Kidney Health Care (KHC) is a statewide program that helps Texans with end-stage renal disease pay for their treatment, including:

- Dialysis treatments
- Access surgery
- Drugs
- Travel to transplant or dialysis services
- Medicare premiums

The program is available to anyone who:

- Lives in Texas
- Has an income less than $60,000 per year
- Has a diagnosis of end-stage renal disease from a licensed doctor
- Gets regular dialysis treatments or has had a kidney transplant
- Meets Medicare’s definition of end-stage renal disease
- Isn’t eligible for Medicaid medical, drug or travel benefits

To apply for Kidney Health Care, please visit the program website on hhs.texas.gov to learn more about your benefits and the application process. Please bring the following items to your provider for enrollment:

- A completed Form 3035 - Kidney Health Care Program Application
  Please visit the Kidney Health Care webpage (hhs.texas.gov/services/health/kidney-health-care) for the most recent application materials

- A completed CMS 2728 - Medical Evidence Report
  A Physician Assessment Form 3057 can be substituted if the CMS 2728 cannot be located.

- Proof of Residency
  This document is used to show proof that the person applying for KHC lives in the state of Texas. The proof can be a utility bill, voter registration card, mortgage payment receipt, valid Texas driver’s license or ID card, and must:
  - Show the applicant’s name
  - Match the home address listed on the application
  - Be current (Texas drivers license, ID card, voter registration)
  - Dated within the last three months (utility bill, mortgage payment receipt)

  Applicants can also submit a letter establishing residency written by a family member they live with. The family member must provide proof of residency with documents listed above.

- Proof of Insurance
  Submit a copy of an ID card (front and back) or official letter for each and every type of health insurance coverage.

- Proof of Social Security Number
  Social Security card or document from SSA with the person’s name and Social Security number listed.
