Employment First and Benefits

Chimere Clemons & Monty Chamberlain
What is Employment First?

The philosophy that employment in the general workforce should be the first and preferred option for persons with disabilities receiving assistance from publicly funded systems. Simply put, Employment First means real jobs, real wages, earning minimum wage, or better.
Employment in the General Workforce

What does this mean?

• Employment in the general workforce means regular jobs like everyone else in a typical work setting, working side-by-side with people without disabilities, earning regular wages, benefits, and being part of the economic mainstream of our society.
Employment Goal

A person sets employment as a goal with assistance from the Long-Term Services and Supports (LTSS) program/provider.

It is not mandated that the person become employed. Instead, it is a goal based on the person’s desire.
How is Employment First different?

Historically, when it came to publicly funded services, employment in the community has been among a number of choices presented to people with disabilities, and in many cases, individuals have been shuttled to facility-based segregated services. Under Employment First, assistance to find a job in the community and become a tax-paying citizen, is the preferred choice.
Employment First start with a presumption that a person with a disability can work! Unlike other people of working age in our society, where it’s presumed they will become employed, people with disabilities have too often had to demonstrate their “readiness” for employment. The philosophy of Employment First assumes that a person is capable of working until proven otherwise, and employment in the general workforce is the first option pursued.
Why is Employment First Important?

• Texas became an Employment First state with the passage of the 2013 Senate Bill 1226, 83rd Legislature, Regular Session.

• The Texas Health and Human Services Commission, Texas Education Agency, and Texas Workforce Commission have adopted the Employment First policy.

• Read the policy and find out more about Texas Employment First at https://hhs.texas.gov/services/disability/employment/employment-first or EmploymentFirst
HCBS Final Rule

- Released January, 2014 by the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS).
- Deadline for compliance initially set for March 17, 2019.
- Deadline extended to March 17, 2023.
Purpose of HCBS Final Rule

Purpose: To make sure people receiving services in settings that are integrated in and support full access to the community.

Give people the opportunity to:
- a. Seek employment in competitive and integrated settings;
- b. Take part in the community;
- c. Be in control of personal resources; and
- d. Get the same access to services as those not receiving HCBS.
Employment Assistance and Supported Employment

• Employment Assistance (EA)
  • Assists a person to find competitive, integrated employment. The work before the job is acquired.

• Supported Employment (SE)
  • Assists people in maintaining employment. The support provided after the job is acquired.
  • Providers must make employment services available in accordance with the waivers, directly or by third party.
Examples of Billable EA Activities

Services are individualized, person-directed, and may include:

- Exploring personal employment preferences (where do I want to work?);
- Transportation needs for employment (going to look for jobs);
- Filling out job applications;
- Writing resumes; and
- How to dress for an interview.
Examples of Non-billable EA Activities

• Face-to-face contact with a person to provide EA services simultaneously with Day Habilitation services, Supported Employment, CFC PAS/HAB, or Respite.

• EA services accessed and/or funded through other sources at no cost to the program provider such as Employment Services through Texas Workforce Solutions-Vocational Rehabilitation Services formally known as the Department of Assistive and Rehabilitative Service.

• Life skills training such as hygiene/grooming care.
Examples of Billable SE Activities

- Employment adaptations (iPad to read totals aloud to cashier);
- Transportation to and from work;
- Communicating with managers to maintain and sustain stable employment;
- Assisting in reporting income to Social Security; and
- Training or consulting in work-related tasks.
Examples of Non-billable SE Activities

• Interacting with a person prior to obtaining employment (this could potentially be billed as EA instead of SE).

• Face-to-face contact with to provide SE services simultaneously with Day Habilitation services, Supported Employment, CFC PAS/HAB or Respite.

• Any activity taking place in a sheltered work environment or similar types of vocational services in specialized facilities.

• Payment as an incentive to participate in SE activities.
What are Families worried about?

• Failure – letting their child/themselves venture out and fail and then...
  ▪ Lose their job/benefits/income.
  ▪ Become homeless.
  ▪ Go into the criminal justice system.

• Safety – putting their child/themselves at risk for...
  ▪ Robbery and credit insecurity.
  ▪ Abuse from attendants/coworkers/relationships.
  ▪ General health/medical needs.

• Loss of waiver slot and/or cash benefits through Social Security and/or HHSC Medicaid.

Employment is a fundamental value and ambition in American culture, and people with disabilities want to be a part of their communities just as everyone does. HHS is committed to ensuring people with disabilities have access to meaningful employment services in the community, especially integrated competitive employment.
How Often Have You Heard?

• If I go to work, I will lose my benefits.

• I can only earn a certain amount of money each month or I will lose my benefits.

• I can’t get the skills and experience I need for a career without losing my benefits.

• If I go to work and then stop working, I won’t be able to get back my cash benefits or Medicaid/Medicare back.

• If I go to work Social Security will send me a letter asking for a lot of money back.
Basic Terms

• SSA: Social Security Administration

• SSI: Supplemental Security Income

• Title II: Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI), Childhood Disability Beneficiary (CDB/DAC) and Disabled Widow/Widower (DWB)
Social Security Administration
Programs for People with Disabilities 1 of 3

• Administers several programs for people with disabilities that provide a monthly cash benefit and/or health insurance through two Social Security Administration (SSA) programs:

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
• $794 Federal Benefit Rate (2021) for an individual;
• $1,191 (2021) for a married couple;
• Resource limits not to exceed $2000 for an individual and $3000 for a couple. (2021);
• If you qualify for SSI in Texas you automatically get Medicaid;
• When you go to work and can pay some of your food and shelter with your earnings, your SSI cash benefit goes down;
Social Security Administration Programs for People with Disabilities 2 of 3

• You will always have more money in your pocket to pay bills and enjoy life when you work!

• Monthly amount will vary if there has been an overpayment, earned income from working or some other source of unearned income, or the individual lives with someone who provides them with full or partial food and shelter.
Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI)

- Based on work history;
- If you get SSDI you also get Medicare; and
- No resource limit. The “Oprah” benefit.
Why Two Disability Cash Systems?

• Title II (SSDI)
  ▸ For persons who paid into the system through working or are related to somebody who paid into the system.

• Title XVI (SSI Childhood or Adult)
  ▸ For those who have not paid enough into the system, or do not have the “right” relative who paid into the system to draw Title II. Title XVI are needs based programs.
Can Individuals work and keep Medicaid?

You keep Medicaid and your SSI “status” until you earn $47,676 (2021) gross a year!

This is called “SSI 1619b Medicaid”.

Work Incentives

What are work incentives?

- Work incentives help beneficiaries enter, re-enter, or continue in employment by protecting their eligibility for cash payments and/or health care coverage until they achieve self-supporting employment.

- Expenses for items or services directly related to enabling a person with a disability to remain working. They must be working to receive incentive.
Common things that are covered under work incentives

• Cost of prescription drugs related to disability.
• Paratransit.
• Job coaching.
• Mileage to and from work when driven by someone else—and can not get to work any other way.
• Durable equipment such as wheelchair.
• Assistive Technology if necessary for job.
• Medical services not covered by insurance (e.g. personal attendant care).
Reporting Income

Someone gets a job. What do you do?

• Everyone must report their income to SSA. Those on SSI are required to report every month. Title II are required to report any time there is a change in earnings (even one cent).

• Ways to report:
  • Report using app on Android or I-Phone at mySSA.gov.
  • Wage reporting line: 866-772-0953.
  • By Mail or in person.

Please keep a record of everything!
