To Texans interested in Sickle Cell Disease and Sickle Cell Trait issues:

The Texas Health and Human Services Commission is accepting applications for membership on the Sickle Cell Task Force. The task force advises the Texas Department of State Health Services and HHSC on implementing the recommendations made in the 2018 Sickle Cell Advisory Committee Report, or any other report the DSHS Commissioner or HHS executive commissioner deems appropriate.

The HHS executive commissioner will appoint members to the task force to serve a term expiring Aug. 31, 2024. Currently, HHSC is seeking representatives from the following categories:

- Community-based organizations with experience addressing the needs of individuals with sickle cell disease
- Physicians specializing in hematology

A task force member must regularly take part in task force meetings and may also have to take part in subcommittee meetings, projects and presentations. Task force meetings will be held in Austin about once every three months or at the call of the presiding officer. To the extent permitted by the current state budget, a task force member may be repaid for their travel expenses to and from meetings if money is available and in accordance with the HHS Travel Policy.

If you would like to apply to serve on the task force, please complete and return the attached application by Aug. 30. HHSC prefers that you submit your application electronically, but you may submit the application by email, mail or fax at these addresses:

HHSC will notify applicants if they have been selected to serve as a member of the Sickle Cell Task Force.

In selecting members to serve on the task force, HHSC considers the applicants' qualifications, background and interest in serving on the task force. HHSC tries to choose committee members who represent the diversity of all Texans. For that reason, HHSC considers applicants' ethnicity, gender and geographic location.
