ongoing SNAP budget since there is not at least a one-month break in SNAP benefits.
- and the last benefit month was November, the TANF does not count in the forfeit and ongoing months because there is a break in SNAP benefits of one month or more. The TANF grant received in January, the month of redetermination, must be counted.
- because the last benefit month was December, and the SNAP benefit prorates to zero for the application month, the application month is considered a break in benefits of at least one month. The TANF grant does not count in the forfeit or ongoing months.

When the SNAP redetermination is a new application or the individual was receiving SNAP in a different household, the TANF does not count in the forfeit or ongoing months. However, the TANF grant received in January, the month of application, must be counted.

- deposited directly into a personal checking or savings account; or

A—1324.20 Veterans Benefits

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The VA provides payments to veterans with disabilities and/or their spouses/dependents and to spouses/dependents of deceased veterans. VA benefits are not subject to federal or state income tax or child support garnishment.

Three basic VA benefit programs are described in this section:

- Pension,
- Disability Compensation, and
- Dependency and Indemnity Compensation (DIC).

VA Pension

VA pension payments are made to certain veterans with disabilities based on financial needs. Low-income veterans who either have a disability or are age 65 and older may be eligible for a VA pension if they have 90 days or more of active military service with at least one day during a period of war. Payments are made to bring the veteran's total income, including other retirement or Social Security income, to a level set by Congress. Recipients must re-qualify each year to continue to receive payments. There is a similar pension benefit available for surviving spouses and dependent minor children of such deceased veterans.

VA Disability Compensation

VA disability compensation is a payment made to a veteran with a service-related disability. Eligibility is not based on financial need. The amount of the payment varies with the percentage of the veteran's disability and the number of the veteran's dependents living in or out of the home. The payment can also be made to a spouse, child or parent of a veteran because of the service-related death of the veteran.

Dependency and Indemnity Compensation

DIC is a monthly benefit paid to eligible survivors of active duty service members and survivors of those veterans whose deaths are determined by VA to be service-related. This payment is a flat monthly payment, regardless of other income. The payment is payable for the life of the spouse, provided the spouse does not remarry before age 57; however, should a remarriage end, DIC benefits can be reinstated. This payment is adjusted annually for cost-of-living increases and is non-taxable. VA adds a monthly transitional payment to the surviving spouse with minor children for the first two years of DIC entitlement or until the last child turns age 18, whichever occurs first. See http://benefits.va.gov/Compensation/current_rates_dic.asp for current payment amounts.

Veterans with certain disabilities may be eligible for additional special monthly compensation such as:

- Aid and Attendance and Housebound payments, which are an allowance to veterans and dependents who are in need of regular aid and attendance by another person, or a veteran who is permanently housebound; and
- reimbursement for unusual medical expenses.

TANF and SNAP

The gross benefit less any amount recouped or suspended for VA overpayment is counted as unearned income, except as described below for reimbursement for medical and attendant care expenses.

These special compensation payments that are intended to cover medical and attendant care expenses are exempt. These payments are exempt as reimbursement as explained in A-1332, Reimbursements.

Apportioned VA payments are a direct payment of the dependent's portion of the VA benefit to a dependent spouse or child not living with the veteran. Apportioned VA payments are unearned income to the dependent spouse or child not living with the veteran.

Other Types of Veterans Benefits

- Military retirement payment — A payment made to an individual who retired from active duty military service after at least 20 years of service. Military retirement is not a VA program, but is paid by the Defense Finance and Accounting Service in Cleveland (DFAS-CL). The gross payment is counted as unearned income.
- Survivor Benefit Plan (SBP) — Active duty members are automatically enrolled in this program. Surviving spouses and/or children of service members who die while on active duty may be entitled to SBP payments made by DFAS-CL. SBP payments are equal to 55 percent of what a member's retirement pay would have been had the member been retired at 100 percent disability. An SBP payment is reduced by the amount of payments provided under the VA DIC program.

At retirement, retirees may choose to purchase the SBP. In this case, the SBP pays retired military members' eligible survivors an inflation-adjusted monthly income. Basic SBP for a spouse pays a benefit equal to 55 percent of the retired individual's pay. Eligible children may also be SBP beneficiaries while they are dependents of the retired individual, either alone or added to spouse coverage. Any VA DIC paid to a spouse is subtracted from SBP payments, although VA DIC payments to or for children do not affect SBP payments. SBP premiums are refunded to the survivor if the monthly VA DIC amount is greater than the SBP monthly annuity.

The gross amount of any SBP payment is counted as unearned income.

- VA educational assistance programs — Different programs provide education assistance, including vocational rehabilitation. The policy in A-1322.1, Educational Assistance, applies.

Railroad retirement benefits may be paid to a person, the person's dependents or survivors. Some examples of railroad retirement benefits are sick pay, annuities, pensions and unemployment insurance benefits.

Count the gross benefit amount, including the deduction for the Medicare premium as unearned income.

Exception: For Medicaid and Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP), people who meet a MAGI exception as defined under Step 3 in A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests, calculate the countable amount of the person's railroad retirement benefits using the formula in Table 3, Step 3 of the Form H1042, Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) Worksheet: Medicaid and CHIP.

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

TANF and SNAP

Cash gifts and contributions count as unearned income unless they:

- are made by a private, nonprofit organization on the basis of need; and
- total $300 or less per household in a federal fiscal quarter. The federal fiscal quarters are January to March, April to June, July to September, and October to December.

If these contributions exceed $300 in a quarter, the excess amount counts as income in the month received.

Exception: Contributions from noncertified household members are budgeted according to policy explained in A-1326.1.1, Contributions from Noncertified Household Members.

Medical Programs

Count cash support only if:

- it is given from a taxpayer to his or her tax dependent;
- it is given by a taxpayer who is someone other than the receiver's spouse or parent; and
- the total amount exceeds $50 a month.

For example, a person gives $100 a month to her nephew and plans to claim her nephew as her tax dependent. This cash support will count for her nephew because she is a taxpayer giving an amount to her tax dependent. She is not her nephew's parent or spouse, and the amount exceeds $50 a month.

If a noncertified person(s) lives in the home with a TANF/SNAP unit and shares household expenses (no landlord/tenant relationship), any payments the noncertified person makes to the unit for common household expenses (including food, shelter, utilities, and items for home maintenance) are exempt. If a noncertified household member makes additional payments for use by a certified member, it is a contribution.

If a noncertified household member makes payments to a certified member under a formal or informal landlord/tenant relationship, countable income is determined according to the roomer/boarder policy in A-1323.4.3, Noncommercial Roomer/Boarder Payments.

For contributions from noncertified household members, advisors must follow the policy explained in A-1326.1, Cash Gifts and Contributions, for Medical Programs.

A—1326.1.2 Gifts from Tax-Exempt Organizations

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Gifts from tax-exempt organizations are exempt if the gift is for a child with a life-threatening condition and the amount of the gift is:

- less than $2,000 annually, and
- not converted to cash.

If the gift is converted into cash or exceeds $2,000 a year, the conversion or the excess counts as unearned income in the month of receipt and is exempt as a resource in the months that follow.

Medical Programs

See A-1326.1, Cash Gifts and Contributions, for Medical Programs.

A—1326.2 Child Support

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Payments obtained on behalf of a child count as unearned income. See A-1326.2.1, Counting Child Support, for when to count for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families. Payments are considered as child support if:

- a court ordered the support, or
- the child's caretaker or the person making the payment states the purpose of the payment is to support the child.

Child support collections distributed through the Texas OAG may be received through warrants, direct deposits or the Texas Debit Card. Refer to A-1326.2.1 for the various methods and availability.

Child support payments may be received by a person in Texas through another state's Office of Attorney General. Several other states use debit accounts for the distribution of child support payments.

Note: If DFPS is the payee and the child receives Foster Care Medicaid:

- With Cash, child support is exempt.
- No Cash, the child support income is counted.

Advisors must contact DFPS child support representatives to verify the amount of child support and dates of disbursements because DFPS may not forward the total legally obligated amount. OAG inquiries are not used in this situation.

See A-1326.15, Income Legally Obligated to Children in Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) Conservatorship, for further information on foster care types of assistance.

Advisors must consider the following in determining child support:

- Gifts or donations as contributions are not considered child support. Gifts are items or money that only benefit the child for a specific purpose, such as a birthday present. These gifts or donations include (but are not limited to) clothes, toys, or personal items, or money to purchase clothes, toys, or personal items.
- Ongoing child support income is considered as income to the children, even if someone else living in the home receives it.
- Child support arrears is considered as unearned income to the caretaker.

If an absent parent is making child support payments but moves back into the home of the caretaker and child, the child support is not counted. The earnings and/or other income count as a regular household member.

If a caretaker receives current child support for a nonmember (or a member who is no longer in the home) but uses the money for personal or household needs, the amount counts as unearned income. The amount actually used for or provided to the nonmember for whom it is intended to cover is not counted.

If a single payment covers two or more children (including at least one who is not an applicant/recipient) and the support order does not specify a portion for each child, the payment is prorated among all of the children. When two or more children receive child support from the same father and one child receives Supplemental Security Income, the payment is always prorated.

Medical Programs

Child support is exempt.

Exception: For One-Time TANF, issue the full grant.

Note: If the applicant refuses to remit the child support after signing Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement, prior to certification, a child support penalty is applied.

TANF recipients should be instructed to remit all child support received after the certification date to the OAG. See A-1124, TANF, for instructions on remitting child support payments to the state. Child support payments remitted to the OAG as required are not counted.

Child support received after certification is counted if the:

- individual receives an excess payment from the OAG; or
- legal parent keeps payments received directly from the absent parent instead of remitting them to the state.

A sanction is imposed for noncooperation. Child support payments are counted, less the $75 disregard deduction. The advisor must process a claim for any overissuance.

SNAP

Child support counts as unearned income. If a TANF individual remits child support to the state, only the portion the OAG sends to the individual is counted.

Computer Action on Disregard Payment

The OAG sends HHSC a monthly computer tape for all TANF individuals receiving OAG child support payments that month. Each month, the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS):

- updates the child support payment history file on SNAP data inquiry; and
- rebudgets any associated SNAP EDG not correctly budgeted. This rebudgeting results in an automated Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, if rebudgeting results in adverse action.

TANF-State Program

Full child support payments are counted, less the $75 disregard deduction.

A—1326.2.2 Lump-Sum Child Support Payments

Revision 22-2; Effective April 1, 2022

TANF and SNAP

Lump-sum child support payments received or anticipated to be received more often than once a year count as unearned income in the month received. Lump-sum child support payments received once a year or less frequently count as a resource in the month received.

Lump-sum payments on child support arrears are received from the following sources:

- IRS intercept program — This occurs when the IRS intercepts the absent parent's tax refund to pay child support arrears.
- Excess payment — When the OAG sends a second excess payment to the recipient, HHSC receives the payment date and amount.
- OAG adjustments — HHSC receives a PBS-OAGF1 Report, Clients Receiving a Lump Sum Adjustment from OAG-Possible Ineligibility. HHSC produces this report when the OAG adjusts an EDG that results in a lump-sum distribution to the recipient. Adjustments may occur when federal distribution changes are implemented, court orders are modified, or EDG errors are corrected.

Lump-sum payments on current child support are received from the following sources:

- Advance pay — Advance pay occurs when the absent parent is current on obligated amounts and voluntarily pays an amount in advance of the obligated monthly amount. Example: The absent parent is obligated to pay $200 a month and is current on that amount. The absent parent loses their job and receives a severance payment of $2,000 and decides to pay $1,000 in advance to cover child support for the next five months. The payment to the recipient counts as a resource in the month received.
- Future pay — Future pay occurs when the absent parent is current on obligated amounts and voluntarily and routinely pays an extra amount over the obligated amount. Example: The absent parent is obligated to pay $200 a month and is current on that amount. The absent parent pays $25 extra each month (or some months). The OAG releases the money as received. This payment counts as unearned income if staff anticipate that it will be received more often than once a year.

A—1326.2.3 Medical Support Payments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

When a court order is entered, it designates the amount of child support and/or medical support a parent receives on behalf of the children. Medical support is in the form of:

- health insurance, ordered in addition to child support; or
- a cash amount for the purpose of offsetting medical expenses.

TANF and SNAP

If the individual does not receive Medicaid and is responsible for paying medical expenses, the payments are considered a reimbursement and the policy for reimbursement in A-1332, Reimbursements, applies.

Cash medical support payments the individual receives and remits to Third Party Recovery (TPR) are not counted. Any of the cash medical support payment from the absent parent that the individual continues to keep counts as income.

A—1326.4 Foster Care and Permanency Care Assistance (PCA) Payments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

Foster care or permanency care payments are exempt.

TANF

Do not include a person receiving foster care or permanency care payments in a TANF budget or certified group.

SNAP

If a foster parent or caregiver chooses to exclude a foster/PCA child/adult from the certified group:

- the foster care/PCA income for the foster/PCA child/adult who is excluded from the certified group is exempt; and
- all other income received by the excluded foster/PCA child/adult is exempt.

If a foster parent or caregiver chooses to include a foster/PCA child/adult in the certified group:

- the foster care/PCA income counts as unearned income for the foster/PCA child/adult;
- any other non-exempt income received by the foster/PCA child/adult is counted; and

A—1326.7 Loans (Noneducational)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Financial assistance is considered a loan if:

- there is an understanding that the individual will repay the money; and
- the individual can reasonably explain how the loan will be repaid.

These loans are exempt from income. Contributions that are not considered loans must be considered as explained in A-1326.1, Cash Gifts and Contributions.

Note: See A-1234, Noneducational Loans, for policy on treating loans as a resource.

A—1326.8 Plan for Achieving Self-Sufficiency (PASS)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Any amount an SSI recipient deposits into a PASS account or uses toward completion of a PASS plan is exempt.

Note: If the PASS contribution is made from earned income, the advisor should enter the PASS income in the Employer – Employee Screen – Amount Totals – PASS Income. TIERS will deduct the PASS contribution from the gross earnings.

A PASS can be, but is not limited to, money that is:

- deposited into a savings account to purchase a vehicle for employment transportation;
- deposited into a savings account to start a new business; or
- used toward an educational program.

The PASS plan must be approved by the Social Security Administration.

The SSI recipient will receive a notice from SSA approving or disapproving the PASS plan. Advisors may use this notice as verification of the PASS plan.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

The portion of income from a spouse or parent in a nursing facility that is diverted to the family members living in the community counts as unearned income.

The spousal diversion and dependent allowance are determined by the Medicaid for the Elderly and People with Disabilities worker processing the application for nursing facility coverage. When nursing facility coverage is approved and disposed, TIERS will add this income in the community family member's approved Texas Works (TW) EDGs upon running Eligibility. Advisors do not make Data Collection entries for this income.

Medical Programs

Spousal diversion payments are exempt.

A—1326.15 Income Legally Obligated to Children in Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) Conservatorship

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

DFPS has systems in place to become a payee for legally obligated income the child received prior to DFPS taking conservatorship. This income may include (but is not limited to) child support, RSDI and SSI.

Foster care (FC) types of assistance (TOA) are identified in TIERS Inquiry as:

- Foster Care – Federal Match – With Cash,
- Foster Care – No Federal Match – With Cash,
- Foster Care – No Federal Match – No Cash, and
- Foster Care – Federal Match – No Cash.

Federal Match identifies Medicaid paid by matched funds from the federal government. No Federal Match identifies state-paid Medicaid only without matching federal funds. With Cash types of assistance (with or without federal match) indicate that the foster parent receives FC financial assistance for an FC child in addition to FC Medicaid. No Cash indicates the foster parent does not receive an FC financial payment but DFPS provides FC Medicaid only.

When reviewing inquiry systems such as WTPY/SOLQ and OAG, and DFPS is identified as the payee for the legally obligated income:

- The legally obligated income for an FC child who is receiving FC With Cash is not counted since DFPS keeps the legally obligated income.
- Legally obligated income for the FC child who receives FC No Cash is counted since DFPS sends the legally obligated income to the foster parent.
- The legally obligated income is counted when a child is placed back in the home of the individual from whom the child was removed. DFPS remains the conservator of the child receiving FC No Cash, and the legally obligated income is not forwarded. The individual must inform the income source they are now the payee. If DFPS has not already provided the issuing agency this verification, that agency must verify with DFPS before changing the payee.
- FC and Adoption Assistance (AA) children placed in Texas from another state will receive a TOA No Cash from DFPS in Texas. However, the child may receive an FC or AA payment from the home state. When a child is receiving FC or AA in Texas and is from another state, the advisor must contact the home state to verify any countable legally obligated income.

Examples:

- A child receives SSI. DFPS removes the child from the custody of her mother. DFPS becomes the payee for the child's SSI.
- The child is placed with a foster parent. The child receives FC – Federal Match – With Cash. The foster parent chooses to include the child in the foster parent's SNAP household. The child is added to the foster parent's SNAP EDG. Since the child receives an FC payment, DFPS retains the child's SSI. The FC payment and SSI are not budgeted in the SNAP EDG because the FC payment is exempt income and DFPS keeps the SSI income.
- Months later, DFPS places the child with her great-aunt. The child now receives FC – Federal Match – No Cash. The child's great-aunt chooses to include the child in the great-aunt's SNAP household. The child is removed from the former foster parent's EDG and is added to her great-aunt's EDG and SNAP EDG. DFPS remains the payee for the child's SSI but sends it to her great-aunt. The SSI must be counted in the SNAP budget.
- Several months later, DFPS places the child back with her mother; however, DFPS retains conservatorship. The child continues to receive FC – Federal Match – No Cash. DFPS informs the SSA that the child now resides with her mother. The child's mother must inform SSA to have the child's SSI sent to her. The SSI must be counted in the SNAP budget.

Note: DFPS does not become the payee for children who receive adoption assistance.

Revision 21-1; Effective January 1, 2021

A—1326.17 Alimony (Spousal Support) Received

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

All Programs

Alimony payments, also referred to as spousal support, are payments received from a spouse or former spouse under a divorce or separation agreement.

SNAP and TANF

Count alimony received as unearned income for the person receiving the payment.

Medical Programs

If the divorce or separation agreements that include alimony payments were executed or last modified:

- on or before Dec. 31, 2018, count alimony received as unearned income for the person receiving the payment.
- after Dec. 31, 2018, do not count alimony received in the household's budget.

A—1326.18 Annuity

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

An annuity is a series of payments paid under a contract and made at regular intervals over a period of more than one full year. Payments can be either fixed (under which one receives a definite amount) or variable (not fixed). An individual can buy the contract alone or with the help of an employer.

Annuity payments are counted as unearned income.

A—1326.19 Capital Gains

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

A—1326.20 Housing Allowance

Revision 17-4; Effective October 1, 2017

SNAP and TANF

Follow policy in A-1323.3, Military Pay Allotments and Allowances, or A-1324.4, Government Housing Assistance, for specific types of housing allowances. Housing allowances not addressed in A-1323.3 or A-1324.4 are counted as unearned income.

Medical Programs

Follow policy in A-1323.3, Military Pay Allotments and Allowances, or A-1324.4, Government Housing Assistance, for specific types of housing allowances.

Housing allowances provided as compensation for ordained, commissioned or licensed members of the clergy are excluded from MAGI budgeting if:

- the employing church or organization officially designates the payment as a housing allowance before it makes the payment;
- the total amount of the allowance does not exceed the total cost of renting or purchasing the home, including furnishings and utilities; and
- the amount of the allowance does not exceed the value of the services the individual provides as a member of the clergy. If the housing allowance exceeds the housing costs or value of services provided, count the excess amount as earned income.

Housing allowances not addressed in A-1323.3, A-1324.4, or considered a housing allowance for a clergy member are counted as unearned income.

A—1326.21 Life Estate

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

A—1326.24 Canceled Debt

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Canceled debts are debts that have been canceled, forgiven, or discharged, and the canceled amount is included as countable income on federal income tax returns (for example, loan foreclosures or canceled credit card debt).

TANF and SNAP

Canceled debt income is exempt.

Medical Programs

Canceled debt income is counted as unearned income.

A—1326.25 Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) Accounts

Revision 17-1; Effective January 1, 2017

Achieving a Better Life Experience (ABLE) programs allow individuals (beneficiaries) who become blind or disabled before age 26 to establish tax-free savings accounts for the designated beneficiary's disability-related expenses.

All Programs

Contributions to an ABLE account from individuals other than the designated beneficiary, and any distributions from an ABLE account, are not considered income to the designated beneficiary.

Income of the designated beneficiary, or an individual whose income is considered when determining eligibility, that is deposited into an ABLE account, remains countable income when determining eligibility.

TANF and SNAP

Interest and dividends earned on an ABLE account are exempt.

Medical Programs

Interest and dividends earned on an ABLE account are countable as unearned income.

A—1331 Lump-Sum Payments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Lump sums received once a year or less are exempt, unless specifically listed as income. These sums are considered as a resource in the month received, and the policy in A-1242, Lump-Sum Payments, applies.

Note: Retroactive or restored payments are considered to be lump-sum payments and count as a resource. Any portion that is ongoing income is separated from a lump-sum amount and counted as income.

Example: A person receives a lump-sum payment in the amount of $4,950 from the SSA in the month of March. Effective that same month, the person receives his first monthly RSDI payment of $950, which is included in the $4,950 lump-sum payment. Staff must budget the $950 RSDI payment beginning with the month of March as an ongoing payment and consider the $4,000 as a lump-sum payment.

A lump-sum payment counts as income in the month received if the individual gets it or expects to get it more often than once a year.

Exceptions: Contributions, gifts, and prizes count as unearned income in the month received, regardless of frequency of pay.

If a lump sum reimburses a household for burial, legal, medical bills or damaged/lost possessions, the countable amount of the lump sum is reduced by the amount earmarked for these items.

Federal tax refunds and EICs are exempt as income.

Medical Programs

All lump-sum payments are counted as income in the month they are received.

Note: Award prizes are considered lump-sum payments and are counted in the month they are received.

A—1332 Reimbursements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

A reimbursement (not to exceed the individual's expense) is exempt if it is provided specifically for a past or future expense:

- that is not included in HHSC's standard of need, or
- for medical needs that are not paid by Medicaid.

If the reimbursement exceeds the individual's expenses, any excess counts as unearned income. A reimbursement to exceed the individual's expenses is not considered unless the individual or provider indicates the amount is excessive.

Note: A reimbursement for future expenses is exempt only if the individual plans to use it as intended.

SNAP

A reimbursement (not to exceed the individual's expense) provided specifically for a past or future expense other than a normal living expense is exempt.

If the reimbursement exceeds the individual's expenses, any excess counts as unearned income. A reimbursement is not considered to exceed the individual's expenses unless the individual or provider indicates the amount is excessive.

Note: A reimbursement for future expenses is exempt only if the individual plans to use it as intended.

Medical Programs

A reimbursement is exempt. Reimbursements include private insurance payments.

A—1333 Third-Party Beneficiary

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Money an individual receives that is intended and used for maintenance of a nonmember is exempt.

If an individual receives a single payment for more than one beneficiary, the amount actually used for the nonmember is excluded up to the nonmember's identifiable portion or prorated portion, if the portion is not identifiable.

A—1334 Vendor Payments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Payments that a person or organization outside the household makes directly to the individual's creditor or person providing the service are exempt.

TANF and SNAP

Exception: Money legally obligated to the household, but which the payer makes to a third party for a household expense is counted as income.

Example: In a SNAP EDG, the absent parent is court-ordered to pay $400 a month. Instead, the absent parent pays $150 cash support and also pays $300 of the custodial parent's rent directly to the landlord for a total of $450. The $150 cash and $250 of the vendor-paid rent counts as child support, since that portion is legally obligated to the individual. The $50 amount over the legally obligated child support of $400 is considered an exempt vendor payment.

Vendor payments paid to other people with state or local government funds are counted unless the payment provides assistance for:

- medical expenses,
- child care, or
- expenses related to natural disasters (for example, fires or floods).

Note: Vendor payments paid with federal funds (for example, federally funded housing assistance) are exempt. Policy in A-1326.3, Energy Assistance, applies.

A-1340, Income Limits

Revision 08-1; Effective January 1, 2008

A—1341 Income Limits and Eligibility Tests

Revision 21-3; Effective July 1, 2021

TANF

There are two eligibility tests for TANF.

Budgetary Needs Test

The budgetary needs test is the first eligibility test for the household. It applies to all households who have not received TANF in the last four months (in Texas or another state).

If an unmet need of less than 50 cents remains, the household is ineligible.

Recognizable Needs Test

The recognizable needs test is the final eligibility test for the household. This test applies to all applicants and certified households.

The recognizable needs test has two parts. Applicant households (those subject to the budgetary needs test) must pass both Part A and Part B. All other households must pass only Part B.

If an unmet need of one cent or more remains, the household is eligible.

Needs Tests Instructions

Include all countable earned and unearned income. Follow the steps below:

1. Total the gross earned and unearned income for each person.
2. Add applied income amount. Applied income is the countable amount of income after allowing deductions for tax dependents, child support, alimony, and people a legal parent is legally obligated to support.
3. Subtract the child support disregard, if applicable.
4. Subtract the standard work-related expense (not to exceed the household member's monthly earned income) for each qualifying member with countable earnings.
5. Subtract each member's allowable costs for dependent care (up to the maximum).
6. Subtract any child support expense.
7. Compare the net income to the budgetary needs amount. If the net income or unmet need is 50 cents or more, the household passes the budgetary needs test.

Note: If there is a diversion amount and someone other than the person with diversions has count income (or two household members with joint diversions both have countable income), each member's income or earned income deductions are computed separately until the actual amount allowed to be diverted from each person's income is subtracted. Then the total net incomes are combined.

When two members have joint diversions, any amount of the diversion that exceeds one member's income can be diverted from the other member's income using the steps below:

1. Subtract 1/3 of the net income for applicants with earned income who have not been active TANF in the last four months.
2. Subtract 90 percent of the remaining earnings (up to a cap of $1,400). Allow this deduction for each employed household member who is eligible for it. The person can receive this deduction for four months in a 12-month period. The four months do not have to be consecutive. Note: Do not count a month in which a full-family sanction is imposed as one of the 90 percent earned income deduction (EID) months.

Note: If there is a diversion amount and someone other than the person with diversions has countable income (or two members with joint diversions both have countable income), each member's income and earned income deductions are computed separately until after subtracting the actual amount allowed to be diverted from each person's income. Then the adjusted gross incomes are combined.

When two members have joint diversions, any amount of the diversion that exceeds one member's income can then be diverted from the other member's income.

For each household member with earnings, the deductions cannot exceed the person's total income. This also applies when there is more than one household member with earnings, diverted income or both.

The adjusted income should be compared to the recognizable needs amount. If the adjusted income is one cent or more, the household passes the recognizable needs test.

The adjusted income is subtracted from the maximum grant amount to determine the benefit amount.

SNAP

There are two eligibility tests for SNAP.

Gross Income Test

Gross income is the total countable income. This test applies to all households except those:

- with a member who is elderly or has a disability; or
- that are categorically eligible.

To be considered categorically eligible, all household members must be approved for TANF or SSI, or a combination of TANF and SSI, or the household must meet resource criteria and have gross income below or equal to 165 percent Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for its size.

A household subject to the gross income test is ineligible if unrounded gross income exceeds the limit by one cent or more.

Note: For households with a deductible farm loss, the loss is subtracted before applying the gross income test.

Related Policy

Households with Elderly Members or Members with a Disability, B-430

Net Income Test

Net income is the gross income minus allowable deductions. This test applies to all households, except categorically eligible households.

Note: The net income test applies to a household with a member who is elderly or has a disability if the household's gross income exceeds 165 percent FPL and the household does not meet categorically eligible requirements.

If a household's rounded income exceeds the net income limits, the household is ineligible. Fifty cents or more is rounded up and 49 cents or less is rounded down. The EDG is denied if net income results in zero allotment for the initial and ongoing months.

TIERS will assign the appropriate income test at Eligibility Summary after running Eligibility Determination Benefit Calculation (EDBC).

Medical Programs

For Medical Programs, Modified Adjusted Gross Income \(MAGI\) financial eligibility is determined by comparing the applicable program income limit and the MAGI household income calculated using Step 1 through Step 5 below.

Follow the five steps below in the specified order for each person applying for benefits to determine MAGI financial eligibility for each person.

Step 1 — Determine MAGI Household Composition

The MAGI household composition for the person will be used to complete Steps 2, 3, 4, and 5.

Step 2 — Determine MAGI Individual Income

Identify and list all income, expenses, and overpayments for each person in the MAGI household.

Form H1042, Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) Worksheet: Medicaid and CHIP, is used for each person included in the person's MAGI household composition to list and calculate:

- earned income, excluding any pretax contributions;
- unearned income;
- self-employment income;
- American Indian/Alaska Natives (AI/AN) disbursement;
- overpayments; and
- expenses.

Step 3 — Determine Whether Any Exemptions Apply to MAGI Household Income

If a person meets one of the following exceptions for the taxable year in which Medicaid or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) eligibility is requested, their MAGI individual income is not included when calculating MAGI household income (as explained in Step 4).

Exception 1:

A person is a child (natural, adopted or step), regardless of age, who is:

- included in the MAGI household composition of a parent or whose MAGI household composition includes a parent; and
- not expected to be required to file a federal income tax return since the child's monthly income is below the monthly Internal Revenue Service (IRS) income threshold.

Exception 2:

A person is a tax dependent who is:

- included in the MAGI household composition of the taxpayer claiming them as a tax dependent; and
- not expected to be required to file a federal income tax return since the tax dependent's monthly income is below the monthly IRS income threshold.

If a person meets the criteria for Exception 1 or 2 and does not have any income, it is not necessary to determine whether the person is expected to be required to file an income tax return because there is no income to compare with the IRS income threshold. Move to Step 4 at this point.

Note: Even if a person's tax status is "non-taxpayer/non-tax dependent," the person may be "expected to be required to file" a federal income tax return based on the IRS threshold amounts.

For a person who is expected to be required to file a federal income tax return, all MAGI Individual Income from Step 2 counts in every household composition in which that person is included.

If a child meets Exception 1:

- their income is excluded from the MAGI household income of every applicant or recipient whose MAGI household composition includes that child; and
- the child's income is exempt from their own MAGI household income.

If a tax dependent meets Exception 2:

- the tax dependent's income is excluded from the MAGI household income of the taxpayer who plans to claim that person on a federal income tax return for the taxable year in which the taxpayer is requesting Medicaid or CHIP eligibility; and
- this tax dependent's MAGI Individual Income counts in their own MAGI household income and counts in the MAGI household income of everyone else in whose MAGI household they are included.

If a person meets the criteria for both exceptions (a child (regardless of age) included in the MAGI household composition of a parent and a tax dependent included in the MAGI household composition of the taxpayer), Exception 1 applies. Exception 1 is more beneficial for the child because the child's income would then be exempt from the child's MAGI Individual Income.

Example: A child (regardless of age) lives with her mother, has no income, and her mother expects to claim the child on her federal income tax return. The child would meet Exception 1 and Exception 2. For the purposes of exempting the child's income, the child (regardless of age) is considered a child who is included in the MAGI household composition of a parent whose MAGI group includes a parent (Exception 1). Because the child has no income to exempt, there is no need to compare her income to the tax thresholds. If the child did have income under the threshold, it would be more beneficial to allow her Exception 1 so that her income would not be counted on her own MAGI household income.

Example: Grandma Mary and Grandpa John expect to file taxes jointly and claim their three grandchildren, Sally, 8, Lucy, 12 and Mike, 14, as tax dependents. Grandma Mary and Grandpa John have not adopted their grandchildren. Grandma Mary applies for medical assistance for her grandchildren but does not apply for medical assistance for herself or Grandpa John.

Sally, Lucy, and Mike each receive $1500 a month in Social Security survivor benefits (SSB). The children meet a tax dependent exception because they are claimed as a tax dependent by a taxpayer who is not their spouse or parent. Their MAGI household compositions are determined using the non-taxpayer and non-tax dependent rules.

The MAGI household for each child includes the three siblings (Sally, Lucy and Mike) and the survivor benefits count in each child's own MAGI household income and in the MAGI household income of their siblings. If Grandma Mary and Grandpa John had applied for medical assistance, the children's survivor benefits would NOT count in their MAGI household income.

Step 4 — Calculate MAGI Household Income

First, the MAGI Individual Income for each person included in the applicant's or recipient's MAGI household composition is calculated by:

- adding earned income, unearned income, self-employment income, and AI/AN disbursements (if AI/AN status is not verified per policy or the income source is not verified);
- subtracting overpayments; and
- subtracting expenses.

Person 1 Person 2 Person 3 Person 4

Total earned/unearned income

Add + + + +

Total self-employment Income

Add + + + +

Total AI/AN disbursement

Subtract - - - -

Total recoupment of overpayments

Subtract - - - -

Total expenses

Equals = = = =

MAGI Individual Income

Second, the MAGI Individual Income for all people included in the applicant’s or recipient’s MAGI household composition must be totaled. Anyone’s income (as applicable) based on Exceptions 1 and 2 from Step 3 is exempt.

Add MAGI Individual Income + + + =

Third, the standard MAGI income disregard, by MAGI household size, must be subtracted from the sum of the MAGI Individual Incomes to get the MAGI household income. The standard MAGI disregard is an income disregard equal to five percentage points of the FPL. It is a standard amount based on the applicable household size across all Medical Programs that use MAGI rules to determine income.

Sum of MAGI Individual Incomes

Subtract -

Standard MAGI Disregard

Equals =

MAGI Household Income

Note: The standard MAGI income disregard is updated annually based on the annual updates to the FPL.

Step 5 — Determine MAGI Financial Eligibility

The person's eligibility is determined by comparing whether the applicant's or recipient's MAGI household income is less than or equal to the income limit of the applicable program based on FPL and MAGI household size.

Steps 1 to 5 must be repeated for each person applying for Medical Programs.

A—1341.1 Grant Amount

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The TANF grant amount is the amount of the monthly benefit. The TANF grant is approximately 17 percent FPIL. The federal government periodically adjusts the FPIL.

After the household passes the recognizable needs test, the recommended grant amount is calculated. The advisor subtracts the household's adjusted gross income (rounded down to the nearest dollar) from the maximum grant amount allowed for the household's size and composition. See C-111, Income Limits.

The minimum grant amount is $10. The household is eligible to receive the minimum grant if the recommended grant amount is less than $10.

Benefits of less than $10 are issued only for:

- supplemental payments; and
- payments made after processing a recoupment.

A-1350, Calculating Household Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

A household's income is computed to determine eligibility and benefit amount. Household income is computed by using:

- actual income (income that was already received), or
- projected income amounts (not received but expected).

Notes:

- Both actual income amounts and projected income amounts for the current month are used to determine eligibility and benefits.
- For households paid on a monthly or semi-monthly basis, income is counted for the month it is intended if the household receives:
 - the income in a different month because of a change in the mailing cycle or pay date; or
 - an additional or missed payment because of weekends or holidays.

Exception: A-1355.2, How to Use Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) Quarterly Wage Information to Budget Earned Income, may be used when using the TWC wage record to calculate income.

TANF

If a child lives with a married relative (not a parent) who wants to be the caretaker, eligibility and benefits are determined using:

- normal budgeting for the applicant's income, and
- stepparent budgeting for the income of the applicant's spouse.

Medical Programs

See A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests, for Medical Programs.

A—1351 Irregular and Unpredictable Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Income that is irregular and unpredictable is exempt if both of the following conditions apply:

- The anticipated income will be less than or equal to $30 per household in a federal fiscal quarter; and
- The individual receives the income too infrequently or too irregularly to reasonably anticipate it. "Reasonably anticipate" means the individual knows:
 - who the income will come from,
 - in what month it will be received, and
 - how much it will be.

A—1352 Terminated Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Terminated income counts in the month received. Actual income must be used and conversion factors are not used if terminated income is less than a full month's income.

Income is terminated if it will not be received in the next usual payment cycle.

Income is not terminated if:

- someone changes jobs while working for the same employer;
- an employee of a temporary agency is temporarily not assigned;
- a self-employed person changes contracts or has different customers without having a break in normal income cycle; or
- someone receives regular contributions, but the contributions are from different sources.

A—1353 How to Convert Income to Monthly Amounts

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

If actual or projected income is not received monthly, the income should be converted to monthly amounts using one of the following methods:

- Divide yearly income by 12.
- Multiply weekly income by 4.33.
- Add amounts received twice a month (semi-monthly).
- Multiply amounts received every other week by 2.17.

Note: A-1355.2, How to Use Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) Quarterly Wage Information to Budget Earned Income, can be used for converting TWC wages.

A—1353.1 Converting New Semi-Monthly Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The following procedures should be followed if an individual has a new source of semi-monthly income and has not received enough checks to reliably project the income:

1. Determine the estimated number of hours the individual will work per week.
2. Estimate weekly gross income by multiplying the weekly estimated hours by the hourly wage.
3. Determine the monthly projected gross income by multiplying the estimated weekly gross income by 4.33.
4. To determine the semi-monthly income amount to enter on the income screen, divide monthly gross income by two.

A—1354 How to Budget Actual Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Actual income is income that has already been received. Actual income is budgeted by:

- determining the actual income received in a past month; and
- converting the averaged amount to a monthly amount. See A-1353, How to Convert Income to Monthly Amounts, for instructions on how to convert income to a monthly amount.

Actual income should not be converted when:

- determining eligibility for three months prior Medicaid; or
- the income received from a new or terminated source is less than a full month's income.

Note: A-1355.2, How to Use Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) Quarterly Wage Information to Budget Earned Income, can be used for budgeting TWC wages.

A—1355 How to Project Income

Revision 20-4 Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

Projected income is income a person has not received, but expects to get. To project income:

1. Evaluate the household's income and circumstances with the person.
2. Budget income in the month the person anticipates getting it. Budget:
 - actual income received as of the interview date (or the date the information was requested); and
 - income that can be reasonably anticipated for pay periods after the interview or information request date. "Reasonably anticipated" means the person knows:
 - the source of the income;
 - in what month the person will get the income; and
 - what amount of income the person will get.
3. When a person does not get income monthly but anticipates getting a full month's income, convert it to a monthly amount using conversion factors.
4. When a person gets an additional payment outside the regular payment cycle, convert the regular payments and add the additional payment to the converted amount.

Note: To determine the date income can be reasonably anticipated, use factors specific to the source of income, distance it travels through the mail, electronic transfers, weekends and holidays.

For people getting unemployment insurance benefits, determine the availability of funds in the account by adding one business day to the payment date listed on the Texas Workforce Commission Inquiry Benefit Payment screen.

For child support payments disbursed through the Texas debit card, follow policy in A-1326.2.1, Counting Child Support.

Fluctuating Income

If income is ongoing, but the amounts fluctuate, it is best to anticipate income by averaging income from past pay periods. When using this method:

- Verify at least two pay amounts in the time period beginning 45 days before the file date through the interview date (or the date the EDG is being processed if an interview is not required).
- Continue to enter amounts for all pay periods in the required budget months, using either year-to-date (YTD) amounts or the average amount of received payments for any unverified pay dates.

If the household states the payments are representative of current income, use YTD amounts, if available, for missing pay periods and use the average amount of verified payments for other unverified pay periods in all budget months. Use more than two pay amounts if they are available, but do not pend to require more than two pay amounts when a person says the pay amounts are representative of current income and the statement is not questionable.

Exception: For Children's Medicaid, see policy in A-1371, Verification Sources.

Use a different method to anticipate income when someone has a new job, seasonal fluctuations occur, or expected changes (such as changes in work hours or rate of pay) cause too many past amounts to be unrepresentative of current income.

Different methods of anticipating future income are:

- asking the employer for an estimate;
- using less than the required number of pay periods when they are not all available;
- multiplying anticipated hours by the rate of pay; or
- other methods.

Document the reason and calculations for the method used.

Example: When an applicant has paychecks, use the YTD amounts to find any missing pay amounts, if possible. In this situation, the gross pay on the checks is representative of current income.

Pay Date	Gross Pay Amount	YTD
05/11	(missing paycheck)	(missing paycheck)
05/25	$265.50	$4,675.93
06/09	(missing paycheck)	(missing paycheck)
06/23	$262.84	$5,199.18

You must have the checks before and after the missing paycheck. Take the YTD gross amount of the check prior to the missing paycheck and subtract it from the check received directly after the missing paycheck.

	YTD of check dated 06/23
$5,199.18
	YTD of check dated 05/25
- $4,675.93
	Difference of the YTD amounts
= $523.25

Then subtract the gross pay amount of the paycheck received after the missing paycheck from the difference of the YTD amounts.

	Difference of the YTD amounts
$523.25
	Gross pay amount of check dated 06/23
- $262.84
	Gross pay amount of check dated 06/09
= $260.41

Then add the three amounts together and divide by three to determine the average for the other missing pay period.

$265.50 Gross amount of 05/25

 Gross amount of 06/09

+ $260.41

 Gross amount of 06/23

+ $262.84

 Total of three checks then divide by three

= $788.75 ÷ 3

= $262.92 Average to use for check dated 05/11

Non-Fluctuating Income

All Programs (except TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48)

- Verify that a source of income (earned or unearned) does not fluctuate.
- Verify the frequency of the payment.
- Require gross pay from only one payment received in the 45 days before the file date through the interview date if the person states the frequency and gross pay have not changed. Use this income amount for unverified pay periods in all budget months.

Exception: Do not apply this policy to sources of income that involve fluctuations in pay due to overtime, tips, commission, bonuses, hourly wages, etc.

Examples:

- At initial certification, a person gave proof he is paid a weekly gross salary of $400 with no fluctuations. He is now being interviewed for a SNAP redetermination and has one pay stub dated within 45 days of the application file date showing earnings of $400 for the week. He states there have been no changes in his weekly gross pay or the pay frequency. One pay stub is acceptable proof in this example, because the pay amount and frequency were previously verified and the person stated the pay amount and frequency have not changed.
- Another person is being interviewed for a SNAP application and has one pay stub dated within 45 days of the application file date. She states she is paid a weekly gross salary of $500 and that her pay does not fluctuate. The employer verifies the pay frequency and that the gross amount does not fluctuate. Accept the single pay stub as proof of gross pay and do not pend for other pay stubs unless the income is otherwise questionable.

A—1355.1 Budgeting Options for SNAP Households

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

If income is received more than once a month, monthly converted amounts are used to compute the monthly average. If the monthly income fluctuates, the household may choose to average its monthly income over the entire certification period. The advisor must determine the household's eligibility and benefits based on the average income.

Exception: The income of destitute households must not be averaged over the certification period.

A—1355.2 How to Use Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) Quarterly Wage Information to Budget Earned Income

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

All Programs

The quarterly wage records displayed on TWC inquiry reflect wages earned in the quarter ending as late as one month before the current calendar month. However, because the wage records are updated quarterly, wages may be further in the past. TWC quarters are displayed as a number corresponding to the quarter of the year in which the wages were earned, as illustrated below:

- The first quarter is January through March and is displayed as a 1 and the corresponding year.
- The second quarter is April through June and is displayed as a 2 and the corresponding year.
- The third quarter is July through September and is displayed as a 3 and the corresponding year.

- The fourth quarter is October through December and is displayed as a 4 and the corresponding year.

Use the gross monthly amount determined from using TWC wage records, when applicable, in all of the following budget months:

- application; and
- ongoing.

Note: A-831.3, Income Computation, may be used when determining the budget for prior Medicaid months.

Use the following chart to determine payment amounts when using TWC wage records to budget earned income.

Did the person receive three full months of income in this quarter?

then use one of the following calculations:

Yes

- Weekly – Divide the quarterly amount by the number of pay periods in the selected quarter.
- Bi-Weekly – Divide the quarterly amount by the number of pay periods in the selected quarter.
- Semi-Monthly – Divide the quarterly amount by 3 and then divide the monthly amount by 2.
- Monthly – Divide the quarterly amount by 3.
- Quarterly – Use the quarterly amount.

No

- Weekly – Divide the quarterly amount by 3 and then divide the monthly amount by 4.33.
- Bi-Weekly – Divide the quarterly amount by 3 and then divide the monthly amount by 2.17.
- Semi-Monthly – Divide the quarterly amount by 3 and then divide the monthly amount by 2.
- Monthly – Divide the quarterly amount by 3.
- Quarterly – Use the quarterly amount.

Note: TIERS uses the calculations in the chart above to derive the Calculated Payment value on the "TWC Inquiry" section of the Employment Payments screen.

Before using TWC quarterly wage information as a verification source for earned income, use the preferred methods of verification for the applicable program.

TANF and SNAP

The following sources continue to be the preferred methods of wage verification if they are available without having to pend the EDG to obtain them:

- the most recent consecutive check stub(s); or
- Form H1028, Employment Verification.

If these preferred sources of verification are not available during the interview, or when processed if no interview is required, and it would be necessary to pend for wage verification, the TWC quarterly wage information should be used as verification as explained below.

Using TWC Quarterly Wage Information as Verification of Earned Income

1. Did the person receive pay for all pay periods in all months of the most recent quarter posted from the current employer, and none of the months includes leave without pay or a change in work hours from full-time to part-time?	Yes– Continue	No – Pend for other wage verification
2. Is the person still employed by the employer listed on the most recent TWC quarter?	Yes– Continue	No – Pend for other wage verification
3. Is the person's pay rate the same now as it was for each month of the most recent quarter reported to TWC?	Yes– Continue	No – Pend for other wage verification
	Yes – Use TWC	No – Pend for

4. After discussion with the person, do they agree that the result is representative of anticipated future gross wages per pay period? wage record as verification other wage verification

Note: Convert the income to the frequency the person receives the income before discussing with them whether the earnings shown in TWC records are representative of current and/or future earnings.

Note: Verify tip income not included on a person's wage statement by obtaining a signed and dated statement from the person.

Medical Programs

If the person's reported income is not reasonably compatible with electronic data sources, pend for verification of earned income and determine whether the TWC quarterly wage information can be used as verification of earnings. The TWC wage record may be used as a verification source if both of the following conditions are met:

- the current employer listed on the Medicaid application or redetermination form matches the employer listed on the most recent TWC wage record; and
- all household members for whom the household is applying are eligible based on the TWC quarterly wage information.

Convert the quarterly wage data to monthly income amounts, as described above.

If the income reported on the application or redetermination form makes the household ineligible, do not require the verification of earnings. If a member is ineligible based on the TWC data but appears eligible based on wages reported on the application form, request other income verification.

Note: If the TWC quarterly wage data is older than the verification used in the current SNAP budget, use the SNAP budget to determine eligibility for Medicaid applications or renewals.

A—1358 How to Budget Expenses

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Only household expenses expected during the certification period should be considered to determine eligibility and benefits.

Expenses should be projected using the most recent month's bills and any anticipated increases or decreases. The household may choose to average expenses if they are anticipated to fluctuate or occur less often than monthly.

If the individual is billed for expenses weekly, biweekly or semi-monthly, the income conversion factors found in A-1353, How to Convert Income to Monthly Amounts, may be used to determine monthly expenses.

Children and pregnant women must be determined ineligible for Medicaid or CHIP before being considered for TP 56 or TP 32 coverage for three months prior to the application month and must have:

- unpaid medical bills during the prior month(s), or
- received Medicaid services from the Texas Department of State Health Services during the prior months.

Advisors must determine financial eligibility for TP 56 and TP 32 for the three months prior to the application month by following the MAGI rules as explained in A-1359.1, Determining Eligibility/Spend Down for the Application and Following Months.

Children and pregnant women may be determined eligible for TP 56 or TP 32 coverage for any month in the three months prior to the application month. Advisors must notify the applicant of the eligibility determination for each month.

A—1359.3 Corrections to a TP 56 EDG

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 56

The following procedures are used to notify the Medically Needy Clearinghouse (MNC) when:

- a correction must be made to a TP 56 EDG with spend down; and
- the Clearinghouse has not processed the EDG.

The claims administrator at 1-800-252-8263 is the contact entity to speak with someone concerning a Medicaid EDG with spend down. Advisors should have access to the following information concerning the EDG before calling:

- EDG name;
- EDG number;
- advisor's name;
- advisor's employee number and mail code;
- advisor's telephone number; and
- all information about the change.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

A—1361 Alien Sponsor's Income

Revision 21-1; Effective January 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP, TP 07, TP 08, TP 20, TP 40, TP 43, TP 44, TP 48, TP 56, TP 70, TA 84 and TA 85

Count the income of the alien's sponsor and the sponsor's spouse (if the spouse also signed an affidavit of support).

Do not apply this policy to sponsored aliens who:

- are children under 18;
- are ineligible for benefits. Examples include those who are disqualified from getting benefits or those considered non-members, such as students who do not meet SNAP student eligibility criteria);
- have become naturalized U.S. citizens;
- have 40 quarters of work history or can receive credit for 40 quarters of work;
- have a deceased sponsor;
- have a sponsor who is a member of the alien's household or Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) household composition;
- are refugees, parolees, asylum grantees, Amerasians, victims of severe trafficking or Cuban or Haitian entrants;
- are indigent. Use this exception only if the alien does not meet one of the other exceptions noted in this list. Deem only the amount the sponsor will give the alien for a 12-month period starting the month of the indigence determination. Each determination is renewable for an additional 12-month period;
- are battered alien spouses of U.S. citizens or of legal permanent residents, children of battered aliens, or parents of battered children, if:
 - HHSC determines the battery is substantially related to the need for benefits; and
 - the battered person does not live with the batterer.

Do not deem the sponsor's income for 12 months for battered aliens, starting the month the alien is certified for any benefit. Do not assign a new 12-month period if the alien reapplies after a denial of benefits. After the first 12 months, continue exempting the sponsor's income from deeming if:

- a court or the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) recognize the battery;
- HHSC determines the battery has a substantial connection to the need for benefits; and
- the alien does not live with the batterer.

Use the following list of circumstances as a guide in making the substantial connection between the battery and the need for benefits. Determine if the battered alien needs the benefits:

- to become self-sufficient after leaving the abuser;
- to escape the abuser, the community or both in which the abuser lives;
- to ensure the battered alien's safety;
- to replace financial support lost as a result of the separation from the abuser;
- because of the loss of a job or reduced earnings resulting from the battery or cruelty;
- because the battered alien needs medical attention or mental health counseling or now has a disability due to the battery;
- because the battered alien lost the home, and the separation from the abuser jeopardizes the battered alien's ability to care for the children;
- to reduce nutritional risks;
- to get medical care for a pregnancy resulting from sexual assault or abuse; or
- to replace medical coverage or health care services.

Each time a determination of indigence is made, send a memo with the name, address, Social Security number, and date of birth of both the indigent alien and the indigent alien's sponsor, to the Access and Eligibility Services (AES) Program Policy mailbox. Before sending the memo, explain to the sponsored alien that federal regulations require state offices to report the sponsor to the USCIS for failure to give support as required on the sponsor affidavit. Allow the sponsored alien to choose to have the sponsor's income deemed if the alien does not want state office to send this report.

TANF, TP 07, TP 08, TP 20, TP 40, TP 43, TP 44, TP 48, TP 56, TP 70, TA 84 and TA 85

This policy does not apply to:

- sponsored aliens whose sponsors get TANF or SSI; or
- the dependent child of a sponsor or sponsor's spouse.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

When determining eligibility for a child whose parent is a sponsored alien and a required member of the budget group, do not count the income of the parent's sponsor.

SNAP

This policy does not apply to:

- sponsored aliens whose sponsors get SNAP as a member of the same household; or
- organizations or groups that sponsor aliens.

A—1361.1 Budgeting the Individual Sponsor's Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

Consider all of the sponsor's gross countable income as available to the alien's household, minus only the following deductions:

- The lesser of:
 - 20 percent of the total gross monthly earned income (including net self-employment earned income); or
 - $175.
- The budgetary needs (100 percent) figure of a one- or two-parent caretaker TANF EDG for the sponsor's family size. For Medical Programs, use the appropriate income limits figure for the sponsor's family size. Include all members of the household whom the sponsor claims or could claim as tax dependents. Note: For TANF, see A-1424, Diversions, Alimony, and Payments to Dependents Outside the Home, to determine:
 - whether to use the needs allowance of an adult or a child; or
 - the needs amount for more than two adults.
- The total amount the sponsor pays to a claimed tax dependent living outside the home.
- Total alimony or child support the sponsor pays to persons living outside the home.

Count the remaining amount as unearned income for the alien.

SNAP

Consider all of the sponsor's gross countable income as available to the alien's household, minus only the following deductions:

- 20 percent of the sponsor's total monthly gross earned income (including net self-employment earned income).
- An amount equal to the gross income limit for a household including the sponsor, the spouse, and any others claimed or who could be claimed as tax dependents (even if living outside the home). Do not include people who live with the sponsor but cannot be claimed as tax dependents.

Compare the computed countable income with the actual contributions that the alien received from the sponsor and spouse.

Budget the higher of the two amounts as unearned income to determine the alien's eligibility and benefits.

A—1361.2 Prorating the Sponsor's Income

Revision 01-7; Effective October 1, 2001

All Programs

If several aliens are sponsored, prorate the remaining income evenly among all the aliens who apply for or receive benefits.

A—1361.3 Budgeting the Organization Sponsor's Income

Revision 01-7; Effective October 1, 2001

TANF

An alien sponsored by an organization is not eligible for TANF unless the alien:

- can prove the organization no longer exists; or
- provides income and resource information for the organization.

If the alien provides income and resource information, contact Texas Works Policy Section, state office, for special budgeting procedures.

A—1362 Disqualified Members

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

TANF

The income of a disqualified legal parent, including a disqualified second parent, is counted. Procedures in A-1362.1, TANF — Budgeting for a Legal Parent Disqualified for Alien Status, Failure to Prove Citizenship, Noncompliance with the Unmarried Minor Parent Domicile Requirement or State Time Limits, or A-1362.2, TANF — Budgeting for a Household Member Disqualified for Noncompliance with SSN, TPR, Failure to Timely Report a Certified Child's Temporary Absence, Intentional Program Violation, Being a Fugitive or a Felony Drug Conviction, apply.

The income of a disqualified child who is a required member of the certified group is counted. Procedures in A-1362.2 apply.

The income of other noncertified children is not counted.

SNAP

All income, except a prorated portion, is counted for a person disqualified for one of the following reasons:

- The applicant failed to provide or apply for a Social Security number.
- The applicant is an ineligible alien (including an alien awaiting sponsor information or proof of sponsor information).
- The applicant is waiting for verification of a questionable claim of U.S. citizenship.
- An able-bodied adult without dependents (ABAWD) has received the maximum months of benefits without meeting the SNAP ABAWD work requirement.

All income, unless otherwise exempt, is counted for a member disqualified for:

- intentional program violation;
- Employment and Training (E&T) noncompliance;
- felony drug convictions; or
- being a fugitive.

Disqualified people are considered household members although they are not allowed to participate.

Medical Programs

Calculate the MAGI household income for each individual applying for Medical Programs using the steps explained in A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests, Medical Programs.

A—1362.1 TANF – Budgeting for a Legal Parent Disqualified for Alien Status, Failure to Prove Citizenship, Noncompliance with the Unmarried Minor Parent Domicile Requirement or State Time Limits

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

For EDGs with a legal parent who is disqualified for one of the reasons above and who has income, advisors should follow the budgeting process below to determine the amount of the legal parent's income to count against the needs of the remaining certified group before applying the two needs tests.

1. Determine the legal parent's countable monthly gross earned income.
2. Subtract the standard $120 work-related expense deduction from earned income.
3. Add the disqualified parent's unearned income to the net earned amount and subtract the following three amounts:
 - The monthly amount the parent actually pays to a person living outside the home whom the parent can claim as a tax dependent or is legally obligated to support.
 - The monthly amount of alimony and child support payments the parent actually makes to persons outside the home.
 - The budgetary needs amount for the parent and other noncertified members in the home whom the parent can claim as tax dependents or is legally obligated to support (including SSI recipients). Use the needs figure applicable to the number of noncertified members (including the parent with income). Note: See A-1424, Divisions, Alimony, and Payments to Dependents Outside the Home, to determine:
 - whether to use the needs allowance of an adult or a child, or
 - the needs amount for more than two adults.

Exception: Do not include the needs of a dependent who is disqualified for a reason other than citizenship.

4. Count the remaining income against the needs of the certified group.

Note: If a noncertified stepparent with income also lives in the home, complete the steps in A-1366.2, Stepparent Budgeting Procedures, before completing this process.

A—1362.2 TANF - Budgeting for a Household Member Disqualified for Noncompliance with SSN, TPR, Failure to Timely Report a Certified Child's Temporary Absence, Intentional Program Violation, Being a Fugitive or a Felony Drug Conviction

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The same budgeting procedures used for a certified household member are used for TANF, except the needs of the disqualified member are not included.

Exception: If the household member is not a required member of the certified group, the non-required member's needs are removed. Additionally, the non-required member's income and resources do not count against the remaining members of the certified group.

If the member has expenses for which income must be diverted, the policy in A-1424, Divisions, Alimony, and Payments to Dependents Outside the Home, should be followed.

A—1362.3 SNAP - Budgeting for Members Disqualified for Citizenship, SNAP ABAWD Work Requirement or Noncompliance with Social Security Number Requirements

Revision 20-3; Effective July 1, 2020

SNAP

All of the disqualified person's countable income should be totaled.

Notes:

- Income of an alien's sponsor is not applied to a sponsored alien who is disqualified.
- If a disqualified member receives TANF, the disqualified member's pro rata share of the TANF grant is counted, and each TANF recipient's portion of the grant is entered as TANF income.
- The disqualified person's countable income is divided by the number of household members, including the disqualified member. This determines the pro rata share of income.
- All pro rata shares of income are counted, except those of a disqualified member(s).

Earned Income Deduction — The EID is deducted from the part of the disqualified member's earned income that is counted in the household.

Standard Deduction — The appropriate standard deduction amount is applied only for eligible household members.

Dependent Care, Child Support Expense, Shelter Expense and Homeless Shelter Standard Deductions — These expenses billed to or paid by the disqualified member are divided equally among all SNAP household members, including the disqualified member. All pro rata shares are included in the household budget, except those of disqualified members. The allowable pro rata share is entered under an eligible SNAP household member.

Note: If only the disqualified member has income, the expenses must be considered to be paid by that member.

Utility or Telephone Deductions — The appropriate utility or telephone standard is allowed. Utility or telephone deductions are not prorated.

Medical Deduction — The actual medical expense or the standard medical deduction is prorated among all household members, and the pro rata share for a disqualified member's medical bills (including situations in which the disqualified member is billed for or pays the medical bills of a remaining eligible household member) is not allowed.

Note: If only the disqualified member has income, the expenses must be considered to be paid by that member.

Income Test and Household Size — The disqualified member is not included in determining the household income limits or the amount of the household's allotment.

Example of Procedures for Budgeting TANF Income of Households with Members Disqualified for Citizenship or Alien Status Who Are Eligible for TANF but Not SNAP

A household consists of a husband and wife and their four children. The husband and wife are lawful permanent residents, and their four children are U.S. citizens. The husband is unemployed, and the household receives a TANF-State Program grant of $294. Both the husband and wife are eligible for TANF but are disqualified aliens for SNAP.

For TANF and SNAP EDGs, TIERS will automatically prorate the TANF income for the SNAP budget, using the following formula.

Step	Action
1	Divide the TANF grant by the number of TANF-certified household members to arrive at the pro rata share for each member. $$294 \div 6 = \49 (each member's pro rata share of the grant).
2	Multiply the pro rata shares of the grant by the number of TANF recipients who also are eligible for SNAP benefits. $$49 \times 4 = \196
3	Divide the disqualified person's pro rata share of the TANF benefits by the total number of SNAP household members, including the disqualified member(s). Count the pro rata share of TANF attributed to all eligible SNAP household members. $$49 \div 6 = $8.17 \times 4 = $32.68$ (countable share of the husband's TANF) $$49 \div 6 = $8.17 \times 4 = $32.68$ (countable share of the wife's TANF)
4	Determine the total countable TANF by adding the countable amounts from Steps 2 and 3. $$196$ (children's share) + $$65.36 = \261.36 .

A—1362.4 SNAP — Budgeting for Persons Disqualified for Intentional Program Violations, SNAP Employment Services Noncompliances, Felony Drug Convictions or Being a Fugitive

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Income — All income of a disqualified member counts unless it is otherwise exempt.

Income Deductions — All income deductions and expenses of a disqualified member are allowed.

Standard Deduction — The disqualified member is not included in the household size when applying the standard deduction.

Shelter/Medical Deductions — Appropriate shelter and medical deductions are allowed even if the disqualified person is the only elderly person or person with disabilities in the household.

Although the household can receive uncapped shelter deductions, the household must still pass both the gross and net income tests if the disqualified person was the only elderly member or member with disabilities in the household.

Income Test and Household Size — The disqualified member is not included in determining the household income limits or the amount of the household's allotment.

A—1363 Diverting Income

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

TANF

Divert income if a caretaker, second parent, minor parent or married minor has countable income and:

- pays alimony or child support to people outside the home;
- makes payments to people outside the home who the person can claim as tax dependents or has a legal obligation to support; or
- there are noncertified people living in the home who the person can claim as tax dependents or has a legal obligation to support, including SSI recipients and children receiving SSI Medicaid.

Also divert income if a noncertified stepparent lives in the home and:

- only the legal parent has income; or
- they both have income and the stepparent's income does not meet all of the stepparent's and the noncertified dependent's needs.

If both the stepparent and legal parent have income, follow the stepparent budgeting procedures before completing this process.

Line 1 – Payments to Dependents Outside Home — The actual amount of any payments made to people living outside the home who the parent or non-certified stepparent can claim as tax dependents or is legally obligated to support.

Line 2 – Alimony and Child Support Payments — The actual amount of alimony or child support payments the parent or noncertified stepparent makes to people outside the home.

Line 3 – 100 Percent Needs Amount — The budgetary (100 percent) needs figure for all noncertified members in the home who the legal parent or noncertified stepparent can claim as tax dependents or is legally obligated to support including SSI recipients. Exclude the needs of a parent or dependent who is disqualified for a reason other than citizenship, or immigration status, state time limits or the unmarried minor parent domicile requirement. Use the single parent caretaker needs figure if there is a noncertified stepparent in the home, or a second legal parent in the home who receives SSI or is disqualified for citizenship or immigration status, state time limits or noncompliance with the unmarried minor parent domicile requirement. Follow policy for diversions, alimony and payments to dependents outside the home to determine:

- whether to use the needs allowance of an adult or a child; or
- the needs amount for more than two adults.

Line 4 – Maximum Amount to Be Diverted — The total of lines 1, 2 and 3 except if following stepparent budgeting procedures. This is the maximum amount of diversions that can be deducted from the person's total income. The actual amount diverted in any needs test may be less, since the diverted amount cannot exceed the person's total income and be deducted from income of another household member unless they will be filing a joint income tax return, or they are married.

TIERS will complete this process based on the entries on the Relationship page.

A—1364 Migrant Farm Workers in the Workstream

Revision 02-3; Effective April 1, 2002

SNAP

Migrant farm workers are people who have moved into a county looking for work cultivating crops, canning, or packing. The household must include at least one migrant farm worker to be classified as a migrant household.

A—1364.1 Guidelines for Determining Income of Migrant Workers

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

- Income should not be anticipated merely because there is work available in the area.
- Everyone in an area may not be employed, even if work is available.
- Future income counts only when the amount and month of receipt is known.
- The effect of future migrations must be considered since these migrations might interrupt the expected income.
- The grower, not the crew chief, is considered as the source of income.
- Travel advances and wage advances must be distinguished. If a travel advance is a reimbursement for travel expenses, the advance does not count as income. Wage advances for travel expenses count as income if the migrant worker has a written contract from the prospective employer that states the travel advance is a wage advance that will be deducted from wages earned later.
- The income of a student under age 18 must be separated from the rest of the migrant household's income. If the student's earnings or amount of work performed cannot be distinguished from that of other household members, the total income is divided equally among the working members, and the child's share is excluded.

A—1365 Unmarried Minor Parent Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

A—1366 Stepparent EDGs

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

A stepparent's income is always considered when determining financial eligibility for the certified group.

Stepparent budgeting procedures are used when a minor parent and the minor parent's children living with the minor parent's parent are applying for TANF and they meet the criteria in A-221, Who Is Included, No. 6.

If the legal parent and stepparent live in the home and have mutual children, the household members cannot be separated. Both parents' income is budgeted using legal parent budgeting procedures.

A—1366.1 How to Determine Budgeting Procedures in Stepparent EDGs

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The stepparent is included in the grant only if the stepparent wants to be included and:

- the stepparent is the only parent in the home, or
- both the legal parent and stepparent are in the home and the legal parent has a disability (according to procedures in A-1050, Deprivation Based on Incapacity).

If the stepparent is included in the grant, the stepparent's income and resources count as a legal parent's would be counted. The usual earned income deductions are allowed.

If the stepparent is not included in the grant, the stepparent's income is budgeted using the stepparent budgeting procedures in A-1366.2, Stepparent Budgeting Procedures, to determine the amount of monthly income to be applied to the certified group. These budgeting procedures should be followed even if the stepparent does not meet TANF citizenship requirements.

A—1366.2 Stepparent Budgeting Procedures

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The amount of the stepparent's income that is counted to meet the certified group's needs must be determined before applying either needs test, using the following process:

1. Total the stepparent's countable gross earned income.
2. Deduct the stepparent's work-related expenses ($120).
3. Add the stepparent's unearned income to the net earned amount.
4. Deduct the stepparent's actual support payments for tax dependents outside the home and monthly expenses for alimony or child support. Deduct an amount equal to the budgetary needs (100 percent) of a single parent caretaker EDG for the stepparent and the stepparent's noncertified tax dependents living in the home (do not include the needs of a dependent that is disqualified for a reason other than citizenship).

Note: See A-1424, Diversions, Alimony, and Payments to Dependents Outside the Home, to determine:

- whether to use the needs allowance of an adult or a child, or
 - the needs amount for more than two adults.
5. Apply the stepparent's remaining income to the certified group as unearned income.

Notes:

- Count the stepparent's applied income only from the date of marriage.
- Use stepparent budgeting procedures when a minor parent and the minor parent's children living with the minor parent's parent are applying for TANF and they meet the criteria in A-221, Who Is Included, No. 6.

See A-1363, Diverting Income, for the budgeting process when only the legal parent has income or the legal parent and stepparent have income.

A—1366.3 Budgeting Procedures in Stepparent EDGs When Both Parents Have Eligible Children for Whom They Want to Apply

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The following steps are used to determine eligibility and benefits for TANF:

1. Test eligibility for each parent's EDG individually as separate cases. Consider only the income and circumstances of the caretaker and children for whom the caretaker is applying. Do not apply the stepparent's income in this initial step.
2. If both applicants are eligible, work the TANF as separate cases for each EDG group. Do not divert or apply income from either parent.
3. If both EDGs are ineligible, deny them both.
4. If one EDG is ineligible and the other eligible, deny the ineligible EDG and rebudget the eligible EDG. Consider the ineligible parent a stepparent and apply the ineligible parent's income using stepparent budgeting procedures.

Notes:

- Divert income for an ineligible child from only one parent when budgeting for step 1 and step 3. Divert income from both parents for the same child only when they will be filing a joint tax return or they are married.
- If the household includes eligible mutual children, the household members cannot be separated. Budget both parents' income using legal parent budgeting procedures.

A—1367 Strikers

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

A striker is anyone who participates with one or more other employees in a work slow-down or stoppage. This includes a stoppage resulting from the expiration of a collective bargaining agreement.

A striker's status ends only when the striker returns to the job, retires, quits, is locked out, or is fired, regardless of the length of the strike.

A person is not a striker if the person is:

- exempt from work registration on the day before the strike for any reason other than employment;
- not participating in the strike, but cannot work because of the strike;
- afraid to cross the picket line because of threatened harm; or
- locked out of the job by an employer, including an individual who was on strike before the lock-out.

A—1367.1 Eligibility of Strikers

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, TP 08 and TA 31

A family is not eligible for TANF, TP 08 and TA 31 for any month in which the caretaker or second parent is participating in a strike.

SNAP

A household with a striker is ineligible for SNAP unless the household:

- was eligible immediately before the strike; and
- is still eligible.

Pre-Strike Eligibility

The income of all household members (including the striker) is used as of the day before the strike. If the household is ineligible, the household is denied.

If the household was eligible before the strike, current eligibility should be computed.

Current Eligibility

1. The striker's income on the day before the strike should be compared with the striker's current income (including union benefits and part-time jobs). The higher of the two incomes counts.
2. The striker's income is added to the current income of other household members.

If the household is not currently eligible, the household is denied.

If the household is eligible based on both current and pre-strike income, the household is eligible if it meets all other eligibility criteria. Other eligibility criteria are considered the same as income. The household must be eligible currently and before the strike.

TP 40, TP 43, TP 44, TP 48, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35 and TP 36

This policy is not applicable to these programs.

A—1368 New TANF Spouse's Earnings

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The earnings of a TANF recipient's new spouse are excluded for six months, beginning the month after the date of the marriage if the total gross income of the budget group does not exceed 200 percent FPIL for the family size. This applies to both ceremonial and common law marriages.

The following individuals are included in the budget group:

- the caretaker or payee of the TANF-certified group;
- the new spouse of the TANF caretaker or payee;
- each dependent of the TANF caretaker or payee and the new spouse who meets the TANF age and relationship requirements and lives in the household; and
- anyone who would be a required member if not disqualified or ineligible such as an SSI recipient or ineligible alien.

If the household fails to provide verification of the marriage, the income exclusion is not allowed. The amounts previously excluded count after six months.

A-1370, Verification Requirements

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

All Programs

- Verify all countable income at initial application, redetermination, and when a household reports a change unless the amount reported makes the household ineligible.
- Verification of earned and unearned income is not required for any pay amount that is older than 60 days before the interview date.
- Verify the following:
 - That a child meets the criteria listed in A-1323.1, Children's Earned Income, before exempting the child's earned income.
 - Interest income at redetermination if from a new source or the amount has changed by more than $50. Otherwise, accept the person's statement of the amount.
 - Tip income not included on a person's wage statement.
 - All loans or contributions (cash or vendor payments) to determine the countable amount.
 - Whether the person got vacation pay before or after a job ended. If the person got vacation pay after the job ended, verify whether the person got the vacation pay in a lump sum or multiple checks.
 - The death of an alien's sponsor.
 - For people who are striking contact the union and company officials to:
 - find out the probable length of the strike;
 - verify the striker's wages from that company; and
 - confirm the striker's benefits or any help the striker is getting from the union.
 - For Self-employment use:
 - A-1323.4.4, Determining the Amount of Self-Employment Income;
 - a collateral source as verification, if self-employment has ended;
 - a person's statement as verification, only if a collateral source is not available; and
 - refer to C-940, Documentation, for requirements when an alternate method is used rather than a preferred source.
- Verification used for SNAP or TANF in a TIERS EDG is acceptable for:

- the other program unless it is inconsistent with other information or is questionable; and
- Medicaid unless policy for a specific type of verification specifically says otherwise.
- Verification used for Medicaid in a TIERS EDG is acceptable for SNAP or TANF unless policy for a specific type of verification specifically says otherwise.
- If all attempts to verify income are unsuccessful because the payer fails or refuses to give information and no other proof can be found, use the best available information to determine the budget amount.

TANF and SNAP

Use the following steps to get income information for employable household members who have no prior certification history, or who have had a month or more break in certification, or when adding a new member.

Step	If yes ...	If no ...
1. For the month of application or two months before, did any household member have any earned or unearned income that ended?	Verify and document the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • source; • final gross amount and date received; • reason the income ended; and • end date. 	Go to Step 2.
2. Is the household claiming no income?	Go to Step 2. If the claim is questionable: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • follow policy in A-1700, Management; or • verify per C-920, Questionable Information. 	STOP.

TANF

The date of marriage between a TANF recipient and the new spouse must be verified and used to determine the six-month period in which the new spouse's earnings can be excluded as income.

TP 08

- Verify the following to establish eligibility for TP 07:
 - increase in gross earnings; and
 - date the earnings or hours increased.
- If verification is not available, accept the person's statement, unless questionable.
- If the household gives earnings information sufficient to determine ineligibility for TP 08, but does not give proof of the earnings, the household members should be transferred to TP 07 if they meet the eligibility requirements in A-842, TP 07 Transitional Medicaid.

TANF and Medical Programs

If at application a person claims to have a disability or is caring for a child with disabilities, verify at the first redetermination that the person has applied with the Social Security Administration (SSA) for RSDI/SSI.

SNAP

- A change may be processed based on best available information if:
 - an increase in earnings results in a decrease in benefits;
 - the person fails to give information; and

- staff can compute benefits based on the information provided.
- A person's statement that they do or do not have a sponsor may be accepted unless the sponsor status is questionable.
- If sponsor status is questionable, the household has two options:
 - contact U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for verification of sponsor status; or
 - participate without the alien member.
- Verify a disqualified person's income the same as any other member.
- Do not use the services of people or organizations assisting strikers to interview applicants participating in the strike or lock-out. HHSC does not give these third-party representatives or organizations access to Lone Star Cards or other documents and does not use the facilities of these third-party representatives or organizations in certifying strikers.
- Combat pay included in any income made available to the household by an absent military person must be verified as well as the combat zone to which the person is deployed.
- Verify deployment to a combat zone by requesting that the household provide the orders issued to the military person or by contacting the financial office at the local base.

Note: The military person's leave and earning statement (LES) is often sent directly to the family, or the deployed military person can mail it to the family back home. The military person's LES is acceptable verification of any combat pay being received and of deployment to a designated combat zone.

- Migrant income can be verified through sources such as Employment Services, Farm Labor bureaus, Rural Manpower Development, Farmer's Cooperative Service, growers' associations, Migrants' Service organizations, county agents, and individual growers and crew chiefs.
- If the household states the migrant workers work for various growers or crew chiefs, the household should be given a calendar form with space for recording each day's income and hours worked. The household should get the grower or crew chief's signature for validation and present the form at the next interview.
- Do not request additional proof of income when reactivating a SNAP EDG at redetermination that was denied for failure to provide information. The original proof of income the person gave at the interview date should be accepted, unless the household reports a change in income.
- For streamlined reporting (SR) households, accept the person's statement as to whether the household exceeded the income limit during the original SR certification. If verification of current earnings shows household income does not exceed 130 percent FPL and there is no indication the household exceeded 130 percent FPL during the original SR certification period, it is not necessary to verify all income between the original SR certification period and the current certification.
- If the person began employment during the original SR certification period and reports it at the SR redetermination, the start date of the job should be verified, but it is not necessary to verify all actual income from the start date. If the household's current income exceeds 130 percent FPL, the person should be asked to estimate the household's monthly income for the previous months. If the person's estimate of the income exceeds 130 percent FPL, the person's statement should be accepted, and an overpayment referral should be submitted. The amount of the overpayment and the overpayment date can be estimated using the policy in B-730, How to File an Overpayment Referral. The Office of Inspector General (OIG) verifies all actual income and recalculates the overpayment.
- If a member of the SR household has earned or unearned income that ends during the certification, the last terminated income should be verified at the next redetermination.
- If a member of the SR household changes jobs several times during the certification period, then at redetermination, staff must verify termination of the last job and the job the household member had at the start of the previous SR certification period.

Request additional financial verification or documentation only if:

- acceptable verification is not available through electronic data sources; or
- information obtained electronically is not reasonably compatible with the person's statement of income provided on the application or at redetermination.

Income from electronic data sources is considered reasonably compatible with income reported by a person when both the income reported by the person and electronic data are at or below the applicable income limit.

The system will determine whether a person's income is reasonably compatible with available electronic data sources.

If the person's statement of income is not determined to be reasonably compatible with electronic data, income must be verified using other acceptable verifications explained in A-1371, Verification Sources.

A person's statement of income is not reasonably compatible with electronic data if:

- their statement of income is above the applicable FPL;

- their statement of income is below the applicable FPL, but electronic data indicate that income may be above the applicable FPL;
- the person has unverified countable expenses that need to be verified for the person to be determined income-eligible;
- sufficient information is not provided to calculate a monthly income (the person must provide the income type, income frequency, and income amount);
- income sources are provided that are not available from electronic data;
- the person has unverified countable income other than earned income, RSDI, or unemployment; or
- TIERS is unable to access a third-party system to acquire electronic data, or electronic data was insufficient to complete reasonable compatibility.

When determining ongoing eligibility, the person is not required to provide verification of earned or unearned income of any pay amount that is older than 60 days before the interview date or the date the action is initiated when an interview is not required.

Do not require a person to provide additional verification if:

- verification is available through TWC inquiry or other automated systems that are considered acceptable verification sources and accessible to staff; or
- the person confirms the information obtained through data sources is accurate and representative; and
- the information is sufficient to establish current eligibility.

Note: A Data Broker report cannot be requested for children under age 16. Request additional verification if earned income is reported for a child under age 16 who does not meet an exception explained in A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests, for Medical Programs, Step 3, and other electronic data sources are unavailable.

If the person reports that someone living at that physical address receives American Indian/Alaska Natives (AI/AN) income and includes an amount, but does not provide the name of the person receiving the AI/AN income, pend for missing information. If the person:

- Fails to provide the missing information by the final due date, then the EDG will be denied for failure to provide information.
- Provides the name of the person receiving the AI/AN income, but does not provide verification for the income type, then the income will be counted instead of being exempt. However, the EDG will not be denied for failure to provide information. The person will still be eligible for exemptions from cost-sharing if they are eligible for CHIP.

If the person indicates someone is eligible to receive services from Tribal/Indian Health Services, but has not included the name of the person receiving services, then pend for the name. If the name is not provided by the final due date, then the EDG will not be denied, but the exemption will not be allowed for cost-sharing if the applicant is eligible for CHIP.

TP 40

After certification, a TP 40 EDG must not be denied for failure to provide proof of income unless income verification was postponed at certification.

Households may be allowed the following deductions:

- work-related expense deduction (up to $120);
- 90 percent earned income deduction;
- dependent care;
- diversions; and
- $75 disregard.

- standard MAGI income disregard;
- alimony paid*;
- educational expenses or student loan interest;
- moving expenses (allowed only for active duty members of the military who are moving duty stations);
- tuition or GI Bill deduction;
- educator expenses;
- expenses of fee-basis government officials, expenses of performing artists, and expenses of reservists;

A—1411 Rules That Apply to Deductions

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Actual amounts (amounts that have already been billed) are used for the interview month, and amounts that have not been billed may be projected.

- The following expenses are not deducted:
 - expenses paid to another member of the same Eligibility Determination Group (EDG);
 - expenses paid by a reimbursement, an exempt vendor payment or in-kind benefit (Exception: For the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program [SNAP], see A-1428.1, Allowable Medical Expenses, and A-1429.3, Utility Allowances); or
 - past-due balances, late charges or finance charges. Exception: For SNAP, expenses such as property tax that are averaged over the period between scheduled billings or over the period the expense is intended to cover are allowable even if the expense is paid or past due when reported.
- The most recent month's bills are used to project expenses, and unexpected changes should be considered during the certification period.
- Only household expenses expected during the certification period should be considered.
- The income conversion factors are used to determine monthly expenses if expenses are billed weekly, biweekly or semi-monthly.

Deductions must not be allowed if:

- verification of the expense is required;
- the household fails to provide required verification; and
- the advisor is not able to verify the expense directly using other automated systems that are acceptable verification sources and accessible to the advisor or through another method.

Note: The EDG must not be denied for failure to provide the verification.

SNAP

- An expense is allowed, regardless of when or if the household intends to pay it.

- If expenses are not averaged, the expenses should be deducted in the month the expense is billed (or the month it becomes due if no bill is sent). Exception: See A-1428.4, Change in Medical Expenses During Certification.
- A deduction for expenses that are legally due monthly is allowed even when the household pays them in advance.
- Households may choose to average expenses that fluctuate or occur less often than monthly. These expenses are averaged over the:
 - interval between scheduled billings, or
 - period the expense is intended to cover if there is no scheduled billing.

Note: If the individual reports a change, the average is recalculated.

- If the individual agrees with the provider to make installment payments for an allowable one-time expense, the individual can choose to have the agreed upon payments budgeted as the amount due in a given month.

Medical Programs except TP 45

MAGI rules allow certain expenses to be deducted from the individual's income in order to determine the MAGI individual income.

- For all MAGI expenses that have been verified using last year's federal income tax return, take the expense amount from the federal income tax return and divide that amount by 12 to determine the monthly expense amount for use for applicant or recipient.
- For the alimony paid expenses verified using other acceptable verification sources, use the actual amount verified for the MAGI alimony paid expense.

- actually pays to an individual outside the SNAP household; or
- actually pays for an individual outside the SNAP household; or
- makes to a child support agency.

A—1421.1 Allowable Child Support Deductions

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Allowable child support payments may be in the form of:

- cash support;
- medical support; or
- payments to third parties.

To be an allowable deduction, these payments must be ordered by a court or administrative authority and be equal to or less than the household's child support obligation.

Payments for alimony or spousal support are not deductible.

A—1421.2 Budgeting Child Support Deductions

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Child support collected through a tax intercept is not an allowable child support deduction.

A child support payment may be owed by one household member but paid by another member. The child support expense for the household member paying the expense is allowed.

If the household member with the legal obligation or the household member paying the legal obligation leaves the home, the household's eligibility for the deduction must be redetermined.

SNAP

A child support deduction for households that pay legally obligated child support is allowed. For current support, a deduction up to and including the legally obligated amount is allowed. For arrears, only the amount a household member actually pays is allowed.

For households with new obligations, the anticipated amount is budgeted if the household member can reasonably explain the basis for future payment. For households with previous payments, the amount (not to exceed the legal obligation) is averaged and projected over the certification period. Any other anticipated changes that would affect the payment should be considered.

In some instances, an employer may charge the absent parent a processing fee for garnishing wages or the custodial parent may use the services of a private collection agency, which may charge the absent parent a fee for collecting child support. The processing fee is not an allowable expense. Only the legally obligated amount a household member pays is allowed as a deduction, regardless of whether a processing fee is added or subtracted from the gross amount of the child support.

If a household member pays child support in advance, the household is eligible for the child support deduction. The individual is allowed the option of deducting the entire amount in the month paid or averaging the amount over the period of time it is intended to cover.

If legally obligated child support is paid by a household member who is disqualified due to ...

The full child support expense is deducted when another household member pays the legally obligated child support on behalf of a disqualified member.

A—1423 Dependent Care Deduction

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The maximum dependent care deduction is up to and including:

- $200 a month for each child under age 2,
- $175 a month for each child age 2 or older, and
- $175 a month for each adult with disabilities.

An earned income deduction is allowed for the actual cost of unreimbursed payments up to and including the maximum amount when the individual incurs an expense for:

- the care of a child or adult with disabilities (even when the child or adult with disabilities is not included in the certified group); and/or
- transportation of a child to and/or from day care or school.

The expense must be both necessary for employment and incurred by an employed person who is included in the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) budget group or would be included except the person is disqualified for a reason listed in A-1362.2, TANF — Budgeting for a Household Member Disqualified for Noncompliance with SSN, TPR, Failure to Timely Report a Certified Child's Temporary Absence, Intentional Program Violation, Being a Fugitive or a Felony Drug Conviction. The expense for household members meeting these requirements is allowed, even if there are other adults in the household who could care for the children.

The deduction in the budgetary and recognizable needs tests is allowed.

SNAP

A deduction is allowed for the actual cost of unreimbursed payments when the individual incurs an expense for the care of a child or adult with disabilities, or the transportation of a child or adult with disabilities to and/or from day care or school. The deduction is allowed if the expense is necessary for a household member to:

- seek or continue employment;
- attend training; or
- go to school.

The expense for household members who meet one of the above conditions is allowed, even if there are other adults in the household who could care for the children. These expenses are deducted from earned or unearned income. The individual's expense may be considered necessary for employment, training or school attendance if the child or adult with disabilities lives with the individual at least one day a month. The child/adult with disabilities does not have to be a certified member of the SNAP household.

A—1424 Diversions, Alimony, and Payments to Dependents Outside the Home

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

TANF

The following deductions from the income of a caretaker, second parent, or minor parent are allowed before either of the two needs tests are applied (after earned income deductions in the budgetary and recognizable needs tests):

- Budgetary needs amount for a family size equal to the number of noncertified persons in the home whom the legal parent can claim as tax dependents or is legally obligated to support (including Supplemental Security Income [SSI] recipients). The needs figure applicable to the number of noncertified members is used.
 - An amount for the needs of a dependent who is disqualified for a reason other than citizenship, alien status, time limits, or unmarried minor parent domicile requirement is not diverted.
- Actual amount of child support and alimony a household member pays to persons outside the home.
- Actual amount of a household member's payments to persons outside the home whom a household member can claim as tax dependents or is legally obligated to support.

When two household members are married or filing a joint tax return, any portion of their joint diversion amount that exceeds one person's income can be deducted from the other person's income.

Step 3 on Form H1100, Addendum Income Worksheet, should be completed to allow this deduction.

Medical Programs

If the divorce or separation agreements that include alimony payments were executed or last modified:

- On or before Dec. 31, 2018, alimony paid by members of the MAGI household can be deducted.
- After Dec. 31, 2018, alimony paid cannot be claimed as a MAGI deduction.

A—1424.1 Determining the Needs Figure

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The following table may be used when diverting for the needs of noncertified tax dependents in the home.

If the tax dependent is a ... then use the budgetary needs figure for ...

- parent,
- spouse (including spouse of child), or an adult.*
- child age 19 or older,

child under age 19, a child.

* If the number of persons whose needs are diverted includes more than two adults, use the chart figure for two adults and the number of children from the column labeled Caretaker EDGs With Second Parent. If there are a total of three adults, add an additional amount from the chart for the family size of one ($313); or if there are a total of four adults, add an additional amount from the chart for a family size of two ($498). Continue the pattern depending upon whether the number of additional adults is an odd number (5 = $498 + $313) or an even number (6 = $498 + $498).

When diverting for an 18-year-old child who turns age 19 during one of the budget months, the budgetary needs figure of an adult is used beginning with the month after the child turns age 19.

A—1425 Earned Income Deductions

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Earned income deductions are the:

- standard work-related expense (up to $120);
- 1/3 earned income disregard for applicants;
- 90 percent earned income deduction; and
- dependent care costs.

An applicant or recipient does not qualify for deductions if:

- income is gained from illegal activities, such as prostitution and selling illegal drugs.
- the individual did not notify the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) timely about a new job or increased earnings without good cause. Allow the deduction for ongoing budgets, but do not allow it when determining an overpayment or supplemental budgets. Count the months it should have been budgeted as used months based on when the change would have been effective if the individual had reported it timely.
- individual voluntarily quits a job without good cause within the 60 days prior to the:
 - application file date, or after filing but before certification; or
 - household addition request date, or after the request but before being added. Deductions are not allowed until the next complete review.

Deductions beginning with the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) effective month are allowed when processing the next complete review.

SNAP

A 20 percent deduction of all gross earned income is allowed. See B-752, Determining Claim Amounts, for exceptions.

A—1425.1 Work-Related Expense ($120 and 20%)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

A work-related expense deduction of up to $120 a month (not to exceed the person's monthly earnings) is allowed from the earned income of each employed household member:

- whose needs are included in the budget or certified group; or
- who is a disqualified member.

In TANF, this deduction is allowed in the budgetary and recognizable needs test.

SNAP

Allow a 20 percent deduction of all gross earned income.

A—1425.2 1/3 Disregard for Applicants

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Applicant households that must pass the 100 percent budgetary needs test are also required to pass Part A of the 25 percent recognizable needs test. This Part A test allows the standard work-related deduction ($120) and a disregard of 1/3 of the remaining income. If the applicant fails this test, the household is ineligible for TANF.

Note: For this purpose, an applicant household is one that has not received TANF in any state in the four months before applying.

A—1425.3 90% Earned Income Deduction

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Applicant households that pass Part A of the recognizable needs test and all other households must pass Part B of the test (see A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests). After subtracting the standard work-related expense, 90 percent of the remaining earnings (up to a cap of $1,400) is subtracted. This deduction is allowed for each employed household member who is eligible for it. The individual can receive this deduction for four months in a 12-month period. The four months do not have to be consecutive. Note: A month in which a full-family sanction is imposed is not counted as one of the 90 percent earned income deduction (EID) months.

The 12-month period is a fixed period that begins with the first month the 90 percent deduction is used. The first month that counts as a used month is the first month the individual receives a cash benefit that includes the 90 percent deduction. This period is referred to as the 90 percent EID eligibility period.

If the individual has not used all four months of the deduction within the 90 percent EID eligibility period, a new fixed 12-month period and four new months of the 90 percent EID are allowed after the first 12-month period ends. The new 12-month period begins with the first month that the individual uses the 90 percent deduction again.

If the household member received the 90 percent deduction for four months in a 12-month period, the member may not receive it again until:

- TANF is denied and remains denied for one full benefit month; and
- 12 calendar months have passed since the denial. This 12-month period is known as the 90 percent EID ineligibility period and begins with the first full month of denial after the individual used the fourth month of the 90 percent deduction.

A—1425.3.1 Who Is Eligible for the 90% Earned Income Deduction

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

A household member is eligible to receive the 90 percent EID if:

- the individual has not previously received the deduction for four months in the individual's 12-month period; and
- the individual's needs:
 - are included in the certified group; or
 - would be included except the individual is disqualified for noncompliance with child support, Social Security number (SSN), Choices, third-party resource (TPR) requirements, intentional program violation (IPV), or for reasons other than alien/citizenship status, TANF state time limit policies, and the TANF unmarried minor parent domicile requirement.

TIERS default settings automatically allow the 90 percent EID for eligible EDG members. The 90 percent EID page appears by choosing the screen from the left navigation bar. The effective begin and end dates are used to allow the deduction for specific months.

An individual may decline use of the deduction even if it results in EDG denial without its use. The individual may decline at any time, but the deduction may not be removed retroactively. Any removal from the budget will take effect according to timely change processing for future months.

If the client wishes to decline the deduction, the client answers "yes" to the questions, "Does individual decline the TANF 90 percent earned income deduction?" and "Does individual decline the FMA 90 percent earned income deduction?" on the 90 percent Earned Income Deduction – Details screen. TIERS requires answers for both questions.

A—1425.3.2 Who Is Not Eligible for the 90% Earned Income Deduction

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

An individual is not allowed the deduction if any of the situations listed in A-1425, Earned Income Deductions, apply to the individual.

An individual is not allowed the deduction if the member's needs are not included in the EDG because the member is disqualified due to:

- alien/citizenship status;
- TANF state time limits policies; or
- TANF unmarried minor parent domicile requirement.

The deduction is not allowed if the individual has already received the 90 percent deduction for four months in a 12-month period. When the 90 percent ineligibility period ends, the deduction is not allowed again until the individual obtains new employment. The new employment must begin after the 90 percent ineligibility period ends.

A—1425.3.3 Removing the 90% Earned Income Deduction

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

After the individual receives the 90 percent deduction for four months in a 12-month period, the deduction ends. TIERS automatically removes the deduction and rebudgets the EDG for the appropriate month based on advisor entries.

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

A—1427 Homeless Shelter Standard

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The homeless shelter standard shown in C-121.1, Deduction Amounts, is budgeted for any month the household:

- meets the definition of a homeless household;
- has any amount of out-of-pocket shelter expenses; and
- chooses the standard.

Households that choose the homeless shelter standard are not entitled to any other shelter deductions or utility standards.

Note: Advisors must ensure that the household has out-of-pocket shelter expenses before allowing the deduction.

A—1428 Medical Deduction

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

A medical deduction is allowed for households with a member who meets the definition of elderly in B-431, Definition of Elderly, or of having a disability in B-432, Definition of Disability, if the:

- member who is elderly or has a disability incurred the expense; and
- medical expenses exceed $35 a month. If two or more people in the household qualify for a medical deduction, combine the medical expenses. If an applicant has been or will be reimbursed for a medical expense, deduct only the nonreimbursed amount.

Expenses that the household is still legally obligated to pay are allowed for someone who was a household member:

- immediately before entering the hospital or nursing home; or
- when the member died.

A—1428.1 Allowable Medical Expenses

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

SNAP

Deductions are allowed for the following medical expenses:

- medical care provided by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional (e.g., registered dietician);
- dental care provided by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional;
- psychotherapy care provided by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional;
- rehabilitation care provided by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional;
- hospitalization provided by a facility recognized by the state;
- outpatient treatment provided by a facility recognized by the state;
- nursing care provided by a facility recognized by the state;
- nursing home care provided by a facility recognized by the state;
- diapers for children with disabilities;
- incontinence pads for elderly or adults with disabilities;
- drugs prescribed by a licensed practitioner (including insulin);
- over-the-counter medication (including aspirin, ibuprofen, medicated creams, etc.) when approved by a licensed practitioner or other qualified health professional;
- medical supply costs (including rental) are deductible with a prescription or approval;
- sickroom equipment costs (including rental) are deductible with a prescription or approval;
- adaptive aids;
- health insurance policy costs (including dental insurance, vision insurance, etc.);
- hospitalization insurance policy costs (including hospital indemnity insurance, etc.);
- Medicare premiums, cost-sharing and deductibles;
- Spend Down expenses incurred by Medicaid recipients;
- Medicaid Buy-In for Children (MBIC) premium payments;
- dentures;
- hearing aids;
- prostheses;
- service animals. Cost of securing and maintaining any animal trained to serve the needs of a person with disabilities, such as a guide dog or dog to help the hearing impaired. This includes dog food and veterinarian bills;
- eyeglasses prescribed by a qualified health professional;
- lodging costs to obtain medical services;
- care costs. Cost of maintaining an attendant, home health aide, child care provider or housekeeper necessary because of age or illness. In addition to wages, deduct an amount equal to a one-person SNAP allotment if the applicant furnishes most of the attendant's meals. If the applicant has attendant care costs that could qualify under both medical and dependent care deductions, consider the cost a medical expense;
- repayment of a loan used to pay medical expenses; or
- transportation costs (such as trips to the doctor, hospital, therapy, drug store, or paying someone to drive the person for medical services, etc.).

Note: When determining transportation costs, the person may choose to use 56 cents per mile instead of keeping track of actual expenses.

Deductions are not allowed for the following medical expenses:

- the costs of policies that do not specifically cover medical costs (such as income maintenance or lump sums for death or dismemberment);
- food supplements that can be purchased with SNAP, such as Ensure and baby formula, even if prescribed by a physician;
- paid or past due expenses billed prior to the initial certification period (that is, before the person was receiving SNAP);
- medical marijuana, even if prescribed by a physician; or

- herbal products. (A form of dietary supplements derived from plants used to improve or maintain one's health which usually do not require a prescription.) Examples include: melatonin, valerian root, echinacea, flaxseed, ginseng, ginkgo, St. John's wort and garlic.

A—1428.2 Budgeting Medical Deductions

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

SNAP

Households that have a member who is eligible for a medical expense are eligible for a deduction using either the standard medical expense (SME) or actual medical expenses.

At ...	then budget ...	and verify ...
application, if the household has medical expenses greater than $35 and less than or equal to $170 a month,	the SME,	the household has medical expenses greater than $35.
application, if the household has medical expenses greater than $170 a month,	actual medical expenses,	the actual monthly medical expense(s). If the household chooses not to provide verification of expenses exceeding $170, then allow the SME instead of actual expenses. The household must provide proof of expenses exceeding $35.
redetermination, if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the household already has actual medical expenses greater than $35 and less than or equal to $170, and there is no change, or there is a change in the amount but the monthly medical expense is still greater than $35 and is less than or equal to $170, 	the SME,	N/A, no verification is required.
redetermination, if the household does not already have the SME budgeted and the household states an eligible member has medical expenses greater than $35 and less than or equal to $170,	the SME,	the household has medical expenses greater than $35.
redetermination, if the household does not already have actual medical expenses budgeted and the household states an eligible member has medical expenses greater than $170,	actual medical expenses,	the actual monthly medical expense(s). If the household chooses not to provide verification of expenses exceeding $170, then allow the SME instead of actual expenses. The household must provide proof of expenses exceeding $35.
redetermination, if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> the household has actual medical expenses greater than $170 already budgeted, and there is a change in the monthly amount of more than $25, 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> the SME if the new total is greater than $35 and less than or equal to $170, or actual medical expenses if the new total exceeds $170, 	the change in medical expenses.

When the expense ends, the advisor must end date the expense record in TIERS.

TIERS will subtract $35 from the SME or actual medical expenses to determine the net amount of the medical deduction.

If a member is disqualified for:

- SNAP Employment and Training (E&T), a felony drug conviction, IPV, refusal to cooperate with the quality control review process, or being a fugitive, and is billed for or pays medical expenses — the full deduction is allowed; or
- SSN noncompliance, citizenship requirements, alien status, or the 18-50 work requirement, and is billed for or pays medical expenses for the disqualified member's own expenses or the medical expenses of another household member who is elderly or has a disability — the expense or the standard medical deduction is prorated among all household members and the pro rata share for people disqualified for SSN noncompliance, citizenship requirements, alien status, or the 18-50 work requirement is not allowed. The full medical deduction is allowed if the medical expenses are paid by an eligible household member.

If the disqualified person has the only income, the expenses are considered to be paid by that person.

The following information describes how the SME or actual medical expenses are prorated in the event a disqualified member pays for some or all the allowable medical expenses.

Eligibility for the SME or actual medical expenses is determined based on verified medical expenses of all aged members or members with disabilities, including a disqualified member. The SME is used if the total verified medical expenses are greater than $35 and less than or equal to $170. The household may claim actual expenses if the total verified expenses exceed $170.

If ...	then ...	and ...
the household is eligible for the SME,	prorate the SME among all household members,	use the eligible household members' portion of the SME in the budget. In TIERS, enter the amount each member actually pays, and TIERS prorates accordingly.
the household is eligible for actual medical expenses,	prorate the portion paid by the disqualified member among all household members,	add the eligible household members' prorated portion to the actual amount of medical expenses any eligible member pays and use this amount in the budget. In TIERS, enter the amount each member actually pays, and TIERS prorates accordingly.

Example 1 (SME): The household consists of three eligible members with total verified monthly medical expenses of $75 and one member who is disqualified due to citizenship. The disqualified person pays for half of the medical expenses, and an eligible person pays for the other half. The household is eligible for the SME because the total verified monthly medical expenses are $75 (greater than $35 but less than $170). The SME is prorated among the eligible members, because the disqualified member pays for part of the medical expenses.

$$\begin{aligned} $170 / 4 &= $42.50 \\ $42.50 \times 3 &= $127.50 \end{aligned}$$

In TIERS, a medical expense of $37.50 ($75/2) is entered for both the disqualified person and for the eligible member, which is the amount of monthly medical expenses each member actually pays, and TIERS will budget a prorated SME of $127.50.

Example 2 (Actual Medical Expenses): The household situation is the same as Example 1, except that the monthly amount of verified medical expenses is $200. The disqualified member pays $100 of the medical expenses. The household is eligible for the actual amount of medical expenses. The amount the disqualified member pays is prorated and added to the portion paid by the eligible member to determine the total amount of the medical deduction.

$$\begin{aligned} $100 / 4 &= $25 \\ $25 \times 3 &= $75 \\ $75 + $100 &= $175 \end{aligned}$$

The following amounts are entered in TIERS:

- $100, for the eligible member; and
- $100, for the disqualified member (TIERS will prorate the allowable amount to $75).

Finally, $35 must be subtracted from the total deduction to determine the net amount of the medical deduction (TIERS does this as a final step).

A—1428.2.1 Determining Allowable Costs for Individuals with a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan Part D

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

If the applicant is enrolled in Medicare Drug Plan Part D, the individual's prescription costs are budgeted following normal rules by reasonably anticipating the individual's unreimbursed out-of-pocket expenses.

Note: The household may opt for the SME.

A—1428.3 Budgeting Options

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

SNAP

When averaging the medical expenses, the SME is budgeted for each month of the certification period, as long as the household's allowable averaged monthly medical expense is greater than $35. If the expense recurs monthly or more often, and the medical expense exceeds $35 and is less than or equal to $170 a month, the SME is budgeted for each month of the certification period. When allowable medical expenses for the household exceed the SME, the actual medical expenses are budgeted. The following chart is used to determine when to budget the SME or actual medical expenses.

If the expense ...	then budget the ...
recurs less often than monthly and the amount averaged for each month is less than or equal to $35,	actual amount of verified actual medical expense in the month billed, or use the SME in the month billed if the medical expense is greater than $35 and less than or equal to $170.
recurs less often than monthly and the amount averaged for each month is greater than $35 and less than or equal to $170 a month,	SME for each month of the certification period.
recurs less often than monthly and the amount averaged for each month is greater than $170,	averaged amount of actual verified medical expenses for each month. Budget the SME only if the household chooses to use the SME or fails to provide enough verification to qualify for actual medical expenses.
occurs one time and the amount averaged over the certification period is less than or equal to $35 a month,	actual amount of verified medical expenses in the month billed, or use the SME in the month billed if the medical expense is greater than $35 and is less than or equal to $170.
occurs one time and the amount averaged over the certification period is greater than $35 and less than or equal to $170 a month,	SME for each month of the certification period.
occurs one time and the amount averaged over the certification period is greater than $170 a month,	averaged amount of the actual medical expenses for each month. Budget the SME only if the household chooses to use the SME or fails to provide enough verification to qualify for actual medical expenses.

Note: A deduction is allowed for payments made on a monthly payment plan set up before the expense became past due.

A—1428.4 Change in Medical Expenses During Certification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

SNAP households are not required to report changes in medical expenses during the certification period.

Households should be advised that a new one-time expense or change in a recurring medical expense that is reported and verified timely may be budgeted in the certification period.

If the household voluntarily reports a change in medical expenses and the change is reported and verified timely, the advisor must consider the newly reported change to determine if the individual should consider switching from the SME to actual expenses.

A medical expense, paid or unpaid, is reported timely if it is reported before it becomes past due to the provider:

- anytime during the certification period, or
- at the next redetermination.

A one-time medical expense reported and verified too late to budget in the current certification period may be deducted in the first month of the next certification period or averaged over the next certification period.

When the household timely reports and provides timely verification of a paid or unpaid expense (one-time medical expense or recurring) at the redetermination interview:

- the expense is deducted in the first month of the new certification period, or
- averaged over the new certification period.

When a change in medical expenses is reported during the certification period by a source other than a household member or the authorized representative, act on the change if it is considered to be verified at the time of receipt and the change can be made without contacting the household for additional information or verification. Note: If the change would require contact with the household, do not act on the change until the household is recertified.

A—1428.5 Switching Between Actual Medical Expenses and the Standard Medical Expense

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Households may switch between actual expenses and the SME at redetermination. Households may also switch at an incomplete review if changes in medical expenses are reported and it is to the household's advantage to switch from the SME to actual medical expenses.

A—1429 Shelter Costs

Revision 20-3; Effective July 1, 2020

SNAP

A deduction is allowed for all households that incur a shelter expense using the following rules:

- Households may deduct monthly shelter costs that exceed 50 percent of the income remaining after other deductions.
- The shelter deduction cannot exceed the maximum shown in C-121.1, Deduction Amounts, unless there is a member of the household who is elderly or has a disability as defined in B-430, Households with Elderly Members or Members with a Disability.

Exception: Households with members who are disqualified for not meeting SSN requirements, alien status requirements or for reaching Able Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) time limits are ineligible for an uncapped excess shelter deduction. Household members who are disqualified for another reason are eligible for the uncapped excess shelter deduction when there is a member of the household who is elderly or has a disability.

- The uncapped deduction is not allowed for households that only receive a medical deduction for a former member.
- A deduction is allowed only for charges for the shelter the household currently occupies. Exceptions:
 - If a required household member is employed in another city and maintains a residence there, shelter costs are allowed for both the regular residence and the residence maintained where the member is employed. The household may claim one of the utility allowances.
 - See A-1429.2, Shelter Deductions for an Unoccupied Home.
- Households sharing shelter costs are both entitled to a shelter deduction for their share.
- Shelter expenses paid by an exempt vendor payment or reimbursement are not deductible. Exception: A deduction for utility expenses as noted in A-1429.3, Utility Allowances, is allowed.
- One of the utility allowances or standards is allowed.

Note: The utility and telephone standards for households with disqualified members or households sharing utility expenses must not be prorated.
- Property taxes that are averaged as explained in A-1411, Rules That Apply to Deductions, are deducted, even if the expense is paid or past due when reported.

A—1429.1 Allowable Shelter Costs

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Allowable costs include:

- Rent, mortgage payments and other continuing charges leading to ownership of the property, such as mandatory maintenance and homeowner association fees, are allowed.

Notes:

Costs to repay a loan are allowable shelter costs only if the lender places a lien on the property as a result of the loan. The loan may be for home repair/improvement or for purposes unrelated to the home, but the payments due are considered a mortgage if the loan results in a lien on the property.

Maintenance fees must be mandatory as a condition for the continuation of residence for renters and homeowners. The fees must be a required fee payment, not a requirement to maintain the property.

- Taxes and insurance on the shelter, but not its contents, are allowed. The cost of insurance for the shelter and the contents are allowed if they cannot be separated.
- Charges for fuel, utilities, sewage, and garbage collection are used to determine whether the household may be eligible for one of the utility expense deductions found in A-1429.3, Utility Allowances.
- Expenses related to a telephone, including a cell phone, are used to determine whether the household may be eligible for a standard telephone deduction.
- Unreimbursed expenses for the repair of a home damaged by a natural disaster are allowed.

Note: Shelter costs do not include one-time deposits.

A—1429.2 Shelter Deductions for an Unoccupied Home

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The actual shelter costs are budgeted for a home (excluding utility costs) unoccupied because of employment or training, illness (including receiving medical treatment), natural disaster or casualty loss (fire, flood, state of disrepair, etc.), if the:

- household intends to return to the home;
- current occupants are not claiming the same shelter costs the owner is claiming for SNAP purposes; and
- home is not leased or rented.

The household may claim both the shelter costs of its current residence and the cost of the unoccupied home, and a single utility standard (if the household is eligible for one), but no more than the maximum excess shelter deduction (if applicable).

A—1429.3 Utility Allowances

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The appropriate utility allowance is determined at application, redetermination, and when the individual reports a change in utility expenses.

A—1429.3.1 Standard Utility Allowance (SUA)

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

SNAP

The SUA is budgeted in the amount shown in C-121.1, Deduction Amounts. No other expenses related to utilities are allowed when using the SUA. The SUA is allowed for households that:

- have or anticipate out-of-pocket heating or cooling costs separate from their rent or mortgage payments during the next 12 months; or
- have received a Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) payment (or other similar energy assistance payment) more than $20 annually in the previous 12 months or in the current month.

Notes:

- Cooling costs are limited to the cost related to the operation of an air conditioning system, an evaporative cooler (or swamp box) or window unit air conditioner(s). A fan is not considered a cooling cost for the purposes of qualifying for the SUA.
- When households share heating or cooling costs and a meter (whether they live together or not), each household is eligible for the SUA.

A—1429.3.2 Basic Utility Allowance (BUA)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The BUA is budgeted in the amount shown in C-121.1, Deduction Amounts, for households that incur utility expenses other than just a telephone expense but do not have heating or cooling costs separate from their rent or mortgage payments. No other expenses related to utilities are allowed when using the BUA.

When households share utility costs other than a telephone but do not have heating or cooling costs (whether they live together or not), each household is eligible for the BUA.

A-1430, Standard Deduction

A—1430 Standard Deduction

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The standard deduction is budgeted as shown in C-121.1, Deduction Amounts, for each household.

Medical Programs except TP 45

All households receive the standard MAGI income disregard listed in C-131.4, Standard MAGI Income Disregard, by MAGI household size. This disregard is equal to five percentage points of the Federal Poverty Income Limit (FPIL) and is applied when calculating MAGI household income, as explained in A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests, Medical Programs, Step 4.

A-1440, Verification Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TP 45

If an individual fails to provide a required verification of a deduction, do not deny the EDG. Disallow the deduction. If the individual subsequently provides verification of the deduction, use report of change guidelines to budget the deduction.

TANF

Dependent care must be verified at application, complete review, or if the amount changes.

The following amounts must be verified at application, complete review, or if the amount changes:

- actual amount of child support and alimony paid to persons outside the home, and
- actual amount of payment to persons outside the home whom a person can claim as tax dependents or is legally obligated to support.

SNAP

Dependent care expenses must be verified at application, recertification, and when the individual reports a change in dependent care if verification can be obtained during the interview. If verification cannot be obtained during the interview, the individual's statement may be accepted without verification if the household states the total dependent care expense for the EDG does not exceed $300 a month and it is not questionable. The EDG is pended only if the expense claimed is questionable or exceeds a total of $300 a month.

The following amounts must be verified:

- household's legal obligation to pay child support:
 - by viewing a court order, administrative order, legally enforceable separation agreement, other official document; or
 - using a collateral contact with access to an official document.
- amount of the child support obligation.
- actual amount of child support paid by viewing:
 - Attorney General or county registry collection and distribution records,
 - canceled checks,
 - wage withholding statements,
 - withholding information from unemployment compensation, or
 - statements from the custodial parent regarding direct payments or third-party payments the household pays or expects to pay on behalf of the custodial parent.

Note: Documents used to verify the household's legal obligation to pay child support are not acceptable verification of the household's actual payments.

- medical expenses. See A-1428.2, Budgeting Medical Deductions.
- rent or mortgage costs if the expense is questionable or if a regional requirement. If the requested proof is not provided, the expense is not allowed.
- shelter cost of an unoccupied home at initial application, changes, and recertifications.

Medical Programs except TP 45

All MAGI expenses must be verified at application, complete review, or if the amount changes.

Note: A federal income tax return from the previous year is valid verification for MAGI expenses until the client files a new federal income tax return but no later than April 15 or the official tax filing day of the following year. If a person files an extension and submits proof of an extension, such as a copy of IRS Form 4868, the previous year's federal income tax return is valid until Oct. 15. If an applicant or recipient does not file federal income taxes, they will not be able to provide verification and, therefore, will not be able to claim any MAGI expenses other than alimony paid.

Date of Divorce or Separation Agreement for Alimony Paid

- divorce decree;
- separation agreement;

The Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis, and Treatment (EPSDT) service is Medicaid's federally-required comprehensive preventive child health service (medical, dental, and case management) for persons from birth through 20 years of age. In Texas, EPSDT is known as Texas Health Steps. Through Texas Health Steps, children and young adults receive regularly scheduled medical and dental checkups. The Texas Health Steps program:

- facilitates early detection and treatment of medical and dental problems;
- provides health supervision for infants; and

- enables persons to establish links with primary health care providers who can meet future needs for care.

Texas Health Steps' mission is to:

- expand the public's and recipients' awareness of existing Texas Health Steps services;
- encourage and increase use of Texas Health Steps services; and
- make comprehensive services available through private and public providers so that infants, children, and adolescents can receive medical and dental care before health problems become chronic and irreversible damage occurs.

Texas Health Steps services comprise the following:

Medical Checkups— Texas Health Steps medical checkups include:

- a comprehensive health and developmental history (including developmental and mental health, nutrition and tuberculosis screenings);
- a complete physical examination;
- laboratory tests (including lead screening);
- routine immunizations;
- health education;
- dental screening and referral to a dentist;
- vision screening;
- hearing screening; and
- referrals to other health care providers as needed.

Texas Health Steps offers checkups according to a recommended schedule. The frequency varies according to the stages of growth. In addition to an inpatient newborn screening, children and young adults may receive up to 29 outpatient checkups. The recommended schedule for periodic medical checkups is:

- Birth to 35 months — 11 health checkups to ensure:
 - proper growth and development; and
 - immunizations are administered according to the Advisory Committee on Childhood Immunization Practices (ACIP) recommended schedule;
- 3 years through 5 years — three health checkups (once a year);
- 6 years through 10 years — five health checkups (once a year); and
- 11 years through 20 years — 10 health checkups (once a year).

Dental Services — Texas Health Steps provides comprehensive dental care, including emergency, preventive, therapeutic, and orthodontic services. Children and young adults are eligible to receive routine dental checkups every six months starting at six months of age. Emergency or medically necessary dental services are available to children and young adults at any time from birth through age 20.

Vision Services — Each Texas Health Steps medical checkup includes:

- a vision screening;
- diagnosis and treatment, including eyeglasses every two years for defects in vision; and
- one eye examination per state fiscal year (September through August).

Lost or destroyed eyeglasses are replaced with no limit on the number of replacements. The person may receive additional services that are medically necessary because of a vision change.

Hearing Services — Texas Health Steps medical checkups also include a hearing screening. Additional testing for hearing problems, as well as diagnosis, treatment, and hearing aids, are available through the Medicaid Program.

Case Management for Children and Pregnant Women — To encourage the use of cost-effective health and health-related care, Case Management for Children and Pregnant Women provides services to children from birth through age 20 who have a serious health condition or who are at risk of developing a serious health condition. Services are also provided to high-risk pregnant women of all ages. Together, the case manager and the family assess the medical, social and educational needs of the eligible recipient.

Texas Health Steps Comprehensive Care Program (CCP) — This program provides expanded benefits to Texas Health Steps persons. Under CCP, people under age 21 are eligible for any medically necessary and appropriate health care service covered by Medicaid. Limitations of the current Texas Medicaid Program do not apply to these people. Expanded benefits include durable medical equipment and supplies, prosthetics, orthotics, private-duty nursing, and therapeutic services.

A—1531.1 Accessibility of Texas Health Steps Services

Medical Programs (except TP 08, TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 42 and TP 56)

HHSC's Texas Health Steps Outreach and Informing contractors and local Texas Works staff provide initial and periodic outreach and information to help people access Texas Health Steps services. For example, the contractors and local Texas Works staff can help find a Texas Health Steps provider or provide information about HHSC's Medical Transportation Program (MTP). The Texas Health Steps Outreach and Informing contractor can also help with scheduling a Texas Health Steps appointment.

When a person under 21 is certified for Medicaid, the enrollment broker sends written information to households that include a welcome notification at certification and letters when a child's checkup is due per the Texas Health Steps periodicity schedule.

MTP provides non-ambulance transportation to a doctor or dentist office, hospital, drug store, or any place a person may receive Medicaid services. MTP is available to Medicaid-eligible people and necessary attendants when they have no other means of transportation. Children 14 and under must travel with a parent or guardian, and children 15–17 may travel alone if a parent or guardian fills out the proper consent form. An HHSC contractor or a private contractor of the person's choice, such as a parent, friend, neighbor or volunteer may provide transportation. A private contractor:

- must have a written agreement with the MTP before providing the service; and
- will be reimbursed for mileage to an authorized facility at the state rate.

If it is medically necessary for a person through age 20 to be away from home overnight, MTP approves cost-effective meals, lodging, and up-front funds for the person and the person's attendant.

Households may contact MTP by calling toll-free 877-633-8747.

Complete Form H1093, Texas Health Steps Extra Effort Referral, if a household requests help accessing MTP services.

For more information on MTP and a list of frequently asked questions visit the MTP page.

Medical Programs (except TP 08, TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 42 and TP 56)

Texas Health Steps is a Medicaid health care program for children from birth through age 20. The Texas Health Steps services are delivered by both public and private providers. Physicians, dentists, advance practice nurses, physician assistants, clinics, hospitals, Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs) and others offer Texas Health Steps services to eligible people. Providers must enroll in Medicaid and enroll as a Texas Health Steps provider.

To comply with the Frew lawsuit requirements, staff play a role in educating people about the Texas Health Steps program. Within the Texas Health Steps program, "outreach" and "informing" are terms applied to efforts, strategies, plans, events, organized activities, and courses of action taken to advertise, educate and increase the number of Texas Health Steps checkups.

Medical Programs (except TP 08, TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 42 and TP 56)

To help inform Medicaid recipients, Texas Health Steps Outreach and Informing staff provide the following materials to HHSC:

- A desk reference containing Texas Health Steps program information. The desk reference has toll-free numbers, call center hours and website addresses for Texas Health Steps and the Medicaid Transportation Program. The desk reference contains information that is consistent with the current Texas Health Steps periodicity schedule.
- The Texas Health Steps brochure, "Don't Miss a Beat," presents easy to understand information about the Texas Health Steps program.

- The Appointment Education Brochure, known as “Keep Your Child's Checkups in Check,” provides helpful tips to make doctor or dentist visits a positive experience.
- A current Texas Health Steps wallet card, “Checkups Help Children Stay Healthy!” is given to every Medicaid-eligible household with a child through age 20. Families use the cards as a quick reference for when a child is due for a Texas Health Steps dental or medical checkup, based on the child's age. The back of the card provides important information on immunizations.

Each household is given the brochures and a wallet card at:

- initial certification or any time there is a reapplication;
- renewal, if the household has not complied with Texas Health Steps requirements and a face to face interview is required; or
- any time a household requests them.

The materials can be sent by mail if the person is interviewed by phone or when no interview is conducted.

Texas Health Steps materials may be ordered online.

Supervisors must ensure that all staff have the following Texas Health Steps materials and use them as required:

- a desk reference;
- "Don't Miss a Beat" and "Keep Your Child's Checkups in Check " brochures;
- "Checkups Help Children Stay Healthy!" Texas Health Steps wallet cards; and
- Form H1093, Texas Health Steps Extra Effort Referral. This form is used to help people who need:
 - to schedule a Texas Health Steps checkup or appointment;
 - more information on Texas Health Steps medical, dental and case management services; and
 - services other than those listed above.

Fax Form H1093 to Texas Health Steps Outreach and Informing staff at 512-533-3867.

A—1531.5 Compliance Requirements

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

TP 44 and TP 48

Starting at 2 years old, children under 18 must comply with the regimen of care prescribed by the Texas Health Steps Program. At the first redetermination, check for overdue screening dates. If one exists, contact the caretaker and allow the caretaker to self-declare that the child:

- had the screening;
- is scheduled for the screening; or
- has not been screened, but has good cause.

If unable to contact the caretaker by phone, send Form H1024, Subject: Self-Declaration Notice, to obtain the information.

If the household does not return Form H1024, deny the EDG for failure to provide. If the household returns Form H1024 indicating noncompliance, schedule the caretaker for a phone interview and emphasize the importance of the checkups. Use the Health Care Orientation Quick Reference Guide and Enrollment Script, when a recipient has an interview due to noncompliance with Texas Health Steps or Health Care Orientation. If the person does not keep the appointment, deny the EDG for Noncompliance with Healthcare Orientation. Note: The denial applies to all Children's Medicaid EDGs for the household, except TP 45 for newborns.

At the next redetermination, if TIERS still shows the same overdue date for the child, the caretaker must provide verification that the child had the checkup or has a phone interview appointment before the redetermination.

Deny the Medicaid EDGs for all the children in the family, except TP 45 coverage for newborns, if any certified child's Texas Health Steps screening is overdue and the caretaker does not comply with the requirements, show good cause or have a phone appointment. A parent or caretaker may self-declare on the Form H1024 or by phone if there is a good cause reason that the child has not had the checkup.

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

Medical Programs

Applicants must be informed that:

- they will receive a Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card if certified;
- they must show the Medicaid ID card to medical providers;
- each individual can receive three paid prescriptions a month;

Exception: The following Medicaid recipients are eligible for unlimited paid prescriptions:

- managed care individuals;
- nursing facility residents; and
- individuals under age 21, through the month of their 21st birthday.

Note: Lost or destroyed prescriptions may be replaced by contacting the pharmacy that originally filled the prescriptions. The pharmacy can call the vendor drug toll-free pharmacy provider line to obtain procedures for overriding the system.

- if they lose their Medicaid ID card, they can request a new one by calling 1-855-827-3748 (providers can still verify Medicaid eligibility without the card); and
- Medicaid will not reimburse them for any bills they pay.

Note: If the household has members who are elderly or have disabilities who wish to apply for Medicaid, but who do not qualify for any Medical Programs for families and children, refer them to HHSC's MEPD programs. Staff must provide the household with the address and telephone number of the nearest office, or the self-service website www.hhsc.state.tx.us/help/index.shtml.

Medical Programs (except TA 31, TP 32, TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36 and TP 56)

Applicants living in a managed care area must be informed that they are required to select a managed care plan and primary care physician.

TP 40

Encourage the pregnant woman to start receiving prenatal care.

A—1532.1 Spend Down EDGs

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 56 and TP 32

For applications with spend down, staff are required to verbally explain the following:

- Children or pregnant women in the certified group are not eligible for Medicaid until spend down is met (i.e., the household's excess income is depleted with medical expenses incurred by members of the budget group).
- TIERS mails Form H1120, Medical Bills Transmittal/Insurance Information, and Form H3087S, Spend Down Medicaid Identification, to the individual. Form H1120 provides the Medically Needy Clearinghouse with information needed to determine spend down for clients and provides the individual with information needed to submit medical bills to the Clearinghouse. Form H3087S summarizes the spend-down amount and potential eligible months and explains to providers how they can assist the individual by submitting bills.
- The household or a provider must submit bills to the Medically Needy Clearinghouse. The Clearinghouse must receive the bills within 30 days of the later of the following dates:
 - the day Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, processes; or
 - the last day of the application month.

The individual should be advised to contact the Clearinghouse if the 30-day time limit is near and there is a delay getting bills from a provider, third-party resources (TPR) information, etc. The Clearinghouse allows bills paid during the month(s) of potential eligibility by:

- members of the household composition, and
- state or local government agencies (County Indigent Health Care, Children with Special Health Care Needs, MIHIA, etc.).
- The Clearinghouse also allows unpaid bills that are itemized regardless of when they were incurred. Itemized bills must include:
 - name of the provider,
 - date the service was provided,
 - date(s) and amount(s) paid toward the bill, and
 - balance due.

If a bill was incurred 60 days or more before the applicant submits it, the applicant must provide a current itemized statement.

Staff should assist the individual in determining whether bills are current, itemized, and complete, if requested.

- The individual must submit claims to TPRs, if any, before submitting the bills to the Clearinghouse. When submitting the bills, the individual must provide the Clearinghouse with verification that a TPR will not pay certain bills or portions of bills. An Explanation of Benefits (EOB) provides this information.
- The individual must answer the Clearinghouse's request for additional information no later than 30 days after the:
 - last day of the application month, or
 - date of the Clearinghouse's request.

Staff should advise the applicant of the types of assistance available to help the individual with the spend-down process.

On the same day the advisor approves the EDG, the advisor gives or TIERS mails to the individual:

- Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action;
- Form H3087S, Spend Down Medicaid Identification;
- Form H1120, Medical Bills Transmittal/Insurance Information; and
- a preaddressed Clearinghouse envelope for the applicant to use to submit bills to the Clearinghouse.

Do not give Form H1120 to anyone other than the applicant or the applicant's AR. Explain that it is best to submit all bills at the same time because the Clearinghouse must establish a hierarchy when processing bills to meet spend down. This hierarchy ensures that spend down is met by nonreimbursable bills before reimbursable bills because nonreimbursable bills:

- were incurred before a month of potential eligibility, or
- are not for Medicaid-covered services.

A—1533 Transitional and Post Medicaid

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The individual should be informed that the household may be eligible for additional months of transitional Medicaid and child care if TP 08 is denied because of earned income (TP 07).

The household should be informed that they may be eligible for four additional months of post Medicaid if TP 08 is denied because of spousal support income.

The individual should also be informed that if the household is not eligible for transitional or post Medicaid, the household may be eligible for other medical program coverage.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

This includes food, clothing, housing, utilities, furniture, transportation, telephone, laundry, medical supplies not paid by Medicaid, and incidentals such as household equipment, supplies, and recreation for children. Staff must advise recipients that failure to use the benefits as required may result in HHSC establishing a protective payee (as explained in A-222, Who Is Not Included).

A—1554 Use of SNAP Benefits

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

SNAP

Staff must explain the following rules regarding use of SNAP benefits:

- SNAP benefits may be used to purchase food items and garden seeds at retailers approved by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). This includes approved online retailers. They may not be used for hot, ready-to-eat foods or food marketed to be heated in the store (except as listed in B-400, Special Households);
- SNAP benefits may not be used to pay online fees of any type, such as shipping, delivery, service or convenience fees;
- SNAP benefits may not be used to pay off charge accounts;
- Change is not given on EBT food account purchases; and
- Sales tax may not be charged on any item purchased with SNAP benefits.

A—1555 Use of One-Time Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (OTTANF) Benefits

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

OTTANF

Staff should ensure that OTTANF applicants understand that OTTANF benefits are intended as emergency cash assistance for families who do not currently receive TANF but who are otherwise eligible. In addition to meeting TANF requirements, the household must meet one of the four crisis criteria explained in A-2440, Determining Crisis Criteria (OTTANF).

HHSC issues a $1,000 payment with the intent that it will:

- resolve a short-term crisis,
- keep the household connected to the workforce, and
- serve as a diversion from ongoing TANF.

Staff shall explain the 12-month ineligibility period and obtain original signatures on Form H1072, One Time Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (OTTANF) Acknowledgement.

A-1610, Eligibility Requirement

Revision 19-1; Effective January 1, 2019

TANF

The following persons must attend school full time if they do not have a high school diploma or general equivalency diploma \(GED\):

- An eligible dependent child age 6 to 18 living with a caretaker or a second parent
- A teen parent younger than 19, even if disqualified

A child who is age 6 on or before Sept. 1 of the current school year must attend school.

Example 1: If a child turns age 6 on Aug. 31, school attendance must be verified at the next complete review on or after Sept. 1.

Example 2: If a child turns age 6 on Sept. 2, verification of school attendance is not required at the next complete review on or after Sept. 1, and no penalty should be imposed for not attending school.

If a child or teen parent who is home-schooled is attending school, the parent's statement that the child attends school at home is acceptable.

TANF

A child age 18, in school (high school, technical, or vocational) full time, and expected to graduate before or in the month of the student's 19th birthday is eligible for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) through the month of graduation.

A child who will not graduate until after the month of the student's 19th birthday is not eligible after the month of the student's 18th birthday.

Age	In School?	Graduation Month	Eligible?
16 or 17	Yes	N/A	Yes
16 or 17	No	N/A	Yes

Age	In School?	Graduation Month	Eligible?
18	Yes	Before or in the same month as 19th birthday	Yes, until graduation
18	Yes	After 19th birthday	No, not after month of 18th birthday
18	No	N/A	No
Over 19	N/A	N/A	No

SNAP and Medical Programs except TP 08 and TA 31

School attendance requirements are not applicable for these programs. For the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), if a child younger than 18 works and is in school, the child's earned income may be excluded. See A-1323.1, Children's Earned Income.

TP 08 and TA 31

School attendance requirements only apply when the only dependent child(ren) of a parent or caretaker relative applying for TP 08 or TA 31 is(are) age 18 at application and redetermination.

A child(ren) age 18 meets the school attendance requirements through the month of graduation when they:

- attend school in any of the following educational settings:
 - high school;
 - technical school;
 - vocational school;
 - trade school; or
 - home school;
- attend school full time; and
- are reasonably expected to graduate before or in the month of the student's 19th birthday.

The parent or caretaker relative is eligible for TP 08 or TA 31 through the month the child graduates if they meet all other eligibility criteria. A child who will not graduate until after the month of the student's 19th birthday is not considered a dependent child after the month of the student's 18th birthday.

Example 1: If there are two dependent children, one child is age 6 and the other child is age 18, and their parent is applying for TP 08, school attendance requirements do not apply to the child who is age 18 since there is another dependent child, age 6, for the TP 08 parent or caretaker relative to claim.

Example 2: If there are two dependent children both age 18 and their parent is applying for TP 08, school attendance requirements apply to both children because both children are age 18 and there are no other dependent children for the TP 08 parent or caretaker relative to claim.

A-1620, Determining Attendance

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

After the caretaker and second parent or teen parent sign Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement, staff must verify whether the child or teen parent met the school attendance requirement.

School attendance must be verified:

- at each complete review;
- when curing a school attendance penalty; and
- at application, if school is in session.

Notes:

- School is considered to be in session during holiday breaks.
- If an individual applies when school is not in session and indicates a child is not meeting school attendance requirements and will not meet the requirement when school begins, a full-family sanction is imposed. See A-2131.1, Initial Application.

At complete or incomplete review, if the child is determined to have 10 or fewer excused or unexcused absences per semester, no further action is required. If the child has more than 10 absences, Form H1086, School Attendance Verification, is used to request verification of school attendance. The school determines whether the child meets school attendance requirements, regardless of the number of absences.

At application, if verification is required, the application is pending for 10 days to allow the household time to cooperate. If the household has proof of the child's attendance or excused absences for a minimum of five consecutive school days during the 10-day pending period, the child is considered to be cooperating and no penalty is imposed.

Note: Accept verification for a different 10-day period if received prior to certification.

During the summer months, the advisor must verify whether a child or teen parent met the school attendance requirement since the last complete review. If the child or teen parent:

- met the school attendance requirement, no further action is required. The child or teen parent meets school attendance requirements by:
 - being promoted,
 - attending summer school, or
 - graduating.
- did not meet the school attendance requirement, a full-family sanction is imposed.

TANF, SNAP, TP 08 and TA 31

The local school system determines the criteria for half- or full-time attendance. A child meets the criteria even if he is out of school because of vacation, temporary illness, or family emergency.

Children with disabilities may attend fewer hours than other students. They may also receive instructions from a visiting teacher at home and still meet the school attendance requirements.

A child enrolled in a vocational adjustment program is in school full time.

A—1621 Exemptions from School Attendance Requirements

Revision 17-1; Effective January 1, 2017

TANF

A child is exempt from the school attendance requirements if the child:

- is eligible to participate in a school district's special education program;
- is at least age 16 and attends a course to prepare for the high school equivalency exam;
- is enrolled in the Texas Academy of Mathematics and Science;
- is enrolled in the Texas Academy of Leadership in the Humanities;
- is specifically exempted under another law;
- has a physical or mental condition of a temporary and remediable nature that makes it unfeasible for the child to attend school.

Staff must obtain a statement from the child's physician specifying the:

- child's medical condition; and
- anticipated period of the child's absences from school.

Deny TP 08 or TA 31 if the only dependent child(ren) who makes the person eligible for TP 08 or TA 31 is age 18 and:

- has graduated;
- is expected to graduate after the month of their 19 birthday. Note: A child who will not graduate until after the month of their 19th birthday is not considered a dependent child after the month of their 18th birthday;
- is not attending high school, technical school, vocational school, home school, or trade school full time; or

A—1631 Good Cause for Noncooperating with School Attendance

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, TP 08 and TA 31

Good cause for not cooperating with the school attendance requirement must be explored at:

- application,
- each complete review, and
- the individual's request.

Good cause exists if:

- the teen parent has a child under age 12 weeks; or
- no one in the home is willing and able to care for the child, and free child care is not available through the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) or the school district. The local workforce board should provide free child care paid by TWC.

The individual's statement about a household member's inability to provide care is acceptable. Good cause is allowed only if TWC and the local school district provide verification that they will not provide free child care.

A—1632 Curing the School Attendance Penalty

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

After a penalty is imposed, the child or teen parent can cure the penalty:

- by attending school with no unexcused absences for the next 30 days;
- by claiming good cause; or
- during the summer months by:
 - being promoted,
 - attending summer school, or
 - graduating.

The individual is responsible for reporting when the child or teen parent has cured the penalty or has good cause.

Note: See A-2151, Open Penalty at Reapplication in Pay for Performance, when curing an open school attendance noncooperation for a reapplication under pay for performance.

A-1640, Verification Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

School attendance must be verified:

- at each complete review. During the summer months, the advisor must determine whether the child or teen parent met the requirement since the last complete review;
- when curing a school attendance penalty; and
- at application, if school is in session. Notes:
 - School is considered to be in session during holiday breaks.
 - If an individual applies when school is not in session and indicates a child is not meeting school attendance requirements and will not meet the requirement when school begins, a full-family sanction is imposed. See A-2140, Full-Family Sanction.

TP 08 and TA 31

Advisors must verify full-time school attendance when the only dependent child(ren) of an individual requesting TP 08 or TA 31 is(are) age 18 at application and redetermination. When an individual on TP 08 has dependent children younger than age 18, no verification of school attendance is required for the younger children or for the 18-year-old.

During the summer months, staff must determine whether the dependent child met the school attendance requirements at the end of the previous school year and confirm that the child intends to meet the requirements when school begins.

A—1641 Verification Sources

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, TP 08 and TA 31

School attendance may be verified with the following sources:

- School attendance registrar records;
- Current report card;
- Form H1086, School Attendance Verification; or
- Statement from the individual indicating the child is home schooled, if not questionable. Note: If the individual's statement is questionable, have the individual provide copies of their curriculum, study materials, or other proof of coursework.

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

All Programs except TP 40 and Children's Medicaid

A thorough discussion of how a household meets expenses lets you check the accuracy of information the household provides. You must explore management at each application and redetermination. Also check management when a change affects how the household meets its expenses.

Ask two questions to examine management:

- How long has the household managed this way?
- Are the household's reported net income and resources enough to pay their expenses?

Require additional explanation and verification when management is questionable or negative.

Questionable Management — A household has questionable management when its billed basic expenses exceed reported net income and resources.

Negative Management — A household has negative management when its paid basic expenses exceed reported net income and resources plus support the Health and Human Services Commission excludes such as vendor payments.

A-1720, How to Evaluate Management

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs except TP 40 and Children's Medicaid

Explore past, present and future management. Review the previous Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, or Form H1010-R, Your Texas Works Benefits: Renewal Form, or case comments and verification before the interview. Decide if the information given in the past is consistent with the current situation.

Review the EDG and decide if the household's reported net income meets its basic expenses. Examples of basic expenses include:

- food;
- transportation;
- shelter;
- utilities; and
- recurring expenses such as:
 - credit card payments;
 - loans;
 - insurance;
 - clothing; and
 - disposable diapers.

Review Data Broker reports and other on-line verification sources to see if the household reported all their income, resources and expenses. Example: Credit reports may show regular payments that cause monthly expenses to exceed reported income. (See C-827, Data Broker Combined Report Sources With Credit Report.)

If net income and resources do not cover paid expenses, ask the household if anyone has income from:

- tips;
- commissions;
- overtime;
- bonuses; or
- part-time employment such as:

- paper routes;
- street vending;
- babysitting;
- sewing;
- laundry;
- lawn and garden work;
- carpentry; and
- seasonal labor.

Explore whether the household pays expenses by:

- borrowing from friends or relatives;
- receiving cash contributions or gifts;
- using checking or savings accounts; or
- having another source (HUD rental assistance, the Salvation Army, community-based organizations, insurance, or friends or relatives) pay expenses directly to the vendor.

If the applicant intends to repay a loan, determine how the applicant will pay it back.

If the loans, gifts, or vendor payments are temporary, set a special review to check management.

Exception: Do not set a special review for management for streamlined reporting households.

A-1800, Employment Services

A-1810, General Policy

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF and SNAP

The Employment Services Program (ESP) consists of two programs. They are Choices for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) individuals and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Employment and Training (E&T) for SNAP individuals. Recipients must participate in these programs unless exempt. If a nonexempt member does not comply, he may be subject to a penalty that results in a full-family sanction for TANF and either a denial or disqualification for SNAP.

TANF

The Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) and Local Workforce Development Boards (LWDBs) determine the level of Choices services to provide in each county according to available Choices resources. After coordination with state office, TWC and the LWDB designate a county to provide one of two service levels:

- full service; or
- minimum service.

Full Service Requirements

Each nonexempt TANF caretaker or second parent who lives in a full service Choices county must participate in Choices employment services if contacted. Nonexempt and exempt members in full service Choices counties may voluntarily participate in employment services at any time. Exempt individuals are eligible for the same services as nonexempt individuals.

Minimum Service Requirements

Individuals in minimum service Choices counties are exempt from participation requirements because of the lack of available Choices resources in the area (even when they are coded mandatory registrants). Individuals in minimum service counties may choose whether or not to participate in Choices services offered to them.

SNAP

Each nonexempt household member age 16 through 59 must be registered for employment services at initial certification.

Exception:

For expedited service, register the applicant being interviewed unless he is:

- exempt from registration; or
- a nonparticipating authorized representative.

A—1811 Strikers and Employment and Training (E&T)

Revision 01-1; Effective January 1, 2001

SNAP

A striker must comply fully with the work registration requirement. He does not have to accept employment at a location subject to a strike or lock-out. If a strike is prohibited under either the Taft-Hartley or Railway Labor Acts, Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) considers this a continuing offer of suitable employment to the striker. Failure by the striker to return to this employment, for any reason, is failure to comply with work registration requirements. This makes the entire household ineligible.

A—1821.1 Choices Exemptions

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

TANF

A member is exempt from participation if he is one of the following:

Code A (Child under 19 years of age) — A child, age 18 or younger.

Code C (Caring for an ill or disabled child in the home) — Needed at home to care for an ill or disabled child in the household, even if that person is not a member of the certified group. The caretaker must provide a completed Form H1836-B, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, to claim this exemption. This includes caring for a family member receiving disability benefits such as Supplemental Security Income (SSI). See A-1821.1.2, Claiming Exemption Due to Caring for a Disabled Household Member, for specific information of Form H1836-B expectations.

Note: This exemption can be applied to more than one parent/caretaker if there are two or more disabled individuals in the household and it requires more than one person to provide care for the disabled members.

Code E (Disability expected to last greater than 180 days) — Unable to work due to a mental or physical disability expected to last more than 180 days. To claim an exemption based on disability, the individual must provide a completed Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement. Receipt of Social Security benefits based on disability or Veterans Affairs (VA) disability benefits is not an automatic disability exemption for Choices. See A-1821.1.1, Claiming Exemption Due to Disability of Self, for specific information of Form H1836-A expectations.

Code F (60 years of age or older) — Age 60 or older. Obtain verification of age if not already established.

Code G (Meets Caretaker Exemption criteria, child in EDG) and Code R (Meets Caretaker Exemption criteria, child not in EDG) — A single parent or single caretaker relative caring for a child under age one at initial application. See A-1821.5, Caretaker Exemption, for information on setting the caretaker exemption end date.

Notes:

- Neither parent in a two-parent household may receive a caretaker exemption. This includes households with a disqualified legal parent or non-certified parent (for example, legal parent receiving SSI).
- Another relative caretaker whose spouse is in the household may not receive the caretaker exemption.

Code H (Cares for a disabled adult in the home, expected to last greater than 180 days) — Needed at home to care for a disabled adult in the household even if that person is not a member of the certified group and the disability is expected to last more than 180 days. The caretaker must provide a completed Form H1836-B to claim this exemption. This includes caring for a member receiving disability benefits such as SSI. See A-1821.1.2, Claiming Exemption Due to Caring for a Disabled Household Member, for specific information of Form H1836-B expectations.

Note: This exemption can be applied to more than one parent/caretaker if there are two or more disabled individuals in the household and it requires more than one person to provide care for the disabled members.

Code J (Not certified for TANF) — Not certified for TANF for reasons other than being a non-recipient parent (Codes X, V or Y) or sanctioned for Choices (Code W).

Code N (Time Limited Employment Hardship) — Eligible for a state time limit hardship exemption based on lack of available employment opportunities. See A-2543.3, Employment Hardship Exemption (ESP Code N), for detailed information about this work registration code.

Code Q (Time Limited Personal Hardship) — Eligible for a state time limit hardship exemption based on personal disability or caring for a disabled household member. See A-2543.2, Severe Personal Hardship Exemption (ESP Code Q), for detailed information about this work registration code.

Code T (Pregnant and unable to work) — Pregnant and unable to work. To claim an exemption based on pregnancy, the individual must provide proof of pregnancy on Form H3037, Report of Pregnancy, or another document containing the same information and completed by a physician, nurse, advanced nurse practitioner or other medical professional, and a completed Form H1836-A, verifying the disability is due to pregnancy. See A-1821.1.1, Claiming Exemption Due to Disability of Self, for specific information of Form H1836-A expectations.

Code U (Single grandparent 50 or older caring for child under 3) — A single grandparent, age 50 or over, caring for a child under age three. Obtain verification of age and TANF relationship, if not already established.

Code V (SSI Recipient) — An SSI parent.

Code X (Exhausted STL) — A parent who has exhausted his/her state time limits.

Code Y (Disqualified for TPR non-compliance, Disqualified for SSN non-compliance, Has an IPV, Disqualified for failure to report temporary absence of a certified child, Is a fugitive, Has a felony drug conviction, Disqualified for QC non-compliance, Minor parent domicile non-compliance) — A parent disqualified because of:

- third-party resource requirements;
- Social Security number requirements;
- intentional program violation;
- failure to report a child's absence;
- being a fugitive;
- having a felony drug conviction;
- failure to cooperate with Quality Control; or
- noncompliance with the unmarried minor parent domicile requirement.

A—1821.1.1 Claiming Exemption Due to Disability of Self

Revision 09-1; Effective January 1, 2009

Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, must be obtained to verify a personal disability due to illness, injury or pregnancy. In order for an individual to receive an exemption from Choices requirements due to illness or injury, the disability must be expected to last more than 180 days. A pregnancy-related disability does not have to last any specific length of time.

Note: Receipt of Social Security benefits based on disability or Veterans Affairs (VA) disability benefits is not an automatic disability exemption for Choices.

A new Form H1836-A must be obtained when the form in the file is more than six months old.

If the Form H1836-A on file at the time of review is less than six months old but will reach the six month period during a new certification period, advisors must:

- request a new Form H1836-A at the time of the review; or
- set a special review six months from the date Form H1836-A is signed to request a new Form H1836-A.

Example: The individual has a current Form H1836-A dated in July on file. The advisor interviews the individual for a periodic review in October. Form H1836-A is current at the time of the interview. The advisor may request a new Form H1836-A at the interview or set a special review for December to request a new Form H1836-A.

The following Choices exemption codes require a completed Form H1836-A:

- T – pregnant and unable to work, and
- E – unable to work due to a mental or personal disability and the disability is expected to last more than 180 days.

The medical provider completes Section II, Part A, by checking one box.

If the medical provider checks ...	then the individual is ...
1(a) or 1(b)	mandatory for Choices.
2(a) or 2(b)	mandatory for Choices. Note: The medical provider should complete Part B and Part C.
3(a) or 3(b)	exempt from Choices because the disability is permanent or expected to last more than 180 days. Note: The medical provider should complete Part C.
3(c) and the individual has a personal or mental disability	mandatory for Choices. Note: The medical provider should complete Part C.
3(c) and the individual is disabled due to pregnancy	exempt from Choices because there is no timeframe associated with a disability due to pregnancy. Note: The medical provider should complete Part C.

Note: If the medical provider fails to complete Part B or Part C for a Temporary Assistance for Needy Families individual but indicates that the individual is permanently disabled or temporarily disabled for more than 180 days, the individual meets the criteria for a Choices exemption.

A—1821.1.2 Claiming Exemption Due to Caring for a Disabled Household Member

Revision 09-1; Effective January 1, 2009

Obtain verification that the caregiver is unable to work or participate in workforce activities due to illness or injury of an adult or child family member. In order for an individual to receive an exemption from Choices requirements due to a disabled adult family member, the disability must be expected to last more than six months (180 days). There is no timeframe associated with the length of the disability if the individual is caring for a disabled child.

Note: A caregiver caring for an adult or child family member who is receiving disability benefits such as Supplemental Security Income (SSI) does not qualify for an exemption unless the caregiver provides Form H1836-B, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, verifying the caregiver is needed in the home to provide care.

The following Choices exemption codes require a completed Form H1836-B:

- "C" – needed at home to care for an ill or disabled child in the household even if the person is not a member of the certified group, and
- "H" – needed at home to care for a disabled adult in the household even if the person is not a member of the certified group and the disability is expected to last more than 180 days.

A new Form H1836-B must be obtained when the form in the file is more than six months old.

If the Form H1836-B on file at the time of review is less than six months old but will reach the six month period during the new certification period, advisors must:

- request a new Form H1836-B at the time of the review; or
- set a special review six months from the date Form H1836-B is signed to request a new Form H1836-B.

Example: The individual has a current Form H1836-B dated in July on file. The advisor interviews the individual for a periodic review in October. Form H1836-B is current at the time of the interview. The advisor may request a new Form H1836-B at the interview or set a special review for December to request a new Form H1836-B.

The medical provider completes Section II, Part A, by checking one box.

If the medical provider checks ...	then the individual is ...
1 or 2(a or b)	mandatory for Choices.
3(a or b)	exempt from Choices. Note: The medical provider must complete Part B.
3(c) and the individual is needed at home to care for an adult family member	mandatory for Choices. Note: The medical provider must complete Part B.
3(c) and the individual is needed at home to care for a child	exempt from Choices. Note: The medical provider must complete Part B.

A—1821.2 Choices Participation

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

TANF

A member is required to participate if he is one of the following:

Code B (Caretaker/Parent under age 19 in school full time) — A caretaker or second parent, age 18 or younger, attending elementary, secondary, vocational or technical school full time.

Code K (Appeal pending with Choices) — Appealing a Choices sanction. Use this code to indicate the individual is appealing the Choices sanction. See Appeals, A-1870, for more information.

Code L (Time limited Severe Economic Hardship, Lives in Economically Deprived County) — Eligible for a state time limit hardship exemption based on residing in a designated hardship county. See A-2543.1, County Hardship Exemption (ESP L), for detailed information about this work registration code.

Code M (Mandatory registrant) — Does not qualify for any of the exemptions and does not meet the Code P criteria. Note: Use this code for an individual who receives in-kind income for working.

Code P (Meets TANF full time employment requirement) — Employed or self-employed at least 30 hours per week, and receiving earnings of at least $700 per month. The required compliance is limited to only reporting hours of work. These individuals may be sanctioned if they do not report their hours to Choices staff.

Code W (Sanctioned for Choices nonparticipation) — Sanctioned for TANF based on non-compliance with Choices.

Local Workforce Development Boards (LWDBs) develop a Family Employment Plan with the involvement of all adults on the TANF EDG. In TANF-SP households, both adults must agree who will satisfy their work requirement. All adults on the TANF EDG are required to sign the plan.

Failure to sign the plan or meet the work requirements without good cause results in the LWDB sending a sanction request for the non-cooperating individual. For TANF-SP households, the LWDB will send the following penalty:

If the household's caretaker/parent and second parent are ...

then the LWDB sends a sanction request for ...

both mandatory participants, the caretaker and second parent. Note: If one parent non-complies with Choices and the other parent already has an open Choices penalty (work registration code W or K), the LWDB does not send a penalty request for the parent with the open Choices penalty.

A—1821.3 Work Registration Code Hierarchy

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

TIERS determines the appropriate work registration code based on data collection entries. Staff should review work registration status prior to disposition to ensure the correct work registration code is assigned to an individual. Use the following chart to determine the work registration code that should be assigned if the individual qualifies for more than one work registration code.

Code	Description
V	non-recipient parents who receive Supplemental Security Income
X	non-recipient parents who have exhausted their state time limits
Y	non-recipient parents who have certain disqualifications

Code	Description
J	ineligible for TANF and for Choices
A or F	child under age 19 or adult over age 60
L, N or Q	receiving hardship exemption from the state time limit
G or R	caring for a child under age 1
C	caring for a disabled child
U	grandparent caring for a child under age 3
H	caring for a disabled adult
E	personal disability
T	pregnant and unable to work
K	appeal pending with Choices
W	sanctioned for Choices nonparticipation
P	employed at least 30 hours per week and earning at least $700 per month
B	parent under age 19 and in school full time
M	mandatory participant

A—1821.4 Switching the Exemption — TANF-SP

Revision 02-8; Effective October 1, 2002

TANF

TANF-SP parents may switch participation designations (that is, exempt and nonexempt codes) once if the switch is before or during Choices assessment for the parent initially designated as nonexempt. The exemption code must be one that applies to either parent. Choices staff use Form H2583, Choices Information Transmittal, to inform Texas Works staff when TANF-SP parents request to switch Choices codes. The parent cannot switch after completion of the Choices assessment.

A—1821.5 Caretaker Exemption

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

TANF single parents or single relative caretakers caring for a child under age one at initial application are exempt from Choices participation (Choices exemption Code G or R) until the child reaches age 1. Note: Caretakers under age 20 who have not completed high school or its equivalent do not qualify for these Choices exemptions, even if the caretaker exemption end date is in the future. These individuals may be exempt for another reason.

A—1821.5.1 Setting the Caretaker Exemption End Date

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

TIERS sets a caretaker exemption end date based on the youngest child under age 1 in the home at the time of initial certification. See Individual- Summary, Time Limits screen in TIERS for the caretaker exemption end date.

A caretaker is not eligible for this exemption after the end date. The end date does not change when another child is born to the caretaker or moves into the home after TIERS sets the end date.

A—1821.5.2 Resetting the End Date

Revision 17-3; Effective July 1, 2017

TANF

If the child for which the caretaker's exemption end date is based on leaves the home, TIERS resets the end date based on the:

- next older child; or
- date the child leaves the home if no children under one remain in the household.

Contact the IEE/TIERS Technical Help Desk to address any issues with the caretaker exemption end date.

A—1822 E&T Procedures

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

SNAP

In all counties, at initial certification and at each recertification:

- determine each person's registration or participation exemption status;
- determine a primary wage earner (PWE);
- provide Form H1808, SNAP Work Rules, for each registrant in the household (including registrants exempt from participation); and
- inform the person interviewed about the:
 - registrant's rights and responsibilities;
 - registrant's requirement to provide proof of identity and work eligibility when requested by HHSC or E&T staff;
 - documents accepted as proof of identity and work eligibility. A list of acceptable proof is included on Form H1808;
 - consequences of failure to comply; and
 - availability of payments through Texas Workforce Commission \(TWC\) for expenses that are reasonably necessary and directly related to participation in the E&T program. (Examples: childcare, uniforms, books, training manuals, or transportation).

Note: If adequate reimbursements are not available or expenses exceed the reimbursement amount, the participant will be placed in another suitable component or exempted from participation, as applicable.

Note: Remind streamlined reporting households they must respond to all notices and letters from the employment program.

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

Exempt a person from SNAP work requirements if they meet one of the following criteria:

Code A (Child under 16, 16 or 17 and not head of household, or 16 or 17 and attends school or training at least half time) — Age:

- 15 or younger;
- 16 or 17 and not the head of household; or
- 16 or 17 and attending school, including home schooling or an employment training program, on at least a half-time basis.

Code E (Physically or mentally unfit for employment) — Physically or mentally unfit for employment. Require proof of a disability that is not obvious before exempting the applicant. Obtain Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement. A physician's statement with the required information is also acceptable to claim an exemption due to disability of self.

Receipt of a temporary or permanent disability benefit from a private or government source, including VA non-service-connected disability benefits, is acceptable verification that a person is physically or mentally unfit for employment. For VA service-connected disability benefits that are less than 100%, do not exempt the person.

A person who applies for SSI and SNAP at a Social Security Administration (SSA) office receives a work registration exemption until the SSA determines the person's eligibility for SSI.

Code F (60 or older) — 60 or older.

Code G (Caring for a child under 6) — Each parent or other household member responsible for the care of a child under 6.

Note: This exemption can be applied to more than one household member who is responsible for the care of a child under 6 if there are two or more children under age 6 in the household. The number of people who receive the exemption may not exceed the number of children under age 6 in the SNAP household.

Code H (Cares for a person with a disability who is living in the home) — A parent or other household member caring for a person of any age who has a disability and lives with the household. The person who has a disability does not have to be part of the SNAP budget group but must reside at the same address. Require proof that the parent or household member is needed in the home to care for the person with a disability, including a member receiving disability benefits, such as SSI. The household must provide Form H1836-B, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, or a physician's statement with the required information to claim an exemption due to caring for a household member with a disability.

Note: This exemption can be applied to more than one parent or caretaker if there are two or more people with a disability living in the household and it requires more than one person to provide care for the members who have a disability.

Code J (In drug and alcohol treatment program) — A regular participant or outpatient in a drug addiction or alcoholic treatment and rehabilitation program.

Code N (Receiving or applying for unemployment benefits) — Receiving unemployment insurance benefits or has applied but not been notified of eligibility.

Code P (Meets SNAP full-time employment requirement) — Employed or self-employed:

- at least 30 hours a week; or
- receiving earnings equal to 30 hours a week multiplied by the federal minimum wage. If the applicant's income is not enough to meet this exemption, the person must verify that they work at least 30 hours a week.

Allow this exemption for a person:

- who works at least 30 hours a week in exchange for goods or services (in-kind work);
- who works without pay (volunteer labor) at least 30 hours a week with a business, government entity or non-profit organization; or
- who home-schools a child living in the home. The person must home-school the child at least 30 hours a week and be state-certified to conduct home-schooling.

Any combination of the activities listed as an exemption for meeting the full-time employment requirement, or those activities in combination with employment hours, can be used if the combination totals at least 30 hours a week.

Notes:

- The person may choose to average hours or income over the certification period or 12 months to meet this exemption.
- Migrant and seasonal farm workers are exempt if they are under contract or similar agreement with an employer or crew chief to begin work within 30 days.

Code Q (Registered with Choices) — Lives in a full-service Choices county and is nonexempt from Choices participation, or lives in any county and has an open Choices case.

Code S (Student 18 or older in school or a training program at least half time)

- a student 18 or older who is enrolled at least half time in school or a training program, including an institution of higher education, or a person participating in a training program; or
- a refugee who is enrolled at least half time in English as a Second Language (ESL) courses or E&T programs administered by a refugee contractor or Match Grant program.

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

A—1823.1 Reporting Changes in Work Registration Status

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Individuals must report changes that could affect employment services within 10 days of the change.

A—1823.1.1 Advisor Action on Status Changes

Revision 13-1; Effective January 1, 2013

TANF

Change the work registration code if:

- the individual reports a change in his exemption status, or
- information in the case record indicates a change in the individual's exemption status.

When the individual has a Code G or R and the youngest child reaches age one, TIERS:

- changes the individual's work registration status based on the hierarchy listed in A-1821.3 at cutoff of the caretaker exemption end date month,
- sends the individual a notice of the change in work registration status, and
- transmits the information to TWC.

Notify the individual on TF0001, Notice of Case Action, that their work registration status has changed.

SNAP

Change the work registration code within 10 days if the individual

- becomes exempt from E&T because he meets the criteria for exemption Code Q.
- loses E&T exemption status because of a
 - change the household is required to report,
 - change in TANF work registration code or open Choices case status, or
 - TANF penalty for Choices noncompliance.

If the individual loses E&T exemption status for any other reason, register the individual at the next recertification.

Notify the individual on TF0001 that their work registration status has changed.

A—1824 Information Transmittal from Choices or E&T Staff

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF and SNAP

When Choices or E&T staff discover information during an individual contact, they use Form H2583, Choices Information Transmittal, or Form H1817, SNAP Information Transmittal, to forward the information to the advisor.

TANF

Each Form H2583 requires advisor action:

- If Choices staff receive information that affects an individual's work registration status, they discuss the individual's status with the advisor, or send Form H2583, asking the advisor to reconsider the individual's registration.

The advisor evaluates the individual's work registration status and changes the work registration code in TIERS, if necessary.

- Information on earned or unearned income requires a budget to determine ongoing eligibility.

Choices staff attempt to obtain verification from the employer. If the information on Form H2583 is complete and includes the name of the person contacted, use the information for eligibility determination without further verification from the individual.

- Medical or other information affecting Choices participation or designation as a TANF-Basic or TANF-State Program EDG. Review and correct the work registration status or EDG type as needed.

SNAP

Each Form H1817 requires advisor action.

- If E&T staff receive information that affects an individual's work registration status, they send Form H1817 to the advisor asking the advisor to reconsider the individual's registration.

The advisor evaluates the individual's work registration status and changes the work registration code in TIERS, if necessary.

If you decide the individual

- is still subject to work registration, notify E&T staff within 10 days using Form H1817.
- qualifies for an exemption, do not respond on Form H1817.
- Information on earned or unearned income requires a budget to determine ongoing eligibility.
- Medical or other information affects E&T participation. Review and correct work registration status as needed.

A-1830, ESP Actions

Revision 04-3; Effective April 1, 2004

A—1831 Action in Full Service Choices Counties or E&T Counties

Revision 14-3; Effective July 1, 2014

TANF

For households in full service Choices counties:

- provide an explanation of:
 - the Choices program;
 - the supportive services available (such as child care, help with transportation expenses related to job search or training, Texas Health Steps, and family planning);
 - the individual's rights and responsibilities;
 - how recipients (both exempt and nonexempt) may voluntarily participate and what this means regarding state time-limited benefits (see A-2500, State Time Limits);
 - the full-family sanction for noncooperation for nonexempt individuals;
 - transitional child care and Medicaid; and
 - the requirement to provide proof of identity and work eligibility when requested by HHSC or a Choices provider, and the types of documents accepted as proof (Form H2580, TANF Employment Services Notice, lists examples of proof).

Explain these policies again at periodic review, unless the caretaker and/or second parent show an open Choices case in TIERS inquiry.

- provide a completed Form H2580 for each caretaker and/or second parent. At the application interview, also provide Form H2580 to the TANF EDG name.

SNAP

For households in E&T counties:

- provide the individual with Form H1808, SNAP Work Rules, for each registrant, along with the explanations in A-1822, E&T Procedures;
- explain who provides local E&T services and provide the address; and
- explain that E&T staff may provide transportation and/or child care assistance, if needed, to allow participation.

If the advisor conducts a single interview for a household filing jointly for TANF and SNAP, and the advisor certifies the SNAP application while the TANF application remains pending, TIERS will assign work registration Code Q, as if the individual were receiving TANF. After the advisor makes the TANF decision, TIERS will change the SNAP work registration code, if necessary. If an individual is registered for SNAP E&T, send the individual Form H1808.

A—1831.1 Referral Processes

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Advisors in full service Choices counties refer TANF applicants to a workforce orientation. This is a separate eligibility requirement from Choices program participation. See Workforce Orientation, A-2200, for more information.

HHSC sends a daily electronic file of all TANF recipients to Choices staff when:

- the TANF EDG is certified; or
- a TANF recipient's work registration code changes.

Non-exempt TANF recipients in full service Choices counties must participate in employment service activities when notified by Choices staff.

SNAP

HHSC sends a daily electronic file of all SNAP recipients to E&T staff when:

- the SNAP EDG is certified; or
- a SNAP recipient's work registration code changes.

E&T staff use this electronic file to register individuals with TWC when the individual:

- lives in an E&T county; and
- is a non-exempt registrant.

Registration is effective for 12 months. At the end of each 12-month period, TWC renews the registrant's status if the individual is:

- active;
- living in an E&T county; and
- a non-exempt registrant, not identified as an able-bodied adult without dependents (ABAWD).

A—1831.1.1 Choices Outreach

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

TANF or TANF-SP recipients in full service Choices counties whose information is transmitted to the TWC through the daily electronic file may be outreached for Choices services.

Local Workforce Development Boards and TWC access various types of education, training and employment services from local providers, including other state agencies. Services vary depending on an individual's specific needs and the availability of programs in the local area.

A—1831.1.2 ABAWD Referral Process

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

SNAP

An ABAWD is an individual age 18 up to age 50 who:

- is physically and mentally able to work at least an average of 20 hours per week;
- is not a member of a SNAP EDG where a household member on the SNAP EDG is under age 18; and
- is not pregnant.

The ABAWD designation:

- is applied the month after an individual turns age 18; and
- is no longer applied beginning with the month when an individual turns age 50.

HHSC sends a daily electronic file of all SNAP recipients, including ABAWDs, to E&T staff. After receiving the electronic file, E&T staff may contact local HHSC staff to obtain SNAP allotment amounts and the number of ABAWDs in the SNAP household.

E&T staff use information provided on the electronic file to outreach the ABAWD for E&T services. If the ABAWD completes the first two weeks of participation in an allowable activity, E&T staff return Form H1822, ABAWD E&T Work Requirement Verification, to the advisor verifying the ABAWD:

- now meets the SNAP ABAWD work requirement; or
- being recertified continues to meet the work requirement.

The advisor must process a change in "work requirement status" as required per A-1940, SNAP ABAWD Work Requirements, if work status changes.

After Form H1822 verifies participation, it is assumed to continue unless:

- E&T staff send Form H1816, SNAP E&T Noncompliance Report, notifying the advisor of noncompliance;
- the individual has at least a one-month break in SNAP benefits; or
- the individual reports he no longer participates.

Note: See A-1840, Noncompliance with ESP.

At recertification, HHSC staff must provide Form H1822 to the ABAWD to verify participation during the recertification process. The ABAWD must then take the form to the local workforce center for E&T staff to complete. The ABAWD or E&T staff returns the completed Form 1822 to HHSC.

A—1831.2 Individual Participation Requirements

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF and SNAP

To comply with participation requirements, the individual must:

- provide supplemental information when requested;
- appear for an interview upon request; and
- report for job interviews and accept an offer of suitable employment.

Note: Streamlined reporting households must respond as directed to all notices and letters from the employment program even if employed.

TANF

To comply with participation requirements, the individual must also:

- participate in activities listed in the employability plan, including keeping appointments, attending training or other education classes, and participating in work experience and job search activities; and
- not voluntarily leave a job unless he has good cause (as interpreted under the Texas unemployment insurance laws).

Exception: Individuals coded P are only required to report their hours.

Individuals may choose to voluntarily withdraw from TANF. Accept Form H1802, Voluntary Withdrawal from Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), as an individual's intent to withdraw from TANF. When a local eligibility determination office receives a signed Form H1802, follow change procedures in B-600 to:

- process the TANF denial, and
- make changes to the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) EDG, if applicable.

When a request to voluntarily withdraw from TANF is received in the same month as a Choices noncooperation, the advisor must send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, informing the household of the Choices noncooperation. Open a Choices penalty as listed in A-2144, Imposing a Penalty. The household must reapply in pay for performance.

Note: If Form H1802 sent by the Local Workforce Development Board (LWDB) has not been processed and the individual does not want to withdraw from TANF, notify the LWDB using Form H2583, Choices Information Transmittal, that the individual remains certified for TANF.

Explore the appropriate medical program for each household member. Advisors must provide continuous Medicaid coverage for

- pregnant women and
- children under age one who are eligible through the month of their first birthday.

SNAP

To cooperate with participation requirements, the individual must also cooperate with assigned E&T activities.

A—1832 Action in Minimum Service Choices Counties or Non-E&T Counties

Revision 14-3; Effective July 1, 2014

TANF

In minimum service Choices counties, provide the individual a general explanation of:

- employment services available in the area, such as Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), TWC, local workforce solutions offices, or the Texas Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Services (DARS);
- Choices and Welfare-to-Work services (if available);
- available supportive services, such as subsidized child care through the local Workforce Development Board; and
- transitional child care and Medicaid.

SNAP

In non-E&T counties, provide the individual a general explanation of:

- the types of employment services available in the area, such as those provided through WIOA, TWC, local workforce solutions offices or DARS; and
- individual rights and responsibilities outlined in A-1832.1, Individual Responsibilities.

Provide Form H1808, SNAP Work Rules, for each registrant, including those with participation exemptions.

A—1832.1 Individual Responsibilities

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

An individual living in a minimum service Choices county does not have to meet any employment services requirements. Advise the household that they

- are exempt from Choices program requirements;
- may choose whether to participate in Choices services offered to them; and
- will not be penalized for noncompliance if they participate and later stop participating.

See A-2530 for state time limit counting policies for individuals who live in minimum service Choices counties.

SNAP

An individual living in a non-E&T county

- is subject to usual registration requirements;
- must comply with E&T if the county becomes an E&T county and the registrant is contacted; and
- must accept or continue suitable employment, when offered, even if not referred by E&T staff.

A-1840, Noncooperation with ESP

Revision 04-5; Effective July 1, 2004

A—1841 Minimum Penalty Periods

Revision 07-4; Effective October 1, 2007

SNAP

Use the following minimum penalty periods.

If this is the individual's ...	then the minimum penalty period is ...
first noncooperation,	one month or when he cooperates, whichever is longer.
second noncooperation,	three months or when he cooperates, whichever is longer.
third or subsequent noncooperation,	six months or when he cooperates, whichever is longer.

Exception: See Reestablishing Eligibility During the Penalty Period (SNAP) A-1846.

A—1842 Failure/Refusal to Register

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

SNAP

If the household member who fails to furnish all information needed to register is:

- the primary wage earner (PWE), deny the EDG.
- a member who is not the PWE, disqualify the individual.

See Minimum Penalty Periods, A-1841.

Exception: For expedited applications:

- postpone work registration if necessary, for members not present at the interview until after the household receives its first month's benefits (or first two months if you issue a combined allotment); and
- take adverse action for the second month (or third month if you issue a combined allotment) if all required registrants fail to provide the necessary information.

A—1843 Noncooperation with Choices

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

TANF

Choices staff determine when a nonexempt individual fails without good cause to cooperate with Choices requirements. They use Form H2581, Choices Noncooperation Report, to notify advisors the date they made the noncooperation decision.

Failure to cooperate with Choices requirements results in:

- a full-family sanction for one month or until cooperation, whichever is longer; and
- denial of the TP 08 EDG for TANF recipients also certified for TP 08 benefits.

A—1844 Noncooperation with E&T

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

SNAP

E&T staff determine when a person fails to cooperate with employment services requirements. E&T staff send noncompliance information electronically through the automated interface to notify HHSC of the person's failure to cooperate. E&T staff may send Form H1816, SNAP E&T Noncompliance Report, to HHSC staff with more details.

If a PWE fails to cooperate with employment services requirements, Choices requirements or with work requirements in TWC's unemployment insurance program without good cause, the household is ineligible for the minimum penalty periods.

If a person who is not the PWE fails to cooperate without good cause, disqualify the person for the applicable minimum penalty period.

Note: If the noncooperating person moves to a new household:

- deny the new household for the remainder of the penalty period if the person is the new household's PWE; or
- disqualify the person for the remainder of the penalty period if the person is not the new household's PWE.

The following procedures apply to a household with a person who is:

- exempt from registration due to TANF-Choices status or due to applying for or receiving unemployment insurance benefits (UIB); and
- penalized in that program for not cooperating with a program requirement.

When an individual fails to cooperate with ...

a Choices requirement in TANF,

a work requirement in TWC's UIB program,

then ...

apply the E&T noncooperation penalty unless the person is exempt for another reason.

apply the E&T noncooperation penalty unless the person is exempt for another reason.

A disqualified person may re-establish eligibility after the minimum penalty period expires. A person may re-establish eligibility during the penalty period by becoming exempt from E&T registration.

A—1844.1 Determining Primary Wage Earner (PWE) for Noncooperation Situations

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

SNAP

Determine a household's PWE as follows:

If ...	then the ...
(a) the household includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a parent of a child of any age living in the home; or • an adult with parental control of a child under age 18 living in the home, 	household selects the PWE and all adult members must agree to the selection. The PWE selected must: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • be an adult parent of a child of any age; or • have parental control of a child under age 18 living in the home. The household must select a PWE at certification, recertification, or when household composition changes. PWE is the member (including a disqualified member) who:
(b) adult household members cannot agree on a PWE, or Item (a) does not apply,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • earned the most income in the two months before the month of noncooperation; and • was employed at least 20 hours per week at the federal minimum wage or had earnings equal to this amount.
(c) a PWE cannot be designated using the criteria in Item (a) or (b) above,	PWE is the member listed as head of household on the noncooperation date.

Exception: For Items (b) and (c) in the chart above, a person (any age) may not be the PWE if he lives with his parent (or person fulfilling the role of his parent) who is:

- registered for work through the SNAP E&T program (even if he has a participation exemption); or
- exempt from registration due to employment, TANF-Choices status, or receipt/application for UIB.

The household can change the PWE during the certification period. Exception: The household cannot change the PWE if the current PWE has failed to cooperate with SNAP E&T requirements or has voluntarily quit a job, unless a new member has joined the household and is selected as the PWE.

A—1844.2 Tracking the Number of Sanctions

Revision 14-4; Effective October 1, 2014

SNAP

Document in the case record each time the individual is sanctioned for:

- employment services,
- voluntary quit,
- voluntarily reducing work hours,
- Choices, or
- unemployment insurance.

A sanction for any of these work requirements counts as a noncooperation penalty.

Example: The individual has one sanction for voluntary quit without good cause. The individual served a one-month penalty and obtained a comparable job. The individual was laid off and was registered with the E&T program. The individual noncooperated with one of the E&T requirements. This is the second sanction.

A—1845 Action on Noncooperation

Revision 05-3; Effective July 1, 2005

A—1845.1 Sending Notice of Failure to Cooperate

Revision 21-3; Effective July 1, 2021

TANF

When a certified household member does not cooperate with a Choices requirement, send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, within five workdays after receiving notice of Choices noncooperation. Provide the person with adequate notice of adverse action. Send Form H2581, Choices Noncooperation Report, electronically through the automated interface to inform TWC staff of the sanction effective date.

SNAP

When a certified household member does not cooperate with E&T, send Form H1818, Failure to Comply with SNAP Employment and Training, within one business day of receiving notice of E&T noncooperation. Allow the person 10 days to contact TWC staff and claim good cause for the noncompliance.

HHSC allows three additional days beyond the 10-day period before issuing a TF0001 to give sufficient time for TWC staff to send good cause information to HHSC. If HHSC does not receive a good cause claim within the 13-day period, send Form TF0001 by the next business day. Provide the person advance notice of adverse action. If good cause is received from TWC within the 13-day period, follow policy to determine good cause.

Exception: E&T noncooperation notices received in the last benefit month require enough notice of adverse action.

Send Form H1818 to explore good cause even if the EDG is denied, if the noncooperation occurred during a month in which the person received SNAP and was required to participate in E&T.

How to Take Adverse Action if Advance Notice is Required, A-2341.1

A—1845.1.1 Failing to Timely Send Notice of Adverse Action

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

SNAP

If E&T staff fail to timely notify HHSC of a noncooperation or the advisor fails to send notice of adverse action, the advisor must send the notice of adverse action as soon as possible after discovering the error. Do not file a claim.

TANF

If HHSC does not take action on a noncooperation report within a reasonable time frame, send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to initiate the noncooperation sanction as soon as possible.

Form TF0001 is sent within a reasonable time frame if the:

- Choices penalty is received within five calendar days after the end of the month in which the Choices noncooperation occurred; and
- advisor sends Form TF0001 within 10 calendar days after becoming aware of the noncooperation or within the same calendar month as the date of noncooperation listed on the Choices noncooperation notice.

If the advisor does not send Form TF0001 within a reasonable time frame, the first month of noncooperation is the month Form TF0001 was sent. Do not file a claim.

Note: A postponed first month results in a forfeit month, but does not count toward two consecutive months of noncooperation. See A-2141.1, Determining the First Month of Noncooperation.

A—1845.1.2 Failing to Impose a Penalty After Providing Notice of Adverse Action

Revision 05-3; Effective July 1, 2005

TANF and SNAP

If the advisor sends notice of adverse action for noncooperation, but fails to impose the penalty for the correct month:

- for SNAP, file a claim for any months received in error; and
- for TANF, determine the actual first and second month of noncooperation. If the individual:
 - cooperates in the second month, file a claim for the month that should have been forfeited. The household is not required to reapply for TANF.
 - fails to cooperate in the second month, file a claim for the months that should have been forfeited. The household must reapply in pay for performance.

A—1845.1.3 Penalty is not Applicable

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF and SNAP

Do not send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, and take adverse action if:

- the individual was exempt at the time Choices or E&T staff made the noncooperation decision. Change the individual's work registration code as appropriate and do not take adverse action.
 - Send Form H2581 to notify Choices staff that the individual was exempt at the time of noncooperation, which you will not impose the sanction and the noncooperation does not count.
 - Do not respond to E&T sanctions.
- Choices or E&T noncooperation month is after the effective date of the denial. There is no penalty since the individual was not a recipient for that month.
 - For TANF EDGs, send Form H2581 to notify Choices staff that since the individual was not certified at the time of noncooperation, you will not impose a sanction and the noncooperation does not count.
 - For SNAP EDGs, do not send a response to E&T staff.

A—1845.2 Completing the Penalty Action

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Complete the penalty action as follows.

If the caretaker or second parent noncomplies:

- ensure there is a signed Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement, for the EDG;
- do not establish a protective payee;
- change the work registration code to W.

For each caretaker and second parent who noncomplies with Choices, advisors must enter start dates (and end dates, if applicable) for a Choices penalty.

SNAP

Complete the penalty action as follows.

- If the noncomplying member is the PWE, change his work registration code to U (Primary wage earner failed to comply with ESP) and deny the EDG.
- If the noncomplying member is not the PWE, disqualify him and change the work registration code to Code T (Disqualified household member).

Note: See A-1841, Minimum Penalty Periods.

A—1846 Re-establishing Eligibility During the Penalty Period

Revision 14-4; Effective October 1, 2014

SNAP

An individual disqualified for an E&T noncompliance or a household denied because the PWE failed to comply with E&T may re-establish eligibility during the penalty period if the noncomplying individual becomes exempt from E&T registration.

A household denied because the PWE failed to comply with E&T may also re-establish eligibility if:

- the PWE leaves the home, or
- a new individual joins the household who would have been the PWE. If the household is otherwise eligible, certify the household and disqualify the previous PWE for the remainder of the penalty period.

When an individual disqualified for an E&T noncompliance on an active SNAP EDG re-establishes eligibility by becoming exempt, end the disqualification effective the first day of the month after the individual provides the information/verification required to qualify for the exemption. A household denied due to an individual's E&T noncompliance must file a new application to re-establish eligibility and is eligible from the file date if all required information/verification is provided by the final due date.

When a household is denied because the PWE did not comply with E&T requirements, the disqualified household may apply and be interviewed for SNAP during the last month of the E&T penalty period.

A—1847 Re-establishing Eligibility After the Penalty Period

Revision 14-3; Effective July 1, 2014

TANF

See A-2150, Pay for Performance, to determine the action to take when an individual has an open penalty at reapplication.

SNAP

An individual cannot become eligible until after the minimum penalty period expires or the individual meets the exceptions in A-1846, Re-establishing Eligibility During the Penalty Period. If the individual is still nonexempt, the individual must sign Form H1808, SNAP Work Rules, to agree to participate with E&T. Add the individual to the EDG after the individual signs Form H1808. Send E&T staff Form H1816, SNAP E&T Noncompliance Report, to advise staff that the individual agrees to participate.

- If the individual wants to report to E&T staff to obtain services after signing Form H1808, give the individual a copy of Form H1816 and send the original Form H1816 to TWC.
- HHSC offices co-located with E&T may establish different procedures to advise E&T staff that the individual signed Form H1808.

End the non-primary wage earner's disqualification effective the first day of the month after the individual complies, if the minimum penalty period expires.

Notes:

- The disqualified individual may comply in the last month of the penalty period and be added the first day of the next month.
- A denied household may file a new application and be certified in the last month of the penalty period, but is not eligible for SNAP for any month the household was previously disqualified.
- If a denied household reapplies after the penalty period has ended, certify from the file date and not the date Form H1808 is signed.
- A denied household that meets expedited criteria and has more than one disqualified individual who has served the minimum disqualification period at the time of the application may choose to:
 - delay the certification until all disqualified individuals have signed Form H1808, or
 - receive expedited benefits for the PWE and any individual who has signed Form H1808 at the time of the interview. Any additional disqualified individuals will be added to the household using change-processing procedures. Add additional individuals the month after the signed Form H1808 is provided.

A-1850, Voluntary Quit

Revision 05-3; Effective July 1, 2005

SNAP

If an applicant or participating household reports the loss of earned income or reduction in work hours to less than 30 hours a week, determine whether the household member voluntarily quit his job or reduced his work hours.

Note: See A-2123 for TANF Voluntary Quit policy.

A—1851 Applying Voluntary Quit

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

Voluntary quit procedures apply to:

- any local, state, or federal government employee who loses his job because he participates in a strike;
- a person who leaves a job unannounced or does not return to work without good cause, even if he technically was fired; or
- a person who voluntarily reduces his work hours to less than 30 hours a week.

Voluntary quit procedures do not apply to people who

- are exempt from E&T registration;
- end a self-employment enterprise;
- resign a job at the employer's demand; or
- are currently on strike.

(c) a PWE cannot be designated using the criteria in Item (a) or (b) above,	PWE is the head of household on the quit date (for active EDGs only) if he was required to register on the quit date (or would have been if not disqualified).

Exception: For Items (b) and (c) in the chart above, a person (any age) may not be considered the primary wage earner if he lives with his parent (or person fulfilling the role of his parent) who is:

- registered for work through the SNAP E&T program; or
- exempt from registration.

The household can change the PWE during the certification period.

Exception: The household cannot change the PWE if the current PWE has failed to cooperate with SNAP E&T requirements or has voluntarily quit a job, unless a new member has joined the household and is selected as the PWE.

	on the last day of the certification period send Form TF0001 to notify the household of the sanction period beginning with the month after the old certification period expires.

If the primary wage earner (PWE) noncomplies, deny the EDG.

If the non-PWE noncomplies, disqualify the individual and change his work registration code to Code T (Disqualified household member).

If the PWE moves to another household and would have been the PWE, deny that household for the remainder of the penalty period. If he moves, but would not have been the PWE of the new household, disqualify the individual for the remainder of the penalty period.

If the individual quits or voluntarily reduces his work hours without good cause but does not report it or HHSC does not act timely, apply the penalty as soon as possible after the adverse action notice expires.

A—1854 Re-establishing Eligibility During the Penalty Period

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

SNAP

A person or household, disqualified or denied because of a voluntary quit or a reduction in work hours, may re-establish eligibility during the penalty period if the non-complying member becomes exempt from E&T registration.

A household denied because the PWE voluntarily quit a job, or voluntarily reduced work hours, may also re-establish eligibility during the penalty period if:

- the PWE leaves the home; or
- a new member joins the household who would have been the PWE. If the household is otherwise eligible, certify it and disqualify the old PWE for the remainder of the penalty period.

A—1855 Re-establishing Eligibility After the Penalty Period

Revision 14-3; Effective July 1, 2014

SNAP

To re-establish eligibility after the penalty period for a voluntary quit, the individual must:

- become exempt from E&T registration;
- agree to comply by signing Form H1808, SNAP Work Rules; or
- obtain a new job comparable to the one the individual quit. A job is considered comparable if it involves one of the following:
 - equal or increased salary or hours; or
 - fewer hours or lower net salary, with the individual's statement that the new job offers better chances to improve job skills or provide advancement opportunities.

To re-establish eligibility after the penalty period for voluntarily reducing work hours, the individual must:

- become exempt from E&T registration; or
- return to work for 30 or more hours a week.

End the non-primary wage earner's disqualification effective the first day of the month after the individual complies or becomes exempt, if the minimum penalty period has ended.

Notes:

- The disqualified individual may comply in the last month of the penalty period and be added the first day of the next month.
- A denied household may file a new application and be certified in the last month of the penalty period, but is not eligible for SNAP for any month the household was previously disqualified.

A-1860, Determining Good Cause

Revision 21-3; Effective July 1, 2021

TANF

If the person claims good cause for failing to respond to outreach during the adverse action period and provides a reasonable explanation:

- use Form H2581, Choices Noncooperation Report, to refer the person to TWC staff for a determination; and

- provide continued benefits if TWC staff provide notice of good cause before the notice period expires.

For other good cause claims, the person must file an appeal to receive a determination.

The Choices automated interface sends TIERS a good cause code with start or end dates. Do not set a good cause start or end date.

If a person has an open Choices penalty, the Choices automated interface may send TIERS a good cause start date. Remove the Choices penalty if good cause is sent during the first noncooperation month. Good cause sent during the second noncooperation month is a notice of cooperation. Reinstate benefits after the forfeit month.

SNAP

Determine good cause for:

- voluntary quit noncompliance;
- any E&T registrant whose unemployment insurance benefits (UIB) are lowered or denied because of noncompliance with the UIB program; and
- noncompliance with the E&T program.

The Texas Workforce commission (TWC) collects good cause information from people who fail to comply with the E&T program and sends all good cause claims received to HHSC through an automated interface. Staff must review good cause claims and determine whether the person had good cause for the noncompliance. A person has 10 calendar days to claim good cause after HHSC sends the Form H1818, Failure to Comply with SNAP Employment and Training, to the household. A person can also claim good cause during the adverse action period.

Review the case facts and circumstances when evaluating a good cause claim. If the person has an allowable good cause reason do not impose the E&T sanction. If unable to determine whether the person's claim meets the definition of good cause or if the good cause claim is questionable, request more information from the household. If the person does not respond within 10 calendar days, deny the good cause claim and impose the E&T sanction.

If a person contacts HHSC to claim good cause for not complying with E&T requirements, provide the person with Form H1816, SNAP E&T Noncompliance Report, and refer them to TWC to claim good cause.

A—1861 Reasons for Good Cause

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

SNAP

Good cause exists when circumstances beyond the applicant's control prevent them from complying with employment services requirements. Explore reasons for good cause before establishing voluntary quit or imposing a SNAP E&T sanction.

Good cause includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- unavailability of care for children 6 through 11 (based on the person's statement);
- discrimination by an employer based on age, race, sex, color, handicap, religious belief, national origin or political beliefs;
- work demands or conditions that make continued employment unreasonable (example: not being paid on time);
- unavailability of transportation;
- a change of job;
- illness of the person or another household member;
- enrollment (at least half time) in a recognized school, training program, or institution of higher education that requires the primary wage earner to quit a job;
- household emergency;
- a work schedule conflict that prevented the person from participating in E&T;
- relocation to another county or political subdivision because of another household member's employment or school enrollment;

- resignations by people under 60 years old that the employer recognizes as retirement;
- a job change that does not happen or results in employment of less than 20 hours a week, or weekly earnings of less than the federal minimum wage multiplied by 20 hours;
- a habitual job change (Example: migrant work or construction habitually require workers to move from one employer to another);
or
- an unsuitable job. Employment is unsuitable if the:
 - wages are less than the highest of:
 - the applicable federal minimum wage; or
 - 80% of the federal minimum wage, if the federal minimum wage is not applicable; or
 - average hourly wage based on piece-rate is less than minimum wage;
 - household member must join, resign from, or not join a labor organization as a condition of employment; or
 - work is at a place subject to a strike or lock-out at the time of the offer with these exceptions:
 - the strike was enjoined under Section 208 of the Labor-Management Relations Act (29 U.S.C. 178-Taft Hartley Act); or
 - an injunction was issued under Section 10 of the Railway Labor Act (45 U.S.C. 160);
 - degree of risk to health and safety is unreasonable;
 - household member is physically or mentally unfit for the job;
 - commuting time from the household member's home to the job is more than two hours a day (Taking a child to and from a child care facility is not included);
 - distance from home to the job is unreasonable because, after considering commuting time and costs, the person earns less than minimum wage;
 - distance to the job prohibits walking and transportation is unavailable;
 - working hours or nature of the employment interferes with the member's religious beliefs; or
 - job is outside the person's usual line of work. (This applies only during the first 30 days of registration and does not apply if the person voluntarily quits a job.)

A-1870, Appeals

Revision 18-2; Effective April 1, 2018

TANF and SNAP

An individual is entitled to a hearing to contest the:

- advisor's decision to not allow an exemption; and
- denial or reduction of benefits because of noncompliance.

TANF

If, during the adverse action notice period, the individual appeals a noncompliance penalty:

- process the request;
- update the work registration code as Code K to indicate the individual is appealing the Choices sanction; and
- provide continued benefits, if applicable, following procedures in B-1050, Handling of Benefits During the Appeal Process, unless the individual waives the right to continued benefits.

The hearing officer notifies both the advisor and Choices staff about the hearing date and the Choices noncompliance appeal decision.

If the individual requests continued benefits and the hearing officer sustains the decision, change the work registration code from Code K to Code W to show the individual is sanctioned. Then:

- add the penalty with the original penalty start date;
- file a claim to recover benefits for the months the individual received continued benefits; and
- deny the EDG as explained in A-2140, Full-Family Sanction, if the household failed to cooperate with the Personal Responsibility Agreement for two consecutive months.

If the hearing decision was reversed, enter the appropriate work registration code in TIERS.

SNAP

If the individual appeals the noncompliance penalty during the adverse action advance notice period:

- process the request for:
 - voluntary quit/reduction in hours; or
 - noncompliance with E&T. The hearing officer notifies both the advisor and E&T staff of the hearing date.

- provide continued benefits following procedures in B-1051, Continued Benefits, unless the individual waives the right to continued benefits. Note: If an individual appeals a first offense, offer the individual an opportunity to sign Form H1808, SNAP Work Rules, before the end of the one-month minimum penalty period.

If the individual requests continued benefits and the hearing officer sustains the decision:

- impose the penalty for the remaining number of months, if appropriate;
- update the E&T penalty counter on an active EDG after the penalty expires, if appropriate; and
- file a claim to recover benefits for the months the individual received continued benefits.

A-1910, General Policy

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

TANF and SNAP

Federal legislation requires that certain individuals receive benefits for a limited number of months. Encourage individual independence!

TANF

A household with a caretaker or second parent is limited to receiving Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) for 60 months. Each caretaker and second parent has his own separate federal time limit clock. When the caretaker or second parent reaches the 60th month of the federal time limit (regardless of who reaches it first), the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) denies the entire household at the end of the 60th month. Benefits received as an eligible child do not count toward the time limit if the child is later certified as a caretaker or second parent. A child who was certified on a TANF EDG that reaches the federal time limit may continue to receive TANF if certified with another caretaker or payee who did not reach federal time limits while certified with that child. Note: Do not count TANF-SP benefits toward a caretaker's or second parent's 60-month federal time limit.

SNAP

Unless exempt, an able-bodied adult without dependents (ABAWD) is any individual, age 18 up to age 50, who is not meeting the work requirement, as defined in A-1831.1.2, ABAWD Referral Process. These individuals are initially limited to three months of Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) eligibility in a 36-month period. After the initial 36-month period ends, another 36-month period begins the first month the individual fails to meet the work requirement.

A-1920, Determining the Number of FTL Months Used

Revision 11-3; Effective July 1, 2011

TANF

Effective with October 1999 benefits, each month a caretaker or second parent receives a TANF benefit counts toward the FTL, even if the month does not count toward the state time limit. This includes TANF benefits received in another state. Additionally, any month these members received benefits in Texas from November 1996 through September 1999 that counted toward the state time limit, also counts toward the FTL. Note: Individuals in control group cases were subject to FTLs beginning with October 1999 benefits.

Do not count a month toward the FTL if

- a caretaker or second parent is disqualified.
- the household's grant is:
 - cancelled and not reissued,
 - cancelled and reissued without including the caretaker or second parent's needs,
 - totally claimed as an overpayment.

A—1921 Tracking FTL Months

Revision 17-3; Effective July 1, 2017

TANF

Effective Oct. 1, 1999, an FTL month counts when a TANF benefit is issued to an adult caretaker or second parent.

To count a month an individual received benefits in another state, enter information in TIERS Data Collection – Out-of-State Benefits. FTL months only count if the individual received cash assistance. TIERS programming correctly determines FTL months for each individual. FTL information transferred from SAVERR during TIERS conversion. Advisors must contact the IEE/TIERS Technical Help Desk if FTL months need to be corrected in TIERS.

FTL months and years counted towards an individual's FTL can be found in TIERS on the TANF Time Limit page.

TIERS inquiry displays FTL data on the Individual – TANF Time Limits & PRA screen in the hover menu. It includes the:

- maximum months;

Revision 06-4; Effective October 1, 2006

A—1931 General Policy

Revision 03-5; Effective July 1, 2003

TANF and TANF-SP

Federal law allows exemption from the 60-month lifetime limit due to hardship. Extended TANF is the TANF and TANF-SP cash assistance program beyond the 60-month lifetime limit. A caretaker or second parent can apply for extended TANF and a hardship exemption at any time during or after their 60th month of assistance.

A—1932 Eligibility Requirements

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF and TANF-SP

A caretaker or second parent may submit an application for extended TANF during their 60th month of lifetime TANF benefits, or after. They must:

- have fewer than 12 months of open Choices or child support penalties during a benefit month since Nov. 1, 1996;
- have a qualifying hardship exemption (see A-1933, Hardship Exemptions); and
- meet regular TANF eligibility criteria.

Note: Choices or child support penalty months may not be counted twice, if both penalties are open during the same month.

Review the extended TANF hardship exemptions with the applicant to identify the hardship. If the family qualifies under more than one hardship, the advisor and applicant should decide which hardship exemption is best for the household. After determining that the family meets extended TANF criteria, follow regular TANF eligibility requirements and program policies to determine eligibility.

As a condition of eligibility, require the extended TANF applicant to sign a new Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement, and attend a Workforce Orientation refresher course, even if there is no break in benefits. Extended TANF caretakers and second parents are subject to the same Choices work requirements and exemptions as a regular TANF recipient.

The household is permanently ineligible from receiving TANF benefits when an individual non-complies with Choices or child support requirements after certification for extended TANF.

A—1933 Hardship Exemptions

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF and TANF-SP

The extended TANF applicant must have one of the following hardships:

1. Personal Disability – A personal mental or physical disability expected to last more than 180 days.
2. Caring for a Family Member with a Disability – Responsible for the care of a family member with a disability for more than 180 days.
3. Family Violence – Victim of family violence.
4. Residence in a Minimum Service Choices County– Resided in a minimum 1 service Choices county
 - during the 60th month of the initial 60-month period, or
 - at any time during the 11 countable months immediately preceding the 60th month.
5. Lack of Employment – The caretaker or second parent complied with Choices requirements with no more than one Choices penalty since November 1, 1996, but is unable to obtain sufficient employment during the last 12 consecutive months before the end of the 60-month time limit. The individual cannot qualify for this hardship if the lack of sufficient employment during the last 12-month period resulted from voluntarily quitting a job.

Note: Caretakers and second parents who qualify for extended TANF for reasons 4 (Residence in a Minimum Service Choices County) and 5 (Lack of Employment) are limited to a total of 24 cumulative months of benefits. Good cause and Choices exemption months count toward the 24-month limit.

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

A—1933.1.1 Personal Disability

Revision 14-3; Effective July 1, 2014

TANF and TANF-SP

The caretaker or second parent may qualify for the personal disability exemption if the individual:

- provides a completed Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, dated no more than six months before the application month. Form H1836-A must establish that the disability is expected to last more than 180 days.
- is certified to receive HHSC Long-term Services and Supports.
- is certified for Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

If the caretaker or second parent is not certified for SSI, inform the caretaker or second parent claiming the disability that the individual must apply for SSI before the next complete review. Follow policy in A-1311.1, Requirement to Pursue SSI/RSDI.

Exception: An SSI application is not required if the applicant has an SSI application pending or previously applied for SSI and was denied within the last 12 months. If the SSI denial was more than 12 months before the extended TANF application month, a new SSI application is required. Inform the individual that this exemption must be re-evaluated at the next periodic review.

A—1933.1.2 Caring for a Family Member With a Disability

Revision 14-3; Effective July 1, 2014

TANF and TANF-SP

The caretaker or second parent may qualify for the caring for a family member with a disability exemption if the caretaker or second parent:

- provides a completed Form H1836-B, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, that is no more than six months old. Form H1836-B must establish that the family member's disability is expected to last more than 180 days and that the applicant is needed in the home to care for the family member with a disability.
- is listed as the primary caregiver in the care plan for the family member with a disability, for family members receiving HHSC Long-term Services and Supports.
- provides a completed Form H1836-B that is no more than six months old and indicates the applicant is needed in the home to care for the family member certified for SSI.

Refer to Step 2 of A-2543.2.2, Disabling Illness or Injury of Close Family Member, to determine the degree of relationship that applies. The degree of relationship that applies to state time limits applies to FTLs.

If the family member with a disability is not already approved for SSI, inform the person caring for the family member with a disability that the family member with a disability must apply for SSI before the next complete review. Follow policy in A-1311.1, Requirement to Pursue SSI/RSDI.

Exception: An SSI application is not required if the family member with a disability has an application pending or previously applied for SSI and was denied within the last 12 months. If the SSI denial was more than 12 months before the application month, a new SSI application is required. Inform the individual that this exemption must be re-evaluated at the next periodic review.

A—1933.1.3 Family Violence

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

TANF and TANF-SP

If the applicant indicates on Form H1713, Service Plan for Family Violence Option and Report of Good Cause, that the individual is a victim of family violence, make an assessment referral to the family violence program specialist following policy in A-1131.1, Good Cause for Family Violence Option. A list of Family Violence Shelters is located at www.hhsc.state.tx.us/Help/family-violence/centers.shtml. The family violence specialist makes a recommendation about the claim. If the family violence specialist establishes that the applicant is a victim of family violence, the applicant is eligible for the exemption.

A—1933.1.4 Residence in a Minimum or Mid-Level Service County

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF and TANF-SP

Verify that the applicant resided in a county that offered only minimum or mid-level Choices services during at least one of the last 12 countable months of the individual's 60-month period by reviewing the applicant's residence history. Contact the Local Workforce Development Board (LWDB) to verify the county's service level status during those 12 countable months.

Example: The applicant reached her 60th month of TANF assistance in January. She is applying for extended TANF in July and currently resides in a full-service county but claims that no Choices services were available in her county when she was receiving regular TANF benefits. Verify the applicant's county of residence over the last 12 countable months of her 60-month period. Determine the county's Choices service level status during those months by contacting the local board.

The applicant meets this exemption criteria if the individual resided in a minimum service Choices county in any month during the entire last 12 countable months of her 60-month time limit.

A—1933.1.5 Lack of Employment

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF and TANF-SP

The applicant must have

- no more than one Choices penalty during the individual's 60-month time limit; and
- been unable to obtain sufficient employment during the last 12 consecutive months before the end of his 60-month time limit. Count back 12 calendar months from the 60th month. The 60th month is month one of the 12 months.

Note: The individual cannot qualify for this hardship if the lack of sufficient employment during the last 12-month period resulted from voluntarily quitting a job.

A—1933.2 Advisor Action at Complete Review

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF and TANF-SP

At each complete review after initial certification for extended TANF benefits, advisors must verify that the individual continues to meet

- the hardship criteria for extended TANF benefits due to a disability, caring for a member with a disability, or family violence; and
- all other TANF eligibility requirements.

Advisors are not required to re-verify hardship due to residence in a minimum/mid-level service county or lack of employment exemptions at complete review.

A—1933.2.1 Personal Disability or Caring for a Family Member With a Disability

Revision 14-3; Effective July 1, 2014

TANF and TANF-SP

The advisor must:

- obtain a new Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, or Form H1836-B, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, if the form in the EDG record is more than six months old to verify that the applicant:
 - or family member still has a disability expected to last more than 180 days, or
 - is needed in the home to provide care for a household member with a disability;
- verify that the caretaker or second parent with a disability is receiving HHSC Long-term Services and Supports or, in the case of a family member with a disability, that the recipient continues to be designated as the primary caregiver in the family member's care plan;
- verify that an application for SSI has been submitted since the previous TANF application, if applicable, or require a new application for SSI if it has now been 12 months since being denied for SSI; or
- verify that the caretaker/second parent or family member is certified for SSI.

Note: If the caretaker/second parent with a disability already receives SSI, then eligibility for the personal disability exemption is met. If the family member with a disability receives SSI, a current Form H1836-B is still required to verify that the caretaker/second parent is needed in the home to provide care.

At complete review, if the member with a disability ...	and ...	then ...
applied for SSI benefits,	the application is pending,	accept a pending notice as verification of the application or perform State Online Query/Wire Third-Party Query (SOLQ/WTPY) inquiry to check the status of the SSI application. Note: If the pending notice is more than 12 months old and the individual indicates this is the only notice received, check the status by performing SOLQ/WTPY inquiry.
applied for SSI benefits,	the individual is eligible for SSI benefits,	follow procedures in A-2344.1 , Form TF0001 Required (Adequate Notice); send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to remove the SSI household member from the EDG; and adjust the SNAP EDG, if applicable. Note: If an adult in a TANF-SP household is certified for SSI, transfer the remaining members to TANF, if eligible.
applied for SSI benefits,	the individual is ineligible for SSI benefits and provides Form H1836-A indicating the individual meets disability criteria,	accept Form H1836-A as verification.

At complete review, if the member with a disability ...

and ...

then ...

has not applied for SSI benefits, deny the EDG. If the individual reapplies after denial, the individual must provide verification of SSI application before certification.

A—1933.2.2 Family Violence

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF and TANF-SP

At complete review, if the recipient continues to indicate a victim of family violence status, provide the extended TANF recipient with Form H1713, Service Plan for Family Violence Option and Report of Good Cause. Make an assessment referral to the family violence program specialist following policy in A-1131.1, Good Cause for Family Violence Option. A list of Family Violence Shelters is located at www.hhsc.state.tx.us/Help/family-violence/centers.shtml. If the family violence specialist establishes that family violence continues to exist, the household continues to be eligible for this exemption.

A-1940, SNAP ABAWD Work Requirements

Revision 20-3; Effective July 1, 2020

SNAP

The work requirement policy

- applies the month after a person turns 18; and
- does not apply in the month a person turns 50.

To meet the SNAP ABAWD work requirement, a person must be working or participating in a specified work program an average of at least 20 hours per week in a month. A person may use a combination of work and participation in a work program to meet this requirement.

A non-exempt person's 36-month period begins with the first countable month the person works less than an average of 20 hours per week and receives SNAP benefits in Texas or any other state. This is also the first of the three months of time-limited benefits.

Exception: A month in which benefits are prorated is not a countable month.

ABAWDs in Texas are assigned to participate in Workfare through SNAP E&T. Upon notification from the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) that the ABAWD is participating in SNAP E&T, stop counting ABAWD Federal Time Limit (FTL) months effective the same month the person started participating. Remove any ABAWD FTL months already counted in TIERS for the first month of participation and future months. Do not count a benefit month as one of the three initial ABAWD FTL months if the ABAWD participates in SNAP E&T.

If removal of ABAWD months results in the first countable month of the 36-month period being removed, the 36-month period must be adjusted. Start the new 36-month period with the first month in which the ABAWD does not meet the work requirements. If all countable ABAWD FTL months are removed, the 36-month period must also be removed.

Note: The initial three months of time-limited benefits do not have to be consecutive.

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

SNAP

Work may be:

- work in exchange for money (employment or self-employment);
- work in exchange for goods or services (in-kind work); or
- unpaid work with a business, government entity, or non-profit organization (volunteer labor).

Notes:

- Consider employment paid by vendor payment as regular employment.
- Consider work performed under the National and Community Services Act or Domestic Volunteer Service Act, such as AmeriCorps VISTA, as work to meet the work requirement.

A—1941.1 Meeting the Work Requirement Through Self-Employment

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

SNAP

To meet the work requirement via self-employment, an individual must anticipate working an average of at least an average of 20 hours per week over the certification period. If the gross self-employment earnings do not equal at least an average of 20 hours per week multiplied by the federal minimum wage, the individual must verify that they are working at least an average of 20 hours a week using the same verification procedures used for Employment and Training (E&T) exemptions.

A—1941.2 Meeting the Work Requirement Through a Work Program

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

SNAP

An individual may participate in one of the following work programs an average of at least 20 hours per week to meet the work requirement:

- Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA)
- Trade Adjustment Assistance Act Program
- SNAP E&T Program. Note: E&T Workfare also meets this work requirement even if it is less than an average of 20 hours per week.

A—1942 Exemptions

Revision 17-4; Effective October 1, 2017

SNAP

An individual is exempt from the SNAP ABAWD work requirement if they:

- are pregnant;
- are a member of a SNAP EDG where a household member on the SNAP EDG is under age 18;
- are exempt from E&T registration;
- live in a waiver area (see C-330, SNAP ABAWD Work Requirement Waiver Counties);
- live in a SNAP non-E&T county. (C-341, SNAP Non-Employment and Training Counties); or
- meet the criteria as being physically or mentally unfit to work.

Individuals are physically or mentally unfit to work if they:

- have an obvious disability;
- receive temporary or permanent disability payments from a private or government source, including Veterans Affairs (VA) disability payments, regardless of disability rating; or
- provide a Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, stating the individual is unable to work at least an average of 20 hours per week.

Note: Each household member must be exempt from the SNAP ABAWD work requirement for the household to meet the streamlined reporting criteria.

A-1950, Counting Months Toward Time-Limited Eligibility

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

Count a benefit month as one of the three initial ABAWD Federal Time Limit (FTL) months if the person:

- receives SNAP benefits in Texas or any other state that month;
- is not exempt from the work requirement that month; and
- fails to work an average of 20 hours per week that month.

Note: Staff must verify any benefits the person received in another state as an ABAWD if the recipient indicates receiving benefits outside of Texas and the information is readily available.

ABAWD FTL months must also be applied retroactively when:

- the benefits are issued as restored benefits;
- the person received an exemption from ABAWD work requirements and time limits in error; or
- the person correctly received an exemption from ABAWD work requirements and time limits, but the household situation changed and the ABAWD status was not updated.

Do not count SNAP benefit months toward the ABAWD time limit when HHSC or the out-of-state agency:

- disqualifies the person from SNAP for any reason;
- prorates benefits; or
- files an overpayment claim for the entire month's benefit.

Examples:

- John Adams (an ABAWD) applied for SNAP benefits on March 1, 2011. The application was denied March 31, 2011, for missed appointment. Adams reapplies on April 4, 2011, and is approved SNAP benefits from April 4, 2011, ongoing, with May 2011 counting as the first month toward his three-month ABAWD time limit. On May 12, 2011, it was discovered that the denial on March 31, 2011, was in error and Adams is issued the full allotment for March 2011, and the portion that was prorated for April 2011 in restored SNAP benefits. Both March and April must be counted retroactively toward the ABAWD time limit.
- Susan Jones applied for SNAP benefits on Nov. 16, 2010. Jones received an E&T exemption because she had recently lost her job and had applied for unemployment benefits. As a result, she also was exempted from the ABAWD time limit requirements. Jones was approved for SNAP benefits Nov. 16, 2010, through April 30, 2011. At Jones's redetermination interview on April 11, 2011, it is discovered that unemployment benefits were denied and HHSC had exempted her from E&T in error. Each of the months from the previous certification period in which HHSC had exempted her from E&T in error must be counted retroactively toward the ABAWD time limit.
- Becky and Bob Smith and their three children were approved for SNAP benefits from Oct. 1, 2010, through March 31, 2011. The three children moved in with their grandmother on Nov. 2, 2010. The Smith household was certified as a streamlined reporting household and was not obligated to report that the children had left the home. The Smiths do not timely reapply and the SNAP certification period expires. On April 15, 2011, the Smiths reapply for SNAP benefits and are scheduled an interview the same day. At the interview the advisor discovers the children have been out of the home since November 2010. Each month from the previous certification period in which the children were out of the home for the full month must be counted retroactively toward the ABAWD time limit. April will not count as an ABAWD month because benefits are prorated.

Redetermine eligibility effective the benefit month after the third countable time-limited benefit month. Staff may set a:

- special review before cutoff in the third countable month; or
- three-month certification if the 36-month period starts at certification.

A—1951 After the Three Months of Time-Limited SNAP Eligibility

Revision 14-4; Effective October 1, 2014

SNAP

When the initial three months of time-limited eligibility expire, the advisor must:

- disqualify the individual; or
- deny the EDG if:
 - it is a single-person household, or
 - the disqualification makes the household ineligible.

Provide advance notice of adverse action, if required.

Note: Use the individual notice language specific to this disqualification in the comment section of Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action.

Revision 22-2; Effective April 1, 2022

A person who loses eligibility due to the work requirement time limit may regain eligibility an unlimited number of times if the person:

- becomes exempt from the requirement; or
- begins working an average of 20 hours per week. Determine ongoing eligibility after verifying the person started working or participating in a specified work program an average of 20 hours per week in a month.

Note: The ABAWD must meet all other eligibility criteria to receive SNAP benefits.

A—1961 Second Time-Limited Three-Month SNAP Eligibility Period

Revision 20-3; Effective July 1, 2020

SNAP

A person who already received the three months of time-limited benefits can qualify for one additional three-month period of eligibility in the 36-month period if they are not meeting the work requirement but have worked for a specified period of time after receiving the three initial ABAWD FTL months. The person must:

- meet the 20-hour per week work requirement after the first three-month eligibility period by working at least 80 hours in a 30-day period; or
- participate in a recognized work program for at least 80 hours in a 30-day period after the first three-month eligibility period. A combination of work and participation in a specified work program also meets this requirement.

Note: The person does not have to receive SNAP benefits during the month they worked or participated in a work program for the minimum amount of hours to regain eligibility.

If HHSC prorates benefits, do not count the prorated month when determining the first month of the additional three-month period.

The person can receive the additional eligibility period once in the 36-month period. Limit the additional eligibility period to three consecutive months, even if the person returns to work or if HHSC denies SNAP for another reason during the three-month period. The additional consecutive three-month period may extend past the end of the original 36-month period if it begins during the original 36-month period.

For example: Brad Johnson's original 36-month period is September 2016 to August 2019. Brad used his initial three months in September 2016, October 2016 and April 2017. He reapplied for benefits on July 3, 2019, and met the criteria for an additional three-month period. Brad's second three-month period is August 2019, September 2019 and October 2019. Because July 2019 benefits are prorated, July is not a countable month. A new 36-month period can begin November 2019.

If all certified members' additional three-month eligibility periods ...

then ...

If all certified members' additional three-month eligibility periods ...then ...

expire in the same month,

set the certification period to end the last month of the three-month eligibility period.

do not expire in the same month, set special reviews to deny each member effective the end of the third month of the additional eligibility period.

Exception: ABAWDs in Texas are assigned to participate in workfare through SNAP E&T. When notification is received from TWC that the ABAWD met work requirements by participating in SNAP E&T in the first month of the second three-month segment, remove the second three-month segment. If the ABAWD begins participating in SNAP E&T in the second or third month of the second three-month segment, the three consecutive ABAWD FTL months must remain.

Additionally, when the modification of the ABAWD FTL months results in the first countable month of the second three-month segment being removed, the second three-month segment must be adjusted to start with the first countable month in which the ABAWD does not meet the work requirements. If the first countable month of the second three-month segment is removed, the consecutive months of the second three-month segment must also be removed.

For Example: Brad used his initial three months in September 2016, October 2016 and April 2017. Brad regains eligibility and his second three-month period is August 2018, September 2018 and October 2018. In January 2019, Brad files a new application and it is discovered that he was meeting the work requirement through participating in Workfare with TWC in August 2018 and ongoing. Staff would remove August 2018 as a countable month, and by doing so, removes the second three-month segment of consecutive months.

Note: See A-1933.2.1, Personal Disability or Caring for a Family Member With a Disability, for verification requirements for extended TANF EDGs.

SNAP

When verifying earned income, advisors must also verify whether the employee works an average of 20 hours a week in a month.

When determining if an individual qualifies to regain eligibility for SNAP after the individual has used three countable months of benefits in a 36-month period, advisors must verify that the individual worked, or complied with a work program, for at least 80 hours in a 30-day period for the individual to be eligible for the second set of three-month time-limited SNAP benefits.

Verify volunteer employment hours by contacting the employer. Verify the existence of a business or nonprofit organization, if questionable, by viewing federal income tax documents or nonprofit certification documents from the Internal Revenue Service or the Texas State Comptroller of Public Accounts.

Verify participation in the:

- Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) through the local WIOA program administrative office,
- Trade Adjustment Assistance Program through the LWDB, and
- SNAP E&T program through the local E&T office.

Use Form H1822, ABAWD E&T Work Requirement Verification, to verify participation in the above programs.

Verify an individual's exemption from the 18–50 work requirement for:

- pregnancy, and
- being physically or mentally unfit to work 20 hours a week.

A-2020, Authenticating a Caller

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF, SNAP, TP 08 and TA 31

With more interviews completed by telephone, it is crucial that staff confirm the identity of the person being interviewed. Staff must ask identifying questions to confirm the identity of the person when interviewing by telephone. In addition to clearing all discrepancies, these questions serve as a tool to authenticate the caller.

At the start of the interview, staff should explain that the authentication questions help ensure the caller's identity and protect their confidentiality and information.

Note: This policy only applies to those programs that require an interview, or when the individual requests an interview.

A—2020.1 Authentication Questions and Verification Sources

Revision 17-3; Effective July 1, 2017

TANF, SNAP, TP 08 and TA 31

Staff must ask client-related questions from the list below to verify the caller's identity. Staff should ask questions to which the individual, authorized representative (AR), or personal representative (PR) generally will know the answers, but which are not easily known by others. This applies to ARs/PRs outside the household as well as household members. Available verification sources should be used to choose the questions and verify the responses of the person being interviewed. These sources include but are not limited to:

- Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS);
- Data Broker; and
- Birth Verification System (BVS).

Staff should have the verification information for the client-related questions available during the interview to immediately confirm the responses. Not all the questions are applicable to every household, and staff should use prudent judgment to determine whether enough questions apply to the household's situation and whether the person being interviewed provides accurate responses.

From the lists below, staff should ask as many head of household-related questions as needed to allow the person being interviewed an opportunity to respond accurately to a total of two questions.

Initially, questions with available verifications should be chosen from a source other than the application, such as:

1. What is your Texas driver license or Texas state identification number?
2. What was a previous address for any place you lived?
3. Who are your neighbors?
4. What is/was the date of your wedding anniversary?
5. When was your divorce final?

If the person being interviewed cannot provide two accurate responses to any of the above questions, staff should ask as many of these additional questions as needed to receive a total of two accurate responses:

1. What is the Social Security number for a child (any child) on your case?
2. What is the date of birth for a child (any child) on your case?
3. What type of vehicle do you or another household member own?
4. Who are the members of your household?
5. What types of income do you or a member of your household receive?
6. From whom do you receive child support?
7. What is your alien registration number?
8. What is your (or your wife's) maiden name?
9. What is the name of a bank/financial institution where you have an account?
10. Who was a previous/last employer for you or another household member?
11. What is the name of your mortgage company or landlord?
12. To whom do you pay child support?

If necessary, staff may request a credit report on the head of household:

- for applicants new to Texas;
- when none of the above questions apply to the household's situation; or
- when you cannot gather verification of the responses from the sources listed above.

Information from the head of household's credit report may be used to develop questions to authenticate the caller. Examples of credit report questions to authenticate the caller include:

1. What is the name of a gas station or department store with which you have a credit card?
2. What is the name of a major credit card you have (Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Discover, etc.)?
3. What is the name of the bank/financial institution with which you have/had a student loan?
4. What is the name of the bank/financial institution with which you have/had a car loan?

Staff must document responses to the questions according to requirements in A-2050, Documentation Requirements.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

If a household member is currently active for the same program on another EDG, HHSC staff must:

- notify the corresponding HHSC office by email or telephone;
- determine the correct EDG/case that will remain open;
- deny TANF, Medicaid and SNAP, if needed to prevent duplicate participation; and
- refer the household to the Office of Inspector General (OIG) for a TANF and/or SNAP overpayment.

Staff should refer to B-771, Filing an Overpayment Referral Using Automated System for the Office of Inspector General (ASOIG), and B-772, Filing an Overpayment Referral Using TIERS, for instructions on submitting a fraud and/or non-fraud referral to OIG. A—2123.1 When the Individual Signs Form H1073

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Inform the caretaker and/or second parent (including a minor parent who is a caretaker or second parent) that they must not voluntarily quit a job of 30 or more hours a week. Voluntary quit applies to a caretaker/second parent who:

- signed the responsibility agreement;
- is non-exempt from Choices requirements whether the individual lives in a full service Choices county or a minimum service Choices county; and

- quit a job that was 30 hours or more a week without good cause.

A person has voluntarily quit a job if the individual:

- lost a job because of participation in a strike; or
- left a job unannounced or does not return to work without good cause, even if the person was technically fired.

A person is not considered to have voluntarily quit a job if the individual:

- reduced hours of employment, but continues to work for the same employer;
- ends a self-employment enterprise;
- resigns a job at the employer's demand;
- is currently on strike; or

A—2124.1.1 Setting the Texas Health Steps Overdue Month

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

TANF

TIERS calculates and sets an overdue month for applications and complete reviews. TIERS uses the Texas Health Steps medical schedule and the child's birthdate plus 12 months to determine the overdue month. The child's birth month is month zero. The overdue month begins the first calendar day of the 12th month. This is the same formula Texas Health Steps uses to determine the child's overdue month for a medical checkup.

Example: The household has a child who turns 6 on April 3. According to the Texas Health Steps schedule, the child is due for a checkup when the child turns age 6. Consider April as month zero, and add 12 months to determine the overdue month. In this example, if the child does not have a medical checkup by the end of March, the child is overdue beginning April 1.

A—2124.5 Good Cause for Texas Health Steps Noncooperation

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

TANF

When a person fails to cooperate with the Texas Health Steps requirement, explore good cause before applying a penalty. The person may claim good cause for the following reasons:

- Medical — A screening puts the child's health at risk. The person may provide medical records, a certificate, affidavit or statement from a licensed physician that the screening would be injurious to the health of the child. If verification from a Texas Health Steps worker indicates the child has had a screening within 12 months before the overdue date, allow a medical good cause. The Texas Health Steps worker will work with the provider to get the child back on schedule.
- Religion — The family has a religious belief that does not allow the child to have a screening. The applicant may provide a verbal statement on behalf of the child stating that the screening conflicts with the practices of a recognized church or religious organization to which the family adheres.
- No medical provider or transportation — There is no medical provider or transportation available within the geographic area. Regional Texas Health Steps staff provide this information to regional staff on a quarterly basis.

The person must provide proof for good cause. If staff determine the person has good cause for not cooperating with the Texas Health Steps requirements, select the good cause reason in TIERS Data Collection.

Use the following chart to determine when to start good cause.

If staff determine that good cause exists at ...	and the person has ...	then ...
a complete review,	no open penalty,	start good cause the month the person provides proof.
a complete review,	an open penalty,	start good cause the month after the person provides proof. End the penalty the month the person provides proof.
reapplication,	no open penalty,	start good cause the month of reapplication.
reapplication,	an open penalty,	start good cause the month of reapplication. End the penalty the month before the reapplication month. Exception: End the penalty the month of reapplication if the person reapplies in a month in which benefits were received.

Redetermine good cause at the next complete review. The good cause end date is the month staff determine the person no longer has good cause.

- immunizations are not in the child's best medical interest; or
- the individual declined immunizations for the child for reasons of conscience, including a religious belief.

Good cause exists in the following situations:

- Medical — Administering immunizations puts the child's health at risk. The individual may provide medical records, a certificate, affidavit, or a statement from a licensed physician that the required immunization poses a significant risk to the health of the child.
- Conscientious Objector — The immunization is being declined for reasons of conscience, including a religious belief. The person claiming the exemption must complete an affidavit on a form provided by DSHS stating the reason for the exemption. The child's parent, managing conservator, or guardian must sign the affidavit and have it notarized.

- Alternate Schedule — The child is behind on the current series of immunizations and the child is on an alternate schedule established by a doctor or health practitioner. The individual may provide a doctor's statement that the child is on an alternate schedule. Document the schedule and check the status at the next complete review.

Do not refer a person to parenting skills training if the TIERS “Individual Summary TANF Time Limits” page and the personal responsibility agreement indicate they have completed training. The “Parenting Skills” field will show Yes.

An individual must complete parenting skills training once. Acceptable verification of training completion includes training that occurred before the individual referral, such as in a high school curriculum. The following is what needs to be provided when referring a person to parenting skills training.

- Form H1088, Verification of Parenting Skills Training, for each person referred.
- Information from 211Texas.org on classes in the area that are available where they may complete the parenting skills class and obtain verification. To find a class:
 - Go to 211Texas.org.

 - On the next page, select the word search function.
 - Enter "parenting skills classes" within the Advance Search text box.
- If the parenting skills classes in the area do not contain all of the following four components, provide the individual with information on the classes that contain the component(s) the individual and advisor determine would most benefit the individual:
 - nutrition education;
 - budgeting;
 - survival skills; and
 - instruction on the necessity of physical and emotional safety for children.
- instruction that a parenting skills training certificate, letter, Women, Infants and Children identification card (only one card is needed to satisfy verification requirements for two-parent families), or other documentation that verifies completion of training is acceptable proof.
- the name(s) of the referred member(s) on Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action; and
- the following additional information on Form TF0001 for individuals who meet the mandatory referral criteria:
 - attendance of a parenting skills training must occur before the family's next TANF periodic review; and
 - the individual must provide verification of training completion at the next periodic review or the family's TANF EDG will be sanctioned, unless good cause exists. The penalty must remain on the EDG until the person(s) provides proof of training completion, has good cause, or is no longer mandatory.

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

At the complete review after the individual is referred to parenting skills training, determine if the individual completed the training.

If an individual who continues to meet the mandatory referral criteria does not have verification of class completion, determine if the individual has good cause for not completing the training during the months between reviews.

If an individual no longer meets the mandatory referral criteria when you are verifying training completion, do not determine good cause or impose a full family sanction.

A—2128 Alcohol or Drugs

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

A—2128.1 When the Person Signs Form H1073

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TANF

Inform a caretaker, second parent, payee or disqualified adult that they will forfeit a month of cash assistance if convicted of a felony or misdemeanor criminal offense under Health and Safety Code, Chapter 481, involving marijuana or another controlled substance or a crime involving abuse of alcohol after signing Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement. This includes a deferred adjudication. The penalty does not apply to an offense that occurred before the person signed Form H1073.

Note: A legal parent is permanently disqualified for a felony drug conviction (not deferred adjudication) for an offense committed on or after April 1, 2002.

Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, requires an applicant or recipient to answer a question about a conviction. Accept the person's statement.

Discuss the situation with the person when the criminal history report in the Data Broker system indicates they were convicted of an alcohol or drug offense after signing Form H1073. If they claim not to be the person indicated on the criminal history report, but the identifying information (name, date of birth, physical description) leads staff to believe the information is correct, or the person disagrees with other information provided in the report (such as the type of conviction or whether it was a felony or misdemeanor):

- document the person's response in Case Comments;
- proceed with the appropriate case action without acting on the criminal history report;
- contact the Office of Inspector General (OIG) by emailing the OIG Benefit Program Integrity \(BPI\) mailbox; and
- document the reason for contacting OIG BPI in Case Comments.

Once OIG BPI obtains information to clear the discrepancy, the assigned OIG BPI investigator provides the information by email. Staff responsible for clearing this task must document the results of the OIG BPI's findings in Case Comments and, if applicable, enter the information in the Data Collection-Individual Demographic-Conviction/Rehabilitation page. Make an overpayment referral, if appropriate.

A—2128.2 Failure to Cooperate with the Alcohol or Drug Requirement

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

At the complete review after Form H1073 is signed, if the individual answers yes to the question on Form H1010 regarding drugs and alcohol, determine if both the offense and conviction occurred after the individual signed Form H1073. If the offense and conviction occurred after Form H1073 was signed, apply a sanction.

Example 1: An individual signs Form H1073 in January 1999. The individual commits an offense in April 1999 and is convicted in November 1999. At the complete review after November 1999, the individual states on Form H1010 that he was convicted of possessing marijuana or a controlled substance. The advisor must impose a full-family sanction for one month.

Example 2: An individual signs Form H1073 in March. At the next complete review, the individual states he was convicted of a crime involving marijuana. The offense was committed before he signed Form H1073 and the individual was convicted after signing the form. The advisor cannot sanction the household because the offense occurred before the individual signed Form H1073.

A—2128.3 Advisor Action on Noncooperation

Revision 05-3; Effective July 1, 2005

TANF

If the individual states the offense and conviction occurred after signing Form H1073, apply a full-family sanction for one month. Accept the individual's statement as verification.

There is no good cause or cure for noncooperation with the alcohol or drug requirement.

Follow adverse action procedures in A-2343.1.

A—2129 Good Cause

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

TANF

All requirements of the PRA have good cause except for the alcohol and drug requirement. If a person has good cause for any requirement except alcohol and drug, do not penalize the person for noncooperation.

Penalty and good cause start and end dates cannot overlap for Choices, Texas Health Steps, or immunization and parenting skills requirements. The good cause must end before a penalty can start and vice versa.

For more detailed information about good cause start and end dates, refer to each personal responsibility in A-2120, Individual Responsibilities.

A-2130, Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement, lists the recipient's and HHSC's responsibilities. A caretaker, second parent, payee, or disqualified adult must sign Form H1073 before being certified. This includes a minor parent applying as an adult. If a caretaker, second parent, payee, or disqualified adult is not present to sign the agreement during the interview, pend the EDG to obtain the required signature.

Explain Form H1073 responsibilities and penalties for noncooperation at each periodic review.

Once the caretaker or second parent signs Form H1073, they do not have to sign the form again unless they are:

- denied and reapply; or
- added to the EDG.

Note: A disqualified member (as listed in A-222 #4) who cooperates must sign Form H1073 before being added to the TANF EDG. See A-2132.2. A member ineligible for Medicaid because of a Choices or child support noncooperation is not required to sign Form H1073 to reinstate benefits if the cooperation is completed before the end of the second month of noncooperation.

A—2131 Processing the PRA at Application

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

A—2131.1 Initial Application

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

At initial application, the individual must:

- sign the PRA; and
- be informed of its requirements and full-family sanction for noncooperation.

Impose a PRA noncooperation if the individual fails to comply with child support, voluntary quit or school attendance requirements after signing Form H1073 but before certification. If the individual cures the noncooperation before the eligibility determination, do not impose the full-family sanction and do not record the penalty.

The month the advisor discovers the noncooperation is also the first month of noncooperation. The applicant must cooperate by the end of the second noncooperation month to avoid reapplying in pay for performance. The forfeit month is the first month the household is otherwise eligible to receive a benefit, including a prorated benefit.

If the individual cooperates by the end of the second noncooperation month, certify the household with a future effective month equal to the month after the forfeit month.

After initial certification, impose a penalty for any PRA noncooperation discovered at complete review or when processing another case action.

If the required member(s) fails or refuses to sign the PRA, deny the application.

Continue to process the application for Medical Programs for Families and Children.

A—2131.2 Applicants Who Previously Received TANF

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Do not require a member who previously signed Form H1073 to sign it again unless the EDG is denied and the individual reapplies. In this situation, the member must sign Form H1073 again or the application must be denied.

A—2131.2.1 Verifying Prior Cooperation Status at TANF Reapplication

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

TANF

When a household reapplies for TANF in the last month the household receives TANF assistance, or the two months following, staff must verify the household was in cooperation with all PRA requirements in the last month the household received TANF cash assistance. If the household was not in cooperation with all PRA requirements in their last month of TANF eligibility, impose a full-family sanction for a minimum of one month or until cooperation, whichever is longer. The month staff discover the noncooperation is also the first month of noncooperation. The applicant must cooperate by the end of the second noncooperation month to avoid reapplying in pay for performance. The forfeit month is the first month the household is otherwise eligible to receive a benefit (including a prorated benefit). If the person cooperates by the end of the second noncooperation month, certify the household with a future effective month equal to the month after the forfeit month. If the household reapplies for TANF later than two months following the month the household last received TANF benefits, treat the household like an initial application.

did not cooperate with any other PRA requirement,	treat the household as an initial application.	A-2131.1 , Initial Application.

Note: If a noncooperating minor parent certified as a caretaker, second parent or disqualified person is not in compliance with school attendance and moves from an existing household into a new household, follow policy in A-2151, Open Penalty at Reapplication in Pay for Performance.

When a household member certified as a child moves from an existing household into a new household that currently is not receiving TANF, but subsequently applies and the child has an open PRA noncooperation for immunizations, Texas Health Steps or school attendance, do not impose a full-family sanction on the new household. Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

Require the new member to sign Form H1073 within 10 days of the report date when adding a caretaker, second parent, payee or disqualified adult at incomplete review. If the new member refuses or fails to sign Form H1073, deny the EDG. Apply the full-family sanction policy if the member noncooperates with the PRA requirements after signing the PRA.

A—2132.2 Disqualification of a Caretaker or Second Parent

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

If, after the PRA is signed, the caretaker is disqualified or both parents are disqualified in a two-parent household, inform the household of the payee/disqualified adult PRA requirements.

When the household consists of both the caretaker and second parent who have signed Form H1073 and only one parent is disqualified, the PRA requirements still apply to the household. When the disqualified member cooperates, the individual must sign Form H1073 before being added to the TANF EDG.

Note: This policy does not apply to members who are ineligible for Medicaid because of a noncooperation with PRA Choices or child support.

A—2132.3 Removing a Penalized Member During the First Noncooperation Month

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

If the household reports the move ...

Note: The noncooperation is recorded with the individual's information only. TIERS will not set a Non Cooperation One (NC1) month until the individual reapplies.

A—2132.4 Removing a Penalized Member During the Second Noncooperation Month

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Deny the TANF EDG if the penalized member failed to cooperate and moved out during the second noncooperation month or afterwards. The household must reapply for TANF.

If the household reapplies for TANF and a member of the applying household

- has an open PRA penalty, the household must demonstrate PRA cooperation for one month through pay for performance.
- does not have an open penalty, the household does not have to demonstrate cooperation.

A—2132.5 Adding a Penalized Member to a Household

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

A household currently receiving TANF cannot receive a benefit for the new penalized member for the identified forfeit month(s). Pend the EDG to add the penalized member for 30 or 40* days after the change is reported to allow demonstrated cooperation.

If the penalized member ...	then ...
demonstrates cooperation by the 30th or 40th day,	add the new member to the TANF EDG following current change policy, but no earlier than the month after the forfeit month(s).
fails to demonstrate cooperation by the 30th or 40th day,	Deny the EDG.

*Follow policy in A-2151, Open Penalty at Reapplication in Pay for Performance, to determine if the EDG should be pended for 30 or 40 days.

TIERS will transfer sanction information on the individual to the new case/EDG from the old case/EDG so there will be no change to NC1, Non Cooperation 2 (NC2), Forfeit 1 or Forfeit 2.

Provide a separate Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, Request for Information or Action, if other eligibility verification is required. If all eligibility information is provided except PRA cooperation, add the new member to the SNAP or Medicaid EDG as appropriate.

Example: On May 3, the Smith household requests that Sarah, who is a new member of the household and currently penalized, be added to their EDG. The advisor sends form H1020 to the household informing them that Sarah has an open penalty and cannot be added until she cooperates with the PRA. If the household fails to provide verification of cooperation by June 2, the advisor sends Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to deny the TANF cash assistance. Take action on any associated Medicaid or SNAP EDGs following existing policy.

A—2132.6 Certified Children Who Age Out Before/After the Caretaker or Payee Fails to Cooperate with PRA Requirements

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Once a certified child ages out of the certified group, the caretaker or payee is not required to cooperate with the PRA requirements for that particular child even if timely action has not been taken to remove the child from the EDG.

When a caretaker or payee receives a noncooperation for a certified child ...	then ...
and the certified child ages out before the noncooperation discovery month,	do not sanction the household.
and the certified child ages out during or after the noncooperation discovery month,	ensure the child is removed from the EDG and apply one forfeit month to the household.

Notes:

- Process an overpayment referral if the child was not removed timely from the EDG.
- A child ages out in the month the child turns 18 or the month the child graduates if graduating before or during the month of the individual's 19th birthday.

A-2140, Full-Family Sanction

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

Impose a full-family sanction when an adult TANF recipient, minor parent certified as an adult or second parent, or payee/disqualified adult fails to cooperate with any applicable requirement of the PRA after the agreement has been signed. The full-family sanction is imposed for a minimum of one month or until cooperation, whichever is longer.

If the household does not cooperate with a PRA requirement for two consecutive months, the household loses TANF cash assistance and the family must demonstrate cooperation with the PRA for 30 days before receiving cash assistance again. This is referred to as pay for performance.

If the household does not cooperate with two or more PRA requirements during the initial NC1 or NC2 month, the household loses TANF cash assistance and the family must reapply in pay for performance.

A—2141 When to Start a Full-Family Sanction

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

After the TANF recipient or payee/disqualified adult signs the PRA, the entire household loses eligibility for cash assistance if a:

- TANF recipient fails to cooperate with any PRA requirement, or
- payee/disqualified adult fails to cooperate with any of the modified PRA requirements.

This loss of cash assistance is referred to as a full-family sanction. During the full-family sanction the household is ineligible for cash assistance for one month or until they cooperate, whichever is longer. Once the full-family sanction is imposed, that month's benefit is forfeited and the family cannot regain that month's benefit, even if they later cooperate.

If the nonexempt TANF recipient fails to cooperate with Choices or child support, or the payee/disqualified adult or Choices-exempt TANF recipient fails to cooperate with child support, the noncooperating individual also loses Medicaid coverage (excluding Transitional Medicaid) for one month or until cooperation, whichever is longer, unless the individual is under age 19 or pregnant. The other family members remain eligible for Medicaid.

A noncooperation is not applicable if the noncooperation occurred:

- before Sept. 1, 2003, and the full-family sanction was never imposed, or
- on or after Sept. 1, 2003, but before signing Form H1073. Advisors must not open anew PRA penalty for noncooperations that occurred before the individual signed the PRA.

Notes:

- After the TANF EDG is denied for any reason, the noncooperating adult may reapply for Medicaid and qualify after the identified forfeit months. Exception: An adult who noncooperated with child support must comply before becoming eligible for Medicaid.
- If the family has new or increased earnings, child support income or loss of the 90% earned income disregard (EID) that causes ineligibility and a PRA noncooperation that affect the same month, the earned income, child support or EID change has hierarchy. Exception: Legal parents who fail to cooperate with Child/Medical Support or TPR requirements are not eligible for Transitional Child Support Medicaid.

A—2141.1 Determining the First Month of Noncooperation

Revision 14-1; Effective January 1, 2014

TANF

The first month of noncooperation, or the NC1 month, is the month:

- of the "noncooperation date" on Form H2581, Choices Noncooperation Report;
- HHSC receives notice of child support noncooperation on Form H1708-A, Report of Noncooperation (Automated). Note: There is no noncooperation date on Form H1708-A. Use the date the data is posted to the online system; or
- the advisor discovers noncooperation with other PRA requirements at either a complete or incomplete action.

A—2141.2 Determining the Second Month of Noncooperation

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

The second month of potential noncooperation/cooperation, or the NC2 month, is the calendar month following the first month of noncooperation. The family must cooperate with the PRA by the last calendar day of the second month to avoid a second forfeit month and pay for performance requirements.

Consider the individual a TANF recipient during the second month of noncooperation even if this is a forfeit month. The individual has not lost eligibility during the second month of noncooperation and may regain eligibility during the second month if cooperation is established by the last calendar day of the month.

Note: When a member fails to cooperate with the drug and alcohol PRA requirement, the individual is considered to be back in cooperation status the month after the month of noncooperation unless convicted of a subsequent offense.

A—2141.3 Determining the Forfeit Month(s)

Revision 12-3; Effective January 1, 2012

TANF

For PRA penalties imposed on active EDGs, the first month the advisor can actually apply the full-family sanction and forfeit a month of TANF cash assistance after sending Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, and allowing adverse action is the effective month.

For PRA penalties imposed at application, the first forfeit month for:

- TANF is the first month the household would otherwise receive a TANF grant.
- Medicaid for an adult who fails to cooperate with Choices or child support is the first month the advisor can impose the penalty on or after the PRA noncooperation discovery date. Provide Medicaid coverage for the adult for any eligible months before the PRA noncooperation discovery date.

Note: Forfeit months cannot be prior to the first noncooperation (NC1) month.

A TANF household that fails to cooperate with the PRA for two consecutive months must forfeit cash assistance for two consecutive months. The following individuals also forfeit Medicaid coverage for two consecutive months, unless the individual is pregnant or under the age of 19:

- Choices mandatory TANF caretaker or second parent who noncooperates with Choices or child support;
- Choices exempt TANF caretaker or second parent who noncooperates with child support; or
- payee/disqualified adult who noncooperates with child support.

Note: When the full-family sanction month has been determined and a Choices or child support noncooperation is received after cutoff in the first month of noncooperation, disqualify the noncooperating member the next effective month.

A—2142 Applying a Full-Family Sanction to Multiple TANF EDGs

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

TANF

If the TANF recipient, payee, or disqualified adult has more than one TANF EDG and fails to cooperate with:

- parenting skills, voluntary quit or Choices, the sanction applies only to the EDG with the certified adult;
- Texas Health Steps, immunizations or school attendance, the sanction applies to the EDG with the applicable child; or
- child support or drugs and alcohol, the sanction applies to all TANF EDGs.

A—2143 Reinstating Cash Assistance After Cooperation

Revision 14-1; Effective January 1, 2014

TANF

If the family cooperates with all required PRA components by the last calendar day of the second consecutive month, the advisor must reinstate TANF cash assistance for the first month after the full-family sanction month. If the advisor receives verification of cooperation from the individual, Texas Workforce Commission (TWC), Office of Attorney General (OAG) or other sources after the second month and before cutoff of the following month, the individual must have cooperated in the second month to have cash assistance reinstated. Note: If HHSC later receives proof that the individual did cooperate in the second month, the individual may reapply without going through the pay for performance process.

Example: The advisor receives Form H1708-A, Report of Noncooperation (Automated), in November after cutoff and processes the EDG before December cutoff. The family's first month of noncooperation is November, and the full-family sanction is effective January. The family has forfeited January TANF cash assistance permanently. The noncooperating adult has also lost Medicaid for January.

The family's second consecutive month of noncooperation/cooperation is December. On Jan. 4, the OAG provides Form H1701, Child Support, TANF Foster Care and TANF/Medicaid Case Information Exchange, verifying the individual cooperated with child support requirements on Dec. 29, 2003. The advisor must reinstate TANF cash assistance (and Medicaid for the disqualified adult) effective February (the month after the forfeited month).

A—2144 Imposing a Penalty

Revision 14-2; Effective April 1, 2014

To impose a penalty, ensure required individuals have signed Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement. Impose a full-family sanction using the following chart.

If processing ...	impose a full-family sanction ...
an initial application,	effective the first month the applicant would otherwise receive a grant if the individual does not cooperate with child support, voluntary quit or school attendance requirements before certification but after signing the PRA. Do not impose a full-family sanction for any other noncooperation at application.
an incomplete review,	the effective month based on the date Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is sent if the individual does not cooperate with Choices, child support or voluntary quit requirements.
a complete review on an active EDG,	the effective month based on the disposition date for any penalty.
a reapplication after denial,	as explained in each individual responsibility section (A-2120 , Individual Responsibilities).
an application received in the last benefit month or within two months after the last benefit month,	effective the first month the applicant would otherwise receive a grant if the applicant was not cooperating with the PRA in the last benefit month (A-2131.2.1 , Verifying Prior Cooperation Status at TANF Reapplication).

Issue Form TF0001, informing the individual of the PRA noncompliance. Include who did not comply with the PRA and which requirement the member failed to cooperate with.

Note: Impose a full-family sanction if the requested verification indicates the PRA requirement was met after the verification request date or if the verification is provided after the verification due date.

A—2144.1 Failing to Impose a Full-Family Sanction

Revision 12-4; Effective October 1, 2012

TANF

If HHSC does not take action on a noncooperation report within a reasonable time frame, send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to initiate the noncooperation penalty as soon as possible.

Form TF0001 is sent within a reasonable time frame if:

- for Choices penalties, a Choices penalty notice is received from TWC within five calendar days after the end of the month in which the Choices noncooperation occurred; and
- for all penalties, the advisor sends Form TF0001 in the same calendar month as the date of noncooperation, or within 10 calendar days after becoming aware of the noncooperation if that is later.

If the advisor does not send Form TF0001 within a reasonable time frame, the first month of noncooperation becomes the month Form TF0001 was sent. This ensures the individual has a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate cooperation in the second month.

Note: A postponed first month results in a forfeit month, but does not count toward two consecutive months of noncooperation.

If the advisor sends Form TF0001 for a PRA penalty within a reasonable time frame but fails to timely impose the full-family sanction for the correct forfeit month, determine the actual first and second month of noncooperation. If the individual:

- cooperates in the second month, file a claim for the month that should have been forfeited. The household does not need to reapply for TANF.
- fails to cooperate in the second month, file a claim for the two months that should have been forfeited. The household must reapply in pay for performance status.

If a penalty is applicable but the EDG is denied, advisors still must enter the penalty information into TIERS and send Form TF0001.

A—2145 Ending an Open Penalty

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

The end date for a PRA penalty is the month the individual cooperates or has good cause for certain PRA requirements.

Close a PRA penalty if the household cooperates by the end of the second month of noncooperation and provides verification by cutoff of the next month.

If verification is provided after cutoff of the following month, the household must reapply as explained in A-2143.

Note: Do not close a child support penalty incurred while receiving TANF when an individual applies for adult Medicaid and has cooperated with the OAG.

The end date cannot be later than the effective month (the month the advisor can affect benefits).

Enter the verification type and date when ending a penalty. If the advisor enters an end month with no verification, TIERS pends the page.

Note: If after imposing a penalty you determine the individual was incorrectly penalized, remove the penalty and restore benefits, if appropriate.

A-2150, Pay for Performance

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

If the household does not cooperate with one or more PRA requirements for two consecutive months, the household loses TANF cash assistance and the family must demonstrate cooperation with all PRA requirements for 30 days before they are eligible to receive TANF cash assistance. This is referred to as pay for performance. Advisors must verify that the family has not cooperated by the end of the second consecutive month before applying the pay for performance policy. The 30 days of demonstrated cooperation starts when the family cooperated with the PRA requirement. Note: If cooperation was established before the application date, the 30 days of cooperation begins on the file date.

A household may reapply for TANF assistance under pay for performance after the second noncooperation month. Deny a TANF application, filed before the last day of the second noncooperation month as filed in error. Exception: Do not deny the TANF application if the appointment is scheduled after the second noncooperation month. At the interview, have the individual review Form H1010 and resign it. The file date is the first day of the interview month. Document the reason the file date changed.

Note: When a TANF applicant with an open PRA penalty applies for One-Time Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (OTTANF), the individual must demonstrate cooperation with all open noncooperations before being considered TANF-eligible. See A-2400 for OTTANF policy.

The person must cure the voluntary quit. Verify the person has obtained employment of 30 hours or more per week, or is eligible for a Choices exemption. If the person is employed on the interview date or is eligible for a Choices exemption, pend the application until the 30th day after the file date for proof of cooperation, and if the person:

Voluntary quit

 - month after the second forfeit month; or
 - 30th day from the file date if after the second forfeit month; or
- is not employed for 30 hours per week or eligible for a Choices exemption, deny the application.

The person must cooperate with Texas Health Steps requirements. Refer the person to the local Texas Health Steps staff using Form H1087, or Texas Health Steps regional hotline. Pend the application until the 30th day after the file date for proof of cooperation, and if:

- deny the application if verification is not provided by the 40th day after the interview date.

If the TANF applicant or second parent is in pay for performance status because of failure to cooperate with ...

then ...

The person must cooperate with parenting skills requirements. Pend the application until the 30th day after the file date, and if

Parenting skills

- the person cooperates by the 30th day after the file date, end the penalty the month completion is verified and continue pending the application until the 30th day after the cooperation date. Certify the application effective the:
 - month after the second forfeit month; or
 - 30th day from the file date if after the second forfeit month; or
- verification is not provided by the 30th day after the file date, deny the application.

- Explore Medicaid eligibility for the children and eligible adults.
- If a person has an open Choices, Voluntary Quit or Parenting Skills penalty and is now a payee, the person does not have to demonstrate cooperation.

A—2152 A Second Noncooperation During Pay for Performance

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF

The household must reapply in pay for performance to qualify for TANF cash assistance. An individual with an open penalty at application must cooperate with the PRA requirement that caused the penalty and demonstrate PRA cooperation for 30 days.

When a household reapplies for TANF during pay for performance and the advisor discovers a household member fails to cooperate with a second or subsequent PRA requirement:

- Before or during the reapplication interview, allow the individual to demonstrate cooperation for the initial and second or subsequent noncooperation. Pend the application for the required 30- or 40-day time period to allow demonstrated cooperation for the initial and second or subsequent penalty. If the household:
 - cooperates with both the initial and subsequent penalties, close the initial penalty and certify the application. Document that the household cooperated with the second or subsequent penalty.
 - cooperates with the initial penalty, but not second or subsequent penalty, close the initial penalty, open the second or subsequent penalty and deny the application as a result of the second or subsequent noncooperation.
 - fails to cooperate with the initial penalty, leave the penalty open and deny the application. Do not open a second or subsequent penalty.
- After the interview, deny the TANF reapplication. The initial penalty remains open. Open the second or subsequent penalty.

Note: Explore Medicaid eligibility for the children and eligible adults.

A-2200, Workforce Orientation

A-2210, Requirements

Revision 05-5; Effective October 1, 2005

TANF and TANF-SP

A caretaker and second parent (not disqualified) residing in a full service Choices county must attend a workforce orientation if he is applying for

- TANF/TANF-SP, or
- extended TANF.

Inform the applicant that he must attend the orientation before you can certify the household.

List the requirement to provide proof of workforce orientation attendance on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action.

See A-2214, Failure or Refusal to Comply with the Workforce Orientation Requirement. When denying a TANF/TANF-SP application for failure to attend workforce orientation, continue to process the application for Medical Programs for Families and Children and for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), if applicable.

Some applicants may not be able to attend a regularly scheduled workforce orientation due to extraordinary circumstances. These applicants must complete an alternative workforce orientation via telephone or home visit by local workforce staff depending on available resources. Exception: Allow good cause for a caretaker/second parent who is unable to complete a regular or alternate workforce orientation because of being hospitalized or bedridden with a severe illness.

A—2211 Alternative Workforce Orientation

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF and TANF-SP

At the interview, inform applicants who cannot attend a regularly scheduled workforce orientation due to extraordinary circumstances that he must complete an alternative orientation. Inform the client that he must contact the workforce solutions office to request an alternative orientation. Extraordinary circumstances may include:

- no available transportation or a disruption in transportation arrangements;
- residing more than 30 miles from the nearest Local Workforce Development Board (LWDB) orientation site;
- caring for a child under four months of age;
- a conflicting work or school schedule;
- illness or injury of the applicant or spouse;
- illness or injury of another household member that requires the applicant's care; or
- being a victim of family violence and attending the orientation session would place the applicant/family in danger.

Generally, the alternative workforce orientation will consist of either a telephone call or a visit by local workforce staff. The type of alternative orientation will depend on resources available to the LWDB.

A—2212 Workforce Orientation Referral

Revision 03-5; Effective July 1, 2003

A—2212.1 Form H2588, Workforce Orientation Referral

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

TANF and TANF-SP

Use Form H2588, Workforce Orientation Referral, to refer an applicant in a full service Choices county to a regular or alternative workforce orientation. Provide the applicant with a completed Form H2588 for each caretaker and second parent.

Note: If you determine the applicant requires an alternative workforce orientation, complete Form H2588, Part B – Workforce Orientation (Alternative).

Inform individuals of the requirements to

- attend a workforce orientation, regular or alternative, and
- have Form H2588 signed and stamped by Choices staff.

Choices staff are required to return the verification to the local eligibility determination office by fax, phone, courier, interagency mail, or regular mail.

If the Local Workforce Development Board (LWDB) determines they are not able to accommodate the applicant with an alternative orientation, the LWDB returns Form H2588 indicating they were not able to provide the orientation and that the applicant is considered to have met the requirement.

Note: The applicant may choose to return the stamped Form H2588 to HHSC instead of waiting for Choices staff to provide the verification to HHSC.

A—2212.2 Workforce Orientation Flyers

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

TANF and TANF-SP

Choices staff provide offices with workforce orientation flyers. The flyers for the regular orientation informs applicants of the days, times, and locations of regular workforce orientation sessions. The LWDBs have flexibility in the development of the alternative workforce orientation flyer. If the flyer does not contain information regarding an alternative orientation, provide the applicant with the regular orientation flyer so they have the workforce solutions office's telephone number. Advisors must inform the individual that it is the individual who must contact the workforce solutions office to request an alternative workforce orientation. Provide a workforce orientation flyer, regular or alternative, with each Form H2588, Workforce Orientation Referral.

Advisors are not required to provide a TANF Workforce Orientation flyer with Form H2588 to TANF applicants who are interviewed by phone from a remote location, although this remains an acceptable option. At a minimum, advisors must provide the household with the workforce solutions office information based on the individual's residential address.

Staff can find the most accessible workforce solutions office for the household at www.twc.state.tx.us and clicking on "Find Locations."

Staff must list the requirement to provide proof of workforce orientation attendance on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, Request for Information or Action, along with the contact information, address and phone number for the workforce solutions office. The applicant is responsible for making contact with the workforce solutions office and completing the workforce orientation.

The number of available orientations depends on the number of applicants local eligibility determination offices refer to Choices staff. Texas Works and Choices staff coordinates to determine the average number of referrals. Regular workforce orientations occur at least twice a week. Rural areas of full service Choices counties may hold orientations on an individual basis.

Note: If a workforce orientation, regular or alternative, is unavailable to an applicant in a full service Choices county within the 10-day pending period, do not require the applicant to attend the workforce orientation prior to certification.

A—2213 Workforce Orientation Session

Revision 03-5; Effective July 1, 2003

TANF and TANF-SP

The workforce orientation, regular and alternative, introduces applicants to the local labor market and the resources available to assist the applicant with finding a job. Workforce orientation emphasizes the impact of time-limited benefits, importance of work, and personal responsibility.

Workforce orientation staff informs applicants of related support services, such as childcare and limited transportation benefits.

A—2213.1 Related Support Services

Revision 03-5; Effective July 1, 2003

TANF and TANF-SP

Choices staff in a full service Choices county offer applicants the opportunity to take advantage of immediate job search or education/training resources. If the applicant attends the regular or alternative orientation and obtains a job before TANF certification, Choices staff offers an applicant childcare for up to 12 months and limited transportation benefits.

Once certified, the individual may receive childcare and limited transportation benefits if he gets a job within the first three months after TANF certification and if the household is not eligible for transitional benefits. If the individual gets a job after receiving TANF benefits for more than three months, the household is potentially eligible for transitional benefits.

A—2213.2 Employment Planning Session (EPS)

Revision 03-5; Effective July 1, 2003

TANF and TANF-SP

At the end of the workforce orientation, regular or alternative, Choices staff in full service Choices counties give or mail an EPS appointment to all applicants.

Some applicants are not required to attend the EPS. Choices staff let the applicant know if he must attend the EPS. Mark the "Potential Choices Status" box on Form H2588, Workforce Orientation Referral, to help local Choices staff determine who is potentially exempt or non-exempt from the Choices program and the EPS.

Local Choices staff advise applicants who are potentially

- non-exempt from Choices about sanctions for not attending the EPS.
- exempt from Choices that they do not have to attend the EPS but may volunteer to attend.

In most instances, Choices staff hold the EPS after the advisor certifies the TANF case; however, Choices staff may hold the EPS before TANF certification.

If the individual ...	then Choices staff ...
attends the EPS after certification,	set the appointment date as the date the individual attends the EPS.
fails to keep the EPS appointment after certification,	send a sanction request for a non-exempt TANF recipient. This counts as a Choices noncompliance.
attends the EPS before certification,	set the appointment date as the certification date.
fails to keep the EPS appointment before certification,	do not initiate a sanction. Instead, send another EPS appointment notice after case certification.

A recipient exempt from participating in Choices is not required to attend the EPS. By attending, the individual is voluntarily participating in the Choices program and is subject to time limits.

All Programs

Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) disposition produces the individual's notice of eligibility status. At the close of the interview or during processing of the application or renewal form, the EDG is pended, certified, sustained or denied. Advisors must give the individual one or more of the following notices:

- Form H1020, Request for Information or Action — Form H1020 tells the individual the:

- reason the case is pending;
- action the individual or advisor must take;
- date by which the individual or advisor must take action; and
- date the advisor must deny the application/EDG if the individual does not take action, if applicable.

Note: For Spanish-speaking only individuals, advisors must ensure that all comments provided are in Spanish. See Form H1020 instructions for translation of common pending phrases.

- Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action

- If benefits have been approved, the notice informs the individual of:
 - the date benefits begin or Medicaid effective date;
 - the amount of benefits; and
 - the length of certification for Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) EDGs.
- If benefits have been denied, terminated or reduced, the notice informs the individual of:
 - the reason the advisor denied the application, denied the EDG or reduced benefits;
 - that a protective payee is required for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF);
 - the effective date of the action;
 - the individual's right to appeal;
 - the address and telephone number of free legal services available in the area; and
 - that the advisor used a credit report, if its use resulted in fewer benefits than the individual would have otherwise received.

If an application is denied because an individual failed to keep an appointment or furnish information, advisors provide what they must do to reuse the application.

Note: Eligibility for multiple programs is determined independently of each other. Advisors must not deny an application for one program based solely on the denial of another program unless the household fails to meet the eligibility requirements.

If the advisor issued a notice of eligibility for the one-time grandparent payment but State Office Database Support notifies the advisor that the individual is not eligible, Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is issued to notify the household that they are not eligible because they previously received the payment.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

TANF financial eligibility begins the earlier of the:

- certification date; or
- 30th day after the file date.

The certification date is the date the advisor disposes the TANF EDG. An applicant must receive benefits for the month that falls within 30 days of the file date, unless benefits prorate to less than $10.

See A-2411, OTTANF, and A-2412, Grandparent Payments.

The following examples show possible beginning dates for eligibility:

Example 1: A family applies April 9. The certification date is April 21. Benefits are prorated from April 21.

Example 2: A family applies on April 30. The certification date is May 29, and because of proration, benefits for May are less than $10. The grant effective date is June 1.

Example 3: A family applies April 9, but the advisor delays certification until May 15. Benefits are prorated from May 9 (30th day from the file date).

SNAP

SNAP eligibility begins on the day the valid application is received in the correct office unless:

- benefits prorate to less than $10;
- the household already received benefits that month; or

Note: Advisors must not prorate OTTANF or One-Time Grandparent payments.

SNAP

Advisors base proration on the number of days between the file date and the end of the month. To calculate the prorated amount, advisors determine the:

- household's whole monthly benefit based on household size and net income; and
- prorated allotment from the proration table in C-1432, Prorated SNAP Allotments by Application Date, using the whole monthly allotment and date of application.

Note: Advisors never prorate benefits for any month after the application month.

To calculate prorations over $300, advisors must:

1. Subtract the date of application from 31.
2. Multiply the difference by the amount of the whole monthly allotment.
3. Divide that amount by 30.
4. Drop all cents.

If the date of application is the 30th or 31st, advisors divide the whole allotment by 30.

Example: A household applies June 17. The household's whole monthly allotment is $395.

1. $31 - 17 = 14$
2. $$395 \times 14 = $5,530$
3. $$5,530 \div 30 = \184.33
4. Round to $184. The household's prorated allotment for June is $184.

Advisors must not prorate benefits if the household includes a member who meets both of the following criteria:

- is a seasonal or migrant farm worker (in or out of the workstream); and
- was certified for SNAP, in Texas or another state, the month before the household applied.

A—2324 Length of Certification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

TANF does not have a certification period. The EDG remains open until denied.

The Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) calculates the TANF periodic review due date from the date the advisor disposes the EDG as follows:

- Applications:
 - 11 months for payee EDGs with income of less than $3; or
 - five months for other EDGs.
- Reviews:
 - 12 months for payee cases with income of less than $3; or
 - six months for other cases.

One-Time Payments

OTTANF cases are not subject to periodic reviews. Applicants must reapply for subsequent benefits after the ineligibility period. See A-2400, One Time Payments. Grandparent OTTANF are not subject to further action.

SNAP

Non-Public Assistance (NPA) Households

Advisors assign households the longest certification period possible based on their eligibility and the predictability of their circumstances, according to the following table:

If the household ...	then certify the household for ...
meets the streamlined reporting (SR) criteria in A-2350 , Streamlined Reporting Households,	six months.
	Exception: Certify SNAP for four or five months, if necessary, so the new SNAP certification period ends one month before the end of the Children's Medicaid certification period. This will allow state office to mail only one redetermination packet for both programs.

If the household ...

consists entirely of unemployable or elderly persons with stable circumstances and the household does not meet the SR criteria, six to 12 months.

Example: Households whose members receive Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance (RSDI), Supplemental Security Income (SSI), retirement pensions or disability payments may be certified up to 12 months if other household circumstances are expected to remain stable.

Note: Pure SSI households are assigned a 36-month certification period.

does not meet the SR criteria and circumstances are unstable (including households with an able-bodied adult without dependents [ABAWD]), three to six months.

is likely to become ineligible in the next two months due to an expected change and the household does not meet the SR criteria, one or two months.

Example: The household does not meet SR criteria and the individual indicates during the interview that someone in the household will start a new job, begin receiving unemployment benefits or move out of (or into) the household.

Exception: If the household is certified for one or two months and the certification occurs after the 15th day in the last month of certification, extend the certification to the following month (unless the household is ineligible based on a change known at certification).

Notes:

- If a household meets the SR criteria, advisors must ensure that TIERS designates the EDG as SR and assigns a six-month certification period. This includes households with self-employment income.
- Advisors must give the individual Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, and Form H1830-R, Texas Works Renewal Notice, at recertification when assigning a:
 - one- or two-month certification period, or
 - three-month certification period and the case is certified after cutoff in the first benefit month.

Public Assistance (PA) Households

Most SNAP EDGs with associated TANF EDGs meet the SR criteria.

For non-SR households, advisors assign a certification period that meets the requirements listed above for Non-PA households and corresponds to the redetermination due date of the associated TANF EDG.

For SR households, advisors assign a six-month certification period regardless of whether the certification period corresponds to the redetermination due date of the associated TANF EDG.

TP 08 has a 12-month non-continuous eligibility certification period. The estimated eligibility end date is estimated as follows:

- Applications — application month plus 11 months, and
- Redeterminations — 12 months from the last review date.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

The certification period for a child is the earliest of:

- 12 months, or
- through the month of the child's 19th birthday.

For these Types of Assistance (TOAs), the first six-month period is a continuous eligibility period and the second six-month period is a non-continuous eligibility period. The estimated eligibility end date is estimated as follows:

- Applications — application month plus 11 months, and
- Redeterminations — 12 months from the last review date.

Emergency Medicaid

Emergency Medicaid ends the earlier of either the end date of the emergency condition or the last day of the application month.

TP 40

The end date is the last day of the second month following the expected delivery date. See A-825, Medicaid Termination, for information on pregnancies that terminate early or late.

A-2330, Setting Special Reviews

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

TANF and Medical Programs

Advisors assign a special review when certifying a household that anticipates a change affecting eligibility before the next redetermination.

SNAP, TANF and Medical Programs

Advisors set special reviews when the household:

- has questionable circumstances; or
- includes a pregnant household member whose baby is expected before the next redetermination. Advisors schedule the special review on the first day of the month after her baby is due.

Exception: Advisors must not set a special review for SNAP SR households.

SNAP

Advisors set a special review for SNAP households according to the following chart:

For households ...	assign a special review ...
not designated as streamlined reporting,	when the household anticipates a change affecting eligibility before the next redetermination.
designated as streamlined reporting,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • when the household anticipates they will have an increase in income that will cause the household to exceed 130 percent of the Federal Poverty Income Limits (FPIL); • if at certification, the advisor is aware a household member will gain or lose alien status eligibility sometime during the certification period (for example, a lawful permanent resident [LPR] will reach the 5 years of qualifying immigrant status during the certification period); or • when the household reports that an ABAWD who is currently eligible but is not meeting the average 20 hours a week work/training requirement moves into the SR household and will exhaust the individual's time limits and become ineligible on or before the last month of the certification period.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

If a change is reported during the continuous eligibility period, the advisor must schedule a special review in the first week of the sixth month of the certification period, before cutoff, so an expected change can take effect during the non-continuous eligibility period.

A—2330.1 Special Reviews for Known Changes

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

A known change is a change that the household reasonably anticipates will occur during the certification period.

Example: The individual has been employed in the past by the school district and will return to work at that job three months into the certification period.

Advisors must contact the household to confirm that a change occurred. If the household confirms that a change occurred, policy in B-600, Changes, applies. If the household confirms that no change occurred, the advisor must document in Case Comments the household's explanation to complete the special review.

If the advisor requests verification of the change on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, Request for Information or Action, but the individual fails to respond, the advisor must consider the case situation questionable and follow procedures in B-635, Shortening Certification Periods as a Result of a Change, to shorten the certification period. Exception: Advisors must not shorten the certification period for SNAP SR households.

A—2330.2 Special Reviews for Questionable Changes

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

A questionable change is a change the household thinks may happen during the certification period or that the advisor expects to happen because the household's situation is unstable.

Example 1: The individual is unemployed at the time of the interview and is looking for work but does not have a definite job offer.

Example 2: The household expenses exceed income, and the individual cannot explain future management.

Advisors must contact the household to determine whether a change occurred. If the household confirms that a change occurred, the advisor follows policy in B-600, Changes. If the household confirms that no change occurred, the advisor documents the contact in Case Comments and the household's explanation to complete the special review.

Note: Advisors must not set a special review due to questionable changes for SNAP SR households.

A—2341 Denial of an Application

Revision 17-2, Effective April 1, 2017

All Programs

Denials are effective immediately. Advisors must provide the applicant with Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, stating the reason for the denial. Advisors must follow the procedures and time frames in B-100, Processes and Processing Time Frames.

Note: Advisors determine eligibility for multiple programs independently of each other and do not deny an application for one program based solely on the denial of another program unless the household fails to meet the eligibility requirements.

Medical Programs

The system automatically sends individuals determined ineligible for Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) at application to the Marketplace for an eligibility determination for federal health care coverage programs.

To qualify for the federal health care coverage programs, all individuals must first be determined ineligible for Medicaid and CHIP. Advisors must test whether an individual is eligible for all Medical Programs. The Texas Works Medical Programs Hierarchy, explained in A-132.1, Medical Programs Hierarchy, does this automatically for all clients at application.

Notes:

- Advisors must follow a manual process when retesting eligibility for a minor parent aging out of TP 44, a pregnant woman from TP 40 at the end of the certification period, or an individual at the end of the transitional Medicaid certification period, as explained in A-2342.1, Retesting Eligibility.
- Pregnant woman whose TP 40 coverage terminates prior to the end of their original certification period may be eligible for automatic retesting of eligibility for all Medical Programs as explained in A-825, Medicaid Termination.

A—2342 Denial at Redetermination

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

TANF

Process TANF EDGs found ineligible at review following adverse action procedures.

SNAP

Denials are effective immediately. Advisors provide the household with Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, stating the reason for denial.

Timely Redeterminations — If a household applies by the 15th of the last month of their certification period and is ineligible, advisors use the policy and procedures in B-120, Redeterminations, to deny the EDG.

Untimely Redeterminations — If a household applies after the 15th of the last month of their certification period and is ineligible, advisors use the policy and procedures in B-110, Applications, to deny the EDG.

Medical Programs

The system automatically sends individuals determined ineligible for Medicaid and CHIP at redetermination to the Marketplace for an eligibility determination for federal health care coverage programs.

To qualify for the federal health care coverage programs, all individuals must first be determined ineligible for Medicaid and CHIP. Advisors must test whether an individual is eligible for all Medical Programs. The Texas Works Medical Programs Hierarchy, explained in A-132.1, Medical Programs Hierarchy, does this automatically for all clients at redetermination.

Notes:

- Advisors must follow a manual process when retesting eligibility for a minor parent aging out of TP 44, a pregnant woman from TP 40 at the end of the certification period, or an individual at the end of the transitional Medicaid certification period, as explained in A-2342.1, Retesting Eligibility.
- Pregnant woman whose TP 40 coverage terminates prior to the end of their original certification period may be eligible for automatic retesting of eligibility for all Medical Programs as explained in A-825, Medicaid Termination.

Before denying for missing a redetermination appointment, advisors must determine whether the individual is eligible for TP 07 in the denial effective month. If so, advisors provide TP 07 rather than denying the EDG.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

Advisors process a denial if the household fails to provide pending verification by the 30th day from the file date or by cutoff in the last benefit month of certification, whichever is later. Advisors do not provide 13 days advance notice prior to denying the EDG.

When an advisor processes a renewal, which results in a shortened Medicaid certification period, the household may be eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment as explained in D-1711, Expedited CHIP Enrollment.

A—2342.1 Retesting Eligibility

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 44, TP 40, TP 07 and TP 20

The advisor must retest the following clients' potential eligibility for other Medical Programs by manually running the Texas Works Medical Program Hierarchy explained in A-132.1, Medical Programs Hierarchy, from the beginning:

- Minor parents aging out of TP 44, Children Ages 6-18;
- Individuals under TP 40, Pregnant Women, once their certification period ends; and
- Individuals terminated from TP 07 or TP 20, transitional Medicaid.

All other clients will flow through the hierarchy to either the next available program (for example, a child aging out of TP 48 will automatically be tested for TP 44) or will be referred to the Marketplace if determined ineligible for all other Medical Programs (for example, a non-parent child aging out of TP 44).

The system will not terminate eligibility of the individuals listed above at the end of the certification period. An advisor must take action to review the individual's eligibility and re-run the hierarchy to determine potential eligibility for other programs. Advisors must use the first day of the last month of the current certification period as the file date. Advisors should treat these cases like a redetermination without an actual renewal form. Except in the case of TP 40 where there may be an application, in which case advisors would process the case as they do redeterminations with renewal forms. Advisors must verify information as is currently done in the redetermination process.

The remaining individuals in the client's household composition are not re-evaluated for eligibility during a continuous eligibility period. Changes to household composition for the aging out of minor parents, end of pregnancy, or termination of transitional Medicaid coverage will be acted upon once the individuals transition from a continuous eligibility period to a non-continuous eligibility period.

Note: An interview is required when testing for TP 08.

A—2343 Advance Notice

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

After approval, advisors give households advance notice of adverse actions to deny, terminate, lower, or restrict existing benefits except for reasons listed in A-2344.1, Form TF0001 Required (Adequate Notice), and A-2344.2, No Form TF0001 Required.

A—2343.1 How to Take Adverse Action if Advance Notice Is Required

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

TIERS provides 13 days advance notice to the household after informing them of a denial or termination of ongoing benefits using Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action. The day Form TF0001 is sent is day zero of the adverse action period.

If the 13-day advance notice period:

- does not expire until after the last day of the month (regardless of whether the 13th day is a business day), the household is eligible for the same level of benefits the month after the notice was sent.

- expires between cutoff and the end of the month, the reduction or denial is effective the following month. Note: Do not deny TP 40 EDGs when taking adverse action for failure to provide postponed verification.

TANF

Provide 13 days advance notice to the household using Form TF0001 before taking action to:

- establish a protective payee; or
- continue a protective payee because of mismanagement.

To establish a protective payee because the person mismanaged TANF benefits, follow advance notice policy above.

At complete redetermination, re-evaluate the situation to determine whether the protective payee should continue. If the decision is to continue, notify the person by sending Form TF0001.

If the person appeals this decision, issue TANF benefits to a protective payee until the hearing is completed.

Medical Programs

A person applying for Medicaid who declares U.S. citizenship or an eligible alien status, but for whom verification is unavailable, receives a 95-day period of reasonable opportunity to provide verification of citizenship or alien status. The reasonable opportunity period expires on the 95th day from when the TF0001 was generated. Deny the person and provide 30 days advance notice of adverse action to the household if they do not provide verification of citizenship or alien status.

A—2344.2 No Form TF0001 Required

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is not required in the following situations:

- the state or federal government initiates mass changes that affect the entire caseload or significant portions of the caseload, such as the annual Social Security cost-of-living adjustment.
- the household moves out of state and reports it afterward.
- the household gives HHSC a written, signed request to voluntarily withdraw.

TANF

Form TF0001 is not required when child support collected by the Office of the Attorney General exceeded the amount of the grant plus the $75 disregard. In these cases, state office sends Form H1718, Notice of Benefit Denial, to the individual.

SNAP

Form TF0001 is not required in the following situations:

- All members of a household have died.

- The individual's allotment changes from month to month during the certification period because of changes expected at the time of certification. In this situation, inform the individual on Form TF0001 at the time of certification that the household's allotment will vary.
- The individual applied for TANF and SNAP at the same time and received SNAP while waiting for approval of the TANF grant.

A-2350, Streamlined Reporting Households

Revision 19-2; Effective April 1, 2019

SNAP

All SNAP households meet the streamlined reporting criteria with the following exceptions:

- The household knows (at application or redetermination) they have a change that will make them ineligible within the next six months. For example, the household plans to move out of state due to a new job in two months. Note: Do not consider an anticipated change in household composition as a known change until it actually occurs.
- The household consists of members who are all elderly or who have a disability, and no member has earned income. These households include pure SSI and RSDI cases that normally receive a 12-month certification period. Use the criteria in B-430, Households with Elderly Members or Members with a Disability, to determine if a person is elderly or has a disability for SR. If all household members meet the criteria in B-430, at least one member must have earned income to be designated as SR.
- The household contains at least one non-exempt ABAWD. For SR purposes, an adult age 18 up to age 50 is not considered an ABAWD if exempt from the SNAP ABAWD work requirement due to:
 - disability;
 - having a child under age 18 (or is a member of a SNAP EDG where a household member is under age 18); or
 - pregnancy.

Notes:

- A single-person household meets the SR criteria if the individual has a disability. If the disability is not obvious, the advisor should obtain Form HI1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement. This person does not have to meet the earned income stipulation to be designated as SR.
- A single-person ABAWD living in a SNAP ABAWD waiver or non-E&T county does not meet the SR criteria.
- In situations where a household member is working or training an average of 20 hours weekly and has a child under age 18 (or is a member of a SNAP EDG where a household member is under age 18), the advisor must exempt the household member as having a child under age 18 in the 18-50 Work Requirement screen.
- When an SR household reports that an ABAWD is working or participating less than an average of 20 hours per week and no longer meeting the work requirement, the household will be subject to non-streamlined reporting criteria.

Advisors must determine whether a household meets the SR criteria at application and redetermination. Advisors assign a certification period to SR households, as explained in A-2324, Length of Certification, and do not remove the SR designation at incomplete reviews. The household retains its SR designation throughout the certification period.

A—2351 Disqualified Members

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

SNAP

Advisors must extend SR policy to households containing disqualified members. In a household containing all elderly and/or members with a disability, the household can meet the SR criteria, even if the disqualified member is the only person with earnings.

Advisors do not consider a disqualified member an ABAWD for purposes of determining SR status, even if the member is disqualified due to exhausting the individual's SNAP ABAWD time limits. Advisors consider only eligible household members for this purpose.

TANF

One Time Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (OTTANF) provides $1,000 cash assistance for families in crisis. The intent of the OTTANF payment is to help solve a short-term crisis and divert households from ongoing TANF benefits. These families must

- meet all TANF eligibility requirements; and
- not currently receive TANF.

Note: Households who are active on Type Programs (TP) 07, 20 or 37 may apply for OTTANF.

A household has an option of receiving TANF or OTTANF if it meets one of four crisis criteria. Households who choose this option are not eligible to receive TANF, TANF-SP, or OTTANF payments for 12 months.

The following type programs (TPs) identify OTTANF Eligibility Determination Groups (EDGs):

- TP 71 – for a one parent household; and
- TP 72 – for a two parent household based on incapacity or TANF-SP.

The following participation statutes are required for an OTTANF EDG:

- Eligible Adult – caretaker in an OTTANF household;
- Eligible Adult – second parent in an OTTANF household;
- Eligible Child – an eligible child in an OTTANF household; and
- Other Child – an SSI child

- is 45 years of age or older. This includes those who turn 45 in the month the eligibility determination is made and couples in which one is 45 or older (regardless of which one is caretaker/payee).
- meets the TANF relationship requirement of a grandparent as specified in C-1440, Relationship Charts. This includes degrees of great or great-great.
- is the caretaker or payee (or spouse of the caretaker or payee) of a TANF-certified grandchild, or is the caretaker or spouse of a caretaker of a grandchild for whom the household received OTTANF, and the parent of the grandchild is not in the home.
- has a family gross income less than or equal to 200% Federal Poverty Limit (FPIL).
- has resources less than or equal to the TANF resource limit in A-1220, Limits, of $1,000.

Note: A grandparent who is a payee is only required to meet the eligibility requirements noted above to qualify for the grandparent supplement. To be certified as a TANF caretaker, the grandparent must meet all TANF requirements.

Once a grandparent receives a one-time grandparent supplement payment, the grandparent is not eligible to receive the payment for other grandchildren who move into the home at a later time. Additionally, another grandparent cannot receive the grandparent payment for a grandchild who has already received the payment.

The grandchild must currently receive TANF or be newly certified for TANF (including open and close certifications). Note: A grandparent does not qualify based solely on a grandchild in the home who receives SSI.

Advisors must gather child support information as required for TANF EDGs. If the advisor processes the application as an OTTANF EDG, TIERS will not send the information to the Office of the Attorney General (OAG).

A—2421.4 Employment Services

Revision 05-3; Effective July 1, 2005

TANF

Required members must attend a workforce orientation before being offered OTTANF. Other employment services requirements do not apply to OTTANF.

A—2421.5 Personal Responsibility Agreement (PRA)

Revision 05-3; Effective July 1, 2005

TANF

Households must meet all TANF requirements, including the requirement to sign the PRA.

OTTANF applicants with an open PRA penalty must demonstrate cooperation to be eligible for OTTANF. See A-2100, Personal Responsibility Agreement.

A—2422 Requirements for Grandparent Payments

Revision 05-3; Effective July 1, 2005

A—2422.1 Determining the Budget and Certified Group

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Determining the Budget Group

To determine income eligibility, include the grandparents, grandchildren and any other children (biological or adopted) who meet the TANF age and relationship requirement and for whom the grandparent could apply for TANF. Persons included in the budget group may be disqualified or have a financial penalty.

Example: The household consists of Mr. and Mrs. Garza who are caring for two grandchildren, Chris, age 2 and Oscar, age 4. Chris and Oscar are cousins. Mr. and Mrs. Garza have two children, Rick, age 16, and Robert, age 19. Rick and Robert live at home. Mrs. Garza is an ineligible alien and is the payee on the TANF EDGs for her two grandchildren.

To determine income and resource eligibility for the one-time grandparent payment, include the following members in the budget group: Mr. and Mrs. Garza, both grandchildren, and Rick. Robert is not included because he does not meet the age requirement.

Determining the Certified Group

The certified group consists of the grandparent (and spouse of the grandparent) and grandchildren for whom the grandparent is the caretaker or payee on a TANF EDG.

Example: To determine the certified group of the Garza family noted in the example for the budget group, the certified group consists of: Mr. and Mrs. Garza, and both grandchildren. Rick and Robert are not included in the certified group.

A—2422.2 Income and Resource Guidelines

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Count the income and resources of all members of the budget group. Compare the household's gross income to the 200% FPIL. Do not allow any income deductions.

Compare the budget group's resources to the TANF resource limit noted in A-2412, Grandparent Payments.

Use TANF income and resource guidelines to determine countable and exempt income and resources.

Do not count the lump sum grandparent payment as income in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), TANF, or Medicaid EDG. It is considered a resource of the TANF certified grandchild(ren), and is therefore also exempt from SNAP resources as explained in A-1248, Resources of TANF and SSI Recipients.

The supplement counts as a TANF benefit for purposes of determining the amount of child support owed to Texas.

A-2430, Who Is Not Eligible

Revision 05-5; Effective October 1, 2005

A—2431 Who Is Not Eligible for OTTANF

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Do not offer OTTANF to a household if any member:

- is disqualified;
- is an active TANF individual;
- has an open PRA noncooperation and fails to demonstrate cooperation within the allowed time period;
- does not meet citizenship requirements for TANF (see A-2421.1, Citizenship);
- is a caretaker or second parent who received OTTANF within the previous 12 months;
- is a caretaker or second parent who did not receive OTTANF in the previous 12 months but now lives with a household that received OTTANF in the previous 12 months and would have been a required member of the household; or
- is receiving Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA).

Notes:

- Consider an individual as being active in TANF if the individual applies for OTTANF during the individual's second noncooperation month.
- Do not provide OTTANF for months identified as a forfeit month because of noncooperation with the PRA.
- OTTANF applicants with an open PRA penalty must demonstrate cooperation to be eligible for OTTANF. See A-2100, Personal Responsibility Agreement.

A—2431.1 12-Month Ineligibility Period

Revision 17-3; Effective July 1, 2017

TANF

A caretaker or second parent certified for OTTANF is ineligible for TANF, TANF-SP or OTTANF for 12 months. The first month of the 12-month ineligibility period is the grant effective month. When a caretaker and/or second parent of an OTTANF EDG moves to a new household, the individual takes the 12-month ineligibility period status along with the move. Children are only ineligible for the OTTANF grant effective month.

Example 1:

Mary applies for and receives OTTANF for herself and child in December. In June, she marries a man with two children who do not receive TANF. Mary and her husband have a mutual child. The new household is not eligible for TANF or OTTANF until the following December because the ineligibility period follows the caretaker. The household can apply for medical programs.

Anyone who would have been a mandatory member of the TANF group at the time of certification is not eligible for TANF benefits during the 12-month ineligibility period.

Example 2:

Ms. King received OTTANF for herself and her two children with a grant effective date of September 2012. In December 2012, her child Ryan, who was living with his father, moves into her household. Ms. King applies for TANF for Ryan. Because Ryan would have been included in the budget group at the time of certification, he cannot receive OTTANF or TANF until September 2013.

Use the following chart to determine eligibility when minor parents move into or out of an OTTANF or TANF household.

If a minor parent ...	and moves ...	then the minor parent is ...
received OTTANF on a parent's EDG	out and applies for TANF for the minor parent and for the child,	eligible for OTTANF or TANF.
received OTTANF as a child in any household	in with a parent who receives TANF,	eligible for TANF after the OTTANF ineligible month.
received OTTANF as a caretaker	in with a parent who receives TANF,	eligible for TANF. Note: Contact the IEE/TIERS Technical Help Desk to address the removal of the ineligible date.
receives TANF as a caretaker	in with a parent who received OTTANF,	ineligible for TANF or OTTANF if the minor parent would have been a required member of the parent's EDG at the time OTTANF was certified.

A—2432 Who Is Not Eligible for One-Time Grandparent Payments

Revision 05-5; Effective October 1, 2005

TANF

A household is not eligible for the one-time grandparent payment if :

- the gross income for the household exceeds the income limit,
- the resources available to the household exceed the resource limit,
- they do not meet the age or relationship requirement, or
- they have already received the one-time grandparent payment.

A-2440, Determining Crisis Criteria

Revision 05-4; Effective August 1, 2005

TANF

In addition to meeting all TANF requirements, the household must also meet one of the following four crisis criteria.

A—2441 Crisis Criteria One (TP 71 or 72)

Revision 07-3; Effective July 1, 2007

TANF

The caretaker or second parent must have a loss of any type of employment without regard to work history or certain dollar amount in the

- two months before application,
- application month, or
- process month.

Notes:

- If the household's income terminated in the process month and exceeded the TANF recognizable needs amount, the household may be eligible for OTTANF the month after the process month.
- As long as the individual meets the criteria above and is TANF eligible, the individual may receive OTTANF regardless of the individual's current employment status.

Do not apply Crisis Criteria One if an applicant voluntarily quits a job, including self employment, without good cause.

Temporary leave without pay from a job does not constitute loss of employment.

Related Policy

Reasons for Good Cause, A-1861

A—2442 Crisis Criteria Two (TP 71)

Revision 07-3; Effective July 1, 2007

TANF

In a one-parent household, the:

- dependent child must have a loss of financial support from the legal parent or stepparent within the last 12 months before the application month or process month through death, divorce, separation or abandonment or through termination or reduction of financial support; and
- caretaker must have been employed within the 12 months before the application or process month.

Financial support, including child support, is assistance with basic living expenses like rent, utilities and food. Loss of financial support from a legal parent or stepparent must be verified.

A—2443 Crisis Criteria Three (TP 71 or 72)

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

The caretaker or second parent graduated from a university, college, junior college or technical training school within the 12 months before the application or process month, and is unemployed or underemployed. The caretaker or second parent must:

- provide proof of degree or certificate of completion from a technical training school, junior college, college or university. This includes beauty, nursing or vocational school. The institution can be in or out of Texas;
- not currently be enrolled in an institution of higher learning; and
- have received TANF or an OTTANF benefit (in Texas) anytime in the 12 months before enrolling, or while attending a college, university, or technical training school. Attempt to verify prior receipt of TANF or OTTANF, but accept the individual's statement if TIERS records for that time are not available.

A—2444 Crisis Criteria Four (TP 71 or 72)

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

The caretaker and/or second parent is currently employed but still meets TANF requirements and is facing a crisis situation in the

- two months before application,
- application month, or

- process month.

The crisis situations are:

- Loss or potential loss of transportation — The applicant is unable to get to a job. The loss of a vehicle can be because of needed repairs, lack of insurance, necessary inspection, repossession, or threat of repossession.
- Loss or potential loss of shelter — The household may lose shelter because of foreclosure, eviction, condemnation, or threat of any of these.
- Medical emergency (60 days or less) — A caretaker/second parent has a medical emergency or is needed to provide temporary care for a household member who is ill or injured. The medical emergency can be for the applicant or a household member within the TANF degree of relationship. Do not apply this policy to individuals outside the home except for members who are in the hospital. A normal pregnancy or maternity leave is not a medical emergency.

A-2500, State Time Limits

A-2510, General Policy

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

State time limits determine the number of months certain individuals can receive TANF benefits.

The TANF Program and TANF State Program limit caretakers and second parents to a 60-month lifetime limit. When a caretaker or second parent receives 60 months of benefits, their entire household is ineligible.

Caretakers and second parents are also subject to a state time limit of 12, 24 or 36 months of benefits based on their work history and education. Other household members may continue to receive benefits after a caretaker or second parent reaches their 12-, 24- or 36-month time limit.

The individual's education and/or recent work experience determine(s) the individual's state time limit. There are three time limits, known as "tiers." Tiers and their corresponding state time limits are:

Tier State Time Limit

5	12 months
6	24 months
7	36 months

Note: TIERS enters Tier 8 when the advisor does not enter enough information.

All certified caretakers and second parents, including minor parents certified as caretakers and second parents, receive a state time limit tier.

State time limits apply to the TANF cash benefits received by certified caretakers and second parents who have access to Choices employment services.

After the individual is notified to participate or voluntarily participates in the Choices program, each month the individual has an open Choices case and is certified as a TANF caretaker or second parent counts toward the state time limit.

When a TANF caretaker or second parent reaches their time limit, TIERS disqualifies the individual from receiving TANF in Texas for five years. The children on the TANF EDG remain eligible.

Exception: During the five-year freeze out period, disqualified individuals who meet the criteria for a hardship exemption may receive TANF.

Individuals may continue receiving TANF Level Medicaid and transitional child care benefits during the 12 months following their last state time limit month. (See A-840, Transitional Medicaid Coverage.)

A-2520, Time Limit Tiers

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

A—2521 Initial Time Limit Tiers

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

TIERS determines the initial time limit tier for all TANF caretakers or second parents, including those with a current employment service exemption:

- at application; and
- when adding an individual to the household.

A—2521.1 Determining the Time Limit Tier

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

When advisors correctly identify education and work history status in the TANF TIER Level Details Logical Unit of Work (LUW), TIERS automatically determines the time limit tier for each certified caretaker and/or second parent. Accept the individual's statement of the grade completed.

TIERS prints the individual's state time limit information on TF0001, Notice of Case Action.

A—2522 Time Limit Tier Changes

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

The time limit tier may change when:

- Choices staff determine a functional literacy level which affects the tier;
- the advisor makes an error in entering the correct education or work history level; or
- redetermining the education and/or work history level at reapplication if the individual missed one full month's benefits before the date of reapplication.

A—2522.1 Change in Time Limit Tier Because of Functional Literacy Level

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Choices staff determine and enter the individual's functional literacy level in the Choices automated system. This information overrides the initial time limit tier determined by the advisor when:

- the functional literacy level is lower than the individual's completed education level; and
- a change in tier allows the individual to receive additional months of TANF and Choices services.

A tier may not change to one lower than the individual's work history level.

When the Choices literacy level updates the individual's tier level using the Choices automated interface, the advisor may not change the tier because of the education level.

A—2522.2 Change in Time Limit Tier Because of Error

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

If an advisor initially entered incorrect information, correct the original work history months or the original education level in TIERS and select YES from the Correction drop-down menu. Do not update work history or education levels for changes that occurred since determining the initial tier.

If an advisor request State Office Data Integrity (SODI) to force change a tier from 5 or 6 to tier 7, the advisor must also request that SODI delete all months in the individual's Time Limited history that occur before the year's anniversary of the individual's Literacy Assessment Date. (See A-2532, Counting Months for Tier 7, for an example of how to determine the Literacy Assessment anniversary date.) If the individual does not have a Literacy Assessment Date, request the deletion of all months counted. Exception: Do not delete any months counted before the Literacy Assessment Date month in which the individual has a Choices penalty.

A—2522.3 Changes to Time Limit Tiers at Reapplication

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

TIERS redetermines the time limit tier of a TANF caretaker or second parent at reapplication only if there has been at least one full month's break in benefits before the date of reapplication. Note: The individual may have more months or an equal number of months remaining in the individual's new time limit, but would never have fewer months than the prior time limit.

A-2530, Counting TANF Months Toward State Time Limit

Revision 17-3; Effective July 1, 2017

TANF

TIERS tracks the number of months counted toward an individual's state time limit. TIERS uses the Notification Effective Date (NED) and counts a month toward an individual's state time limit each month the individual:

- receives TANF;
- is certified as a caretaker or second parent; and
- has an open Choices case without Choices good cause indicated, or is sanctioned for Choices non-participation.

The advisor must:

- evaluate the accuracy of the months counted toward the individual's state time limit; and
- contact the IEE/TIERS help desk to address any issues with the individual's time limit months counted.

Notes:

- The automated procedures for counting months for Tiers 5 and 6 are different than for Tier 7.
- See A-2533, Changes to State Time Limit Months Counted, for changes to the individual's time-limited months' history.
- In minimum service Choices counties, all individuals are considered exempt from Choices participation even when the advisor codes them as M – mandatory. TIERS counts months toward the individual's time limit if the Choices case status is Open.

A—2531 Counting Months for Tiers 5 and 6

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

For individuals in Tier 5 or 6, TIERS counts months based on the Notification Effective Date (NED).

The Choices specialist enters a Notice Date in the Choices system as follows:

- the appointment date for an individual who is a mandatory Choices registrant, or
- the report date for an exempt volunteer.

TIERS adds one month to the notice date to compute the individual's TIERS Notification Effective Date. (See A-2533.3, Deleting Months When the NED Changes.)

TIERS counts the months toward the individual's state time limit (12 or 24 months) as follows:

If the individual's work registration status is ...	TIERS counts each month ...
mandatory participant	after the month the individual is notified to participate in the Choices program. after the month the individual exempt	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • volunteers, and • has an open Choices case.
sanctioned for Choices non-participation	the individual is sanctioned for refusing to participate in the Choices program.

Beginning with the NED month, TIERS counts each month the individual

- receives TANF,
- is certified as a caretaker or second parent, and
- has an open Choices case without Choices good cause indicated, or is sanctioned for Choices non-participation.

In addition, if an individual's work registration status is:

- mandatory registrant, or
- sanctioned for Choices non-participation, then

TIERS counts any months between the NED and the month the:

- Choices case opens, or
- individual is sanctioned.

A—2532 Counting Months for Tier 7

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

For individuals in Tier 7, TIERS counts months beginning one year after the Choices functional literacy assessment. Example: The individual's Literacy Assessment Date month is 1/98 (month 0). TIERS adds 12 months and, if the Tier 7 individual meets the appropriate criteria, begins counting toward the state time limit with 2/99 (month 13.)

TIERS counts each month the individual

- receives TANF;
- is certified as a caretaker or second parent; and
- has an open Choices case without Choices good cause indicated, or is sanctioned for Choices non-participation.

If the individual does not have an open Choices case without Choices good cause indicated or is sanctioned for Choices non-participation, TIERS counts months beginning with the Notification Effective Date after the assessment anniversary date.

A—2533 Changes to State Time Limit Months Counted

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Evaluate the accuracy of the state time limit months counted if

- requested to do so by the individual, or
- Texas Works or Choices/Texas Workforce Commission staff discovers a possible error.

TIERS keeps a record of the individual's participation status, work registration status and work registration reason, which can change from month to month.

A—2533.1 Deleting Months When TANF Benefits are Cancelled or Recouped

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

TIERS will remove a month counted toward the individual's state time limit when an overpayment referral is processed for a full month's benefits.

A—2533.2 Deleting Months in Error Situations

Revision 17-3; Effective July 1, 2017

TANF

Contact the IEE/TIERS Technical Help Desk to address any issues with the individual's Time Limited history in the following situations.

- The advisor discovers errors including incorrect work registration status or incorrect Choices penalties that result in months being counted erroneously. (Example: The advisor entered the individual mandatory instead of exempt while the individual was caring for a disabled child or the advisor deletes a Choices penalty in TIERS that was imposed in error.)
- Choices staff send notification that the individual's open Choices case status in TIERS is incorrect. (Example: The Choices automated interface sent a closed date for the Choices case status but the Choices case status is not showing closed in TIERS.)

A—2533.3 Deleting Months When the NED Changes

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

An individual's NED may change for many reasons. A change in the NED may indicate that the Time Limited months counted before the new NED were counted in error.

Example: An exempt individual voluntarily participates in the Choices program for a few months and then stops participating. The advisor changes the individual's work registration code to mandatory when the individual is no longer eligible for the exemption. Choices then outreaches the individual and sends TIERS a new appointment date. The individual's original NED was created because the individual participated in Choices while exempt. When TIERS receives a new Choices appointment date, TIERS creates a new NED. However, all months counted before the new NED are accurate and should remain counted. Do not request that SODI delete these months.

A—2533.4 Adding State Time Limit Months

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

The advisor should rarely request that SODI add months to the individual's Time Limited Months history. If there is a question concerning whether the months should be added, contact your regional Field Policy Specialist/mailbox (or other regional designee).

A-2540, State Time Limit Five-Year Freeze-Out Period

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Apply the following policies during an individual's state time limit five-year freeze-out period:

- TIERS disqualifies a caretaker or second parent from TANF for five years when the individual reaches the end of a state time limit. Exception: Certify the individual for TANF during the freeze-out period when the individual is eligible for a hardship exemption.
- A caretaker or second parent disqualified from TANF because of state time limit policies is eligible for TANF Level Medicaid (TP08) for the 12 months that follow the maximum allowable month of the individual's state time limit.

The state time limit and hardship information in TIERS is printed on TF0001, Notice of Case Action.

A—2541 State Time Limit Five-Year Freeze-Out End Date

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

TIERS automatically calculates the end of the individual's state time limit five-year freeze-out period. TIERS displays this date on the individual's Time Limit page in Individual Inquiry. SAVERR-stored data converted to TIERS can be found in the Time Limit functional area in TIERS. TIERS arrives at the TL Freeze-Out End Date by adding five years to the last state Time Limited month listed on client screen A3. The individual is potentially eligible for TANF without a hardship exemption the month following the TL Freeze-Out End Date in TIERS.

The advisor cannot change the TL Freeze-Out End Date. The individual's Freeze-Out End Date changes only when the state Time Limited months listed in TIERS are adjusted. The automated systems or the advisor adjusts these months using force change procedures.

A—2542 When TIERS Takes Action Automatically

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

TIERS automatically takes the actions described in this section when the data for the caretaker or second parent indicates that the maximum allowable number of TANF months have been counted toward the individual's state time limit.

A—2542.1 Time Limit Disqualification

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

TIERS disqualifies a certified caretaker or second parent who has used the maximum number of months allowed in a state time limit when:

- the individual is not exempt due to receiving hardship exemption from the state time limit;
- TIERS can correctly rebudget the TANF EDG without denying it.

TIERS follows budgeting procedures for a disqualified legal parent in A-1362.1, TANF — Budgeting for a Legal Parent Disqualified for Alien Status, Failure to Prove Citizenship, Noncompliance with the Unmarried Minor Parent Domicile Requirement or State Time Limits.

Exception: If the only eligible person(s) on the TANF EDG is the caretaker and/or second parent who used the maximum number of months in a state time limit, TIERS reruns eligibility for ineligible EDGs. All the children on these EDGs are disqualified because of noncompliance with employment services or receive:

- SSI;
- foster care payments; or
- adoption assistance payments.

A—2542.1.1 TIERS Procedures for SNAP EDGs When an Individual Times Out

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

SNAP

After TIERS changes a TANF grant amount in the state time limit automated process, it:

- reruns eligibility and budgets the new TANF amount in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) case; and
- sends a notice to the household stating the new SNAP amount.

A—2543 Hardship Exemptions

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

An individual requests a hardship exemption by submitting Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance – Your Texas Benefits, or asking to be added to the household's existing TANF or Medicaid EDG(s). Advise the household of these options whenever the individual expresses a need for assistance.

Certify a caretaker or second parent for TANF during the state time limit five-year freeze-out period when the individual:

- complied with Choices participation requirements while receiving TANF (the individual does not have a Choices penalty);
- is eligible for a hardship exemption; and
- otherwise meets TANF eligibility requirements.

There are three reasons for hardship exemptions:

Hardship	Work Registration Status
County	Time Limited Severe Economic Hardship
Employment	Time Limited Employment Hardship
Severe Personal	Time Limited Personal Hardship

A—2543.1 County Hardship Exemption

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

HHSC designates specific Texas counties economically deprived using unemployment and other job-related criteria. HHSC lists these counties on the State Time Limit County Hardship List (C-320) and revises the list every three months.

A—2543.1.1 TIERS Action

Revision 16-2; Effective April 1, 2016

TANF

Using the State Time Limit County Hardship List, TIERS performs the following case actions:

If a certified TANF caretaker, or second parent ...	and the individual's residence county is ...	then TIERS ...
reaches the end of a state time limit (The individual does not have a hardship exemption from the state time limit.)	on the county hardship list,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • changes the individual's work registration status to Code L (Time Limited Severe Economic Hardship, Lives in Economically Deprived County) • sends a notice to the household stating the <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ individual used the maximum number of TANF months allowed in the state time limit, ◦ individual is currently eligible for TANF because the individual lives in a designated hardship county, and ◦ HHSC reevaluates the county list periodically.

is exempt from the state time limit for county hardship (The individual has a work registration status of Code L, Time Limited Severe Economic Hardship, Lives in Economically Deprived County.)	not on the county hardship list,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • disqualifies the caretaker or second parent from TANF beginning the month following the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ maximum allowable months of the individual's state time limit; and/or ◦ last month the individual is eligible for a hardship exemption. • sends a notice to the household stating the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ individual used the maximum number of TANF months allowed in the state time limit, ◦ individual was eligible for TANF because the individual lived in a designated hardship county, and ◦ HHSC reevaluates the county list periodically.

A—2543.1.2 Advisor Action

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Determine the individual's eligibility for a county hardship exemption:

- at each of the household's TANF/Medicaid case actions;
- when the individual requests the exemption; or
- when removing an employment or severe personal hardship exemption.

Use the following chart when completing a case action during the individual's freeze out period:

If the individual ...

then ...

If the individual ...then ...

lives in a county on the State Time Limit County Hardship List,

- change the individual's work registration status to exempt from participation due to Time Limited Severe Economic Hardship, and
- send a notice to the household stating the
 - individual is currently eligible for TANF because the individual lives in a designated hardship county, and
 - county list is reevaluated periodically.

no longer lives in a county on the State Time Limit County Hardship List, remove the exemption.

A—2543.2 Severe Personal Hardship Exemption

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

An individual may qualify for a severe personal hardship exemption when there is a disabling illness or injury of:

- self; or
- close family member.

Determine the individual's eligibility for a severe personal hardship exemption:

- when the individual requests the exemption;
- when the exemption is expected to end; and
- at each complete review until the exemption is removed.

A—2543.2.1 Disabling Illness or Injury of Self

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Exempt an individual for severe personal hardship for a disabling illness or injury to self when:

- the individual requests the exemption within 90 days after the illness or injury begins; and
- disability is established by:
 - approval of SSI or RSDI based on disability; or
 - completion of Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement.

After disability is established, review the individual's eligibility for the exemption:

- when the disability is expected to end (set a special review); and
- at each complete review until the exemption is removed.

Remove the exemption when the individual is no longer disabled. Advise the individual to report to HHSC within 10 days when the hardship situation changes. The individual may state that the disability has ended or Form H1836-A may show it has ended.

A—2543.2.2 Disabling Illness or Injury of Close Family Member

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Determine whether to exempt an individual for severe personal hardship for caring for a close family member who has a disabling illness or injury using the following procedures:

Step	Yes	No
1. Did the individual request the exemption within 90 days after the individual was needed in the home to care for the close family member? Note: The person needing care must live in the individual's home.	Go to Step 2.	STOP. Do not exempt the individual for severe personal hardship.
2. Is the individual related to the family member within the following degree of relationship? The persons providing the care and needing the care must be related in one of the following ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ spouse (or second parent who is listed on the household's TANF EDG); ◦ parent (legal, adoptive, natural, or step); ◦ child (legal, adoptive, natural, or step); ◦ sibling (legal, adoptive, natural, half, or step); ◦ grandparent (extends to the degree of great-great-great); ◦ aunt or uncle (extends to the degree of great-great); ◦ niece or nephew (extends to the degree of great-great); ◦ first cousin; ◦ first cousin once removed; or ◦ spouse of any person listed above. Note: These relationships extend to relatives of the individual's spouse.	Request proof of relationship and go to Step 3.	STOP. Do not exempt the individual for severe personal hardship.
3. Did the individual provide a doctor's statement that verifies <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ the disabling illness or injury of the family member, ◦ that the individual is needed in the home for more than 30 days to care for the family member, ◦ the beginning date when the individual is/was needed in the home to provide the care, and ◦ the date the need for the individual's care in the home is expected to end? 	STOP. Exempt the individual for severe personal hardship.	STOP. Do not exempt the individual for severe personal hardship.

Review the individual's eligibility for the exemption:

- at each complete review until the exemption is removed; and
- when the need for care is expected to end. Note: Set a special review for when the need for care is expected to end before the next complete review.

Remove the exemption when the individual is no longer needed in the home to care for the close family member. Advise the individual to report to HHSC within 10 days when the hardship situation changes.

A—2543.3 Employment Hardship Exemption

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Determine whether to exempt an individual for employment hardship using the following procedures:

Step	Yes	No
1. Did the individual request the exemption within 90 days after the <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ end of the individual's state time limit, or ○ last day of the individual's employment, or ○ individual's work hours were reduced? 	Go to Step 2.	STOP. Do not exempt the individual for employment hardship.
2. Does the individual have ongoing monthly earnings (including self-employment earnings) of less than $168 or is unemployed?	Go to Step 3.	STOP. Do not exempt the individual for employment hardship.
3. Has the individual <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ been dismissed from a job or demoted for cause, ○ voluntarily quit a job or reduced hours of work, or ○ failed to accept a job offer paying at least $168 a month or an offer of additional work resulting in a total of at least $168 a month? 	Go to Step 4.	Go to Step 5.
4. Did the individual have good cause according to the SNAP good cause criteria in A-1860 , Determining Good Cause?	Document the good cause and go to Step 5.	STOP. Do not exempt the individual for employment hardship.
5. Does the individual meet the employer contact requirements described in Item A-2543.3.1 , Initial Request, A-2543.3.2 , Continuation of Exemption, and/or A-2543.3.3 , Reapplication After Denial?	STOP. Exempt the individual for employment hardship.	STOP. Do not exempt the individual for employment hardship.

Determine the individual's eligibility for an employment hardship exemption:

- when the individual requests the exemption; and
- at each complete review until the exemption is removed.

A—2543.3.1 Initial Request

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

An initial request is the first time an individual requests an employment hardship exemption after the:

- end of the individual's state time limit;
- last day of the individual's employment; or
- reduction of individual's work hours.

In addition, after the individual's employment hardship exemption is removed, the individual may request another initial employment hardship exemption when the:

- individual loses another job; or
- individual's work hours are again reduced.

An individual is eligible for an initial employment hardship exemption after contacting 40 employers in the 30-day period following the day the advisor explains the employer contact requirement to the household:

- during an interview; or
- on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, when processing a report of change.

The advisor must give the individual Form H2776, Job Search Worksheet for TANF Employment Hardship Exemption, to help the individual provide documentation of the employer contacts. However, the individual may provide any available documentation that substantiates the:

- name, address, and telephone number of each employer contacted;
- person contacted;
- date of contact; and
- result.

Advise the individual that employer contacts may be made:

- in person;
- by telephone; or
- by other agencies on the individual's behalf. Examples: Texas Workforce Commission, labor organization and local workforce centers. The individual must provide documentation from the agency that made the contacts on the individual's behalf.

If, during the 30-day period, the individual ...

then ...

- | | |

did not contact 40 employers,

Note: There is no good cause for not meeting this requirement. However, the individual may apply for the exemption again and receive a new 30-day period.

See A-2543.3.3, Reapplication After Denial, when a individual reapplies and was previously denied while receiving an employment hardship exemption.

A—2543.3.2 Continuation of Exemption

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

At the complete review after the individual receives an employment hardship exemption, determine whether the individual contacted an average of 40 employers during each month the individual was certified for TANF. If the individual worked during one or more months in which the individual was required to meet the employer contact requirement, give the individual credit for two employer contacts for each day of the month worked.

If the individual did not contact an average of 40 employers a month, see A-2543.3.4, Good Cause for Not Contacting Employers While Receiving TANF.

If the individual ...	and, according to A-2543.3.4, the individual ...	then ...
contacted an average of 40 employers a month,	N/A	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • continue exempting the individual for employment hardship, and • provide the individual with one Form H2776, Job Search Worksheet for TANF Employment Hardship Exemption, for each month through the month of the next complete review.
did not contact an average of 40 employers had good cause, a month,		follow the procedures in the box above.

If the individual ...	and, according to A-2543.3.4, the individual ...	then ...
did not contact an average of 40 employers a month,	did not have good cause,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • remove the employment hardship exemption, and • advise the household that the individual is not eligible to receive this exemption again during the remainder of the individual's five-year freeze out period.

A—2543.3.3 Reapplication After Denial

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

If an individual receiving a hardship exemption is denied for another reason and files an application:

- before missing one full month's benefits, use policy in A-2543.3.2, Continuation of Exemption;
- after missing at least one full month's benefits, use the following chart.

Request documentation that the individual contacted an average of 40 employers during each month the individual previously received TANF. Verify when questionable.

If the individual ...	and, according to A-2543.3.4, the individual ...	then ...
contacted an average of 40 employers a month,	N/A	follow the procedures in A-2543.3.1 , Initial Request.
did not contact an average of 40 employers a month,	had good cause,	follow the procedures in A-2543.3.1, Initial Request.
did not contact an average of 40 employers a month,	did not have good cause,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • remove the employment hardship exemption, and • advise the household that the individual is not eligible to receive this exemption during the remainder of the individual's five-year freeze out period.

An individual who does not provide the documentation is the same as an individual who did not contact an average of 40 employers a month without good cause. If the individual provides the documentation later, consider the date the individual provides the documentation as a new request date.

A—2543.3.4 Good Cause for Not Contacting Employers While Receiving TANF

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF

Using prudent advisor judgment, determine and document good cause when the individual did not contact an average of 40 employers during each month the individual was certified for TANF with an employment hardship exemption.

The individual has good cause for not meeting the employer contact requirement when:

- the individual was temporarily incapacitated or ill, including the 90 days after giving birth; or
- there were no employers, or under the minimum number of employers required, within reasonable commuting distance; or
- there were circumstances beyond the individual's control (such as a disaster, or a death in the family).

TANF-SP

Caretakers and second parents are limited to 60 months of TANF-SP benefits. Each caretaker and second parent has their own separate TANF-SP time limit clock. When a caretaker or second parent reaches the 60th month of the TANF-SP time limit (regardless of who reaches it first), deny the entire household at the end of the 60th month. Do not count TANF-SP benefits an eligible child receives toward the time limit if the child is later certified as a caretaker or second parent.

Months a caretaker or second parent receive TANF-SP do not count toward their federal time limit.

Effective October 2001, any month a caretaker or second parent receives a TANF-SP benefit counts toward their TANF-SP time limit (TANF-SP TL). Additionally, any TANF benefit that counts towards a caretaker's or second parent's federal time limit also counts toward their TANF-SP TL. Do not count TANF-SP benefits received in another state.

Do not count a month toward the TANF-SP TL if the household's grant is

- cancelled and not reissued,
- cancelled and reissued without including the caretaker and second parent's needs, or
- totally claimed as an overpayment.

A—2563 Tracking TANF-SP Time Limit Months

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

TANF-SP

Effective October 1, 2001, a TANF-SP month counts for a caretaker and/or second parent when

- processing Form H1010, Texas Works Application – Your Texas Benefits, and a TANF-SP benefit is issued,
- processing Form H1010 to:
 - add an adult recipient to the household, or
 - change an adult household member from a non-recipient to a recipient.

Note: Each month a caretaker or second parent receives a cash benefit it is either a TANF benefit or TANF-SP benefit, but never both.

Include all federal time limit months when determining a caretaker or second parent's total countable months of TANF-SP.

A—2563.1 Denying Clients at the End of the TANF-SP 60 Months

Revision 13-2; Effective April 1, 2013

A report that identifies when the 60th TANF-SP countable benefit is issued for a caretaker or second parent is generated and sent to state office. A TANF-SP 60-Month Time Limit memo is sent to the regions after cut-off of the 59th month.

Advisors determine if the caretaker or second parent has received 60 months of countable benefits by checking the TIERS Time Limit TANF State Summary.

If the countable months are correct the advisor must:

- document in case comments that the caretaker or second parent received his lifetime limit of TANF-SP benefits and the household is no longer eligible for TANF-SP,
- send TF0001, Notice of Case Action, with the following message:

"Your household is no longer eligible for TANF-SP benefits because (name of the caretaker/second parent) has reached the end of the state time limit. Your household may still be eligible for Medicaid and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits even if you are working. If you have any questions please contact your Texas Works advisor or call 1-800-252-9300."

"Su casa ya no califica para recibir beneficios de TANF-SP porque (name of caretaker/second parent) alcanzó el tiempo límite estatal. Si tiene alguna pregunta, por favor, comuníquese con el consejero de Texas Trabaja o llame al 1-800-252-9300."

A caretaker or second parent who is denied TANF-SP when either one or both parents receive the lifetime limit of TANF-SP, cannot be certified on another TANF-SP case. Benefits received as an eligible child do not count if the child is later certified as a caretaker or second parent.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 40, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

If the advisor has not contacted the household for the interview either by telephone or for a face-to-face interview by the close of business on the scheduled appointment date, the advisor must mark the Task List Manager (TLM) "Check-In" task associated with the appointment as "Not Held-Agency Fault." This creates a subsequent reschedule task. The advisor must not mark the appointment as "Show" or "No Show" when the advisor has not been able to contact the household for the interview.

Note: This policy applies to applications and redeterminations for all programs that require an interview.

B—114 Missed Appointment

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 40, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

For telephone interviews, the advisor must make at least two attempts to contact the applicant via telephone. Both attempts must be conducted within the time period listed on Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice. Each attempt must be conducted at least 10 minutes apart. If no contact is made with the applicant after two attempts, the telephone interview is considered a missed appointment. The advisor must document the time of each attempt on the Appointment – Details page.

TANF and Medical Programs except TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 36, TP 40, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

If the applicant misses the first appointment and does not contact the office on the appointment day, the application is denied no later than the next workday.

If on the appointment date the applicant arrives too late for the appointment or calls to reschedule the appointment (because the individual cannot keep the appointment), the advisor must offer the applicant a choice of a standby appointment or an opportunity to reschedule and keep the original file date.

If the applicant contacts the office by the 30th day after the file date to reschedule, the application is reopened using the date of contact as the new file date.

When a requested or required interview is scheduled within the 15-workday active duty military member policy but the applicant requests to reschedule the interview, staff must try to accommodate the rescheduled appointment within the 15-workday time frame. If, at the household's request, the interview is rescheduled after the 15-workday time frame, the advisor must document the reason for not scheduling the appointment within the required time frame.

Note: For requested interviews, if the applicant requests to be rescheduled, the household must be informed that an interview is not required and the processing of the application can begin without an interview. The application must not be denied if the household fails to show for the appointment when an interview is not required.

SNAP

If the applicant misses the first appointment, the advisor must send the applicant Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, on the same day and pend the application. The advisor must inform the applicant that it is the applicant's responsibility to request a second appointment.

If on the appointment date the applicant arrives too late for the appointment or calls to reschedule the appointment (because the individual cannot keep the appointment), the advisor must offer the applicant a choice of a standby appointment or an opportunity to reschedule.

If the household misses an appointment and contacts the office on or before the 30th day after the file date, the advisor must reschedule the household for another appointment before the 30th day, if possible. If there are no appointment slots available, the advisor must schedule another appointment after the 30th day, but by the 45th day, and the application is kept pending. If the household keeps that appointment and is determined eligible, the original file date is used to provide benefits.

Note: When a household misses a scheduled appointment and subsequently submits another application, the advisor must consider the second application as a household's request to reschedule the missed appointment.

If the 30th day after the file date is a non-workday, the advisor takes the appropriate action on the following workday. This also must be the final due date on Form H1020.

Additionally, if necessary, hold the application past the 30th day to allow the household at least 10 days to contact the office for a second appointment. If the household does not contact the office by this deadline, the EDG is denied no earlier than the following workday.

Notes:

- The individual has until close of business (COB) on the final due date listed on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to contact the office (COB for the vendor if calling 2-1-1) to request another appointment.
- If a second or subsequent appointment is scheduled because the individual missed the appointment, the advisor must ensure that second and subsequent appointments have been correctly recorded on the Appointment – Details page.

B—115 Pending Verification on Applications

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

If more information/verification is required to complete an application, the household is allowed at least 10 days to provide the information/verification. The due date must be a workday.

Advisors request documents that are readily available to the household if the documents are anticipated to be sufficient verification. Each handbook section lists potential verification sources. C-900, Verification and Documentation, provides information on verification procedures.

The advisor must give the applicant Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, explaining:

- what is required,
- the date the verification is due, and
- the date the application will be denied if the verification is not received.

The day Form H1020 is sent is considered day zero of the pending period.

If the applicant does not provide the verification by the 30th day after the file date, or the next workday if the 30th day is not a workday, the application is denied no earlier than the:

- 30th day if the 30th day is a workday, or
- following workday if the 30th day is not a workday.

The final due date on Form H1020 must correspond with the 30th day if a workday, or the following workday if the 30th day is not a workday. The advisor must take the appropriate action on the final due date.

Exceptions:

- If necessary, the advisor may hold the application past the 30th day to allow the household at least 10 days to provide verification. If the household does not provide required verification by this deadline, the EDG is denied no earlier than the following workday. This includes situations in which the 10th day falls on the 30th day.
- If the eligibility factor in question does not affect eligibility of the entire household, the ineligible member(s) is disqualified and the remaining members are certified.

On an application denied for failure to furnish information or failure to provide postponed verification, if the household provides the required verification by the 60th day after the file date, the application is reopened using the date the individual provided verification as the file date.

TANF

For applications in pay for performance with a noncooperation for Choices or school attendance, the final due date is the 40th day from the date of interview. See A-2151, Open Penalty at Reapplication in Pay for Performance.

Note: When an application is pended for other eligibility verification in addition to the verification of Choices or school attendance cooperation, staff should continue to pend the TANF application until the final due date (40th day from the interview) before taking appropriate action on the TANF EDG.

TP 33, TP 34, TP 35, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

Advisors must check for any associated EDGs and use appropriate verifications from those EDGs when the applicant does not provide verification with the application form. Advisors use proof of alien status, income or deductions (if provided in the 90 days before the file date) from an associated SNAP, Medicaid or TANF EDG as verification for a child's Medicaid application or redetermination.

SNAP

If the applicant is eligible, the advisor must provide an opportunity to participate by the 30th day after the file date. If not possible, benefits are authorized with a priority issuance the day the applicant provides the required verification.

- or her representative does not provide Form H3038, Emergency Medical Services Certification; Form H3038-P, CHIP Perinatal — Emergency Medical Services Certification; or other required verification; and
- had at least 10 days to provide the verification.

* Form H1113, Application for Prior Medicaid Coverage, is not required if processing the emergency coverage for a prior month.

B—116 Information Reported During Application Processing

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

In determining eligibility, the advisor must consider any information the individual reports between the application date and the decision date. The advisor must include any information the individual reports in the application decision process and send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, if verification of the reported information is required to complete the application process, following procedures in B-115, Pending Verification on Applications.

Advisors must add a new household member the month the household member joins the household. For newborns, this is the:

- birth month for TANF and Medical Programs, and
- month the newborn comes home from the hospital for SNAP.

If the household has an existing case and submits a new application that includes new information, such as a new job, advisors must address changes that may impact eligibility for other programs.

Note: Certification periods and redeterminations for individuals on Medical Programs who are receiving TANF and SNAP may not align. If the household reports new information during a redetermination, such as a new job, advisors must address changes that may impact eligibility for other programs.

TIERS Scheduling triggers the Texas Works renewal packet mail-out date in Correspondence during the first week of the month before last benefit month (LBM) of the approved EDG.

For timely redeterminations, advisors schedule the first appointment early enough in the last benefit month to allow at least 13 days after the interview to ensure the EDG can be disposed by the last day of the certification period. This allows two days for Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to be mailed from the central mail facility; 10 days after the H1020 issue date for the household to provide the information; and one additional day to process a denial for missed appointment, if applicable, in order to be timely.

The system generates and sends Form H1211, It's Time to Renew Your Health-Care Benefits Cover Letter, to the client with no advisor action. Form H1211 is dynamic based on the eligibility outcome and program.

The system generates Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, and sends it with Form H1211 when additional information or verifications are needed from the client to complete the renewal processing.

The system generates Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal - MA, but does not automatically mail it to the client. Form H1206 is pre-populated with information from the client's case and may also include information from electronic data sources. There are different versions of this form depending on the type program in which the recipient is currently enrolled. Clients can access Form H1206 using the following methods:

- logging into YourTexasBenefits.com using a case access account and selecting the “Letters and forms” tab to view or print the form;
- dialing 2-1-1, selecting option 2, and requesting that Form H1206 be mailed to the client; or
- visiting a local office and receiving lobby assistance to access the form through YourTexasBenefits.com or having local office staff print a copy of the form.

The system generates Form M5017, Documents to Send with Your Renewal Application, to include with Form H1206.

Note: Form H1010-R, Your Texas Benefits: Renewal Form, must be accepted if it contains Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) client information and a signature. The signature provided on Form H1010-R is considered valid as long as it is provided by the certified client or an individual who is allowed to sign for the client, as explained in A-121, Receipt of Application. The advisor should enter the information provided on Form H1010-R and pend for any information that cannot be verified through electronic data sources.

When a new individual is added to a case, as described at B-641, Additions to the Household, or an individual is transferred to a different medical program, their review due date may be aligned with the review due date of another individual in the same medical program on the case and will be able to renew at the same time. If the review due dates are aligned after the system has initiated the automated renewal process by requesting electronic data sources, the new individual or the individual who was transferred to a different type program will be mailed the following forms to complete the processing:

- H1830-R, Texas Works Renewal Notice; and

B—122 Processing Redeterminations

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TANF

Process redeterminations before cutoff in the month:

- the redetermination date occurs, if the redetermination is due on or before cutoff; or
- after the redetermination date, if the redetermination is due after cutoff.

When the Texas Works Renewal Packet Is Returned and a Packet Received Date Is Entered

If the household must provide verification to complete the redetermination, allow at least 10 days to provide verification.

For phone interviews, make at least two attempts to contact the applicant by phone. Conduct both attempts within the time listed on Form H1830-I, Interview Notice (Applications or Reviews). Conduct each attempt at least 10 minutes apart. If no contact is made with the applicant after two attempts, the phone interview is considered a missed appointment. Document the time of each attempt on the Appointment – Details page.

If a household fails to keep a face-to-face or phone interview appointment, send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to deny the EDG the business day following the scheduled appointment date.

If the person contacts the office during the adverse action period, reschedule the appointment to process the redetermination as soon as possible to avoid interruption of the benefit issuance cycle for the following month. The EDG is not reactivated, and the EDG remains denied until the person keeps the second appointment. A second Form TF0001 is not required if the person misses the second appointment. If the person keeps the appointment, the EDG must be processed as a Reactivation/Redetermination for correct eligibility determination and timeliness calculation.

When the Texas Works Renewal Packet Is Not Returned and/or a Packet Received Date Is Not Entered

TIERS runs a Mass Update (MU) on the fifth, sixth or seventh day of each month to terminate EDGs with due dates on or before cutoff of the current month.

For example: On July 5, the MU will terminate EDGs with a review due date on or before July cutoff.

Normal MU rules for exceptions may prevent an EDG from being terminated. Process these EDGs online and verify that a Texas Works renewal packet has been sent and not returned.

When the Texas Works renewal packet is:

- not returned, go to Initiate Interview in Change Action mode, run eligibility and dispose the TANF EDG.
- returned, go to Initiate Interview in Ongoing mode and enter the packet received date in the Miscellaneous Packet Received logical unit of work (LUW).

If the household returns Form H1010-R, Your Texas Works Benefits: Renewal Form, within the adverse action period, schedule an appointment to process the complete redetermination. These EDGs must be processed as a Reactivation/Redetermination for correct eligibility determination and timeliness calculation.

Where to Find the Packet Received Date

In State Portal, the packet received date can be found in PT Inquiry in the EDG Details section in the column labeled Recertification Packet Date.

In TIERS, the packet received date can be found in two places in Data Collection:

- Miscellaneous Packet Received LUW, which can be viewed in any mode; and
- Initiate Interview – Initiate Review page, which can be viewed only in Complete Action mode.

To reapply in a timely manner, the person must submit the completed application form by the 15th day of the last month of the certification period. Exception: See B-122.1, SNAP Redeterminations Following a Short Certification.

When a person misses a timely redetermination appointment, send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, on the day of the missed appointment but no later than the next business day. Form H1020 advises the household to contact the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) before the end of the certification period to request a second appointment, or the application will be denied.

If the household contacts the office on or before the last business day of the last month of the certification period, reschedule the household for a second appointment before the end of the certification period, if possible. If there are no appointment slots available, a second appointment should be scheduled no later than the 15th day of the following month and the application kept pending. If the household keeps the second appointment and is determined eligible, the original file date is used and a full month's benefits are provided for the first month of the new certification period.

If the household does not contact HHSC by the last business day of the certification period to request a second appointment, the redetermination application is denied on the last business day of the certification period using adequate notice.

For phone interviews, make at least two attempts to contact the person by phone. Both attempts must be conducted within the specified time period listed on Form H1830-I. Each attempt must be conducted at least 10 minutes apart. If no contact is made with the person after two attempts, the phone interview is considered a missed appointment. Document the time of each attempt on the Appointment – Details page.

Note: When a household misses a scheduled appointment and subsequently submits another application, the second application is considered as a household's request to reschedule the missed appointment.

Process timely redeterminations by the last business day of the certification period. If the redetermination is pended for verification, the household is allowed until the last business day of the month to provide the required verification before denial action is taken. Ensure the person's normal issuance cycle is not interrupted.

Exception: The redetermination is pended past the last business day of the month if necessary to allow the person at least 10 days to provide requested verification. If the person:

- provides verification before the end of the current certification month, then the action is processed by the last day of the month.
- provides verification after the end of the certification period but by the end of the 10-day period, ensure that the household receives an opportunity to participate within five business days of receipt of the verification, if eligible. If the household is not eligible, the denial is processed by the fifth business day after receipt of verification.
- does not provide verification by the end of the 10-day period, the redetermination is denied the next business day.

For households that miss the first appointment but keep the second appointment scheduled before the 15th day of the following month, if additional information is requested, the household is allowed at least 10 days to provide the requested verification. If the household:

- provides the verification on or before the due date on Form H1020, ensure that the household receives an opportunity to participate within five business days of receipt of the verification.
- does not provide the verification by the due date on Form H1020, the redetermination is denied the next business day.

Situations in Which HHSC Fails to Timely Schedule the Redetermination Appointment

If the person misses an appointment for a timely redetermination scheduled without enough time to allow the household 10 days to respond to the missed appointment notice before the end of the certification period, send Form H1020 on the day of the missed appointment. The Form H1020 will inform the person to contact the office by the 10th day (or the following business day) to schedule a second appointment.

If the person:

- fails to contact the office by the due date, the application is denied on the business day after the Form H1020 due date; or
- contacts the office by the due date to request another appointment, schedule a second appointment within 10 days and keep the application pending for the second appointment.

Notes for SNAP policies in B-122:

- For missed appointments, TIERS notices are mailed from the central mail facility two days after being requested in TIERS, so the Form H1020 due date is 12 days after the request date.
- The person has until close of business on the final due date listed on Form H1020 to contact the office (close of business day for the vendor if calling 2-1-1) to request another appointment.

B—122.1 SNAP Redeterminations Following a Short Certification

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

SNAP

Advisors must provide eligible households with benefits by the 30th day after the last monthly full benefit was provided if the individual reapplied timely and was previously certified with a short certification. A short certification is defined as a SNAP certification in which the household is certified:

- for a one-month period; or
- in the second month of a two-month certification.

The household must reapply within 15 days of receiving Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice, and the application for assistance to be considered timely.

Notes:

- This policy does not apply to households that are certified in the first month of a two-month certification. These households must continue to file their Form H1010 by the 15th of the last benefit month for a timely redetermination. Advisors must continue to process timely redeterminations on these cases by the last day of the current certification period.
- Advisors must continue to provide Form H1830 and an application for assistance to households that are certified in the first month of a two-month certification or after cutoff in the first month of a three-month certification, because these households will not receive a redetermination packet even though they are not considered to have received a short certification.

B—122.1.1 Calculating the 30-Day Period After the Last Monthly Full Benefit

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

To calculate the 30-day period, the advisor considers the date the individual received the last full benefit as day zero. If the 30th day falls on a non-workday, the advisor must complete the case by the last workday preceding the 30th day.

B—122.1.2 Determining the Date the Client Must File the Application for a Timely Redetermination Following a Short Certification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

To calculate the date the individual must file the application to be considered timely, the advisor must count 15 days after the individual received Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice, and the application for assistance. This date is known as the Short Certification Timely Due Date. If the 15th day falls on a weekend or a holiday, the individual must submit the application before the 15th day in order for it to be considered a timely redetermination.

Advisors must follow the chart below in determining a timely redetermination:

If Form H1830 and Form H1010 are...	then count 15 days ...
given to the individual in the office,	after the date the individual is given the forms.
mailed to the individual,	plus two days (17 days) after the date the forms are mailed.

To schedule timely redeterminations properly, scheduling staff need to know the due date on which the application must be submitted to be considered a timely redetermination. Therefore, when providing Form H1830 and Form H1010, Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, at the time a short certification is completed, advisors must manually document the due date in the Short Cert. Timely Due Date box in the Agency Use Only section of Form H1010. Scheduling staff must then follow B-160, SNAP Timeliness Charts for Applications and All Redeterminations, to properly schedule the appointment.

B—122.1.3 Missed Appointments Following a Short Certification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

For timely filed reapplications after a short certification, if an individual misses the appointment, the advisor must send the household Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, advising the household that the household must contact HHSC by the 30th day from the last month's full benefit issuance to request a second appointment.

If the household contacts HHSC on or before the 30th day after the last month's full benefit issuance, the advisor must reschedule the household for a second appointment before the end of the 30th day, if possible. If there are no appointment slots available, the second appointment is scheduled no later than the 45th day after the last month's full benefit issuance and the application is kept pending. If the household keeps the second appointment and is determined eligible, the original file date is used and full month's benefits are provided for the first month of the new certification period.

The advisor must hold the application past the 30th day after the last month's full benefit issuance to allow the household at least 10 days (or longer if the 10th day falls on a non-workday) to contact the office for a second appointment or to provide missing information/verification. The advisor must notify the household of the due date on Form H1020. When this 10-day due date is on or after the 30th day after the last month's full benefit issuance and the household fails to contact the office or provide missing information/verification by the due date, the application is denied the next workday. If the household does not contact HHSC by the 30th day to request a second appointment, the redetermination application is denied on the 30th day (or the last workday before the 30th day if the 30th day is not a workday).

If the household does not contact HHSC by the 30th day to request a second appointment, the redetermination application is denied on the 30th day (or the last workday before the 30th if the 30th day is not a workday).

B—122.2 HHSC Delays in Processing All Timely Redeterminations

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

SNAP

If HHSC is at fault for not completing the redetermination process in a timely manner, staff must dispose the EDG the same day the advisor completes the eligibility redetermination. This ensures that benefits are available within 24 hours.

Example 1: A household's last benefit month is October. The household files the redetermination timely, but HHSC does not give the household an appointment until November. The advisor must dispose the EDG on the same day the eligibility redetermination is completed to ensure that benefits are available within 24 hours.

Example 2: A household's last benefit month is October. The household files the redetermination timely and provides all requested verification timely. Due to HHSC delay, the advisor does not complete the recertification process timely. The advisor must dispose the EDG on the same day that the eligibility redetermination is completed to ensure that benefits are available within 24 hours.

B—122.3 Delays Caused by Households

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

When a redetermination is denied for a missed appointment or failure to provide information, the household is allowed until 60 days after the file date to schedule a second appointment or provide the missing information.

SNAP

When a timely redetermination is denied for a missed appointment or for failure to provide information, the household is allowed an additional 30 days after the end of the last benefit month to reschedule a missed appointment or to provide information or verification.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and TP 08

The date the household requests another appointment is considered the new file date if the household requests a second appointment within 60 days after the original file date.

SNAP

The date the household requests another appointment is considered the new file date if the household requests to reschedule a missed appointment within 30 days after the end of the last benefit month. Benefits are prorated using the new file date.

B—122.3.2 Denied for Failure to Provide Information/Verification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The date the household provides the missing information is the new file date if the household provides the missing information within 60 days of the original file date. If the EDG is reopened within 30 days of the denial, a new interview is not required. For TANF, a new Form H1073, Personal Responsibility Agreement, is not required if the EDG is reopened within 30 days of the denial.

SNAP

The date the household provides the information/verification is the new file date and a new interview is not required. Benefits are prorated using the new file date.

Advisors do not request additional income verification when following reuse of application policy for a redetermination denied for failure to provide information. The original income verification the individual provided at the interview date is acceptable, unless the household indicates a change in income.

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

When a renewal is denied due to failure to provide information or verification and the information or verification is provided after the date of denial but by the 90th day after the last day of the last eligibility month, staff must reopen the existing case and not require a new application from the client. The date the information or verification is provided is the new file date.

Note: This may result in a gap in coverage.

B—122.4 Medical Program Administrative Renewals

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

TIERS initiates administrative renewals without additional staff action. The administrative renewal process uses the automated renewal process to gather information from a person's existing case and from electronic data sources to determine if the person remains eligible for Medical Programs. This is explained in B-122.4.1, Automated Renewal Process.

Exception: Children whose TP 44 eligibility is reinstated upon release from a juvenile facility and who are released to a household different than the one in which they were certified at the time of placement in a juvenile facility do not administratively renew. Form H1010-R, Your Texas Benefits: Renewal Form, is required to review their Medicaid eligibility. For more information about reinstatement, see B-531, Medicaid Reinstatement for Children Certified for TP 44 Released from a Juvenile Facility.

An interview is required at redetermination. During the interview, remind the person to use YourTexasBenefits.com to:

- create a case access account;
- complete the renewal;
- sign-up for email reminders and electronic correspondence; and

- find out when the next renewal is due.

A person cannot be required to complete a face-to-face interview, but has the right to request one.

For TP 08 interviews, use the interview policy explained in A-131, Interviews (for TP 08).

B—122.4.1 Automated Renewal Process

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

The automated renewal process is the first step in an administrative renewal. The automated renewal process runs the weekend before cutoff in the ninth month of the certification period and does not require advisor action.

The process uses electronic data to automatically:

- assess the verifications required by type program for renewals;
- determine the eligibility outcome; and
- send the renewal correspondence to the client.

B—122.4.1.1 Verifications Required by Type Program for Renewals

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

During the automated renewal process, TIERS checks for the required verification by program.

Automated Renewal Process: Verifications Required by Type Program for Renewals

TP 08, Parents and Caretaker Relatives Medicaid

- Residence
- Income and Expenses
- Immigration Status
- Domicile
- Full-time School Attendance, when the only dependent child(ren) is 18

TP 43, Children Under Age One

TP 44, Children 6–18

TP 48, Children 1–5

- Income and Expenses
- Immigration Status
- Texas Health Steps (only for TP 44 and TP 48)
- Health Care Orientation

The automated renewal process attempts to verify income by determining if the person's income information is reasonably compatible with income information available through electronic data sources.

When there are no earned income electronic data sources (TWC) available for the person, the automated renewal process checks to see if there is a New Hire Report. When a New Hire Report exists with an employer's name and hire date that is not currently included in the person's income, the person must provide verification of income from the employer shown on the New Hire Report.

Immigration status is verified during the automated renewal process only if the person's immigration document expires during the current certification period.

B—122.4.1.2 Eligibility Outcomes

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Once available verifications are assessed, the system runs eligibility. The following chart lists the possible eligibility outcomes of the automated renewal process.

Automated Renewal Process: Eligibility Outcomes

Eligibility Potentially Approved	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All required eligibility information can be verified during the automated renewal process for the program. • No additional verification is required from a client. • Clients must review the information used to determine their eligibility. • Clients are only required to return a signed renewal Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal, if the information on the renewal form is incorrect or there are changes to the client’s case.
Additional Information Needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This outcome may be the result of two scenarios that require additional verification to determine whether the client remains eligible: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Electronic data sources indicate there is a change in income that may result in ineligibility for Medical Programs. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The reasonable compatibility calculation result is “Need Info because ELDS above limit” or verification required for information found on the New Hire Report. ▪ The client must return a signed renewal Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal, and all required verification(s) within 30 days. ◦ No electronic data is available for the client. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The client must return a signed renewal Form H1206 and all requested verification(s). • SNAP or TANF benefits may be impacted if a member of the MAGI household is included in a SNAP or TANF budget group.
Eligibility Terminated*	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This outcome may be the result of two scenarios: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ The previous eligibility outcome was “Additional Information Needed” and eligibility was terminated because the client: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ did not submit required verifications within 30 days to show that income is under the limit, or ▪ submitted verifications that showed that income was over the limit. ◦ The client reported a change in income that was over the income limit, and eligibility was terminated before the automated renewal process was triggered.

* See A-2342, Denial at Redetermination, for more information on individuals found ineligible for Medical Programs at renewal.

B—122.4.1.2.1 Determining if Verification Is Required for SNAP or TANF During an Administrative Renewal

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

Verification is required for SNAP and TANF during the automated administrative renewal process when:

- the eligibility outcome of the automated renewal process is “Additional Information Needed”; and
 - the reasonable compatibility calculation result is “Need Info because ELDS above limit”; or
 - the person is required to provide verification of information found on a New Hire Report; and
- a person in the MAGI household is included in a SNAP or TANF budget group.

The person has 10 days to provide verification for SNAP and TANF. Based on the income type and electronic data source used during the automated income verification process, if the person does not provide verification by the 10th day, TIERS automatically takes the following action on the 11th day:

- Denies SNAP and TANF benefits for the following data sources:

- quarterly wage data from Texas Workforce Commission (TWC); or
- New Hire Report data from the Office of the Attorney General (OAG).
- Notifies staff to adjust SNAP and TANF benefits for the following data sources:
 - unearned Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance (RSDI) income data from the Social Security Administration (SSA); or
 - unearned unemployment data from the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC).

Note: Unearned RSDI data from SSA and unearned unemployment data from TWC are valid verification sources for SNAP and TANF. Because New Hire Report data from OAG is not a valid verification source for SNAP and TANF, the person must provide verification of income from the employer shown on the New Hire Report.

B—122.4.1.3 Renewal Correspondence

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

The system generates client correspondence according to the eligibility outcome of the automated renewal process and the action needed by the client.

The following chart lists the correspondence generated for each eligibility outcome of the automated renewal process and the required client response.

Automated Renewal Process: Renewal Correspondence Correspondence and Required Client Response

Eligibility Outcome	Correspondence and Required Client Response
Eligibility Potentially Approved	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Form H1211, It's Time to Renew Your Health-Care Benefits Cover Letter, notifies the client that they must review the information used to determine their eligibility on Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal - MA. • The client is only required to return a signed renewal Form H1206 if the information on the form is incorrect or there are changes to the client's case. • Form M5017, Documents to Send with Your Renewal Application, is included with Form H1206. • No additional forms are sent with Form H1211. • Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is mailed to the client to notify him or her of the eligibility determination*.
Additional Information Needed	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Form H1211, It's Time to Renew Your Health-Care Benefits Cover Letter, and Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, are sent to the client. • Form H1211 notifies the client that they must return the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Signed renewal Form H1206, and ◦ Required verification(s). • Form H1020 identifies all the required verification(s) needed to complete the renewal. • Form M5017, Documents to Send with Your Renewal Application, is included with Form H1206.
	Note: For TP 43, TP 44, and TP 48, Form H1014-A, Children's Health Care Benefits — Final Reminder, is sent if the eligibility outcome is “Additional Information Needed” and the client does not return his or her redetermination packet by the first calendar day in the 11th month of a 12-month eligibility period.
Eligibility Terminated	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • If additional information is needed and the client does not return a renewal form by the 30th day from the date Form H1211 is mailed, eligibility is auto-disposed and denied. * Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is sent when a final eligibility determination has been made. Depending on the renewal status outcome and client action, final eligibility determinations may be made by advisors manually processing renewal documents or by the system automatically. Form TF0001 identifies the dates of the new certification period for Medicaid benefits, potential CHIP eligibility, or the denial reason for not recertifying the case.

B—122.4.2 Processing a Manual Renewal

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

The file date is the day that any local eligibility determination office receives an acceptable Medical Program renewal form. The following are considered acceptable Medical Program renewal forms:

- Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal – MA
- Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal – ME
- Form H1010-R, Your Texas Benefits: Renewal Form

A redetermination is considered timely if a renewal form is received by the first calendar day of the 11th month of the certification period. A redetermination is considered untimely if a renewal form is received after the first calendar day of the 11th month of the certification period and through the last day of the 12th month.

Note: If the first calendar day of the 11th benefit month falls on a weekend or a holiday and the redetermination is received on the following business day, the redetermination is considered timely.

Process redeterminations (received timely or untimely) by the 30th day from the date the renewal form is received or by cutoff of the last benefit month of the certification period, whichever is later. Follow the policy in B-123.4, Eligibility Transition from Medicaid to CHIP, when a person returns a renewal form timely and is determined ineligible for Medicaid but eligible for CHIP.

Examples:

Medicaid coverage period is January through December. If the redetermination file date is:

- October 10, the redetermination must be completed by the December cutoff date to be considered processed timely.
- December 1, the redetermination must be completed by December 31 to be considered processed timely.

When HHSC receives an acceptable Medical Program renewal form, review the information provided and determine whether the case needs to be updated to reflect the most recent information reported on the form.

Only request information and verification needed to determine eligibility from the household when it is not available through electronic data sources. Verification previously provided must be used to renew eligibility when the verification is still valid. Determine whether there is any verification that can be used before requesting verification from the household.

Allow at least 10 days to provide missing information. The due date must fall on a workday.

Note: Information reported during renewal processing may impact other benefit programs.

B—122.4.2.1 When a Medical Program Renewal Form Is Not Returned

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

When an acceptable Medical Program renewal form, explained in B-122.4.2, Processing a Manual Renewal, is not returned, the system automatically makes an eligibility determination through a mass update based on the eligibility outcome from the automated renewal process. This does not require the advisor to run eligibility or dispose the EDG.

Below are the eligibility outcomes during the automated process:

- Eligibility Potentially Approved — the client is auto-disposed and approved without advisor action. The file date is the date the EDG is auto-disposed approved, and the client is granted a new 12-month certification period.
- Additional Information Needed — the client is auto-disposed and denied without advisor action.

Note: When an individual submits income or expense verification without a signed acceptable Medical Program renewal form, advisors manually process information as a change to determine ongoing eligibility for the remainder of the certification period if the client is in a non-continuous period. A signed acceptable Medical Program renewal form is required if additional information is needed to complete the renewal during the automated renewal process.

B—123.4 Eligibility Transition from Medicaid to CHIP

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

When a child certified on TP 43, TP 44 or TP 48 is determined eligible for CHIP at the renewal and there is a delay in CHIP enrollment because of HHSC error and the redetermination packet was received timely, TIERS extends Medicaid eligibility for one or two additional months to allow the family time to complete the process and still retain coverage. The redetermination is considered timely when the redetermination packet is received by the first day of the 11th month and processed by HHSC by the 30th day from the file date.

If the family is solely responsible for the delay, Medicaid coverage is not extended when a child is determined eligible for CHIP.

Advisors use the following chart to determine when to extend Medicaid coverage:

If a child is ineligible for Medicaid but eligible for CHIP and the family ...	but HHSC ...	then, provide Medicaid coverage ...
completes the redetermination process timely,*	does not process the form by the 15th day of the 11th month,	for one additional month.
completes the redetermination process timely,*	does not process the form by the 15th day of the 12th month,	for two additional months.

* Timely means the redetermination form is received from the family by the first day of the 11th month and any required verification is received within specified time frames.

If the family returns the redetermination packet and the child is eligible for TP 48, the advisor must initiate the review on the TP 45 EDG so that TIERS will build the TP 48 EDG after cutoff in the 11th month of the certification period. Children on TP 45 will be denied at the end of their certification period.

B—123.6 Children's Medicaid Redetermination Expectations

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Staff must process Children's Medicaid redeterminations even if not requested on an associated SNAP application or redetermination, if the SNAP application or redetermination is received in the 10th, 11th or 12th month of a 12-month Children's Medicaid eligibility period.

Note: If the individual misses the appointment for a SNAP application or redetermination, staff must continue processing the Children's Medicaid redetermination, even if the Children's Medicaid program was not requested on the application.

The recipient must provide an application or redetermination application to process the Children's Medicaid redetermination if the SNAP application or redetermination is not received within the specified time frames.

If an application form is not received by the time frames in B-122, Processing Redeterminations, the advisor uses the initial application processing time frames in B-112, Deadlines.

If the individual submits an untimely reapplication and misses a scheduled appointment, the advisor uses the charts in B-160, SNAP Timeliness Charts for Applications and All Redeterminations, for processing time frames. The advisor must inform the individual that it is the individual's responsibility to request a second appointment. Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, must be sent no later than the next workday, notifying the individual of the missed appointment and pending the application.

Note: If the individual misses an appointment that the agency scheduled untimely, a second appointment is scheduled if the individual contacts the office by the 10th day after the missed appointment date to request another appointment. Otherwise, the individual must reapply with a new file date.

For telephone interviews, advisors must make at least two attempts to contact the individual via telephone. Both attempts must be conducted within the specified time period listed on Form H1830-I, Interview Notice (Applications or Reviews). Each attempt must be conducted at least 10 minutes apart. If no contact is made with the individual after two attempts, the telephone interview is considered a missed appointment. Advisors must document the time and date of each attempt on the Appointment – Details page.

At the individual's request, HHSC must reschedule a second appointment even if it cannot be scheduled until after the 30th day. The individual does not have to show good cause for missing the first appointment.

If on the appointment date the applicant arrives too late for the appointment or calls to reschedule the appointment (because the individual cannot keep the appointment), the advisor must offer the applicant a choice of a standby appointment or an opportunity to reschedule.

Notes:

- If a second or subsequent appointment is scheduled because the individual missed the appointment, the advisor must ensure that second and subsequent appointments have been correctly recorded on the Appointment – Detail page.

See B-160, SNAP Timeliness Charts for Applications and All Redeterminations.

- Benefits are not prorated if an eligible individual submits an untimely reapplication because HHSC fails to provide Form H1830 timely. Benefits are provided from the first day of the month after the last benefits month (enter a file date of the first day of that month).

See A-2323, Proration, and an exception for seasonal and migrant farm workers.

- Advisors do not use application verification requirements when processing untimely redeterminations. Verification requirements are the same for all redeterminations whether filed timely or untimely. See C-912, Required Verification for SNAP.

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

If a renewal form is not received by the date of denial in the 12th month of the certification period, the EDG is denied for failure to return a renewal packet. A renewal form received after the last day of the 12-month certification period must be treated as an application using application processing time frames. The file date is the day that any local eligibility determination office receives the renewal form.

If the renewal form is received after the date of denial but before the last day of the 12th month of the certification period, the advisor reopens the Medical Program EDG and processes as a renewal.

B—125 Processing Special Reviews

All Programs

Special reviews are contacts with the household outside of the redetermination process. Staff may conduct special reviews by home visits, telephone, or by mailing individuals Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, or a letter.

TANF and Medical Programs

Advisors contact the household to determine whether a change occurred. If the household confirms that no change occurred, the advisor documents the contact. To clear the special review alert task, the advisor must be in Data Collection Initiate Interview in Special Review mode. If the household confirms that a change occurred, the advisor follows policy in B-600, Changes.

If the household fails to furnish verification requested on Form H1020 or misses an appointment scheduled for the special review, the advisor must send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to begin adverse action.

If the individual contacts the office during the adverse action period, the advisor must reschedule the appointment to process the review as soon as possible to avoid interruption of the benefit issuance cycle for the following month. A second Form TF0001 is not required if the individual misses the second appointment. If the individual does not keep the second appointment, the advisor uses the time frame of the original Form TF0001 to determine the effective date of the denial.

- after the review date, if the review is due after cutoff.

SNAP

Advisors process special reviews by cutoff of the month the review date falls.

B—126 Processing Desk Reviews

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

A desk review is the processing of a timely or untimely filed SNAP redetermination application without scheduling or conducting an interview with the household. A SNAP redetermination may be completed by processing a desk review when all of the following criteria are met:

- the household's current SNAP certification period is six months or less;
- the current and new SNAP certification periods combined will not exceed a total of 12 months; and
- eligibility for the current SNAP certification was determined without using the desk review process.

Exceptions: Staff must conduct an interview when the household:

- has a member who is receiving or is applying for TANF or TP 08;
- failed to complete the application form sufficiently enough (as determined by the local office) to process without an interview;
- has a member with an intentional program violation (IPV) disqualification; or
- lives in a drug/alcohol treatment center, homeless shelter, family violence shelter or group living arrangement.

Advisors begin processing a SNAP redetermination as a desk review within seven calendar days after the Packet Received Date (day zero) and issue either Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, or Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to the household within the same seven calendar days.

Note: When a SNAP redetermination Packet Received Date is the 10th through the 15th calendar day of the Last Benefit Month, the advisor must ensure that Form H1020 or Form TF0001 is sent to the household early enough to allow the household 10 days to provide missing information, while still allowing time for the final case action to be timely. Timeliness for Desk Reviews is calculated the same as if an interview was held.

B-150, Avoiding Invalid Denials Related to Missing Information and Missed Appointments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Staff must ensure that correspondence is sent to the individual's current address. This requires updating the address in the system if the individual has reported a new address on an application form or a change of address is pending in the Task List Manager or TIERS.

Staff should make two telephone call attempts at least 10 minutes apart during the appointed time frame listed on Form H1830-I, Interview Notice (Applications or Reviews), before determining a telephone interview is a missed appointment. Advisors must document the times and dates of the attempted telephone calls on the Appointment – Details page.

An EDG is denied for failure to furnish information only if:

- the due date on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, has expired;
- the information was requested on Form H1020; and
- there is confirmation that the requested information is not in the office (front desk, mail room, fax machine, etc.) or imaged and available through the State Portal. Follow local procedures for locating submitted verifications.

An EDG is not denied for missed appointment if:

- a second appointment has already been scheduled;
- the denial is before the final due date on Form H1020 for applications and timely redeterminations;
- the agency failed to make the telephone call for a telephone interview or failed to call within the specified time listed on Form H1830-I; and
- the individual files another application after missing the initial appointment. Treat the new application as a request to reschedule a missed appointment. Reschedule a timely redetermination appointment before the end of the certification period, if possible. If there are no appointment slots available, schedule the second appointment no later than the 15th day of the following month.

- timely redeterminations after a short certification period.

B—222 Mailing Addresses for Issuing Benefits

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and Medical Programs

Staff issue benefits to the person's physical address, unless the person:

- is temporarily living at another address;
- has a post office box or general delivery address;
- has a guardian; or
- provides a good reason for a different mailing address, showing the person would suffer hardship if benefits were mailed to their physical address.

Staff should not use a local eligibility determination office address or an employee's physical address as a mailing address, unless the employee is the TANF applicant or recipient.

SNAP

The person's physical address is the preferred mailing address to enter in TIERS. However, the person may use another mailing address if they believe it is more secure or they have no physical address.

All Programs

Notes:

- If a person has a post office box and physical address, both are entered in TIERS, unless they reside in a shelter for battered persons.
- The U.S. Postal Service does not forward TANF warrants or the Your Texas Benefits Medicaid cards.

B-230, Electronic Benefit Transfer \(EBT\)

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

HHSC issues benefits by EBT and contracts with one or more vendors who perform EBT functions.

When an interview staff certify a household, HHSC establishes and deposits benefits in the household's EBT account(s). EBT issuance staff issues a Lone Star Card to the recipient or their representative. These cardholders access benefits using the card with a Personal Account Number \(PAN\) and a Personal Identification Number \(PIN\).

The EBT process includes:

- establishing a primary cardholder and EBT account(s);
- establishing a secondary cardholder, if requested;
- issuing a Lone Star Card;
- selecting a PIN;
- replacing a card, if required; and

Exceptions: If an EBT representative is a PCH who is not the case name, establish the PCH in the following situations:

- If the TANF Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) has a protective payee or representative payee, establish this person as the PCH.
- If a SNAP recipient is a resident of a drug and alcohol (D&A) treatment or group living arrangement (GLA) facility and the D&A or GLA facility is the person's authorized representative \(AR\), establish the AR as the PCH.

B—231.1 When to Send a PCH Record

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

HHSC must send a PCH record to the EBT system on an active EDG, even if pending the final case action, or on an application when interview staff:

- certify a TANF or SNAP application;
- change an EDG name;
- add, delete, or change a TANF protective payee or representative payee; or
- add, delete, or change the SNAP AR for a D&A or GLA facility.

Note: If staff change the SNAP AR type from a person to a D&A or GLA facility, the AR becomes the PCH.

Staff do not send a record if:

- pending a change or complete action when the household does not appear to be eligible for TANF.

B—231.3 Sending a New PCH Record

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

To establish an account, TIERS sends the new PCH record to the EBT system using real time interface or batch file.

Staff complete Part II of Form H1175, EBT Change Request, to authorize this process only if they need to change the PCH on a denied EDG or an EDG being denied or cannot send the record through TIERS due to automation problems.

Exception: If the EBT system receives a benefit record before the PCH record, the EBT system uses the benefit record to create a PCH record.

When benefits for children remain in an EBT account and the PCH is not able or available to access the benefits, staff may use the following chart to determine when they may establish a new PCH.

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

Staff establish a secondary cardholder only after HHSC certifies an application.

Exception: If staff certify a person for one program and pend the other, the person may authorize a secondary cardholder for both accounts.

The PCH may authorize:

- a secondary cardholder for only one benefit account;
- a different secondary cardholder for each benefit account; or
- the same person as the secondary cardholder for both the cash account and the food account.

The following two methods may be used to establish a secondary cardholder:

- the PCH requests it via the Lone Star Help Desk; or
- the PCH requests it from the EBT issuance staff.

Only the PCH may authorize a secondary cardholder, except in the emergency situations when secondary cardholders are established by interview staff.

Employees involved in certification or issuance may serve as a secondary cardholder on another household's account only if the supervisor gives written approval.

B—232.1 Secondary Cardholder Established by the Lone Star Help Desk

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

A PCH may contact the Lone Star Help Desk any time after certification to add, remove, or change a secondary cardholder.

When the Lone Star Help Desk receives a request to add or change a secondary cardholder, they mail Form SCR, Secondary Cardholder Request, to the PCH. The PCH must complete and sign the form, obtain the secondary cardholder's signature and return the form to the EBT vendor to authorize a secondary cardholder.

After receiving the completed form, the EBT vendor staff mails the secondary cardholder's Lone Star Card to the PCH. The PCH must give the card to the secondary cardholder. The secondary cardholder must contact the Lone Star Help Desk to register and activate the card.

When a PCH requests to remove a secondary cardholder, the Lone Star Help Desk deactivates the secondary card immediately.

B—232.2 Secondary Cardholder Established by EBT Issuance Staff

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

When interview staff establish a PCH on a certified application, the PCH may authorize a secondary cardholder.

The PCH must bring the secondary cardholder to the office, complete the Form SCR, Secondary Cardholder Request, give the form to EBT issuance staff and provide proof of identity. Interview staff complete Form H1172, EBT Card, PIN and Data Entry Request. Interview staff complete the EBT issuance request in TIERS. EBT issuance staff must ensure the Form SCR is completed and signed by both, the PCH and secondary cardholder, before establishing the secondary cardholder in the EBT system.

The PCH may add or change a secondary cardholder using this procedure any time after certification.

B—232.3 Secondary Cardholders Established by Interview Staff

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

With supervisory approval, establish account access for a new person if:

- the household needs to set up a secondary cardholder; and
- the PCH cannot complete and sign Form SCR, Secondary Cardholder Request, for reasons such as injury or illness.

Staff obtain a completed Form SCR signed by another responsible household member or the AR if there is no other responsible household member. Staff and the supervisor sign below the person's signature.

Complete the EBT issuance request in TIERS to notify EBT issuance staff to establish a secondary cardholder record in the EBT system.

B—233 Issuing a Lone Star Card

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

Staff request Lone Star Card issuance when:

- a new PCH record is established on applications or active EDGs; or
- the office establishes a secondary cardholder.

For pending applications, interview staff may request Lone Star Card issuance immediately after the interview.

Exception: When staff interview a PCH by phone, a request for the EBT vendor to mail the Lone Star Card and training materials to the PCH is required with some exceptions.

staff do not request issuance of the Lone Star Card.

Note: If the person has an active card for the EDG and needs a replacement, they must contact the Lone Star Help Desk for the replacement unless they qualify for expedite or a disaster has been verified and they meet the replacement card criteria.

If the person meets criteria for in-office issuance, staff:

- give the person the address and contact information for the local HHSC office based on the household's residential ZIP code using the office locator in the state portal; and
- tell the person that the PCH, the AR or other adult household member, must provide proof of identity to pick up a Lone Star Card in person.

EBT issuance staff must:

- verify through TIERS inquiry that staff conducted an interview;
- verify the person meets criteria for local office issuance, or criteria for a replacement card;
- verify the identity of the person receiving the card;
- issue the Lone Star Card and training materials;
- make sure the Lone Star Card is registered to the correct EDG number; and
- follow established security and reconciliation procedures.

When pending an application, the staff must explain the following to the person being interviewed:

- The requested information must be provided, and eligibility determined before TANF cash benefits or SNAP food benefits will be deposited into the EBT account.
- If they do not already have a Lone Star Card, the card will be mailed to the PCH with training materials. They must call the Lone Star Help Desk to register the card or to request a replacement.
- PIN selection is necessary to access their EBT account.
- After receiving a notice of eligibility, the person should call the Lone Star Help Desk or login to their YourTexasBenefits.com account to check their food benefit account balance.

Notes:

- It is important that the applicant understands receipt of a Lone Star Card does not mean the household is eligible for SNAP or TANF, or that SNAP food benefits or TANF cash benefits are currently available in the EBT account.
- The EBT system may purge the EDG after one year if there are no EBT transactions.

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

Interview staff can use either of the following procedures to issue a Lone Star Card for an applicant interviewed by home visit. If interviewing another household member or the AR, provide the explanations of the two card issuance options and follow the preferred issuance method.

Lone Star Card Issuance After the Home Visit

When interview staff certify or pend an application at the initial interview with the PCH, explain to the person that:

- HHSC will mail a Lone Star Card and training material; and
- after receiving the Lone Star Card, the PCH must call the Lone Star Help Desk to register it.

When interview staff return to the office, they update the case in TIERS and request card issuance. EBT issuance staff:

- request vendor mail-out of a Lone Star Card and training material to the PCH; and
- flag the cardholder record to pend registration.

Lone Star Card Issuance During the Home Visit

Step	Action
Interviewing staff may use the card issuance procedure described in the following chart:
1	Check to see if HHSC previously issued a Lone Star Card. If so, write down the PAN .
2	Use Form H1173 , EBT Card Issuance Log, to log out a Lone Star Card to deliver to the household during the home visit.
3	During the interview, ask the PCH if they still have the Lone Star Card and still remember their PIN.
4	If the PCH has a Lone Star Card and remembers their PIN, then compare the previously recorded PAN to ensure the card is valid. If so, the PCH may continue to use their Lone Star Card and PIN. If the PCH has a Lone Star Card and does not remember their PIN, they may contact the Lone Star Help Desk to reset their PIN and continue using their Lone Star Card.
5	If the PCH needs an initial Lone Star Card: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • give the PCH the Lone Star Card; • explain that the person must select a PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk; • record the PAN on Form H1172, EBT Card, PIN and Data Entry Request, and have the PCH sign Part II; and • upon returning to the office, give the completed Form 1172 to EBT issuance staff.

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

When establishing a secondary cardholder at the local office, EBT issuance staff also issue a Lone Star Card to the secondary cardholder. Staff must request EBT card issuance and get the PCH's authorization for card issuance through the Form SCR, Secondary Cardholder Request. The secondary cardholder must provide verification of their identity to get their Lone Star Card.

B—233.5 Card Registration

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

Card registration is a process by which a cardholder requests account access for a new Lone Star Card.

Lone Star Help Desk staff normally complete this procedure and verify the caller's identity before authorizing access.

A cardholder must register a new Lone Star Card (initial or replacement) by calling the Lone Star Help Desk if the card is:

- mailed to the cardholder; or
- given to someone other than the PCH.

Lone Star Cards issued directly to the PCH do not require card registration if the PIN is selected in the local office.

B—234 Personal Identification Number (PIN) Selection

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

In addition to the Lone Star Card, a cardholder must have a PIN to access benefits in the household's EBT account(s). The cardholder selects their PIN in the local office at card issuance or through the Lone Star Help Desk.

If the cardholder has a barrier that prevents them from selecting a PIN, they may request a pre-assigned PIN from the Lone Star Help Desk. The EBT vendor then mails the cardholder a PIN packet. The cardholder's statement regarding barriers that prevent them from self-selecting a PIN is acceptable.

After initial PIN selection or issuance, a cardholder may select a new PIN at any time by calling the Lone Star Help Desk.

Note: Lone Star Cards that were deactivated because the cardholder entered the wrong PIN five times in a day are reactivated automatically at midnight.

B—235 Lone Star Card Replacement

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

An EBT vendor or HHSC replaces a Lone Star Card when:

- a cardholder has an open EBT account; and
- cannot access the account because the person's Lone Star Card was lost, stolen or does not work properly.

If a primary or secondary cardholder reports a lost, stolen or not working Lone Star Card, an EBT vendor mails the replacement card to the PCH's TIERS address within two calendar days of the request. If the TIERS address is not current, the Lone Star Help Desk refers the person to 2-1-1 to update the address.

In certain situations, the local office replaces Lone Star Cards. The same policies and procedures for replacing cards for PCHs apply to the secondary cardholders, except that the PCH must go with the secondary cardholder to the local office to authorize the replacement.

When a cardholder contacts the local office to request a Lone Star Card replacement, determine the correct action using the chart below:

Replacement Card Criteria

If the card ...	then ...
does not work,	inquire on the EBT system to ensure the card is correctly connected to the account.
was lost or destroyed in a household disaster,	replace the card only if the household needs access to its account immediately and cannot wait for a replacement by mail. Verify the disaster per policy.
is lost or stolen, or damaged (and correctly connected to the account)	refer the cardholder to the Lone Star Help Desk. The Help Desk freezes the person's Lone Star Card and sends a replacement by mail. *

Exceptions: EBT issuance staff replace Lone Star Cards via the EBT system for cardholders, including Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) recipients, if the:

- Household is certified for a SNAP application that requires a priority issuance. Interview staff refer the person to EBT issuance staff for an immediate replacement.
- Person cannot get a replacement from the Lone Star Help Desk because the EBT system does not reflect the cardholder's correct biographical information or current mailing address.
- Household does not have a secure mailing address. A local eligibility determination office is not a secure mailing address for this purpose.
- Person has not received a requested replacement from the Lone Star Help Desk within seven calendar days after the order date reflected on the EBT system. EBT issuance staff must identify these replacements on Form H1173, EBT Card Issuance Log, by writing "VR" (Vendor Replacement) under the Replacement Column and report them to the EBT regional coordinator or designee at the end of each month.

SNAP

To reduce trafficking, the EBT vendor tracks the number of replacement cards issued in a 12-month period. After the initial card issuance to a PCH or secondary cardholder, when a household requests four replacement cards within 12 months, the EBT vendor produces a report for the print vendor. The print vendor sends the household an excessive replacement card notice. The notice advises the household that:

- four replacement cards were issued in a 12-month period; and
- if the household requests a fifth replacement card, the Office of Inspector General (OIG) will receive notification and may investigate the case.

The notice also gives a reminder of what constitutes trafficking.

The excessive replacement card notice directs households to contact 2-1-1 for any questions about the notice. Remind households inquiring about the notice at local offices of appropriate EBT card use and the penalties for trafficking.

The EBT vendor produces a monthly report for OIG identifying households that request a fifth replacement card.

- provide training or assistance in the PIN self-selection process; or
- mail a PIN packet to the PCH's address if the person has a barrier that prevents them from self-selecting a PIN.

If the cardholder cannot self-select a PIN because incorrect biographical data was entered, the Lone Star Help Desk refers the person to 2-1-1 to correct the biographical data.

- Procedures for moving out of Texas including the:
 - use of the Lone Star Card to access TANF or SNAP benefits at retailers in other states; and

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

Staff provide benefits according to timeliness standards. Benefit issuances for certified applications are available immediately upon being credited to the account. Benefits requested after cutoff for the next month are available on the first day of the next month, except for SNAP-combined allotments.

SNAP

Staff may issue EBT SNAP benefits very quickly in situations that meet the HHSC criteria for a priority issuance. Request priority issuances only for SNAP benefits in three situations:

- expedited applications;
- regular applications certified on or after the 25th day; and
- benefits ordered by a hearing officer decision that requires a priority issuance to meet timeliness requirements.

The system credits benefits to the person's account in about an hour.

B—253 Methods for Sending Benefit Records

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

A benefit record may be sent two ways to the EBT system. TANF benefit records are sent only from TIERS. SNAP benefit records are normally sent only from TIERS, but priority issuances may also be sent by manual EBT system entry.

Entries are sent to TIERS through:

- Real time interface – credits the account right away; or
- Overnight batch file – credits the account by the next day.

Note: Manual EBT system entry must have supervisor approval.

When interview staff certify an application, the EBT system credits:

- SNAP priority issuances to the individual's account within one hour after EDG disposition; and
- TANF benefits and SNAP benefits that are not priority issuances to the individual's account by 8 a.m. CST (Central Standard Time) the day after the EDG is disposed.

B—254 Benefit Issuance When TIERS Is Unavailable

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

Two types of “TIERS unavailable” cases are:

- TIERS Down – TIERS is completely unavailable and the application or case cannot be accessed.
- TIERS Read-Only – TIERS is in read-only mode and workers cannot make changes to the EBT LUW for benefit issuance.

When TIERS is Down or is Read-Only, staff must:

- perform the interview;

- manually complete essential information on appropriate handbook forms;
- provide the client with manual notice;
- enter information into TIERS once it becomes available; and
- issue benefits or deny the case based on the household's eligibility.

B—255 Priority Issuances Using the EBT System

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

SNAP

To send the benefit record via EBT system data entry for priority issuances if TIERS is down or read-only, staff:

- obtain the person's signature on Form H1855, Affidavit for Nonreceipt or Destroyed Food Stamp Benefits;
- complete Form H1172, EBT Card, PIN and Data Entry Request, for EBT system entry; and
- receive approval by supervisor and EBT regional coordinator.

EBT regional coordinators must reconcile EBT system benefit record entries.

TANF and SNAP

Staff request EBT card issuance in TIERS or complete Form H1172, EBT Card, PIN and Data Entry Request, to establish a primary cardholder record via the EBT system.

B—261.3 Splitting and Merging Primary Cardholder Records

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

EBT regional coordinators use the EBT system to split PCH records when EBT accounts are incorrectly linked.

EBT accounts may be incorrectly linked when staff fails to reassign the EDG name to the current head of household from the previous one. As a result, the EBT system links the both EDGs belonging to two different people under one account.

Staff complete Form H1175, EBT Change Request to request that a EBT regional coordinator separate the incorrectly linked accounts.

EBT site and regional coordinators use the EBT system to merge PCH records when the EBT system cannot link them because of discrepancies in the cardholder's biographical data.

Discrepancies may occur in the cardholder's biographical data when staff do not correctly match the name, date of birth (DOB), sex, or SSN on a person's TANF and SNAP EDG numbers. As a result, the EBT system cannot merge the two PCH records into one record with a link to both accounts and a merge is required to allow individual access to both benefits on the same EBT card.

If the person wants to use one card to access both accounts, staff complete Form H1175 to authorize the merge. When the cardholder has one card for the cash account and another for the food account before the merge, the EBT system user indicates which card the person wants to use. After completing the merge, the EBT system automatically disables the card not chosen, and it must be destroyed.

B—261.4 Updating a Primary Cardholder Record

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

EBT issuance staff use the EBT system to update the PCH record. This can happen when the current PCH passes away and the PCH record needs to be updated to the current head of household.

Staff complete Form H1175, EBT Change Request, to authorize the PCH record update via the EBT system.

B—261.5 Creating a SNAP Benefit Record

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

SNAP

HHSC limits the direct entry of SNAP benefit authorization in the EBT system when TIERS is unavailable, preventing the timely issuance of priority SNAP benefits.

Staff must request EBT card issuance to authorize benefit data entry into the EBT system following established sign-off procedures.

EBT regional coordinators complete EBT system data entry only after receipt of Form H1175.

B—261.6 Performing EBT System Inquiry

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF and SNAP

EBT regional coordinators use the EBT system to perform transaction history inquiry.

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

- individual error;
- suspected fraud;
- coding error; or
- whether the household correctly completed Form H1855, Affidavit for Nonreceipt or Destroyed Food Stamp Benefits, before the duplicate issuance.

If there is an overpayment and ...	then...

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

TANF and SNAP

When a Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) household moves out of state before the end of the month, cancel the next month's benefits.

TANF

When a TANF household moves out of state on or after the first day of the month but before that month's benefit accessibility date, the cardholder can use the Lone Star Card to access benefits at retailers in other states.

If the cardholder cannot find a retailer that accepts the Lone Star Card, a benefit conversion warrant (full month's benefit amount only) may be mailed to the household's new address. Perform inquiry in the EBT system to determine if the household accessed that month's benefits.

When the agency receives the report of the move:

- deny the EDG; and
- advise the cardholder to withdraw the balance from the EBT account.

Actions for the Next Month's Benefits

If the household is ...	then ...
ineligible for the next month's benefits because the household left the state before the end of the previous month,	cancel the next month's benefits.
eligible for the next month's benefit but unable to use the Lone Star Card out of state,	cancel the next month's benefits and reissue with a conversion warrant to the new address.

Do not consider a benefit cancelled until TIERS inquiry confirms cancellation.

Follow policy for deleting months when cancelling benefits for a person whose months count toward a time limit.

SNAP

HHSC cannot cancel benefits in a food account on or after the accessibility date.

When the agency receives a report that the person moved out of state, determine if the move is temporary or permanent. If the move is permanent, deny the EDG.

The cardholder can use the Lone Star Card to access benefits at retailers in other states.

Use the TIERS Benefit Issuance – Maintain EBT Benefits – EBT Cancellation pages to cancel the next month's benefits.

Revision 04-3; Effective April 1, 2004

TANF and SNAP

EBT systems and procedures are designed to minimize loss and theft of individual benefits. As a result, HHSC is rarely liable for a replacement due to loss of benefits from an EBT account.

HHSC replaces benefits issued via EBT when lost through unauthorized use of the account only if the loss occurred:

- after the individual reports the Lone Star Card lost or stolen;
- because of local eligibility determination office card/PIN issuance error; or
- because of an unlawful or other erroneous action on the part of HHSC or an HHSC contractor.

Do not replace benefits withdrawn from an account before the individual reports the Lone Star Card lost or stolen.

B—341.1 Procedures for Replacing EBT Benefits

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

TANF and SNAP

If a person receiving EBT reports benefits are stolen or lost from the individual's EBT account, refer the person to the Lone Star help desk. The help desk staff researches the account credits and debits and works with state office staff to determine if any unauthorized use occurred. If state office staff determines a replacement is due because of unauthorized access or card issuance error, the replacement is authorized. See B-382.2, Balance Disputes, for resolution procedures.

If a loss occurs because of a card/PIN issuance error, go through regional channels to contact state office Lone Star Business Services (LSBS) by email at EBT_Operations@hhsc.state.tx.us.

B—342 Non-Receipt of TANF Warrants

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

TANF

If an individual reports that a warrant was lost, stolen, or not received, check TIERS inquiry to see if the warrant was returned to Fiscal Management Services (FMS). If necessary, update the individual's address in TIERS.

When the warrant is returned to state office, FMS staff checks inquiry for a new address and immediately re-mails the check.

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

TANF

Send Form H1008-A, Warrant Inquiry/EBT Benefit Conversion and Affidavit for Non-Receipt of Warrant, to FMS if:

- the individual does not receive the warrant by the 10th day after HHSC mailed it; and
- inquiry shows the warrant was not returned to FMS.

Exception: Send Form H1008-A immediately if it is obvious that a warrant was stolen or destroyed. Indicate under "Comments" the reason for this special processing request.

The advisor may:

- fax Form H1008-A to FMS at 512-487-3400; or
- send Form H1008-A via email. See the Electronic Transmittal section of Form H1008-A instructions for email addresses.

To check on the status of Form H1008-A, the advisor may call Fiscal Management at 512-487-3435.

After receiving Form H1008-A, FMS:

- completes TIERS inquiry to verify warrant information/status; and
- obtains the warrant payment status from the State Comptroller.

B—342.1.1 Warrant Not Cashed

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

TANF

If the warrant was not returned to FMS or cashed, FMS:

- notifies the State Comptroller to cancel the warrant;
- receives notification from the State Comptroller when the warrant is cancelled; and
- issues a replacement warrant. The word "Replacement" is printed in the upper right corner above the warrant number on the face of the warrant. TIERS inquiry identifies replacement warrants in Benefits Issuance under Issuance Status as "Issued" and Benefit Type as "Replacement."

If the individual reports receipt of the original warrant after the advisor sends Form H1008-A, Warrant Inquiry/EBT Benefit Conversion and Affidavit for Non-receipt of Warrant, call FMS at 512-487-3435 to discontinue the inquiry/replacement process. Instruct the individual not to cash the warrant until Fiscal Division notifies the advisor that it discontinued the replacement process.

B—342.1.2 Warrant Cashed

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

- updates warrant status in TIERS; and
- sends the advisor:
 - a cover memo with instructions;
 - a copy of the warrant;
 - Form 6059-A, Determination of the Validity of a Forgery Claim; and
 - Form 6059-B, Affidavit of Forgery.

- the individual failed to report the loss within 10 days of the food being destroyed; or
- the individual was issued an allotment under special Food and Nutrition Service (FNS)-approved disaster-issuance procedures in the same month as the replacement request.

There is no limit on the number of replacements for destroyed food.

B—344.1 Procedures for Replacing Destroyed Food

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

SNAP

To issue a replacement for destroyed food, take the following steps:

Step	Action
1	Require the head of household, spouse, or responsible household member to sign Form H1855 , Affidavit for Nonreceipt of Destroyed Food Stamp Benefits. Issue a replacement only when the local office receives the completed and signed Form H1855 within 10 days of the request for replacement.

- 2 Verify the disaster and date by contacting a collateral source, such as the fire department or Red Cross, or by visiting the individual's home.
- 3 Issue a replacement benefit via TIERS – Benefit Issuance – Request Manual Issuance.

Note: Authorized staff receive an alert to approve the issuance.

TANF

If the household reports a move or temporary absence from Texas, follow the policy in A-740, Moves Out of Texas, and A-750, Temporary Visits Out of Texas, to determine whether to consider the move temporary or permanent.

The cardholder should be able to use the Lone Star Card to access benefits at retailers in other states. Advise the individual of the following:

- Withdraw any amount of benefits remaining in the cash account before leaving.
- Take your Lone Star Card.

Note: If the individual reports that the individual does not have a Lone Star Card, advise the individual to contact the Lone Star Help Desk.

- In order to use cash benefits that were not accessible before the move, try the card at stores that accept EBT in other states. Ask if the store charges a fee and the amount of the fee. Verify and accept any fees before completing the cash withdrawal.
- Call the Lone Star Help Desk at 1-800-777-7EBT (1-800-777-7328) if your Lone Star Card does not work. The Lone Star Help Desk assists the cardholder in finding an out-of-state retailer that accepts the Lone Star Card. Note: If the cardholder cannot find a retailer that accepts the Lone Star Card and moved out of state on or after the first of the month but before accessing that month's TANF benefits, HHSC may mail a benefit conversion warrant (full month's benefit amount only) to the household's new address. The Lone Star Help Desk will advise these cardholders to contact the local eligibility determination office. See B-331, Cancelling Benefits in EBT Accounts.

B—352 Households Shopping Out of State

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

TANF and SNAP

Cardholders can use the Lone Star Card out of state. As a result, some households may continue to use benefits without reporting an out-of-state move. Households receiving benefits in Texas who shop out of state consistently, without shopping in Texas, may no longer meet residency requirements. See A-740, Moves Out of Texas, and A-750, Temporary Visits Out of Texas.

B—353 Out-of-State Shopping (OSS) Reports

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

TANF and SNAP

State office produces a Non-Border OSS Report and a Border OSS Report monthly. Both reports list Lone Star Card usage for households that:

- shopped out of state in the last 60 days;
- did not shop in Texas during that period; and
- have active EDGs.

The Border OSS Report lists households with Lone Star Card usage in states that border Texas (Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and New Mexico). The Non-Border OSS Report lists households with Lone Star Card use in states that do not border Texas.

State office sends the Non-Border OSS report to Eligibility Operations each month for appropriate action as a potential change in Texas residence. This data also is included in a combined Data Broker report if the OSS occurred in the prior 12 months.

The Border OSS Report is not sent to Eligibility Operations each month for clearance. The data is included in a combined Data Broker report if the OSS occurred in the prior 12 months. EDGs that appear on the Border OSS Report must be cleared at a complete action after a household submits an application or redetermination.

B—353.1 Advisor Action on OSS Report Activity

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

TANF and SNAP

Clearing Non-Border OSS Report Activity at a Change Action

Send the household Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, requesting verification of the household's address.

Exception: Clearing Non-Border OSS activity as a change action is not required when the household's most recent OSS activity occurred in the:

- month prior to the periodic review month or in the periodic review month of the household's TANF Eligibility Determination Group (EDG); or
- next to last benefit month or last benefit month of the household's SNAP EDG.

Clearing Non-Border OSS Report Activity at a Complete Action

The household must provide verification of the household's address when:

- the most recent OSS activity occurred within six months of the current interview/desk review month; and
- the OSS activity listed in the report was not previously cleared.

The interview/desk review month is month zero.

Note: Act on any associated Medical Program(s) as appropriate.

After a household has been asked to provide verification of the household's address, take the following action.

If the ...	then ...
household provides verification of the household's address,	determine continued eligibility for all programs based on residency requirements.

If the ...	then ...
household does not provide verification of the household's address,	deny the SNAP EDG and any associated TANF/Medical Program EDGs for failure to provide information.
agency receives returned mail with no forwarding address and the household cannot be located,	deny the SNAP EDG for failure to provide information and any associated TANF/Medical Program EDGs for unable to locate.

Clearing Border OSS Report Activity

The requirement to clear the Border OSS Report only applies at a complete action. This report must be cleared at a complete action when a household submits an application or redetermination and the OSS activity in the report makes the household's address questionable.

Example: A household living in Texas near the Arkansas border and shopping in Arkansas may not be questionable. A household living in Austin and shopping in Arkansas would be questionable.

When a household's address is questionable, follow the policy outlined above for clearing a Non-Border OSS Report Activity at a Complete Action. If necessary, send the household Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, requesting verification of the household's address.

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

Expungement is a process in which HHSC removes unused TANF or SNAP benefits from an EBT account and returns them to the state or federal government.

B—371 Expungement Policy

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

TANF

HHSC expunges TANF benefits if:

- the household does not access its cash account for one year (The entire balance is removed.); or
- benefits remain in an active or dormant account past their availability period.

The availability period is two fiscal years after the benefit was issued. HHSC expunges these benefits at the end of each fiscal year (August 31).

SNAP

HHSC expunges:

- SNAP benefits remaining from a particular month's issuance when the:
 - household does not access the account for one year; and
 - benefit was issued more than one year before the expungement file is processed; or
- the entire food account when the advisor denies a one-person household because of death.

B—372 Advisor Procedures for Expunged Benefits

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TANF and SNAP

Explain expungement policy to people who inquire about these benefits.

Except for death denials, inform people who dispute the expungement or believe it was in error that their dispute will be routed to the Regional EBT Coordinator for review. Within two business days of receiving the dispute, the Regional EBT Coordinator will inform the person of the outcome.

SNAP

Staff is responsible for expungements resulting from death denials.

If the expungement resulted from an erroneously processed denial, restore benefits within one business day of discovering the error. Using a manual issuance in TIERS:

- round the benefits down to the nearest dollar if the balance includes 49 cents or less; or
- round up if it includes 50 cents or more.

People can also call the help desk for questions, such as transaction history and discrepancies with retailers.

A household has 90 calendar days from the date the error occurred in an EBT transaction to request an adjustment. The EBT vendor reviews the request and notifies the household of the vendor's determination. Within 10 business days the EBT vendor must:

- investigate the dispute;

A student in higher education is one who is enrolled at least half-time (as defined by the institution) in a college or university curriculum that offers degree programs, regardless of whether a high school diploma is required for admittance, or at a business, technical, trade or vocational school that normally requires a high school diploma or equivalent for admittance.

Student higher education policy does not apply to individuals:

- under age 18 (students are 18 the month after the student's 18th birthday);
- age 50 or older (students are 50 the month of the student's 50th birthday);
- enrolled in curricula (such as beauty school or auto mechanics) that do not require a diploma or the equivalent for entrance; or
- enrolled only in English as a second language curriculum.

Enrollment begins the first day of the first school term. For example, a high school senior might be accepted by a college and register for classes before graduation; however, the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) does not consider the student enrolled until the first day of the college term.

Once enrolled, HHSC considers the student enrolled through vacation and recess, until the student graduates, is expelled, drops out, or does not intend to register for the next usual term, excluding summer school. A student remains enrolled between terms, breaks, and during summer vacations unless the student does not intend to return to school the next term.

B—412 Student Eligibility Requirements

Revision 21-1; Effective January 1, 2021

SNAP

A student qualifies for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) if the student meets at least one of the followings:

1. Unfit for employment. If not evident, proof is required from a certified doctor or psychologist, or receipt of permanent or temporary disability benefits issued by government or private sources must be verified.
2. Employed for pay an average of 20 hours a week. If self-employed, the student must work an average of 20 hours a week and earn at least the federal minimum hourly wage.
3. Participating during the regular school year in a state or federally-funded work study program. The student must be working at a job for pay or for dollar credits against tuition charges. This does not include students who must work for academic requirements, such as interns and student teachers. The student exemption begins the month the school term begins or the work study is approved to begin, whichever is later. The student exemption stops:
 - if the student quits working (unless it results solely from lack of work study funds); or
 - when there is a break between terms of a full calendar month or longer unless the student continues work study during the break.
4. Enrolled in school through one of the following programs:
 - Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA);
 - Choices;
 - SNAP Employment and Training (E&T);
 - Trade Adjustment Assistance (a program administered by the Texas Workforce Commission); or
 - other state and local government training programs approved by state office as equivalent to E&T.
5. Participating in an on-the-job training program (classroom study is not considered on-the-job-training for this purpose).
6. Approved for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).
7. Responsible for the care of a dependent child who is a certified household member and the child is:
 - under 6 years old;
 - at least 6 but under 12, and the student states there is no other available child care, which prevents the student from attending class and complying with work requirements in #2 or #3 above.

Note: If both parents or caretakers are students, both cannot obtain student eligibility by caring for the same child.
8. A single parent (natural, adoptive or stepparent in the home or other single adult with parental control) who is:
 - enrolled full-time (as determined by the school); and
 - responsible for the care of a child under 12.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

A student who does not meet the student eligibility requirements is not a member of the household. Do not count the student's income and resources for the remaining household members. If an ineligible student is also disqualified for another reason, the student is treated as a disqualified member.

If an ineligible student is also disqualified for another reason, the student is treated as a disqualified member. Advisors follow resource policy in A-1210, General Policy, and income policy in A-1362, Disqualified Members.

B—414 Work Registration

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

SNAP

Eligible students are exempt from work registration during the regular school term. This exemption continues between terms, breaks and through scheduled school vacations for students who remain enrolled.

B—415 Verification Requirements

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

SNAP

Staff must verify self-employment hours of students who work at least a weekly average of 20 hours and earn at least the federal minimum hourly wage. If the student does not provide verification by the due date, the student will be denied for failure to provide and is considered an ineligible student, unless they meet another student eligibility requirement as described in B-412, Student Eligibility Requirements.

B—421 Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR)

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

SNAP

FDPIR is a food distribution program that provides commodity foods to low-income households living on an Indian reservation, and to Native American families residing near reservations. The Indian tribe administers this program under approval from the Food and Nutrition Service (FNS). Households eligible for the FDPIR receive a monthly food package based on the number of household members. The only tribe approved in Texas is the Alabama-Coushatta Tribe of Texas in Polk County.

Individuals cannot participate simultaneously in SNAP and FDPIR. An Indian Tribal Household eligible for both programs may participate in only one of the programs of its choice for a given month. The household may switch from one program to the other, but benefits must be ended in one program before certifying the household for the other program. Benefits in the new program can be issued for the month after benefits end in the previous program.

B—421.1 Duplicate Participation

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

HHSC staff must identify household members receiving duplicate benefits with SNAP and FDPIR. The household can be denied from either program. If duplicate participation occurs, a household overpayment occurs for the program that was certified for benefits last. HHSC staff must send an overpayment referral to the Office of Inspector General (OIG) if the overpayment occurred in SNAP.

The Livingston HHSC office receives a list of certified FDPIR households each month.

HHSC staff must:

- perform inquiry to identify any household members receiving benefits in both FDPIR and SNAP;
- notify FDPIR staff about any household member with duplicate participation;
- notify the corresponding HHSC office in another county, if the duplicate participant household moved to that county; and
- deny SNAP, if appropriate, and refer the household to OIG for a SNAP overpayment.

Likewise, any member disqualified from FDPIR for an IPV is also disqualified from participation in SNAP for the full length of the IPV disqualification period. Advisors follow policy in B-940, Texas Works (TW) Responsibilities.

B—421.3 Switching from FDPIR to SNAP

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

If an Indian Tribal Household chooses to receive SNAP, staff must contact the Alabama-Coushatta FDPIR staff to verify that the household does not receive FDPIR before determining SNAP eligibility.

Note: Alabama is the only other state that can be entered in the Out of State Benefit Logical Unit of Work in this situation, and advisors must document the facts in the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) Case Comments.

B—421.4 Switching from SNAP to FDPIR

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

For Indian Tribal Households switching from SNAP to FDPIR, staff must:

- process the switch as a verbal request for voluntary withdrawal from SNAP;
- send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, allowing adequate notice;
- terminate SNAP benefits for the household as soon as possible so the household may be certified for FDPIR; and
- notify FDPIR staff of the SNAP denial effective date for the household.

FDPIR staff must contact the Livingston HHSC office to verify the household does not receive SNAP and to verify any current SNAP IPV disqualification before certifying the household for FDPIR.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The following people are considered to have a disability:

- People approved for Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Social Security disability or blindness payments, or SSI Medicaid only.
- Veterans who receive Veterans Affairs (VA) benefits because they are rated a 100 percent service-connected disability or who, according to the VA, need regular aid and attendance or are permanently housebound.
- Surviving spouses of deceased veterans who meet one of the following criteria according to the VA:
 - need regular aid and attendance,
 - are permanently housebound, or
 - are approved for benefits from the VA because of the veteran's death and could be considered to have a permanent disability for Social Security purposes. (See B-432.1, Social Security's Criteria for Disability.)
- Surviving children (any age) of a deceased veteran who the VA:
 - determines are permanently incapable of self-support, or

- approves for benefits because of the veteran's death and could be considered to have a permanent disability for Social Security purposes. (See B-432.1.)
- People receiving disability retirement benefits from any government agency for a disability that could be considered permanent for Social Security purposes.
- People receiving Railroad Retirement Disability who are also covered by Medicare.

B—432.1 Social Security's Criteria for Disability

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The Social Security Administration (SSA) considers that any of the following 12 conditions result in permanent disability:

- Permanent loss of use of both hands, both feet, or one hand and one foot.
- Amputation of leg at hip.
- Amputation of leg or foot because of diabetes mellitus or peripheral vascular diseases.
- Total deafness, not correctable by surgery or hearing aid.
- Statutory blindness, unless caused by cataracts or detached retina.
- IQ of 59 or less, established after the person becomes age 16.
- Spinal cord or nerve root lesions resulting in paraplegia or quadriplegia.
- Multiple sclerosis in which there is damage to the nervous system caused by scattered areas of inflammation. The inflammation recurs and has progressed to varied interference with the function of the nervous system, including severe muscle weakness, paralysis, and vision and speech defects.
- Muscular dystrophy with irreversible wasting of the muscles, impairing the ability to use the arms or legs.
- Impaired renal function caused by chronic renal disease, resulting in severely reduced function which may require dialysis or kidney transplant.
- Amputation of a limb of a person at least age 55.
- AIDS progressed so that it results in extensive and/or recurring physical or mental impairment.

If the individual already receives SSI or Social Security blindness or disability payments, or the disability is obvious to the advisor (such as amputation of leg at hip), the advisor does not require additional verification. Other conditions may require the opinion of a physician. Advisors use Form H1836-A, Medical Release/Physician's Statement, in these instances.

B—433 Special Provisions for Households with Elderly Members or Members with a Disability

Revision 20-3; Effective July 1, 2020

- exemption from the gross income test;
- allowance of a deduction for medical expenses when the medical expenses exceed a total of $35 per month for all eligible members who are elderly or who have a disability; and
- allowance of an uncapped excess shelter deduction for the full monthly amount that exceeds 50 percent of the household's monthly income after the allowable deductions.

Exception: Households with members who are disqualified for not meeting SSN requirements, alien status requirements or for reaching ABAWD time limits are ineligible for an uncapped excess shelter deduction. Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

People receiving chemical dependency treatment and residing in a facility that conducts a chemical dependency program may qualify for SNAP, regardless of the number of meals the facility provides, if the treatment facility is an approved institution. A D&A facility is an approved institution, if it is:

- certified as a retailer by the Food and Nutrition Service (FNS) to accept SNAP benefits; or
- a private, nonprofit organization or institution or a publicly operated community mental health center. To qualify under this provision, the facility or organization must also meet one of the following requirements:
 - be licensed by the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) to operate a chemical dependency treatment facility; or
 - have written verification from DSHS that it is a registered faith-based exempt chemical dependency treatment program under Texas Health and Safety Code, Chapter 464, Subchapter C, and is recognized by DSHS as operating a program that further the purposes of Part B of Title XIX of the Public Health Service Act, the rehabilitation of drug addicts or alcoholics. The facility does not have to receive funds from DSHS.

Residents in D&A facilities that are not approved institutions may qualify for SNAP, only if the facility provides half of their meals or less. Consider this when determining if a person who resides in a facility is institutionalized.

Note: See disqualified persons policy for people disqualified due to felony drug conviction.

Evaluate all other eligibility criteria to determine whether a resident of the treatment center is eligible for SNAP.

Determine eligibility following the same income and resource policy as other households. Processing time frames and procedures for certifying households apply to residents of treatment facilities, except the following:

- Household size — Certify:
 - single residents of the treatment facility as separate one-person households; and
 - adult residents and their children as one household.
- Authorized representative (AR) — The treatment facility must act as the AR for all residents of the facility.
- Expedited service — Process the application to allow the resident an opportunity to participate by the seventh calendar day after the application date. The application date is day zero.
- Adverse action — When the facility loses its status as AR or loses its certification, the resident must be given adequate notice of adverse action.
- Work registration — The resident is exempt from work registration.

A facility that is no longer an approved institution (the facility loses its license from a state agency or the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) disqualifies the facility as a retailer) cannot serve as an AR. Deny all existing SNAP Eligibility Determination Groups (EDGs) for residents in the facility. The facility may not debit residents' food accounts after the disqualification occurs.

Note: Refer the treatment center to the USDA FNS at 877-823-4369 or SNAP for inquiries about obtaining a SNAP retailer license from FNS.

B—442 Residents of GLA Facilities

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

A GLA is a public or private nonprofit residential facility that serves no more than 16 residents. People residing in a GLA facility may potentially qualify for SNAP, regardless of the number of meals the facility provides, if the GLA facility is an approved institution. A GLA is an approved institution if it is a:

- certified SNAP retailer; or
- nonprofit, certified by a state agency as required by Section 1616(e) of the Social Security Act.

Residents in GLA facilities that are not approved institutions may potentially qualify for SNAP, only if the facility provides half of their meals or less. Consider this when determining whether a person who resides in a facility is institutionalized.

Residents who meet disability definition criteria may be certified under group living arrangements. Determine eligibility according to the same income and resource standards as other households.

GLA residents may apply:

- for themselves;
- through an AR of their choosing; or
- through an AR employed by the facility.

If a member of the group wants to apply separately from other GLA residents, the facility makes the decision to allow the resident to apply separately based on the resident's physical and mental ability. Accept applications from any person the facility allows to apply as a one-person household or for any group of residents applying as a household.

Processing time frames and procedures for certifying households apply to GLA residents, except:

- Household size — If the resident applies using the facility as the AR, the resident is certified as a one-person household. If the residents apply without using the facility as AR, the largest allowable household size is 16.
- Expedited service — Provide benefits to allow the resident an opportunity to participate by the seventh calendar day after the application date. The application date is day zero.
- Adverse action — When the facility loses its status as AR or loses its certification, the resident is given adequate notice of adverse action.
- Work registration — Members must be registered unless exempt.

For residents participating in D&A or GLA facilities, verify that the D&A or GLA facility meets the eligibility criteria.

D&A or GLA facility eligibility certification may be verified by contract documents or certificates of eligibility from the USDA, HHSC or DSHS. Verify nonprofit status by reviewing a current, valid Internal Revenue Service (IRS) exemption or a document from the Texas State Comptroller of Public Accounts. If the facility is a USDA-certified retailer, the facility's eligibility is verified.

Provide the facility AR a copy of Form H1851, Reference Guide for Drug and Alcohol Treatment (D&A)/Group Living Arrangement (GLA) Facilities. Ensure the facility AR has a supply of Form H1852, List of Resident Participants in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). The AR must return Form H1852 to HHSC by the fifth day of every month, or the following business day if the fifth is not a business day. Repeated failure to return this form is a program violation. Use Form H1852 to help monitor the facility's compliance with its responsibilities as AR. Complete and send Form H1847, Reminder to Submit Form H1852, when the facility report is three days past due.

Ensure the AR has a supply of Form H1019, Report of Change, and postage-paid envelopes.

On-site visits to the facility must be made at least once every six months.

During these visits, use Form H1845, Drug and Alcohol Treatment (D&A)/Group Living Arrangement (GLA) Facility Review, to document the:

Note: If a household managed by Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) moves into a D&A or GLA facility, update the Living Arrangement record to convert the EDG back to SNAP and out of the CBS caseload.

Information provided each month by facilities on Form H1852, List of Resident Participants in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), must be monitored to ensure certified residents receive the correct amount of SNAP benefits.

Compare the information on the current month's Form H1852 to the information on the previous month's Form H1852 and clear any discrepancies. Consider the following questions in detail:

- Are the same residents certified?
- Did any of the residents move out during the month? If so:
 - Did the facility report the change and return the Lone Star Card within three business days?
 - Did the Lone Star account contain the correct benefit amount?
 - Was the EBT card accessed after the residents reported move out date?

If the facility fails to report residents who move out or fails to return the Lone Star Card, deny the EDGs following the D&A or GLA facility resident moves out procedure. Remind facilities of the responsibility as an AR to report moves and return the Lone Star Card within three days of the change. B—444 Overview of EBT Processes for Residents of D&A or GLA Facilities

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

Establish the AR as the primary cardholder (PCH) and issue a Lone Star Card to access a resident's benefits in the food account. Allow the AR to select a PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk or receive a vendor mailed PIN packet.

Some D&A or GLA facilities are certified by the USDA as SNAP retailers, and some are not. Regardless of SNAP retailer certification, the facility serves as AR and is responsible for the use of SNAP benefits of all residents who participate in SNAP (except for some GLAs). Benefits issued by EBT for residents of these D&A or GLA facilities are handled per one of the following three methods:

- An EBT vendor contracts with D&A or GLA facilities certified by USDA as SNAP retailers to process EBT transactions in two ways:
 - If the D&A or GLA facility processes a minimum monthly value of SNAP transactions, an EBT vendor installs Point of Sale (POS) equipment on site. The facility, as AR and PCH, debits the residents' SNAP benefits by swiping each resident's Lone Star Card through their POS equipment and entering the associated PIN. An EBT vendor completes the financial settlement to pay the retailer the day after a SNAP transaction is completed.
 - If the retailer processes less than the minimum monthly value of SNAP transactions to receive POS equipment, an EBT vendor contracts with the retailer to use a manual voucher system to process EBT SNAP transactions from each resident's account. An EBT vendor completes the financial settlement to pay the retailer the day after a SNAP transaction is completed.
- D&A or GLA facilities that are not USDA-certified retailers do not contract with an EBT vendor to accept SNAP benefits. However, if the facility meets the D&A or GLA eligibility criteria for non-USDA certified retailers, residents of those facilities can still participate in the SNAP program with the facility AR responsible for the residents' SNAP benefits. In this situation, the facility AR is established as the PCH, a Lone Star Card is issued, and the AR can select a PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk or receive a vendor mailed PIN packet. The facility AR may use the food account, Lone Star Card and PIN to purchase food for the resident at a SNAP certified retail store or market.
 - Note: GLAs do not always serve as AR for each resident. If the GLA employee is not listed as a GLA-AR on a resident's SNAP EDG follow normal EBT issuance procedures. The resident uses the Lone Star Card to purchase food from a regular retailer or to purchase prepared meals from the GLA if the GLA is certified as a retailer by USDA.

- apply for and provide accurate information on behalf of a resident;
- use the Lone Star Card to debit the resident's food account;
- buy and prepare food for eligible residents;
- buy meals delivered to each resident;

- report the loss of USDA or DSHS certification or loss of nonprofit status to HHSC within 10 days;
- report any changes, losses, over-issuances or misuse of SNAP benefits;
- provide departing residents Form H1019, Report of Change, as appropriate, and advise the person to report their new address within 10 days;
- report and return the Lone Star Card issued for departed residents to HHSC within three business days after the person moves out, whether announced or not;
- ensure the security of all Lone Star Cards and PINs issued to the facility AR;
- ensure the departing resident's Lone Star Card contains all the SNAP benefits that are unspent when the resident moves out; and
- return Form H1852, List of Resident Participants in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), by the fifth day of every month, or the following business day if the fifth day is not a business day.

Both, the resident and facility AR must sign the application form.

The facility, acting as an AR, is liable if it knowingly commits a program violation to obtain SNAP benefits for a resident.

The facility must maintain a sufficient supply of required forms. Form H1852, Form H1019 and HHSC return envelopes may be obtained from HHSC and will be offered to the AR at each certification.

HHSC issues a Lone Star Card to the facility AR and enables the AR to select a PIN through the PIN pad in the local office or the Lone Star Help Desk. HHSC allows the AR access only to benefits issued for a month the person is a facility resident. The facility may assign one person to serve as the AR to apply for the resident and another to serve as AR or PCH and use the Lone Star Card.

Note: When the D&A or GLA facility is the AR, the facility is responsible for all benefits in an account. Therefore, security of the card and PIN is as important to them as it is to a person not in a facility.

HHSC is unable to issue benefits to the D&A or GLA facility AR for a month the resident is in the facility when that month's benefits were already issued to the resident's existing food account. If the resident wants to allow the facility access to previously issued benefits, the resident has the following options:

For facilities that are not USDA-certified retailers, the resident may:

- use the card to purchase groceries to give to the facility; or
- make the D&A or GLA facility AR a secondary cardholder on the existing account to access those benefits. To establish the facility AR as a secondary cardholder:

- staff must ensure that the person made this choice and approved it; and
- EBT issuance staff must establish the secondary cardholder, issue the card and pend card registration.

For facilities that are USDA-certified retailers, the resident can:

- use one of the options listed above for facilities that are not USDA-certified; or
- use the Lone Star Card to purchase meals via the facility POS device or via the EBT manual voucher process. The facility may only charge for prepared meals on a per day basis, not in advance. In addition, the facility is not allowed possession of the card previously issued to the resident, nor knowledge of the resident's PIN.

SNAP

When a resident moves out of the D&A or GLA facility, the facility must return all unspent benefits issued to the AR's account regardless of when the resident moves out, even if it means returning all the resident's benefits. D&A and GLA facilities are not allowed to spend a resident's benefits after the resident moves out.

After a resident moves out, the facility must return the AR's EBT card and ensure the account contains all unspent benefits. For purposes of this policy, "spent" means the facility used the EBT Card to access the resident's benefits before the person moved out.

If the facility accesses benefits that it is not allowed to use, the facility must return the benefits to the account. USDA-certified facilities can return benefits using the POS device to process a return on the account or via communication with an EBT vendor. Facilities not certified as retailers by USDA must ask a retailer to process a return on the resident's account using the AR's EBT card on the store's POS device.

If the retailer cannot restore benefits to the EBT card, initiate a claim against the facility by sending Form H1096, Notification Letter, and sending Form H1095, Treatment Facility Fraud Referral, to the OIG Benefits Program Integrity \(BPI\) mailbox and restore benefits to the person.

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

The D&A or GLA facility must return at least half of the monthly allotment for residents who move out before the 16th of the month. Therefore, although a facility can access more than half of the monthly allotment before the 16th, it is not a best practice to do so.

The D&A or GLA facility AR know the full allotment amount from the person's notice. If the EDG has recoupment, staff must notify the facility AR to use the Lone Star Help Desk (800-777-7EBT) to verify monthly benefits.

D&A or GLA facilities without a POS device must be cautious to ensure they do not use more than half of a resident's monthly allotment before the 16th of the month, because they have no POS device to process a return if the resident moves out before the 16th of the month.

B—446 Application Processing for D&A or GLA Facilities

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

Process SNAP EDGs for residents in D&A or GLA facilities using one of the following procedures, depending on the resident's situation at application.

At the time of disposition, staff must review the Issuance – Details page and the Alternate Payee – Summary page, to ensure that TIERS successfully included the PCH record for the facility AR.

Note: TIERS does not collect biographical data on D&A or GLA facility ARs, so TIERS cannot send this information to the EBT system.

 - interview the AR;
 - advise the AR about the limitations noted on Form H1851, Reference Guide for Drug and Alcohol Treatment (D&A)/Group Living Arrangement (GLA) Facilities;

 - Complete issuance.
- EBT issuance staff must:
 - issue a card to the AR;
 - print the EDG name in the space under the signature field on the back of the Lone Star Card; and
 - enable the AR to select a PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk.
- The facility AR uses the card and PIN to access benefits in the food account. Note: If the resident also receives TANF, the cash account is not available to the D&A or GLA facility AR. The resident has a separate card and PIN for the cash account.

Assign the resident a new SNAP EDG number and certify the resident using the new EDG number to establish a separate EBT food account as a resident of a D&A or GLA facility with a facility AR.

- If the resident is on an active SNAP EDG (and all members are not moving into the facility), remove the person from the existing EDG before certifying on a new case.
- If the resident is currently certified as a single person household on a previous case (but has a remaining benefit balance), certify the resident for SNAP with a certification period for the remaining months using a different case number. A new Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, is not required. The file date is the first day of the first month of the remaining certification period. Cross reference the other case in the TIERS Case Comments section of each case.

Enter the facility AR's information in the Authorized Representative page and indicate in the Issuance – Details page that there is an alternate payee. Complete the subsequent Alternate Payee – Summary page.

B—447 Resident Moves Out of D&A or GLA Facility

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

Follow these procedures when the resident moves out of the facility;

- The facility AR:
 - notifies HHSC of the move; and
 - returns the Lone Star Card (in-person) for this account to the local office within three business days of the move.
- Check the account balance to ensure the D&A or GLA facility returned the correct benefit amount. Ensure the facility returns any benefit amount spent to the resident's food account after the resident moved out. Monthly benefits and account balance information are available on the EBT system benefit history screen. The EBT system transaction history screens provide information to verify whether the AR debited the account after the resident moved out. Transactions are listed by date and time. Report violations according to staff responsibility policy.
- After ensuring benefits are properly returned, destroy the card according to procedures for returned Lone Star Cards.
- Follow procedure 1 or 2 below.
 - If the facility reports the move and the former resident has not contacted HHSC:
 - Send the EDG name to the EBT system as the new PCH. Complete of Form H1175, EBT Change Request, and send to EBT issuance staff, who will use the information to update the PCH record in the EBT system.
 - Immediately remove the AR entries including any designations in the Issuance – Details and the Alternate Payee – Summary pages and update the address, if known.
 - Document in Case Comments the name of the facility and facility AR that are being removed. Do not issue a new card and PIN until requested by the former resident.
 - Follow normal adverse action procedures to deny the EDG.
 - If former resident reports the move to another D&A or GLA facility:
 - Do not deny the existing active case.
 - Remove the former facility AR.

- Document in Case Comments the name of the facility and facility AR that are being removed and the name of the new facility and facility AR that are being added and when.
- Enter the new facility AR's information in the Authorized Representative page and indicate in the Issuance – Details page that there is an alternate payee. Complete the subsequent Alternate Payee – Summary page.
- Request card issuance and enable the new AR to select a PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk.
- Complete Part II of Form H1175 and send to EBT issuance staff, who will use the information to complete the new PCH record on the new AR via the EBT system.
- EBT issuance staff:
 - issue a card to the AR;
 - report the PAN;
 - print the EDG name in the space under the signature field on the back of the Lone Star Card; and
 - enable the AR to select a PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk.

Follow these procedures if the former resident moves in with another active SNAP household and the former resident will participate with that household:

- Deny the active D&A or GLA case and send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, following regular adverse action procedures.
- Send the case name to the EBT system to change the PCH by removing all AR-related entries in TIERS, including any designations in the Issuance – Details and the Alternate Payee – Summary pages.
- Change the address to the resident's new address.
- Document in Case Comments the name of the facility and facility AR removed and the date. Cross reference the other case in the Case Comments section of each case.
- If there are still benefits in the account, complete a card issuance request to give the former resident access to the account and enable the person to select a PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk.
- If updating PCH biographical information, complete Part II of Form H1175 and send to EBT issuance staff, who will update the PCH record in the EBT system.
- Add the former resident to the other household's SNAP EDG effective the month after any final benefits are received.

Follow these procedures if the former resident moves and no longer lives in a D&A or GLA facility or does not participate with another active SNAP household. Move the former resident's remaining months of SNAP certification to a different case (and thus a new food account) and:

- Send the case name to the EBT system to change the new PCH on the currently active case by removing all AR-related entries in TIERS including any designations in the Issuance – Details and the Alternate Payee – Summary pages.
- Change the address to the resident's new address.
- Document in Case Comments the name of the facility and facility AR that are being removed and when.
- Deny the former resident's active SNAP EDG. Do not send notice of adverse action since benefits are not actually being denied.
- Certify the former resident for SNAP with a certification period for the remaining months using a different case number. If the former resident has a previous denied-ongoing case, use it and associate the case number during Application Registration. Do not require a new Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits. The file date is the first day of the first month of the remaining certification period. Cross reference the other case in the Case Comments section of each case.
- Complete issuance request to give the former resident access to the account(s) by issuing a new card and enabling the person to select a new PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk.
- If updating PCH biographical information, complete Form H1175 and send to EBT issuance staff, who will update the PCH record in the EBT system.

B—451 Eligibility Requirements

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

People residing in a family violence shelter may potentially qualify for SNAP, regardless of the number of meals the shelter provides, if the family violence shelter is an approved institution. A family violence shelter is an approved institution if it is a:

- certified SNAP retailer; or
- public or private nonprofit facility.

Residents in family violence shelters that are not approved institutions may potentially qualify for SNAP, only if the facility provides half of their meals or less. Consider this when determining if a person who resides in a facility is institutionalized.

Residents in eligible family violence shelters may receive SNAP benefits as individual household units or as part of a group of individuals like any other household.

Residents in family violence shelters may apply for SNAP and use SNAP benefits on their own behalf. Residents may also appoint a shelter representative or another person to act as AR or secondary cardholder.

Residents in shelters must meet the same income and resource standards as other households. Resources held jointly with the abuser are considered inaccessible. Room payments to the shelter are considered shelter expenses. These households have the same rights to notices of adverse action, fair hearing, and lost benefits as other households. Residents should be registered for work unless otherwise exempt.

Normal processing standards for initial and ongoing eligibility decisions, handling reported changes and other actions and usual verification and documentation requirements apply to residents in shelters for battered persons.

B—452 Approved Centers That Provide Meals

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Family violence shelters that provide meals must be public or private nonprofit residential facilities that serve victims of family violence. If a facility serves other people, part of the facility must be set aside on a long-term basis to serve only family violence victims.

Advisors must verify the shelter's status as a nonprofit organization by seeing a current certificate from the IRS or a document from the Texas State Comptroller of Public Accounts. If the shelter is a USDA-certified retailer, the shelter's eligibility is verified.

B—452.1 Buying Meals

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

SNAP

Individual households may use their SNAP benefits to buy meals prepared for them at a shelter that is a USDA-certified retailer.

B—453 Authorized Representatives

Revision 01-3; Effective April 1, 2001

SNAP

Employees of facilities that are USDA-certified retailers may not be authorized to serve as AR/secondary cardholders unless HHSC decides that there are no other representatives available.

If the shelter is not a USDA-certified retailer, the household may authorize a shelter representative as secondary cardholder.

B—454 Participation Twice in Same Month

Revision 10-4; Effective October 1, 2010

SNAP

A shelter resident can qualify for a duplicate SNAP benefit in a single month if:

- the resident's former household already received benefits for the month; and
- the resident's former household was based on a household size that included the resident, any children, and the person who abused or threatened to abuse them.

B—454.1 Duplicate Participation Procedures

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

Remove the resident from the former household's case.

Special certification procedures based on entries made on the Living Arrangements logical unit of work (LUW) allow duplicate participation until the resident is removed from the former household. Establish a new SNAP case and food account if the person is the case name or has a Lone Star Card on the previous case. The person must complete a new Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits.

If the person has not been removed from the former case:

- complete the certification process;
- issue the person a new Lone Star Card;
- pend card registration to enable the person to select a PIN through the Lone Star Help Desk; and
- issue benefits.

The EBT coordinator must ensure through discussion with the meal provider that the establishment:

- provides meals to homeless people, and
- is a public or private nonprofit organization as defined by IRS. HHSC may require the provider to present documentation from IRS to verify nonprofit status under §501(c)(3) of IRS regulations.

If the meal provider meets these requirements, the EBT coordinator will:

B-470, Categorically Eligible Households

Revision 05-5; Effective October 1, 2005

SNAP

Categorically eligible households are subject to fewer eligibility requirements than other SNAP households. HHSC uses special procedures to process applications from persons who potentially meet the categorical eligibility criteria. Categorical eligibility does not mean the applicants automatically receive SNAP.

B—471 Eligibility Criteria

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

SNAP households meet categorical eligibility criteria if:

- all members are approved for TANF cash assistance or SSI; or
- the household:
 - meets the resource criteria to be authorized to receive TANF Non-cash (TANF-NC) services (see A-1210, General Policy); and
 - has gross income less than or equal to 165 percent of the Federal Poverty Income Limit (FPIL) for its size.

This also includes households that have:

- active EDGs but whose benefits are being recouped; or
- a disqualified alien member or student who does not get TANF/SSI.

The household is not categorically eligible if:

- one or more members are disqualified from TANF or SNAP for an IPV; or
- the entire household is ineligible because the primary wage earner (PWE) failed to comply with E&T or voluntary quit requirements; or
- if the household is otherwise ineligible due to one or more members' disqualification for any reason.

For TANF-NC, a household is not categorically eligible if one or more members has a current SNAP IPV disqualification. If the household meets the combined resource limit of $5,000 for liquid assets and excess vehicle value, the household is still authorized to receive TANF-NC, and their remaining resources are exempt. The household is not exempt from the gross/net income limits.

B—472 Special Treatment for Households Meeting Categorical Eligibility Criteria

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Categorically Eligible TANF/SSI Households

Categorically eligible households are not subject to the resource or gross/net income limits. These households are exempt from verification requirements regarding:

- Social Security numbers (SSNs),
- resources,
- residence, and
- sponsored alien information.

Categorically Eligible TANF-NC Households

TANF-NC categorically eligible households are not subject to the gross/net income limits. Once the household passes the resource criteria for TANF-NC, the remaining non-liquid resources are exempt. TANF-NC categorically eligible households must comply with all other eligibility criteria.

B—473 Application Processing

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Advisors must follow these procedures when processing a joint application for TANF and/or SSI and SNAP:

If the TANF/SSI application is pending and the household...	then ...
is eligible for SNAP without meeting categorical eligibility criteria,	certify the SNAP application as soon as possible. Follow normal SNAP time frames.

If the TANF/SSI application is pending and the household...

then ...

will not be eligible for SNAP unless the TANF or SSI application is granted, delay denial of the SNAP EDG. Pend the SNAP application for up to 30 days awaiting the TANF/SSI decision. If the TANF/SSI application is denied on or before the 30th day, deny the SNAP application immediately.

If the TANF/SSI application is granted by the 30th day, certify for SNAP as soon as possible. Prorate from the SNAP application date.

If the TANF/SSI application is still pending by the 30th day:

- deny the SNAP application; and
- notify the individual on the denial notice to contact the certification office if the TANF/SSI is later granted.

If the TANF/SSI application is granted after the 30th day:

- copy Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, and return the original to the applicant (the applicant must initial any changes, re-sign Form H1010, and return it to the local eligibility determination office);
- reopen the SNAP application when Form H1010 is returned;
- verify and document any changes since the initial interview; and
- prorate benefits from the original SNAP file date or the effective date of TANF/SSI benefits, whichever is later.*

* When prorating from the effective date of TANF/SSI benefits, use this date as the new SNAP file date. The effective date of benefits for TANF is the earlier of the certification date or 30 days after the file date. The effective date of benefits for SSI applicants is the:

- SSI file date; or
- date the individual met all eligibility criteria, if later than the file date.

Advisors must verify the SSI benefit effective date by viewing the award letter or by running Wire Third-Party Query (WTPY) or the State Online Query (SOLQ).

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

SNAP

CBS administers SNAP for:

- pure categorically eligible SSI households:
 - either through the SNAP-SSI caseload; or
 - as part of SNAP-CAP.

B—474.1.1.1 SNAP-Supplemental Security Income (SSI) Caseload

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

For the SNAP-SSI caseload, Texas is operating under a waiver that allows the state to process both timely and untimely redeterminations without an interview.

CBS staff may complete a redetermination for SNAP-SSI EDGs without an interview except in the following situations:

- the household requests an interview,
- the case contains earned income, or
- it appears the household is going to be denied.

Advisors cannot deny redetermination households for a missed appointment, except for a case with earned income. For the other two situations, staff must schedule an appointment and attempt to conduct an interview but continue to process the redetermination application if the household misses the appointment. If the household is ineligible, the EDG must be denied for the appropriate reason rather than a missed appointment.

If the household submits a redetermination application by the last day of the last benefit month, no interview is required. If the file date falls after the last day of the last benefit month, an interview is required. These households may be denied for a missed appointment.

For untimely submitted redetermination applications, the initial application processing time frames are used, as stated in B-124, Processing Untimely Redeterminations.

B—474.1.1.2 Pending SNAP-SSI Redeterminations for Missing Information/Verification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

If more information is needed from the household to complete the redetermination, the advisor must attempt to contact the household immediately by telephone to obtain the information. If unable to reach the household by telephone, the advisor must mail Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice, with the advisor's telephone number, advising the household to call the advisor on a specific date and time, along with Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, clearly explaining the information/verification that is required.

Combining the pending information notice and the appointment notice in one envelope will help staff complete the redetermination timely, rather than waiting to schedule the appointment later if the household fails to provide requested information. The advisor should mail Form H1830-I, Interview Notice (Applications or Reviews), the same day the EDG is identified as one that must be scheduled for an interview, or no later than the next workday.

Households must be allowed the usual 10 days to provide the missing information/verification.

If the household member misses the scheduled appointment, a missed appointment notice is not required. The advisor should continue to attempt to process the EDG without an interview.

B—474.1.1.3 SNAP-SSI Redeterminations— Inconsistent or Discrepant Information

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

While processing SNAP-SSI redeterminations, advisors may notice inconsistent or discrepant information (including management problems). If this occurs, the advisor must contact the household (and pend the EDG if necessary) to resolve the inconsistency. If unable to reach the household by telephone, the advisor must mail Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice, with the advisor's telephone number, advising the household to call the advisor on a specific date and time, along with Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, clearly explaining the information/verification that is required.

For the SNAP-SSI population, advisors should pay careful attention to shelter costs since this area historically is the most prone to quality control errors. Advisors should establish the actual costs the individual pays, review the current application's reported expenses compared to the previous entries, and resolve any inconsistencies or discrepant information.

B—474.1.1.4 SNAP-SSI Redetermination Denials

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

With the exception of cases with earned income, the policy on scheduling an interview before denying a household's request to recertify SNAP benefits is a federal condition of HHSC's waiver approval. The policy helps to ensure the household has a chance to explore continued eligibility before being denied. Additionally, staff must review facts about the EDG, the household's income and all possible deductions for which the household may be eligible, especially ones that are not as commonly claimed, such as medical transportation costs or adult dependent care costs.

If staff determine that the household appears ineligible while processing the SNAP-SSI redetermination, staff must attempt to conduct an interview before the EDG can be denied. Staff must call the household to conduct the interview if a phone number is available. If unable to reach the household by phone, staff must mail Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice, notifying the household to call to complete the interview. Form H1830 must be mailed the same day, or no later than the next workday, when the EDG is identified as one that requires an interview. Staff must continue to attempt to process the redetermination, and deny if ineligible using normal processing time frames.

B—474.1.2 Medical Programs

B—474.2 Conversion of EDGs

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

SNAP

EDGs are converted to CBS when all members meet all SNAP eligibility requirements that pertain to categorically eligible households, receive SSI, and no individual is disqualified for:

- able-bodied adults without dependents (ABAWD) time limits,
- fleeing as a felon,
- an IPV,
- refusal to cooperate with a Quality Control review,
- E&T noncooperation,
- SSN noncooperation,
- student status, or
- felony drug conviction.

Note: Additionally, in order to be eligible for conversion to the SNAP-SSI caseload, no individual can reside in a group living arrangement, drug/alcohol treatment center or boarding house, or have earned income, including self-employment income.

After the local office completes an initial certification, an automated process converts EDGs that meet the criteria to CBS. The automated process occurs monthly at cutoff. The individual is mailed a notice to inform the individual:

- that the EDG is handled by CBS, and
- to report household changes by:
 - telephoning 2-1-1, or
 - entering the change in the Self-Service Portal, or
 - mail.

The notice includes contact information. Field staff continue to accept changes and complete case actions until the EDG converts to CBS.

B—474.6 Moving Cases Out of CBS

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The CBS section:

- moves cases out of the CBS caseload if:
 - the household no longer meets the criteria to be a CBS case (earnings, loss of SSI);
 - household composition changes; or
 - because regional staff request the transfer under special circumstances;
- shortens the certification period as specified in B-474.6.1, Special Procedures for Shortening Certification Periods for Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) Eligibility Determination Groups (EDGs); and
- documents in TIERS Case Comments the reason for return.

The CBS section also returns untimely redetermination EDGs received in the month after the last benefit month to the task queue and documents in TIERS Case Comments the reason for return.

Medical Programs

Children's Medicaid – CBS moves completed Medicaid determinations, both active and denied, out of the CBS section.

B—474.6.1 Special Procedures for Shortening Certification Periods for Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) Eligibility Determination Groups (EDGs)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

If the household reports a change that results in the household no longer meeting CBS caseload criteria, such as the loss of SSI benefits, an addition to the household, or moving into a GLA, then CBS staff move the EDG out of the CBS caseload.

Before moving the EDG out of the CBS caseload, CBS must take appropriate action based on the following criteria:

If the household's certification period is in ...	then ...
month 1-11,	if benefits: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • will increase or decrease, send the household Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, informing the individual that the last benefit month is month 12; and • shorten the certification period to a 12-month total by processing a change action with the new benefit amount and change the last benefit month to month 12.
month 12-36,	if benefits: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • are being increased or decreased, send the household Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, informing the household that the certification period is being shortened because it no longer meets the criteria specified in B-474, Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) Section; and • shorten the certification period to end on the last day of the month after the month Form TF0001 was sent. Note: CBS staff also must include Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice, and Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, advising the individual how to file future applications.

B—474.7 Denied EDGs

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

The local office must perform an inquiry on denied EDGs to ensure the CBS section is not in the process of certifying the EDG.

Note: Advisors must accept Form H1840, SNAP Food Benefits Renewal Form, if received at the local office and the CBS SNAP EDG certification period has expired.

Medical Programs

The local office must coordinate with CBS to determine the effective date of certification when a youth certified for TP 70, TA 82, or TP 44 (Medicaid coverage to eligible youths in the custody of or released from the Texas Juvenile Justice Department), or an adult certified for TA 67, applies for Medicaid.

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

B—475.1 Overview

Revision 22-2; Effective April 1, 2022

SNAP-CAP

SNAP-CAP is a demonstration project to outreach older SSI recipients not currently certified for SNAP. Single SNAP-CAP households are certified for a standard SNAP-CAP allotment of either $101 or $168 based on their reported monthly shelter expense.

The monthly SNAP-CAP allotment is:

- $101 for households with reported monthly shelter expenses less than $440 per month; and
- $168 for households with reported monthly shelter expenses more than or equal to $440 per month.

To be eligible for SNAP-CAP, a person must:

- be an SSI recipient;
- be 50 or older;
- reside in Texas;
- not reside in an institution that causes ineligibility; and
- not receive regular SNAP or TSAP benefits.

Additionally, a person is not eligible to participate in SNAP-CAP if the person is:

- a fleeing felon;
- disqualified due to an IPV; or
- disqualified due to a felony drug conviction that occurred on or after Sept. 1, 2015.

Other regular SNAP eligibility criteria does not apply to SNAP-CAP.

Note: An SSI recipient may elect to switch from regular SNAP to SNAP-CAP.

B—475.2 Application Processing

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP-CAP

State office identifies potential SNAP-CAP recipients via the Texas State Data Exchange (SDX) match process. State office automatically mails a form to individuals potentially eligible for SNAP-CAP. For individuals who previously received SNAP benefits in Texas, the mail out occurs two months after the last month individuals last received benefits in Texas. CBS certifies the SNAP-CAP EDG for 36 months, provides notice of eligibility, and authorizes an EBT account without a face-to-face or telephone interview.

If an individual receives a SNAP-CAP application and also applies for SNAP at the local office, advisors coordinate the application process with CBS staff before making an eligibility decision in the local office to ensure that the individual can make an informed choice about which program the individual prefers. The individual may voluntarily withdraw the other application.

If the spouse of an active SNAP-CAP participant submits an application at the local office, advisors certify the spouse separately from the active SNAP-CAP participant. If the spouse appears potentially eligible for SNAP-CAP, the advisor explains the program and requirements outlined in B-475, Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program Combined Application Project (SNAP-CAP). The SNAP application may be withdrawn if the individual wants to participate in SNAP-CAP. Refer the individual to 2-1-1. Advisors must document that the individual was informed of the program, but that the individual withdrew the SNAP application.

A SNAP-CAP application returned to a local eligibility determination office must be faxed to the non-expedited fax line at 1-877-447-2839 the same day it is received.

Expedited processing and benefit proration do not apply to the SNAP-CAP program. A standard allotment is issued for the month the application is returned.

B—475.2.1 Identifying Intentional Program Violations (IPVs) and Felony Drug Convictions

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP-CAP

The Data Broker vendor will receive the monthly SNAP-CAP application file and will notify state office Eligibility Operations of any clients with active out-of-state SNAP IPV disqualifications and felony drug convictions.

State office staff will forward any IPV matches to the Customer Care Center-Electronic Disqualified Recipient System (CCC-eDRS) staff using secure Voltage email at HHSC Office of Eligibility Services CCC Open Investigation (HHSC OES CCC IC) who will complete a secondary verification and then forward a completed Form H1856, SNAP Out-of-State Intentional Program Violations, to OIG at CDU@hhsc.state.tx.us, and document this action in TIERS Case Comments.

OIG Centralized Disqualification Unit (CDU) staff will enter the IPV disqualification data from Form H1856 into TIERS and create a reported change task to notify the advisor of the disqualification. The CBS advisor then takes appropriate action to deny the application/EDG. Note: If CBS staff has not yet processed the application, TIERS will ensure it is denied if the application is subsequently filed and/or processed.

State office also shares any felony drug conviction data matches with CBS. CBS staff must follow policy in A-232.2, Disqualified Persons, to take adverse action.

B—475.2.2 Switching from the Regular SNAP Program to SNAP-Combined Application Project (CAP)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP-CAP

If an SSI recipient receiving regular SNAP benefits wants to switch to SNAP-CAP, the individual must contact CBS staff and request to withdraw from the regular program and apply for SNAP-CAP.

Within 10 days of receipt of the request and determination that the individual meets SNAP-CAP eligibility requirements, CBS staff:

- send the individual a notice of denial for the regular SNAP, using adequate notice procedures;
- terminate the person's participation in the regular SNAP as soon as possible (that is, the end of the month the individual made the request if the 10th day falls before the monthly computer cutoff, and no later than the end of the next month); and
- send the individual a SNAP-CAP application if the individual has not already filed one with CBS.

If HHSC fails to take action within 10 days to authorize denial of the regular SNAP EDG for the applicable month, HHSC restores any lost benefits as a result of untimely agency action.

HHSC does not provide a SNAP-CAP application to anyone who does not meet the SNAP-CAP eligibility criteria. CBS also certifies eligible individuals for SNAP-CAP if the individuals submit applications they obtained on their own. CBS will coordinate termination of the individual's participation in regular SNAP, if not already terminated. To avoid duplication of SNAP benefits when an eligible individual requests to switch from the regular SNAP to SNAP-CAP, CBS staff use a file date equal to the first day of the first month the individual qualifies for SNAP-CAP, if that date is later than the date the application form is actually received. CBS staff must document in TIERS Case Comments the reason for the modified file date as compared to the date on the application form.

Note: CBS staff may also cancel a month's regular SNAP issuance in order to expedite the recipient's switch to SNAP-CAP, if it is not too late to cancel that issuance. Refer to B-331, Cancelling Benefits in EBT Accounts.

B—475.3 Household Composition

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP-CAP

A SNAP-CAP food unit consists of one person. Married individuals who are both receiving SSI are considered separate households and certified on individual SNAP-CAP EDGs. (See A-231, Who Is Included.)

A SNAP-CAP participant who resides in a household in which other members receive SNAP through the regular program is considered a separate household, regardless of how they purchase and prepare their meals. (See A-232.1, Nonmembers.)

Do not include a SNAP-CAP participant when determining regular SNAP eligibility for other household members. Follow policy in A-1326.1.1, Contributions from Noncertified Household Members.

A minor child residing with a SNAP-CAP participant may be certified as SNAP head of household. The SNAP-CAP participant must be listed as the AR on the minor child's EDG. (See A-231.)

B—475.4 Income

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

B—475.6 Changes

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP-CAP

SNAP-CAP participants are not required to report changes. CBS processes shelter and address changes reported by SNAP-CAP participants.

CBS will mail Form H0025, HHSC Application for Voter Registration, to the individual when the individual reports a change of address. If the individual contacts CBS to decline the opportunity to register to vote after receipt of Form H0025, CBS will mail Form H1350, Opportunity to Register to Vote, to the individual for a signature. After the household returns Form H1350, the advisor sends the form for imaging and retains the image for 22 months.

State office uses SDX records to automatically update individual information on a weekly basis. The weekly SDX update results in a SNAP-CAP EDG denial if the individual no longer receives SSI, dies or moves to a nursing home.

OIG receives the overpayment referral and establishes a claim if the referral is valid.

SNAP-CAP households are subject to overpayment referrals and claims. Households may repay benefits through either recoupment or restitution. Recoupment is a method of recovering an overpayment claim by withholding a portion of the household's benefits. Restitution is a method of recovering an overpayment claim by the receipt of payments from the household paid to HHSC.

CBS staff must process timely redeterminations by the last workday of the certification period. CBS staff certify the SNAP-CAP EDG for 36 months and provide a notice of eligibility without a face-to-face or telephone interview. Advisors must ensure that the individual's normal issuance cycle is not interrupted.

If CBS receives Form H1842 after the 15th day of the last benefit month, advisors certify or deny the application by the 30th day after the file date. Expedited processing and benefit proration do not apply to SNAP-CAP.

A Form H1842 returned to a local eligibility determination office must be faxed to CBS the same day it is received. The fax number is 1-877-447-2839.

Individuals currently receiving SNAP-CAP may choose to apply for traditional SNAP because they may be eligible for a higher allotment. If an individual returns Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, and chooses to opt out of SNAP-CAP, the local office must:

- contact and confirm the applicant wants to apply for benefits under regular SNAP;
- schedule an appointment for an interview;
- perform Application Registration using a different SNAP EDG number than the SNAP-CAP EDG number;
- determine if the individual would receive a higher allotment under regular SNAP;
- notify the individual of the allotment amount under regular SNAP and confirm if the individual wishes to withdraw from SNAP-CAP;
- contact 2-1-1 to request EDG closure because the individual wishes to withdraw from SNAP-CAP;
- confirm the SNAP-CAP EDG has been denied; and
- certify the individual for regular SNAP effective the first month the individual qualifies for benefits without duplicating benefits.

Households whose members are all applying for or receiving SSI may apply for SNAP at the SSA office unless the households already have a SNAP application pending. These individuals are not required to come to the SNAP office to complete the application or redetermination process. If more information is needed from the household, the advisor must contact the household by home visit, telephone, or mail.

SSA:

- accepts and completes the SNAP application during the SSI interview; and
- forwards the following items to the Document Processing Center within one workday after receiving the application:
 - the application;
 - Form SSA-4233, Social Security Administration Transmittal for Food Stamp Applications; and
 - any verification SSA has received.

The file date for the application is the date SSA receives the application. SSA notes this date on Form SSA-4233. When SSA receives additional verification after forwarding the application to the Document Processing Center, SSA sends the additional verification with Form SSA-4233.

B—476.1.1 Expedited Service

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Advisors determine expedited services eligibility for SSI households the same as other households, except expedited time limits begin with the date the correct SNAP office receives the application.

SSA staff:

- screen the application for expedited services on the day they receive it;
- note "Expedited Processing" on the first page of Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, if the household appears to be eligible; and

TANF or TANF-SP

When a TANF EDG includes an other-related child, advisors must:

- explain to the household that the other-related child, if eligible alone, can continue receiving TANF even if the TANF for the other members of the household is denied. Denials include, but are not limited to, those because of:
 - resources,
 - earnings, or
 - child support.
- advise households that have an other-related child included in the TANF EDG to contact HHSC immediately if they receive a notice in the mail stating that their TANF or TANF-SP will be denied because they are no longer eligible for the 90 percent earned income deduction.
- set a special review to contact the household and continue TANF for an eligible other-related child when the EDG is expected to be denied because the 90 percent earned income deduction will be removed.

B—481.2 Before a TANF or TANF-SP EDG Is Denied

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

Advisors determine whether an other-related child is eligible for TANF on a separate EDG before the household's TANF is denied. Advisors must contact the household to ensure that the household wants the child's TANF to continue.

Advisors provide TANF to the other-related child without a break in benefits, if the other-related child is eligible alone and the household:

- wants the other-related child's TANF to continue, or
- cannot be contacted.

If more than one other-related child is in the household, other-related children who are not siblings are certified on separate EDGs.

Exception: The individual may choose to combine EDGs if one EDG is ineligible separately but would be eligible if the members were combined.

The other-related child is kept in the original household group if the:

- child is not eligible alone, or
- the household does not want the child to receive TANF.

B—482 Separating Household Members

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The eligibility system creates an EDG for the other-related child's TANF. Advisors must verify that each certified group contains the correct members. Advisors also must ensure that a new Lone Star Card is issued for the other-related child's new EDG. A new application is not required.

Note: These procedures ensure that TANF-SP EDG numbers follow the SP members.

B-490, Determining Whether a Person Who Resides in a Facility Is Institutionalized

Revision 22-1; Effective January 1, 2022

SNAP

People residing in institutions that are not approved are potentially eligible for SNAP, only if the person is not considered institutionalized. Approved institutions include homeless shelters, Drug and Alcohol Treatment (D&A), Group Living Arrangement (GLA) Facilities, and family violence shelters.

Additionally, people who reside together and receive residential services from nonprofit organizations or for-profit providers who contract with HHSC to provide residential services may participate in SNAP, only if the person is not considered institutionalized.

Residential services providers may:

- manage a resident's personal funds at the request of the resident; or
- be the payee on the resident's SSI benefit check.

If the person requests the residential services provider to manage the resident's personal account, the provider must maintain a financial account for the person and a separate detailed record of all deposits and expenditures for each resident.

Residential services providers may not commingle the resident's personal funds with the provider's funds.

For people residing in a facility or receiving residential services, staff must determine whether a person is institutionalized for SNAP eligibility following the steps below:

Step	Yes	No
1. Does the person do their own shopping and preparation for more than 50 percent of their meals, or do the facility staff manage the resident's personal account (which can include SNAP benefits) and use those funds to purchase a majority of the person's meals and prepare them for the resident?	The resident is not considered institutionalized. The person is eligible for SNAP if all other SNAP eligibility requirements are met. Go to Step 3.	Go to Step 2.
2. Does the facility: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • contract with HHSC to furnish a majority of the resident's meals along with other services; • provide a majority of the resident's meals from food purchased with money other than the person's funds; or • charge the resident a standard fee for a majority of the person's meals? 	The resident is considered "institutionalized" for purposes of SNAP eligibility since the contractor is providing most meals for the person. The resident can only qualify if the person meets the requirements for a resident of a nonprofit GLA.	The resident is not considered institutionalized. The person is eligible for SNAP if all other SNAP eligibility requirements are met. Go to Step 3.
3. Does the resident purchase and prepare their meals separately from others (including situations in which an attendant purchases food for the person with the person's money and prepares the person's meals separately from other people's), or does the resident intend to purchase and prepare separately after certification for SNAP?	The person can apply as a one-person household following regular policy.	People who purchase or prepare their food together must be included on the SNAP application. HHSC determines eligibility for all those purchasing or preparing together. Example: The facility uses every resident's specific SNAP funds to purchase groceries and prepare meals for everyone together. In this example, all the residents must be certified together for SNAP.

Verify and document the answers to the questions in the chart. If the person designates provider staff as the AR and the AR states the attendant purchases meals or food using the person's funds, the AR must provide a detailed record of deposits and expenditures for these people.

Suspend Medicaid in the following circumstances:

People Certified for TA 82, TP 40, TP 44 and TP 70 Confined in a Texas County Jail

Suspend Medicaid if the person is confined in a Texas county jail for more than 30 days and the county jail chooses to report the person's confinement to HHSC. Follow policy in B-542, Persons Confined in a Texas County Jail, to suspend the person's Medicaid effective the day after the confinement is reported by the county jail.

If notified of the person's confinement from a source other than a Texas county jail, terminate the person's Medicaid.

Children Certified for TP 44 Confined in a Secured Juvenile Facility

Suspend Medicaid when a child is placed in a secured juvenile facility. The Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJJ) or a Juvenile Probation Department (JPD) makes the report to HHSC within 30 calendar days of a child's placement. Follow policy in B-543, Child Placed in a Secured Juvenile Facility, to suspend the child's TP 44 eligibility effective the day after TJJJ or a JPD notifies HHSC that the child is placed in a juvenile facility.

If notified of the child's placement from a source other than TJJD or a JPD, terminate the child's TP 44.

The following are scenarios for a child certified on Medicaid who is reported as placed in a juvenile facility.

B-531 Medicaid Reinstatement for Children Certified for TP 44 Who Are Released from a Juvenile Facility

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TP 44

Upon receiving notification from the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) or a Juvenile Probation Department (JPD) that a child whose Medicaid is suspended has been released and the child has months remaining on their original certification period:

- reinstate the child's eligibility effective the date of their release, and
- certify the child for any remaining months of the child's original certification period.

Add the child back to any associated active TANF, SNAP, Medicaid, CHIP, or Medicaid for the Elderly and People with Disabilities (MEPD) EDGs if the child is a required member of the household.

The child's eligibility is reinstated even if the child is released to a household that is different than the one in which the child resided at the time of their placement.

If the child is not eligible for reinstatement but is released to a home in which a sibling is receiving Medicaid or CHIP, add the child to the sibling's case.

If the child is released to the same household and the case is...

Active or denied

Then...

The child's TP 44 eligibility is reinstated for the remainder of the child's original certification period on the same EDG.

If the child is released to a different household...

With an existing denied case

Then...

The child's TP 44 eligibility is reinstated for the remainder of the original certification period on a new EDG.

If the child is released to a different household...Then...

Without an existing case

The child's TP 44 eligibility is reinstated for the remainder of the child's original certification period on a new case.

For a child released to a different household, any changes to the child's circumstances should be addressed at the next scheduled renewal. A child released to a different household may not administratively renew.

If the child is released as an independent child with...Then...

An existing denied case

The child's TP 44 eligibility is reinstated for the remainder of the child's original certification period on a new EDG.

Without an existing case

The child's TP 44 eligibility is reinstated for the remainder of the child's original certification period on a new case.

For a child released as an independent child, any changes to the child's circumstances should be addressed at the next scheduled renewal. A child released to a different household may not administratively renew.

TIERS will automatically reinstate the child's eligibility for the remainder of the certification period and add the child to any associated active EDGs upon notification from TJJJ or a JPD. When an exception to the automated process occurs, CBS staff must manually process the reinstatement or add the child to an existing case following B-545, Notification of Actual Release.

B-532 Medicaid Reinstatement for Persons Released from Texas County Jails

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TA 82, TP 40, TP 44 and TP 70

When notified by any source that a person has been released from a Texas county jail, perform individual inquiry to determine if the person:

- has suspended or terminated health care coverage due to county jail confinement; and
- was included in the budget or certified group of any other EDGs at the time their health care coverage was suspended or terminated.

If inquiry shows that the person's health care coverage was suspended at confinement, perform a County Jail Release - Search to determine if the person has an active suspension (months remaining on their original certification). If so, create a Process a County Jail Confinement/Release task for all active cases on which the person was included prior to suspension and enter the release information into TIERS on the County Jail Release - Details page.

When the health care coverage EDG is disposed:

- The person's health care coverage is reinstated for the remaining months of the original certification period, effective the date the person is released from the county jail.
- The Individual - Medicaid History page is updated to indicate the person's eligibility has been reinstated.
- A TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is generated notifying the person of reinstatement.

Reinstatement must occur within two business days of receiving the notification of the person's release.

Consider the report of release as a change report for all other types of assistance and follow policy in B-641, Additions to the Household, to determine if the person needs to be added to the other types of assistance.

If inquiry shows that the person's health care coverage was terminated at confinement or that the person's original certification has ended and is not eligible for reinstatement, send an application to the person's last known address.

B-533 Reasonable Opportunity After a Medicaid Suspension and Reinstatement

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TA 82, TP 40, TP 44 and TP 70

If a person's reasonable opportunity period expires while their Medicaid is suspended, a new reasonable opportunity period is provided when their Medicaid coverage is reinstated. The new reasonable opportunity period is the earlier of the following:

- 95 days from the date the reinstatement is disposed; or
- the last day of their current certification period.

If the person's Medicaid coverage is reinstated before the original reasonable opportunity period end date, their original reasonable opportunity due date is retained.

A TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is generated at reinstatement and will include the reasonable opportunity information to remind the person to submit documentation of citizenship or alien status.

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TP 44 and TP 40

This section applies only to people confined in a Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) facility. This policy does not apply to any other state, county, or city jails. Applications are submitted to HHSC only by The University of Texas Medicaid Branch at Galveston.

A person confined in a public institution is eligible for Medicaid coverage if the following conditions are met:

- the confined person meets Medicaid eligibility requirements (pregnant women and children through age 18 could meet current Medicaid eligibility requirements);
- the confined person receives inpatient services; and

- the inpatient services are provided by a hospital that is not on the premises of a prison, jail, detention center, or other penal setting, including a facility run by a private health care entity.

Medicaid coverage is limited to the specific days the confined person is admitted as a patient and receives inpatient services as verified by the medical provider using Form H1046, Inpatient Medical Services Certification. Inpatient services are those provided on the recommendation of a physician or dentist and received in a medical institution. The confined person must receive or expect to receive room, board, and professional services in the institution for a 24-hour period or longer.

If the confined person is ineligible due to U.S. citizenship or alien status, the medical provider must also complete Form H3038, Emergency Medical Services Certification. The ineligible person is eligible only for those dates verified as an emergency, even if the inpatient treatment continues after the verified emergency dates.

The confined person is eligible for prior coverage only.

The TDCJ or its designee submits the following documents to HHSC via fax:

- Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application, on behalf of the confined person the month following the month the eligible hospital bill was incurred;
- Form H1046, Inpatient Medical Services Certification;
- Form H3038, Emergency Medical Services Certification, if applicable; and
- all required verification, such as verification of citizenship, alien status, etc.

Note: If the required information or verification is not received, call or send secure email to the designated TDCJ contact.

Upon disposition of the application, send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to the representative's address provided on Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application.

A county jail may choose to report people who receive health care coverage from HHSC and are confined in their facility for more than 30 days. If applicable, within two business days of the confinement report, Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) staff must review the report of confinement and determine the appropriate action needed.

CBS staff:

- Suspend the following types of health care coverage:
 - TA 82, MA – Former Foster Care Children
 - TP 40, MA – Pregnant Women
 - TP 44, MA – Children 6–18
 - TP 70 - Medicaid for the Transitioning Foster Care Youth (MTFCY)
- Terminate the following types of health care coverage:
 - TA 41, Health Care – Healthy Texas Women (HTW)
 - TA 66, MA – MBCC – Presumptive
 - TA 67, MA – MBCC
 - TA 76, MA – Children 6–18 Presumptive
 - TA 77, Health Care – FFCHE
 - TA 83, MA – FFCC Presumptive

 - TP 07, MA – Earnings Transitional
 - TP 08, MA – Parents and Caretaker Relatives
 - TP 20, MA – Alimony/Spousal Support Transitional
 - TP 42, MA – Pregnant Women Presumptive

Do not act on other types of health care coverage.

When the Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) is disposed, if applicable:

- The person's health care coverage is suspended or terminated effective the day after HHSC receives the notification. The person receives Medicaid through the date of the confinement notification.
- The Individual – Medicaid History page is updated to indicate the person's eligibility is suspended or terminated.
- The person is removed from other EDGs in which they are included, and benefits are adjusted accordingly for the remaining household members following current policies and procedures.
- A TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is generated at suspension/termination and reinstatement (TWH Section A-2310, Notice to Applicants).

Note: Terminate the person's eligibility following policy in B-631, Actions on Changes, if a report of confinement in a county jail is received from a source other than a participating county jail.

B-543 Child Placed in a Juvenile Facility

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TP 44

The TJJD or a JPD notifies HHSC within 30 days of a child's placement in a juvenile facility. Upon notification of the placement:

- suspend the child's Medicaid eligibility effective the day after HHSC receives the notification if the child is certified for TP 44;
- terminate the child's Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) eligibility effective the day after HHSC receives the notification if the child is certified for CHIP;
- terminate the child's Medicaid eligibility allowing adequate notice according to policy in A-2344.1, Form TF0001 Required, Adequate Notice, if the child is certified on a Medicaid type other than TP 44; and
- remove the child from other Eligibility Determination Groups (EDGs) in which the child is included.

The child receives TP 44 eligibility through the date of the notification of placement.

The following are scenarios for a child certified on Medicaid who is reported as placed in a juvenile facility.

Child is certified for...	and HHSC receives notification of the child's placement in a juvenile facility from...	then the child's...
TP 44 from Dec. 1, 2019 – Nov. 30, 2020	TJJD on Feb. 7, 2020,	TP 44 eligibility is suspended effective Feb. 8, 2020.
TP 44 from Oct. 1, 2019 – Sept. 30, 2020	the child's mother on Dec. 1, 2019,	TP 44 eligibility is denied effective Dec. 31, 2019.

Exceptions:

- Children certified on a Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or a Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) type of Medicaid are not terminated by HHSC.
- Children placed in a non-secure facility may receive TP 44 as an independent child. Therefore, these EDGs are not suspended or denied when a notification of placement is received.

TIERS will automatically suspend or terminate the child's eligibility and remove the child from associated active EDGs upon notification from TJJD or a JPD. When an exception to the automated process occurs, CBS must manually process the suspension, termination, or removal of the child from associated EDGs.

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TP 44

When reporting that a child has been placed in a juvenile facility, TJJD or a JPD notifies HHSC if the facility is a secure or non-secure facility.

Non-Secure Facility with 16 or Fewer Beds

Children placed in a non-secure juvenile facility with 16 or fewer beds are considered independent children and are potentially eligible for Medicaid.

Non-Secure Facility with More than 16 Beds

In general, children placed in a public, non-secure facility with more than 16 beds are not eligible for Medicaid. However, children residing in a TJJD or a JPD halfway house with more than 16 beds may be eligible for Medicaid if the halfway house meets the federally required criteria listed in A-241.3.1, Children's Living Arrangements, and if the children meet all other eligibility criteria.

Medical Effective Date

To determine the correct medical effective date (MED) for children in a non-secure facility, follow the chart below:

If the child is ...	then ...
not active on Medicaid or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) and the file date is within the same month as the placement date of the child,	the MED is the placement date of the child.
not active on Medicaid or CHIP and the file date is not within the same month as the placement date of the child. That is, the application is filed the month after the placement date),	the MED is the first day of the application month. Note: For unpaid medical bills prior to the file date, follow policy in A-831.1 , How to Apply for Three Months Prior Coverage.
active on CHIP,	test for Medicaid eligibility following procedures in A-126.3 , Advisor Action for Determining Eligibility for Children.

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

At least 30 days prior to a child's release, TJJD or a JPD notifies HHSC of the child's anticipated release date. Upon receipt of the information, CBS staff determines whether the child:

- is eligible for reinstatement of TP 44 eligibility;
- can be added to an existing case if not eligible for reinstatement; or
- must reapply.

If the child cannot be reinstated because their original certification period has ended or their TP 44 was not suspended or cannot be added to an existing case, CBS staff are notified in the HHSC Action Status field on the TIERS TJJD/JPD Release page, to send the household an application packet. The application packet includes the following:

- Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application;
- a pre-paid envelope addressed to CBS;
- a cover letter that provides information and instructions for submitting the application and obtaining help in completing the application; and
- a list of Community Partners in the household's area that provide application assistance upon request.

The child is automatically added to an existing case if the child is not eligible for reinstatement but has a sibling receiving Medicaid or CHIP. The child is also added to any other EDGs on the case that require the child to be a household member.

TIERS will automatically reinstate the child's eligibility and add the child to associated active EDGs upon notification from TJJD or a JPD. When an exception to the automated process occurs, CBS must manually process the reinstatement or add the child to an existing case.

Within two business days of notification of the child's release, CBS staff must process and dispose any pending applications.

CBS accepts applications up to and including the 14th calendar day after the confirmed release date. Any applications received after the 14th calendar day are routed to the local office for processing.

CBS reports the following to TJJD through the Juvenile Medicaid Tracker:

- the child has Medicaid or CHIP;
- the child was denied;
- the CBS unit never received the application; or
- the application was sent to the local office.

If the child is eligible for Medicaid, the MED cannot be any earlier than the release date.

Changes are situations that occur in a household that may affect eligibility or the amount of benefits. The advisor must take action on reported changes to ensure that:

- individual benefits are issued timely and accurately;
- the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) is not sanctioned for failure to provide correct benefits for the correct month; and
- Quality Control (QC) initiatives are met.

B-620, Reporting Requirements

Revision 05-4; Effective August 1, 2005

B—621 What to Report

Revision 19-2; Effective April 1, 2019

All Programs

The advisor must inform all households of their responsibility to report changes in residence.

TANF and SNAP except SNAP Streamlined Reporting (SR) Households

The advisor must inform all households of their responsibility to report the following changes:

- source of income;*
- household composition;
- ownership of a licensed vehicle; and
- wage rate or status (full-time to part-time or vice versa as defined by the employer) for employed household members.*

* SR households must report any change that causes the ongoing income to exceed the 130 percent federal poverty income limit (FPIL) including a new household member.

TANF

The advisor must inform all households of their responsibility to report the following changes:

- the amount of non-exempt unearned income of any household member;
- circumstances other than employment that affect a person's amount of benefits or employment services exemption status;
- address, job, or other information related to the absent parent; and
- available cash, stocks, bonds, or money in a bank or savings account if the total is over $1,000.

SNAP

Streamlined Reporting 1 households meet the SR criteria described in A-2350, Streamlined Reporting Households, and have income below 130 percent FPIL. These households are required to report:

- residence and associated changes in shelter cost such as rent or mortgage and utilities;
- when the ongoing gross monthly income exceeds 130 percent FPIL for the household's size. Consider the income ongoing if it exceeds 130 percent FPIL for two consecutive months. Example: A new household member who is required to be included in the SNAP Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) moves into an SR household and the new member has income that causes the household's income to exceed the current 130 percent FPIL. The household must report the change. The advisor must issue a new Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, notifying the household of the requirement to report changes in residence and associated changes in shelter costs; and
- when the work or participation hours of an ABAWD decrease below an average of 20 hours per week. Work and participation hours include employment, self-employment and any participation hours that count toward the work requirement.

Streamlined Reporting 2 households meet the SR criteria described in A-2350 and have income above 130 percent FPIL. These households are required to report changes in residence and associated changes in shelter costs such as rent or mortgage, and utilities and when the work or participation hours of an ABAWD decrease below an average of 20 hours per week.

Streamlined Reporting 3 households do not meet the SR criteria in A-2350. These households are required to report:

- gross monthly household unearned income if the amount changes by more than $50 during the certification period;
- residence and associated changes in shelter costs such as rent or mortgage, and utilities;
- legal obligation of child support paid to or for nonmembers; and
- available cash, stocks, bonds or money in a bank or savings account if the combined resources total is $5,000 or more.

When an SR 1 household reports a change that occurs after certification and the change causes their ongoing income to exceed their gross monthly income limit (130 percent FPIL) for two consecutive months, the household has met the SR reporting requirement. If the household remains eligible for an allotment, the household is not required to report additional income changes during the certification period, and is only required to report changes in residence. However, if the advisor later processes a reported change and income is again below 130 percent FPIL (due to decreased income or fewer household members), Form TF0001 should be issued advising the household they are again responsible for reporting if their income exceeds 130 percent FPIL.

SR 1 and SR 2 households:

- must respond as directed to all notices and letters from the employment program;
- are not required to report any other changes. If the household reports a change, the advisor takes the appropriate action and continues to act on all agency-generated changes; and
- are not required to report when a child turns age 18 during the certification period. If an SR household contains a child who will turn age 18 during the certification period, time limits do not apply to anyone until the next redetermination.

Advisors must inform SR 1 and SR 2 households with associated TANF or Medical Program (MP) EDGs of the TANF/MP reporting requirements. A status of SR 1 or SR 2 on a SNAP EDG does not alter the change reporting requirements for associated TANF or MP EDGs.

If the SR 1 or SR 2 household reports that a minor child is no longer in the home and the only person age 18 up to age 50 is now an Able Bodied Adult without Dependents (ABAWD) who:

- does not meet the SNAP ABAWD work requirement, the advisor processes the household composition change and registers the individual for SNAP Employment and Training (E&T). The advisor must send the ABAWD a new notice informing the individual of the time limit and set a special review for the month before the end of the ABAWD's time limit to disqualify the ABAWD or deny the EDG.
- meets the SNAP ABAWD work requirement, the ABAWD's months do not count and a special review is not required.

When an SR1 or SR2 household reports that an ABAWD is working or participating less than an average of 20 hours per week and no longer meeting the work requirement, the household will be subject to non-streamlined reporting criteria and designated as SR3.

Medical Programs except TP 45

Advisors must inform all households of their responsibility to report the following changes:

- address;
- intent to reside in Texas;
- the people living in the home;
- income, including sources of income, regular hours worked and pay rate;
- Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) expenses;
- a child being institutionalized or dying; and
- medical insurance coverage.

TP 08 and TA 31

Advisors must inform all households of their responsibility to report changes in the address, job, or other information related to the absent parent.

TP 40

Households must report the termination of a pregnancy.

TP 45

Households must report if the child no longer resides in Texas.

- by telephone;
- by fax;
- by mail; or
- on Form H1019, Report of Change, submitted in person, by fax or by mail.

- When a change is reported by telephone, the advisor must verify that the person speaking has the authority to report a change.
- When a signed Form H1019 is not on file, the individual's signature on Form H1028, Employment Verification, is acceptable as a written, signed report of income change for adequate notice purposes.
- When a change is reported on an application form, staff do not have to act on the change within 10 days. - If the household reports a change of address in person, the advisor must provide the individual with the opportunity to complete Form H0025, HHSC Application for Voter Registration, to register to vote based on their new address. - If the household reports a change of address online through YourTexasBenefits.com, or via mail, fax, telephone, or through an authorized representative, the advisor must mail the individual Form H0025 to register to vote based on the new address. If the individual contacts the local office to decline the opportunity to register to vote after receipt of Form H0025, the advisor must mail Form H1350 to the individual for a signature. TANF, TP 08 and SNAP

When an advisor works a Children's Medicaid application/redetermination during a TANF/Medicaid/SNAP certification period, and a household member's source of income currently budgeted on the other active EDG has not changed, the advisor must determine whether the member is reporting a change in income. To do this, the advisor must determine whether the income verification the household provided with the Children's Medicaid application/redetermination is:

- a more recent payment than previously verified; and
- within the range of payments previously verified that are currently used in the budget for the associated active EDG(s), whether the individual provides only one or more than one. "Range of payment" is the highest to the lowest representative pay amounts used to determine the current ongoing budget.

Advisors may follow the guidelines below:

If ...	then ...
any of the payment amounts provided as verification for the Children's Medicaid application/redetermination are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • more recent; and • at least $25 outside the range of payment currently used as "representative income" in the budget for the active EDG, 	treat this as a reported change for the active EDG and take action following B-631, Actions on Changes (including additional verification of income, if necessary). If the individual fails to provide timely verification, follow policy in B-642, Changes Increasing Benefits (Other than Additions to the Household), and B-643, Changes Decreasing Benefits.
all of the payment amounts provided as verification for the Children's Medicaid application/redetermination are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • older than those currently used, or • less than $25 outside the range of payment currently used as "representative income" in the budget for the active EDG, 	do not treat this as a reported change for the active EDG (unless the individual reports that the source of income or amount of income has changed).

Example: The lowest representative check used for the current certification period is $175 and the highest representative check used is $200. The individual provides a check stub for the Children's Medicaid EDG in the amount of $210. This check is less than $25 outside the range of payments and is not considered a change.

If a change is reported during the Children's Medicaid application/redetermination, the advisor processing the Medicaid EDG must either take action on the associated TANF/Medicaid/SNAP EDG or notify the local office of the reported change. The file date is considered the report date for purposes of determining the effective date of the change. The date the advisor works the Children's Medicaid EDG and becomes aware of the change is day zero for purposes of taking action on the change for the associated EDG. The individual must provide any requested verification by the due date on Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to be considered timely verification.

B—624 Receipts for Reported Changes

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Households may request a receipt to acknowledge the change report. The receipt includes the type of change(s) and the date reported. If an individual requests a receipt, the advisor must issue:

- a copy of the individual's completed Form H1019, Report of Change; or
- Form H1800, Receipt for Application/Medicaid Report/Verification/Report of Change.

B-630, Processing Requirements

Revision 05-5; Effective October 1, 2005

B—631 Actions on Changes

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

Customer Care Center (CCC) staff is responsible for processing most client-reported changes.

Upon receipt of a change report in the local office:

- Accept the change.
- Date stamp the written change report.
- Enter the change into the State Portal — Report a TIERS Change portlet if the change is received without verification and verification is required.
- Complete an MI/Change Routing Cover Sheet and fax the change to the vendor at 877-236-4123 if the change is received with verification. Do not enter the information in the State Portal — Report a TIERS Change portlet.

Note: Provide Form H1800, Receipt for Application/Medicaid Report/Verification/Report of Change, upon request.

To reduce the potential for quality control (QC) errors when the household reports a change in person or by phone, attempt to collect enough information to determine if the change will decrease benefits. For new or increased income, this includes the following information:

- date of the change;
- date of the first payment;
- source of the income;
- expected pay amounts (or weekly hours and rate of pay for earnings); and
- pay frequency.

Note: Do not verify income if the amount reported makes the household ineligible.

Provide the household with Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, and Form H1020-A, Sources of Proof, on the day of the report (no later than the next workday) if more information or verification is required to complete the change action. The household is allowed 10 full days to provide the requested information or verification.

Note: When a SNAP household reports a change during the last certification month, do not send the household Form H1020/Form H1020-A, if the effective date of the change is after the certification period expires. Send the change for imaging and address it with the person at the redetermination interview.

- Document the:
 - reported change;
 - date the change occurred; and
 - date the change was reported.
- Calculate the budget (if applicable).

Exception: Take the following steps when a person reports a change in annual or seasonal self-employment income or expenses during their certification period:

Step	Yes	No
1. Does the current budget already include fluctuations as significant as the change reported?	Stop — the change is part of the normal fluctuation of the business; do not rebudget.	Re-evaluate, go to Step 2.
2. Does the re-evaluation result in a change of more than $25 to the average monthly net self-employment income?	Rebudget the EDG(s) using new average monthly net self-employment income.	Stop — do not rebudget.

- Send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action:
 - Following policy in B-642, Changes Increasing Benefits (Other than Additions to the Household); B-642.1, Verification Provided Timely; and B-642.2, Verification Not Provided Timely, if benefits increase or remain the same.
 - Following policy in B-643, Changes Decreasing Benefits, if benefits decrease. See A-2343.1, How to Take Adverse Action if Advance Notice Is Required.
- Provide the household with a new Form H1019, Report of Change, and a pre-paid envelope to report future changes.

The Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) notifies HHSC through an interface when a child receiving TANF, Medicaid or SNAP has been placed in foster care. Mass Update is triggered, and the child is automatically removed from the EDG(s). If Mass Update fails because the case is not in ongoing mode, take action to remove the child from the EDG(s).

For this type of change, advance notice of adverse action is required for SNAP, but not for TANF or Medicaid.

The Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) or Juvenile Probation Department (JPD) notifies HHSC via the TJJD/JPD Placement Logical Unit of Work in the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) when a child certified for Medicaid has been placed in a juvenile facility and when a child has been released. Follow policy in B-520, Medicaid Suspension, and B-546, Notification of Actual Release from a Juvenile Facility, regarding action taken on a case that includes a child placed in or released from a juvenile facility.

B—631.1 Multiple Changes

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Multiple changes reported on the same day must be processed as one occurrence. If required, the advisor must send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, with the corresponding pending period and list the verifications needed for all changes.

Multiple changes reported on different days must be processed as separate occurrences. If required, the advisor sends Form H1020 for each reported change with the corresponding pending period and lists only the verification needed for that change.

Each change could affect the benefits for different months. Advisors refer to B-640, Changes Affecting Benefits, to determine the correct month for each change.

Exception: All changes associated with an individual at the time the individual joins a household affects the benefits for the same month, even if the report of change is on a different day.

Example A – A household consists of a mother and son who receive SNAP, TANF and Medicaid (TP 08 for the mother and Children's Medicaid for the son). On January 10, the mother reports the birth of her daughter on January 4 and that she and the newborn went home from the hospital on January 6. The EDGs are pended for more information with a due date of January 20. The mother provides the requested information on January 20, reports she has gone to work, and provides verification of her new employer. She reports her first day of work was January 16 and that she is paid semimonthly. She will receive her first check January 30, and it is not a partial payment. The advisor must:

- Add the newborn to the SNAP and TANF certified group effective February and request supplements for both programs;
- Adjust the TANF benefit amount, counting the income effective for March benefits, since adverse action must first expire — apply the 90 percent earned income deduction if the mother is eligible; and
- Adjust the SNAP budget to include the new TANF grant amount and the new earned income effective for March, since adverse action must first expire.

Example B – A household consists of a father, mother, and three children who receive SNAP and Children's Medicaid. The father is employed, and the mother receives Unemployment Insurance Benefits (UIB). On January 5, the mother reports that the father left the household on October 31 and that she received her last UIB check November 16. She also reports she started working December 3 and provides verification.

- Remove the father from the household and terminate his income effective for February SNAP benefits.
- Terminate the mother's UIB using either the Texas Workforce Commission inquiry system or the verification provided, effective for February SNAP benefits.
- Add the mother's new income effective for February.
- Children's Medicaid is continuously eligible for the first six months. The income change will be processed during a PIC, as explained in B-637, Periodic Income Checks.
- There is no overissuance because this is a streamlined reporting household.

Example C – On March 7, the household in Example B reports that the mother's sister has moved in, and the sister wants to be added to the SNAP EDG. The EDG is pended for the sister's Social Security number (SSN) with a due date of March 17. The sister provides a current pay stub from her employer that includes her SSN on March 17. On the same day, the SNAP EDG is pended again for verification of income that was not previously reported, with a new due date of March 27. On March 25, the sister provides Form H1028, Employment Verification, that states she has worked for her employer for one year and includes all other needed information.

- The sister is not added to the certified group for April SNAP benefits. Advance notice of adverse action for the addition of the sister's income will not expire in March.
- The sister is added to the certified group and her income counts, effective for May benefits.

B—631.2 Actions on Office of Inspector General (OIG) Match Action Alert Changes

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

OIG staff help with clearing computer matches for the following reports:

- Public Assistance Reporting Information System (PARIS) Interstate Matches;
- Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ);
- Social Security Administration Prisoner Verification System (PVS);
- Income and Eligibility Verification Systems (IEVS); and
- Social Security Administration (SSA) Deceased Individual Report.

PARIS Interstate Matches

When OIG staff receive an Interstate Match through PARIS that shows a person on an active TIERS EDG is receiving benefits in another state, OIG informs HHSC staff by creating a task within the Task List Manager (TLM). Take the appropriate action to process the task based on the information provided by OIG.

TDCJ and PVS Matches

When OIG staff find a match through TDCJ or PVS that shows a person on an active TIERS EDG is incarcerated, OIG informs HHSC staff by creating a task within TLM. Take the appropriate action to process the task based on the information provided by OIG.

When staff request a Data Broker report, TDCJ information is displayed on the combined report for an incarcerated person. See C-825.17, Inmate/Parolee Match, for staff instructions for processing Prisoner Matches viewed in Data Broker.

Income and Eligibility Verification Systems (IEVS)

The procedures for clearing IEVS reports are documented in C-1000, Procedures for Clearance of Income and Eligibility (IEVS) Reports and Internal Revenue (IRS) Federal Tax Information (FTI).

Date of Death Matches

TIERS matches recipients on active EDGs with records from the Office of Inspector General (OIG), Social Security Administration (SSA), Texas Bureau of Vital Statistics (BVS), the Centers for Medicaid and Medicare Services (CMS), and DADS Webservice to find deceased persons.

The BVS, if available is considered the primary source of verification of death. If BVS is available but the date of death (DOD) does not match reported information, accept BVS as verification. No additional verification is required.

If BVS verification is not available, verify the DOD using two of the following sources:

- Social Security Administration (SSA);
- statement from guardian or authorized representative;
- copy of death certificate;
- statement from a doctor;
- newspaper death notice (obituary);
- statement from a relative or household member;
- statement from a funeral director; or
- records from hospital or other institution where the person died.

TIERS attempts to update the DOD information for all active and inactive persons and automatically removes them from active EDGs. If unable to process the death data automatically, TIERS creates a task for staff to research and confirm the validity of the computer match.

Take action to clear any discrepancies when DOD data is received on an active or inactive person within TIERS and TIERS is unable to automatically dispose the case. When TIERS cannot dispose the case, a series of alerts are created for staff to explore and request additional verification.

To clear discrepancies, gather additional verification on the DOD data received. Do not require the household to provide the verification if the verification is available through one of the sources listed above.

B—632 Mass Changes

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The state or federal government initiates changes that can affect all individuals or large numbers of individuals. Individuals are not required to report mass changes. These changes occur in the:

- income eligibility standards;
- shelter and dependent care maximum deductions;

- Thrifty Food Plan and standard deductions;
- utility standard;
- cost-of-living adjustments for Social Security, Supplemental Security Income (SSI) and other federal benefits;
- TANF grants; and
- other eligibility criteria based on legislative or regulatory actions.

When these changes occur, HHSC automatically adjusts eligibility or benefits for most individuals and notifies the households via Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action. The adjustments are effective the date of the change. Advisors do not send Form TF0001.

HHSC generates an exception report for EDGs that are not adjusted during the state office conversion. Advisors must review the EDGs, adjust benefits if necessary, and send the individual Form TF0001, allowing advance notice of adverse action if required.

B—633 Changes in Eligibility Test

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs except TP 45

If a household's circumstances change and the household is subject to a new income/resource test, the advisor must determine eligibility by applying the new test when the change is reported.

B—634 Changes in SNAP EDGs Jointly Processed with Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Individuals whose SNAP and SSI applications have been jointly processed must report changes like other SNAP individuals.

B—635 Shortening Certification Periods as a Result of a Change

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

In the following situations, the advisor may shorten a non-public assistance (NPA) SNAP certification period:

- A change occurs that makes the case circumstances unstable, and the advisor cannot readily determine the effect of the change on the household's eligibility or benefits. This includes:
 - receipt of the discrepancy report Alert 254, Employer New Hire Data;
 - new listings of information on Data Broker that are inconsistent with information previously reported by the household; and
 - situations in which a public assistance household's TANF is denied for some administrative reason, such as missed appointment, voluntary withdrawal, or failure to provide information requested to redetermine TANF eligibility, and the individual's SNAP EDG becomes questionable.
- The household's eligibility becomes questionable as described in special reviews for known changes. See B-125.1, Due Dates.

Exception: Do not shorten the certification period if the household is designated SR. The advisor must send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, requesting specific verification. If the SR household does not provide the verification, the EDG is denied and the advisor sends Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action. See A-2330, Setting Special Reviews, to determine when to set a special review on SR EDGs.

Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) staff shorten certification periods when a household reports a change that results in the household being transferred out of CBS. See B-474.6.1, Special Procedures for Shortening Certification Periods for Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) Eligibility Determination Groups (EDGs).

In all of the situations where advisors may shorten an NPA SNAP certification period, the advisor must use the following procedures before shortening the certification period:

- Send the household Form H1020 and list the specific verification needed to process the case. If the household responds, take appropriate action.
- If the household fails to provide verification, deny the EDG using denial reason failure to provide information and send Form TF0001.
- Send Form H1830, Application/Review/Expiration/Appointment Notice, and Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance – Your Texas Benefits, to the household along with Form TF0001. Mark the first box on Form H1830 that begins, "Attached is an application for ..." and mark "SNAP." When the individual returns Form H1010, follow normal application time frames.

B—636 Change in Head of Household (HOH)

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

All Programs

When the current HOH dies or leaves the home, change the HOH to another responsible adult household member without requiring the remaining household members to reapply for benefits. If there are children in the household, a responsible adult household member is:

- a parent with minor children living in the household; or
- an adult who has parental control over minor children living in the household.

If there is no responsible adult member identified in the household, and a child in the household is receiving benefits, send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to notify the household that a responsible adult who is caring for the child must apply for benefits for the child to continue to receive assistance. If an application is not submitted by the Form H1020 due date, deny benefits since the whereabouts of the household are unknown.

SNAP and TANF

If the HOH who left the home was the Electronic Benefit Transfer \(EBT\) primary cardholder \(PCH\), update the PCH information with the new HOH and issue a new Lone Star Card to allow the household access to SNAP and TANF benefits. Do not update the information if a new HOH has not been identified.

B—637 Periodic Income Checks

Revision 20-1; Effective January 1, 2020

TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

Initiating a PIC requires no staff action and uses the automated income check process to determine whether there has been a change in the household's income that makes the household potentially ineligible for medical programs.

As part of the automated income check process, the household's income information in the eligibility system is compared with income data available through electronic data sources (ELDS) to determine whether it is reasonably compatible, as explained in A-1370, Verification Requirements, Medical Programs.

The eligibility system may be able to complete the entire PIC process without any staff action or correspondence sent to the client if the PIC does not find an indication that there has been a change in the household's income that makes them potentially ineligible.

Electronic income data is requested one month before the eligibility system uses it. If the household's income is not determined to be reasonably compatible with electronic data, the household must provide other acceptable verification as explained in A-1371, Verification Sources.

Electronic Data Hierarchy for Earned Income

1. TIERS checks electronic data from the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC).
2. If earned income electronic data is not available, TIERS checks to see whether there is a New Hire Report. When a New Hire Report exists that does not match the household's income information in TIERS, the household must provide verification of the information on the New Hire Report.

TIERS also checks SOLQ to verify RSDI income (unearned income).

Process verifications returned as the result of a PIC following B-631, Actions on Changes. If the person does not provide the requested verification by the 10th day, TIERS automatically sends Form TF0001 on the 11th day for failure to provide.

SNAP and TANF

Verification is required for SNAP and TANF during the automated income check process when:

- The reasonable compatibility calculation result is "Need Info because ELDS above limit" or the person is required to provide verification of information found on a New Hire Report for a Medical Program.
- A person in the MAGI household is included in a SNAP or TANF budget group.

The person has 10 days to provide the verification for SNAP and TANF. If the person does not provide verification by the 10th day, TIERS will automatically take the following action on the 11th day based on the income type and electronic data source used during the automated income verification process:

- Deny SNAP and TANF benefits for the following data sources:
 - quarterly wage data from the TWC; or
 - New Hire Report data from the Office of the Attorney General (OAG).
- Create a task to notify staff to adjust SNAP and TANF benefits for the following data sources:
 - unearned Retirement, Survivors, and Disability Insurance (RSDI) income data from the Social Security Administration (SSA); or
 - unearned unemployment data from TWC.

Note: Unearned RSDI data from SSA, or unearned unemployment data from TWC are valid forms of verifications for SNAP and TANF. Since quarterly wage data from TWC and New Hire Report data from OAG are not valid sources of verification for SNAP and TANF, the person must provide verification of the income.

TP 08

A PIC is initiated in months three through eight of the certification period when the following conditions are met:

- Any of the following is true for at least one person in the MAGI household for at least one countable income or expense source:
 - an income or expense is not verified;
 - one of the following income types uses "Verified by Reasonable Compatibility" as the verification source:
 - employment income;
 - unemployment compensation income; or
 - RSDI income; or
 - The verification source is anything other than "Verified by Reasonable Compatibility" and the verification received date is more than 60 days old.
- The case is in Approved Ongoing mode; and
- There are no pending TLM tasks for the case.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

A PIC is initiated in months five through eight of the certification period when the following conditions are met:

- The person will not age out before or during the PIC review month;
- Any of the following is true for at least one person in the MAGI household for at least one countable income or expense source:
 - an income or expense is not verified;
 - one of the following income types uses “Verified by Reasonable Compatibility” as the verification source:
 - employment income;
 - unemployment compensation income; or
 - RSDI Income; or
 - The verification source is anything other than “Verified by Reasonable Compatibility” and the verification received date is over 60 days old.
- The case is in Approved Ongoing mode; and
- There are no pending TLM tasks for the case.

The first time the result of a PIC could impact eligibility is the seventh month of the 12-month certification period because the first six months are continuous.

Exception: A PIC is not initiated when a TP 44 child released from placement in a juvenile facility is reinstated to a different household than the one in which they were residing at the time of their placement or is reinstated as an independent child.

When taking action on the result of a PIC due to excess income, a household may be eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment if the household:

- is determined to be ineligible for Medicaid during the eligibility period but before the end of their certification period;
- is determined eligible for Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP); and
- owes a CHIP enrollment fee.

An appeal and reactivation due to a change or PIC is an eligible case action for expedited CHIP enrollment.

B—638 Returned Mail

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

All Programs

Advisors must take the following action when returned mail is received:

If the case includes an active SNAP EDG:

1. Review the address indicated on the returned mail, the case record, and the State Portal to determine whether the household has reported a new address. If a new address was reported, process the address change and any related changes in shelter expenses. Otherwise, go to Step 2.
2. If the new address was not reported and a forwarding address was not provided, make one attempt to contact the household via telephone to confirm the address and document the attempt. If able to contact the household and the household provides a new address, process the change and any related changes in shelter expenses. Otherwise, go to Step 3.
3. If the returned mail is a SNAP redetermination packet and there are no other active EDGs, document these facts in Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) Case Comments and take no further action. Otherwise, go to Step 4.
4. For households with:
 - no individuals receiving Retirement, Survivors, and Disability Insurance (RSDI) or Supplemental Security Insurance (SSI), go to Step 5; or
 - individuals receiving RSDI or SSI, use the State Online Query (SOLQ) to verify the household's address. If the address in SOLQ:

- is different from the address in the TIERS case record, use the information in SOLQ to update the address and explore shelter expenses as necessary; and
 - matches the address in the TIERS record, document in TIERS Case Comments that the SOLQ inquiry address matches the TIERS address and take no further action. Otherwise, go to Step 5.
5. If unable to contact the household via telephone to obtain an update on their address and no household member receives RSDI or SSI, send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to the TIERS address to request verification of address and any change in shelter expenses. To pend for address information:
 - in Change Action mode, go to "Individual Demographics";
 - edit the head of household's record;
 - change the effective begin date appropriately;
 - on the "Residency" page, select "not verified" from the residency verification drop down menu;
 - complete the Logical Unit of Work (LUW);
 - document all attempts to contact the household by telephone; and
 - run eligibility.
 6. If the household fails to provide information as requested on Form H1020, deny the household for failure to provide information. Send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to deny the case using the denial reason "Failed to Provide Information."
 7. If the household is denied for failure to provide information and provides a correct address within the advance notice of adverse action period, reopen the EDG using the original certification period and process any related changes in shelter expenses. Please refer to the TIERS Advance Notice of Adverse Action Reference Guide in the ASK iT Knowledge Base for instructions.

If the case does not include an active SNAP EDG:

1. Review the address on the returned mail, the case record, and the State Portal to determine whether the household has reported a new address. If a new address has been reported, process the address change. Otherwise, go to Step 2.
2. If a new address has not been reported and a forwarding address was not provided, make one attempt to contact the household via telephone to obtain an update on their address and document the attempt. If the household provides a new address, process the change. Otherwise, go to Step 3.
3. For households with individuals receiving RSDI or SSI, use SOLQ to verify the household's address. If the address in SOLQ is different from the address on file, use the address in SOLQ to update the address. If the address in SOLQ matches the address in the TIERS record, document in TIERS Case Comments that the SOLQ inquiry address matches the TIERS address and take no further action. Otherwise, go to Step 4.
4. If unable to contact the household by telephone to obtain an updated address and no household member receives RSDI or SSI, use the following steps to deny the EDG using the denial reason "Unable to Locate" as stated in TWH A-2344.1, Form TF0001 Required (Adequate Notice):
 - in Change Action Mode, go to "Household Information" and select "Yes" for the question "Is the worker unable to locate the household?";
 - document all attempts to contact the household by telephone; and
 - run eligibility.

B—641 Additions to the Household

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TANF and SNAP

Determine household eligibility when a member must be added to the household. If the addition to the household causes benefits to increase or remain the same, send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, by the 10th day after the change is reported. If additional information or verification is required, send Form TF0001 the next business day, but no later than the business day after the Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, due date. Request supplemental benefits, if required, no later than the last day of the month in which the verification is received.

If the household addition is a member of another active EDG, remove the person from the other EDG before adding the person to the new EDG. Restore benefits if adding the person increases benefits and the person was not removed from the active EDG in a timely manner. Take overpayment action on the old EDG.

Medical Programs except TP 45

Under MAGI household composition rules, explained in A-240, Medical Programs, a person joining or leaving the home may or may not affect eligibility depending on that person's tax status, tax relationships, and family relationships.

If the household requests Medicaid for an additional legal parent or caretaker relative, the new person is given a separate EDG and the system aligns the certification period of the newly created EDG with the existing TP 08 certification period.

Assign a Medicaid eligibility date as early as three months before the month the person reports the change for applicants who have unpaid medical bills and meet the criteria described in A-830, Medicaid Coverage for the Months Prior to the Month of Application. When applying the criteria in A-830, the application month is the month the person reports the change.

TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48

When a household requests Medicaid for a child (sibling or non-sibling) who lives with a child currently receiving TP 43, TP 44, or TP 48 Medicaid coverage, the household does not need to complete a new application. Follow policy in A-240, Medical Programs, to determine the new child's household composition and A-1300, Income, to determine if the new child has any countable income.

If the household does not provide all the information needed to make an eligibility determination when requesting Medicaid for the new child, follow current policy and processes to request the additional information by issuing the Form H1020, Request for Information or Action.

When all the requested information is provided, the new child is given a separate EDG and the system aligns the certification period of the newly created EDG with the existing child's Medicaid certification period.

Exception: Do not add additional children or siblings to a case in which a denied EDG is being reinstated because another child in the household or a sibling was released from a juvenile facility or a county jail. The household must submit a new application for the additional children or siblings.

If there is not an existing TP 43, TP 44, TP 48 or CHIP EDG, a separate application is required to initiate benefits for a new child being added to the case, as explained in A-121, Receipt of Application.

TA 82, TP 40, TP 44 and TP 70

If a person's Medicaid is suspended because the person was incarcerated in a Texas county jail, determine if they can be added to an existing case for reinstatement of all previous benefits when the person's Medicaid is reinstated.

B—641.1 Adding Newborns to the Case

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and Medical Programs

Before adding a newborn child, advisors use inquiry to determine whether a TP 45 EDG has been opened. This helps prevent the assignment of duplicate coverage and individual numbers.

To locate the TP 45 EDG, the advisor must perform inquiry using the newborn's mother's individual number or demographic information.

Newborns are added to the household even if they are still hospitalized as long as the parent(s) exercises care and control and intends to bring the newborn home.

SNAP

The TP 45 certification date is considered the change report date for the birth of the child. This is considered a reported change whether the case is SR or non-SR, and the agency is required to take action on this reported change.

Before adding the newborn to the EDG, the agency must confirm that the child was released from the hospital to the individual's home. The advisor must attempt to contact the household by phone to confirm whether the newborn child has moved into the home (and the date that occurred) and to obtain any information not already available on the TP 45 EDG that is needed to add the child. If the advisor is not able to reach the individual by phone, the advisor must send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, requesting the necessary information. The advisor must not pend for verification of an SSN application at change action to add a child age six months or younger. Advisors follow policy in B-641.2, Steps for Adding New Members, to determine the effective date of the change. If the individual does not respond by the Form H1020 due date:

- the child is not added to the SNAP EDG; and
- the advisor must document that the individual failed to provide required information to add the child.

If the household later provides information and verification related to the newborn, the child is added, effective the month after verification is received.

B—641.2 Steps for Adding New Members

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

When the household reports a new member, the advisor sends Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, and Form H1020-A, Sources of Proof, the day of the report or no later than the next workday to request any necessary additional information or verification.

If the change is:

- Timely reported and verified, the advisor adds the new member to the case the month after the change occurred, unless benefits decrease. If benefits decrease, the advisor sends Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, and decreases or denies benefits effective the month after notice of adverse action expires, as explained in B-643, Changes Decreasing Benefits.
- Untimely reported with timely verification, the advisor adds the new member effective the month after the change is reported. If the change decreases benefits, the advisor sends Form TF0001 and decreases or denies benefits effective the month after notice of adverse action expires, as explained in B-643.
- Timely or untimely reported with a delay in verification of eligibility points that results in individual disqualification (for example, SSN or alien status) and verification is not provided by the Form H1020 due date, advisors must take the following actions:
 - For TANF, if the new member is a required member of the certified group, disqualify the new member following applicable policy. Notify the household on Form TF0001 as appropriate. Exception: See TANF policy for household members who are not required members of the certified group.
 - For SNAP, disqualify the new member following applicable policy. Notify the household of the disqualification on Form TF0001 as appropriate.
 - For Medical Programs, see reasonable opportunity policy explained in A-351.1, Reasonable Opportunity.
- Timely or untimely reported with enough information to determine benefits will decrease, but verification is delayed, the advisor sends Form TF0001 and decreases or denies benefits based on the individual's unverified statement effective the month after notice of adverse action expires, as explained in B-643.
- Timely or untimely reported lacking enough information regarding income, resources, or other factors necessary to determine eligibility and/or benefits, the advisor sends Form H1020 and Form H1020-A to request verification the same day the change was reported or no later than the next workday and attempts to contact the household by phone within 10 days after the change is reported to obtain enough information to determine the effect of the change.

- If information is obtained, policies for changes apply as described in this section.
- If information is not obtained, the impacted EDGs are kept pending until the Form H1020 due date.
- If verification is not received by the Form H1020 due date, the advisor sends Form TF0001 the next workday to deny the EDG for failure to furnish information.

Notes:

- There may be situations in which verification is provided to establish eligibility for one program and not the other.
- When the household reports a new member using an application or redetermination form, the file date is considered the report of change date. The individual must provide the verification by the Form H1020 due date to be considered timely verification.

TANF

Delays in verification of other legal requirements for required members: If the new member is a required member of the certified group and the household does not provide proof of age, relationship, or domicile by the Form H1020 due date:

- because it is not available, the advisor sends Form TF0001 to notify the household that the person cannot be added without required verification.
- but it is available, the advisor sends Form TF0001 to deny the EDG for failure to furnish information.

Delays in verification for persons who are not required members of the certified group: If the new member is not a required member of the certified group and the individual fails to provide requested proof by the Form H1020 due date, the advisor sends Form TF0001 to notify the household that the new person cannot be added without required verification. If the household later provides verification, the member is added the month after the verification is received.

SNAP

Request a combined Data Broker report for a new adult member.

B—641.3 Adding Disqualified Members

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

If the member being added was disqualified, the new member is added effective the month after the disqualification ends. See A-1800, Employment Services, for adding household members disqualified for noncompliance with employment services requirements.

SNAP

See A-1362, Disqualified Members, for special budgeting of TANF benefits.

B—642 Changes Increasing Benefits (Other than Additions to the Household)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Advisors determine the effective dates of a change based on the date the change is reported and the date the verification is provided, as explained in B-642.1, Verification Provided Timely, and B-642.2, Verification Not Provided Timely. If supplemental benefits are necessary, the advisor must request the issuance no later than the last day of the month in which the verification is received.

Note: If verification is not required, the change is treated the same as if verification was received timely (see B-642.1).

B—642.1 Verification Provided Timely

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

If the household provides verification of a reported change by the Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, due date, benefits are increased, effective the month after the change is reported, regardless of whether the change was reported timely. The advisor sends Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, the next workday, but no later than the workday after the Form H1020 due date.

If the household reports a change on an application form, the file date is considered the report of change date. The individual must provide the verification by the Form H1020 due date to be considered timely verification.

B—642.2 Verification Not Provided Timely

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

If the household fails to provide timely verification, benefits are not increased until verification is received. The advisor sends Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, by the next workday after the Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, due date to explain that benefits remain the same. If the household later provides verification untimely, benefits are increased, effective the month after verification is received.

If the household fails to provide verification before the next SNAP, TANF, or TP 08 redetermination, request it again during the interview process and deny the EDG if verification is not received.

SNAP

If decreased or denied TANF or Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA) benefits result in an increase in SNAP benefits, benefits are increased the same month the TANF or RCA is decreased, with some exceptions (see A-1324.18, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families [TANF]).

If the household appeals the TANF or RCA decision and receives continued TANF or RCA benefits, the advisor continues to budget the TANF or RCA grant in the SNAP EDG.

B—643 Changes Decreasing Benefits

Revision 16-; Effective October 1, 2016

TANF and SNAP

Advisors must act on changes as indicated below. Benefits are decreased or denied, effective the month after the notice of adverse action expires. If applicable, an overpayment claim is processed as specified in B-700, Claims. To determine the first month of an overpayment, advisors may refer to C-1140, TANF and SNAP Overpayment Determination Chart.

If a household reports a change	then ...

and provides all verification,	send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, by the 10th day after the change was reported* to decrease or deny benefits.

If a household reports a changethen ...

with enough information to determine eligibility/benefits but does not provide verification, send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, and Form H1020-A, Sources of Proof, the same day the change was reported or no later than the next workday to request verification.

Send Form TF0001 to decrease or deny benefits based on the individual's unverified statement at the time the change was reported:

- by the 10th day after the change was reported;* or
- with Forms H1020 and H1020-A if the change was reported untimely.

Require verification of the change at the next TANF or SNAP redetermination.

Note: Do not verify income if the amount reported makes the household ineligible.

without enough information to determine eligibility/benefits, send Form H1020 and Form H1020-A the same day the change was reported or no later than the next workday to request verification.

Attempt to contact the household by phone to obtain enough information to send Form TF0001 by the 10th day after the change was reported.*

Note: The regional director may opt out of the requirement to make a phone contact.

If information is not obtained to redetermine eligibility, keep the EDG pending until the Form H1020 due date. If verification is not received by the Form H1020 due date, send Form TF0001 the next workday to deny the EDG for failure to furnish information. Exception: If the household fails to provide verification of a deductible expense that requires verification, do not deny the EDG; instead, disallow the deduction. Follow policy in A-1440, Verification Requirements, to determine if any deduction is allowable for the expense.

* If the due date for sending Form TF0001 falls on a non-workday, send it the preceding workday to meet the 10-day requirement.

 Allow the individual 10 days to provide the verification requested on Form H1020. If the 10th day falls on a non-workday, use the following workday as the due date.

Note: See B-631, Actions on Changes, for situations where the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) places a TANF or Medicaid child in foster care.

If an individual reports or electronic data sources indicate new or increased earned income or alimony/spousal support that makes the individual ineligible for TP 08, the advisor must request verification of the income. If the individual fails to provide verification of the earned income or alimony/spousal support, the advisor must deny the TP 08 EDG and open the appropriate Transitional Medicaid EDG if:

- the information is not questionable; and
- they meet the eligibility requirements for the applicable Transitional Medicaid program as explained in A-842, TP 07 Transitional Medicaid and A-850, TP 20 Alimony/Spousal Support Transitional Medicaid Coverage.

In addition, the advisor must deny the Medicaid EDG and open the appropriate Transitional Medicaid EDG for each associated parent or caretaker and dependent child.

If the EDG is denied for failure to provide verification that does not cause Medicaid ineligibility, the advisor must determine the household's eligibility for other medical programs. See A-2342, Denial at Redetermination.

B-650, Correcting Incorrect Information

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Individuals have a right to correct any information that HHSC has about the individual and any other individual on the individual's case.

Advisors follow policies in A-2300, Case Disposition; B-100, Processes and Processing Time Frames; and B-600, Changes, for the time frames and procedures to correct or update information when processing:

- applications,
- redeterminations, and
- other actions on active cases.

B—651 Correction Request

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

A request for correction must be in writing and:

- identify the individual asking for the correction;
- identify the disputed information about the individual;
- state why the information is wrong;
- include any proof that shows the information is wrong;
- state what correction is requested; and
- include a return address, telephone number, or email address at which HHSC can contact the individual.

During application, redetermination, and other actions on active EDGs, individuals are not required to request correction of incorrect information in writing. (Refer to B-116, Information Reported During Application Processing; B-124, Processing Untimely Redeterminations; and B-623, How to Report.)

B—652 Action on Denied EDGs or During the Last Month of Certification and the Client Has Not Reapplied

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Advisors must respond according to the following chart:

When an individual requests that the agency correct their information ...	then ...
at application, redetermination, or anytime when an EDG is active, on a denied EDG or during the last month of certification, and the individual has not reapplied,	follow policies in A-2300 , Case Disposition; B-100 , Processes and Processing Time Frames; and B-600 , Changes. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • review the request, • contact third parties if necessary, and • send the correct information for imaging.

The advisor notifies the individual in writing within 60 days (using current HHSC letterhead without the board members' names) that the information is corrected or will not be corrected and the reason. The advisor informs the individual if HHSC needs to extend the 60-day period by an additional 30 days to complete the correction process or obtain additional information.

If HHSC makes a correction to individually identifiable health information, the advisor must ask the individual for permission before sharing with third parties. HHSC will make a reasonable effort to share the correct information with persons who received the incorrect information from HHSC if they may have relied or could rely on it to the disadvantage of the individual. Advisors follow regional procedures to contact the HHSC privacy officer for a record of disclosures.

Note: Advisors follow procedures to establish a claim or restore benefits if an overissuance or underissuance occurred. Advisors make a referral to the Office of Inspector General for intentional program violation occurrences.

B—653 Different Review Process

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Advisors must not follow procedures in B-600, Changes, when the accuracy of information provided by an individual is determined by another review process such as a:

- fair hearing,
- civil rights hearing, or
- other appeal process.

The decision in that review process is the decision on the request to correct information.

B-660, Documentation Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

According to B-631, Actions on Changes, advisors must document the:

- reported change,
- date the change occurred,
- date the change was reported, and
- date the verification is provided.

For new income changes, advisors document the date of the first payment.

For address changes, advisors document the actions taken to provide the individual with Form H0025, HHSC Application for Voter Registration, and Form H1350, Opportunity to Register to Vote.

Refer to A-1380, Documentation Requirements, for further requirements related to income.

SNAP

Advisors must document:

- the reason for shortening certification as a result of a change. See B-635, Shortening Certification Periods as a Result of a Change.
- that the individual failed to provide required information to add a newborn when based on the TP 45 certification according to B-641.1, Adding Newborns to the Case.

Medical Programs

Clients are not required to report a change in tax status or tax relationship during the certification period because tax status and tax relationships are self-declared based on what the client expects to happen on their federal income taxes. If a change is reported, advisors should document the change in case comments and it will be addressed at the time of redetermination.

However, if multiple individuals self-declare to claiming the same person as a tax dependent, the advisor must clear the discrepancy with all individuals attempting to claim the same person as a tax dependent and update the tax statuses as a change in the eligibility system if necessary. For example, a change is reported that a child certified on Children's Medicaid will no longer be claimed as a tax dependent. This change will be addressed at redetermination.

Advisors must document the reason for denying a TP 08 EDG and opening a TP 07 EDG when new or increased income makes the household ineligible.

A claim is an amount owed by an individual for an overpayment of benefits or owed by an individual for benefits that are trafficked.

The date of discovery is the date the Office of Inspector General (OIG) substantiates that an overpayment occurred.

B—711 Types of Overpayment Claims

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

There are three types of overpayment claims:

- agency error,
- inadvertent household error/misunderstanding, or
- fraud or intentional program violation (IPV).

OIG staff process overpayment referrals, determine the overpayment amount, and submit as a claim to the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) Fiscal Management Services (FMS) to collect.

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

Staff must file an overpayment referral when a household receives benefits the household is not entitled to receive. When an overpayment occurs, OIG establishes the claim. The household must repay any type of overpayment claim.

If the household reports a change and staff does not take the appropriate action or fail to act on an agency-generated change, an overpayment referral must be filed.

Do not file an overpayment referral if the overpayment was due to:

- a change the household is not required to report; or
- an overpayment that occurred more than six years before the date of discovery.

SNAP

Changes for categorically eligible households, except for changes in net income, household size or both, do not cause an overpayment.

Exception: This does not apply to households who are categorically eligible based on receipt of Temporary Assistance for Needy Families - Non-Cash (TANF-NC).

OIG files a claim when an intentional program violation (IPV) is established against a person for trafficking Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits or accessing devices such as Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards.

B—752 Determining Claim Amounts

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

OIG staff take the following steps when determining claim accounts:

- determine the first month of overpayment (see B-752.1, Determining the First Month of Overpayment);
- exclude any months in which the household did not receive benefits or benefits were expunged;
- follow applicable policy in A-1300, Income, to budget the overpayment months;
- budget each month of an overpayment by using actual income amounts received for the month (the income is not converted);

Exceptions: OIG staff:

- budget the income originally projected at certification/redetermination when the income does not involve a required change; and
- budget earned income as reported quarterly to the Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) to determine the overpayment amount when all efforts to verify earned income amounts have been exhausted; allow the household the opportunity to provide verification of actual gross pay per pay period; and recompute the overpayment if the individual provides the verification. Note: For cases sent to an administrative disqualification hearing, staff must verify the employment hire date when computing an overpayment based on TWC wage information.

- do not allow earned income deductions for any earned income that the household failed to report timely as required and this failure caused an overpayment (deductions for overpayment months caused by an agency error are allowed);
- for excess resource overpayment EDGs, compute earned interest income to estimate an account balance for the tax year, as reported annually by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) through the Income and Eligibility Verification System (IEVS), to determine the overpayment amount when all efforts to verify an unreported financial institution account have been exhausted; allow the household the opportunity to provide verification of the interest income and the resource; and recompute the overpayment if the individual provides the verification;
- subtract the amount the household was entitled to receive from the amount the household actually received before recoupment;

Exception: There is no recoupment for Medical Programs.

- total all the monthly amounts of overpayment; and
- when the household is due unpaid restored benefits, offset the amount to be restored against the overpayment amount and document the offset according to B-831, Procedures for Counting Restored Benefits Toward a Claim.

B—752.1.2 Errors After Certification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The first month of overpayment for non-streamlined reporting (SR) households is the month in which the change would have been effective had it been reported and acted on in a timely manner. However, the first month of overpayment can be no later than two months from the month the change occurred. Staff may use the following chart to determine the first month of overpayment.

If a change was...	then the first month of overpayment is the month that begins more than...
reported timely,	23 days after the date the change was reported. (Example: Change occurred January 5 and was reported January 10. Count 23 days to February 2. March is the first month of overpayment.)
not reported timely,	33 days after the date the change occurred. (Example: Change occurred January 5. Count 33 days to February 7. March is the first month of overpayment.)

Exception: The first month of overpayment may be earlier for errors caused by moves out of state. The first month of overpayment may be as early as the month after all members of the household leave the state and there is duplicate participation in that month.

Charts in C-1140, TANF and SNAP Overpayment Determination Chart, provide help for determining the first month of overpayment for both timely and untimely change reports.

SNAP

An overpayment does not exist on a streamlined reporting EDG unless:

- the household fails to timely report a required change, or
- the agency fails to timely act on a reported change.

Note: The 10-day reporting requirement for SR EDGs is from the first payment that exceeds the 130 percent Federal Poverty Income Limit (FPIL) threshold. For example, an individual receives a pay raise effective May 15. The individual's gross monthly income exceeds the 130 percent FPIL with the June 27 paycheck. The household must report the change within 10 days of June 27 to be timely.

The first month of overpayment is the month after the second month the income exceeds the 130 percent FPIL for the household size. For example, income exceeds the 130 percent FPIL on June 27 and for the month of July. August is the first month of overpayment.

The liable household members responsible for repayment of a claim are determined in the following order:

- Caretaker or payee.
- Second parent or step-parent who was an adult household member at the time of the overpayment.

SNAP

The liable household member responsible for repayment of a claim is determined in the following order:

- The head of household.
- Any household member who was an adult at the time of overpayment.

TANF and SNAP

An authorized representative (AR) is liable for paying a claim when the AR causes an overpayment or traffics in SNAP benefits.

Sponsors and eligible aliens are jointly liable for overpayments resulting from incorrect information provided by the sponsor unless the sponsor:

- can show good cause,
- can show the eligible alien or sponsor was not at fault for the error, or
- receives benefits in the same program in which the overpayment occurred.

The sponsor, alien, or both may appeal the amount or fault of an overpayment.

B—753.2 Demand Notices

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

TANF and SNAP

OIG staff send either Form OIG 5034, Notice of SNAP Overpayment Claim, or Form OIG 5039, Notice of TANF Overpayment Claim or both, along with Form OIG 5027, Repayment Agreement, to the household.

To be timely, OIG staff must send the notice no later than 180 calendar days from the date the investigation was created in the Automated System for Office of Inspector General (ASOIG).

When the case involves an alien with a sponsor, OIG staff send separate demand notices to the alien and the alien's sponsor. The demand notice informs the sponsor that the sponsor is not responsible for the person when:

- the sponsor has good cause for the error;
- is not at fault; or
- receives benefits in the same program that the alien's overpayment occurred.

Note: Calls about overpayment demand notices are referred to the local OIG unit for clearance. Local office contacts can be found by clicking on this link: OIG Facilities Local Office Contacts.

After navigating to the website, click on "OIG Facilities Local Office Contacts" on the right side of the page.

B—753.3 Claim Disposition

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

TANF and SNAP

OIG staff mail a household a repayment agreement notice and an overpayment claim notice. A claim in the Accounts Receivable Tracking System (ARTS) is then established the same date of the notice.

The claim notice provides:

- an explanation of how the overpayment claim amount was calculated;
- repayment options (either restitution or recoupment); and
- information about the person's right to request a fair hearing within 90 days of the effective date of claim notice.

The person indicates whether they prefer to repay the claim by restitution or recoupment on the repayment agreement notice and must return the agreement within 30 days of receipt.

Repayment of the claim is delayed only when the person requests a fair hearing.

HHSC Accounts Receivable staff:

- maintain the Accounts Receivable Tracking System (ARTS);
- manage the billing and collection process;
- manage delinquent claims;
- renegotiate methods of collection;
- modify existing claims;
- respond to inquiries from individuals or staff from the date the claim is established, including:
 - delinquent notices;
 - collection efforts;
 - federal payment intercepts through the Treasury Offset Program; and
 - license suspensions;
- process fair hearing requests related to claims establishment or collection (if the request is past 90 days from the claim origination date); and
- initiate the process for one-time debits of an EBT food account to repay a SNAP claim when the request is made after the claim is established.

B—761 Claims Collection

Revision 11-1; Effective January 1, 2011

B—761.1 Recoupment

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

TANF and SNAP

Recoupment, also known as allotment reduction, is a method of recovering an overpayment claim by withholding a portion of the household's benefits.

B—761.1.1 Action on Recoupment Cases

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

TANF and SNAP

Recoupment is initiated when Office of Inspector General (OIG) staff enter a claim against a household into the Accounts Receivable Tracking System (ARTS). ARTS interfaces with TIERS to automatically reduce the household's benefit allotment if any liable household member is currently receiving benefits.

Overpayments are recouped from all identified liable household members. When persons liable for an overpayment currently reside in separate households, overpayments are recouped from all liable household members until all claims are paid in full. When a liable household member is currently disqualified but on an active case, overpayments are recouped from the household benefit allotment received by the other certified members.

Follow policy in B-761.2.1, Action on Restitution Cases, if there is no liable household member currently receiving benefits to recoup from.

If a liable household member begins receiving benefits, TIERS automatically begins the recoupment process from the new benefit allotment. TIERS continues to recoup the newly certified benefits until the claim is paid in full.

Notes:

- HHSC Accounts Receivable staff may negotiate a repayment agreement with the household. However, if a claim is being recouped or has been sent to the U.S. Treasury for collection, HHSC Accounts Receivable will not enter into a new repayment plan.
- HHSC Accounts Receivable staff are authorized to make corrections to the recoupment records in ARTS.

Recoupment information is available through TIERS inquiry, ARTS inquiry, or by calling the Accounts Receivable Customer Service Hotline at 800-666-8531.

B—761.1.2 Recoupment Hierarchy

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Claims are recouped by error type in the following order.

1. Type A — IPVs (fraud)
2. Type J — inadvertent household error/misunderstanding
3. Type L — agency error

All three claim types can be simultaneously stored on ARTS. Recoupment of a Type A claim places Type J and L claims on hold status until the Type A recoupment is completed. ARTS automatically resumes recoupment of the Type J or L claim when all of the individual's Type A claims have been paid in full.

B—761.1.3 Recoupment Amount

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

HHSC recoups Type A, J, and L claims at 10 percent of the household's maximum grant, rounded down to the nearest dollar.

Once a TANF claim is recouped in full, TIERS will automatically rebudget any active SNAP EDG to include the appropriate ongoing TANF grant amount. See A-1324.18, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF).

SNAP

For Type A claims, HHSC recoups at 20 percent of the household allotment or $20, whichever is greater. When calculating a dollar amount using the percentage, TIERS rounds 49 cents down and 50 cents up to the next whole dollar.

For Types J and L claims, HHSC recoups at 10 percent of the household allotment or $10, whichever is greater. When calculating a dollar amount using the percentage, TIERS rounds 49 cents down and 50 cents up to the next whole dollar.

Notes:

- When benefits are $10 or less, no benefits are issued.
- When a current household member is disqualified for an IPV, recoupment is computed using the allotment the household would receive if the disqualified member was included in the household size.

B—761.2 Restitution

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

TANF and SNAP

Restitution is a method of recovering an overpayment claim by receiving payments in the form of a cashier's check, certified or personal check, money orders made payable to the Texas Health and Human Services Commission, or credit or debit card payments through the Texas.gov HHSC Online Overpayment System (HOOPS).

B—761.2.1 Action on Restitution Cases

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

TANF and SNAP

When OIG establishes an overpayment claim, Form OIG 5027, Repayment Agreement is sent to the primary liable household member along with Form OIG 5034, Notice of SNAP Overpayment Claim, or Form OIG 5039, Notice of TANF Overpayment Claim.

The primary liable household member has 30 days from the date on the repayment agreement to agree to restitution by signing the agreement and returning it to the OIG investigator. The repayment agreement provides the household with both the signature and first payment due date.

OIG staff are responsible for sending the repayment agreement, signed or unsigned, to HHSC Accounts Receivable for processing as soon as it is received. For the household to avoid delinquency, all payments must be sent to HHSC Accounts Receivable on or before the 30th day from the date on the repayment agreement.

If a household has delinquent restitution payments and TIERS is unable to match an overpayment claim to a liable household member currently receiving benefits, then the overpayment claim is eligible for referral to the:

- Federal Treasury Offset Program (TOP) for an intercept of federal payments (only applicable to SNAP claims once the payment is 120 days delinquent);
- Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts for interception of any state payments, including lottery winnings; or
- appropriate agencies to request suspension of licenses.

Restitution payments cannot be made in lieu of mandatory recoupment. If a liable household member is making restitution payments and becomes certified on an active case, then the liable household member is switched from a restitution payment plan to a recoupment payment plan. Recoupment begins after the first month of certification. Once ARTS receives notification from TIERS of the first recoupment payment from the active case, ARTS automatically switches the payment plan from restitution to recoupment.

If the household was on a restitution payment plan and receiving bills, all billing will stop until the household stops receiving benefits or when the claim is paid in full.

In order to pay down their overpayment balance, households may make extra restitution payments in addition to their mandatory repayment or recoupment payments.

The repayment agreement reflects a 36-month amortized schedule for the claim to be repaid within three years. If the amortized monthly payment is less than $25, then the agreement is generated with $25 as the minimum payment.

Only HHSC Accounts Receivable staff can renegotiate a payment plan differing from the one on the repayment agreement. Accounts receivable staff sends all subsequent monthly bills or repayment agreements to households after OIG sends the initial repayment agreement.

Note: Staff must mark each TANF warrant void when received.

B—763 Debit of SNAP EBT Accounts

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

SNAP

Debit of an EBT food account is a method of recovering an overpayment claim by electronically removing benefits from the household's EBT account. The value of the debit is applied to the SNAP claim.

B—763.1 One-Time Debit of an Active EBT Account

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

SNAP

A household member liable for an overpayment with an active EBT food account may request a one-time debit of the EBT food account as payment toward a SNAP overpayment claim instead of making separate recoupment payments. When this occurs OIG or HHSC Accounts Receivable staff:

- use the EBT System to verify the:
 - status of the EBT food account; and
 - balance of the account;

- complete Form H1021, Payment Agreement — Verbal Authorization for One-Time Debit of an Active Lone Star Food Account to document the verbal authorization to repay the claim by removing benefits from the active EBT food account;
- inform the liable household member:
 - that the amount of the one-time payment must be maintained in the EBT account until the debit is completed; and
 - that it takes approximately 14 days for the debit transaction to be completed.
 - the person will receive a receipt of the debit within 10 days of the debit transaction; and
- submit the original of Form H1021 by:
 - Mail:
HHSC Lone Star Business Services
State Office
Mail Code 2033; or
 - Fax: 512-206-5961; and
- Maintain a copy of Form H1021 in the OIG or ARTS file.

Lone Star Business Services staff remove the SNAP benefits from the food account and submit Form H1021 to Accounts Receivable to pay the claim.

Note: When the liable household member contacts HHSC and disagrees with the debit transaction, they may request a fair hearing to request the return of the benefits to their account.

B—763.2 Offset Expunged Benefits

Revision 19-3; Effective July 1, 2019

SNAP

When staff become aware that a household has expunged SNAP benefits, OIG or HHSC Accounts Receivable staff must offset the balance of a SNAP claim by the amount of the expungement.

B—764 Fair Hearings

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TANF and SNAP

When it is unclear whether the household wishes to appeal an action taken by eligibility staff or an action taken by OIG staff, eligibility staff and OIG review the request for an appeal to determine what action the household is appealing. If a household disputes the establishment of a claim or collection action initiated by OIG and requests an appeal, OIG will take the lead and begin processing the appeal. Eligibility staff must attend the hearing along with OIG if the appeal includes the eligibility staff's action that was not part of the establishment of the claim.

Note: Form H4800, Fair Hearing Request Summary, is not used to submit an appeal request when the household disputes the establishment of a claim or action initiated by OIG. If Form H4800 is sent directly to the hearings division, it will be returned to staff with instructions to correctly submit the information.

OIG Staff

OIG staff use the Automated System for the Office of Inspector General (ASOIG) to submit appeal requests on claims or collection actions.

OIG staff use the State Portal Appeals tab and the Hearing Evidence Packets Upload tab to send evidence documents related to an appeal request.

Exception: When ASOIG is not available or an investigation is not found in ASOIG, OIG staff process the appeal through the TIERS Hearings and Appeal function located in the left navigation menu.

Eligibility Staff Working in TIERS

When a person verbally requests an appeal, process the fair hearing request by selecting the Hearing and Appeal option found on the left-navigation menu in TIERS and choose Create Appeal.

When a fair hearing request is received in writing by fax or mail, fax the appeal request, using the fair hearing cover sheet, through the expedited fax line (866-559-9628) for processing. The fair hearing request is not entered in the State Portal.

Whether the TIERS appeal request is received verbally or in writing, the Centralized Representation Unit (CRU) continues to process the appeal, including creating and submitting the evidence packet. Copies of the evidence packet are mailed to the appellant and any authorized or legal representative.

B—771 Filing an Overpayment Referral Using Automated System for the Office of Inspector General (ASOIG)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Staff create referrals for overpayments caused by agency error, individual error/misunderstanding, or suspected IPV or fraud in ASOIG.

ASOIG is accessed at the following website: <https://hhsportal.hhs.state.tx.us/asoig>.

Users log in using a unique sign on. A disclaimer page explaining IRS Federal Tax Information requirements must be agreed to before proceeding with the referral. Agreement takes the user to the ASOIG home page.

Investigation is selected from the left navigation menu to proceed to the Referral and Investigation search page. Users must enter identifying information and select Create Referral.

Identifying information may consist of one or more of the following:

- Suspect name,
- Individual (client) number,
- Social Security number, or
- EDG or case number.

The Create Referral tab takes the user to the Create Referral screen group. This consists of the Referral, Suspects, Reasons, Contacts, Comments and Assignment tabs. The user must go through all tabs, enter information as appropriate, and save the referral.

The Referral tab is the first tab in creating a referral. The tab has two areas. The top part, Alleged Information, is for entering biographical information. The bottom portion, EDG Types, is used to enter whatever program type information is known.

The New button at the bottom of the tab is used when adding types to the EDG Types portion of the tab. If the referral is associated with more than one EDG, users must click the New button to add additional types. The user must continue to click the New button until all EDGs associated with the referral are added. Once all types have been entered, the user must click the Next button to proceed to the next tab, Suspects.

The Suspects tab is used to enter information on suspects as well as household members associated with the referral. The top portion of the screen, Suspect, allows for the entry of any known biographical information. The bottom portion, Address, is for entering any known address(es).

At least one suspect screen with a name and type of suspect is required for a referral. Although children are not "suspects," entering all household members is recommended as that information will be required if an investigation is merited.

If an automated interface finds information in TIERS, users may select from a list of names. If a name is chosen from the list in this field, the ASOIG populates applicable biographical and EDG information such as date of birth, Social Security number and address. If TIERS information is not found, users must enter all known information.

The New button on the tab is to allow the user to include all household members in the referral. Once all members are entered, the user must click the Next button to advance to the next tab, Reasons.

The Reasons tab is used to establish the basis for the referral. The screen is divided into three sections, Reason, Source Information and Source Detail. One reason type and name is required for each referral.

Multiple reasons may be entered on a single referral. If there are multiple reasons, users enter the information for the first reason and then click the New button to enter information for the next reason. Once all applicable reasons are entered, the user must click the Next button to move to the next tab, Contacts.

The Contacts tab is used to enter sources of information such as another employee, agency or other person with information about the referral. The screen is divided into two sections. The Contact portion is for information on the source of information while the Address portion is for documenting any address information for the contact.

A Contacts entry is not required for a referral, but multiple entries may be made by clicking the New button. Clicking on the Next button takes the user to the next tab, Comments.

The Comments tab is used to enter information on the referral. It is used to document information not otherwise captured by ASOIG. At least one comment is required and multiple comments may be entered. Comments are listed by subject, and users should enter a concise statement in the subject to describe the contents of the comment.

Comments may be linked to a Contact by clicking the Related Contact checkbox.

Once a comment is saved by clicking the New or Next button, it cannot be modified. Care must be exercised in completing this tab. Clicking the Next button takes the user to the final tab, Assignment.

The Assignment tab allows the assignment of the referral based on predefined rules. Once the Save Referral button is clicked, the referral is saved and all information is locked, except for the ability of the user to include additional comments.

Saving the referral takes the user back to the Referral tab; however, it is only for viewing, and the user now has the ability to attach any electronic documents saved on the user's computer to the referral. Attach documents by clicking the paper clip icon next to the tabs, browse to select the document, give a name to the document, describe the contents of the document and click Save. Multiple documents may be attached using the New button.

Note: Logging out of the referral before it is saved on the Assignment tab will result in loss of information entered, requiring the user to start over.

Advisors must document in TIERS Case Comments:

- that an overpayment referral was made via ASOIG or through the TIERS interface, according to B-730, How to File an Overpayment Referral; and
- a brief description of the overpayment, and how and when the overpayment was discovered, according to B-711, Types of Overpayment Claims.

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

TANF and SNAP

Households are entitled to restored benefits when:

- legislation, federal regulations or court actions require restoration;
- the Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) makes an error in the household's amount of benefits and the household was not at fault;
- an individual is disqualified for an intentional program violation, which is later reversed by a court; or
- the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) or an authorized representative of a drug and alcohol facility improperly accesses and fails to return the benefits to the individual's EBT account.

Households are not entitled to restored benefits for unreported changes or household errors.

Households are entitled to restored benefits regardless of whether they are currently eligible for or receiving benefits.

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

TANF and SNAP

Restore benefits as directed by a court or if the loss occurred within 12 months of the date:

- the household:
 - contests an adverse decision,
 - attends a disqualification hearing, or
 - notifies HHSC that it believes it has lost benefits.
- HHSC discovers that the household may be entitled to a restoration.

The month the agency discovers the household is entitled to a restoration is counted as month zero.

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

TANF and SNAP

Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) Eligibility performs the steps to calculate restored benefits in most instances. The advisor may be required to manually calculate the restored benefit, record the restored benefit and offset information, and issue benefits using the Benefit Issuance – Manual Issuance functional area in TIERS.

1. Determine the month the loss began.
2. Exclude months before the 12-month time limit.
3. Determine if the household was eligible for each month the household lost benefits.
4. Obtain needed information to determine eligibility for any restored benefit month in question.
5. For each month, compute the amount of benefits the household should have received.
6. Determine the restored benefit amount by subtracting the correct benefits from the amount of benefits actually issued. If there is a claim, subtract the restored benefit amount from the amount due on the claim. Issue any remainder to the household.

Note: When initial benefits are paid retroactively, do not reduce the retroactive payment to offset previous claims.

Issue restored benefit(s) within 30 days of the date the agency discovers the underpayment.

2. Determine if there is a claim, as noted in A-832, How to Verify a Claim Amount. Refer to B-761.1.1, Action on Recoupment Cases.

B—941 Disqualifying a Household Member with a Current SNAP Out-of-State IPV Disqualification

Revision 21-1; Effective January 1, 2021

SNAP

When out-of-state SNAP IPV disqualification data from the SNAP federal Electronic Disqualified Recipient System (eDRS) is identified on Data Broker, discuss the IPV with the member to determine whether the member agrees with or disputes the information. Complete as much of the application process as possible and dispose the application for other programs, if applicable. Follow the procedures below for SNAP.

Exception: This policy does not impact SNAP Combined Application Project (SNAP-CAP) or SNAP Supplemental Security Income (SNAP-SSI) Eligibility Determination Groups (EDGs) administered by Centralized Benefit Services (CBS), with one exception in SNAP-CAP as described in B-475.2.1, Identifying Intentional Program Violations (IPVs) and Felony Drug Convictions.

Procedures When Data Broker Identifies an eDRS Match

If the situation is ...

then ...

If the situation is ...then ...

A. an expedited SNAP application, and the household does not dispute the IPV data,

- complete Form H1856, SNAP Out-of-State Intentional Program Violations, indicating it is for an expedited application;
- send a copy for imaging;
- email the form using secure Voltage to Customer Care Center (CCC)-eDRS eligibility staff at HHSC OES CCC IC, indicating Expedited in the email subject line; and
- document this action in case comments.

CCC-eDRS staff will review the form for accuracy and immediately email it to OIG-Central Disqualification Unit \(CDU\).

If the email is received by 4:30 p.m. Central Standard Time, OIG-CDU staff will take action the same day to enter the IPV disqualification data from Form H1856 into TIERS, create a reported change task to notify staff to complete and dispose the SNAP EDG, and email staff notice of the change. Exception: Out-of-state IPVs with non-standard penalty periods are noted on Data Broker and require secondary verification as described in Box D.

- postpone verification of the IPV penalty and certify the application without the penalty;
- complete Form H1856, indicating it is for an expedited application;
- send a copy for imaging;
- email Form H1856 using secure Voltage to CCC-eDRS eligibility staff at HHSC OES CCC IC to obtain secondary verification of the out-of-state IPV data; and
- document this action in case comments.

B. an expedited SNAP application, and the household disputes the IPV disqualification,

If the out-of-state IPV verification is:

- received by the final due date, CCC-eDRS staff forward Form H1856 to OIG, who will enter the IPV disqualification data from Form H1856 into TIERS and create a reported change task to notify the local office staff to complete and dispose the SNAP EDG.
- not received by the final due date, the local office staff must dispose the application without imposing the IPV disqualification.

When the secondary verification is received, CCC-eDRS staff forward Form H1856 to OIG-CDU staff at HHSC CDU. OIG-CDU staff will enter the IPV disqualification data from Form H1856 into TIERS and create a reported change task to notify CCC to dispose the penalty as a change and create an overpayment claim referral back to OIG.

If the situation is ...then ...

Staff must discuss the out-of-state IPV disqualification with the household to confirm the IPV data if possible. If the household does not dispute the IPV data:

- complete Form H1856;
- send a copy for imaging;
- email Form H1856 using secure Voltage to CCC-eDRS eligibility staff at HHSC OES CCC IC; and
- document this action in case comments.

CCC-eDRS staff will review the form for accuracy and immediately forward it to OIG-CDU at HHSC CDU.

OIG-CDU staff will enter the IPV disqualification data from Form H1856 into TIERS and create a reported change task to notify staff to complete and dispose the EDG. Exception: Out-of-state IPV with non-standard penalty periods are noted on Data Broker and require secondary verification as described in Box D.

If not possible to contact the household or the household disputes the IPV, then:

C. a SNAP non-expedited application, household addition or redetermination,

- manually pend the SNAP EDG action until the final due date for CCC-eDRS staff to complete secondary verification;
- complete Form H1856;
- send a copy for imaging;
- email Form H1856 using secure Voltage to CCC-eDRS staff at HHSC OES CCC IC for a secondary verification as described above; and
- document this action in case comments.

If the secondary verification is not received and OIG has not entered the IPV disqualification by the:

- final due date on an application or redetermination, process it without imposing the IPV disqualification.
- 20th day after sending Form H1856 on a requested household addition, process the change without imposing the IPV disqualification.

When CCC-eDRS staff subsequently receive the out-of-state IPV verification, staff forward it to OIG. OIG-CDU staff will enter the IPV disqualification data from Form H1856 into TIERS and create a reported change task to notify staff to dispose the EDG and create an overpayment claim referral back to OIG.

D. the IPV data on a Data Broker report is marked as “non-standard” (i.e., the penalty period listed is not a standard length),

- manually pend the SNAP EDG action until the final due date for CCC-eDRS staff to complete secondary verification;
- complete Form H1856;
- send a copy for imaging;
- email Form H1856 using secure Voltage to CCC-eDRS eligibility staff at HHSC OES CCC IC to obtain secondary verification of the IPV before imposing the disqualification in Texas; and
- document this action in case comments.

Note: Postpone verification if expedited. If not expedited, process the application as explained in Box C.

Note: If the person is not active on a SNAP EDG or the application has already been denied, OIG will enter this out-of-state IPV data into TIERS since the person is known to TIERS. No staff action is required in this situation.

B—942 Disqualifying a Household Member with a Current TANF Out-of-State IPV Disqualification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

If the household does not dispute the
IPV data ...

the advisor must ...

- complete as much of the application process as possible and dispose the application for other programs if applicable,
- pend the TANF EDG until OIG notifies the advisor to complete and dispose the EDG, and
- send a secure email referral to OIG-CDU staff at CDU@hhs.state.tx.us containing the following information:

Subject: TANF Out-of-State IPV

Out-of-state IPV information:

- TANF EDG number
- Originating state where IPV occurred
- Disqualified individual's:
 - Name

Document the IPV information and the email sent to OIG in TIERS Case Comments.

OIG-CDU staff will enter the IPV disqualification data from the email into TIERS and create a reported change task to notify the advisor to complete and dispose the EDG.

If unable to contact the household or the household disputes the IPV data ... the advisor must ...

If the household does not dispute the
IPV data ...

the advisor must ...

- complete as much of the application process as possible and dispose the application for other programs if applicable,
- pend the TANF EDG until OIG notifies the advisor to complete and dispose the EDG*, and
- send a secure email referral to CCC-eDRS staff at HHSC OES CCC IC containing the following information:

Subject: TANF Out-of-State IPV – Pending Secondary Verification

Out-of-state IPV information:

- TANF EDG number
- Originating state where IPV occurred
- Disqualified individual's:
 - Name
 - SSN
 - DOB
- Client number in originating state
- Number of disqualified months
- Disqualified begin date
- Disqualified end date
- Offense occurrence
- Offense description
- Federal or state court or administrative hearing decision date
- Whether the individual was/wasn't contacted
- If the individual disputes the IPV, details regarding why the claim is disputed

Document the IPV information and the email sent to CCC-eDRS in TIERS Case Comments.

CCC-eDRS staff will obtain secondary verification of the IPV and immediately forward the secondary verification to OIG. OIG will enter the IPV information into TIERS.

* If OIG has not entered the IPV disqualification by the final due date, process the application or redetermination without imposing the IPV disqualification.

B—943 Expiration of an IPV Disqualification Penalty

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

Once the IPV disqualification penalty begins, it continues even when benefits expire or the EDG is denied. If the person reapplies for benefits, advisors must ensure that the person has served the IPV disqualification penalty before certifying the person for benefits.

Example: A person reapplies for TANF and SNAP on April 4, 2011, for herself and her three children.

The advisor checks the person's IPV disqualification status by viewing the person's Individual-Summary using the hover menu IPV Sanctions page. The person was found guilty of committing an IPV offense on February 4, 2011, resulting in a 12-month SNAP IPV disqualification beginning March 1, 2011, through February 28, 2012. Since the disqualification period has not expired, the advisor must continue the person's disqualification.

Notes:

- Form OIG5042, Notice of Disqualification Enforcement, may be viewed under Case Data Search.
- To determine eligibility for the remaining household members, advisors use the budgeting procedures in:
 - A-1362.2, TANF — Budgeting for a Household Member Disqualified for Noncompliance with SSN, TPR, Failure to Timely Report a Certified Child's Temporary Absence, Intentional Program Violation, Being a Fugitive or a Felony Drug Conviction; and

- A-1362.4, SNAP — Budgeting for Persons Disqualified for Intentional Program Violations, SNAP Employment Services Noncompliances, Felony Drug Convictions or Being a Fugitive.

B—944 Reinstatement of an IPV Disqualified Person

Revision 14-1; Effective January 1, 2014

TANF and SNAP

When the IPV disqualification penalty period expires on an active EDG, TIERS automatically adds the formerly IPV disqualified person to the household and adjusts benefits accordingly.

B—945 Request for New Administrative Disqualification Hearing (ADH)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

When a person disqualified for an IPV contacts the local office and claims that the individual did not receive an ADH notice and requests a new hearing, staff must notify the Office of Social Services (OSS) – Eligibility Services Support (ESS) Centralized Representation Unit (CRU). CRU coordinates with OIG in processing new ADH requests.

Staff provide CRU the following information:

- person's name,
- EDG number,
- date of disqualification, and
- status of the person's EDG (active, denied, pending).

Note: If the ADH officer grants a person's request for a new hearing, the CDU:

- removes the IPV disqualification, and
- contacts Texas Works to re-run the budget to allow for the person's continued benefits pending the new ADH.

B-950, OIG Responsibilities

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

OIG Benefits Program Integrity (BPI) is organized as follows:

- Research Analysis and Policy Training (RAPT) unit;
- Central Disqualification Unit (CDU);
- Claims Investigations (CI) units; and
- Field Investigations (FI) units.

The EBT Trafficking unit is also part of the OIG Investigations division and works closely with BPI.

OIG staff:

- review allegations of HHSC benefit program recipient fraud, including employee, recipient or retailer EBT trafficking fraud;
- investigate allegations of recipient or employee fraud to determine whether fraud exists and, if applicable, the amount of an overpayment;
- establish fraud claims through the Fiscal Management Services Accounts Receivable Tracking System (ARTS);
- coordinate with the HHSC Fair and Fraud Hearings Division for investigations submitted for ADH;
- coordinate with the local district attorney office for investigations submitted for prosecution;
- coordinate with U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) EBT trafficking investigations;

- dispose investigations based on the results of either prosecution or ADH;
- impose an IPV disqualification penalty, if applicable; and
- coordinate with the HHSC-OSS – Eligibility Operations Customer Care Center (CCC) to adjust active HHSC program benefit amounts, if appropriate.

B—951 Facts Do Not Support an IPV

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The facts do not support an IPV when:

- OIG staff review and determine that the facts do not support the allegation,
- a court determines the person is not guilty, or
- an ADH hearing officer determines that no IPV was committed.

OIG staff may process these claims as inadvertent household errors/misunderstandings.

B—952 Facts Support an IPV

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

When OIG determines that the facts support an IPV allegation, OIG submits the case to either the:

- local district attorney for prosecution, or
- Fair and Fraud Hearings Division for an ADH.

Note: A person may waive the right to an ADH by signing Form OIG5040, which allows OIG to establish a fraud claim and impose an IPV disqualification.

B—953 Enforcement of IPV Disqualification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

OIG-CDU staff enforce the IPV Disqualification and associated disqualification penalty.

B—953.1 Notice of an IPV Disqualification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

CDU staff receive the following notices that a household member has been disqualified due to an IPV:

- Form H1856, SNAP Out-of-State Intentional Program Violations. TW staff submit this form to CDU upon discovery of a person's current IPV disqualification that was administered by another state. See B-941, Disqualifying a Household Member with a Current SNAP Out-of-State IPV Disqualification, for directions.
- Form OIG5038, Notice of Disqualification Decision. OIG staff submit this form to CDU indicating when a court finds a person guilty of an IPV, or a court defers adjudication and the person voluntarily signs Form OIG5036, Disqualification Consent Agreement.
- Form OIG5040/5040S, Waiver of Disqualification Hearing. OIG staff submit this form to CDU indicating when a person waives the right to an ADH.
- Form H4857, Notice of Decision, Administrative Disqualification Hearing. ADH hearing officers submit this form to CDU indicating the ADH decision that a person committed an IPV.

B—953.2 Imposing an IPV Disqualification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF and SNAP

CDU staff has primary responsibility for enforcing IPV disqualifications upon receipt of:

- Form H1856, SNAP Out-of State Intentional Program Violations;
- Form OIG5040, Waiver of Disqualification Hearing, signed by the person;
- Form H4857, Notice of Decision, Administrative Disqualification Hearing; or
- Form OIG5038, Notice of Disqualification Decision.

CDU imposes the IPV disqualification penalty:

- by the court-specified date (as indicated on Form OIG5038);
- within 45 days of the court disqualification decision date (as indicated on Form OIG5038) if the court did not specify a disqualification date;
- within 45 days of the date the person signs Form OIG5036, Disqualification Consent Agreement;
- the first month after the date the local OIG office receives a signed Form OIG5040; or
- the month after the date the person receives Form H4857.

CDU enters the IPV disqualification details in the disqualified individual's IPV Sanction screen and:

- sends an email request to the OSS - Eligibility Operations CCC to rebudget the household's future SNAP EDG benefit amount when the interface record exceptions out of a mass update or the IPV was manually entered by OIG staff; and
- sends Form OIG5042, Notice of Disqualification Enforcement, notifying:
 - the household of:
 1. the begin and end dates of the IPV disqualification penalty period; and
 2. its new benefit amount (if applicable); and
 - TW staff of the enforcement of the IPV disqualification penalty.

When an IPV disqualification is not imposed in a timely manner, CDU staff initiate an overpayment referral to establish an agency error overpayment claim for any months the household received benefits to which it was not entitled.

B—953.3 Amendment of IPV Disqualification Penalties

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

CDU staff are authorized to modify IPV disqualification information if applicable. TW staff should contact CDU if TW staff believe IPV information is incorrect. CDU will research and respond to the problem.

B-960, Fiscal Management Services Responsibilities

Revision 11-4; Effective October 1, 2011

B—961 IPV Claim Collection

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

FMS establishes repayment agreements and collects on IPV claims including court-deferred adjudications.

TANF

When the person fails to comply with its repayment agreement, FMS initiates recoupment at 10 percent of the household's recognizable needs.

SNAP

When the person fails to comply with its repayment agreement, FMS initiates recoupment at 20 percent of the household's allotment or $10, whichever is greater. When a current household member is disqualified for an IPV, recoupment is computed using the allotment the household would receive if the disqualified member were included in the household size.

B-970, HHSC Employee Fraud

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

Staff are responsible for reporting allegations of fraud involving HHSC benefit program certification procedures by HHSC employees to the unit supervisor. The supervisor forwards the report to the program manager.

Program managers report serious violations of HHSC employee fraud to the Office of Inspector General \(OIG\) Benefits Program Integrity \(BPI\). The information is reviewed and referred to the OIG Internal Affairs division, as appropriate.

Note: Allegations of employee fraud must be reported by sending a secure email or a fax to 512-833-6484.

B-980, Documentation Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Staff must document the reason(s) for creating a fraud or IPV referral in the case comments.

Note: If the reason contains confidential information and/or the person making the allegation requests to remain anonymous, the referral must be submitted using ASOIG. Any supporting information and/or evidence should be attached to the referral using ASOIG. The TIERS referral interface does not allow for attachments. B-1000, Fair Hearings

B-1010, Right to Appeal

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

A request for a hearing is a clear expression, oral or written, by the household or its representative that indicates that the household wishes to appeal a decision. The freedom to make a request for a hearing must not be limited or interfered with in any way.

If any member of a household or the household's representative expresses dissatisfaction with a decision regarding benefits or services, the advisor takes the following actions:

- Explain the basis for the decision and the applicable policies;
- Provide the household an opportunity to have a conference with the supervisor;
- Provide the household an opportunity to request a fair hearing;
- Provide the individual with copies of all documents before the hearing that will be entered into evidence during the fair hearing; and
- Consult with the supervisor if the individual requests information the advisor considers confidential. Note: The individual is entitled to any information that was used to determine suspension, reduction or termination of benefits. See B-1210, Disclosure of Information, for information that is considered to be confidential.

The household or the household's representative must make a request to withdraw an appeal in writing. Staff must fax the written withdrawal request to the designated hearings office. If a written withdrawal request is not obtained, staff must notify the hearings officer via email. If email is not an option, staff must notify the hearings officer via fax or phone.

SNAP

If the household requests a conference with the supervisor after a denial for expedited service, the advisor must schedule the conference within two workdays of the request, unless the household prefers a later date. The advisor must document that the household requested a later date.

B-1020, Time Period for Requesting Fair Hearing

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Individuals have the right to appeal within 90 days from the effective date of any Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) action. The individual's request may be oral or in writing.

Advisors may not prevent an individual from filing an appeal, even if the appeal was not requested within 90 days from the effective date of the action. Only the hearings officer has the authority to decide the timeliness of filed appeals and can accept untimely filed appeals in order to determine whether there was good cause for the delay in filing the appeal.

SNAP

The household may appeal the denial of a request to restore benefits that were lost within one year before the request. In addition, a household may appeal its current level of benefits during a certification period.

B-1030, Appeals Procedure

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

All fair hearing requests are processed in the State Portal. The local office staff (including Customer Care Center [CCC] staff) and Centralized Representation Unit (CRU) staff have separate responsibilities and must follow the following procedures when processing fair hearing requests and appeals.

B—1031 Local Office Procedures for Hearing Requests

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

When any member of a household or the household's representative expresses dissatisfaction with a decision regarding benefits or services, the local office staff takes the following actions:

- Review the Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) to determine accuracy of the action;
- Take action to correct any agency error that results in an increase in benefits;
- Clearly document any discovered error and the action taken to correct the error;
- Explain the basis for the decision and the applicable policies to the individual;
- Provide the individual an opportunity to have a conference with the supervisor (including a conference within two workdays for an individual who wants to contest an expedited services decision); and
- Provide the individual an opportunity to request a fair hearing.

The same day a fair hearing request is received:

- in person, over the telephone or in writing — the advisor/supervisor enters the fair hearing request with the Add New Appeal tab in the State Portal Appeals/RFR (Request for Revision). These entries automatically create an Appeal Request for (Program/TOA) for CRU staff.
- by fax or mail — the advisor/supervisor faxes or mails the appeal using the fair hearing cover sheet to the expedited fax line (1-866-559-9628) for processing. The advisor must not:
 - complete and submit Form H4800, Fair Hearing Request Summary;
 - enter the fair hearing request in State Portal; or
 - enter the fair hearing request through left navigation in the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS).
- advisors must consult with the supervisor if the individual requests information staff considers confidential.

B—1031.2 Providing Form H4800-A, Fair Hearing Request Summary (Addendum), to Hearings Division

Revision 17-1; Effective January 1, 2017

Form H4800-A, Fair Hearing Request Summary (Addendum), provides a method to send documents or evidence used in a hearing that were not sent with the original submission and to report changes of address or other corrections to the appropriate hearings officer.

B—1032 Centralized Representation Unit (CRU)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The CRU is a staff unit within Eligibility Services Support (ESS) that represents HHSC in fair hearings and implements hearing officers' decisions.

B—1032.1 Centralized Representation Unit (CRU) Staff Responsibilities

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CRU staff completes the following actions:

- claim the Appeal Request for (Program/TOA) task from the Task List Manager (TLM) Global Queue;
- review the EDG to determine if any correction is needed and take appropriate action;
- prepare the evidence packet and mail to the Document Processing Center (DPC) for imaging;
- ensure the hearing procedures are explained in a language the individual understands;
- mail a copy of the evidence packet to the individual, legal representative, authorized representative and any other witnesses participating in the hearing;
- create and send a fair hearing request in TIERS;
- enter in TIERS any necessary accommodations; and
- mark the task as Task Completed.

Once the fair hearings request has been scheduled by Hearings Division staff, a Fair Hearing Appointment for a (Program) Case task will be routed to the Fair Hearings Centralized Representation Unit TLM Global Queue.

CRU will:

- assign an agency representative for each hearing;
- attend the fair hearing as the agency representative; and
- present the agency's case by explaining the action being appealed, the documents submitted and how the agency policy applies to the issue(s) on appeal.

B—1033 Appeals Related to Decisions/Actions of an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) Vendor

Revision 14-2; Effective April 1, 2014

All Programs

When an EBT vendor cannot resolve an account balance dispute or error resolution related to benefits to an individual's satisfaction, the vendor refers the individual to Lone Star Business Services (LSBS) for a second review. The individual may contact LSBS staff to request a fair hearing if still not satisfied with the results of the second review. CRU processes the appeal following the policy and procedures outlined in this section.

B—1034 Appeals Related to Services for Medicaid Recipients

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) handles appeals concerning specific services for Medicaid recipients including:

- lock-in;
- medical necessity for prior authorization of services; and
- denial, termination, suspension or reduction of covered services, or payment for services rendered.

For individuals who want to appeal service-related issues, staff must refer them to DSHS. DSHS individual notification letters include an address and telephone number for requesting appeals. Individuals who do not have a notification letter should be referred to the Medicaid Hotline at 1-800-252-8263.

Note: DSHS does not allow individuals to appeal decisions made by the Health Insurance Premium Payment (HIPP) program. To obtain assistance in resolving problems or issues with the HIPP contractor:

- individuals must contact the Medicaid Hotline at 1-800-252-8263.
- staff must contact the Third-Party Resource (TPR) Unit at 1-800-846-7307.

B—1035 Appeals Related to Accounts Receivable Tracking System (ARTS)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

For all individual requests for appeals related to ARTS collection notices, the advisor must make the following entries on Form H4800, Fair Hearing Request Summary:

1. In the From box, if the appeal is regarding a:
 - Claims Investigation (CI) collection notice, enter the CI unit supervisor, mail code, and phone number.
 - Treasury Offset Program (TOP) collection notice, enter ARTS Hearing Representative, 512-406-3800, at mail code E-411.

Note: If the individual does not know if the collection notice is a result of a CI claim or TOP, enter the CI unit supervisor.

2. In Section 1, Program, check the appropriate program box.
3. In Section 2, Agency Action Resulting in a Hearing Request, check D, Not Benefit Amount Related. This will indicate to the hearing officer that the appeal does not affect current benefits.
4. In Section 8, Summary of Agency Action and Applicable Handbook Reference(s) or Rules, enter the following message: "Collection Notice - Overpayment Claim" (See B-700, Claims).

The advisor must notify the appropriate Claims Investigations Unit supervisor and ARTS supervisor of the hearing request. The advisor sends a copy of Form H4800 to the local Claims Investigation Unit supervisor or the ARTS supervisor, as appropriate, and faxes a copy of Form H4800 to ARTS at 512-438-3061.

B-1040, Timely Action on Fair Hearings

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Hearing decisions must comply with federal law and regulations and be based on the evidence and testimony of the hearing.

Once the fair hearing has been held and a decision rendered, the hearings officer records the decision in TIERS, and a TLM task is created and routed to the Fair Hearings Centralized Representation Unit TLM Global Queue for processing.

1. If the decision is reversed, a Process Fair Hearings Reversal Decision for (Program/TOA) TLM task is created and routed to the CRU TLM Global Queue.
2. If the decision is sustained, a Fair Hearings Sustain Decision for (Program/TOA) task will be created and routed to the CRU TLM Global Queue for processing.
3. A Fair Hearings Decision Issued for (Program/TOA) task will be created for issued decisions that do not typically require an agency action.

CRU will follow these procedures to timely implement the hearing officer's instructions:

If the hearing decision results in restored benefits, an increase in benefits for the current month and/or future months, and ...

then ...

ensure within 10 days from the date the decision task is received that:

- benefits for future months are increased, and
- all benefits the household is entitled to are provided.

no additional information or verification is needed,

Authorize restored Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) benefits in Eligibility or by manual issuance within 10 days from the date Form H4807, Action Taken on Hearing Decision, is received.

send the individual Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, within 10 days from the date the decision task is received. List on Form H1020 the specific information/verification needed in order to provide benefits.

If the individual:

additional information or verification is needed,

- provides all of the requested information and verification, then increase benefits for future months and/or provide benefits for the current/past months within three workdays from receipt of the information/verification;
- provides part but not all of the requested information and verification, then increase benefits for future months and/or provide benefits for each month for which information/verification is provided within three workdays of receipt of the remaining information/verification; or
- fails to provide the requested information and/or verification, then follow the normal eligibility determination process in B-600, Changes, and complete/deny the EDG without the missing information/verification.

Notes:

- Upon the individual's request, CRU will offer reasonable assistance in obtaining the necessary verification. The individual's statement is acceptable as verification if no other documentary or collateral information is available.
- Restored benefits are not denied for any months solely because a person outside the household refuses to cooperate in providing verification.

SNAP

- Benefits are not restored for any months more than 12 months prior to the date a fair hearing was requested.
- If the hearing officer authorized restored benefits, TIERS sends Form H1825, Entitlement to Restored Benefits, to the household, along with a copy to the hearing officer, when benefits are approved either in Eligibility or by manual issuance.

B—1041 Completing and Reporting Timely Action on Fair Hearings

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

SNAP

Once all restored and/or supplemental benefits have been issued, the advisor must:

- enter all decision implementation information in TIERS in the Decision Implementation page;
- clear any delays entered in the Implementation Delay page; and
- enter all necessary information in the Implementation Details page and submit for supervisor review.

The supervisor must:

- review the EDG information and all supporting documentation in accordance with agency procedures and time frames; and
- approve the Implementation Details page.

B-1050, Handling of Benefits During the Appeal Process

Revision 01-3; Effective April 1, 2001

B—1051 Continued Benefits

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Households previously certified for ongoing benefits are entitled to continued benefits if they make a timely request for a fair hearing after receiving Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action. A request is timely if it is made within 13 days of the adverse action notice (including a mailed request postmarked during the 13-day period). If a household fails to make a timely request for a hearing, but has good cause for the failure, benefits are reinstated at the previous level if the household did not waive its right to continue benefits.

TANF and Medical Programs

Households receiving an adequate notice of adverse action are not entitled to continued benefits when benefits are lowered or denied because of reasons listed in A-2344.1, Form TF0001 Required (Adequate Notice).

Exception: If the household received a notice of adverse action based on noncompliance with child support or Choices, continued benefits are allowed if the individual timely requests a fair hearing.

SNAP

Households receiving a notice of adverse action are not entitled to continued benefits when benefits are lowered or denied because of:

- a verbal request to voluntarily withdraw, conducted in the advisor's presence;
- verification provided by the household that was previously postponed during expedited services;
- the household's failure to provide verification postponed during expedited services; or
- the expiration of the certification period.

B—1052 Waiver of Continued Benefits

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

All Programs

The household may waive its right to continued benefits by providing a signed and dated statement to this effect. If the household waives this right, TIERS will reduce or deny benefits when the 13-day notice period (plus 2 days mail time) expires in advance notice situations.

B—1053 Reducing or Ending Benefits Before the Hearing Decision

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Continued or reinstated benefits must not be reduced or denied during the appeal period before the official hearing decision unless:

- another change adversely affects the household and the household does not appeal the adjustment for the later change. Benefits are reduced based on the change, and the advisor sends Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action.
- a mass change affects the household's eligibility. Benefits should be adjusted accordingly.

SNAP

When a certification period expires and the household reapplies, the EDG is certified at the appropriate level of benefits.

If the hearing officer determines the only issue being appealed is federal law or regulation and there are no computation errors or misapplied law, the hearing officer instructs the advisor to reduce or deny benefits as required by the policy change.

B—1054 Time Frame to Stop Providing Continued Benefits

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

When a hearing officer's decision sustains the agency action, CRU must take action to stop continued benefits and file a claim for any overpayment within 10 days of receiving the hearing decision and order. Advance notice is not provided. If the hearing decision and order are received within 10 days before cutoff, CRU must make every attempt to process the EDG action before cutoff to prevent issuing continued benefits in the next month.

B-1060, Fair Hearings Held by Telephone

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Fair hearings may be conducted by telephone. However, an appellant may still request a face-to-face hearing. Upon requesting a face-to-face hearing, the appellant is notified of the date, time and location of the hearing using Form H4803, Notice of Hearing.

There are two versions of Form H4803 that indicate how a fair hearing is conducted:

If the fair hearing is scheduled using ...

then ...

Form H4803-T/H4803-TS, Notice of Hearing, the hearing officer calls the appellant, the agency representative and all other fair hearing participants at the time, date and telephone number indicated on the form.

Form H4803-P, Notice of Hearing, the appellant, agency representative and all other fair hearing participants must call the Fair Hearing 1-800-Call-In number, using the toll-free number and access code at the scheduled time indicated on the form.

B-1070, Administrative and Judicial Reviews

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Effective September 1, 2007, if an individual expresses dissatisfaction with a decision rendered by the fair hearings officer, the individual may have the right to have the decision reviewed. The types of review to which the individual may be entitled are an administrative review and a judicial review, depending on which program is appealed.

If the individual or individual's authorized representative is dissatisfied with a ...	then the individual is entitled to an administrative review.	then the individual is entitled to a judicial review.
Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) or Medicaid fair hearing decision,	Yes	Yes
TANF fair hearing decision,	Yes	No
SNAP administrative disqualification hearing (ADH) decision,	Yes	Yes
TANF ADH decision,	No	Yes

B—1071 Administrative Review

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

An administrative review is a review of the hearing record conducted by an agency attorney to determine if the hearing officer's decision was correct. The agency attorney issues a new decision, which includes the hearings officer's signature in all administrative reviews, and this decision is the agency's final action. Administrative reviews apply to SNAP, TANF and Medicaid fair hearing decisions and SNAP ADH decisions.

If the individual or individual's authorized representative is dissatisfied with a fair hearing decision issued on or after September 1, 2007, an administrative review may be requested but must be submitted in writing within 30 calendar days from the date of the hearing officer's decision. The request for an administrative review must be mailed to the following address:

Hearings Administrator
P.O. Box 149030, Mail Code W-613
Austin, TX 78714-9030

Notes:

- For TANF fair hearings, the individual's request for an administrative review only requires that the agency attorney review the hearing record for procedural and programmatic accuracy. The case is returned to the fair hearing officer for the final decision.
- An administrative review of the fair hearing or ADH decision by an agency attorney must be requested and completed before a judicial review is allowed. Exception: There is no prerequisite for an administrative review for a TANF ADH before a judicial review is requested.

B—1071.1 Centralized Representation Unit (CRU) Staff Responsibilities Following an Administrative Review

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

CRU Staff

When a fair hearing decision is reversed because of an administrative review, the agency must take action on the agency attorney's decision, as described in B-1040, Timely Action on Fair Hearings.

CRU:

- completes actions as required by the administrative review decision; and
- notifies the agency attorney and hearing officer that the required action has been completed.

Note: Continued benefits are not provided if the hearing officer sustains the agency action.

CRU Supervisory Staff

The CRU supervisor reviews the actions taken on the reversal and ensures all actions are complete and correct.

B—1072 Judicial Reviews

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

A judicial review is a review of the hearing decision by the court to determine whether the decision taken by the agency was correct. ADH decisions must be filed by the individual in a district court in Travis County. The court will determine whether the decision of the agency is correct. The individual must file a petition for a judicial review within 30 calendar days after the date the administrative review decision is rendered. The individual must complete the administrative review process before filing a petition for a judicial review.

An individual dissatisfied with a TANF ADH decision has the right to file for a judicial review in the district court in the county in which the violation occurred no later than the 30th calendar day after the date the hearing officer makes the determination.

Exception: There are no judicial review rights for a TANF fair hearing decision, but the appellant may still request a procedural review of the hearing officer's decision. A procedural review is a review of the hearing record by an agency attorney to ensure procedural and programmatic accuracy.

B—1072.1 Agency Staff Responsibilities Following a Judicial Review

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Local Office and CCC Staff

If the agency's decision is reversed as a result of a judicial review, staff must implement the decision within the time frames as specified within the final orders of the court.

Note: Continued benefits are not provided due to a request for a judicial review.

B—1211 Reporting Abuse and Neglect

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Policies on confidentiality do not prohibit reporting abuse or neglect that threatens the health or welfare of a child or an elderly adult or adult with disabilities. Advisors must report instances of suspected:

- physical or mental injury,
- sexual abuse,
- exploitation, and
- neglect.

Exception: Advisors are not required to report family violence.

Advisors must inform adults or their personal representative (PR) when reporting abuse or neglect of an adult, unless the advisor believes that informing the individual or PR would place the individual at risk of serious harm.

B—1212 Personal Representatives

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Only the individual's PR can exercise the individual's rights with respect to individually identifiable health information. Therefore, only an individual's PR may authorize the use or disclosure of individually identifiable health information or obtain individually identifiable health information on behalf of an individual. Individually identifiable health information is information that identifies or could be used to identify an individual and that relates to the:

- past, present, or future physical or mental health or condition of the individual;
- provision of health care to the individual; or
- past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care to the individual.

Note: An authorized representative (AR) is not automatically a PR.

B—1212.1 Adults and Emancipated Minors

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

If the individual is an adult or emancipated minor, including married minors, the individual's personal representative is a person who has the authority to make health care decisions about the individual and includes a:

- person the individual has appointed under a medical power of attorney, a durable power of attorney with the authority to make health care decisions, or a power of attorney with the authority to make health care decisions;
- court-appointed guardian for the individual; or

All Programs

A parent is the personal representative for a minor child except when:

- the minor child can consent to medical treatment by him or herself. Under these circumstances, do not disclose to a parent information about the medical treatment to which the minor child can consent. A minor child may consent to medical treatment by him or herself when the:
 - minor is on active duty with the US military;

Advisors must give individual addresses or other case information only to a person who has written permission from the individual to obtain the information. The individual authorizes the release of information by completing and signing:

- Form H1826, Case Information Release; or
- a document containing all of the following information:
 - the applicant/individual's full name (including middle initial) and case number, or full name (including middle initial) and either the date of birth or Social Security number;
 - a description of the information to be released;

Note: If a general release is authorized, the advisor must provide the information that can be disclosed to the individual described in B-1210, Disclosure of Information, under All Programs.

- the date the document is signed; and
- the signature of the applicant or individual.

If the case information being released includes individually identifiable health information, the document must also inform the applicant or individual that the information released under the document may no longer be private and may be further released by the person receiving the information.

Note: Advisors must not include Form H1826 or other information release authorization documents in application packets.

Advisors must give information to government agencies conducting case audits, reviewing expenditure reports, or conducting financial reviews.

Advisors must give an applicant or individual's most recent address and place of employment to Parent Locator services in state or local offices.

Advisors must refer all requests from federal, state, or local law enforcement officials for case information to the local investigation division office.

Reasonable efforts must be made to limit the use, request, or disclosure of individually identifiable health information to the minimum necessary to determine eligibility and operate the program.

The disclosure of individual medical information from agency records must be limited to the minimum necessary to accomplish the requested disclosure. For example, if an individual authorizes release of income verification, including disability income, related case medical information must not be released unless specifically authorized by the individual.

TANF and Medical Programs

Advisors must release identifying information (such as the name and address of the individual's friends and relatives) to funeral homes, police, or agencies attempting to locate friends or relatives of deceased individuals.

When asked to disclose information from the case record, the advisor must ask the judge to be excused from disclosing information because of the laws concerning confidentiality. The advisor must abide by the judge's ruling.

The HHSC IRS coordinator will report the incident by contacting the information security officer (ISO).

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) does not discriminate against any applicant or participant in any aspect of program administration. All eligible households receive benefits without regard to age, race, color, sex, disability, religious creed, national origin, or political beliefs.

HHSC must:

- inform the public of this nondiscrimination policy and the applicable complaint procedures, and
- provide access to nondiscrimination information within 10 days of a request.

Individuals should be referred to the Civil Rights Office toll-free at 1-888-388-6332. Staff can email the individual's request to HHSCivilRightsOffice@hhsc.state.tx.us.

SNAP

Each certification office must display the nondiscrimination poster provided by the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA).

B-1320, Racial and Ethnic Data Collection

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

HHSC obtains racial and ethnic information about all individuals. The racial or ethnic categories are: American Indian or Alaskan Native, Asian or Pacific Islander, black (not of Hispanic origin), Hispanic, and white (not of Hispanic origin). Individuals are requested to voluntarily identify their race or ethnicity on the applications for HHSC assistance. If this information is not voluntarily provided on the application form, the advisor must determine the category by asking an individual to self-identify the individual's race. The individual's racial identity is self-declared. If the individual does not want to provide the information, the individual's race is listed as "unknown." In the Individual Household logical unit of work (LUW) on the individual's Add New Individual Information, Edit Existing Individual ID Information or Edit New Individual Information page, the advisor must select the appropriate ethnicity and race from the drop-down menus.

Texas Health and Human Services (HHS) Circular C-001 found at www.hhsc.state.tx.us/news/circulars/c-001.shtml describes general discrimination complaint procedures.

SNAP

Explain the following procedures to individuals who feel they have been discriminated against in the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) and want to complain about it.

- Individuals may submit their complaint to the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), any Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) certification office, or both. Individuals may submit complaints to, or obtain information from, USDA at either of these addresses:

United States Department of Agriculture
1100 Commerce Street
Suite 5-C-30
Dallas, TX 75242

- Individuals must file their complaints in writing within 180 days of the incident that caused the complaint.

If submitting a complaint to HHSC, individuals use Form H4870, Client Complaint of Discrimination. For verbal or hotline complaints, staff accepting the complaint complete Form H4870 for the individual. Advisors and other staff handle hotline complaints the same as any other complaints.

B-1420, Office of the Ombudsman

Revision 19-2; Effective April 1, 2019

All Programs

Office of the Ombudsman operates a toll-free customer service hotline during normal office hours. The Office of the Ombudsman assists the public with issues or complaints about health and human services programs that have not been resolved under the agency's normal resolution process. If a person has a problem or complaint, they are encouraged to first discuss it with the person, program staff or office staff involved. They can often explain a specific policy or resolve the concern immediately.

People who need assistance or information about local resources or programs are encouraged to call 2-1-1 for access to information about health and human services in their community, including information on the location and phone number of local HHSC offices.

If a person has problems with or complaints about a health and human services program, service, or benefit that has not been resolved to their satisfaction, the person has four ways to send a question or file a complaint:

1. Call: Toll-free phone, relating to:

C—112 How to Prorate TANF Grants

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

After eligibility is determined, the TANF grant amount is prorated for the first month of eligibility using the following steps:

1. Calculate the certified group's recommended grant amount for the month based on the household size and net income. (See Step 5, line 3, page 3 of Form H1101, TANF Worksheet, or Step 5, line 3, page 2 of Form H1102, TANF Worksheet for Special Reviews and Denials.)
2. Determine the earlier of the certification date or the 30th day after the file date. Using the chart in C-112.1, Proration Multiplier Chart, determine the appropriate proration multiplier.
3. Multiply the recommended grant amount from Step 1 by the multiplier from Step 2.
4. Round the amount from Step 3 down to the next dollar. If the resulting prorated grant is less than $10, the household is not eligible for a grant in the first month. The grant effective date is the first day of the following month.

Note: One-Time TANF (OTTANF) or One-Time Grandparent payments are not prorated.

C—122 How to Determine Monthly SNAP Allotments

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

SNAP

To determine the monthly allotment for a household, use the whole monthly allotments by household size chart. The monthly allotment for a household with more than 10 people is determined by first determining the maximum:

- monthly allotment by adding $188 for each additional person to the maximum SNAP allotment for a household of 10 people ($1,880);
- gross income by adding $492 for each additional person to the maximum gross income for a household of 10 people ($5,823); and
- net income by adding $379 for each additional person to the maximum net income for a household of 10 ($4,480).

The monthly allotment is determined by:

- multiplying the household's net monthly income by .30;
- rounding the cents to the next higher whole dollar amount; and
- subtracting the rounded sum from the maximum monthly allotment for the household size.

Example: A 12-person household with a net monthly income of $964 has a monthly allotment of $1,966 ($$964 \times .30 = \289.20 or $290; $$1,880 + $188 + $188 = $2,256$; $$2,256 - $290 = $1,966$).

C—123 How to Prorate Benefits

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

SNAP

A prorated allotment for the month of application is determined by using the chart in C-1432, Prorated SNAP Allotments by Application Date, or by:

- subtracting the date of the application from 31;
- multiplying the sum by the amount of the whole monthly allotment; and
- dividing that amount by 30. If the date of the application is the 30th or 31st, the whole allotment is divided by 30. All cents are disregarded.

Example: A household with a whole monthly allotment of $395 applies on June 17. The household's prorated allotment for June is $184. ($31 - 17 = 14$; $$395 \times 14 = $5,530$; $$5,530 \div 30 = \184.33 or $184)

Note: Some categorically eligible households can receive ongoing monthly allotments of less than $10. Do not issue allotments prorated to less than $10. A one- or two-person household that qualified for a minimum monthly allotment of $16 can receive a prorated allotment of less than $16 but not a prorated allotment of less than $10.

Benefits are not prorated if the household includes a member who meets both of the following criteria:

- is a seasonal or migrant farm worker (in or out of the workstream); and
- was certified for SNAP in Texas or another state the month before the household applied.

C—131.5 IRS Monthly Income Thresholds

Revision 22-2; Effective April 1, 2022

Each year, the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) establishes income thresholds for earned and unearned income. People whose income (earned, unearned, or a combination) exceeds the federal income tax filing threshold are expected by the IRS to file a federal income tax return under federal law. The IRS monthly income thresholds are used to determine if a person's income must be counted when calculating Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) financial eligibility, as explained in A-1341, Income Limits and Eligibility Tests, for Medical Programs, Step 3.

Determining whether a person is required to file a federal income tax return is determined by comparing the specified income types to the IRS thresholds in the following table.

Type of Income	2022 Threshold	Apply Threshold Value in Form H1042, Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) Worksheet: Medicaid and CHIP
Unearned Income	$91.67	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Page 4-6, Step 3, Part 7 • Page 4-6, Step 3, Part 9

Revision 05-4; Effective August 1, 2005

General InformationAll Programs

Form H1000-A, Notice of Application, Form H1000-B, Record of Case Action, and Form H1000-C, Secondary Client Input, are manual forms used in all programs to report applications, the subsequent denial or certification of eligibility, and changes and deletions to information for certified and denied cases. Use a separate Form H1000-A, Form H1000-B or Form H1000-C to report actions taken in each individual program.

Form H1000-A is a four-part form. Each part has the same control number.

- Part 1, Notice of Application (NOA) is a short form that
 - indicates that an application was filed and the date filed, and
 - gives information for an NOA report to field staff about individual information already in the computer file.
- Part 2, Input Document, is a page advisors use for handwritten entries during the decision process. Use the input document to
 - report the final disposition of an application,
 - correct Items 01 through 38 already sent on the NOA,
 - authorize the issuance of benefits, or
 - establish a central file on all individual data.
- Part 3, Case Record Copy, is a carbon copy of Part 2. It contains information on the NOA and the disposition of an application for audits.
- Part 4, Case Index Card, is a carbon copy of the NOA used to
 - make a central file of pending applications in the local office, and
 - report changes on pending applications.

Form H1000-B is a three-part form. The assigned case number and sequence number appears on all copies of the form. To request Form H1000-B, use Form H1004, Request for Form H1000-B.

- Part 1, Record of Case Action, is a computer-generated form that shows current case information.
- Use the Part 2, Input Document, to
 - update information;
 - report the disposition of a redetermination; or
 - authorize, adjust, or cancel benefits.
- Part 3, Case Record Copy, is identical to Part 2, Input Document. All items entered on the input document appear on the Case Record Copy.

Form H1000-C is a one-part form. Use this form to enter

- start and end dates for PRA penalties and good cause,
- finger image code and vun, and
- disqualifications and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) work requirement countable months.

Advisors must submit Form H1000-A or Form H1000-B with Form H1000-C.

All Programs

Correct any errors made on Part I, Notice of Application (NOA), before submitting the form for processing.

If staff damage or lose Form H1000-A, Notice of Application, substitute the same form from another set. Block out the preprinted application number and enter the application number of the original NOA.

If the number of applicants listed on Form H1010-B, Application for Assistance - Part B: Information We Need to Know, exceeds 11 people, complete an additional set of forms. Complete Item 04, Page, on the first NOA. Block out the preprinted application number on the additional NOA forms and enter the original application number of the first NOA. Make entries in

C—520.2 Section II, Items 32 - 39

Revision 10-4; Effective October 1, 2010

All Programs

This section contains identifying information for each person listed on the form. Always use line "a" to enter information about the head of household (case name). Items 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, and 39 cannot be deleted, but may be updated.

ITEM 32: Client Number

All Programs

When certifying a case, for each person listed in Section II, enter

- the nine-digit individual number or
- Code 2. This code tells SAVERR to check for an existing client number. If a number exists, SAVERR will reassign the client number. If a number does not exist, SAVERR will assign a number.

If Form H1000-A, Notice of Application, or Form H1000-B, Record of Case Action, will not process because of error message 307, "client is already active in same program on another case," research the case to determine if the individual is currently active in another case in the same program.

If the individual is ...

then ...

not currently active in the same program or is entitled to dual SNAP participation as a resident of a shelter for battered persons, follow procedures in B-454.1, Duplicate Participation Procedures.

currently active in the same program and is not entitled to dual benefits, take appropriate action to prevent duplicate participation. Process an overpayment, if applicable. The advisor who discovers duplicate participation is responsible for notifying the other offices involved.

SAVERR does not assign a client number on denied initial applications.

See C-800, Automated Support Systems, for individual merge/separate information.

To reassign a client number without an entry in Item 50, Client Number Validation, enter Code 2 in Item 32 and the person's name, birth date, social security account number, and social security claim number so that they match the information already in the computer file.

To correct biographical information enter:

- up to three corrections on the input document. Ensure that at least one item matches the information already on file.
- the client number in Item 32 and Item 50, Client Number Validation.

Using Item 50 allows the client number to be reassigned, but hierarchy may still prevent using the biographical data.

ITEM 33: Client Name

All Programs

Enter the name(s) of the people listed on Form H1010-B. Type the last name, comma, first name, space, middle name or initial until the name is complete or you reach the maximum 22 positions. The 22 positions include alphanumeric characters, comma, and spaces.

The only spaces allowed are after the first name. Do not use spaces within a last or first name. If the name includes a Jr., Sr., II, III, etc., it must follow the last name. Example: SmithJr, John Z. Enter the individual's name from line a in Item 09, Case Name, instead of Item 33.

Some eligible non-U.S. citizens traditionally use a name order that is different from the customary U.S. order (first name, middle name, last or family name). Advisors should determine name order according to U.S. custom, and enter it appropriately on Form H1000-A and Form H1000-B. Example: Vietnamese name on I-94: Nguyen(last) Thi(first) Mai(middle) Enter on Form H1000-A and Form H1000-B: Nguyen,Thi Mai.

All Programs

Enter the social security number (SSN) for each person listed. Following the nine-digit entry is a space used to indicate the verification status of the SSN. A computer printed asterisk (*) indicates Social Security Administration verified the SSN. A verified SSN cannot be changed on Form H1000-B and Form H1000-C. If you determine the number is incorrect, send a memorandum with the correct SSN to State Office Data Integrity (SODI), to make a change:

SODI Section, Data Base Support Unit
P.O. Box 14930, MC Y92-2
Austin, TX 78714-9030

Or fax to the Data Base Support Unit at 512-706-7140.

ITEM 38: Social Security Claim Number

All Programs

Following the claim number is a code indicating whether the state is paying Medicare premiums for the individual or the individual has private medical insurance. The codes apply to all cases, but are not printed on the SNAP Form H1000-B and Form H1000-C. Reports that include biographical information have these codes. They are 0 — No insurance.

1 — Medicare premium paid by state.

2 — Private medical insurance.

3 — Private medical insurance and Medicare premium paid by state.

The presence of a code 1 or 3 indicates SSA validated the number and the number cannot be changed on Form H1000-B and Form H1000-C. If you determine a verified number is incorrect, send a memorandum with the correct number to Data Control Section, Special Programs Support Unit, State Office, Y-922, to make a change.

C—520.3 Section III, Items 40 - 50

Revision 11-3; Effective July 1, 2011

All Programs

Section III (a-k) is an extension of Section II (a-k). Each line in Section III relates to the corresponding line in Section II and is used to provide additional information about the people listed. Example: The status-in-group code for the case name in Section II, line a, is reported in Section III, line a. Items 40 and 46 for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and Medical Programs, and Item 41, for TANF and the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), cannot be deleted but may be updated.

If an active case is denied, all monetary amounts for the case are kept in the System for Applications, Verifications, Eligibility Reports and Referral (SAVERR) files until the case is purged. The amounts kept in SAVERR files are those budgeted for the latest month of eligibility.

The same is true for individual income amounts. The amount shown, however, is the latest amount of income budgeted in any program. If the individual is moved to another case, the individual income amounts can be updated. Staff can change individual income amounts if denying an active case. This action does not update the TANF case income but does update the SNAP case income.

TANF and Medical Programs

When a certified recipient becomes a payee or case name, medical effective date is automatically deleted. For TANF, the ESP code is also deleted.

ITEM 40: Status-in-Group

All Programs

Status-in-group (SIG) codes identify the people's relationship to the case. Enter all codes that describe the people listed on Form H1000-A, Notice of Application, Form H1000-B, Record of Case Action and Form H1000-C, Secondary Client Input. A maximum of six codes may be used for one person.

Contact the SOCIU if changes must be made in this field.

The first character SOCIU enters is:

C—530.3 Section III, Items 214 - 215

Revision 09-4; Effective October 1, 2009

ITEM 214: FIC (R/E) (Finger Image Code)

TANF and SNAP

Enter finger image codes for required individuals at application and at complete review/recertification, including simultaneous open and close transactions. Finger image codes are not required on denials or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) complete reviews with a future action code of a denial.

If the correct finger image code is not already on the System for Applications, Verifications, Eligibility Reports and Referral (SAVERR), enter a finger image code for each household member who is:

- age 18 or older as of the interview date;
- a minor parent (secondary SIG L) on a TANF case with a dependent child on the same case; or
- a minor head of household (SIG A) on a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) case.

Enter one of the following finger imaging codes:

- Y — all available images have been taken
- Z — one image has been taken (Note: This includes a finger image that Lone Star Image System (LSIS) determines to be temporarily unavailable because of low quality.) or
- one of the following exemption codes:
 - A — appeal pending (TANF related)
 - B — low quality image/physically unable to image/equipment failure
 - C — certified out of office or unable to travel to the LSIS site to be imaged
 - D — undue burden for disabled individual
 - E — undue burden for elderly individual
 - F — disqualified (SNAP only) Note: If SAVERR has no finger imaging code and Form H1000-C, Secondary Client Input, has no entry, the finger imaging code defaults to F for individuals with SIG G, or SIG K or T when the individual is over 18.

On expedited SNAP cases for required members:

- present at the interview, enter the appropriate
 - finger image code and vendor unique number (VUN); or
 - finger imaging exemption code.
- not present at the interview, allow Code C until the next recertification or reapplication.

Automated Changes

The advisor cannot change Codes I or Y on Form H1000-C. SAVERR performs this automated conversion as described in the following chart.

If the individual's status changes from ... and SAVERR has code ... then SAVERR ...

inactive to active	I	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> changes the code to Y, and sends a message to LSIS to remove the archive date.
active to inactive	Y	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> changes the code to I, and sends a message to LSIS to set the archive date.

SAVERR also sends a message to LSIS to set the archive date on inactive individual records with Code Z, but does not change the code.

SAVERR automatically deletes the finger Code I or Z when LSIS notifies SAVERR that it purged the finger image record. The LSIS purges the finger image record after the individual is inactive for 12 months.

Changing, Correcting or Deleting Finger Image Codes

Finger image exemption codes remain on SAVERR until it purges the individual record.

If the advisor needs to change ...	to ...	then ...
Code Z an exemption code	Code Y,	enter the new code on Form H1000-C.
an exemption code	Code Y,	enter the new code and VUN, on Form H1000-C.
an exemption code	another exemption code,	enter the new code on Form H1000-C.
Codes Y or Z	an exemption code,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> deletes the Y or Z through the force change process using Form H1075, Welfare Reform Force Change Request, for TANF individuals or Form H1074, SNAP Force Change Request, for food benefit individuals, and enter the new code on Form H1000-C after the forced change processes.
Code I	an exemption code	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> follow the procedures listed above for Codes Y and Z, or allow the vendor's automated purge process to delete the code if the LSIS record is approaching its archive date.

ITEM 215: Vendor's Unique Number

TANF and SNAP

If the entry in Item 214 is Y or Z, enter the nine-digit VUN.

The VUN contains a "check digit," an automated aid for validating data. If the check digit indicates the advisor did not enter the VUN correctly, Form H1000-C will not process.

SAVERR does not store the VUN, but uses it to associate the SAVERR client number with the finger image record on the vendor's system.

C—811 Case Number and Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) Number

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

A case is defined as a group of persons who are seeking benefits together for at least some, if not all, of the members of the group. Members included on the case may or may not be certified to receive benefits. Each case is identified by a 10-digit case number. A TIERS case can include multiple EDGs. An EDG is defined as members of a household whose needs, resources, income, and deductions, as applicable by program, are considered in determining eligibility for benefits. Each EDG is identified by a nine-digit EDG number.

Example: If a household is approved for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), assign one EDG number for TANF and another EDG number for SNAP.

Case numbers are kept indefinitely and should be reassigned when the household reapplies for any program.

Note: There may be instances when a new case number may be required, such as for a person leaving a drug treatment facility or for foster care cases.

C—812 Individual Number

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

The first time a person is approved for Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) services or benefits, TIERS assigns an individual a unique number. Advisors use the same number, called the individual number, for that person for all programs.

Individual numbers are kept indefinitely and should be reassigned when the individual reapplies for any program.

C—813 Hierarchy of Individual Identification Data

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Before approving an applicant who already has an individual number, advisors must compare information in TIERS inquiry to the information in the case record. Advisors should note and clear any discrepancies with the individual.

TIERS retains only one set of identification information for each individual. The advisor must make changes according to the hierarchy. The following priority applies:

- A program area providing benefits to an individual takes precedence over a program area not providing benefits. For example, TANF caretaker information takes precedence over TANF payee information, and an active case takes precedence over a denied case.
- For name and birth date identification data:

Priority is given to ...	over ...
Medical Programs	TANF
TANF	Supplemental Security Income (SSI), SNAP, SAS*
SNAP	SAS*

- For sex and race identification data:

Priority is given to ...	over ...
Medical Programs	TANF, SSI, SNAP, SAS*
TANF	SSI, SNAP, SAS*
SNAP	SSI, SAS*
SSI	SAS*

* SAS is Long Term Care's Service Authorization System. Long Term Care authorizes payments to its service providers using this system.

Note: If the Social Security Administration (SSA) validates the Social Security number (SSN) or claim number, the advisor cannot change the number in TIERS. Document the incorrect SSN in the Request Merge/Separate record, if requesting a merge/separate. Use the existing number on file and report the correct number by memorandum to State Office Data Integrity (SODI) Section, Long Term Care, State Office, Y-922.

Before approving an applicant in another program area, check TIERS for accuracy of identifying information. If the identifying information is incorrect, enter the correct information in the Individual Household Logical Unit of Work (LUW) or other applicable LUW in TIERS.

C—814 Merge and Separate

Revision 14-1; Effective January 1, 2014

All Programs

Advisors use the functional area on the left navigation bar titled Merge/Separate to request a merge or a separate.

Select Request Merge if an individual has been assigned more than one individual number. Follow the steps below.

- Enter a minimum of two and up to 10 individual numbers to be merged. Enter mandatory comments explaining the reason for the merge request.
- Click the Add button. The demographic information associated with that individual number will be displayed in the Selected Individuals section. If it is not the correct person, delete the entry using the Delete icon or use the Binoculars icon to search for the individual using the demographic data, similar to the individual search in Inquiry.
- Once the individual numbers and mandatory comments are entered, click the Submit button to send the request to State Office Data Integrity.

Select Request Separate when more than one person is assigned to a single individual number. Follow the steps below.

- Enter one shared individual number and up to three individual numbers to be separated. Enter mandatory comments explaining the reason for the separate request.
- Enter the individual number or demographic information and click Add. The demographic information associated with the individual number will be displayed in the Selected Shared Individuals and Shared ID above is to be separated to these individuals sections. If it is not the correct person, delete that entry using the Delete icon or use the Binoculars icon to search for the individual using demographic data, similar to the individual search in Inquiry.
- Once all the individual numbers and mandatory comments are entered, click the Submit button to send the request to State Office Data Integrity.

TIERS will not allow a merge or separate request to be submitted for an individual number when a merge or separate request already exists and will display a validation message. When TIERS displays a validation message, correct the information if entered incorrectly or use the Search Merge/Separate to determine if the individual numbers requested are associated with the same individual number.

Use Search Merge/Separate to track the progress of the request. Some requests will take longer than others. Some individual numbers have to age off of an EDG due to the denial effective date. State Office Data Integrity staff can mark an individual number as a Potential Duplicate (PD) when a merge or separate request is made. Staff cannot select an individual number for addition to new cases if it is marked as PD, which limits the potential for the wrong individual number to be awarded benefits or coverage in error.

Questions concerning a merge or separate request should be sent to the State Office Data Integrity mailbox at tiers_statepaidmedicaid@hpsc.state.tx.us.

C—815 TIERS Case Modes

Revision 14-1; Effective January 1, 2014

A TIERS case mode is a particular mode that TIERS uses to determine the sequence of LUWs it presents during Data Collection. The case mode is typically determined by the type of action being taken on the case, for example, Intake (new application), Complete Action (redetermination), Change Action (processing a change), and so on. Staff set the case mode in the Data Collection – Initiate Interview page. Staff should check the case mode prior to starting a case by performing inquiry. Inquiry displays the current case mode and the employee number of the advisor currently assigned the case. The current case mode is also displayed at the top of each page in Data Collection.

C—815.1 Case Mode Definitions

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

There are 16 case modes.

Mode	Definition
Case Reading	Authorized staff use this mode to examine certain information for a case and record results online.
Change Action	Used to make changes to a case when no application is required.
Complete Action	Used for redeterminations and reviews or applications for a new program for an individual in an existing case.
Continue Previously Selected Mode	Allows staff to access Data Collection in the mode previously used.
Conversion	The case mode that System for Application, Verification, Eligibility, Referrals, and Reports (SAVERR) cases and Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) cases were converted to if there was mismatched data. This mode is utilized by authorized staff.
Intake	Used when the household is requesting assistance for the very first time or for an existing case when all of the EDGs are denied.
Ongoing	Ongoing mode provides read-only access to all LUWs. Exception: Changes can be made in Ongoing mode to the Household Address – Details page and the Initiate Interview – Initiate Review page. In these two areas, updates can be made without running Eligibility Determination Benefit Calculation (EDBC) and then having to dispose all EDGs. Used with start date and end date fields on the Initiate Interview page to view historical records for a specific time period.
Periodic Income Check (PIC)	Used when a client returns information requested in a missing information request during a PIC.
Reopen	Used when an advisor reopens a case (no active EDGs) and it has been more than 30 days since the last denial action.
Reopen-Left Navigation	Used when the advisor reopens a case (no active EDGs) and it has been 30 days or less since the last denial action.
SSI Certification	This mode is used by State Office Data Integrity staff to approve SSI Medicaid.
SSI Manual Create	Allows authorized staff to establish SSI eligibility in TIERS for an individual when the individual is newly eligible for SSI, or when an SSI-eligible individual has moved from another state and the record is not yet available through the TIERS interface with State Data Exchange (SDX).

Mode	Definition
Second Level Review	Used when a second level review is required. The staff member must be authorized to perform second level reviews on TIERS cases.
Special Review	Used when a case or EDG requires a review or reauthorization of services that falls outside the normal redetermination time frames.
Spousal PRA	Allows authorized staff to record information and determine the Spousal Protected Resource Amount (SPRA) for institutional and waiver programs.

C—816 Case Mode Hierarchy

Revision 14-1; Effective January 1, 2014

All Programs

Complete Action and Intake modes have hierarchy over all other modes. When an advisor is working on a case in Complete Action or Intake mode, other staff can enter information in TIERS, but they cannot send notices or dispose the case. Their actions are disposed only when the advisor working in Complete Action or Intake mode disposes the case. If an advisor has the case in Change Action mode and subsequently a different advisor accesses the case in Complete Action mode, the Change Action advisor can continue to enter information in the case, but the Complete Action advisor is the only one who can dispose the case and send notices.

Once an advisor accesses a case in Complete Action mode, all individual-initiated changes go to that advisor until the case is disposed. In addition, once an advisor begins an individual-initiated change, all subsequent individual-initiated changes will go to that advisor until the case is disposed. However, outstanding alerts assigned to someone else do not automatically transfer to an advisor who begins a new action on a case.

Note: TIERS routes agency-generated changes based on the office profile.

C—817 Electronic Data Sources (ELDS)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Information from ELDS, such as State Online Query (SOLQ), is presented to advisors in TIERS during Data Collection to allow the advisor to use it as verification. If verification is not available through ELDS in Data Collection, advisors must attempt to verify using other electronic sources (i.e., Data Broker) before requesting additional information or documentation from the applicant.

Advisors must receive written or verbal consent for any adult age 19 or older that is included on an application or renewal and whose information is needed to make an eligibility determination before:

- requesting information from electronic data sources, such as Data Broker or SOLQ; or
- using the individual's information from TIERS, if that adult has a case with HHSC (SNAP, TANF, Medicaid or CHIP).

When consent is given, advisors may use ELDS, a Data Broker report, and/or information from a known case.

If the advisors cannot obtain consent to use ELDS, Data Broker, or existing HHSC data, advisors must deny the application for the individual whose eligibility is being determined.

SNAP and TANF

The signature of the person submitting the application or renewal provides permission for all household members.

Medical Programs

The signature of the person submitting the application or renewal provides permission for any adult listed in A-121, Receipt of Application. For individuals not listed in A-121, advisors must attempt to contact the individual whose permission is needed by phone or via Form H1213, Children's Health-Care Benefits: More Facts Needed from the Parent Who Has Custody.

Example: If a non-custodial parent applies on behalf of a child, information, such as income from the custodial parent, may be needed from the custodial parent to determine that child's eligibility. Advisors must call and obtain verbal consent from the custodial parent before pulling electronic data on that individual, even if the custodial parent's information is available in the system. If the advisor cannot get consent from the custodial parent, the advisor must request the missing information needed from the custodial parent using Form H1213. If the custodial parent does not provide consent to use electronic data, the advisor must deny the child's application.

C-820, Data Broker

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

All Programs

HHSC contracts with a Data Broker vendor to provide financial and other background information about SNAP, TANF, and Medical Program applicants and recipients. The vendor collects and combines information from several data sources into one report. This report is called a Data Broker Combined Report and includes information such as residential address, persons living at that address, vehicle ownership, employment, income verification, and other information. Within each Data Broker Combined Report, there is an option to request a credit report on the person for whom the Data Broker report was requested.

The Data Broker Combined Report is requested using TIERS in the Individual Household logical unit of work (LUW) in any mode other than Ongoing. The Data Broker Combined Report and individual data searches are accessible using the Data Broker Portal.

Follow policy in C-920, Questionable Information, to resolve discrepancies between Data Broker information and information the applicant or recipient provides. To clear discrepant information:

- contact the household and allow the person to explain the discrepancy; or
- send the household Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, asking for information or verification to resolve the discrepancy.

Federal law limits the use of credit reports. See C-824, Permissible Purpose, for information about these limits. Permissible purpose means the person whose credit report is requested must be:

- an applicant or a certified TANF, SNAP or Medical Program household member (or a member who would be certified but is disqualified); or
- a Medical Program Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) household member.

Note: Do not request a credit report before the initial interview on the person who signed the application or on persons for whom assistance is requested on the application. If applicable, the request must be made during the interview.

Use the charts below to determine when to request a Data Broker Combined Report, with or without credit information:

- authenticate a caller;
- help clear questionable information; or
- clear discrepant information in the EDG. An example of discrepant information is when a person has more than two months of negative management.

Use the prudent person principle in deciding the need for a Data Broker report or credit report in these instances.

Notes:

- Data Broker Combined Reports with or without credit reports are not required for households that apply for or receive SNAP-CAP or SNAP-SSI. However, staff may request a Data Broker Combined Report if needed for verification or a Combined Report with a credit report if needed to resolve discrepancies in reported information (such as negative management, as in the chart above).
- For independent children or child-only EDGs, request a Data Broker report on the child only if staff believe there are unreported assets (as applicable by program), income or other information that would affect the child's eligibility.
- For reported changes, use the interactive search feature in the Data Broker Portal to request a specific type of report according to the change (for example, Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) for earned income or Office of Attorney General (OAG) for child support information).

Use the Data Broker Portal to access the following acceptable verification sources:

- Department of Public Safety (DPS)
- United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)
- Texas Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV)
- OAG
- TWC
- Texas Lottery Winnings
- Department of State Health Services (DSHS)
- SNAP Electronic Disqualified Recipient System (eDRS)
- Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT)
- Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ).

These verification sources provide information on:

- people search information (name, address, driver license/ID and neighbors);
- alien verification;
- vehicle search (name, address, license plate, vehicle identification number, vehicle valuation);
- income search (new hire, quarterly wages and unemployment insurance benefits, child support, and Texas lottery winnings);
- marriage and divorce;
- SNAP disqualifications;
- out of state shopping via EBT card transactions for SNAP, TANF or both; and
- Texas criminal history.

Review the Data Broker reports to accurately determine eligibility and clear any found discrepancies. Failure to review the report may result in eligibility errors that can lead to quality control errors.

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

New Users — Through the HHS Enterprise Portal, supervisors or managers complete and submit Form 4743, Request for Applications and System Access, for each employee who needs access to the Data Broker system. Managers obtain a signed Data Broker Security Agreement, TWC Security Agreement, and OAG Security Agreement form for each employee who needs access. In the comment field of Form 4743, the supervisor or manager notes the dates each of the three Security Agreements were signed. Once added to the system, staff receives an email with a temporary password link and further instructions. The Data Broker temporary password link expires within 48 hours from receipt of provisioning email. If the temporary password link expires before staff creates an initial password, staff can request a new temporary password link by selecting the “Forgot Password” link in the Data Broker Portal login screen.

Note: New staff must access the Data Broker system within 45 days of the Data Broker account creation or the system automatically deactivates the account.

Inactive Users — All provisioned staff must access the Data Broker system via the Data Broker Portal or through TIERS at least every 90 days, or the system deactivates access. Once the system has deactivated access, staff must submit a new Data Broker request through the HHS Enterprise Portal. Once staff has been reactivated, they must again complete the required User Access and Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) trainings to use the Data Broker system.

C—822 Data Broker Passwords

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

Users are directed to the User Options page to create a unique password. Staff can change their password at any time by clicking on the “User Options” field located on the left navigation section in the Data Broker Portal. Staff are required to enter their current password, new password, and confirmation of their new password.

Staff who have forgotten their password can use the “Forgot your Password?” link located on the sign-in page of the Data Broker Portal. A temporary password link is emailed to the address associated with the staff’s account.

C—823 Login Procedures - Data Broker Portal System

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

This is where you can access the stand-alone Data Broker Portal system. To log on, the staff must enter their User ID which is their 11-digit employee identification number, and a unique password and then click “Login.”

Staff must complete the following steps before gaining access to the Data Broker System:

- create a new password for the Data Broker system;
- log in to the Data Broker system; and
- complete the User Access and Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) trainings.

Notes: The User Access and FCRA trainings are located within the Learning Management System. Staff are directed to these trainings when they login for the first time.

Once the required trainings are completed and staff logs into the Data Broker system, they must read the information and click "I understand the above and agree" to acknowledge that they understand the Data Broker information can only be used for business purposes and is confidential.

Staff must also read the agreement and click "I understand the above and agree" in the “Authorization for Access to Request Credit Report” to acknowledge that they have been adequately trained on the FCRA and agree to only request a credit report when permissible purpose exists.

If staff clicks "I disagree" to either screen, they will not gain access to the Data Broker system or credit reports.

C—823.1 Frequently Asked Questions and Data Broker User Guide

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

The Data Broker Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) and the Data Broker User Guide are located under the “Training” section on the left navigation menu within the Data Broker Portal. These documents provide answers to frequently asked questions about Data Broker. The documents include instructions and sample screens to assist staff with understanding the different types of reports available in the Data Broker system.

The FAQs and Data Broker User Guide can be found in the Data Broker Portal.

C—824 Permissible Purpose

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

The Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) covers access to and use of credit reports. The FCRA permits staff to request credit information for persons to determine eligibility. Staff may not request credit information for purposes other than to determine eligibility. The FCRA requires permissible purpose before staff can legally request a credit report.

Permissible purpose means the person whose credit report is requested must be:

- an applicant or a certified TANF, SNAP or Medical Program household member (or a member who would be certified but is disqualified); or
- a Medical Program MAGI household member.

Note: Do not request a credit report:

- on a payee EDG unless the responsible relative is the child's parent; or
- using an invalid Social Security number.

The FCRA makes a clear distinction between requesting credit reports and other types of inquiries made through Data Broker. Under legal statutes, staff may request identifying information such as address, employment and vehicle registration on any person.

Permissible purpose is not required when requesting non-credit identifying information. For example, if staff suspect an absent parent is in the home, staff do not have permissible purpose to request a credit report on the absent parent. However, it is appropriate to request identifying information available through the Data Broker system.

Note: Those who request information without permissible purpose are in violation of federal law and are subject to fines.

C—825 Data Broker Combined Report Sources

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

This section describes the various data sources in the Data Broker Combined Report that are not subjected to permissible purpose requirements noted in C-824, Permissible Purpose.

C—825.1 Driver License Information

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

Data Broker matches information from the Combined Report Search screen against the Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS) data. When a match is found, DPS data is pulled into the report. Information in this report may identify discrepancies in the identity and residence address of the person. This report includes a person's sex, race, height, hair color, eye color, name, date of birth, address, and any previous names or addresses. Because DPS re-issues driver's licenses and ID numbers approximately two years after the driver license and ID number expires, previous names and addresses associated with that number are listed in this section when applicable.

The Validated field displays the date DPS last updated the driver's license or ID information.

Note: DPS updates information on this report only when the person with a Texas driver license (TDL) or DPS ID provides updated information to DPS.

C—825.2 Persons at Entered Address

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

Data Broker searches the DPS database and pulls records for all persons listed at the address entered on the Combined Report Search screen. The information pulled includes each person's name, address, and date of birth (DOB). Previous residents may appear if they have not changed their address with DPS.

Information on this report is useful in providing case clues about household composition and exploring parental absence for deprivation.

C—825.3 Neighborhood People Search

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

This report lists residents located in the 20 addresses nearest the address entered on the Combined Report Search screen. This information may be useful as a case clue for locating absent parents or other case-related activities.

Data Broker pulls this information from the DPS database. The information is only as current as DPS's most recent update. Some persons may have both a Texas ID and a Texas Driver's License (TDL). These persons appear on the report for each Texas ID and TDL.

Note: Staff may contact a neighbor on the Data Broker report only when:

- the person has allowed staff to do so; or
- information is received from another source that contradicts the person's statement(s).

See C-920, Questionable Information, and C-930, Providing Verification, for information regarding contacting a collateral source not allowed by the person.

C—825.4 Out-of-State Shopping (OSS) Report

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

TANF and SNAP

The Out-of-State Shopping (OSS) Report lists households receiving SNAP or TANF benefits in Texas that:

- shopped out of state in the last 60 days;
- did not shop in Texas within a 60-day period; and
- have active EDGs.

The OSS Report is included on the Data Broker Combined Report and is considered a case clue that Texas residency may be questionable. Address OSS information at renewal, reapplications and at a change.

C—825.4.1 Clearing Non-Border OSS Report Activity at a Complete Action

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

TANF and SNAP

At a Change Action

Send the household Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to request verification of the household's address.

Exception: It is not required to clear Non-Border OSS activity when the household's most recent OSS activity occurred in the:

- month prior to the periodic review month or the periodic review month for TANF; or
- next to the last benefit month or the last benefit month for SNAP.

At a Complete Action

The household must provide verification of their address if the:

- most recent OSS activity occurred within six months before the interview/desk review month, and
- OSS activity listed in the report was not previously cleared.

Refer to chart in B-353, Out-of-State Shopping (OSS) Reports, for appropriate action after a household has been asked to provide verification of address.

Note: Take action on any associated Medical Program EDG when clearing any OSS report activity.

C—825.4.2 Clearing Border OSS Report Activity at a Complete Action

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

TANF and SNAP

This report must be cleared when a household submits an application or redetermination or at a change action and the OSS activity in the report makes the household's address questionable. Clearance depends on the facts in the situation.

Example: A household living in Texas near the Arkansas border and shopping in Arkansas may not cause residency to be questionable. A household living in Austin and shopping only in Arkansas in the past 60 days could be considered questionable.

Note: Act on any associated Medical Program EDG when clearing any OSS report activity.

C—825.5 Texas Vehicle

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

TANF, SNAP, Children on TP 32, and Children on TP 56

The Data Broker searches the Texas Department of Motor Vehicles' (DMV) database and obtains information for all vehicles listed at the address entered on the Combined Report Search screen. Information obtained includes the:

- owner of each vehicle;
- Texas vehicle license tag number;
- year, make, and model of each vehicle;
- average wholesale value of the vehicle; and
- vehicle's lien holder (when available on DMV records).

This information is useful when exploring a household's resources. The information provides case clues on vehicle ownership, value and household composition. Staff must explore and clear discrepancies.

Except for vehicle values, Data Broker receives updated information weekly from the Texas DMV database. Data Broker updates vehicle values monthly. Vehicle values are obtained through the National Automobile Dealers Association (NADA) book. Texas DMV updates its database when a person renews a vehicle's registration, retitles a vehicle, or reports a change of address to Texas DMV. It is possible for vehicles not owned by the household to appear on this report. This can happen when a person does not complete a title transfer or does not update an address with the Texas DMV.

Vehicles registered at an address, other than where the person lives, do not appear on this report. When a person has a vehicle not shown on the report, staff can use the owner's name, the vehicle license plate number, or the vehicle identification number (VIN) to obtain information by using the Vehicle Search option listed on the left navigation menu of the Data Broker Portal.

The value field lists the average wholesale value of the vehicle and can be used as verification to determine the countable value of the vehicle. See A-1251, Verification Sources, for other acceptable methods of verification.

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

C—825.9 Texas Marriage and Divorce

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

This report is pulled from marriage and divorce records from the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) Texas Vital Statistics Unit. It is only available via an interactive inquiry in the Data Broker Portal. Although this report is updated annually, the marriage and divorce data is delayed by three years. The records do not contain information for the most recent three years.

The report provides the dates and names of people married and divorced in Texas. The names shown on the marriage and divorce reports are the names provided to DSHS on the marriage and divorce documents.

If a person changes their name, staff may need to search using the prior held name to find records. Information from this report is not included on the combined report.

C—825.10 Texas Criminal Convictions

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

TANF, SNAP and One-Time TANF

The Texas Criminal Conviction report contains a list of all convictions and felony deferred adjudications that are contained in the digital criminal history system maintained by Texas Department of Public Safety (DPS).

The information included in the report depends on the authority reporting the offense and is considered a case clue only.

In most cases, the report includes the classification of the offense (felony, misdemeanor, deferred adjudication, etc.).

The report lists several pieces of identifying information including DOB, sex, race, hair and eye color, height and weight. When a criminal record is found, check each factor to ensure the person on the report is the person on the EDG.

When the report reveals information that indicates the person may have committed an offense subject to action by HHSC, explore the situation with the person. If the person acknowledges they are the person on the report, take the appropriate action.

If staff have reason to believe that the person is the person indicated on the report, but the person disagrees or disagrees with other information contained within the report (such as the type of conviction or whether it was a felony or misdemeanor):

- document the person's response in the Case Comments;
- proceed with the appropriate EDG action without acting on the criminal history report;
- contact the [Office of Inspector General \(OIG\) by emailing \[OIG Benefits Program Integrity \\(BPI\\)\]\(#\)](#); and
- document the reason for contacting OIG in the Case Comments.

Once OIG obtains information to clear the discrepancy, the assigned OIG BPI investigator provides the information via email. Staff responsible for clearing this task must document the results of the OIG BPI's findings in Case Comments and, if appropriate, enter information in the Data Collection-Individual Demographic-Conviction/Rehabilitation page. Make an overpayment referral if appropriate.

This report is updated monthly. However, since it contains records reported to DPS by various Texas courts, the report may not be complete. When it is incomplete, staff will investigate further.

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

The ENHR and NDNH reports contain information used as an indicator of unreported earned income. Data Broker displays new hire data from 180 days prior to the date the report was requested up to the current date.

The ENHR contains employer information for people whose employers are based in Texas. The NDNH contains employer information from all 50 states, four territories, and all federal agencies.

These reports provide information such as hire date, employer name and address, and employee name, date of birth and address.

The ENHR and NDNH reports may list the corporate name and address instead of the local business name and address. Consider that the commonly known name of a business may be different from the corporate name.

C—825.13 Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) Wages/Benefits

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

TWC Wages/Benefits information is available through the interactive and combined Data Broker report options and includes information on wages, claimants and unemployment benefit records. Claimant and unemployment benefit payments will display only if the person has applied, is receiving or has received unemployment benefits from TWC.

The TWC information is obtained in Data Broker using one of two methods.

1. Interactive Search allows the user to search TWC information using the TWC Quarterly Wages and Unemployment Insurance Benefits (UIB) link from the left navigation bar in the Data Broker Portal. Four search criteria are identified:

- Claimant Status
- Wage Details
- Benefits
- Combined Wages, Status, Benefits Report

Individual searches can be completed using any of the first three criteria. Selecting the Combined Wages, Status, and Benefits Report search criteria will return a combined report of all three TWC inquiries.

The date filter option is available for the user to request TWC inquiries for any of the four search criteria. Date filter options include two months, four months, six months, one year, two years, three years or all available.

2. The Standard Combined Report includes the TWC information along with all other reports available. See C-825, Data Broker Combined Reports Sources, for other sources.

TWC information returned on the Standard Combined Report defaults to the last two years of data available for wage detail, claimant and benefit payments. If the user needs more than two years of data, the interactive search in the Data Broker Portal can be used.

C—825.13.1 TWC Error Messages

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

An error message may appear when a request is made and the TWC database is unavailable.

When a TWC inquiry is requested and an error is returned, the Table of Contents of the Data Broker Combined Report will display the following message next to the TWC header:

“Request timed out. Please click here to retry again.”

By clicking on this link, staff can re-request the report without re-entering the person’s information. Staff should continue to retry until the information becomes available.

C—825.14 Office of the Attorney General (OAG) Child Support

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

This report contains child support data from the OAG's database. Data Broker searches the OAG database and pulls records for the person entered on the Combined Report Search screen and displays all people receiving and paying support payments associated with that person.

The OAG information available through Data Broker allows staff to obtain child support income that may not be listed on Form H1010, Texas Works Application For Assistance – Your Texas Benefits, or otherwise reported, reducing the risk of fraud and quality control payment errors. Additionally, Data Broker offers household composition case clues by listing an address for each member, if available, on the combined report associated to a particular OAG case.

This report is also available via an interactive inquiry in the Data Broker Search Options menu to conduct a member or financial search.

- A member search is used when the case name or adult household member's Social Security Number (SSN) is not available.
- A financial search can be done for specific financial information for a period not found on the Combined Report Search.

Note: The Texas Child Support Enforcement System (TXCSES) web-based system is available for limited use, if needed, to obtain information not found within the Data Broker system.

C—825.14.1 OAG Child Support Data

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

Child support data may be provided in some or all of the six fields below for each report:

- Collections – current child support, medical support, dental support, spousal support, and arrears from the person for whom the Data Broker inquiry was requested.
- Disbursements – current child support, medical support, dental support, spousal support, and arrears to the person for whom the Data Broker inquiry was requested.
- Obligated Support – reported for both collections and disbursements.
- Member Details – includes all members associated with the child support case.
- Unknown Payments – payments made to a person when the type of payment is unknown. When unknown payments exist, explore the payment type with the person.
- Family Violence Indicator – the child support record in Data Broker will have a family violence indicator when family violence is indicated by OAG.

Note: If staff discover payments or the person states they have received payments not listed in Data Broker, access the Texas Child Support Enforcement System (TXCSES) to verify these payments and obligations. If the necessary information is not available in TXCSES, pend for verification.

Case is a 'registry-only' case, which means that not all obligations nor dependents may be listed.

The Data Broker OAG screens contain a detailed breakdown of the following information:

- The reports are member-oriented instead of case-oriented. The report contains details from all child support cases associated with the person (member), including both collections and disbursements. If the person receives disbursements from multiple absent parents (AP), the payments from each AP are displayed separately within each report.
- The report displays collections and disbursements. Payments from all child support cases associated with a particular person will be displayed in the report.
- Support order obligations are sorted per dependent. Legal obligations typically reflect a monthly amount. The Obligated Support section is displayed to inform staff of the legally obligated amount.

The Per Period Amount column under the Obligated Support section displays the total obligated amount for all children of an absent parent. The Per Child Amount displays each child's portion of legally obligated support. If there is only one child, then the amounts in the Per Child Amount and Per Period Amount columns will be the same. If there are more children, the sum of all the Per Child Amounts will be reflected in the Per Period Amount column.

The Duration column displays the period for which the legal obligation applies. The child support order establishes the begin date and end date of the legal obligation. Orders normally end once the child turns 18 or graduates from high school, if later, although obligations may continue past this date due to a child's disability. When the obligation includes more than one child of a different age and the obligation ends for a child, a new duration period will be reflected in the duration field. If at any time the AP becomes delinquent in payments, child support and medical arrears can be ordered in addition to the amount the AP is originally ordered to pay, and this may prolong the AP's obligation duration period.

Note: Payments (collections and disbursements) are sorted by support type (e.g., child support vs. medical support).

- Disbursement Payments are sorted by dependent. The Data Broker child support function automatically calculates and sorts the payment information for each dependent on the case when a single payment is made for more than one dependent.

The Per Child Amount column displays the amount to be entered into TIERS for each dependent listed in the Dependents column. Data Broker reports payments disbursed for a child under the dependent's name even if the child is not in the household. If a caretaker receives current child support for a nonmember (or a member who is no longer in the home) but uses the money for personal or household needs, count it as unearned income as required by policy in A-1326.2, Child Support. Staff must not count the amount used for or provided to the nonmember for whom it is intended to cover. Verify what the person is doing with the payments and what amount must be counted.

Note: Legal obligations are typically established as a monthly obligation. Wages are typically garnished based on the pay frequency of the AP's job. Therefore, the amounts shown on the screens for collections and disbursements reflect the frequency for which the OAG receives the payments, which is usually other than monthly.

For additional policy information on child support payments and how they are allocated for members and non-members, refer to A-1326.2, Child Support.

- Disbursement Received dates are calculated by Data Broker and displayed in the report. Data Broker automatically applies the policy in A-1326.2.1, Counting Child Support, to estimate the date a child support payment is received by adding five days from the date a warrant was mailed or by adding two business days from the date an electronic transfer was initiated, excluding weekends and bank holidays. Therefore, when using Data Broker to verify child support, use the Receive Date as the estimated date the person receives a child support payment disbursed by the OAG.
- Only payments disbursed to the person will be displayed to assist in reduction of calculation and payment errors. All collections will be displayed in the Collections screen. Because all collections are potentially a deductible expense, only payments that were disbursed to the person will be displayed in the Disbursements screen to help reduce errors (e.g., payments given to HHSC as repayment services will not be displayed). If the OAG disbursed additional payments to an entity other than the person, disbursement information will be listed in the additional payments section of the report and will include the name of the entity that received the payment. This is displayed for informational purposes.

Note: If a person reports receiving child support via the Texas OAG and those payments are not being reflected on the Data Broker Portal, check the TXCSES Web portal to verify the payment(s). Infrequently, staff may also be unable to verify using the TXCSES Web portal. In this situation, pend the case for proof of the child support payment.

Example: A person is receiving child support payments for a dependent from an out-of-state order and the Texas OAG does not yet have the child support order but is receiving payments on behalf of the person.

- Arrears payments are separated in the report to help ensure staff count them properly. Enter arrears payments as income for the person to whom the payments are disbursed, not for the dependent.
- Member addresses are displayed as a case clue to determine household composition and to aid in determining if an absent parent has moved back into the same home as the custodial party. The Member Details section will display all members associated with the person for whom the report was requested. The report will display the person and all members associated with that OAG case.

Note: If an absent parent is making child support payments but moves back into the home of the caretaker and child, do not count the child support as income nor allow the child support as a deduction.

Error messages may appear when a request is made and the OAG database information is unavailable. When the OAG information is requested and unavailable, a feature in the table of contents of the Standard Combined Report will display the following message:

“Request timed out. Please click here to retry again.”

By clicking on this link, staff can re-request the report without reentering all the person's information. Staff should continue to retry until the information becomes available.

C—825.16 Alien Status/Systematic Alien Verification for Entitlements (SAVE)

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

Data Broker provides a verification of alien status using SAVE.

Staff verify the immigration status of each non-citizen applying for benefits by accessing the:

- Data Broker Combined Report in TIERS; or
- Data Broker Portal.

When using TIERS, staff select Individual ID in the Individual Information LUW (only for people 16 years old or older), an Alien Status option appears at the top of the Data Broker Combined Report page with options:

- Alien Status — Sends a Request for Initial Verification to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS).
 - By clicking on the Alien Status option, the last name, first name and birthdate fields are prepopulated based on the information in TIERS Data Collection.
 - Enter the alien registration number per the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) document.
- Case History — Displays prior SAVE inquiry responses.

When using Data Broker Portal (All people including children under age 16 years old):

- Alien Status — Sends a Request for Initial Verification to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS).
 - By clicking on the SAVE option, staff will be required to enter the last name, first name and birthdate fields are prepopulated based on the information.
 - Enter the alien registration number per the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) document.
- Case History — Displays prior SAVE inquiry responses.

By clicking on the Verification SAVE Status option, the last name, first name and birthdate fields are prepopulated based on the information in TIERS Data Collection. Enter the alien registration number per the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) document. Staff should only access Data Broker reports for people 16 and older. Staff must continue to use the stand-alone SAVE Web-based system for people younger than 16.

C—825.16.1 Alien Status Historical Data

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

This feature searches alien status history for up to the last six months to determine if a previously submitted inquiry, with a valid document, is available. A new alien status inquiry will not display if any inquiry with a valid unexpired document has been completed within the last six months. A message will display along with the historical record when this occurs.

If the document on file is expired, a request to perform a new initial verification automatically occurs.

C—825.16.2 Alien Status Initial Verification

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

Choose the noncitizen's document type from a drop-down menu. The Document Type drop-down menu lists the most common types of documents used to verify alien status. If the document type is not listed, choose "Other." Depending on the type of document, staff must complete certain fields before submitting the request.

The card number from the I-551, Permanent Resident Card, that must be entered in SAVE is 13 alphanumeric digits and begins with three letters. I-551s issued between May 2004 and May 2010 have the card number on the front, and I-551s issued beginning in May 2010 have the card number on the back.

Note: To verify whether SAVE was completed, staff should use Data Broker Case History in the Data Broker Portal.

C—825.17 Inmate/Parolee Match

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

All Programs

The Inmate/Parolee Match displays prisoner information for people who are incarcerated.

The following identifying information is displayed, if applicable, for the incarcerated person:

- name;
- SSN;
- DOB;
- last known address;
- incarceration sentence date (first day of incarceration);
- earliest release date;
- prison unit;
- offense; and
- date of offense.

Treat prisoner match information as a case clue when Data Broker shows the person is currently incarcerated and the current date is more than 30 days after the incarceration sentence date.

For applications and renewals with an interview (and at a change when applicable), if the person identified as incarcerated is not present or available by phone, staff must ask whether the person is still incarcerated.

If the household:

- Agrees that the person is not in the home, remove the person from the EDG and process the case action.
- Disagrees and states that the person is in the home, pend for verification of household composition. For applications and renewals that require an interview and at a change, attempt to contact the household to inquire about the person shown as incarcerated in Data Broker.

If contact can be made, follow the appropriate steps above for households who agree or disagree with the report of incarceration.

- If contact cannot be made, pend for verification of household composition using the sources explained above.

Document the following information in case comments:

- the household's response regarding whether they agreed or disagreed with the incarceration information in Data Broker;
- when a household member is not included because of incarceration information in Data Broker;
- if applicable, attempts made to verify and explain how questionable information was cleared (C-940, Documentation); and
- if applicable, when a fraud referral is sent to OIG (B-720, When to File an Overpayment Referral).

C—826.1 Requesting Data Broker Reports in the Stand-alone System

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

Use the Data Broker Portal to pull specific data element searches, such as TWC, OAG, etc. Staff can also use the Data Broker Portal if TIERS is experiencing technical issues.

All Programs

DL Number: Enter the TDL number or Texas ID card number. This is not a mandatory entry, but when staff enter this number and click the Lookup button, the system automatically pulls data for all fields except SSN and Case Number. If DPS data is incorrect or obsolete, enter the correct data over the incorrect data.

Inquire On: Click on the appropriate description for the person on whom you are making the inquiry.

- Applicant — New applicants or household additions.
- Recipient — Currently active recipients.
- None of the Above — Anyone who is not an applicant or recipient.

SSN: Enter the SSN of the person for whom you need Data Broker information. Do not enter an incorrect or false SSN. If an incorrect SSN is entered, an erroneous file may be created or information for the wrong person may be pulled.

Case Number: Enter the TIERS application/case number. Never enter a false TIERS application/case number or one belonging to another person.

Enter information in the remaining fields marked with an asterisk when the Texas ID or TDL number is unknown. These fields are self-explanatory.

C—826.2 Requesting Data Broker Reports in TIERS

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

Staff must request and view the Data Broker Combined Report for applicable household members to accurately determine eligibility and clear any discrepancies. Failure to view this report may result in eligibility errors that can lead to quality control errors.

In the TIERS Regular or Customized Redetermination driver flow, submit a Data Broker request for each individual household member 16 and older, including members without an SSN.

In the Redetermination Summary logical unit of work, each page has a DB icon

- Click the DB icon

at the top of the page to access the Data Broker window.

- The Data Broker Combined Report link will display.
- Click on the Data Broker Report link to view the Data Broker Combined Report for the person.

Follow the same process for each additional household member for whom a Data Broker Combined Report is needed. The Data Broker Report Link expires after 15 minutes if not clicked.

Data Broker in TIERS cannot do interactive searches on specific data; it only produces the Combined Report. For example, if staff only needs OAG information, staff go to the Data Broker Portal instead.

Requesting a Data Broker Combined Report with Credit Information

A credit report may be requested after a Data Broker report has been displayed. At the bottom of each Data Broker report is a section that allows a credit report to be requested on the person for whom the Data Broker report was run. There is a message displayed that states, “Click here to request and view a credit report.” Clicking on the link is a request for a credit report.

C—831 Grant in Jeopardy Process

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

TANF

The OAG sends the TANF recipient child support collection interface after the close of business on the last day of each month. HHSC uses the interface to determine if child support collections exceed the TANF grant plus the disregard and processes grant in jeopardy.

The TANF recipient child support collection interface includes the:

- TANF case information;
- amount of collections from each absent parent; and
- amount of excess payments.

HHSC automation staff:

- compare the OAG collection information to the current TIERS information;
- send a notice of excess payment to the advisor, if applicable;
- determine if any member of the certified group was certified for TP 01 or TP 61 in at least three of the last six months; and
- determine if the collection still exceeds the TANF grant plus the disregard.

If the collection amount exceeds the TANF grant plus the disregard, the system:

- places the EDG on hold, pending denial;
- produces a notice reflecting automated action to the advisor and individual; and
- denies the EDG if the EDG is still on hold at cutoff in the hold effective month.

Examples

November – The OAG receives child support collections on TANF EDGs. At the end of the month, the OAG sends the collection information to HHSC. HHSC determines:

- whether the collection causes grant in jeopardy; and
- if there is an excess payment.

December – HHSC receives the collection information the first week of the month. TIERS compares the collection to the grant plus disregard. If it exceeds the grant plus disregard, TIERS:

- places the TANF EDG on hold effective January 1;
- produces a notice to the advisor;
- produces a notice to the individual; and
- sends the updated tape to the OAG at cutoff.

The OAG repeats the process shown in November for any December child support collections received.

January – The TANF EDG is on hold. In the first week of the month, the OAG sends:

- the disregard to the individual (from the December child support collection);
- any excess payment to the individual (from the December child support collection); and
- any January child support collections (as they are received) to the individual.

At cutoff, TIERS denies the case.

February – The OAG sends any collected child support to the individual.

C-860, Birth Verification System

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

All Programs

The Birth Verification System (BVS) is a system developed and maintained by the Department of State Health Services (DSHS). The BVS database includes birth records of people who were born in Texas.

Advisors access BVS as a source to verify age, relationship and citizenship. Perform a separate request for each individual.

C—861 Accessing BVS in TIERS

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

All Programs

BVS inquiry can only be performed when the TIERS case is in read/write mode. From the left navigation bar select Individual from Data Collections to access birth verification information. This displays the Individual Household page, which lists all household members. Click the Edit icon for the appropriate individual. This displays the Individual Information page.

A BVS icon appears on the Individual Information page, near the page title. The icon consists of a circle with the letters BV in it. Click the icon to display the page. TIERS displays the Birth Verification – Details page, displaying the initial demographic information for the individual, individual's first, middle and last name, gender, and date of birth. Select the Birth County (if available) and enter Mother's full Maiden Name (if available), then click the Submit button.

TIERS sends an online request to BVS. BVS conducts an online real-time verification of birth information and displays the information on the details page.

Note: TIERS does not display historical birth verification information. If staff make another BVS request for an individual, TIERS generates a new request to the BVS system.

C—861.1 BVS Field Entries and Descriptions

Revision 13-1; Effective January 1, 2013

All Programs

TIERS displays the Birth Verification – Details page, displaying the initial demographic information for the individual:

- child's last, first and middle name,
- date of birth, and
- gender.

Birth County — Select the birth county from the drop-down menu. Note: Although not a required field, entering the county code shortens the search.

Mother's Maiden Name (optional field) — Enter mother's full maiden name if available; this is an optional field. Do not enter a single letter, numerical value, spaces or special characters.

Once the BVS request is submitted, the request is transmitted to DSHS. DSHS returns the following response information when there is response from DSHS indicates a positive match:

- mother's maiden name,
- certificate no.,
- father's name, and
- birth county.

Status — This field displays one of the following responses to the request submitted.

Y = Match Found

M = Multiple Records Exist

N = No Match Found

F = Fraudulent Record

D = Individual is Deceased

S = Birth File Read Error

T = Invalid Date of Birth

X = Unknown Error. Call Help Desk

When a match is not received, staff must review entries for accuracy and resubmit the BVS request.

Message — The following exception messages are displayed when a response is not received and the request and response have caused some type of exception. This means there is an error with the system or the data. Call the HHSC Help Desk if problems persist at 512-438-4720.

Message Codes	Descriptions
20745	Unable to send MQ message. Please try again later and contact Help Desk if problem persists.
20732	Invalid data received in the response. Please try again later and contact Help Desk if problem persists.
20731	Response timed out. Please try again later and contact Help Desk if problem persists.
20730	An unexpected error has occurred. Please try again later and contact Help Desk if problem persists.

C—871 Wire Third-Party Query (WTPY)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

WTPY is an SSA automated system that verifies Social Security benefits, SSI, 40 quarters information and citizenship verification for Medicaid. WTPY is a Windows application. Staff obtain information by using the individual's name, SSN or Social Security claim number (SSCN) (not applicable for Medicaid citizenship verification), and DOB. If staff transmit the request by 2:30 p.m., the response is received the following business day. If staff transmit the request after 2:30 p.m., the response is delayed one additional day.

When an inquiry match occurs, the response provides all available benefit information. If the individual has entitlement under more than one SSCN, those SSCNs and benefits are identified. Staff may have to submit separate inquiries to obtain data related to those claims.

The WTPY system provides the following types of responses:

- Standard Response: individual name, DOB, verified SSN, and error messages regarding any discrepancies between inquiry and response match.
- Title II (Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance [RSDI]): individual demographics, enrollment in Medicare Part A and/or Part B, supplementary medical income benefits (SMIB) premium deduction, benefit amounts and dates, unearned income, disability onset dates, etc.
- Title XVI (SSI): individual demographics, Medicaid, SSI payment history, benefit amount, payment status code, and resource and earned income leads, etc.
- 40 Quarters: Use to verify quarters for legal permanent residents, their spouse or parents. Response provides employment history, coverage of quarters, and the type of income the individual has received during that period (wages, agricultural, self-employment, etc.). Note: Response time for this data is within two days of transmittal.
- Medicaid Citizenship Verification: Use to verify SSN and citizenship for Medicaid applicants. Response codes of A or C indicate citizenship is verified. However, response code C means there is an indication of death. If this response code is received, treat this as a report of change using policy in B-600, Changes. Response codes of B or D or any other error code indicate citizenship is not verified. If one of these responses is received, follow the steps outlined in A-351.2, Using State Online Query (SOLQ) or Wire Third-Party Query (WTPY) to Verify Citizenship.

C—872 Accessing Wire Third-Party Query (WTPY)

Revision 13-3; Effective July 1, 2013

All Programs

Supervisors complete Form 4743, Request for Applications and System Access, for employees who need access to the system. Staff must sign the WTPY User Information Security Agreement. Send both forms to the regional security officer. A user may access WTPY after hardware and software requirements are met and they have a password.

To access the system, staff:

1. Double click the LONG TERM CARE or WTPY icon or <http://portal.hhs.state.tx.us/wps/portal>. The sign-on screen appears.
2. Enter employee's username and password.
3. Click on LOGON or press ENTER.
4. Click on LOGOUT to close the WTPY system.

You must change your password every 90 days or the system automatically revokes your access. If this occurs, contact your regional security officer.

The WTPY Reference Guide provides details regarding menus, screen and data field references for all SSA response screens. Access the user guide via Training & Curriculum Eligibility Support's Reference Guides website at <https://oss.txhhs.state.tx.us/sites/eo/support/tdd/WTPY/Forms/WTPY%20Guides.aspx>.

C-920, Questionable Information

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Consider the individual's statements on the application or during the interview questionable if they:

- are contradictory;

(Example: The individual states he has had no income for several months, but his application shows $30 cash on hand.)

- do not agree with information in the case record;

(Example: The individual states he has no resources. An earlier application was denied because bank accounts and property were over the resource limits.)

- do not agree with other information the advisor has;

(Example: The individual provides paycheck stubs showing a 40-hour week in an industry such as construction that has frequent overtime.)

- do not adequately explain the household's circumstances; or

(Example: The individual states he has not paid rent or utilities for several months, but he has not been evicted or had his utilities cut off.)

- do not agree with information obtained from precertification activity, such as information retrieved from the Data Broker System's Employer New Hire Report (ENHR) or another automated source.

Note: The ENHR and other sources in Data Broker may list the corporate name and address instead of the local business name and address. Before denying an EDG, consider that the commonly known name of a business may be different from the corporate name.

Before taking adverse action, allow the individual an opportunity to resolve any discrepancy by providing documentary proof or designating a suitable collateral source.

After the initial application or redetermination interview, if the advisor obtains unverified information from a source other than the individual which contradicts the individual's statement, then the advisor may:

- allow the applicant an opportunity to resolve the discrepancy, or
- verify the information by directly contacting a collateral source.

Example: The individual states on the application and at the interview that the household has no income from wages. The advisor contacts the landlord to verify residence, and the landlord reports the applicant is working. The advisor may either contact the individual or the employer to verify the information.

Sources of verification are listed at the end of each applicable section in the Texas Works Handbook.

C-930, Providing Verification

C—931 Household Responsibility for Providing Verification

Revision 19-1; Effective January 1, 2019

All Programs

Households or the independent child's representative have the primary responsibility for providing documented or collateral evidence needed for proof of their circumstances. Households do not need to designate a collateral source if that source is named on the application form or during the interview or application processing. The advisor may assist the household in designating a collateral contact by suggesting a source that may be reliable.

If documented evidence is not available or not sufficient, the household must:

- designate an alternate source of verification; or
- permit a prescheduled home visit.

Exception: Law enforcement have the primary responsibility for providing verification that a person is a fleeing felon, a probation violator or a parole violator. Households are not responsible for providing proof of their fugitive status.

C—932 Advisor Responsibility for Verifying Information

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

When verifying information, follow these guidelines:

- Photocopy and send for imaging all paper documents a person provides as verification. If the household indicates that a document is verification for more than one case, send for imaging for each case.
- Do not reverify eligibility factors previously verified and not subject to change, if the previous verification is available in the electronic case record. (Examples: relationship, birth or citizenship proof, and deprivation due to death.)
- Do not request additional information or documentation from households unless such information is not available electronically or the information obtained electronically is not consistent with the information on the application.
- Do not ask a person to provide additional proof if:
 - verification is available through the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) inquiry, Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) inquiry, the Birth Verification System (BVS), Child Support inquiry, or other automated systems that are acceptable verification sources and accessible to staff, or if the person indicates that verification is readily available in the electronic case record; and
 - the information is sufficient to establish current eligibility.
- Do not verify income information by using 1-900 telephone numbers. Accessing these numbers results in a substantial charge ($2 - $20 per call) to the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC).
- Accept any reasonable evidence provided by the household whether it is provided in person, by mail, fax, other electronic device or via an authorized representative. Verification should be reliable and sufficient to prove a person's statement.
- Determine what types of verification are readily available to the household and request that verification first if it is anticipated to be sufficient proof. If preferred sources of verification are not readily available, alternate sources of proof must be accepted if they are reliable and provide sufficient proof. Sources of documentary proof and collateral sources are listed at the end of the applicable section of the Texas Works Handbook.

- Do not disclose any information the household provides when contacting a third party for verification. Do not disclose that the household has applied for any specific program or suggest the household is suspected of any wrong doing.

Note: If the collateral source asks why the information is necessary, inform the collateral source that HHSC is required to verify eligibility for assistance. If the collateral source asks for specific information regarding the person, inform the collateral source of the person's confidentiality rights.

- Evaluate the documented evidence or collateral source the household provides and determine if it is reliable and sufficient to determine eligibility and benefit amount. If a source of verification is unreliable:
 - designate another collateral source;
 - ask the household to designate another collateral source; or
 - schedule a home visit. Do not conduct a home visit solely because the household meets error-prone criteria.

Note: HHSC may also designate a collateral source if the person fails to provide one.

- Contact the designated collateral source unless the person claims it will result in negative consequences, such as eviction or loss of job.
- Offer reasonable assistance in obtaining verification if the person has difficulty in obtaining the required verification. Also, offer assistance if discrepancies exist in the documentary information the person provides or if they request assistance in clearing the discrepant information.
- Accept collateral sources or documents from the household that are reliable and provide sufficient proof. Do not deny or delay benefits if this requirement is met, or if:
 - a collateral source refuses to provide verification; and
 - there is no reasonable alternate verification available.
- There may be unusual circumstances in which a person's statement must be accepted as proof if:
 - there is a reasonable explanation why documentary evidence or a collateral source is not available; and
 - the person's statement does not contradict other statements or other information received by staff.

Exception: For verification of relationship, follow procedures in A-522, Legal Parent-Child Relationship, and A-540, Documentation Requirements.

- If a person can cooperate but clearly indicates orally or in writing that they refuse to take action necessary to complete the certification process, deny the EDG. This also applies to evaluations such as audits, quality control or investigations. See A-1324.18, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), for action required on a SNAP EDG when the associated TANF EDG is denied due to any of these reasons.
- Have the person sign Form H0003, Agreement to Release Your Facts, for collateral sources that will not release information without the person's written consent.

Note: Do not request signatures on blank forms for future use.
- For people born in Puerto Rico, HHSC can submit a birth verification request by mail, fax or email to the Department of Healthcare Demographic Registry Office of Puerto Rico. Include in the request the person's name as it appears on the birth certificate (including both last names if more than one last name), the person's date of birth and place of birth.

To submit a request by:

- email, send the request to Registrodemografico@salud.gov.pr. In the request, indicate the government email address to which the response should be sent.
- fax, make the request on official letterhead and fax it to the attention of Validation Office at 787-767-8605 or 787-766-1299. Indicate in the fax the government fax number to which the response should be sent.
- regular mail, make the request on official letterhead and mail it to the attention of Validation Office, Demographic Registry Office of Puerto Rico, Department of Health, P.O. Box 11854, San Juan, Puerto Rico 00910. Indicate in the letter the full mailing address to which the response should be sent.

Within two business days, the Registry Office will verify the person's submitted demographic information or will advise that the submitted information is inconsistent with the information in the Registry Office.

Document collateral sources that are designated orally by the individual or by HHSC.

Exception: Do not pend for, or attempt to obtain, the verification of fugitive status for fleeing felons or probation or parole violators from the household. Law enforcement provides verification of fugitive status to HHSC when they are actively seeking to apprehend people.

Medical Programs except Emergency Medicaid

Assist a person in obtaining documentary evidence of citizenship. Identify if they cannot to provide documentary evidence of citizenship in a timely manner because of incapacity of mind or body or the lack of a representative to assist. Assisting a person consists of referrals to appropriate entities that can help them. Document in TIERS Data Collection and in Case Comments information to support all decisions about eligibility and allotment, whether at application, change, or redetermination. Documentation must be sufficient so that anyone can understand all computations and advisor decisions, including denials.

Always include the following:

- mandatory verifications;
- why information is questionable;
- how questionable information is cleared;
- why alternate methods are used rather than standard methods;
- why one collateral contact was rejected in preference for another;
- name, address, and/or telephone number for all collateral contacts; and
- documentation in the Agency Use Only section of the application or redetermination forms or change report form for address changes regarding voter registration actions provided to the individual.

Document contacts between redeterminations that may affect eligibility or benefit amount. Note: Documentation requirements are listed at the end in the applicable section in the Texas Works Handbook.

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP and Medicaid

When processing an IEVS match, OIG staff may review case data in Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) and the TIERS Historical Case Report (THCR) to determine application entries, interview responses, other eligibility factors and benefits issuance details and history.

OIG staff research the complete action that occurred before the relevant IEVS income date(s). If the information associated with the match is not found for the period in question in the most recent eligibility action, OIG staff review all actions from the period in question through the current action.

OIG staff may:

- review Data Broker for sources of income by checking Texas Workforce Commission (TWC) Wage Detail, Unemployment Insurance Benefits (UIB) and the Employer New Hire Report (ENHR);
- review other available sources of income information; and
- document findings on the worksheet in the ASOIG IEVS module.

C—1013 Request Verification

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP and Medicaid

OIG Benefits Program Integrity (BPI) staff request verification if the IEVS Match information on wages:

- was not reported or budgeted correctly in TIERS; or
- was budgeted in the case but the IEVS Match discrepancy amount for an individual employer is more than $300 per month or household income exceeds 130% of the federal poverty level (FPL).

In these situations, verification is required to determine if the income is ongoing and affects current benefits, the income causes an overpayment or both.

OIG BPI staff obtain verification by:

- calling the employer;
- accessing Data Broker; or
- sending an OIG verification letter to the individual and payer.

OIG staff allow at least 10 days from the print date of the letter for the person or payer to provide verification. The request for verification letter informs the recipient that the information is needed because OIG is reviewing the case to determine if benefits were issued correctly.

C—1014 OIG IEVS Income Action Messages

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP and Medical Programs (Except TP 40, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48)

OIG staff may create an income action message in the ASOIG IEVS module for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program and Medicaid programs, except for TP 40, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48. The income action message alerts interview staff that more action may be necessary because available information indicates that income is ongoing or resources exist that may affect current eligibility or benefits.

OIG staff summarize findings in the comment section of the income action message. Customer Care Center (CCC) staff view detailed information regarding the income from the automated IEVS match worksheet within ASOIG.

There are three different types of action or information messages that OIG may create in the ASOIG IEVS module.

OIG creates a(n)...	When...
Income Action Message Note: Action messages created based on IRS FTI are limited to those matches with a source listed as "Self" or "Earn."	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> verifying whether a matched person's ongoing income affects current eligibility or benefits for the household; or the matched person fails to provide verification of ongoing income. (OIG creates an overpayment referral for the time period listed on the IEVS match if the worksheet indicates that resources affect prior eligibility.)
Resource Action Message	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> verifying whether a matched person's resource affects current eligibility or benefits for the household (OIG completes overpayment referral, if appropriate); or the matched person fails to provide verification of existing or ongoing resources. (OIG creates an overpayment referral for the time period listed on the IEVS worksheet if the matched resources affect prior eligibility.)
Resource Information Message	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> the matched person's resource is ongoing and is under limit or inaccessible; the matched person's resource is ongoing, the TIERS case status as of the review date is ongoing denied; or the matched person did not provide verification to OIG and TIERS case status as of the review date indicates ongoing denied.

OIG staff summarize findings in the TW Comments section of the IEVS worksheet. View detailed information regarding the person's income, resources or both on the IEVS worksheet in the ASOIG IEVS module.

C—1022 OIG IEVS Action Message Clearance Process

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP and TP 08

Designated CCC staff conduct a daily review of the "MATCH TW Alert Details" in the ASOIG IEVS module and assign HHSC IEVS staff to review and take steps to clear each action message.

HHSC IEVS staff create a task to clear the action message for cases in TIERS within two business days of receiving the message. If these tasks are assigned to specific units, the unit supervisor or a designee (such as a clerk) assigns the task to the appropriate staff by the next business day following receipt. Staff must complete the change within 10 days after the date it is assigned. The date of assignment is day zero.

When an IEVS MATCH TW action message is generated based on IRS FTI, the action or resource message will be on a screen clearly labeled with an FTI warning. All information in the IEVS module containing FTI (such as payer name, account number or pay amounts) is considered IRS FTI. If staff print IEVS module worksheets, they must secure them according to IRS safeguard requirements.

Each worksheet with a message from OIG BPI will indicate the type of action required. OIG BPI staff process action messages if the household did not provide accurate information during the interview or application processing, or if the increase in income identified via IEVS caused the household income to exceed 130% Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for SNAP streamlined reporting (SR) households.

Upon receipt of an action message, HHSC IEVS staff must take the following action to clear the message based on the reason the message was issued.

If the ...	then HHSC IEVS staff ...
verification provided to OIG BPI indicates income affects current eligibility,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • send manual Form H1017, Notice of Benefit Denial or Reduction, to deny or reduce the benefits based on income or resources. If staff do not receive verification from OIG, then document that OIG has the verification. Copies of verification received by OIG may be provided to Texas Works staff upon request. • provide advance notice and process the denial or adjustment after the adverse action period expires.
person fails to provide verification to OIG BPI,	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • send a manual Form H1017 to deny the benefits for failure to provide the information. Note: A manual notice and denial is required because TIERS will not allow a denial for failure to provide information without previously issuing Form H1020, Request for Information or Action. • for Non-FTI Alerts: In the comments section, document the information the person failed to provide and what the person can do to re-establish eligibility as specified in the Form H1017 instructions. If the person fails to provide the requested information within the adverse action time frame, process the denial for failure to provide information. • for FTI Alerts: In the comments section, document the following message: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ "You failed to provide information to the Office of Inspector General. Contact [OIG investigator's name] at [investigator's phone number] if you have questions. You may reapply for benefits and will be required to provide the information previously requested." ◦ "Usted no presentó información a la Fiscalía General. Si tiene alguna pregunta, comuníquese con [OIG investigator's name] al [investigator's phone number]. Puede volver a solicitar beneficios, pero tendrá que presentar la información que se le pidió anteriormente." • if the person fails to provide the requested information within the adverse action time frame, manually process the denial for failure to provide information. Note: A manual notice and denial is required because TIERS will not allow a denial for failure to provide information without previously issuing Form H1020. • if verification is provided within the adverse action time frame, send an email to the OIG investigator notifying the investigator about receipt of the information and include a copy of the verification. Take action on the case based on the verification provided.

Notes:

- The investigator's name and phone number are listed on the automated worksheet in the IEVS module.
- If HHSC IEVS staff do not provide the case record within 10 days or upon OIG BPI request, OIG BPI staff will contact the regional director.

Additional Information Regarding IRS FTI MATCH TW Action Messages

If HHSC IEVS determines that the person does not have the resource or income for which OIG requested information, staff must request verification of the information (including IRS FTI) using a manual Form H1020, Request for Information or Action. If attaching a verification form, such as a bank verification form or Form H1028, Employment Verification, do not include any IRS FTI on the verification form. File the manual Form H1020 in the case record and secure the case according to the IRS safeguarding requirements, because the case record now contains IRS FTI.

When the person provides the information requested on the verification form, the information on the verification form is no longer considered IRS FTI. The file copy of Form H1020 remains IRS FTI and must be kept in the case record for the duration of the retention period.

When requesting more information that does not contain IRS FTI, staff may issue a second Form H1020 through TIERS or request the information on a manual Form H1020.

Note: If HHSC IEVS staff complete a manual Form H1020 because the only required verification is IRS FTI, TIERS will not allow a denial based on failure to provide verification, since Form H1020 was not generated via TIERS. Staff may generate Form H1020 indicating a manual Form H1020 was provided to the person. Do not provide the notice generated from TIERS to the person. Document the reason for generating an electronic pending notice in the case comments and reference the manual Form H1020 that was issued.

If the person fails to provide the information, issue a manual Form H1017 to deny the case for failure to provide information.

If a person reapplies after being denied for failure to provide information to OIG, interview staff must obtain the verification requested by OIG before recertifying the case. If the person indicates the verification was provided to OIG, contact the OIG investigator.

Exception: If the person can reasonably explain why the requested information cannot be obtained or provided, use the best available information.

Note: For FTI-related information, if the person self-discloses the information on the application that was observed through an IEVS FTI action message, the information is no longer considered IRS FTI.

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP and TP 08

If staff receive a request for an appeal based on action taken by:

- OIG, contact the OIG via the Benefits Program Integrity (BPI) mailbox on the same day the request is received.
- Eligibility staff as a result of an action message, file the appeal. Complete Form H4800, Fair Hearing Request Summary, and Form H4800-A, Fair Hearing Request Summary (Addendum). On Form H4800-A, Section 2, Materials Attached, indicate under Other Related Materials, that action messages generated by OIG need to be considered in the appeal. Enter the OIG Investigator's name and phone number on Form H4800, indicating the OIG investigator as potential resource witness.

If OIG receives a request for an appeal based on action taken by eligibility staff, OIG will notify the Central Representation Unit (CRU) the same day. CRU will coordinate with the eligibility staff person who took the action based on the action message. If the appeal is related to an IRS FTI match, OIG may assist by providing more information to the hearing officer according to IRS requirements for safeguarding FTI.

C—1026 HHSC IEVS Information Message Review Process

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP and TP 08

At the region's discretion, staff may contact HHSC IEVS staff to review the messages in the IEVS module before certification of benefits. Information messages serve as a case clue to eligibility staff to identify potential resources not reported by the person applying for benefits.

When a MATCH TW Message is generated based on IRS FTI, the action or resource message will be on a screen clearly labeled with an FTI warning. When based on an FTI match, consider all associated information on the IEVS module such as payer name, account number and pay amounts, as IRS FTI. While eligibility staff are not prohibited from printing IEVS module worksheets with MATCH TW Messages, staff must secure these worksheets per safeguarding requirements.

Revision 21-4; Effective October 1, 2021

TANF, SNAP and TP 08

Staff review information in each case record to identify any IRS FTI as cases come up for recertification or review. Examples of IRS FTI include, but are not limited to, hard copies of old IEVS alerts, copies of the manual Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, and notices requesting verification of IRS FTI. If IRS FTI is in the case record, staff must evaluate if the retention periods are met. If information can be destroyed, complete Form H1861, Federal Tax Information Record Keeping and Destruction Log, before destroying the information according to appropriate FTI safeguard standards. If the information must remain in the case record to support documentation or verification, secure the case record in a two-barrier secure environment until it is okay to purge the case. Regions may elect to separate IRS FTI and place it in a secure centralized location. If the local office does not file the IRS FTI in the case record, note in the case record that IRS FTI exists and is in the centralized location.

C—1113 Qualified Hospital/Qualified Entity Policy and Procedures for Presumptive Eligibility Determinations

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

TA 66, TA 74, TA 75, TA 76, TA 83, TA 86 and TP 42

Presumptive eligibility \(PE\) provides short-term medical coverage to pregnant women, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer (MBCC) applicants, children under age 19, parents and caretaker relatives of dependent children under age 19, and former foster care children. PE provides full fee-for-service Medicaid with the exception of pregnant women. Pregnant women receive ambulatory prenatal care only.

Qualified hospitals \(QHs\) determine PE for all groups except MBCC.

Qualified entities \(QEs\) determine PE for pregnant women and MBCC applicants. For MBCC applicants, only QEs that are also Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) Breast and Cervical Cancer Services contractors can make MBCC PE determinations, following the process outlined in X-100, Application Processing.

C—1113.1 Eligible Groups

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

The following groups can receive presumptive eligibility coverage:

- Children:
 1. MA-Children Under 1 Presumptive — TA 74
 2. MA-Children 1–5 Presumptive — TA 75
 3. MA-Children 6–18 Presumptive — TA 76
- Former Foster Care Children (MA-FFCC Presumptive —TA 83)
- Pregnant Women (MA-Pregnant Women Presumptive — TP 42)
- Parents and Other Caretaker Relatives (MA-Parents and Caretaker Relatives Presumptive — TA 86)

C—1113.2 Household Composition

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

The QH/QE uses the non-taxpayer/non-tax dependent rules to determine the household composition.

C—1113.3 Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) Methodology

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The QH/QE uses a simplified MAGI methodology to determine if an individual meets the income requirements for PE. The income limits for each PE type of assistance are the same as the income limits for the associated regular Medicaid type of assistance. For example, MA-Children Under 1 Presumptive has the same income limit as MA-Children Under 1.

C—1113.4 Verifications

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

The individual must attest to being:

- a Texas resident, and
- a United States citizen or an eligible immigrant.

For all other PE criteria, the individual's statement is acceptable verification. Additional forms of verification beyond an individual's statement are not required.

C—1113.5 Medical Effective Dates

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The medical effective date (MED) is the date the QH or QE determines the individual is presumptively eligible for Medicaid. If the individual is presumptively eligible, QH/QE staff give the individual Form H1266, Short-term Medicaid Notice: Approved. It informs the individual when the PE coverage begins and when the PE coverage ends, based on whether the individual applies for regular Medicaid.

Note: An individual is not eligible for PE if they are currently receiving Medicaid, Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) or CHIP perinatal.

If the individual does not apply for regular Medicaid, the PE coverage ends the last day of the month after the month of the PE determination (see scenario 1 below).

If the individual submits Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application, or Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits, HHSC staff determine whether the individual is eligible for regular Medicaid. If the individual is not eligible for regular Medicaid, the individual's PE coverage ends the date that HHSC determines the individual is ineligible (see scenario 2 below). If the individual is eligible for regular Medicaid, the individual's PE coverage ends when HHSC makes the Medicaid eligibility determination, following cutoff rules.

If an individual is Medicaid-eligible during the application month, the individual receives Medicaid from the first of that month through the PE MED. Regular Medicaid coverage for the ongoing period begins once the PE period ends (see scenarios 3 and 4 below).

Exception: Since PE for pregnant women provides only limited prenatal services, ongoing Medicaid coverage overlays the PE coverage (see scenario 5 below).

Examples:

PE Scenarios

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1. Individual does not apply for regular Medicaid | A child is determined eligible for MA-Children 6–18 Presumptive on February 2. Her mother does not submit an application for regular Medicaid. The child's PE coverage ends on March 31. |
| 2. Individual is ineligible for regular Medicaid | A child is determined eligible for MA-Children Under 1 Presumptive on April 4. Her father submits an application for regular Medicaid on the same date. HHSC determines on April 20 that the child is not eligible for regular Medicaid. Her PE coverage ends on April 20. |
| 3. Individual is eligible for regular Medicaid (HHSC makes eligibility determination before cutoff) | A child is determined eligible for MA-Children 1–5 Presumptive on March 6. His mother submits an application for regular Medicaid on the same date. HHSC determines on March 15 (before cutoff) that the child is eligible for regular Medicaid. His PE coverage ends March 31. He is certified for regular Medicaid effective March 1 to March 5 and April 1 through ongoing. |
| 4. Individual is eligible for regular Medicaid (HHSC makes eligibility determination after cutoff) | A former foster care child is determined eligible for MA-FFCC Presumptive on May 9. He submits an application for regular Medicaid on the same date. HHSC determines on May 22 (after cutoff) that the individual is eligible for regular Medicaid. His PE coverage ends June 30. He is certified for regular Medicaid effective May 1 to May 8 and July 1 through ongoing. |
| 5. Pregnant woman is eligible for regular Medicaid | A woman is determined eligible for MA-Pregnant Women Presumptive on June 4. She submits an application for regular Medicaid on the same date. HHSC determines on June 10 that the woman is eligible for regular Medicaid. Her PE coverage ends on June 30. Regular Medicaid overlays her PE coverage with an effective date of June 1. |

C—1113.6 Periods of Presumptive Eligibility

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Pregnant women are allowed one PE period per pregnancy.

For all other PE groups, an individual is allowed no more than one period of PE per two calendar years. Example: An individual receives MA-Children 6–18 Presumptive in June 2015. He cannot receive another period of PE until January 2017.

C—1113.7 Three Months Prior Coverage

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Three months prior coverage does not apply to presumptive eligibility. Eligibility for three months prior Medicaid coverage is determined when HHSC eligibility staff make a regular Medicaid determination, if requested.

C—1113.8 Application Processing

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

QH/QE staff first must perform a PE portal inquiry to find out if an individual is currently receiving Medicaid, CHIP or CHIP perinatal or if the applicant has received a period of PE within the PE period limit.

QH/QE staff make the PE determination based on information the individual provides about citizenship/immigration status, Texas residency, income and household composition. To determine whether the individual is presumptively eligible, QH/QE staff fill out Form

H1265, Presumptive Eligibility (PE) Worksheet, using the information the individual provides.

If the individual is presumptively eligible, QH/QE staff do the following:

- Enter the individual's demographic information and the PE type of assistance for which the individual is eligible into the PE portal. QH/QE staff use the PE portal to conduct limited inquiries and submit PE determinations.
- Give the individual Form H1266, Short-term Medicaid Notice: Approved. QH/QE staff also help the individual complete and submit the regular Medicaid application via YourTexasBenefits.com if the individual wants to apply. Note: An individual is not required to submit a regular Medicaid application to receive PE Medicaid.

If the individual is not eligible for PE, QH/QE staff issue Form H1267, Short-term Medicaid Notice: Not Approved, to the individual and tell the individual about the right to apply for regular Medicaid.

C—1113.9 Due Dates and Processing Time Frames

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Within one business day of the PE determination, the QH/QE must submit the PE determination to HHSC through the PE portal.

C—1113.10 How to Become a Qualified Hospital or Qualified Entity

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Hospitals or entities that want to become qualified to make PE determinations must (1) submit to HHSC a notice of intent, (2) sign a Memorandum of Understanding, and (3) complete online training at the PE website at www.TexasPresumptiveEligibility.com.

C—1113.11 Presumptive Eligibility Forms

Revision 15-3; Effective July 1, 2015

Qualified hospital/qualified entity staff use the following forms in the presumptive eligibility process:

- Form H1265, Presumptive Eligibility (PE) Worksheet—Completed by the QH/QE and used to determine if an applicant is presumptively eligible.
- Form H1266, Short-term Medicaid Notice: Approved—Completed by the QH/QE and given to an individual determined presumptively eligible. This form notifies the individual about PE coverage and lists the eligibility start date and end date, which is based on whether the individual submits an application for regular Medicaid. If an individual needs proof of Medicaid coverage before receiving their Medicaid identification card, the individual can present this form in an HHSC local eligibility determination office, and HHSC staff will provide the individual with Form H1027-A, Medicaid Eligibility Determination.
- Form H1267, Short-term Medicaid Notice: Not Approved— Completed by the QH/QE and given to an individual determined ineligible for PE coverage. This form explains the reason for ineligibility and how to apply for regular Medicaid.

Steps to Education

Essential Information About Medicaid Health Plans (Managed Care)

1. Explain Managed Care and Primary Care Provider. "Let me tell you a little about the STAR and STAR Kids program. The STAR and STAR Kids program are Texas Medicaid Managed Care programs. Managed care means that you will receive your Medicaid services through a health plan. You only have 30 days from the date you are certified to select a health plan and a primary care provider. The primary care provider can be a doctor, specially trained nurse, clinic or health center. If you don't choose, the STAR or STAR Kids program will pick a health plan and primary care provider for you. The primary care provider is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week to coordinate care for you and your child/children. Have you received an enrollment packet? This is a large white envelope with the different health plan booklets, enrollment form and instructions. Have you already enrolled? If not, I can tell you how to enroll (or change plan if they have been defaulted)." If the person has not yet enrolled, refer the person to the enrollment hotline 800-964-2777.
2. Explain about primary care providers and emergency rooms. "Your child's primary care provider is the one you contact first when your child/children needs/need any kind of medical health care. Unless it is an emergency, you should contact your primary care provider before you take your child to the emergency room. An emergency would be a problem or condition, including severe pain that is so serious that waiting for routine care might result in serious harm. In an emergency, you may not have time to contact the primary care provider, in that case, call 9-1-1 or take your child to the nearest emergency room."
3. Explain referrals: "Referrals to specialists for STAR and STAR Kids recipients must be obtained through the primary care provider. However, families do not need a referral for the following services: family planning, eye exams and glasses, behavioral health and Texas Health Steps medical/dental checkups. The primary care provider will refer your child/children to specialists or hospitals when needed."

4. Texas Health Steps Preventive checkups: "Recipients through age 20 are eligible for preventive medical and dental check-ups through Texas Health Steps."
5. Explain the recipients will receive a Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card. "After the recipient is enrolled in the STAR or STAR Kids program, a Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card will be mailed. The recipient will also receive a member ID card from the plan."
6. STAR and STAR KIDS "Recipients can change their primary care provider up to four times a year. They can have unlimited changes in their health plan (however, there are time restrictions – each health plan change can take 15-45 days). Call the STAR helpline to change the health plan and call the health plan directly to request a primary care provider change."
7. Pregnant Women: If applicable, expand education to include TP40 (pregnant women) information. Ask, "Are you currently seeing a provider for your prenatal care?" Pregnant women must choose a plan and primary care provider within 15 days from their Medicaid certification. The enrollment will take effect as soon as the recipient is found eligible for Medicaid. All efforts will be made to expedite the enrollment. If that is not possible, the enrollment will be effective within 15-45 days. Remind the recipient the importance of selecting a plan for herself and the baby since the recipient will not be able to change the baby's plan until the baby is three months old. After the baby is born, the recipient should call the plan to pick a primary care provider for the baby. Explain when the STAR program is effective for pregnant women. If the pregnant woman's managed care enrollment is certified before the 10th of the month, the enrollment is effective the first day of the certification month. If the pregnant woman's managed care enrollment is certified after the 10th of the month, the enrollment is effective the first day of the month following the certification date.

Note for Pregnant Women: If a pregnant woman has 12 weeks or less remaining in her pregnancy (third trimester), she may choose to remain with her current OB/GYN for the remainder of her pregnancy, delivery, and postpartum checkup, even if the OB/GYN does not participate with the chosen health plan.

8. Medicaid Program Knowledge

- "Medicaid pays for you or your child's care when they go to the doctor, if they are in the hospital, if they go to the dentist and if they go to a specialist. It will also pay for prescriptions, vaccines, transportation to any Medicaid covered service, and for behavioral health services. It also pays for Texas Health Steps preventive medical and dental checkups for children through age 20."
- "Medicaid pays only providers like doctors, dentists, specialists and hospitals. You should not receive any bills. However, if you receive a bill don't pay it. First call the provider and find out why they did not send the bill to Medicaid. Make sure your provider has the Medicaid ID number needed for billing." If the recipient is on STAR or STAR Kids direct them to call their health plan. If they are on fee for service direct them to call the number on the back of the Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card for billing questions 800-252-8263.

Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID Card-Process

- Ask the family if they have received their new Your Texas Benefits Medicaid Id card. If not, explain the new card they will receive is good for as long as they are on Medicaid. Describe the Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card.
- Inform the family that their STAR or STAR Kids health plan should be listed on the Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card.
- Remind the family to take the Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card to the doctor, dentist, pharmacy or every time they obtain a Medicaid service.
- Explain to the family if they do not receive their Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card in the next couple of weeks, they should contact their local HHSC office to confirm eligibility. Once eligibility is confirmed, they can contact the Your Texas Benefits Medicaid ID card Help Desk at 855-827-3748 to check the status of the card order. Inform them they can also print a copy of their card from the YourTexasBenefits.com website while they wait on their permanent card.

Maintaining Eligibility

- "Follow up with any paper work you receive from the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (also called HHSC). HHSC reviews your case from time to time, usually every 12 months, and so it is very important to complete the paperwork to keep your child/children on Medicaid."
- "It is a requirement to receive your health care orientation (we are providing that right now) and for your children to receive their Texas Health Steps preventive checkups to avoid having to go to the office for a face-to-face interview or to be required to return follow-up information at your redetermination."

Texas Health Steps Program Knowledge

If the parent or caretaker is being interviewed and it is for an initial certification including a reapplication after a break in benefits of 60 days or more, the advisor is responsible for initial Texas Health Steps informing, even if the household does not require a Health Care Orientation.

Refer to the Texas Health Steps Desk Reference for the information that must be covered during the Health Care Orientation or when the parent or caretaker must receive just the initial Texas Health Steps informing.

Refer to the Texas Health Steps Program Desk Reference to educate parents and caretakers about when a child's Texas Health Steps medical and dental* checkups are due and issues a health care provider may address during a Texas Health Steps medical or dental checkup. The health care provider will address specific issues for each age and each child.

* Emergency dental services are available at any age and do not require a check on ID.

Texas Health Steps Desk Reference

- If the information is being provided in person, give the family a:
 - "Checkups Help Children Stay Healthy!" wallet card
 - "Don't Miss a Beat" brochure
 - "Keep Your Child's Checkups in Check" brochure
- Advise the family to contact the Texas Health Steps helpline if they would like a medical or dental provider list mailed to them or if they would like immediate assistance: 877-847-8377, available 8 a.m. – 6 p.m. Central Time, Monday – Friday.

Case Management for Children and Pregnant Women

- Case Management for Children and Pregnant Women is a Medicaid benefit. Case managers help families get medical services, school services, medical equipment and supplies, and other services that are medically necessary.
- Case managers can help children and young adults age 20 and younger who have a health condition or health risk who are covered by Medicaid. They also can help women of any age with a high risk pregnancy. The person or family must need help getting services or they must be having trouble finding or connecting with the services that they need related to their health condition or health risk. The family must want the case management services.
- Case managers are either licensed social workers or registered nurses and are trained to help get families the services that they have trouble finding on their own.
- The case manager will meet with the person approved for Medicaid, the person's parent or guardian. They will do a full assessment to find out all of the needs a family might have related to the health condition. Then the case manager and family will make a service plan that addresses all the needs.
- Anyone can refer someone for case management services by calling the Texas Health Steps helpline toll-free at 877-847-8377, 8 a.m. – 6 p.m. Central Time, Monday - Friday.

Medical Transportation Program (MTP)

- The Medical Transportation Program provides non-emergency medical transportation (NEMT) services.
- Explain the Medical Transportation Program is available for all Medicaid-covered health care services to those with full Medicaid (not Qualified Medicare Beneficiary [QMB] or Specified Low-Income Medicare Beneficiary [SLMB]), Children with Special Health Care Needs (CSHCN), and Transportation for Indigent Cancer Patients (TICP), who do not have any other means of transportation.
- "Call at least two business days before the appointment in the same county or adjacent county and five business days before an appointment outside the county adjacent to your residence and be prepared to provide your:
 - name;
 - Medicaid ID number;
 - address;
 - phone number;
 - doctor's name and address;
 - doctor's phone number;
 - date; and
 - time of appointment."

- If you don't have a car and you don't have anyone else to drive you, the Medical Transportation Program will help. This may be by bus tickets or by van.
- If you have a car, or know someone who can drive you to the appointment, the Medical Transportation Program can pay you or your driver gas reimbursement by the mile.

Yes		Allow advance notice of adverse action and deny only the EDG for which Form H1025 was received. Do not deny associated EDGs. (See A-2343 , Advance Notice.) Call the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) helpdesk before disposing the denied EDG to ensure only the appropriate EDG is denied.
Refusal to Cooperate ¹		Notes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Refusal to cooperate with QC does not affect Medicaid. • The Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) denial cannot cause SNAP benefits to increase. Not reviewed (reason):		When the EDG is denied for any other reason before the time Form H1025 is received (for example, the person failed to return pending information and the EDG is denied effective Sept. 30, the QC review month was September, and Form H1025 is received in October), continue to send Form TF0001 to the household notifying them of the penalty for refusal to cooperate with the QC review..
No		Analyze any information provided by QC and adjust the EDG, if necessary.
Failure to Cooperate ³

Notes:

¹ Refusal to cooperate indicates the person has refused to cooperate with the QC review process by refusing to provide information or refusing to be interviewed.

2 The penalty period always expires 125 days after the reporting period. The reporting period ends Sept. 30 each year. The penalty period for federal fiscal year (FFY) is October through September of the following year. QC refusal to cooperate penalties expire Feb. 2, 20YY.

Example: The person's sample month is October 2019. The person refuses to cooperate and is penalized. The penalty period expires Feb. 2, 2021 (125 days after Sept. 30, 2020).

3 Failure to cooperate indicates the person has provided all the information and cooperated with the QC review process; however, the QC analyst is unable to complete the review due to an aspect beyond the person's control (for example, the employer or landlord refused to provide information).

C—1455 Frequently Asked Questions

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All Programs

1. Q: What is the difference between refusal to cooperate and failure to cooperate?

"Refusal to cooperate" is a QC response used when the person has refused to cooperate with the QC review process, by refusing to provide information or refusing to be interviewed. "Failure to cooperate" is used when the person has provided all the information and cooperated with the QC review process. However, QC is unable to complete the review because of something beyond the person's control. For example, the person's employer or landlord refused to provide information. A penalty is incurred when the person refuses to cooperate. A penalty is not incurred for failure to cooperate.

2. Q: How do I know if a penalty has been imposed on a case?

The Data Broker Combined Report displays active QC penalties, including the name and phone number of the QC contact designated by QC State Office.

Additionally, QC maintains a list of sampled cases with imposed penalties. The list can be viewed from the Eligibility Services portal to view the list

- Enter your user name and password.
- Select Report Manager.
- Select QCDW/Case Review List in the Select Report Group.
- Select the appropriate Drop Case List Report.
- Enter the criteria for the report.

- 3. Q: Are staff required to send Form TF0001 with the appropriate penalty wording for people who are no longer receiving benefits by the time Form H1025, Report of Quality Control Assessment Findings, is received? Example: The EDG is denied in March 2020, and staff receive Form H1025 information June 2020. The person is not receiving benefits when Form H1025 is received. The penalty period expires Feb. 2, 2021.

Yes. The person must be notified of the penalty period. Form TF0001 must advise the person that the person cannot receive benefits through Feb. 2, 2021, or until the person cooperates with the QC analyst, whichever is earlier as noted in #3 above.

- 4. Q: Does the penalty period ever change? If so, how does it change?

The penalty period is always 125 days after the reporting period ends. The reporting period ends each federal fiscal year on Sept. 30. One hundred twenty-five days from Sept. 30 is Feb. 2. These are for the prior federal fiscal year.

- 5. Q: Do we deny the entire EDG or just the person listed on Form H1025?

Deny the entire EDG reviewed by QC. Note: When denying a TANF EDG for refusal to cooperate, the associated SNAP benefits should not be increased (the TANF grant should not be removed from the budget) as the person failed to cooperate with a QC review (see A-1324.18, Temporary Assistance for Needy Families [TANF]).

- 6. Q: Can the person appeal the denial of the EDG when it has been denied for refusal to cooperate?

Yes, the decision may be appealed. (Refer to B-1000, Fair Hearings.)

TANF

- 1. Q: Is the person entitled to restored benefits when QC discovers an underpayment?

When the household is currently eligible for and receiving TANF, then the answer is yes. (See B-810, Entitlement to Restored Benefits.)

- 2. Q: What happens when we restore benefits and the person has an overpayment claim filed?

The restored benefits must be used to offset the claim first. (See B-810.)

SNAP

- 1. Q: Is the person entitled to restored benefits when QC discovers an underissuance?

When the QC error was caused by the agency, then the answer is yes. When the QC error was caused by the person due to unreported changes or other personal errors, no, they are not entitled to restored benefits. (See B-840, Notice to the Household.)

- 2. Q: What happens when we restore benefits and the person has an overissuance claim filed?

The restored benefits must be used to offset the claim first. (See B-810.)

C—1470 Eligibility Environments

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

All Programs

Texas Works serves applicants and recipients in Texas through a variety of eligibility environments. The following is a brief summary of each type.

Local eligibility offices: HHSC staff conduct business in a face-to-face environment with people seeking information or applying for health and human services programs. Interviewing tasks are performed at the local eligibility office either in person or by telephone.

The eligibility staff in local offices provide information and application assistance, receive applications, perform Data Broker and other third-party inquiries, collect data, assess missing information, determine eligibility, issue benefits, and perform other tasks associated with eligibility services operations. Work is processed by eligibility staff in local offices in TIERS. Individuals are assigned to specific offices and a single eligibility worker processes an EDG until it is disposed as approved or denied.

Eligibility staff in a local office process multiple types of assistance: SNAP, Medicaid, CHIP, and TANF. Eligibility staff in the offices work all types of EDGs/cases; however, some offices may have specialized staff based on workload. Clerical staff handle front desk and lobby-area tasks, telephones, mail, faxes, scheduling and other support duties.

Vendor staff creates and routes tasks for applications received via mail or fax to staff in the local eligibility offices or changes received via telephone, mail or fax to staff in the Customer Care Centers (CCCs). The vendor may register a new application or reschedule an appointment, then route the interviewing tasks to local eligibility offices. Applications, redeterminations and changes submitted online through YourTexasBenefits.com are routed to the appropriate areas by the State Portal.

Centralized units: These units are able to specialize in certain programs or tasks and conduct eligibility work through the mail and by telephone without face-to-face contact. The centralized units help balance the workload of local eligibility offices. In a centralized unit, tasks are assigned based on due dates. Centralized functions have centralized mail, centralized telephone systems and do not require lobby space as eligibility offices do. Centers also have staff to answer telephones and provide status information, in addition to the staff working the cases.

C—1471 Specialized and Centralized Casework Units

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

The following chart details various specialized and centralized casework units.

Centralized Units That Serve Both Texas Works (TW) Programs and Medicaid for the Elderly and People with Disabilities (MEPD) Programs

Unit Name

Description

Unit Name	Description
Centralized Representation Unit (CRU)	The CRU files appeal requests and assembles EDG information in preparation for hearings for TIERS cases. The CRU represents the agency at fair hearings and implements all decisions for EDGs statewide. Members of this unit are housed across the state in local eligibility offices. HHSC created the unit in September 2007, and the unit initially processed EDG actions resulting from TIERS fair hearings for both Texas Works and MEPD. More details are available in the Eligibility Services State Processes document. Staff must file all appeal requests using the Hearings and Appeal — Create Appeal functionality in TIERS, accessed through the left navigation menu. Form H4800, Fair Hearing Request Summary, which is sent directly to the hearings division, will be returned to staff with instructions to enter the information in TIERS. The CCCs are located in Athens, Austin, El Paso, Houston and San Antonio. State staff, along with vendor staff, conduct business using the 2-1-1 Texas telephone system. CCC staff handle inquiries and concerns that vendor staff cannot resolve. The vendor creates tasks and routes non-interview changes received via telephone, mail, fax or the Self-Service Portal to state staff in the CCCs. The CCCs are supported by TIERS and by Eligibility Supporting Technologies, such as the Task List Manager and the State Portal. CCC state staff perform Data Broker and other third-party inquiries, collect data, assess missing information, determine eligibility, issue benefits, process individual- and agency-generated changes, perform other non-interview tasks, and process six-month income check task. CCC performs these functions, as applicable, for TW and MEPD.
Customer Care Centers (CCCs)	The CCC operates Monday to Friday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Central time (excluding state holidays). Below are some helpful toll-free numbers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 800-645-7164 — CHIP provider toll-free telephone line • 877-543-7669 (877-KIDS-NOW) — CHIP and Children’s Medicaid toll-free telephone line • 800-735-2988 or 7-1-1 — TDD/TTY users (Relay Texas)
Assistance Response Team (ART)	Effective Jan. 15, 2013, HHSC centralized the clearance of Income Eligibility and Verification System (IEVS) Internal Revenue Service (IRS) data matches for TW and MEPD. Data matches that OIG identifies for each program are processed by CCC staff. HHSC set up CCCs with the Integrated Eligibility and Enrollment pilot rollout in January 2006. ART staff housed throughout the state serve as on-site support to regional staff. These state staff offer TIERS technical support for Texas Works and MEPD on-the-job trainings (OJT), conduct clerical OJTs, offer TIERS technical support to eligibility staff (offer pre-ticket support to all regions to mitigate unneeded tickets), process Texas Works cases based on MEPD email box referrals and Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) referrals for all regions, and assist State Office Data Integrity with merging assignments. HHSC set up ART with the Integrated Eligibility and Enrollment pilot rollout in January 2006.

Centralized Units That Serve Only MEPD Programs

Unit Name	Description
	HHSC created a special statewide eligibility unit in January 2007 to process eligibility for MEPD programs. This single regional structure simplifies reporting and data gathering; centralizes EBT activities under one EBT coordinator, which streamlines record keeping and adds integrity to the EBT accounting and audit functions; adds efficiency to training activities since there is one location for staff; and enhances accountability as all regional activities will be under one management structure. The five CPI project food banks as of June 2011 were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Houston Food Bank • North Texas Food Bank • San Antonio Food Bank • Tarrant Area Food Bank • South Plains Food Bank (limited to six counties in Region 1 — Bailey, Crosby, Floyd, Hockley, Lamb and Lubbock)

D-100, Overview

D-110, General Policy

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

CHIP

The Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) provides health care coverage for children under 19 whose family income exceeds the Children's Medicaid income limit but is less than or equal to 201 percent of the federal poverty level (FPL), which is the applicable income limit for TA 84 (CHIP). Children who do not qualify for Medicaid and remain ineligible for Medicaid, are eligible to enroll in CHIP and receive up to 12 months of continuous coverage. Families with net income above 151 percent of the FPL are required to pay an enrollment fee. Families with income above 185 percent of the FPL will have an income check during their sixth month of eligibility. Most families also have copayments for doctor visits, prescription drugs and emergency care.

When an applicant requests children's health coverage, the child is first tested for Medicaid eligibility. If ineligible for Medicaid, the child is then tested for CHIP eligibility. When processing a change for a person certified for CHIP, the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System \(TIERS\) will automatically test the person for Medicaid eligibility. A new application is not required.

CHIP eligibility is prospective. The effective date is based on whether the Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) is disposed before or after cutoff and when the enrollment process is completed. TIERS provides the potential eligibility begin date, and Enrollment Broker provides the actual eligibility begin date.

CHIP Perinatal

CHIP perinatal provides services to unborn children of pregnant women, regardless of age. These pregnant women are ineligible for:

- Medicaid due to income exceeding 198 percent of the FPL, which is the applicable income limit for TP 40, but whose household income is at or below 202 percent of the FPL, which is the applicable income limit for TA 85 (CHIP Perinatal); or
- Medicaid or CHIP due to immigration status, since the pregnant woman is not a citizen or qualified alien.

When processing a change for a person certified for CHIP perinatal, TIERS will automatically test the person for Medicaid eligibility. A new application is not required.

The unborn children of pregnant women eligible for CHIP perinatal are granted 12 months of continuous enrollment from the month the eligibility determination is made. The 12-month period includes the months of CHIP perinatal coverage before and after birth. The mother receives CHIP coverage related to the birth only; she does not receive personal health care coverage.

Because CHIP perinatal only provides coverage for pregnancy related services, women certified for CHIP perinatal must apply for Emergency Medicaid or Medically Needy (MN) with Spend Down to receive coverage for medical conditions not related to their pregnancy. Receiving CHIP perinatal does not affect the mother's eligibility for:

- MA-MN with Spend Down (TP 56);
- MA-Pregnant Women – Emergency (TP 36),
- MA-Parents and Caretaker Relatives Medicaid – Emergency (TA 31);
- MA-MN with Spend Down – Emergency (TP 32); or
- MA-Children 6-18 – Emergency (TP 34).

Pregnant women may receive the program(s) above in the same month as CHIP perinatal. This is not considered dual coverage.

When a child is born to a CHIP perinatal mother whose household income is above the applicable income limit for Pregnant Women Medicaid, the child's coverage begins on the date of birth and the mother's coverage is terminated on the last day of the month the birth occurs. The mother is eligible to receive two postpartum visits that may occur after the mother's CHIP perinatal coverage ends. At birth, the child receives perinatal coverage for the remainder of the 12-month eligibility period. The child's CHIP perinatal enrollment is terminated at the end of the 12-month period.

When a child is born to a CHIP perinatal mother whose household income is at or below the applicable income limit for Pregnant Women Medicaid and the mother receives Emergency Medicaid to cover the labor with delivery charges, the advisor must enroll the child in TP 45 effective the child's date of birth. The mother's perinatal coverage ends the last day of the child's birth month or the pregnancy's termination month. The mother is eligible to receive two postpartum visits that may occur after her CHIP perinatal coverage ends.

- be pregnant;
- reside in Texas;
- have total household net income at or below the applicable income limit, depending on family size; and
- be ineligible for ongoing Medicaid and CHIP because of income or immigration status.

A pregnant woman is considered to be an adult the month of her 18th birthday.

The woman's age is calculated as of the month in which the proposed effective date of coverage will occur.

D—122.1 Post-Birth Eligibility Determination

A woman is not eligible for perinatal coverage if she applies after the child is born. The advisor must deny the application upon becoming aware that the pregnant woman has delivered or had a miscarriage before the eligibility determination is made. The advisor must then determine whether the newborn is eligible for Medicaid or CHIP.

If the pregnant woman delivers or has a miscarriage before the eligibility determination and the advisor becomes aware of the delivery or miscarriage after the eligibility determination has been made, the woman's coverage is terminated. The woman will receive one month of CHIP perinatal coverage.

D—231 CHIP Perinatal Application

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

CHIP Perinatal

Pregnant women who apply for medical assistance are screened for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40). If ineligible for Medicaid, pregnant women under age 19 are tested for CHIP. If ineligible for CHIP because of age, income, or immigration status, pregnant women are tested for CHIP perinatal.

Women certified on CHIP perinatal due to not meeting immigration status requirements and whose household income is at or below Medicaid for Pregnant Women income limits at the time of application must submit Form H3038, Emergency Medical Services Certification, or Form H3038-P, CHIP Perinatal – Emergency Medical Services Certification, to cover the costs of labor and delivery.

Accept the applicant's (pregnant woman's, case name's or authorized representative's) verbal or written statement of pregnancy, including the start month, number of children expected and the anticipated date of delivery, unless questionable. The woman's statement would be considered questionable if the information provided regarding the due date is discrepant, such as the pregnancy start month and pregnancy end month are less than or more than nine months apart or if the woman reports a pregnancy with overlapping start and end months.

If questionable, verify the applicant's pregnancy by using:

- Form H3037, Report of Pregnancy; or
- other documentation containing the same information as Form H3037.

The verification must be from an acceptable source such as a physician, hospital, family planning agency, or social service agency.

A physician, nurse, advanced nurse practitioner or other medical professional must sign Form H3037 or another document for it to be considered verification from a medical source. If it is completed by another medical professional, ensure that the information about the supervising physician is provided.

The application contains a field for the number of children expected and the anticipated date of delivery, but does not contain a field for the applicant to enter the pregnancy start month. Staff must use the following procedures when certain information regarding pregnancy is left blank on any application for benefits:

- If the only item missing on the application form is the pregnancy start month, staff must count nine months back from the pregnancy end month to determine the pregnancy start month. The pregnancy end month is month zero.
- If the only item missing on the application form is the pregnancy end month, staff must count nine months from the pregnancy start date to determine the anticipated date of delivery. The pregnancy start month is month zero.
- If both the pregnancy start and end months are missing, attempt to obtain the information by phone. If unable to obtain the information by phone, send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to request the information.

If the pregnancy verification is not received by the 15th workday from the request, deny the application. See D-220, Reopening an Application, if the verification is provided after the application is denied.

The certified group contains only the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) eligible child. Only one child is certified per Eligibility Determination Group (EDG).

CHIP Perinatal

A pregnant woman of any age may qualify for perinatal coverage.

When the pregnant woman is age 18 and it is anticipated that she will turn age 19 before her CHIP enrollment start date, the CHIP coverage is denied. She is tested for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40) and then for CHIP perinatal, if ineligible for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40). If eligible for CHIP perinatal, her enrollment start date is the first day of the eligibility determination month.

Only one pregnant woman is certified per EDG.

If the mother's income is:

- Above the applicable income limit for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40), as defined in C-131.1, Federal Poverty Income Limits (FPIL), the mother will be the only individual on the EDG for the majority of the certification period. During the month the child is born, the mother and the child are certified on the same EDG. After the month the child is born, the child is the only individual certified on the EDG.
- At or below the applicable income limit for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40), as defined in C-131.1, and the mother receives Emergency Medicaid (TP 36) to cover the birth, the child will be certified on their own Medicaid for Newborn Children (TP 45) EDG.

Income is any type of payment that is of gain or benefit to a household. Income is either counted or exempted from the budgeting process. Earned income is related to employment and entitles a household to deductions not allowed for unearned income. Unearned income is income received without performing work-related activities. It includes benefits from other programs. To determine the date income can reasonably be anticipated, the advisor should use factors specific to the source of income, distance it has to travel through the mail, weekends and holidays.

Advisors must use Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) rules to determine financial eligibility for the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) and CHIP perinatal following the Medical Programs policy, explained in A-1300, Income.

D—1051 Income Frequency

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

Income received must be converted to a monthly amount, unless received monthly. Advisors must use the following conversion factors. (Monthly pay means that the employee is paid once a month.)

Income Frequency	Conversion Factor
Weekly (paid once every week)	Multiply by 4.33
Bi-weekly (paid every other week)	Multiply by 2.17
Semi-monthly (paid twice a month)	Multiply by 2.0
Annually (paid once a year)	Divide by 12

If the income frequency cannot be determined based on the information listed on the application or from the verification, the advisor must generate Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to request the income frequency.

D—1052 Terminated Income

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

Count terminated income in the month received. Use actual income and do not use conversion factors if terminated income is less than a full month's income. D-1210, Health Insurance

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

Third-party resources (TPR) are sources of payment for medical expenses other than the recipient or Medicaid. TPR includes payments from private and public health insurance and from other liable third parties that can be applied toward the recipient's medical expenses. Note: Separate dental or vision plans, auto, workers' compensation, county medical discount cards, student accident, travel insurance or sports-related insurance are not considered TPRs.

Consider Medicare a TPR. Do not certify a Medicare recipient for the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) or CHIP perinatal.

CHIP

Households that have health insurance in which the monthly premium amount for the child(ren) costs:

- less than 5 percent of the household's net income in the application month are not eligible for CHIP coverage.
- 5 percent or more of the household's net income in the application month are eligible for CHIP coverage. However, the household must drop the insurance before CHIP coverage begins. Children cannot be covered by CHIP and health insurance at the same time. These children are not subject to the 90-day waiting period, as explained in D-1723.6, Good Cause Exemptions for Children Subject to the 90-Day Waiting Period.

Households that have health insurance in which the monthly premium amount for the family's coverage that includes the child(ren) costs:

- less than 9.5 percent of the household's net income in the application month are not eligible for CHIP coverage.
- 9.5 percent or more of the household's net income in the application month are eligible for CHIP coverage. However, the household must drop the insurance before CHIP coverage begins. Children cannot be covered by CHIP and health insurance at the same time. These children are not subject to the 90-day waiting period, as explained in D-1723.6.

When the family reports TPR at application or redetermination, send Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, to request:

- a coverage end date,
- the monthly premium amount for the child(ren) or for family coverage that includes the child(ren), and
- information that will verify the insurance policy.

Deny the CHIP Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) if the household does not provide the verification by the due date and the verification is required for all certified group members. If the verification is not required for all individuals, the affected individual will be disqualified.

Acceptable verification of the private health insurance end date includes:

- health insurance ID card indicating the end date,
- letter from the employer indicating the end date, or
- the individual's statement by phone or in writing.

At any time during the child's enrollment segment, if the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) is notified that the child remains on health insurance or that the child has Medicare (the household did not drop the TPR at application or redetermination), the child is denied and disenrolled.

If a household reports that it has obtained health insurance during the continuous enrollment period, document the change and process the change at the next redetermination.

The Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) will pend the TPR logical unit of work at redetermination when HHSC receives TPR information via the TPR interface for a child currently eligible or enrolled in CHIP.

Case disposition is the result of the eligibility determination once all required information is obtained and an individual's notice of eligibility status is generated.

The notice explains if the case/application is pended, certified, sustained or denied. The household must submit all missing information by the 45th calendar day from the file date. If the family fails to submit the required information timely, the application is denied.

When an eligibility determination is made, the household is notified of the child's eligibility status in writing. In addition, households must be informed in the denial and disenrollment letter of:

- their rights and responsibilities;
- right to request a review of the case decision; and
- commercial insurance options through a referral to the Texas Department of Insurance toll-free telephone number at 1-800-252-3439 and the website at www.texashealthoptions.com.

The system automatically sends individuals determined ineligible for Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) at application, redetermination or when processing a change to the Marketplace for an eligibility determination for federal health care coverage programs.

To qualify for the federal health care coverage programs, all individuals must first be determined ineligible for Medicaid and CHIP. Advisors must test whether an individual is eligible for all Medical Programs. The Texas Works Medical Programs Hierarchy, explained in A-132.1, Medical Programs Hierarchy, does this automatically for most clients.

Note: Advisors must follow a manual process when retesting eligibility for a minor parent aging out of CHIP, as explained in A-2342.1, Retesting Eligibility.

D—1433.1 Adding a New Child

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

A separate application is required to start benefits for a new child being added if there is not an existing Medicaid or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) EDG on the case. A separate application is also required if a household requests benefits for a sibling of a child released from a juvenile facility whose TP 44 eligibility is reinstated to a denied or newly created case.

CHIP

When a household reports a new child in the household, determine if the new child and other children in the household that are certified for CHIP meet Medicaid eligibility criteria. Certify the children for Medicaid if they are eligible. A new application is not required. Note: When a household reports a new child in the household, determine if the new child and other children in the household that are certified for CHIP meet Medicaid eligibility criteria. Certify the children for Medicaid if they are eligible. A new application is not required.

Note: If the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJJ) or Juvenile Probation Department (JPD) reports via the TJJJ/JPD Released Logical Unit of Work that a child was released from a juvenile facility and is now living in the household, TIERS automatically tests the child's eligibility for Medicaid.

If the new child is ineligible for Medicaid but eligible for CHIP and has siblings or a parent currently enrolled in the program, they are considered to meet good cause. TIERS calculates the new child's effective date of coverage for the next possible month following cutoff. The new child will receive the remaining months of coverage with the siblings or parent. The coverage end date is the same date as the child's currently enrolled siblings or parent. The new child may not receive the full 12 months of coverage and is required to renew coverage along with the child's siblings or parent on the scheduled renewal date.

Once the new child is determined eligible for CHIP, TIERS notifies the Enrollment Broker via an interface. The Enrollment Broker generates and mails a welcome letter to the household.

CHIP Perinatal

Income Above the Limit for Medicaid for Pregnant Women (TP 40)

A child born to a CHIP perinatal mother whose household income is above 198 percent of the federal poverty level (FPL), which is the applicable income limit for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40), will have an effective date beginning with the date of birth and continuing through the remainder of the 12-month CHIP perinatal enrollment segment. The mother's perinatal coverage ends the last day of the child's birth month or the pregnancy's termination month. The mother will receive two postpartum visits even if they are beyond the birth month.

Example: A pregnant mother is approved for CHIP perinatal effective June 1. The child is born on Oct. 4. The newborn's effective date of coverage is Oct. 4, and the end date is May 30. The mother's perinatal coverage ends Oct. 31.

A perinatal child whose coverage ends, and who has siblings currently enrolled in CHIP, meets good cause upon determination of CHIP eligibility. The child's enrollment start date is the first day of the month following the perinatal end date. The child's CHIP end date is the end date of the existing CHIP enrollment segment. The child may not receive the 12 months of CHIP coverage and must renew eligibility in accordance with the existing CHIP redetermination date.

Income at or Below the Limit for Medicaid for Pregnant Women (TP 40)

A child born to a CHIP perinatal mother whose household income is at or below 198 percent of the FPL, which is the applicable income limit for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40) and who receives Emergency Medicaid to cover the labor with delivery charges will be enrolled in TP 45 coverage effective the date of birth. The mother's perinatal coverage ends the last day of the child's birth month or the pregnancy's termination month. The mother will receive two postpartum visits even if they are beyond the birth month.

Revision 20-1; Effective January 1, 2020

When the current head of household dies or leaves the home, change the head of household to another responsible adult household member without requiring the remaining household members to reapply for benefits. An adult household member is someone 19 years or older.

If there is no responsible adult member identified in the household, and a child in the household is receiving benefits, send Form H1020 to notify the household that a responsible adult who is caring for the child must apply for benefits if the child continues to need assistance. D—1435 Pregnancy Reports

CHIP

When a household reports a CHIP child's pregnancy before her CHIP end date, the child is tested for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40) and verification of the pregnancy is requested. A verbal or written statement of pregnancy from the pregnant child, case name or authorized representative that includes the pregnancy start month, number of children expected and the anticipated date of delivery is an acceptable verification source. If potentially eligible and the household provides the pregnancy verification, the child is terminated from CHIP and certified for Medicaid.

If the pregnant child is determined ineligible for Pregnant Women Medicaid (TP 40), she remains in CHIP up to two months beyond the original CHIP end date if the pregnancy due date is in the 11th or 12th month of her CHIP coverage, unless the:

- pregnant child reports pregnancy termination,
- household reports she has other insurance,
- pregnant child no longer lives in Texas, or
- pregnant child turns age 19.

Before the pregnancy ends, extend coverage for:

- one month if the pregnancy due date is in the 11th month of the CHIP certification; or
- two months if the pregnancy due date is in the 12th month of the CHIP certification.

If the household does not report a CHIP child's pregnancy until she gives birth or later, the child remains in CHIP, and the CHIP child's newborn is tested for Medicaid eligibility. If eligible, the newborn is certified for Children Under Age One Medicaid (TP 43). If not eligible, the newborn is enrolled in the mother's CHIP health plan. The effective date of CHIP coverage is the next possible month following cutoff. The newborn's CHIP coverage ends with the household's current enrollment segment.

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

CHIP

Children certified on the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) with income above 185 percent of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) will have a six-month income check to determine whether the child remains financially eligible.

An automated income check, explained in B-637, Periodic Income Checks, is run in the fifth month of the certification period when the following conditions have been met:

- the household's income at application was above 185 percent of FPL;
- the child will not age out before or during the fifth month;
- any of the following is true for at least one person in the Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) household for at least one countable income or expense source:
 - an income or expense is not verified;
 - one of the following income types uses "Verified by Reasonable Compatibility" as the verification source:
 - employment income;
 - unemployment compensation income; or
 - retirement, Survivors, and Disability Insurance (RSDI) income; or
 - the verification source is anything other than "Verified by Reasonable Compatibility" and the verification received date is more than 60 days old;
- the case is in Approved Ongoing Mode; and
- there are no pending Task List Manager (TLM) tasks for the case.

The result of the income check may impact eligibility in the seventh month.

The household is given at least 30 days advance notice before disenrollment. The household is entitled to a request for review and continued enrollment based on actions related to the six-month income check.

Note: The household is not eligible for continued enrollment if the denial is because the household failed to provide the information requested during the six-month income check.

If the household's income is at or below the applicable income limit for CHIP, the household remains on CHIP.

At the six-month income check, updated eligibility status or cost share details are automatically sent to the CHIP enrollment broker.

Depending on the outcome of the automated renewal process, the system generates and sends renewal correspondence, including Form H1020, Request for Information or Action, if more information is needed, to individuals enrolled in CHIP following the process explained in B-121, Notice of Redetermination/Certification Expiration, for TP 08 and Children's Medicaid (TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48).

All missing information must be received before cutoff of the 11th month of the coverage period to receive continuous coverage. If the missing information is received before cutoff of the child's 11th month of coverage, update the EDG with the new information. If the information is received after cutoff of the 11th month of coverage, there may be a break in CHIP coverage.

When a renewal is denied due to failure to provide information or verification, advisors follow the policy for TP 08, TP 43, TP 44 and TP 48 explained in B-122.3.2, Denied for Failure to Provide Information/Verification.

Households that complete the redetermination process (eligibility and enrollment) by cutoff in the 11th month of the eligibility period and remain eligible will be enrolled for a new 12-month period. If the individual fails to pay the enrollment fee by cutoff of the first month of the new 12-month period, the EDG is placed in a Pending Enrollment Fee and/or Plan Selection and/or TPR Delay status for up to three months. If the household pays the enrollment fee within the three months, the EDG is reinstated and the child(ren) receive the remainder of the 12-month enrollment segment beginning with the month of reinstatement.

D—1634 Redetermination Application Complete

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

CHIP

Once the household completes the redetermination and is eligible for CHIP, health care coverage begins the first of the next possible month after the household pays the applicable enrollment fee.

Households that complete the redetermination process receive a Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, indicating the potential outcome for each child. If an enrollment fee is due, the Enrollment Broker sends the household a payment coupon and return envelope. The enrollment fee due date is set to 10 calendar days.

D—1634.1 Missing Enrollment Fee

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

If a household completes the redetermination process, but does not pay the applicable enrollment fee by the cutoff date of the 12th month, the child receives a one-month extension of CHIP coverage. The Enrollment Broker mails the family a letter to inform the family of the one-month extension and the requirement to pay the enrollment fee by cutoff in the first month of the new 12-month period, in order to continue coverage. The extended month of coverage is counted as month one in the new 12-month enrollment segment.

The Enrollment Fee Extension (EFX) letter is mailed the first week of the first month of the new 12-month enrollment segment. The letter advises households that the household must pay the enrollment fee to continue the child(ren)'s coverage.

If the household:

- pays the enrollment fee by cutoff of the first month of its new 12-month period, then the child remains enrolled for the remainder of the 12-month period.
- does not pay the enrollment fee by cutoff of the first month of the new 12-month period, then the child is disenrolled. The EDG is placed in Pending Enrollment Fee and/or Plan Selection and/or TPR Delay status starting the second month, for a period of up to three months.

If the household pays the enrollment fee after the:

- cutoff of the first month in the new 12-month period, but before the cutoff of what would have been the second month, then the child is suspended for one month and reinstated the following month for the remainder of the 12-month enrollment segment.
- second month's cutoff and before the third month's cutoff, then the child is suspended for two months and reinstated the following month for the remainder of the 12-month enrollment segment.
- third month's cutoff and before the fourth month's cutoff, then the child is suspended for three months and reinstated the following month for the remainder of the 12-month enrollment segment.
- cutoff of the fourth month, the application is denied and the household must reapply.

Note: If the payment is returned with non-sufficient funds (NSF), an NSF letter is mailed to the household as if the household had not paid the enrollment fee, and the EDG is placed on Pending Enrollment Fee and/or Plan Selection and/or TPR Delay status the following month.

D—1635 Redetermination Applications Eligible for Medicaid

Revision 14-3; Effective July 1, 2014

CHIP

When processing a redetermination application, test the application for Medicaid eligibility. If a child in the CHIP household is eligible for Medicaid and the action is processed:

- before cutoff, CHIP coverage ends the last day of the current month. Medicaid coverage begins the first day of the next month.
- after cutoff, CHIP coverage ends the last day of the following month. Medicaid coverage begins the first day of the month following the next month.

Any children in the household who are ineligible for Medicaid remain on CHIP through the end of the current CHIP certification period. They are then certified with a new CHIP certification period if they continue to be eligible for CHIP.

A child who is eligible for Medicaid based on income, and who has reported that she is pregnant, is denied at the end of the next possible month and certified for Medicaid. If the pregnancy due date is later than the end date of her CHIP coverage month and she is not eligible for Medicaid, she continues on CHIP through the end of the current certification period. Certify her with a new certification period if she continues to be eligible for CHIP.

If the household no longer qualifies for CHIP, deny the CHIP EDG at the end of the CHIP certification period. Send the household Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, notifying the household that the child is no longer eligible for CHIP.

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

Once determined eligible for the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) or CHIP perinatal, households must complete the enrollment process in order to receive benefits. The enrollment process includes choosing a health and dental plan and paying an enrollment fee, if applicable.

CHIP

CHIP eligibility is prospective. TIERS provides the potential eligibility begin date and the Enrollment Broker provides the actual eligibility begin date.

The earliest a child can be eligible for CHIP is based on cutoff rules. When the Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) is disposed on or before the cutoff date, the potential eligibility begin date is the first of the month following the disposition month. When the EDG is disposed after cutoff, the potential eligibility begin date is the first of the second month following the disposition month.

Example 1 – Disposed on or before cutoff:

Disposed May 1, 2015; eligible June 1, 2015

Example 2 – Disposed after cutoff:

Disposed May 23, 2015; eligible July 1, 2015

D—1711 Expedited CHIP Enrollment

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

Individuals who transfer during their non-continuous eligibility period to CHIP before their Medicaid certification period ends and who owe a CHIP enrollment fee may be eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment, with no gap in coverage if they are certified for one of the following Medicaid types of assistance:

- MA-Pregnant Women (TP 40);
- MA-Children Under 1 (TP 43);
- MA-Children 6-18 (TP 44); and
- MA-Children 1-5 (TP 48).

Individuals who meet the criteria may be enrolled in CHIP beginning the first of the month following their last month on Medicaid even when an enrollment fee is due but not yet paid.

The following case actions are eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment:

- Periodic Income Check (PIC) (except TP 40);
- change;
- appeal and reactivation due to change or PIC; and
- renewal processed by an advisor resulting in a shortened Medicaid certification period (except TP 40).

The following case actions are not eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment:

- application;
- appeal and reactivation due to reason other than change or PIC;
- retesting eligibility; and
- third party resources.

If determined eligible for CHIP, the Enrollment Broker will send an enrollment packet to households with eligible members. The enrollment packet will indicate the enrollment fee and options for selecting a health and dental plan.

Expedited CHIP enrollment is only applicable when transferring from Medicaid to CHIP when an enrollment fee is owed to ensure health coverage is maintained with no gap in coverage. Once the enrollment fee is paid in full, the household follows normal CHIP policy and procedure. If the enrollment fee is not paid by the deadline, the household is disenrolled.

Households who do not owe an enrollment fee do not qualify for Expedited CHIP Enrollment and are enrolled in CHIP and defaulted into a plan following current policies and procedures and cutoff rules if a health and/or dental plan is not selected.

CHIP

Households eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment are enrolled in CHIP beginning the first of the month following their last month on Medicaid. This occurs even when a fee is due but not yet paid, with no gap in coverage. The household is given at least 90 days to pay the enrollment fee and remains enrolled pending payment of the enrollment fee.

For households determined eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment, the length of the expedited CHIP enrollment period depends upon when HHSC completes the action:

When action is processed during the classification period ...	Length of Expedited CHIP Enrollment period is ...
---	---

When action is processed during the classification period ...	Length of Expedited CHIP Enrollment period is ...
Before or on cutoff of the 5th month	Up to three months.
After cutoff of the 5th month
Note: This includes changes completed in the 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, and 11th month.	Up to four months.

If the fee is not paid by the due date, all individuals in the household enrolled in CHIP are disenrolled. The household must reapply for benefits and would follow normal CHIP processing. In reapplying for benefits, the household would not be eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment.

If the fee is paid by the due date, all individuals in the household remain enrolled in CHIP and receive the remainder of the 12-month CHIP certification period. The months a household received CHIP coverage through expedited CHIP enrollment count towards the 12-month CHIP certification period.

Notes:

- The six-month continuous eligibility period of Medicaid is not impacted regardless of when HHSC completes the change.
- Households that transfer to CHIP and do not owe an enrollment fee follow current policies and procedures and are enrolled in CHIP and defaulted into a plan following cutoff rules. These households are not eligible for expedited enrollment.

D—1721 Enrollment Packets

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

The enrollment packet includes a variety of information including a Welcome Letter, cost share requirement information, and health and dental plan choice information.

CHIP

Enrollment packets are mailed to all households. The enrollment packet includes the:

- enrollment/transfer form;
- enrollment return envelope;
- comparison chart of the value-added services provided by the health plans;
- explanation of CHIP benefits;
- Welcome Letter that includes –
 - cost sharing information, if applicable, specific to the income level of the household receiving the enrollment packet; and
 - cost share limit amount for households required to pay cost sharing. This amount is a percentage of the household's net income and reflects the maximum amount of health care expenses and cost sharing payments that a household is obligated to pay during a term of coverage.
- flier summarizing the importance of the health plan selection;
- CHIP member guide; and
- enrollment fee invoice and envelope, if applicable.

Households that are not required to pay an enrollment fee, or that paid the enrollment fee but did not select a health plan, are defaulted into the available health plan and sent an enrollment confirmation notice.

CHIP Perinatal

CHIP perinatal members are not subject to cost sharing. All members receive an enrollment packet. The enrollment packet includes the:

- enrollment/transfer form;
- enrollment return envelope;
- comparison chart of the value-added services provided by the health plans;
- explanation of benefits;
- flier summarizing the importance of the health plan selection; and
- CHIP perinatal member guide.

D—1722 Children with Special Health Care Needs

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

The enrollment packet includes a list of questions as determined by the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) to identify Children with Special Health Care Needs (CSHCN).

Health plans evaluate and confirm whether a child meets the CSHCN criteria by contacting the self-identified families. If the plan determines the child does not meet the CSHCN criteria, the plan sends the CSHCN status determination to the Enrollment Broker.

The Enrollment Broker reports the number of CSHCN monthly.

D—1723 Selecting a Health Plan

Revision 19-1; Effective January 1, 2019

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

Households can make a health plan selection by phone, online, or by submitting a completed Enrollment Transfer Form (ETF) by mail or fax. If making the selection by phone, the requirement for a signed enrollment form is waived.

Households that do not choose a health plan are automatically defaulted into a health plan. Families are notified that they have been defaulted and are given 90 days to choose a new health plan.

CHIP

People with case authority select the health plan for CHIP-eligible children. Households that fail to choose a health plan are defaulted into a health plan.

Information concerning CHIP health plans and the areas covered is available at <https://www.hhs.texas.gov/services/health/medicaid-chip/about-medicaid-chip/medicaid-medical-dental-policies>.

Upon completion of the enrollment process, the system triggers an Enrollment Confirmation Notice (ECN) that informs the household of each CHIP-eligible child's:

- unique identification number;
- enrollment start date;
- selected or assigned health plan;
- applicable copays; and
- cost share limit, if applicable.

The ECN includes a Medical Payments Form (MPF). The MPF helps the household track expenditures by date, event and amount. See D-1800, Cost Sharing.

If a child is subsequently added to a CHIP-enrolled case, the Enrollment Broker mails the household an ECN.

CHIP Perinatal

People with case authority select a health plan for CHIP perinatal eligible children. Households that do not select a health plan are defaulted into a health plan.

Information concerning CHIP perinatal health plans and the areas covered is available at hhs.texas.gov/services/health/medicaid-chip/programs/medical-dental-plans.

Upon completion of the enrollment process, the system triggers an ECN that includes the pregnant woman's:

- unique identification number;
- enrollment start date; and
- selected or assigned health plan.

D—1723.1 Enrollment Reminder Notification

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

CHIP

Fifteen calendar days after the enrollment packets are mailed, an enrollment reminder notification is mailed to households that fail to select a health plan and/or pay the enrollment fee.

If the household does not respond within 90 calendar days of mailing the enrollment packet and the household fails to pay any required enrollment fee, the EDG is denied and the household must submit a new application.

D—1723.2 Missing Information Processing for Enrollment Forms

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

Missing information for an enrollment form must be received within 90 calendar days of the date the Welcome Packet is mailed.

When all missing information is received before cutoff of the month before the member's enrollment start date (and within 90 calendar days of the date the Welcome Packet is mailed), the Enrollment Broker updates the enrollment information and the child's/children's enrollment start date is recalculated to the first day of the next possible month.

After 90 calendar days from the day the Welcome Packet is mailed, if the enrollment fee is not received, the Enrollment Broker sends an eligibility request to deny for non-payment. The denial letter informs the household that the enrollment missing information was not received or was received beyond the required period, and the household must submit a new application and reapply.

D—1723.3 Address Change While Pending Enrollment

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

At initial application, health plan changes are allowed when the household moves to a new coverage service area and enrollment is complete, but pending a future enrollment start date due to the 90-day waiting period or cutoff.

D—1723.4 Enrollment and Non-Sufficient Funds

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

CHIP

Households with children in a pended status, determined to have paid the enrollment fee with non-sufficient funds (NSF), do not receive health care coverage until the enrollment fee is received and processed. The household must submit the enrollment fee in full so that the child(ren) can be moved to a CHIP-eligible status. Households have 90 calendar days to submit the enrollment fee. If the household's payment is received before the due date, the child(ren) is (are) enrolled, based on the scheduled coverage date or the first month thereafter, and receives a new enrollment segment of 12 months.

If a child has an active enrollment segment and the Enrollment Broker determines the enrollment fee as NSF, the child is disenrolled at the next possible month, and the household must submit payment via money order, cashier's check, or debit or credit card via YourTexasBenefits.com. Once the household submits an acceptable payment, the Enrollment Broker re-establishes the child's enrollment the next possible month and provides the remaining months of coverage.

The following chart shows NSF situations and the action taken by the Enrollment Broker in each situation.

If the enrollment fee is...	then the Enrollment Broker...
returned with NSF before cutoff of the first month of a new 12-month enrollment period,	disenrolls the child and places the case in suspension starting in the second month for a period of up to three months.
submitted by a replacement payment after the extension month cutoff but before renewal month four cutoff,	reopens the case in the following month for the remainder of the 12-month period.
returned with NSF before the extension month cutoff and no replacement payment is made by renewal month four cutoff (the end of the suspension period),	does not reopen the case. The household must submit a new application.
returned with NSF after the extension month cutoff and a replacement payment is made before renewal month two cutoff,	continues enrollment for the remainder of the 12-month period.
returned with NSF after the extension month cutoff and a replacement payment is received after renewal month two cutoff but before renewal month three cutoff,	disenrolls the child and suspends the case for one month. The case is reinstated for the remainder of the 12-month period (nine more months).
returned with NSF after the extension month cutoff and a replacement payment is received after renewal month three cutoff but before renewal month four cutoff,	disenrolls the child and suspends the case for two months. The case is reinstated for the remainder of the 12-month period (eight more months).
returned with NSF after the extension month cutoff and a replacement payment is not made before renewal month four cutoff,	does not reopen the case. The household must submit a new application.

D—1723.5 Coverage Start Dates

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

If the enrollment process is completed prior to cutoff, the coverage start date begins the first of the following month, unless the household is subject to the 90-day waiting period or has a future Medicaid end date.

If the enrollment process is completed after cutoff, the coverage start date begins the first of the second month following the disposition month, unless the household is subject to the 90-day waiting period or has a future Medicaid end date.

Example 1 – Enrollment completed on or before cutoff:

Enrollment completed May 1, 2015; coverage starts June 1, 2015

Example 2 – Enrollment completed after cutoff:

Enrollment completed May 23, 2015; coverage starts July 1, 2015

For children subject to the 90-day waiting period, the coverage start date is 90 days (three calendar months) after the last month in which the child was covered by a third-party health benefits plan, as long as the enrollment fee is paid.

The waiting period only applies to children who were covered by a third-party health benefits plan (private health insurance) at any time during the 90 days (three calendar months) before the date of application for CHIP. The good cause exemptions apply to children subject to the waiting period. See D-1723.6, Good Cause Exemptions for Children Subject to the 90-day Waiting Period.

CHIP Perinatal

The coverage start date begins the first day of the month in which eligibility is determined. When the child is born, the child begins coverage on the date of birth. The mother may receive two postpartum visits.

The CHIP coverage start date is coordinated with the Medicaid end date, if applicable.

D—1723.6 Good Cause Exemptions for Children Subject to the 90-day Waiting Period

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

The waiting period for CHIP enrollment may be waived if the household claims one of the following good cause exemptions:

- A parent's insurance benefit under the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1984 (COBRA) is terminated;
- A change in a parent's marital status;
- The child is no longer covered by the Texas Employee Retirement System;
- Loss of CHIP eligibility from another state;
- Involuntary loss of insurance coverage;
- The employer stops offering health insurance coverage for dependents (or any coverage);
- A change in employment, including involuntary separation, resulting in the child's loss of coverage (other than through full payment of the premium by the parent under COBRA);
- Loss of Medicaid coverage for any reason;
- Loss of coverage in any insurance affordability program, including Advanced Premium Tax Credits (APTCs), Cost Sharing Reductions (CSRs), Medicaid, and CHIP;
- The premium paid by the family for coverage of the child under the group health plan is more than 5 percent of the Modified Adjusted Gross Income (MAGI) household income;
- The premium that a family pays for the family's coverage that includes the child is more than 9.5 percent of the MAGI household income;
- Death of a parent;
- The child has special health care needs;
- HHSC determines that good cause exists based on information provided by the applicant or information otherwise obtained by the agency; or
- HHSC Directive — other reasons for an exemption that have not yet been defined by HHSC.

An applicant may declare good cause at any point during the application processing or after eligibility is determined. An applicant may claim a good cause exemption as follows:

- On Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits:

- Addendum, Section 5 – Insurance Offered Through Your Job; and
- Appendix A, Health Coverage From Jobs;
- On Form H1010-M, Applying for or Renewing Medicaid or CHIP?:
 - Addendum, Section 5 – Insurance Offered Through Your Job; and
 - Appendix A, Health Coverage From Jobs;
- On Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application:
 - Step 5 – Your Family's Health Coverage; and
 - Appendix A, Health Coverage From Jobs;
- Online at YourTexasBenefits.com;
- By telephone; or
- In writing.

Staff must accept the client's self-declaration of a good cause exemption to the CHIP 90-day waiting period, except as follows.

Staff must not grant the applicant or client a good cause exemption to the CHIP 90-day waiting period if:

- the applicant selects "other" as the reason the insurance from a job ended;
- the end date of the health insurance coverage from a job is left blank; or
- the cost of the insurance coverage from a job is left blank.

Children exempt from the 90-day waiting period whose households subsequently report a change that nullifies the exemption become subject to the 90-day waiting period. The child(ren)'s scheduled coverage date is determined from the date the eligibility determination is made.

CHIP Perinatal

There is no 90-day waiting period for CHIP perinatal. Good cause exemptions do not apply.

Note: A perinatal child whose coverage ends, and who has siblings currently enrolled in CHIP, meets good cause upon determination of CHIP eligibility. The system calculates the child's enrollment start date as the first day of the month following the perinatal end date. The child's CHIP end date is the end date of the existing CHIP enrollment segment.

D—1723.6.1 CHIP Good Cause and Account Transfers

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

If a client is determined eligible for CHIP but is subject to the 90-day waiting period, HHSC will transfer that individual's account information to the Marketplace to be assessed for eligibility for other health care coverage programs. This allows the individual access to coverage during the 90-day waiting period and to avoid sanctions for failing to acquire health coverage.

D-1730, Continuous Enrollment Period

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

Children are granted 12 months of continuous coverage. Note: Households with income above 185 percent of the Federal Poverty Income Limit (FPIL) are subject to the six-month income check. See D-1510, General Information.

CHIP Perinatal

CHIP perinatal recipients are granted 12 months of continuous enrollment from the first day of the eligibility determination month. The 12-month period includes the months of CHIP perinatal coverage before and subsequent to birth. When the child is born, if the household's income was above the income limit for TP 40, defined in C-131.1, Federal Poverty Income Limits (FPIL), the child's coverage begins on the date of birth. The pregnant woman's coverage ends on the last day of the month that the child is born. The child's enrollment ends at the end of the original 12-month segment.

The child receives full CHIP benefits from the date of birth through the end of the continuous perinatal enrollment segment. Subsequent to delivery, the mother of the perinatal child qualifies for two postpartum care visits.

If a household reports a change in household size or income that would otherwise impact the household's eligibility, there is no disruption to the child's active enrollment segment.

D—1731 Exceptions to the Continuous Enrollment Period

Revision 21-2; Effective April 1, 2021

CHIP

The following are exceptions to the period of continuous enrollment:

- a child who is determined eligible for coverage on a date subsequent to the beginning of coverage for at least one sibling;
- a child who is 19;
- a pregnant child who is eligible for Medicaid;
- current Children's Medicaid coverage;
- confirmation that the child remains on health insurance and the household did not drop the third-party resource (TPR) at application or redetermination;
- the household reports a change and the child is eligible for Medicaid;
- the household submitted a request for review because the household failed to provide information requested during the six-month income check;
- the household did not submit a redetermination packet;
- confirmation that the child no longer lives in the state;
- the case authority requests disenrollment in writing; or
- a child becomes an inmate of a public institution.

Note: Households with income above 185 percent of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) are subject to the six-month income check.

CHIP Perinatal

The following are exceptions to the period of continuous enrollment:

- current Medicaid coverage;
- confirmation of current health insurance coverage;
- confirmation that the woman or newborn no longer lives in the state;
- the case authority requests disenrollment in writing;
- termination of pregnancy with no live birth;
- the birth is not reported by two months after the expected due date; or
- the mother was determined eligible after the birth month of the child.

D—1741 Plan Change During Current Enrollment Segment

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

Following the first 90 days of CHIP enrollment or 120 days for CHIP perinatal, a household is allowed to change health plans during the child's enrollment segment if the household:

- permanently relocates to a different health maintenance organization service delivery area.
- permanently relocates to a different location within a service area and this relocation would necessitate a change in primary care provider.
- has good cause to request a plan change. A household's request to change health plans on the basis of good cause can be approved in limited situations, and HHSC determines the situations that constitute good cause.
- is unable to receive the service the member is seeking because the plan does not cover the service because of moral or religious objections.
- needs related services (for example, a cesarean section and a tubal ligation) to be performed at the same time; not all related services are available within the network; and the member's primary care provider or another provider determines that receiving the services separately would subject the member to unnecessary risk.
- has other reasons, including but not limited to, poor quality of care, lack of access to services covered under the contract, or lack of access to providers experienced in dealing with the member's health care needs.

A household may submit a request for a health plan change or disenrollment to the Enrollment Broker, who reviews and considers each request on an individual basis. If the household disagrees with the decision, the household may request a review. The household, health plan and Enrollment Broker receive notification from HHSC regarding disposition of the review.

D—1742 Plan Change at Redetermination

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Households can change health plans once per year during redetermination.

If the household's request for a health plan change is received by the cutoff date of the last month of the child's certification period, the ECN letter is sent to inform the household of the new health plan selection.

For a household with health plan change information processed after the cutoff date of its last month of certification, a grace period extends to the cutoff date of the first month of the child's new certification period. The household's CHIP coverage continues under the original health plan through the end of the first month of the child's new certification period. Coverage under the new health plan begins the first day of the following month. The household is sent the Health Plan Transfer (HCC) letter informing the household of the new health plan selection.

Health plan change requests received by the Enrollment Broker as part of the redetermination process are applied to the new certification period and do not affect the current certification period, unless the requests are submitted due to a change of address or other good cause reason.

Once the health plan change form is received and processed, additional enrollment health plan changes are granted for address changes and other good cause reasons only.

D—1743 Redetermination Indicates a Change of Address

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP

If the redetermination form indicates a household moved and now has different health plan options, a Health Plan Change (HPC) letter is mailed to the household and includes:

- a health plan change form;
- a comparison chart that includes a value-added service matrix;
- the health plan change/redetermination instruction letter; and
- a self-addressed stamped envelope.

The health plan change/redetermination instruction letter informs the household they may change health plans:

- by phone,
- in writing using the Enrollment/Transfer form submitted by fax or mailed to:

HHSC
PO Box 149023
Austin, TX 78714-9023

- by IVR, or
- online using YourTexasBenefits.com.

The Enrollment Broker must receive the completed health plan change form before enrolling a household in a new health plan. A household that moves to an area of choice remains with its current health plan until the Enrollment Broker receives the completed health plan change form or the health plan transfer is completed by phone. If the household reports the change of address online, the household is also able to make a health plan change online. If the household does not return its completed health plan change form by the cutoff of its last month of certification, the household is enrolled in the next available health plan using a default process. The household is sent the ECN informing the household of the new health plan selection.

The child is enrolled in the designated health plan during the next certification period.

D-1750, Dental Benefits

Revision 18-4; Effective October 1, 2018

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

All children enrolled in CHIP are eligible to receive dental benefits. Dental benefits include both therapeutic and preventive services. CHIP perinatal pregnant women do not receive dental benefits. However, upon birth, the newborn is eligible for dental benefits. The dental benefit is for a 12-month period that is the same as the child's 12-month enrollment period. Note: Children with private dental insurance still qualify for CHIP.

Households are required to pay copayments for dental services. Assess dental office visit copays at the office visit copay rate. The applicable copayment requirements are:

Coverage Description	At or below 151% FPIL	Above 151% up to and including 186% FPIL	Above 186% up to and including 201% FPIL

D-1760, Disenrollment

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

The applicant or someone with case authority may request disenrollment at any time. Disenrollment requests received and processed before the current month's cutoff are effective at the end of the current month unless the applicant requests a specific date. Disenrollment requests received after cutoff of the current month are effective the next possible month. When the request is due to death, the member is disenrolled effective the last day of the month the member died.

Upon completion of processing the disenrollment request, Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is sent to the household. Form TF0001 informs the household of the reason the member's coverage is ending.

Once eligibility has been terminated, members will be disenrolled.

Regardless of the disenrollment reason or month, if a member has received at least one month of CHIP coverage, the household is not eligible for a refund of the enrollment fee.

D—1761 Involuntary Disenrollment

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

CHIP

Verbal notification is sufficient to generate an involuntary disenrollment for a CHIP-enrolled child. Reasons for involuntary disenrollment include:

- aging out when the child turns age 19;
- the household moves out of state;
- the death of a child;
- a child is certified for Medicaid;
- notification of pregnancy;
- if a household is eligible for expedited CHIP enrollment while owing an enrollment fee and does not pay the fee by the due date;
- self-disclosure of the child's non-lawful permanent resident, non-qualified alien or non-U.S. citizen status; and
- direction by HHSC based on evidence that the child's original eligibility determination was incorrect.

CHIP Perinatal

Verbal notification is sufficient to generate an involuntary disenrollment for women enrolled in CHIP perinatal. Reasons for involuntary disenrollment include:

- the pregnant woman is enrolled in Medicaid;
- a household submits a new application and specifically requests Medicaid in writing once the perinatal child is born;
- the confirmation is received that the pregnant woman has private health insurance;
- the woman is disenrolled on the last day of the month in which the pregnancy terminates without a live birth, and the EDG is denied;
- no birth is reported by two months after the expected due date;
- a child with special needs (who requires neonatal intensive care) is retroactively disenrolled back to the child's date of birth; and
- a household moves out of state.

D—1762 Health Plan Request to Disenroll a Member

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

CHIP, CHIP Perinatal

Based on Texas Department of Insurance guidelines, a limited number of situations exist when a health plan may request the disenrollment of a member from its plan.

The situations in which a health plan may request the disenrollment of a member are limited to one or more of the following:

- fraud or intentional material misrepresentation (coverage may be cancelled after not less than 15 days written notice from the Enrollment Broker to the member).

- fraud in the use of services or facilities (coverage may be cancelled after not less than 15 days written notice from the Enrollment Broker to the member).
- misconduct detrimental to safe plan operations and the delivery of services (coverage may be cancelled by the Enrollment Broker immediately).
- failure of the enrollee and a plan physician to establish a satisfactory patient/physician relationship if it is shown that the plan has, in good faith, provided the enrollee with the opportunity to select an alternative plan physician. The enrollee is notified in writing that the plan considers the patient/physician relationship to be unsatisfactory and specifies the changes that are necessary in order to avoid disenrollment, and the enrollee has failed to make such changes (coverage may be cancelled 30 days following written notice from the Enrollment Broker to the member).

The Enrollment Broker has the option of enrolling the member in another health plan and notifies the second plan of the reason for disenrollment from the first.

D-1800, Cost Sharing

D-1810, General Information

Revision 18-4; Effective October 1, 2018

CHIP

There are two types of cost share obligations – enrollment fees and copayments. Most CHIP eligible households are subject to cost share obligations. Exceptions:

- households with gross income at or below 151% of the Federal Poverty Income Limit (FPIL) are not subject to an enrollment fee;
- American Indians and Alaska Natives are exempt from all cost sharing. American Indian or Alaska Native status is self-declared on the application. If one child within the household is an American Indian or Alaska Native, the entire household application has American Indian or Alaska Native status; and
- unaccompanied refugee minors are exempt from all cost sharing.

Cost sharing is processed by the Enrollment Broker.

CHIP Perinatal

CHIP perinatal recipients are not subject to cost share obligations. Perinatal recipients do not pay enrollment fees or copayments.

D-1820, Enrollment Fees

Revision 18-4; Effective October 1, 2018

CHIP

The enrollment broker assesses an enrollment fee before initial enrollment and at redetermination. The enrollment fee is money submitted by a family for CHIP coverage to the enrollment broker. The enrollment broker bases the amount of the enrollment fee on the household's FPIL. It covers the continuous enrollment period. The enrollment broker assesses all enrollment fee requirements on a per-household basis, not on a per-child basis.

Enrollment fees are:

- $0 for households with net income at or below 151% FPIL;
- $35 for households with net income above 151% up to and including 186% FPIL; and
- $50 for households with net income above 186% up to and including 201% FPIL.

D—1823 Enrollment Fee Payment Processing

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

CHIP

Enrollment fee payments can be submitted in one of the following ways.

Method of Payment at Initial Enrollment:

- money order,
- personal check (not valid if original payment is non-sufficient funds),
- cashier's check, or

- credit card via www.yourtexasbenefits.com.

Method of Payment at Redetermination:

- money order,
- personal check,
- cashier's check, or
- credit card via www.yourtexasbenefits.com.

Payment for enrollment must be received and processed before cutoff prior to the last month of current CHIP certification.

The vendor receives all payments made to the program via money order, personal check or cashier's check. The vendor scans images and processes the payments. If the household mistakenly sends the payment to the Document Processing Center (DPC), the DPC logs the receipt of the payment and forwards the payment to the vendor for normal processing.

Enrollment fees submitted via www.yourtexasbenefits.com are charged a $2 non-refundable convenience fee. The household is mailed an electronic receipt.

D—1824 Refunds

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

CHIP

Households that overpay the enrollment fee can request a refund. In addition, refunds are sent to households that submit the enrollment fee, but are never enrolled or have credit balances due at the time of disenrollment from the program. Note: Households enrolled in CHIP are not eligible for a refund if the household received at least one month of CHIP coverage and was required to pay an enrollment fee.

The Enrollment Broker issues a refund in Form of an individual check to the household, regardless of how the household made the payment. If the household pays by credit card, the $2 convenience fee is not refunded. Undeliverable refund checks are returned and voided. The vendor annotates the CHIP case and makes the necessary adjustment to the case to reflect the returned and voided refund. Once a refund is voided and processed, households may request reissuance of a voided refund. The vendor confirms the correct address with the individual before reissuing the previously voided refund.

D-1830, Copayment Requirements

Revision 18-4; Effective October 1, 2018

D-1840, Cost Sharing Cap Amounts

Revision 18-4; Effective October 1, 2018

CHIP

The cost-sharing cap is the maximum amount of out-of-pocket expenses a household is required to pay during the certification period. When a household reaches its cost-sharing cap during the certification period, the household is not required to make copayments for the remainder of the certification period. Households are assigned a cost-sharing cap and a reporting threshold at application and at each redetermination. The reporting threshold is the amount in expenditures the household must report to the enrollment broker. The threshold is a cushion to ensure additional cost-sharing expenditures are not made during the period the enrollment broker and the health plan process the documentation.

The cost-sharing cap amount and reporting threshold are based on the household's net income as it relates to the FPIL amount.

The cost-sharing cap is 5.0% of the total net income for the term of coverage. The reporting threshold is 4.75%.

The household is informed of the reporting threshold and sent a medical payments form (MPF) with the welcome letter and enrollment packet. The MPF helps the family track medical expenditures by type, date and amount.

D—1841 Cost Sharing Processing

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

CHIP

The household must complete and submit the MPF to report that it meets the cost sharing cap.

When the MPF is submitted, the Enrollment Broker reviews the types of expenses listed on Form. The household is not required to provide receipts. Valid medical expenses include:

- enrollment fees, if applicable;
- office visit copayments;
- prescription medicines;
- emergency room visits;
- inpatient or outpatient hospital care; and
- out-of-pocket expenses, such as dental or vision.

The Enrollment Broker reviews the amounts and dates of the expenses to ensure that the household incurred the expenses during the current certification period.

If the household meets the cost sharing cap, a Cost Share Met (CSM) letter is sent to inform the household that it is exempt from copayments for the remainder of the current certification period. The Enrollment Broker notifies the affected health plan within two business days. The health plan is responsible for issuing a new identification card reflecting the absence of copayments.

If the household does not meet the cost sharing cap, the Enrollment Broker triggers a Cost Share Not Met (CSN) letter to inform the household that the cost sharing limit was not met. The following situations may cause the household not to meet the cost sharing cap:

- invalid expenses;
- expenses incurred outside the current certification period;
- valid expenses, but the dates and amounts are blank; or
- the total amount listed on the form is less than the cost sharing cap/threshold.

The CSN includes the cost sharing limit and the total amount of valid expenses submitted. An MPF is included with the CSN.

D—1842 Cost Sharing Re-Evaluation

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

CHIP

The household's cost sharing is re-evaluated at redetermination and the six-month income check.

For children who are currently enrolled, the Enrollment Broker does not use new income for eligibility determination.

The Enrollment Broker determines if all information is present to complete the evaluation at the six-month income check. If the income verification is not received and the reported income:

- increases, the Enrollment Broker recalculates the cost sharing for the household. A Cost Sharing Recalculation (CSC) letter is sent to inform the household that the change was complete and provides the household with the new cost sharing amount.
- decreases, a cost sharing re-evaluation is not processed. The Enrollment Broker sends a CSC No Change letter to inform the household that there is no change to the family's cost sharing obligation.

When no information is missing, the Enrollment Broker uses the new income reported during the six-month income check to determine if there has been a change in the household's cost sharing amount.

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

CHIP and CHIP Perinatal

A request for review (RFR) is any expression of dissatisfaction with an adverse action taken by HHSC.

Following an adverse action taken on a CHIP EDG, HHSC sends a disenrollment or denial letter to the family. The letter informs the CHIP household of its right to request a review.

Households have 30 business days from the date of Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to submit a written request for review concerning the decision that resulted in an adverse action. Households can submit the written request for review by:

- faxing the request to 866-559-9628; or
- mailing the request to:
 - Texas Health and Human Services Commission
 P.O. Box 149027
 Austin, TX 78714-9027

The request must come from the head of household or authorized representative or the child's provider or health plan (for expedited situations). If the child's physician or health plan determines that a suspension or termination of enrollment could seriously jeopardize the child's life, health or the ability to attain, maintain or regain maximum function, the household is entitled to an expedited review process. When disenrolled at the six-month income check, the household has 30 business days from the date of Form TF0001 to submit a request for review.

Allow continued enrollment for all people when HHSC receives the request for review anytime from the first day of the last benefit month through cutoff of the last benefit month.

Exception: A household is not eligible for continued enrollment if the household was denied for failure to provide information requested during a six-month income check.

If any member of a household or the household's representative expresses dissatisfaction with a decision regarding benefits or services, take the following action:

- explain the basis for the decision and the applicable policies;
- provide the household an opportunity to have a conference with the supervisor;
- provide the household an opportunity to request a review; and
- consult with the supervisor if the person requests information considered confidential.

Note: The member is entitled to any information used to determine suspension, reduction or termination of benefits. See B-1210, Disclosure of Information, for information considered confidential.

Upon receipt of the request for review, review the adverse action and send Form H1063, Request for Review Outcome Letter, within 10 business days from the date of receipt of the request. The response letter contains information addressing the answer to the request for review. Document the final decision.

When the request for review is received, validate that the person requesting the review has case authority.

- If a person with case authority requests the review in writing, request-for-review staff review all case information and supporting evidence that the household provides. Make a determination and send Form H1063 informing the household of the decision.
- If the person requesting the review does not have case authority, deny the request and send Form H1063 to inform the household of the request for review denial.

Review all case information and supporting evidence the household provides. If the case was processed accurately, deny the request for review. Send Form H1063 to inform the household of the request for review outcome.

If the EDG was not processed accurately or the person submitted additional information with the request for review that changes the eligibility outcome, approve the request for review and take the necessary action to re-establish eligibility or enrollment. Send Form H1063 and Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, to inform the household of its eligibility.

When the request for review is approved and the reason for the request is related to a disenrollment decision, review the child's current status to determine if the child is currently enrolled. If the child is:

- currently enrolled, advise the Enrollment Broker to cancel the disenrollment for the future month to ensure the child's enrollment continues through the end of the current enrollment period and generate Form H1063. In addition, the Enrollment Broker will send an Enrollment Confirmation Notice.
- not enrolled due to renewal period ending adversely, request-for-review staff process the CHIP eligibility and send Form H1063 and Form TF0001 to inform the household of CHIP eligibility. The Enrollment Broker re-enrolls the child for another 12-month period and once enrollment is re-established, the Enrollment Broker will send an Enrollment Confirmation Notice.

When HHSC receives a request for review after 30 business days from the date of Form TF0001 or determines that the request for review is not for an adverse action, deny the request and generate Form H1063 to inform the household of the denial reason.

Part E, Former Foster Care Children

E-100, Application Processing

E-110, Medicaid for Former Foster Care Children

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (Public Law 111-148) and the Health Care and Education Reconciliation Act of 2010 (Public Law 111-152), commonly referred to together as the Affordable Care Act (ACA), requires states to extend Medicaid coverage to the population of youth who are between ages 18 and 26 and aged out of foster care at age 18 or older.

The process to cover these individuals is coordinated between the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS), which administers the foster care program, and the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC). When a child ages out of foster care, Medicaid eligibility for these youths is transferred from Foster Care Medicaid to FFCC. DFPS certifies initial FFCC eligibility for youths aging out of foster care and HHSC is then responsible for determining their future Medicaid eligibility.

Note: There may be situations in which HHSC processes the initial certification.

E—111 Type of Assistance (TA) 82 – Medical Assistance – FFCC

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

To be eligible for FFCC, a person must:

- have aged out of foster care in the state of Texas at age 18 or older;
- be ages 18 up to 26;
- have received federally funded Medicaid when they aged out of foster care; and
- meet all other Medicaid eligibility criteria such as U.S. citizenship, alien status, and Texas residency.

Specialized staff process all FFCC case actions.

E—112 Application Processing

Revision 17-1; Effective January 1, 2017

Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) receives:

- a new FFCC case/Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) via an interface with the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS); or
- an application completed by an individual who aged out of foster care.

Note: DFPS provides a notice of eligibility to each individual.

CBS staff are notified by DFPS or HHSC Quality Assurance when a referral/interface is not completed. In cases where a DFPS referral/interface is not completed or processed, CBS staff must contact DFPS to determine the reason why the individual was not sent to HHSC via the interface and confirm whether eligibility criteria is met for FFCC. If the individual meets the eligibility criteria in Section E-111, Type of Assistance (TA) 82 - Medical Assistance - FFCC, CBS staff certify the individual for FFCC without requiring an application.

There are instances when an individual is denied ongoing FFCC coverage and must submit a new application for benefits. An individual may be denied ongoing FFCC coverage if the individual:

- voluntary withdraws;
- moves out of state; or
- fails to return verification during a renewal.

Individuals denied ongoing FFCC benefits may experience gaps in coverage. When there is a gap in coverage, individuals must apply using any of the Medical Programs application channels explained in A-113, Application Requests and Submissions.

One of the following questions must be marked Yes on the application for eligibility to be considered for FFCC.

- Were you in foster care at age 18 or older?
- Were you in an approved Unaccompanied Refugee Minor's Resettlement Program at age 18 or older?

If ineligible for FFCC, the individual will be considered for eligibility under other Medical Programs.

Document why a certain file date was used to determine eligibility when:

- the file date used differs from the received date on the application; or

E-310, General Policy

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Verify citizenship and alien status following the Medical Programs policy for citizenship and alien status eligibility in A-300, Citizenship. Applicants who are U.S. citizens and certain legally admitted alien residents are eligible for Medicaid for Former Foster Care Children (FFCC) if they meet all other eligibility criteria.

The alien status policy for FFCC follows Chart D in Section A-342, TANF and Medical Programs Alien Status Eligibility Charts. Individuals are no longer eligible for FFCC the month after their 21st birthday if they no longer qualify under Chart D. For individuals age 21 and older, continue eligibility if they are otherwise eligible based on Charts A, B, and C.

Allow applicants and recipients a period of reasonable opportunity, if applicable, to verify their citizenship or alien status, as explained in A-351.1, Reasonable Opportunity.

E-320, Verification Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) interface provides the following information pre-populated into the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) for individuals with an alien status:

- Document Type — I-551 or I-94
- Annotation/Category (conditionally based on documenttype)
- U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) Documented US EntryDate
- Alien Status ExpirationDate
- Alien Registration Number (the “A”number)

Verification of alien status is required when the information received via the interface does not match the information in TIERS or when the document type is marked "other." Do not request verification from the individual until efforts to verify alien status through DFPS have been attempted. Staff must request an image of the alien status documentation from DFPS to verify the alien status.

Within 10 days of receiving the task, staff must email the DFPS FC-ADO mailbox at fcadomedex@dfps.state.tx.us and copy tonya.eason@dfps.state.tx.us to request the image of the alien documentation. The email must include the individual's name, date of birth, and Social Security number (SSN) and must be encrypted. Do not include any client information in the subject line of the email. DFPS should reply to this request within five workdays.

If the DFPS image does not provide sufficient information to verify alien status, then FFCC applicants must receive a period of reasonable opportunity, explained in A-351.1, Reasonable Opportunity, to verify their alien status.

E-400, Social Security Number

E-410, General Policy

Section 900, Adequate Health Coverage (Third-Party Resource)

E-910, General Policy

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Former Foster Care Children (FFCC) recipients may have adequate health coverage. Adequate health coverage is also known as a third-party resource (TPR). FFCC follows TPR policy in A-860, Third-Party Resources (TPR). FFCC recipients with TPR must cooperate in providing details of the TPR.

E-920, Verification Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The TPR information has been verified when the “NHIC” box is checked and greyed out. Staff cannot end/terminate the coverage. If the individual has TPR and the “NHIC” box is greyed out, this information has already been verified by the Office of Inspector General – Third Party Liability area.

Request verification if:

- the individual indicates the individual has TPR, and
- required TPR information has not been verified.

Some former foster care individuals' parents may have TPR coverage for the applicant without the individual being aware of this coverage. If the individual states they are not aware of the TPR or do not know the details of the TPR, but the TPR has been verified by the claims administrator, advise the applicant to call the claims administrator's Third Party Liability Customer Service Line at 1-800-846-7307 and select option 2. This will allow the individual to obtain information regarding the TPR.

If the TPR information in the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) has been verified by the claims administrator but needs to be updated, fax the completed Form H1039, Medical Insurance Input, to the claims administrator at 512-514-4215.

E—1011 Three Months Prior Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Applicants for Medicaid for Former Foster Care Children (FFCC) are eligible for three months prior coverage.

Three months prior coverage under FFCC cannot precede January 1, 2014. If eligible under another Medicaid program, an individual can receive three months prior coverage for months requested prior to January 1, 2014, on the Medicaid program for which the individual would have qualified prior to January 1, 2014. E—1012 Types of Coverage

Revision 18-1; Effective January 1, 2018

FFCC recipients are automatically enrolled in STAR Health through the month of their 21st birthday. STAR Health provides a full range of Medicaid-covered medical and behavioral health services for Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) individuals. Individuals may opt out of STAR Health for STAR, which allows for a choice of health plans.

People under age 21 who receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI) or reside in a nursing facility have the choice of staying in STAR Health or opting into STAR Kids if they meet one of the following criteria:

- receive Medicaid and Medicare; or
- receive services under one of the following 1915(c) waiver programs:
 - Home and Community-based Services (HCS);
 - Community Living Assistance and Support Services (CLASS);
 - Texas Home Living (TxHmL);
 - Deaf Blind with Multiple Disabilities (DBMD);
 - Medically Dependent Children Program (MDCP); or
 - Youth Empowerment Services (YES).

Once an FFCC recipient attains age 21, coverage will transfer to STAR. STAR provides a full range of Medicaid-covered medical and other services for many children and adults. Exception: Individuals ages 21 up to age 26 who meet the STAR+PLUS criteria must enroll in the STAR+PLUS managed care program.

E—2010 Notice to Applicants

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

When processing an application, redetermination or change, advisors are required to inform the individual if their request is pended, certified, sustained, or denied. Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) disposition is the end result of processing the request for assistance and will generate Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action. However, if the EDG cannot be disposed because it is pending for additional information/verification, the advisor must provide the individual with Form H1020, Request for Information or Action.

Form H1020, Request for Information or Action

Form H1020 informs the individual the:

- reason the case is pending;
- action the individual or advisor must take;
- date by which the individual or advisor must take action; and
- date the advisor must deny the application/case if the individual does not take action, if applicable.

Note: For Spanish-speaking only individuals, ensure that all comments provided are in Spanish.

- Renewals — 12 months from the last certification month.

Individuals are continuously eligible for Former Foster Care Children (FFCC) benefits for 12 months or through the month of their 26th birthday, whichever is earlier.

- reaches age 26,

E—2161 How to Process a Renewal

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

FFCC completes an administrative renewal process. An administrative renewal is initiated by the system and requires no advisor action. The administrative renewal process uses the automated renewal process, explained in E-2161.1, Automated Renewal Process, to gather information from a client's existing case and from electronic data sources to determine whether the client remains potentially eligible for Medical Programs.

E—2161.1 Automated Renewal Process

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The automated renewal process is the first step in an administrative renewal. The automated renewal process runs the weekend before cutoff in the ninth month of the certification period and does not require advisor action.

The process uses electronic data to automatically:

- assess the verifications required by type program for renewals;
- determine the eligibility outcome; and
- send the renewal correspondence to the client.

E—2161.1.1 Verifications Required for Renewals

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

During the automated renewal process, the system verifies:

- Residency
- Immigration status

E—2161.1.2 Eligibility Outcomes

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Once available verifications are assessed during the automated renewal process, the system runs eligibility. The following chart lists the possible eligibility outcomes of the automated renewal process.

Automated Renewal Process: Eligibility Outcomes

Eligibility Potentially Approved	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • All required eligibility information can be verified during the automated renewal process and no additional verification is needed from the client. • Clients must review the information used to determine their eligibility. • Clients are only required to return a signed renewal Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal - FFCC, if the information on the renewal form is incorrect or there are changes to the client's case.

Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, is sent when a final eligibility determination has been made. Depending on the renewal status outcome and client action, final eligibility determinations may be made by advisors manually processing renewal documents or by the system automatically. Form TF0001 identifies the dates of the new certification period for Medicaid benefits or the denial reason for not recertifying the case.

E—2161.2 Processing a Manual Renewal

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

If a person is required to return a renewal form and returns a paper Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal - FFCC, the form is routed to CBS for processing. If an FFCC renewal is submitted to a local office, it may be processed by the local office advisor but only CBS staff may dispose the FFCC EDG. If an FFCC renewal needs to be disposed, a Task List Manager (TLM) task will be generated for CBS instructing them to dispose the renewal.

The file date is the day that any local eligibility determination office receives an acceptable FFCC renewal form. The following are considered acceptable FFCC forms:

- Form H1206, Health Care Benefits Renewal - FFCC
- Form H1010-R, Your Texas Works Benefits: Renewal Form

A redetermination is considered timely if a renewal form is received by the first calendar day of the 11th month of the certification period. A redetermination is considered untimely if a renewal form is received after the first calendar day of the 11th month of the certification period and through the last day of the 12th month.

Note: If the first calendar day of the 11th benefit month falls on a weekend or a holiday and the redetermination is received on the following business day, the redetermination is considered timely.

Process redeterminations, received timely or untimely, by the 30th day from the date the renewal form is received or by cutoff of the 12th month of the certification period, whichever is later.

When an acceptable FFCC renewal form is received, review the information provided and determine if the case needs to be updated to reflect the most recent information reported by the person on the form.

Only request information and verification needed to determine eligibility from the person when it is not available through electronic data sources. Verification previously provided must be used to renew eligibility when the verification is still valid. Determine if there is any verification that can be used before requesting verification from the person. Allow the household at least 10 days to provide missing information. The due date must fall on a workday.

E—2161.2.1 When a Renewal Form Is Not Returned

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

When an acceptable FFCC renewal form is not returned, the system automatically makes an eligibility determination through a mass update based on the eligibility outcome from the automated renewal process. This does not require the CBS advisor to run eligibility or dispose the EDG.

Below are the eligibility outcomes during the automated process:

- Eligibility Potentially Approved – the client is auto-disposed and approved without advisor action. The file date is the date the EDG is auto-disposed approved, and the client is granted a new 12-month certification period.
- Additional Information Needed – the client is auto-disposed and denied without advisor action.

E—2161.2.2 Information or Renewal Form Returned After Termination

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

When a renewal is denied due to failure to provide information or verification and the information or verification is provided after the date of denial but by the 90th day after the last day of the last benefit month, CBS staff must reopen the EDG. The date the information or verification is provided is the new file date.

If a renewal form is not received by the date of denial in the 12th month of the certification period, the EDG is denied for failure to return a renewal packet. A renewal form received after the last day of the 12-month certification period must be treated as an application using application processing time frames. The file date is the day that any local eligibility determination office receives the FFCC renewal form.

Note: If the renewal form is received after the date of denial but before the last day of the 12th month of the certification period, reopen the EDG and process as a renewal.

E-2170, Renewal Time Frames

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

For individuals required to return a renewal packet, CBS advisors must process the manual renewal following the time frames explained in E-2161.2, Processing a Manual Renewal.

E-2180, Pending Information

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Advisors must allow the household at least 10 days to provide missing information/verification. The due date must be a workday. Advisors must request documents that are readily available to the household if the documents are anticipated to be sufficient verification. If the applicant has any active or inactive EDGs, check to see if any verification previously provided for the other EDGs can be used to determine eligibility for FFCC.

Advisors use verifications accepted for the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program, Medical Programs or the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

Exception: Only Medical Programs sources of verification of U.S. citizenship for applicants can be used.

Note: Advisors must not use verification that is over 90 days old from the FFCC file date.

E—2181 Summary of Due Dates for Form H1020, Request for Information or Action

E-2200, Changes

E-2210, How to Report a Change

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Customer Care Center (CCC) staff process all changes for Former Foster Care Children (FFCC) recipients. FFCC recipients can report changes:

- online through YourTexasBenefits.com;
- by visiting a local eligibility office;
- in writing by mail or fax;
- by completing Form H1019, Report of Change; or
- by calling 2-1-1.

Note: When a change is reported by telephone, staff must verify that the person speaking is the individual or an authorized representative as explained in A-2000, Identifying Applicants Interviewed by Phone and Prevention of Duplicate Participation.

An individual must report the following changes:

- if the individual moves out state,
- an address change, or
- enrollment in health insurance.

Advisors process all other changes, including agency-generated changes, at the next renewal.

Exception: If the individual failed to report required information at the time of the application that causes the individual to be ineligible for FFCC, advisors must deny the benefits and send a fraud referral to the Office of the Inspector General.

E-2220, Action on Changes

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

All changes or agency generated change tasks received during the 12-month continuous eligibility period should be documented and the change processed at renewal, except:

- death of the certified person;
- voluntary withdrawal;
- receipt of health insurance;
- moves out of Texas; or
- change of address.

If a change of address is received, mail the person Form H0025, HHSC Application for Voter Registration. If the person contacts CBS or 2-1-1 to decline the opportunity to register to vote after receipt of Form H0025, mail Form H1350, Opportunity to Register to Vote, to the person for a signature. File Form H1350 in the case record when the person returns the form and retain the form for at least 22 months.

Follow policy in B-532, Medicaid Reinstatement for Persons Released from Texas County Jails, if a person was incarcerated in a Texas County Jail and Medicaid is suspended.

Follow Medical Programs policy in B-600, Changes, for verification and documentation requirements.

E—2221 Returned Mail

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

When returned mail is received, the vendor creates and assigns a Returned Mail (RTML) task to Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) staff for processing.

Upon receipt of the RTML task, CBS staff must take the following actions:

1. Review the address on the returned mail, the case record, and the State Portal to determine whether the household has reported a new address. If a new address has been reported, process the address change and, if there is a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Eligibility Determination Group (EDG), any related changes in shelter expenses.
2. If a new address has not been reported and a forwarding address was not provided, attempt to contact the household via telephone to obtain an updated address and document the attempt. If the household provides a new address, process the address change and, if there is a SNAP EDG, any related changes in shelter expenses. Otherwise go to Step 3.
3. If there is an individual(s) in the household who receives Retirement, Survivor's and Disability Insurance (RSDI) or Supplemental Security Income (SSI), use the State Online Query (SOLQ) to verify the household's address. Use the address in SOLQ to update the address if the address in SOLQ differs from the address on file and, if there is a SNAP EDG, explore shelter expenses.

If the address in SOLQ matches the address in the TIERS record, document in TIERS Case Comments that the SOLQ inquiry address matches the TIERS address and take no further action.

If unable to contact the individual by phone and there is not an individual(s) in the household who receives RSDI or SSI for the:

- FFCC EDG, go to Step 4; or
- SNAP EDG, follow Step 5 under the process for a case that includes a SNAP EDG in B-638 , Returned Mail.

4. If unable to update the address, simultaneously send emails using the following CBS email box to:

- Health Plan Operations (HPO) using the following email box:
 - cbs_ffche-mtfcy@hhsc.state.tx.us; and
- Preparation for Adult Living (PAL) using the following email box:
 - OES_FFCC@hhsc.state.tx.us

HPO Process

- Send an email to the Medicaid CHIP Division (MCD) Health Plan Operations (HPO) at HPO_Star_Plus@hhsc.state.tx.us .
- Include in the subject line Returned Mail – [last four digits of the client's case number].

- Include the following information in the email:
 - case name;
 - case number;
 - individual's date of birth (DOB), Social Security Number (SSN), and Medicaid Individual Identification Number; and
 - date the response is needed.
 - Leave the RTML task pending.

PAL Process

- Use the link below to identify the Lead Regional PAL staff covering the region of the client's last known address.
 - http://www.dfps.state.tx.us/Child_Protection/Youth_and_Young_Adults/Preparation_For_Adult_Living/PAL_coordinators.asp
- Send an email to the identified Lead Regional PAL staff.
- Include in the subject line Returned Mail -- [last four digits of the client's case number].
- Include the following information in the email:
 - case name;
 - case number;
 - individual's DOB, SSN, and Medicaid Individual Identification Number; and
 - date the response is needed.
- Leave the RTML task Pending.

Note:

For an individual who aged out of the Unaccompanied Refugee Minor (URM) Resettlement program, contact the following agencies and individuals to determine if the agency or individual has an updated address for the former URM:

- the URM's former Voluntary Agency (VolAg); and
- the two agencies in Texas that have URM programs:
 - Catholic Charities Diocese of Fort Worth
 - Jennifer Frazier, URM Director, at jfrazier@ccdofw.org
 - Catholic Charities Diocese of Galveston-Houston
 - Debbie Sandberg, URM Coordinator, at 713-874-6505 or dsandberg@catholiccharities.org
 - Raj Kendrick, URM Director, at 281-874-6530 or rkendrick@catholiccharities.org

5. The MCD HPO and DFPS PAL staff have ten calendar days to respond. It is important that staff make the request as soon as possible. The response will include either:

- the known address on file for the individual; or
- no known address on file for the individual.

MCD HPO responds to the CBS email mailbox (cbs_ffche-mtfcy@hhsc.state.tx.us) and copies the original requestor with information from the plan by the tenth calendar day from when the email is sent, either confirming or denying that they have an address on file for the client. If they confirm, the response will include the address on file.

The DFPS PAL program responds to the email box (OES_FFCC@hhsc.state.tx.us) and copies the original requestor with information from the Lead Regional PAL staff by the tenth calendar day from when the email is sent, either confirming or denying that they have an address on file for the client. If they confirm, the response will include the address on file.

Note: If the MCD HPO and DFPS PAL both respond and provide different addresses, use the address received from the MCD HPO (unless the individual has already provided an address).

6. For cases with a SNAP EDG, if by the Form H1020 due date, the household:

- provides the requested information, process the address change for all active EDGs, including the FFCC EDG, and address any related changes in shelter expenses for the SNAP EDG; or
- fails to provide the requested information, deny the SNAP EDG for failure to provide information. Send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, using the denial reason, "Failed to Provide Information".

For the FFCC EDG, if by the 10th calendar day due date the HPO/PAL information:

- is provided, use the information to update the address in the TIERS record;
- is not provided, use the following steps to deny the EDG(s) using the denial reason "Unable to Locate" as stated in A-2344.1, Form TF0001 Required (Adequate Notice).
 - In Change Action Mode, go to "Household Information" and select "Yes" for the question "is the worker unable to locate the household?"
 - Run eligibility.

Note: The HPO/PAL information cannot be used to verify residence for SNAP EDGs.

7. If MCD HPO or DFPS PAL provide an updated address within 30 days of the EDG's denial due to "Unable to Locate," reopen the EDG.

For the SNAP EDG, if the household is denied for failure to provide information and provides a correct address within the advance notice adverse action period, reopen the EDG using the original certification period and process any related changes in shelter expenses. Please refer to the TIERS Advance Notice of Adverse Action Reference Guide in the ASK iT Knowledge Base for instructions.

Notes:

- If an address provided by MCD HPO or the DFPS PAL program differs from an address provided by the household, contact the household to resolve the discrepancy.
- For SNAP EDGs, if the household provides verification of residence, but does not provide information regarding shelter expenses, re-budget eligibility without the shelter expense and notify the household, according to policy in A-631, Actions on Changes.

F-110, Application Procedures

Revision 20-2; Effective April 1, 2020

The Former Foster Care in Higher Education (FFCHE) program provides medical coverage to certain former foster care youth enrolled in an institution of higher education located in Texas. FFCHE is funded entirely by the state and is not considered Medicaid. It is identified as a Health Care Benefits program instead of Medicaid or medical assistance.

People living in Texas who age out of foster care under an Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) agreement may be eligible for FFCHE or Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth (MTFCY), explained in Part M, Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth (MTFCY). Automatically recertify current FFCHE recipients who are up for eligibility redetermination.

A person who ages out of foster care under an ICPC agreement may apply for FFCHE by completing Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application, or Form H1205-S and submitting the form:

- online through YourTexasBenefits.com\(link is external\);

- by mail to the HHSC Document Processing Center (DPC) at:

HHSC
P.O. Box 149024
Austin, TX 78714-9024;

or

- by toll-free fax to 877-447-2839.

Applicants may request to apply for FFCHE as explained in A-113, Application Requests and Submissions.

When a request for Form H1205 is received, Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) staff determine if the applicant needs the English or Spanish version of the form.

Note: CBS staff accept any of the applications explained in A-113, Application Requests and Submissions, and request any additional information needed to make an eligibility determination.

If a local eligibility determination office receives an application, staff must date stamp and fax the application to the DPC non-expedited fax line (877-447-2839) no later than the next business day.

Note: Policy found in A-121, Receipt of Application, outlines what constitutes a valid application and what process to follow when the agency receives an incomplete application.

F-900, Adequate Health Coverage \(Third-Party Resource\)

F-910, General Policy

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

An applicant/recipient is not eligible to receive Former Foster Care in Higher Education (FFCHE) benefits if the individual currently has adequate health coverage. Adequate health coverage is also known as a third-party resource (TPR). Adequate health coverage is defined as receiving coverage under:

- group health insurance;
- health insurance coverage;
- Medicare (Part A or Part B);
- Medicaid (with the exception of the Healthy Texas Women, Medicaid with Spend Down, and Community Attendant);
- armed forces insurance; or
- a state health risk pool.

Deny an application for an individual who has adequate health coverage.

Do not consider a plan with a limited scope of coverage such as dental, vision, long-term care, etc., or for only a specific illness/disease, such as drug/substance abuse, as adequate health coverage.

Consider an applicant/recipient as having adequate health coverage even if it has limits on benefits or high deductibles.

If staff receive a task with information that the individual has TPR and the “NHIC” box is greyed out, advisors deny rather than pend the EDG. This information has already been verified by the Office of Inspector General – Third Party Liability area.

When an FFCHE applicant is denied due to adequate health care coverage, Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, will read:

“We found that you already have private health insurance. To learn more about the insurance you already get, call toll-free 1-800-846-7307 (after you pick a language, press 2).”

In some instances, the parents of FFCHE recipients have TPR coverage for them without the individual knowing. If the individual states they are not aware of the TPR, staff should advise them to call the claims administrator’s Third Party Liability Customer Service Line at 1-800-846-7307 and select option 2. This will allow the individual to obtain information regarding their TPR.

If the TPR information in the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) has been verified by the claims administrator but needs to be updated, staff should fax the completed Form H1039, Medical Insurance Input, to the claims administrator at 512-514-4215.

F-920, Verification Requirements

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

Accept self-declaration of adequate health coverage.

Exception: If an applicant is denied due to receiving adequate health coverage and the applicant calls to notify HHSC that the medical insurance is not adequate health coverage, staff would need to verify if the coverage is considered adequate health coverage.

F-930, Documentation Requirements

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

Staff must document in case comments the existence of adequate health coverage.

F-1000, Eligibility Begin Dates

F-1010, General Policy

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The applicant is eligible for 12 months beginning the first day of the application month if all eligibility criteria are met. The applicants are eligible to receive benefits beginning the month after their 21st birthday through the end of the month of their 23rd birthday.

The medical effective date cannot precede the:

- effective date of the program (October 1, 2009), or
- the month after the individual's 21st birthday.

If an applicant applies in the month of the applicant's 21st birthday, the individual cannot be eligible for the Former Foster Care in Higher Education (FFCHE) program until the following month.

Applicants who wish to have coverage during the month of their 21st birthday must apply for benefits under an appropriate Medicaid program.

Note: These individuals may be eligible for Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth (MTFCY) during the month of their 21st birthday. See Part M, Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth (MTFCY).

Examples:

- An individual turns age 21 on May 5. She filed an FFCHE application on May 1. The individual is ineligible to receive FFCHE during May, the month of application, since she turns 21 during May. Her eligibility begin date will be June 1. If the applicant wishes to receive benefits for the application month, she must file an application for an appropriate Medicaid program.
- The individual turns age 23 on May 5. She is no longer eligible to receive FFCHE benefits effective June 1.

Three months prior coverage is not available in the FFCHE program. An applicant may apply for three months prior coverage under a Medicaid program and receive assistance if eligible.

In the event an FFCHE recipient becomes pregnant and does not apply for or is not eligible for Medicaid, the newborn is not eligible for TP 45 – Medicaid for Newborn Children. If the mother wants coverage for the baby, she must apply for Medicaid; if eligible, the child will be certified for TP 43 – Medical Assistance for Children Under Age 1.

F—1011 Types of Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

FFCHE recipients will have two types of coverage. The type of coverage determines how recipients access their health care services.

Fee-for-Service – Initial coverage for FFCHE recipients. Although FFCHE individuals are not Medicaid recipients, they will have access to any Medicaid provider and will be allowed to self-refer to specialists. The provider submits claims directly to the claims administrator for reimbursement of the FFCHE-covered services (the coverage mirrors services available to Medicaid recipients). The Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) will use state funds to pay these claims.

Managed Care – A service delivery program that provides medical care in a managed care setting. The state pays a monthly premium to the health maintenance organization (HMO) for each recipient enrolled in the plan. The plan processes all provider claims.

Enrollment into managed care is mandatory for FFCHE recipients; however, when a recipient is determined eligible for the FFCHE program, fee-for-service coverage is provided until the recipient is enrolled into managed care. Managed care coverage is determined using prospective enrollment following current cutoff rules. Managed care health benefits are provided through the STAR Program.

Example: An application is received on January 1 and processed on January 25 (after cutoff); the managed care effective date is March 1. The initial months (January and February) will be covered as fee-for-service.

Since there is no income test, deductions are not considered as a factor in determining eligibility for Former Foster Care in Higher Education (FFCHE).

F-1700, School Enrollment

F-1710, General Policy

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

An applicant or recipient must be enrolled in an institution of higher education located in Texas to receive Former Foster Care in Higher Education (FFCHE) health care benefits. The applicant/recipient may be attending school half-time or full-time. There is no requirement regarding the number of hours the student must be taking. The following are considered institutions of higher education:

- college (public or private),
- community college,
- junior college,
- technical institute, and
- university.

Note: Trade schools such as beauty schools or mechanic schools do not meet the definition of an institution of higher education.

F-1720, Verification Requirements

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

School enrollment must be verified at application and renewal. The following are valid sources of verification for school enrollment:

- financial aid statement;

F—2010 Notice to Applicants

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

When processing an application, redetermination or change, advisors are required to inform the individual if their request is pended, certified, sustained, or denied. Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) disposition is the end result of processing the request for assistance and will generate Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action. However, if the EDG cannot be disposed because it is pending for additional information/verification, the advisor must provide the individual with Form H1020, Request for Information or Action.

Form H1020, Request for Information or Action

Form H1020 informs the individual of the:

- reason the case is pending;
- action the individual or advisor must take;
- date by which the individual or advisor must take action; and
- date the advisor must deny the application or case if the individual does not take action, if applicable.

Note: For Spanish-speaking only individuals, ensure that all comments provided are in Spanish.

Form TF0001F, Notice of Case Action

TF0001F informs the individual:

- the date benefits begin; or
- the date of denial; and
- about his/her right to request a review of the case action.

Note: For Spanish-speaking only individuals, ensure that all comments provided are in Spanish.

F—2020 Length of Certification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) calculates the eligibility end date from the date the advisor disposes the EDG as follows:

- Applications – initial certification month plus 11 months.
- Renewals – 12 months from the last certification month.

Individuals are eligible for Former Foster Care in Higher Education (FFCHE) health care benefits for 12 months or through the month of their 23rd birthday, whichever is earlier.

Exception: A individual is not eligible to receive 12 months of coverage if the individual:

- reaches age 23,
- dies,
- voluntarily withdraws,
- moves out-of-state,
- reports receipt of adequate health coverage, or
- is not attending an institution of higher education.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) sends a renewal packet containing Form H1869, Renewal for Health Care Services; Form H1870, School Enrollment Verification Form; and a business reply envelope in the 11th month of the 12-month certification period.

F-2160, Processing Renewals

F—2161 How to Process a Renewal

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Former Foster Care in Higher Education (FFCHE) recipients receive a passive renewal. Individuals are only required to return a renewal packet if information they provided during the application process has changed. If the individual does not return a renewal packet by the first calendar day of the last month of the certification period, TIERS automatically re-certifies the FFCHE Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) for another 12-month period, or through the month of the individual's 23rd birthday, whichever is earlier. This will not require the Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) advisor to run eligibility or dispose the case.

Exception: School enrollment must be verified at application or renewal for FFCHE. If an FFCHE individual does not return the renewal packet, TIERS will process the passive renewal and will pend the EDG for school enrollment verification. If verification is not provided, the advisor will be required to run eligibility and dispose the case to sustain or deny benefits.

There is no interview requirement for an FFCHE renewal. The file date is the day any local Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) eligibility determination office receives the FFCHE application.

Verification from an associated EDG can be used if provided within 90 days of the FFCHE file date.

Follow the policy below when Form H1869/Form H1869-S, Renewal for Health Care Benefits, is returned for a renewal.

If the individual provides Form H1869/Form H1869-S indicating no change and has an associated EDG, review the associated EDG to determine if there is any conflicting data and if there is any documentation to clear the conflicting information. If not, request new verification via Form H1020, Request for Information or Action.

If the individual returns Form H1869/Form H1869-S reporting changes, provides verification and there are no associated EDGs, process the renewal using the new verification.

If the individual returns Form H1869/Form H1869-S reporting changes, provides verification and there are associated EDGs, review the associated EDGs and use the most recent information provided.

If the associated EDGs have other information the family did not report for the FFCHE EDG that would impact FFCHE eligibility, contact the individual (by telephone or Form H1020 with due date) to determine if the information in the associated EDGs is correct before denying or taking adverse action on the EDG.

If the individual returns Form H1869/Form H1869-S reporting changes without verification and has associated EDGs, request new verification via Form H1020.

If the individual returns Form H1869/Form H1869-S indicating changes, does not provide verification and does not have associated EDGs, request information needed to determine eligibility. If the individual does not provide the information, do not renew eligibility.

F-2170, Renewal Time Frames

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

If the individual returns a renewal packet, advisors must make an eligibility determination by the 30th day from the file date.

Note: A renewal application is considered a renewal if it is received by the last day of the 12-month certification period.

Reopen a renewal application denied for failing to furnish information or verification if the missing information/verification is provided by the 60th day from the file date. Use the date the missing information/verification was provided as the new file date.

Use the original Form H1869/Form H1869-S, Renewal for Health Care Benefits, until it is 60 days old. If the information on Form H1869/Form H1869-S has changed or is more than 45 days old, the individual and advisor must update the form.

Reminder: Consider a renewal application received after the last day of the 12-month certification period as an application using application processing time frames.

F-2180, Pending Information

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Allow the household at least 10 days to provide missing information/verification. The due date must be a workday. Advisors must request documents that are readily available to the household if the documents are anticipated to be sufficient verification. If the applicant has any active or inactive EDGs, check to see if any verification previously provided for another EDG can be used to determine eligibility for FFCHE.

Use verifications accepted for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), Medical Programs or the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

For example, if you accept wage verification for a SNAP case, that same verification is acceptable for TANF, Medical Programs or FFCHE.

Exception: Verification of U.S. citizenship for applicants must be from a Medicaid-acceptable source. Staff cannot access the State Online Query/Wire Third-Party Query (SOLQ/WTPY) inquiry to verify citizenship or Retirement, Survivors and Disability Insurance (RSDI) for FFCHE processing. Advisors must request other types of verification, such as copies of birth certificates for citizenship and award letters for RSDI benefits.

Note: Do not use verification that is over 90 days old from the FFCHE file date.

F—2181 Summary of Due Dates for Form H1020, Request for Information or Action

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Case Action	Due Date	Final Due Date
Application	10 days	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 30th day, or • 10th day if the household's Form H1020 due date extends beyond the 30th day

FFCHE recipients do not have the right to request a fair hearing. FFCHE recipients can request a review of the case action. A request for review is any expression of dissatisfaction with an adverse action. Inform FFCHE recipients that requests for review must be submitted in writing.

FFCHE recipients have 30 business days from the date of the notification letter to submit a request for review concerning the decision that resulted in an adverse action. They must submit the request for review in writing to:

- by toll-free fax to 877-542-5951.

Upon receipt of the request for review, CBS staff review the adverse action and respond in writing within 10 business days from the date of receipt of the request. The response letter (Form TF0001F, Notice of Case Action) has information about the agency's answer to the request for review. Document the final decision in TIERS Case Comments.

When a request for review is received after 30 business days or the request for review is not for an adverse action, deny the request and generate Form TF0001F, to inform the household of the denial reason.

Part M, Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth

M-100, Application Processing

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The Chafee Foster Care Independence Act of 1999 gave states the option to extend Medicaid coverage to the population of youth who are between ages 18 and 21 and have aged out of foster care. Senate Bill 51, 77th Texas Legislature, Regular Session, 2001, was passed and signed into law effective September 1, 2001. This law allows the state to provide Medicaid coverage to youths who are aging out of foster care until they reach their 21st birthday.

The process to cover these individuals is coordinated between the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS), which administers the foster care program, and the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC). When a child who is not eligible for Former Foster Care Children (FFCC) ages out of foster care in Texas, Medicaid eligibility is transferred from Foster Care Medicaid to Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth (MTFCY). DFPS certifies initial MTFCY eligibility for youths aging out of foster care and HHSC is then responsible for determining their future Medicaid eligibility.

Note: There may be situations in which HHSC processes the initial certification.

M—111 Type of Assistance (TP) 70 – Medical Assistance – MTFCY

Revision 19-4; Effective October 1, 2019

To be eligible for MTFCY, a person must:

- be ineligible for FFCC (see Part E, Former Foster Care Children [FFCC]);

- be ages 18 up to 21;
- have been in foster care in Texas on their 18th birthday, or have had an Interstate Compact on the Placement of Children (ICPC) agreement*;
- meet medical programs citizenship and Social Security number requirements;
- be a Texas resident;
- not have adequate health coverage as defined by HHSC; and
- have countable income equal to or less than the applicable income limit for TP 70, defined in C-131.1, Federal Poverty Income Limits (FPIIL). Exception: Persons who have had an ICPC agreement do not need to meet the income requirement.

* Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) staff must contact DFPS to determine whether the person had an ICPC agreement. DFPS has three business days to respond.

Specialized staff process all MTFCY case actions.

M—112 Application Processing

Revision 20-3; Effective July 1, 2020

Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) staff receive:

- a new MTFCY case/Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) via an interface with the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS); or
- an application completed by a person who aged out of foster care.

Note: DFPS provides a notice of eligibility to each person.

CBS staff are notified by DFPS or HHSC Quality Assurance when a referral or interface is not completed. If a DFPS referral or interface is not completed or processed, CBS staff must contact DFPS to determine the reason the person was not sent to HHSC via the interface and confirm whether eligibility criteria are met for MTFCY. If the person meets the eligibility criteria in M-111, Type of Assistance (TP) 70 - Medical Assistance - MTFCY, CBS staff certify the person for MTFCY without requiring an application.

There are instances when a person is denied ongoing MTFCY coverage and must submit a new application for benefits. A person may be denied ongoing MTFCY coverage if they:

- voluntarily withdraw;
- move out of state; or
- fail to return verification during a renewal.

A person denied ongoing MTFCY benefits may experience a gap in coverage. When there is a gap in coverage, the person must apply using any of the Medical Programs application channels explained in A-113, Application Requests and Submissions.

The question "Were you in foster care at age 18 or older?" must be marked Yes on the application for eligibility to be considered for MTFCY.

If ineligible for MTFCY, the person will be considered for eligibility under other Medical Programs.

M-900, Adequate Health Coverage (Third-Party Resource)

M-910, General Policy

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

An applicant or recipient is not eligible to receive Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth (MTFCY) benefits if the individual currently has adequate health coverage. Adequate health coverage is also known as a third-party resource (TPR). Adequate health coverage is defined as receiving coverage under:

- group health insurance,
- health insurance coverage,
- Medicare (Part A or Part B),

- Medicaid (with the exception of the Texas Women's Health Program, Medicaid with Spend Down, and Community Attendant),
- Armed Forces insurance, or
- a state health risk pool.

Deny an application for an individual who has adequate health coverage.

Do not consider a plan with a limited scope of coverage such as dental, vision, long-term care, etc., or for only a specific illness/disease such as drug/substance abuse as adequate health coverage.

Consider an applicant/recipient as having adequate health coverage even if it has limits on benefits or high deductibles.

If staff receive a task with information that the individual has TPR and the "NHIC" box is greyed out, advisors deny rather than pend the EDG. This information has already been verified by the Office of Inspector General – Third Party Liability area.

When an MTFCY applicant is denied due to adequate health care coverage, Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, will read:

"We found that you already have private health insurance. To learn more about the insurance you already get, call toll-free 1-800-846-7307 (after you pick a language, press 2)."

In some instances, the parents of MTFCY recipients have TPR coverage for them without the individual knowing. If the individual states they are not aware of the TPR, staff should advise them to call the claims administrator's Third Party Liability Customer Service Line at 1-800-846-7307 and select option 2. This will allow the individual to obtain information regarding their TPR.

If the TPR information in the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) has been verified by the claims administrator but needs to be updated, staff should fax the completed Form H1039, Medical Insurance Input, to the claims administrator at 512-514-4215.

M-920, Verification Requirements

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

Accept self-declaration of adequate health coverage.

Exception: If an applicant is denied due to receiving adequate health coverage and the applicant calls to notify HHSC that the medical insurance is not adequate health coverage, staff would need to verify if the coverage is considered adequate health coverage.

M-930, Documentation Requirements

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

Staff must document in case comments the existence of adequate health coverage.

M-1000, Medicaid Eligibility

M-1010, Three Months Prior Coverage

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

The person is continuously eligible for 12 months beginning the first day of the application month if all eligibility criteria are met. Applicants are eligible to receive benefits beginning the month of their 18th birthday through the end of the month of their 21st birthday.

The medical effective date cannot precede the month of the applicant's 18th birthday.

M—1012 Types of Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The type of coverage determines how recipients access Medicaid services. There are two types of coverage. They are fee-for-service and managed care.

Fee-for-Service — Also known as traditional Medicaid, allows access to any Medicaid provider and self-referral to specialists. The provider submits claims directly to the claims administrator for reimbursement of Medicaid-covered services.

Managed Care — A service delivery program that provides medical care in a managed care setting. The state pays a monthly premium to the health maintenance organization (HMO) for each recipient enrolled in the plan. The plan processes all provider claims.

Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth recipients have the option to enroll in either type of coverage. See A-821.2, Managed Care.

M—2010 Notice to Applicants

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

When processing an application, redetermination or change, advisors are required to inform the individual if their request is pended, certified, sustained, or denied. Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) disposition is the end result of processing the request for assistance and will generate Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action. However, if the EDG cannot be disposed because it is pending for additional information/verification, the advisor must provide the individual with Form H1020, Request for Information or Action.

Form H1020, Request for Information or Action

Form H1020 informs the individual the:

- reason the case is pending,
- action the individual or advisor must take,
- date by which the individual or advisor must take action, and
- date the advisor must deny the application/case if the individual does not take action, if applicable.

Note: For Spanish-speaking only individuals, ensure that all comments provided are in Spanish.

Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action

TF0001 informs the individual:

- the date benefits begin,
- the date of denial,
- about his/her right to appeal, and
- address and telephone number of free legal services available in the area.

Note: For Spanish-speaking only individuals, ensure that all comments provided are in Spanish.

M—2020 Length of Certification

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) calculates the eligibility end date from the date the advisor disposes the EDG as follows:

- Applications – initial certification month plus 11 months.
- Renewals – 12 months from the last certification month.

Individuals are continuously eligible for Medicaid for Transitioning Foster Care Youth benefits for 12 months or through the month of their 21st birthday, whichever is earlier.

Exception: An individual is not eligible to receive 12 months of continuous eligibility if the individual:

- starts receiving adequate health coverage,
- reaches age 21,
- dies,
- voluntarily withdraws, or
- moves out-of-state.

Advisors must make an eligibility determination by the 45th day from the file date.

Advisors reopen an application denied for failing to furnish information/verification if the missing information is provided by the 60th day from the file date. Use the date the missing information/verification was provided as the new file date.

Advisors use the original application until it is 60 days old.

If the information on the form has changed or is more than 45 days old, the individual and advisor must update the form.

M-2120, Deadlines

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

Provide Form TF-0001, Notice of Case Action, the same day eligibility is determined for an application but no later than 45 days from the file date.

M-2130, Missed Interviews

Revision 10-2; Effective April 1, 2010

No interview is required to process an application or renewal unless requested by the applicant/individual. If requested, provide the applicant/individual a telephone interview. If the individual fails to keep the interview, do not deny the application or renewal but continue to process the request for assistance.

M-2140, Pending Information on Applications

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Advisors may not request additional information or documentation from clients unless such information is not available electronically or the information obtained electronically is not consistent with the information provided by the client.

If additional information is needed, advisors must request documents that are readily available to the household and are considered to be sufficient verification. Each handbook section lists potential verification sources. C-900, Verification and Documentation, gives information on verification procedures.

In determining eligibility, advisors must consider any information the individual reports between the application date and the decision date. Include any information the individual reports during the application decision process.

M-2180, Pending Information

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Allow the household at least 10 days to provide missing information/verification. The due date must be a workday. Advisors must request documents that are readily available to the household if the documents are anticipated to be sufficient verification. If the applicant has any active or inactive Eligibility Determination Groups (EDGs), check to see if any verification previously provided for the other EDGs can be used to determine eligibility for MTFCY.

Use verifications accepted for the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program, Medical Programs or the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP).

For example, if you accept wage verification for a SNAP case, that same verification is acceptable for TANF, Medical Programs or MTFCY.

Exception: Only Medical Programs sources of verification of U.S. citizenship for applicants can be used.

Note: Do not use verification that is over 90 days old from the MTFCY file date.

 Toll-free fax: 1-877-447-2839

- A local eligibility determination office (which will send the change to CBS).

Note: When a change is reported by telephone, staff must verify that the person speaking is the individual or an authorized representative.

An individual is continuously eligible for MTFCY for 12 months or through the month of his 21st birthday, whichever is earlier.

An individual must report the following changes:

- an address change;
- income, including sources of income, regular hours worked, and pay rate;

M—2221 Returned Mail

Revision 16-4; Effective October 1, 2016

When returned mail is received, the vendor creates and assigns a Returned Mail (RTML) task to Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) staff for processing.

Upon receipt of the RTML task, CBS staff must take the following actions:

1. Review the address on the returned mail, the case record, and the State Portal to determine whether the household has reported a new address. If a new address has been reported, process the address change and, if there is a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) Eligibility Determination Group (EDG), any related changes in shelter expenses.
2. If a new address has not been reported and a forwarding address was not provided, attempt to contact the household via telephone to obtain an updated address and document the attempt. If the household provides a new address, process the address change and, if there is a SNAP EDG, any related changes in shelter expenses. Otherwise go to Step 3.
3. If there is an individual(s) in the household who receives Retirement, Survivor's and Disability Insurance (RSDI) or Supplemental Security Income (SSI), use the State Online Query (SOLQ) to verify the household's address. Use the address in SOLQ to update the address if the address in SOLQ differs from the address on file and, if there is a SNAP EDG, explore shelter expenses.

If the address in SOLQ matches the address in the TIERS record, document in TIERS Case Comments that the SOLQ inquiry address matches the TIERS address and take no further action.

If unable to contact the individual by phone and there is not an individual(s) in the household who receives RSDI or SSI for the:

- MTFCY EDG, go to Step 4; and
- SNAP EDG, follow Step 5 under the process for a case that includes a SNAP EDG in B-638, Returned Mail.

4. If unable to update the address, simultaneously send emails using the following CBS email box to:

- Health Plan Operations (HPO) using the following email box:
 - cbs_ffche-mtfcy@hhsc.state.tx.us and
- Preparation for Adult Living (PAL) using the following email box:
 - OES_FFCC@hhsc.state.tx.us

HPO Process

- Send an email to the Medicaid CHIP Division (MCD) Health Plan Operations (HPO) at HPO_Star_Plus@hhsc.state.tx.us .
- Include in the subject line Returned Mail – [last four digits of the client's case number].
- Include the following information in the email:
 - case name;
 - case number;
 - individual's date of birth (DOB), Social Security Number (SSN), and Medicaid individual Identification Number; and
 - date the response is needed.
- Leave the RTML task pending.

PAL Process

- Use the link below to identify the Lead Regional PAL staff covering the region of the client's last known address.
 - http://www.dfps.state.tx.us/Child_Protection/Youth_and_Young_Adults/Preparation_For_Adult_Living/PAL_coordinators.asp
- Send an email to the identified Lead Regional PAL staff.
- Include in the subject line Returned Mail -- [last four digits of the client's case number].
- Include the following information in the email:
 - case name;
 - case number;
 - individual's DOB, SSN, and Medicaid Individual Identification Number; and
 - date the response is needed.
- Leave the RTML task Pending.

Note:

For an individual who aged out of the Unaccompanied Refugee Minor (URM) Resettlement program, contact the following agencies and individuals to determine if the agency or individual has an updated address for the former URM:

- The URM's former Voluntary Agency (VolAg); and
- The two agencies in Texas that have URM programs:
 - Catholic Charities Diocese of Fort Worth
 - Jennifer Frazier, URM Director, at jfrazier@ccdofw.org

- Catholic Charities Diocese of Galveston-Houston
 - Debbie Sandberg, URM Coordinator, at 713-874-6505 or dsandberg@catholiccharities.org
 - Raj Kendrick, URM Director, at 281-874-6530 or rkendrick@catholiccharities.org
5. The MCD HPO and DFPS PAL staff have ten calendar days to respond. It is important that staff make the request as soon as possible. The response will include either:
- the known address on file for the individual; or
 - no known address on file for the individual.

MCD HPO responds to the CBS email mailbox (cbs_ffche-mtfcy@hhsc.state.tx.us) and copies the original requestor with information from the plan by the tenth calendar day from when the email is sent, either confirming or denying that they have an address on file for the client. If they confirm, the response will include the address on file.

The DFPS PAL program responds to the email box (OES_FFCC@hhsc.state.tx.us) and copies the original requestor with information from the Lead Regional PAL staff by the tenth calendar day from when the email is sent, either confirming or denying that they have an address on file for the client. If they confirm, the response will include the address on file.

Note: If the MCD HPO and DFPS PAL both respond and provide different addresses, use the address received from the MCD HPO (unless the individual has already provided an address).

6. For cases with a SNAP EDG, if by the Form H1020 due date, the household:
- provides the requested information, process the address change for all active EDGs, including the MTF CY EDG, and address any related changes in shelter expenses for the SNAP EDG; or
 - fails to provide the requested information, deny the SNAP EDG for failure to provide information. Send Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action, using the denial reason, "Failed to Provide Information".

For the MTF CY EDG, if by the tenth calendar day due date the HPO/PAL information:

- is provided, use the information to update the address in the TIERS record; or
- is not provided, use the following steps to deny the EDG(s) using the denial reason "Unable to Locate" as stated in A-2344.1, Form TF0001 Required (Adequate Notice).
 - In Change Action Mode, go to "Household Information" and select "Yes" for the question "is the worker unable to locate the household?"
 - Run eligibility.

Note: The HPO/PAL information cannot be used to verify residence for SNAP EDGs.

7. If MCD HPO or DFPS PAL provide an updated address within 30 days of the EDG's denial due to "Unable to Locate," reopen the EDG.

For the SNAP EDG, if the household is denied for failure to provide information and provides a correct address within the advance notice adverse action period, reopen the EDG using the original certification period and process any related changes in shelter expenses. Please refer to the TIERS Advance Notice of Adverse Action Reference Guide in the ASK iT Knowledge Base for instructions.

Notes:

- If an address provided by MCD HPO or the DFPS PAL program differs from an address provided by the household, contact the household to resolve the discrepancy.
- For SNAP EDGs, if the household provides verification of residence, but does not provide information regarding shelter expenses, re-budget eligibility without the shelter expense and notify the household, according to policy in A-631, Actions on Changes.

W-500, Age

W-510, General Policy

Revision 21-3; Effective July 1, 2021

To receive Healthy Texas Women (HTW) benefits, the recipient must be 15 through 44. An applicant is considered 15 the month of her 15th birthday and age 44 through the month of her 45th birthday. A parent or legal guardian must apply on behalf of minors 15 through 17.

Ten days prior to a woman turning 18 years old, she will receive Form H1871, HTW Client Turning 18 Years Old, to inform her she is now responsible for managing her own HTW Eligibility Determination Group \(EDG\). The form also provides information about how to report a confidential address.

Married minors are not eligible for HTW; the TF0001 will inform the minor of other services they may be eligible to receive.

Examples:

In these examples, the applicant has already been determined ineligible for full coverage Medicaid and the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) and is now being tested for HTW eligibility.

- A woman turns 15 on Feb. 9. Her parent filed an application on Jan. 17. The woman is ineligible to receive HTW as she is not turning 15 in the application month. A parent or legal guardian must reapply in the month of February to meet the age requirements.
- A woman turns 18 on July 27. Her parent filed an application on June 5. The woman is eligible for HTW if other eligibility criteria are met. Ten days prior to her 18th birthday on July 17, Form H1871 is generated to inform her once she turns 18 she is responsible for managing her own HTW EDG.
- A woman turns 45 on May 5. She will no longer be eligible to receive HTW benefits effective June 1.

Age is self-declared. If questionable, verify the applicant's age using the Bureau of Vital Statistics (BVS). If unable to verify using BVS, attempt to contact the applicant to clear the discrepancy. Use information provided by the applicant on a previous EDG, if possible.

If the applicant is not eligible for full coverage Medicaid or CHIP and the application is received in a month the applicant:

- is 14, and the application is processed in a month she becomes 15, deny the application because of age;
- is 44, and the application is processed in a month she becomes 45, if otherwise eligible, certify for the month of application and the month of her 45th birthday; or
- becomes 45, and the application is processed the month after her 45th birthday, if otherwise eligible, certify for the month of application only.

Use the following denial reason:

- English — You do not meet the age requirement for the Healthy Texas Women program. To receive benefits under this program, you must be 15 through 44 years of age.
- Spanish — Usted no llena los requisitos de edad del programa Healthy Texas Women. Para recibir beneficios bajo este programa, tiene que tener entre 15 y 44 años de edad.

Married minors 15 through 17 are not eligible for HTW. If the married minor is not eligible for Medicaid and CHIP, use the denial reason, "Denied 15-17 married minors" for HTW. The TF0001, Notice of Case Action, will include the following language:

English:

HTW is a fee-for-service program. Fee-for-service allows access to any health care provider and self-referral to specialists. The provider submits claims directly to the claims administrator for reimbursement of covered services.

If the HTW recipient reports she is pregnant during her 12-month continuous coverage period, determine if she is eligible for Medicaid for Pregnant Women or CHIP-P. Do not require the recipient to complete a new application. TIERS will deny the HTW EDG once the recipient is certified to receive benefits for her pregnancy.

W—913 Third-Party Resource (TPR)

Revision 21-3; Effective July 1, 2021

A woman is ineligible to receive HTW benefits if she has creditable health coverage (TPR). The applicant or recipient has creditable health coverage if her private health insurance covers family planning services.

An applicant or recipient's private health insurance is considered to cover family planning services if it provides both:

- family planning-related physician office visits and procedures, and
- contraceptive drugs and devices.

In making this determination, only consider whether the private health insurance provides coverage and do not give consideration to other issues such as high deductibles or dollar limits on drug coverage.

Applications for medical programs ask the following questions:

1. Do you have health insurance that covers family planning services? Yes No
2. If yes, will filing a claim on your health insurance cause physical, emotional or other harm to you from your spouse, parents or other person? Yes No
3. If yes, you must provide an explanation below of your situation.

An applicant with creditable health coverage is eligible to receive HTW benefits only if identifying and providing information to assist in pursuing third parties is against her best interest.

When determining HTW eligibility after the woman has been determined ineligible for full Medicaid and CHIP, pend the applicant if she does not answer question 1, question 2, or both. Allow the applicant normal processing time frames to provide an answer. Verification is self-declared by the applicant. If the applicant does not self-declare the answer to question 1, question 2, or both by the deadline, deny the application for failure to provide.

If the applicant states Yes to question 1 and question 2 but leaves question 3 blank, do not pend the applicant for an answer. Continue determining eligibility.

If the applicant states Yes to question 1 and No to question 2, deny the application using the following denial reason code and add the statement below to the comment section of Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action.

- English — On your application you told us you are covered by other health insurance. Women who are covered by other health insurance cannot receive Healthy Texas Women benefits.
- Spanish — En la solicitud, usted nos dijo que tiene cobertura de otro seguro médico. Las mujeres con cobertura de otro seguro médico no pueden recibir beneficios del programa Healthy Texas Women.

If during the recipient's 12-month continuous coverage period she reports having creditable health insurance, record the change and take action on the TPR information at the next renewal.

W—914 Automatic Eligibility Determination for HTW

Revision 21-3; Effective July 1, 2021

HTW is part of the Modified Adjusted Gross Income \(MAGI\) cascade. Unless the woman opts out, all women are automatically tested for HTW eligibility when they are determined ineligible for other MAGI Medicaid programs and CHIP.

Women can opt out of the automatic HTW eligibility determination by indicating they want to waive HTW testing on their initial or renewal application.

When processing the following alerts, run the full MAGI cascade. If the cascade results in a denial of Medicaid and CHIP because the woman does not meet eligibility requirements, refer the woman to the Marketplace and test her for HTW eligibility.

- Alert 819, CHIP Child Aging Out Test MAGI
- Alert 823, MA Child Aging Out Test MAGI
- Alert 824, Pregnancy Ending Test MAGI
- Alert 825, Transitional MA Ending Test MAGI
- Alert 903, Test MAGI – Individual Aging out of TP 70 or TA 82

Note: Women receiving Medicaid for Pregnant Women (TP 40) are tested for HTW eligibility at the end of their TP 40 certification period even if they:

- voluntarily withdraw from Medicaid for Parents and Caretaker Relatives (TP 08), including before an eligibility determination is made; or
- are determined to be potentially eligible for Medicaid for Parents and Caretaker Relatives (TP 08) but fail to complete the interview.

When transitioning to HTW from another MAGI Medicaid program or CHIP, the effective date of the HTW EDG is the first day of the month following the end of the previous benefit's certification period.

When a woman is determined eligible for HTW, TIERS generates:

- a TF0001, Notice of Case Action; and
- Form H1872, HTW Opting Out and Reporting Confidential Address.

Form H1872 provides the HTW recipient an opportunity to voluntarily withdraw (opt out) and report a confidential address. Form TF0001 and H1872 are addressed to the HTW recipient and mailed to the:

- confidential address; or
- case address if a confidential address has not been provided.

Women who transition to Healthy Texas Women (HTW) from another Medicaid program or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) receive Form H1872, HTW Opting Out and Reporting Confidential Address, along with Form TF0001. The Form H1872 informs the woman of the:

- options to voluntary withdraw from HTW; and
- process to report a confidential address.

HTW recipients turning 18 years old receive Form H1871, HTW Client Turning 18 Years Old, ten days prior to their 18th birthday. This informs the woman of:

- the process to report a confidential address; and
- their responsibility to manage their HTW benefits.

Note: For women who only speak Spanish, ensure that all comments provided are in Spanish.

W-1920, Eligibility Begin Dates

Revision 21-3; Effective July 1, 2021

The applicant is eligible the first day of the file date month or, if ineligible the month of application for certain reasons, the first day of the month following the month of application.

Women who transition into HTW from another Medicaid program or CHIP have an effective date of the first day of the month following the end of their previous certification period.

Example: If the TP 40, Medicaid for Pregnant Women, certification end date is Sept. 30, then the HTW effective date is Oct. 1.

A woman is ineligible to receive HTW benefits if she applies the month after her 45th birthday.

The Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) calculates an end date from the date the advisor certifies the application/renewal as follows:

- Applications — initial certification month plus 11 months.
- Renewals — 12 months from the last certification month.

Women are continuously eligible for Healthy Texas Women benefits for 12 months or through the month of the woman's 45th birthday, whichever is earlier.

Exception: A woman does not receive her 12 months of continuous eligibility if she:

- is found eligible for Medicaid, Medicare (Part A or B) or the Children's Health Insurance Program;
- dies;
- voluntarily withdraws; or
- moves out of Texas.

W-1940, Setting Special Reviews

Revision 07-0; Effective July 1, 2007

Do not set a special review even if a known change is to occur during the woman's 12-month continuous eligibility period. Document the known change and use the information at the next renewal. Follow current procedures and report the known change if the applicant has other active Eligibility Determination Group cases.

X—110 Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer (MBCC)

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

The Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program and Treatment Act of 2000 gives states the authority to provide Medicaid to low-income women previously not eligible under the Medicaid program. The Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services approved a state plan amendment to allow Texas to provide full Medicaid benefits to uninsured women under age 65 who are identified through the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS) Breast and Cervical Cancer Services (BCCS) programs and who are in need of treatment for breast or cervical cancer, including pre-cancerous conditions. The program was implemented September 1, 2002.

The 80th Texas Legislature, Regular Session, 2007, provided funding to expand the pool of providers who provide screening and diagnostic services to women. As of September 1, 2007, any provider can diagnose a woman for breast or cervical cancer so that she may be eligible for Medicaid through MBCC.

MBCC is displayed in the Texas Integrated Eligibility and Redesign System (TIERS) as TA 67, MA-MBCC.

X—111 MBCC-Presumptive

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

Presumptive eligibility is a Medicaid option that allows states to enroll women in Medicaid for a limited period of time based on a determination by a Medicaid provider of likely Medicaid eligibility. Texas chose the presumptive eligibility option offered in the Breast and Cervical Cancer Control Program and Treatment Act of 2000. The option facilitates prompt Medicaid enrollment and immediate access to services for women who are in need of treatment for breast or cervical cancer.

BCCS contractors determine a woman's presumptive eligibility for MBCC and indicates this on Form H1034, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer. Specialized staff at Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) certify the woman for MBCC-Presumptive if additional information or verification is needed to determine eligibility for another type of Medicaid or ongoing MBCC.

MBCC-Presumptive is displayed in TIERS as TA 66, MA – MBCC-Presumptive.

X-120, General Overview

Revision 17-1; Effective January 1, 2017

To qualify for MBCC, an applicant must:

- be a woman under age 65;
- have been screened for breast or cervical cancer and found to need treatment for either breast or cervical cancer;
- not be insured, that is, she must not otherwise have creditable coverage (creditable coverage refers to a health plan that covers treatment for breast and cervical cancer as well as current enrollment in Medicaid, Medicare or the Children's Health Insurance Program [CHIP]);

- meet Medical Programs citizenship and identity requirements;
- not be eligible for another type of medical assistance; and
- be a resident of Texas.

Only specified staff at CBS determines eligibility for MBCC-Presumptive and MBCC.

If a woman returns the requested information or verification and meets Medicaid eligibility requirements for another type of Medicaid or MBCC, her MBCC-Presumptive Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) is denied prospectively and she is certified for the other type of Medicaid or MBCC. If the woman fails to return the requested information or if based on the information provided, she does not meet Medicaid eligibility requirements, her MBCC-Presumptive EDG is denied effective the date she is found ineligible for ongoing Medicaid.

Once determined eligible for MBCC, a woman remains eligible for Medicaid through the duration of her cancer treatment or until she no longer meets the eligibility criteria, whichever is earlier.

If field staff receives inquiries regarding this program, refer the woman to 2-1-1. Staff at 2-1-1 can assist the woman in locating a Breast and Cervical Cancer Services (BCCS) contractor near their residence who can determine if they have a qualifying diagnosis for MBCC and, if so, assist the woman in applying for MBCC.

X-130, Application Processing

X—131 Application Procedures

Revision 17-3; Effective July 1, 2017

New applicants apply for MBCC using Form H1034, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer. New applicants cannot apply for MBCC using any other application.

Form H1034 can only be obtained through a contracted BCCS provider.

A woman can locate a contracted BCCS provider in her area at <https://www.healthytexaswomen.org/find-a-doctor>.

The BCCS provider assists the individual in completing the application.

A former MBCC recipient can reapply for MBCC, without going through a BCCS provider to be screened, using Form H2340, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer Renewal, and Form H1551, Treatment Verification, if it has been 12 months or less since the diagnosis date for breast or cervical cancer or the date her active treatment was last verified, whichever is later.

The WHS contact validates Form H1034 as having been received and completed by a contracted BCCS provider and indicates if the individual has a qualifying medical diagnosis. Once validated, WHS faxes the application to the vendor. Providers are not allowed to fax Form H1034 directly to the vendor or the HHSC eligibility staff.

Note: Do not process an application if it is not received from WHS without contacting WHS to determine if it is a valid MBCC application.

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

A woman must be screened for breast and cervical cancer under the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC's) National Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program (NBCCEDP). The Breast and Cervical Cancer Services (BCCS) contractor or provider, through the Texas Department of State Health Services (DSHS), is responsible for providing the Texas Health and Human Services Commission (HHSC) with verification that a woman has been screened and diagnosed using the NBCCEDP criteria.

A woman is considered screened under the NBCCEDP if:

- CDC Title XV funds paid for all or part of the cost of her screening services; or
- her particular clinical service has not been paid for by CDC NBCCEDP Title XV funds, but the:
 - service was provided by a provider and/or an entity funded at least in part by CDC Title XV funds;
 - service was within the scope of a grant, sub-grant or contract under that state program; and
 - state CDC Title XV grantee has elected to include such screening activities provided by the provider as screening activities pursuant to CDC Title XV.

The 80th Texas Legislature passed Senate Bill 10, the Medicaid Reform Act, which authorized any health care provider to refer eligible women in need of treatment for breast or cervical cancer to Medicaid. Beginning September 1, 2007, any woman diagnosed with breast or cervical cancer may receive MBCC if they meet all eligibility requirements. The diagnosing provider refers the woman to a BCCS contractor who assists the woman in applying for MBCC.

If Form H1034, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer, is received and the woman does not have a qualifying medical diagnosis, deny the application due to the woman not having a diagnosis for breast or cervical cancer.

X—912 Active Treatment

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

At reapplication and at each redetermination, the MBCC applicant or recipient must provide Form H1551, Treatment Verification, completed by her treating health professional verifying that she needs active treatment services for breast or cervical cancer. Active cancer treatment includes services related to the individual's condition as documented in her plan of care, such as:

- surgery,
- chemotherapy,
- radiation,
- reconstructive surgery, and
- medication (ongoing hormonal treatment).

These services also may include diagnostic services that are necessary to determine the extent and proper course of treatment and active disease surveillance for triple negative receptor breast cancer.

Women who are determined to require only routine health screening services for a breast or cervical condition (for example, annual clinical breast examinations, mammograms and pap tests as recommended by the American Cancer Society and the U.S. Preventative Services Task Force) are not considered to need treatment and are not eligible for MBCC. A woman may reapply for MBCC if she is later diagnosed with a new breast or cervical cancer, pre-cancerous condition or a metastatic or recurrent breast or cervical cancer.

If the woman's treating health professional indicates on Form H1551 that she is not actively receiving treatment, deny the MBCC Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) due to the woman not actively receiving treatment.

X-920, Medicaid Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Women who are eligible for MBCC-Presumptive or MBCC receive full regular Medicaid benefits.

Before certifying a woman for MBCC-Presumptive or MBCC, Centralized Benefit Services (CBS) staff must complete inquiry into the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS) to verify whether the applicant is currently receiving Medicaid or Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) benefits. Deny the application if the woman is receiving other Medicaid coverage. Exceptions: Do not deny the application if it is determined that the other Medicaid coverage is ending or being denied.

X—921 Medical Effective Date (MED)

Revision 12-3; Effective July 1, 2012

Medicaid eligibility begins the date an applicant meets all eligibility criteria. The MED cannot precede the day after the diagnosis date.

For MBCC-Presumptive, the MED is the date the BCCS contractor determines the woman is presumptively eligible for MBCC, but no earlier than the date after the woman was diagnosed with breast or cervical cancer. If the woman provides information needed for MBCC eligibility, provide MBCC coverage for dates that precede the MBCC-Presumptive MED.

Prior Coverage, X-922

X—922 Prior Coverage

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

A woman may be eligible for up to three months of prior coverage under MBCC if all other eligibility requirements are met. MBCC only covers unpaid medical bills for services received after the individual's breast and cervical cancer diagnosis date. If a woman indicates on Form H1034, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer, that she has unpaid medical bills that occurred during the three months before she applied for MBCC, assign an MED of the day after her diagnosis date. Do not require the woman to provide proof of the unpaid medical bills or a completed Form H1113, Application for Prior Medicaid Coverage.

For medical expenses incurred before or on her date of diagnosis, the client must apply for prior Medicaid coverage using Form H1010, Texas Works Application for Assistance — Your Texas Benefits; Form H1205, Texas Streamlined Application; or online at YourTexasBenefits.com. Refer the client to an HHSC eligibility office for the appropriate application or have the client call 2-1-1 to locate the nearest HHSC eligibility office.

Example One: The applicant was diagnosed on August 15 and applied for MBCC on November 21 indicating that she has unpaid medical bills for August, September, October and November. Assign an MED of August 16.

Example Two: The applicant was diagnosed on July 7 and applied for MBCC on July 21 indicating that she has unpaid medical bills for May and June. The individual is not eligible for prior coverage under MBCC since the unpaid medical bills were before her diagnosis date. Assign an MED of July 8.

Example Three: The applicant was diagnosed on January 31 and applied for MBCC on June 4 indicating she has unpaid bills for February. The woman is not eligible for prior coverage since her unpaid medical bills occurred prior to the three-month period before she applied for MBCC.

Note: If the applicant had creditable coverage before applying for MBCC and indicates she has unpaid medical bills for the months she was covered by insurance, the client is not eligible for prior coverage under MBCC. The client must apply for prior Medicaid coverage using Form H1010, Form H1205, or online at YourTexasBenefits.com to determine whether she meets all eligibility requirements for prior Medicaid. See A-831, Three Months Prior Coverage.

X—923 Medicaid Termination

Revision 20-4; Effective October 1, 2020

MBCC eligibility ends when the recipient first meets any of the following conditions. The recipient:

- becomes 65;
- obtains creditable coverage;
- is no longer receiving active treatment for breast or cervical cancer;
- no longer resides in Texas;
- is confined in a public institution; or
- dies.

X-930, Creditable Coverage

X—931 General Overview

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

A woman is ineligible to receive MBCC if she has creditable coverage. Deny an MBCC application if her plan covers breast or cervical cancer treatment.

Creditable coverage is defined as:

- group health insurance;
- health insurance coverage;
- Medicare (Part A or B);
- Medicaid;
- CHIP;
- armed forces insurance; or
- a state health risk pool.

Do not consider a plan with a limited scope of coverage such as dental, vision, long-term care, etc., or for only a specific illness/disease, such as drug/substance abuse, as creditable coverage. Note: Healthy Texas Women (TA 41) is not considered creditable coverage.

Consider a woman as having creditable coverage even if it has limits on benefits, such as limited drug coverage or limits on the number of outpatient visits, or high deductibles. A woman is considered to no longer have creditable coverage if she:

- is in a period of exclusion (such as pre-existing condition exclusions or a health maintenance organization [HMO] affiliation period) for treatment of breast or cervical cancer; or
- exhausts her lifetime limit on all benefits under the plan or coverage or her yearly benefits for breast or cervical cancer treatment. When the new plan year begins, determine if the woman has creditable coverage.

Note: Set a special review if it is known that the exclusion period of the creditable coverage will expire (pre-existing period has expired) or the woman's yearly benefits for breast or cervical cancer treatment will be reinstated before the next periodic review. See X-1930, Setting Special Reviews.

Women screened under BCCS are not subject to a waiting period if they had prior creditable coverage.

As long as the termination of the creditable coverage occurs before disposition, a woman is eligible to receive benefits under the MBCC program.

A woman is required to report when she has obtained creditable coverage.

If an MBCC applicant indicates she has health insurance but does not know whether it provides coverage for breast or cervical cancer, certify the woman for MBCC-Presumptive. Contact the insurance provider to verify whether the policy provides coverage for breast or cervical cancer.

X—932 Other Medical Assistance

Revision 17-2; Effective April 1, 2017

An MBCC applicant is not eligible to receive benefits if she is currently receiving Medicaid, Medicare Part A or B, or coverage through CHIP. If an application is received for a woman who receives Medicaid, Medicare (Part A or B) or CHIP, or if a Medicaid or CHIP application is certified before the MBCC application, deny the MBCC application.

Staff must verify via TIERS, the State Online Query (SOLQ) or the Wire Third-Party Query (WTPY) system that an applicant is not currently enrolled in Medicaid, Medicare Part A or B, CHIP, or Healthy Texas Women (HTW) before disposition. If a woman is eligible for MBCC and is currently receiving HTW, the HTW EDG must be denied.

X—932.1 Currently Receiving MBCC and Applies for Other Benefits

Revision 16-3; Effective July 1, 2016

A woman receiving MBCC-Presumptive or MBCC who is found eligible for another type of Medicaid program is ineligible to continue to receive MBCC-Presumptive or MBCC. The MBCC advisor receives a task to prospectively deny the MBCC-Presumptive/MBCC EDG so that the advisor processing the application can certify the woman for the other type of Medicaid. The MED for the other Medicaid type begins the first of the month following the MBCC-Presumptive/MBCC EDG denial.

When the other Medicaid type of assistance is denied, the woman may be eligible for MBCC if she continues to be in need of active treatment for breast or cervical cancer and she meets all other eligibility criteria. When the other type of Medicaid is denied (unless the denial is due to death, unable to locate or a move out of state), TIERS generates a reapplication packet if the woman is under age 65 and less than 12 months has passed since her diagnosis date or the date her active treatment was last verified, whichever is later. The reapplication packet contains:

- Form H1833, Cover Letter — Other Medicaid Ending or Form H1834, Cover Letter — Other Medicaid Denied;
- Form H2340, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer Renewal;
- Form H1551, Treatment Verification;
- a self-addressed envelope; and
- Form H0025, HHSC Application for Voter Registration.

The woman must return the completed Form H2340 and Form H1551 for her eligibility for MBCC to be reconsidered.

If more than 12 months have passed since the woman's diagnosis date or her active treatment was last verified, the woman must be screened and reapply for MBCC through a Breast or Cervical Cancer Services (BCCS) contractor using Form H1034, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer. TIERS generates either Form H1833-L, Other Medicaid Ending, or Form H1834-L, Other Medicaid Denied, informing the woman how to reapply for MBCC and provides the web address (<http://txclinics.dshs.texas.gov/chcl/>) where the woman can locate a BCCS contractor in her area.

X-940, New State Residents

Revision 13-4; Effective October 1, 2013

If a woman is screened in another state through the CDC's National Breast and Cervical Cancer Early Detection Program (NBCCEDP) and moves to Texas, she may be eligible for MBCC in Texas. If a woman meets the MBCC eligibility criteria in Texas, her screening in another state does not prohibit her from receiving MBCC in Texas.

A new state resident requests MBCC in Texas by contacting 2-1-1. Form H2340-OS, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer, is mailed to the woman for her to complete and return.

Upon receipt of Form H2340-OS, CBS determines the woman's eligibility for MBCC. Staff must verify with the losing state the woman's screening under NBCCEDP and termination of any Medicaid benefits received in that state, if any, before certification. Use Form H1550, Out of State NBCCEDP Verification, to verify the applicants screening and diagnosis.

- During processing, note if the applicant indicates changes on Form H1034 or during the interview, if an interview is requested. Document the nature of the change and when the individual expects the change to occur. If other programs exist for the individual, report the change to the appropriate office.
- Give or mail the applicant Form H1019, Report of Change. Explain that she must report changes involving her address or creditable coverage within 10 days after knowing about the change. Indicate the appropriate reporting requirement on Page 1.
- Refer the applicant to other programs for which she might be eligible such as Family Planning; Supplemental Security Income or other benefits from the Social Security Administration; and Women, Infants and Children (WIC). X-1900, Case Disposition

X-1910, Notice to Applicants

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Case disposition is the result of processing a request for assistance. Advisors must produce a notice of eligibility status. At the end of the interview, if one was requested by the client, or once Form H1034, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer; Form H2340, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer Renewal; or Form H2340-OS, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer, has been processed, mail the client one of the following notices to inform the individual that the case is pending, certified, sustained or denied.

Form H1020, Request for Information or Action

Form H1020 informs the individual the:

- reason the case is pending;
- action the individual or advisor must take;
- date by which the individual or advisor must take action; and
- date the advisor must deny the application/case if the individual does not take action, if applicable.

If all required proof/verification is not available when processing the application, the advisor allows the household at least 10 days to provide it. The due date must be a workday. Advisors determine what sources of proof/verification are readily available to the household and request those sources first if the advisor expects them to be sufficient proof/verification. If the applicant has an active or inactive Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) in the Texas Integrated Eligibility Redesign System (TIERS), the advisor checks to see whether any proof/verification previously provided on any other EDG can be used to determine eligibility for Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer (MBCC).

Note: Verification previously provided on another case/EDG is only acceptable if it was provided within the 90 days preceding the file date.

Form TF0001, Notice of Case Action

If eligible for MBCC-Presumptive or MBCC, Form TF0001 informs the client of:

- the date benefits begin,
- her right to appeal, and
- the address and phone number of free legal services available in the area.

If the woman is certified for MBCC-Presumptive, a separate Form H1020 is sent informing her of the additional information needed to determine her eligibility for MBCC.

If ineligible for MBCC-Presumptive or MBCC, Form TF0001 informs the client of:

- the date of denial,
- her right to appeal, and
- the address and phone number of free legal services available in the area.

No appointment is required to process an application or renewal unless requested by the applicant or recipient. If requested, provide a telephone interview. If she fails to keep her appointment, do not deny the application or renewal; continue to process the application/renewal.

X-2040, Pending Information on Applications

Revision 15-4; Effective October 1, 2015

Advisors may not request additional information or documentation from clients unless such information is not available electronically or the information obtained electronically is not consistent with the information provided by the client.

Advisors must request documents that are readily available to the household if the advisor anticipates them to be sufficient verification. Each Texas Works Handbook section lists potential verification sources. C-900, Verification and Documentation, provides information on verification procedures.

In determining eligibility, the advisor must consider any information the individual reports between the application date and the decision date. Include any information the individual reports during the application decision process.

Note: Verification previously provided on another Eligibility Determination Group (EDG) is only acceptable if it was provided within the 90 days preceding the file date.

X-2050, Notice of Renewal

X-2070, Processing Time Frames

Revision 16-3; Effective July 1, 2016

Advisors must process periodic reviews before cutoff in the month:

- the review date falls, if the review is due on or before cutoff; or

- after the review date, if the review is due after cutoff.

If the household must provide verification to complete the review, allow the household at least 10 days to provide it.

Advisors must reopen a renewal form denied for failing to furnish information or verification if the missing information is provided by the 60th day from the file date. The date the missing information/verification was provided is the new file date.

The original Form H2340, Medicaid for Breast and Cervical Cancer Renewal, can be used until it is 60 days old, following the policy explained in B-111, Reuse of an Application Form After Denial.

Advisors must consider a Form H2340 received after the last day of the certification period as an application using application processing time frames in X-2010, Applications, if it is received 12 months or less after the woman's breast or cervical cancer diagnosis date or the date active treatment was last verified, whichever is later.
