

Recovering TOGETHER

*Substance use
recovery programs help mothers and babies.*

THE DANGERS OF OPIOID WITHDRAWAL

Stopping opioid use during pregnancy can be dangerous and deadly for mom and baby. Opioids include heroin or prescription painkillers.

TREATMENT

The healthiest way for mom and baby to recover is Medication Assisted Treatment, the combination of counseling and medication, which reduces complications and improves birth outcomes.

LET'S RECOVER TOGETHER

For help, call:
512-838-4373

Source:

American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, 2012

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration, 2016

TEXAS
Health and Human Services

Substance Use Recovery