

Zika Testing Information and Resources

Testing Information

Zika testing is a Medicaid and CHIP benefit. Medicaid providers should refer to the DSHS Zika testing guidelines on TexasZika.org to determine if Zika testing is appropriate for their clients. Providers may bill Zika virus testing using procedure codes 86794 and 87662, as noted in the Texas Medicaid Provider Procedures Manual (TMPPM).

- TMPPM: Volume 2 Radiology and Laboratory Services Handbook
 - ▶ Section 2.2.13.1 Zika Virus Testing
 - ▶ Testing is not a benefit of the Healthy Texas Women Program

Covered Products

- Texas Vendor Drug Program Formulary Product Search
- Click the “Mosquito Repellent” filter and search products for a list of repellants

Additional Resources

- TexasZika.org
 - ▶ Texas Department of State Health Services site includes excellent, up-to-date resources for healthcare professionals and consumers includes informational materials, which providers may order at no cost
- cdc.gov/zika/

Revised Oct. 25, 2021