<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Child Care Operation</th>
<th>Description</th>
<th>Minimum Standards</th>
<th>Application Info</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Licensed Child Care Home  | The operation:
• provides regular care in the permit holder’s own home;
• serves children whose ages range from birth through age 13;
• provides care fewer than 24 hours per day, but at least two hours a day, three or more days a week; and
• cares for no more than 12 children total, including children related to the caregiver.
Permit type: License                                                                                                                                                                                                 | TAC Chapter 747   | Information on how to Become a Child Care Home Provider                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Registered Child Care Home| The operation:
• provides regular care in the permit holder’s own home;
• serves children whose ages range from birth through age 13;
• provides care for at least four hours a day, three or more days a week, and for more than three consecutive weeks;
• provides care to no more than six children who are unrelated to the caregiver;
• provides after-school care to no more than six additional elementary school children; and
• cares for no more than 12 children, total, including children related to the caregiver.
Permit type: Registration                                                                                                                                                                                                  | TAC Chapter 747   | Information on how to Become a Child Care Home Provider                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Listed Family Home        | The operation:
• provides regular care in the caregiver’s own home, for compensation;
• serves children whose ages range from birth through age 13;
• provides care for at least four hours a day, three or more days a week, and for more than three consecutive weeks;
• cares for no more than three unrelated children; and
• cares for no more than 12 children, total, including children who are related to the caregiver.
Permit type: Listing                                                                                                                                                                                                       | TAC Chapter 742   | Information on how to Become a Child Care Home Provider                                                                                                                                                                               |